

ADVENTURE SIDEKICKS

LOST MINE OF PHANDELVER

INTRODUCTION

Do you want to run or play Lost Mine of Phandelver but you only have two or three people in your gaming group? Do you want an easy way to track and level up NPCs and beasts that join the adventure? Do you want to reintroduce allies later in your Phandalin campaign but aren't sure how to scale their power level? If you answered yes to any of these questions, then this supplement is for you.

ADVENTURE SIDEKICKS

"Adventure Sidekicks: Lost Mine of Phandelver" is the tenth volume in an ongoing series that supplies sidekicks based on the major NPCs and potential allies of each of the DUNGEONS & DRAGONS adventures. On your adventure, the DM might reveal that you've befriended an NPC or other creature that then joins your party as a sidekick. It's up to you and the DM to decide who controls the sidekick in play.

SIDEKICK STAT BLOCKS

A sidekick's game statistics are presented in a box called a stat block, which is essentially a miniature character sheet. A stat block contains things like ability scores and hit points, as well as the actions a sidekick is most likely to take in combat. Like any character, a sidekick can use the action options in the combat rules.

For more information on stat blocks, see the introduction of the Monster Manual.

SIDEKICK LEVEL

Your DM will inform you at which level your sidekick starts, usually equal to the average level of the party. As the heroes and their sidekick adventure together, the sidekick gains experience points and reaches new levels the same way a player character does, using the rules found in the Player's Handbook.

When a sidekick gains a level, look at the sidekick's progression table, and consult the new level's row, which shows the sidekick's new hit point maximum and features.

If the DM starts a sidekick at a level higher than 1st, use the hit point maximum for its level on the appropriate table on the pages that follow. Also, give the sidekick the features for its current level and any earlier levels on that table.

SIZE

Some sidekicks start as an adolescent version of the creature the sidekick was based on. To reflect this, these sidekicks start as one size and then, at some point in their progression table, grow enough to increase in size.

When size increases, the type of Hit Dice changes. Depending on the sidekick, other benefits may also come with a change in size.

PROFICIENCIES

A sidekick is proficient with any armor, weapons, and tools included in its stat block.

LANGUAGES

If there is a communication problem between the party and their sidekick, such as no shared language, the language barrier may still be overcome. The party must succeed on a Wisdom (Animal Handling) check, or the sidekick on a Wisdom (Insight) check, to make themselves understood.

On a success, the sidekick is able to understand the party well enough to comply with their request or get their general meaning. On a failure, the sidekick defends itself from hostile creatures and acts according to its own desires (as determined by the DM), but otherwise takes no actions.

The DM determines the DC of the skill check, using the following table as a guide.

Task	DC	Example
Very easy	5	"Heel" or "fetch"
Easy	10	"Get that out of your mouth!"
Moderate	15	"Find help in town"
Hard	20	"Heel, even if they hurt me"
Very hard	25	"Give this only to the blond elf"
Nearly impossible	30	"Attack every other gnome"

DARAN EDERMATH

This middle-aged half-elf has silver hair and is dressed in an immaculate but old soldier uniform. After a life of dedication to fighting evil, Daran decided to hang his sword belt and relax in the quiet Phandalin countryside. But the party may need him for one last adventure....

HOW TO INTRODUCE DARAN

Daran Edermath is a retired adventurer who lives in Phandalin. When the party arrives in town, he urges them to take care of the Redbrands, and as a sidekick, he can join the party to help them get rid of them and whatever else is threatening peace in this region.

Earlier than that, Daran can join the party during the goblin ambush. As the fight starts, he can join at the end of the first turn of combat. He was patrolling the woods around there and heard the commotion.

HOW TO ROLEPLAY DARAN

Daran used to be part of the Order of the Gauntlet, an organization that is dedicated to destroying evil in the world, and even though he is now retired, he still believes in their principles. After the first fight, he helps the party investigate the goblin hideout and also tells them about the Redbrands, asking for the party's help.

