

Has become an

Seeker of the Sleeping Fist

Overview

When an Acolyte has studied at the monastery for a year, they may seek to advance to the rank of seeker by undergoing a series of trials. Should the acolyte fail, then they have not learned the philosophy of the sleeping fist and must spend a further year in study and training.

Once a monk has advanced to the status of seeker they leave the monastery and travel throughout Perrenland and the Flanaess in search of enlightenment and the answer to one of the great questions of the universe. The monk returns to the monastery periodically to teach and support the Sleeping Fists.
