The Day of Mothers

The Sterling Vermin Adventuring Co. is happy to celebrate Mother's Day with the following spells intended for making reproductive choices and simplifying child rearing through arcane magic. Happy Mother's Day!

Arcane Nursery
1st-level evocation (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 minute
Range: 30 feet
Components: S, V, M (a doll worth 10 or more gp)
Duration: 8 hours
Class: Bard, WIzard

Choose a creature who has not yet reached pubescence and is within range. This spell creates a warded area around the creature that attacks and other creatures cannot pass through. While inside the warded area the creature is doted upon by a spirit who provides the creature with food, milk, cleaning, and nurturing attention.

Dalliance
Transmutation cantrip

Casting Time: 1 Reaction
Range: Self
Components: M (a very tiny hat)
Duration: Instantaneous
Class: Bard

At the moment when you might conceive a child you can cast this spell as a reaction to ensure that you do not conceive a child.

Fertility Rite
1st-level transmutation (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 minute
Range: Touch
Components: S, M (fresh flowers, fruits, and vegetables worth a total of 100 gp)
Duration: 24 hours
Class: Druid

When you touch a creature and cast this spell all attempts the affected creature makes to conceive before the duration of this spell elapses are successful. Any children born as a result of this spell gain +1 to an ability score of the affected creature's choice.

Maternal Ward
1st-level abjuration (ritual)

Casting Time: 1 hour
Range: Touch
Components: S, M (a bit of bear fur and an iron orb worth 10 gp that is destroyed by this spell)
Duration: Until the creature gives birth
Class: Cleric, Druid

When you touch a creature that is pregnant that pregnancy cannot fail or be terminated without the creature's consent. Additionally, any poisons or diseases that affect the creature while it is under the effects of this spell do not affect the gestating offspring.