DARAN'S TACTICS

Being likely older (at least relatively speaking) than all the party members, he tries to be a mentor to them, willing to sacrifice his life to protect them. In combat, he is smart and tactical and uses his experience to advise the party.

OTHER ADVENTURES

Daran Edermath's stat block and progression table can be used with any adventure as an veteran adventurer sidekick.

DROOP

Droop is a small, meek goblin of the Cragmaw tribe. He dresses in ragged clothes and ill-fitting leather armor. A lifetime of bullying at the hands of his fellow goblinoids has made him shy and cowardly, but perhaps the party's arrival may change his life. Deep down, Droop wants to be a hero.

HOW TO INTRODUCE DROOP

Droop can be found in part 2: Phandalin, inside the Redbrand hideout. If rescued from the bugbears that are harassing him, he joins the party. Consider that Droop would have some information on the hideout if you decide to introduce him this way.

If you want to introduce Droop at the start of the adventure, you can place him in area 3 of the goblin hideout in part 1: Goblin Arrows; there he has been tied up next to the wolves as punishment for dropping a plate. If the party rescues him, he promises to fight the other goblins and musters the courage to become a hero.

Earlier than that in chapter 1, Droop may be encountered on the road right before the goblin ambush, where he warns the party of the ambush lying ahead. He is sick of working for the bad people and somehow mustered the courage to escape the tribe but now wants a chance of redemption. He sees the party's arrival as his chance to become a better goblin.

HOW TO ROLEPLAY DROOP

Smaller than average for a goblin, Droop wants to become braver and stronger, a hero that does good things for others. He grew up being bullied by the other goblins of the Cragmaw tribe and somehow ended up working for the Redbrands; it's time for him to become a better goblin.

Droop may start to take on personality traits of the party member he becomes attached to.

DROOP'S TACTICS

Droop is willing to put his own life on the line for others and always follows the party, bonding with one party member in particular. Depending on what abilities Droop gets, he behaves differently in combat, but always generously and selflessly.

PROFICIENCIES

Droop is proficient with the armor and weapons included in his stat block. In addition, he is proficient with simple weapons, shortswords, light armor, and medium armor.

OTHER ADVENTURES

Droop's stat block and progression table can be used with any adventure as an adventurer apprentice sidekick.

- 5 Everything smaller than me deserves to live and grow.
- 6 I am afraid of heights and stay as far away from ledges as possible.

REIDOTH

Reidoth is a wizened old man who resides near the ruined town of Thundertree in order to attempt to ward off those who wish to enter this location. Being a member of the Emerald Enclave, he is devoted to the balance between nature and civilization. He opposes threats to this balance and is strong in his opposition.

A short, lean, aged, somewhat smelly man, Reidoth wears thick hide armor.

WHERE TO FIND REIDOTH

Reidoth can be found in part 3: The Spider's Web in the Ruins of Thundertree section. He is a member of the Emerald Enclave and might overcome his reluctance and provide a smaller party with his companionship. Another option would be to have him join the party as a mentor figure in cases where a member of the party might decide to join the Emerald Enclave or in cases where Reidoth himself invites a member of the party to join the Enclave.

Reidoth could be introduced in part 2: Phandalin. In this case, he himself may be on a quest to get assistance to rid Thundertree of the dragon Venomfang. Or perhaps he may be recruiting for the Emerald Enclave and may take special note of certain members of the party.

Even earlier, Reidoth could be found in part 1: Goblin Ambush traveling the roads as the party does, or he may be in the area and hear the sounds of the goblin attack.

HOW TO ROLEPLAY REIDOTH

Reidoth is strong in his beliefs and puts them above the beliefs of others. However, he aids anyone who is willing to help him rid that town of the evil Venomfang.

