A CATALOG OF THINGS

BY R. P. DAVIS

ARISTOBULUS'S USEFUL ITEMS

Being a listing of magical items of interest to the interested party who wishes to make his life more bearable in his own home.

DOMESTIC BLISS CAN BE YOURS!

Magic items are, in some worlds in this wondrous multiverse visited by your correspondent, plentiful. Plentiful such that they abound. Indeed, on some worlds physical shops exist wherein hardy souls may purchase magic items at whim.

I have seen many lists of such items. When one reads lists of magic items, one is astounded to learn that most if not all are if not weapons at least weaponized. Many are fell and dangerous, full of fury, useful only to a hardy soul who lives a life of constant danger and sacrifice.

One of my many sojourns into hitherto unknown planes and worlds led me to a place wherein the folk were not unlike us, but had marvelous, wondrous things which, to my examining eye, were magic items of great power. But to them the devices were of entirely of artifice, devoid of magic at all, instead being clockwork or powered by lightning. While some of these were artifacts of great might of use to adventurers, the majority of them – and the number I personally observed was vast – were merely designed to increase the comfort of the lives of their users.

Having returned hither after many trials, sore beset by tribulation, upon my recovery I purposed to devise a manner in which magic can be harnessed for peaceful, benign, domestic uses. My devices, listed hereunder, are the result of many years of putting into practice that arcane art I learned on that other word, called by them "research and development." I can therefore personally guarantee them to work as intended. We – my partners, apprentices, assistants, artificers, and I – think your life will be eased by their use. If not, please return them to Aristobulus's Artificers, at the sign of the Blue Slipper, Mhaer's Alley, Trade Ward, Waterdeep. You will be given a full refund.

USEFUL ITEMS

COZY SLIPPERS

These fine silk slippers will magically ensure your feet remain snug and comfortably warm even in the depths of the coldest winter. You'll be shocked that slippers this thin – really, they're like a second skin – can be this warm! 25gp

BROOM OF TIDYING

Speak the command word and the Broom will sweep even the toughest dirt from your cottage's floor! Put your feet up (in your Cozy Slippers!) and save time. 100gp

POULTICE OF POLISHING

Put this magic cream to work on your household silver! Simply wipe the paste onto your fine tableware and speak the command words, and you'll be ready for company in no time. One flask of the Poultrice is sufficient for a metal table setting for six. 10gp per flask

CHAMOIS OF SHINING

Magically smooth and bring to luster your fine woodwork, stone, leather, or ceramic household items! From your best boots to your boudoir mirror, the Chamois will bring out its inner beauty. Just drape the Chamois over the thing you want to shine and speak the command word. 25gp

ARISTOBULUS'S STITCHEROO

The device that started it all! Simply put this device on your table next to your clothes that need mending, and speak the command word. Your torn trousers will be good as new before you know it! 250gp

GARLIN'S GATHERER

The device which followed the Stitcheroo! After the first Stitcheroo prototype shot a box of pins onto the floor (don't worry, we've got that all sorted out!), we needed a way to magically gather those pesky pins back up. Second Apprentice Garlin came up with this whiz-bang device to do it – just speak the command word and specify what you want it to gather, and it'll magically collect every piece of that item into a heap next to the Gatherer. 125gp

ELYON'S EXTERMINATOR

Who hasn't had fly trouble? Aristobulus's apprentice Elyon sure did, so he created this Exterminator! Just point it at any small pest – like a fly, beetle, wasp, or the like, even a nest of ants – and speak the command word. Zap! Good riddance! 150gp

ARISTOBULUS'S SPICEROO

Everyone knows Aristobulus likes a good meal. Sometimes, though, it's not just right, and only needs a little of that special something to make it perfect. If you have a Spiceroo in your kitchen, you're set! Just hold it over the dish you wish to enhance, speak the command word along with the type of spice you want, and give it a shake. From allspice to za'atar, you'll have it in Aristobulus's Spiceroo! Each spied type requires one activation to invoke, and you'll need to reload it after 50 uses. Reload kits sold separately. 200gp

GNYMMET'S COLORIZER

Colors too dingy? Have your reds faded to pink? Just point Gnymmet's Colorizer at them! All you have to do is speak the command word and specify the color you want, and the Colorizer will do the rest. A full month's worth of long-lasting color for only 75gp

TONLAY'S SHOW IN A BOX

The life of a traveling bard is tough. Rough inns, jaded locals demanding popular but boring tunes. Aristobulus's old friend Tonlay asked for a whiz-bang device that any performer could use to take their act to the next level. When R&D was finished, they had this wondrous box. A sleek, wooden box, all the bard has to do is step on different areas to activate one of three different effects:

1. Colored lights. One or more globes of colored light spring into existence. Each activation brings forth two 6" diameter globes of random colors, which dance and swirl around the performer. The globes remain for one minute.
2. Mist. The immediate area of the box is filled with a foggy haze. Works best with the lights dancing through it.
3. Two-DeeLusion. An Aristobulus Exclusive! When the performer activates this effect, a two-dimensional illusion is cast on the wall or backdrop behind her. This illusion can be whatever she imagines or brings to mind when the Box is activated.

