Nazi Identified in Rosetta

By Jackson Green

Rosetta, Texas-A local Rosetta man found dead in his home last week has been identified as a Nazi Officer who perpetrated many experiments and crimes against humanity during the Holocaust. Authorities were surprised to find Nazi documents and paraphernalia in a secret room of the home of Frank Manz. Papers found in the home were sent to Bonn, Germany for verification. This information allowed the police to identify the man's true identity to be that of Dr. Franz Heimglimmer. Dr. Heimglimmer is a former member of Germany's Nazi party, who escaped the allies in 1945.

Lead Detective Hector Martin refused to discuss the case, but did state that the paraphernalia originated from a large concentration camp in Poland named Bergenvalden. Dr. Heimglimmer worked at the camp serving with the camp's medical staff. He is purported to have been a protégé of Dr. Mengler, one of the most infamous of Nazi doctors. Heimglimmer is alleged to have participated in various Nazi experiments on children, the invalid, and the insane. Dr. Heimglimmer was last seen in Germany, shortly after the Nazis surrendered. He managed to elude capture, fleeing to South America. The US Secret Service has been advised of the case and is conducting an investigation on how this Nazi Doctor could have entered the US and lived undiscovered for over fifty years.

Dr. Irwin Revinowitz, a member of the Rosetta Medical Examiner's Office, examined the corpse and the preliminary autopsy suggests that Dr. Heimglimmer died of natural causes, relating to the hardening of the arteries. A startling mystery regarding the corpse is that it had been partially mummified. Dr. Revinowitz stated that he had "no explanation for the mummification of the body, but a more detailed autopsy will be conducted."

Neighbors regarded Mr. Manz as the "quiet sort." One neighbor stated that Mr. Manz often "worked in his yard and was a nice enough old man." They also said that he often played with the neighborhood children and gave out the most candy during Halloween. No one in this upscale neighborhood suspected Mr.

Manz's horrid past.

Sources close to the investigation revealed some interesting facts regarding finds in the Heimglimmer home. Documents and photographs found in the home link Dr. Heimglimmer to the secretive Birkhuhn, or the "Black Guard". Before being assigned to Bergenvalden,

Dr. Heimglimmer worked with this unit of the Gestapo, which specialized in the occult. Several artifacts were found inside the house. These include a large golden Star of David that dates back to the 12th Century AD, and organ urns (Canoptic Jars) believed to have originated from ancient Egypt.

Israeli authorities have requested permission to join the investigation. Dr. Heimglimmer's part in the Holocaust is of great interest to Jews all over the world. Many of these people seek information and possessions regarding loved one's that were lost during that disastrous page of world history.

Truck-Sized Catfish Reported

By Jackson Green

Lake Graystone, Texas-Recent dives to repair the forty-year-old dam have spread reports throughout East Texas of giant catfish. The divers claim these fish live in the deep waters just north of the dam and they are large enough to swallow a full-grown man.

Several underwater welding teams have ventured into the murky lake waters. Earl Scroggins, a senior diver for ArcLite Construction, stated that "They (the catfish) are down near the bottom and only when you dive that far down do you come face to face with 'em."

Earl went on to say that, "If those were catfish, they must be some sort of prehistoric kind! One swam up to me and his whole head was taller than me!" Earl reported that he surfaced as quickly as he could and called up his entire team.

"It could have been dangerous. One swallow and any of us would have been goners." Earl and several members of his crew have refused to continue work on the dam. If ArcLite does not find new divers they may lose the contract. The repairs are scheduled for completion by the end of the month.

A local game warden, Captain Jim Miller, does not believe in the tall fish tales. He stated that, "There have always been these urban legends about those catfish, but none have ever been proven. There's no photographs or bodies of these fish."

Captain Miller also stated that "There are large flathead catfish and some may be up to twelve feet...long. But none have ever been found that match the description of these so-called man-eaters."

The dam is suffering from foundation problems and several of the antiquated engines require replacement. The state has authorized a $250,000 spending program to get the dam back into compliance with the Federal laws governing the operation of hydroelectric power dams.

Last Rites

The Nazis left their cruel mark on the world more than 50 years ago, and some of those wounds still bleed. Hitler and other high-ranking Nazis were enamored by the idea of using the Occult in their attempt at world domination. In their quest for power, horrific experiments were conducted on Jews, Gypsies, Homosexuals, the infirmed, and the physically and mentally disabled. Many of these experiments were done on helpless children, whose innocence was consumed in a furnace of pain and humiliation. With the defeat of the Nazis and the freeing of the experiments' survivors, humanity thought that their evil would never rise again.

They were wrong.