Though he may be an old, smelly, dirty man, Reidoth is a wellspring of wisdom and knowledge. He often tells tales of his time traveling on more important missions for the Emerald Enclave. And while he has settled down into areas of lesser importance, he believes that anything he, or anyone else, does in the name of good is a change for the better.

REIDOTH'S TACTICS

Reidoth has a good deal of knowledge regarding the beasts and monsters native to the region. Whenever possible, Reidoth shares his knowledge with the party to help develop strategies. He gladly teaches others the tenets of the Emerald Enclave and accepts others into its ranks. In combat, he fights to defend others, but if the outlook is bleak, he suggests retreat. Should he confront creatures native to the woods, Reidoth avoids harming it if possible and instead attempts to frighten the creature away or requests the party move around the creature.

SILDAR HALLWINTER

Sildar Hallwinter is a human soldier serving the Lord's Alliance. He hails from the city of Waterdeep and was once a member of their prestigious griffon cavalry. He believes wholeheartedly in the ideals of the Lord's Alliance and has dedicated his life to bringing order and prosperity to the Sword Coast.

WHERE TO FIND SILDAR

Sildar can normally be found as a captive of the goblins in area 6 of Cragmaw Hideout. If you would like to have Sildar as a party member before entering the Cragmaw Hideout, have him escape the goblin ambush and double back to seek the aid of the party. If you would like the encounter in area 6 of the Cragmaw Hideout to still feature a prisoner, consider replacing Sildar with a villager from Phandalin.

HOW TO ROLEPLAY SILDAR

Sildar's overall goal is to bring law, order, and prosperity to Phandalin. His most immediate concern is investigating the fate of Iarno Albrek. Although Sildar happily accompanies the party in any pursuits that help the people of Phandalin, he urges the party to focus their efforts on his investigation.

Sildar is brave, sometimes to a fault. If the lives of others are at risk, Sildar is willing to put himself in grave danger. He believes in achieving his goals by the proper means and won't tolerate the party breaking the law or harming innocents.

SILDAR'S TACTICS

Sildar is an experienced soldier with a decent tactical knowledge. If asked for advice, he suggests measured, straightforward plans. Consider using Sildar as a way to introduce layers to tactical thinking. He might suggest spreading out to avoid area-of-effect attacks or focusing fire on powerful enemies. Sildar prefers disarming and capturing his foes whenever possible. He uses this opportunity to interrogate the foe for useful information and show mercy to those who cooperate.

OTHER ADVENTURES

Sildar's stat block and progression table can be used with any adventure as a lawman sidekick.

Superiority Dice. Sildar has three superiority dice, which are d8s. A superiority die is expended when used for a maneuver. He regains all expended superiority dice when he finishes a short or long rest.

Maneuver: Disarming Attack. When Sildar hits a creature with a weapon attack, he can expend one superiority die to attempt to disarm the target, forcing it to drop one item of his choice that it's holding. He adds the superiority die to the attack's damage roll, and the target must make a DC 12 Strength saving throw. On a failed save, it drops the chosen object. The object lands at its feet.

Maneuver: Precision Attack. When Sildar makes a weapon attack roll against a creature, he can expend one superiority die to add it to the roll. He can use this maneuver before or after making the attack roll, but before any effects of the attack are applied.

SISTER GARAELE

Sister Garaele is a scholarly young elven woman who lives in Phandalin. She is a worshipper of Tymora, the goddess of luck, and tends a local shrine to her. Beneath her bookish demeanor lies a fiery passion for the cause of the Harpers, which she devotes herself to with as much zeal as she does to her goddess.

She is sturdily built, with short cropped hair and wears vestments along with her chainmail armor.

HOW TO INTRODUCE SISTER GARAELE

Sister Garaele can normally be found as early as part 2: Phandalin. She is a great choice of traveling companion for characters who might be part of the Tymoran church or characters who might be interested in joining the Harpers.