All of this entertainment for only 1000gp!? Only from Aristobulus!

FIRELIGHTER

Our most popular item by far! When you need to light your fire, a candle, or your pipe, just pull out this carved bone tube, speak the command word, and a small flame will jet from one end. Households from Lyrabar to New Sarshel rely on Firelighters to do the small jobs for them! 10gp

LOUDHAILER

Another early addition to the line, the Loudhailer is the easy, effortless way to get someone's attention. Just put this bone tube to your lips, concentrate on how loudly you want to whistle, and blow. That hansom cab that's all the way on the other side of the marketplace will surely come right over! 15gp

INSTANT FINDER OF THINGS

If you're like Aristobulus, you're always mislaying important small things. From your keys to your coin purse, sometimes your mind wanders, and you need a sure-fire way to put your hands on your stuff. Add an IFOT to your key ring, and you're set! Just hold out your hand with a flourish and speak the command word. Whatever the IFOT is attached to - provided it can fit in your outstretched hand - will instantly appear. 100gp

FEATHERS OF DUSTING

Fine, downy goose feathers set into a polished wooden handle, the Feathers are the perfect companion to the Broom of Tidying. The Feathers are also as simple to use. Simply give them a wave while you speak the command word, and the Feathers spring to life, removing all the fine dust and tiny particles of grime from your fine furniture. 50gp

LEDGER OF LEGERDEMAIN

If you run a shop, you keep detailed records. Make your accounting easier with the Ledger! The Ledger magically and automatically tallies up each column on each page, with a running total the bottom of each page and a grand total on the last page. Recommended by many tax authorities along the Sword Coast, including Waterdeep, because it doesn't lie. 250gp

CHILLINGSTICK

If you hate warm ale, you'll love the Chillingstick! Simply place the magical metal rod in your tankard and speak the command word. In seconds your drink will be at the perfect temperature. 10gp

ARISTOBULUS'S BAG O' GAGS

Make your next party a hilarious hit with the Bag o' Gags! Just put this cloth bag near the guest of honor's chair, start whispering magic words, and watch the fun. Effects include: Belch, blink, giggle, nod, sneeze, yawn, break wind. 200gp

Note: some adventurers thought to try the Bag o' Gags on their trip to a lair of spell casters, thinking the effects would break their enemies' concentration. It didn't. Only one of them survived to tell the tale. See our Disclaimer.

Note: Aristobulus's Artificers cannot be held liable for any social gaffes arising from the use of the Bag o' Gags. If your father kicks you out of the dwarf clan for turning his chair into a whoopee cushion, it's your responsibility. See our Disclaimer.

WAND OF OPENING

Jammed jars and troublesome containers are a trial. Reduce your effort with the Wand of Opening! Simply point the Wand and your recalcitrant receptacle and speak the command words. Wine bottles, jars of preserves, stubborn knots on parcels, as long as it's not padlocked or wizard locked, the Wand will open it in no time. 50gp

DIARY OF DISCRETION

Keeping a journal is an intensely personal affair. Protect your secrets with the Diary! The Diary is a leather-bound book with fine paper pages. The cover is fitted with a metal clasp. When the Diary is attuned to its owner, the clasp will only unlock when touched by its attuned owner. Moreover, if someone uses magic to defeat the clasp, they will find that whatever is written in the Diary can only be read by its attuned owner; any unauthorized reader will see only gibberish. 500gp

Note: The safeguards of the Dairy are not proof against more-powerful magic; therefore we cannot be liable for secrets lost from a Diary. See our Disclaimer.

KETTLE OF TEA MAKING

This simple yet elegant magic crock will bring one quart of room-temperature water to a boil in less than five minutes. For best results, use the Kettle with our Warmingstick to keep your tea piping hot for hours. 75gp

SELF-CLEANING CHAMBERPOT

Let's face it - dealing with a chamberpot is nobody's idea of a lovely job first thing in the morning. Plus, getting the contents of a chamberpot dumped on your hat as you're walking down the street is decidedly unpleasant. How much nicer would it be for householders and pedestrians alike if every household had a Self-cleaning Chamberpot? Comes with its own cabinet of easement, complete with comfortable padded seat. When you close the lid after easing your distress, your leavings are magically whisked away, leaving no mess, no odors, and no need to clean it. 500gp

EVERLASTING BOG ROLL

Developed to accompany the Chamberpot, if you keep a Roll beside your cabinet of easement you need never worry about running short of sanitary paper ever again! Provides enough soft, cushiony paper for four human-sized beings to enjoy three trips to the chamberpot per day, so if you think you'll need more, get two; at these prices you'd be mad not to. 25gp

Also makes great tinder for your fireplace or hearth!

RING AGAINST THIEVERY

After losing one too many coin pouches to pickpockets last Shieldmeet, Aristobulus set to work devising a simple way to secure his valuables. Now, with the Ring, you too can protect yourself!

While awake, wearing, and attuned to the Ring, whenever someone tries to cut your purse or pick your pocket the Ring will alert you by a sharp pinch on the finger on which you wear the Ring. This will afford ample opportunity to confront your assailant and defend your property. 375gp