If needed earlier, Garaele can be found during part 1: Goblin Ambush. She might be traveling the road herself and coincidentally come across the ambush location as the adventurers do. Or she may be searching around the area for healing supplies, and the adventurers find her while on the way to the goblins' hideout.

HOW TO ROLEPLAY SISTER GARAELE

Sister Garaele is a firm believer in the ideals of the Harpers. She wishes to help the poor and downtrodden fight their oppressors. Her current concern is her mission to retrieve information from the banshee Agatha about a spellbook. She happily aids the party if they agree to further her quest.

Sister Garaele has a deeply rooted suspicion of authority and refuses any task that goes against the Harpers' ideals. Although she keeps up a wise scholarly appearance, Sister Garaele is jolly and easygoing around friends and has a fondness for gambling and adventure.

SISTER GARAELE TACTIC'S

Sister Garaele is a priestess. She is nothing if not proper. Garaele is a scholarly and wise woman and is always willing to tell someone when they are wrong (or when she believes them to be wrong). This ideal of hers is both about morals and know-how. Despite her properness, she knows her way with a mace and won't hesitate to use it if it is what the situation requires.

Although not well-versed in combat she knows a good deal about Phandalin and the surrounding area.

Sister Garaele views risk-taking as a form of worship and gladly engages in risky strategies and foolhardy plans. Consider using this as a way of encouraging your players to have fun and experiment, or to warn them of how risky their plans are.

Sister Garaele's stat block and progression table can be used with any adventure as a priest of luck sidekick.

YEEMIK

Yeemik is a cunning and ambitious Cragmaw goblin and Klarg's second in command. He believes he deserves to rule the Cragmaws and is willing to cut as many throats as it takes to achieve his dream.

WHERE TO FIND YEEMIK

Yeemik can be found in area 6 of Cragmaw Hideout. If you would like to introduce Yeemik earlier, you can have him make his offer to the party at the hideout's entrance. You could also introduce Yeemik during the goblin ambush by having him turn on the other goblins in order to gain the party's trust.

HOW TO ROLEPLAY YEEMIK

Yeemik's goal is to rise up in the ranks of the Cragmaw tribe, first by taking Klarg's place as the leader of his raiders and eventually stealing King Grol's throne. He distrusts the Black Spider and sees him as a threat to his grab for power. Yeemik attempts to nudge the party towards actions that further his own schemes, but he begrudgingly follows along if it means keeping the party around.

YEEMIK'S TACTICS

Yeemik has no qualms about using underhanded tactics but dislikes getting his hands dirty. He avoids direct conflict whenever possible. Instead, he suggests using stealth, deceit, and trickery to accomplish the party's goals. Yeemik is a good way to get party members thinking about how they can either avoid combat or stack the odds greatly in their favor.

OTHER ADVENTURES

Yeemik's stat block and progression table can be used with any adventure as a goblin boss sidekick.

EVIL SIDEKICKS

Yeemik is listed as a neutral evil goblin in Lost Mine of Phandelver. If that alignment doesn't jive with your Phandalin campaign, you can quickly and easily change it.

On the other hand, sometimes it's helpful to have a person of few scruples on the party's side. They can be the one who gets their hands dirty so the party doesn't have to.

Alternatively, redemption arcs make for good roleplaying. Can you turn this goblin boss to good?

d6 Personality Trait

- 1 I might be enormous, but I'll still try to sit in your lap.
- 2 I growl menacingly if anyone I don't recognize approaches one of my friends.
- 3 My favorite pastime is running around, my tongue lolling out of my mouth.
- 4 I'm alpha wolf around here, but that just means I get the most belly scratches.
- 5 Do not confuse me with a dog. I am a feral anim— Is that a treat?!
- 6 To greet people, I jump on them, knock them down, and grab them by the scruff of their neck. Harmless, but hilarious.

Three wolves are confined in Cragmaw Hideout in part 1: Goblin Arrows. A character who tries to calm a wolf might earn its trust over time.
