Please note this adventure assumes the players have access to the core Fifth Edition books or the 5e Basic Rules found at <http://dnd.wizards.com/articles/features/basicrules>.

Welcome adventurous dogs! You are all members of the League of Canine Adventurers, a noble and proud organisation that works to aid the two-legs in their quests to make the World a better place.

You have gathered to review a well chewed journal given to you by an elderly dog called Indy. It tells of an ancient magical artefact, the Golden Whistle of Calling, which can call forth the mighty Bark of Power, lost for generations and said to give dogs who hear it incredible gifts to help them in their noble missions.

Thought lost, it is now your quest to seek the Whistle and restore the power of the Lost Bark, so that dogs everywhere can be empowered to aid their friends and families in the world.

You are gathered in an old, half abandoned graveyard, in the dead of night, outside the Mausoleum mentioned in the journal. Its stone walls are carved with the growling faces of fierce dogs and each corner is decorated with a canine gargoyle growling into the night. The door sits slightly ajar and a strange mist curls out from within...

Encounter 1: The guardian at the grave

Inside the Mausoleum you find an earth floor trimmed with stone edging. The walls are further decorated with canine frescos and upon one wall, a pictogram shows three dogs, heads tilted back, with a fourth dog surrounded by lines of energy floating in front of them.

The walls of the chamber are dominated by a carving of three dogs, heads flung back, howling at the sky. Before them, a fourth dog seems to be appearing from the clouds, carried on waves of energy.

The floor has three large mounds of earth arranged in a rough triangle.

DM Note: If the dogs explore the earth mounds before howling together, they will reveal piles of mouldering (and tasty!) bones, but these will do nothing until the Guardian Spirit is summoned.

Puzzle- Summon the Guardian Spirit to start the quest. (Allow Arcana/ Investigation check DC 12 to notice the howling dogs image seems important.)

Solution- At least three dogs must howl in unison to summon the spirit guide.

If they summon the spirit before disturbing the mounds of earth, read the following:

"As the last notes of your howl die away the mist on the floor starts to be sucked into the centre and begins to emit a faint glow, the mist takes on the form of a dog standing proudly"

"You have summoned me and so have taken the first step upon a noble quest, but are you worthy to blow the Golden Whistle?"

We shall see... First however you must survive!"

As the guardian finishes speaking, it flicks its tail and the mist swirls aside to reveal bones, moving under mystic control! They swirl together into the centre of the chamber, and assemble themselves into a strange form. The new creature flexes its claws then turns its burning red eye sockets upon you!

Fighting the Guardian

The Guardian can be defeated through weight of damage alone.. If any dogs decide to steal bones from the Guardian to bring it down in a more delicious way, a successful bite attack will allow DC 14 Strength check to pull away a limb bone!

- Arm- Guardian has disadvantage on attacks
- Both arms- Guardian can only Slam once per turn
- Leg- Guardian has half movement and disadvantage on Dex checks
- Both legs- the Guardian cannot move from its current location

After the Bone Guardian is defeated, the Guardian Spirit speaks once more...

You have survived my Guard, now follow that which cannot be seen.

And a glowing paw opens a secret chamber on the far wall, from which comes a scrap of old blanket. The dogs can immediately detect strong smells impregnated into the cloth, undetectable to a non-canine nose. A clue!

Encounter 1: The guardian at the grave

Encounter 2: A Scent on the breeze

The strange dog has given you a clue- a well chewed piece of blanket which hides a secret! Your keen noses detect several strong scents emanating from its threadbare fibres...

The cloth holds the smell of the following things:

- Coal and Iron - Blacksmith
- Meat and Salt - Butchers
- Cinnamon and Flour - Bakers

Each of these scents hangs in the air, as detectable to your noses as a cloud of colored smoke would be to an elf or dwarf.

There are several places in the city that have each of these smells but only the trade square has all of them in the same place. Feel free to improvise other shops and locations the dogs may choose to explore first. Allow them to make Perception checks at DC 14 to follow the smells into the City. 2 or 3 successful checks should have them arrive at the trade square.

You arrive at the main trade square, now quiet at this time of night. The only sound is the breeze and the scurrying of rats picking over the day's leavings. At the centre of the square is the statue of Gourmand, a hero in these parts and his wolfhound companion, Sabot.

The square is surrounded by shop fronts, and market stalls which now lie empty. The area is crossed with many scents which make tracking difficult- the dogs may wish to work in pairs to Aid each other (advantage on Investigation checks).

A Perception Check at DC 15 reveals a scent trail to the statue in the middle of the square. Investigating the statue (Investigation DC 15) will reveal a hidden button on the collar of Sabot which opens a secret chamber on the statue!

Investigation DC15 Check to discover the hidden button on the statue's collar that will open Sabot's mouth to reveal the Golden Whistle.

The button clicks in and the Jaws of Sabot open wide, revealing a glinting metal object within. There, shimmering in the moonlight is the fabled Golden Whistle, long thought lost. As you reverently reach for it, there is a sudden sound of scurrying, beginning quietly but quickly reaching a crescendo. Before you can act, rats swarm from every direction, chattering triumphantly! This tide of vermin sweeps over you biting and scratching, and is gone into the sewers as quickly as it appeared. And, you realise with horror, the Whistle is gone with them!

Encounter 3: Many eyes, Many feet

The dark, dank sewers swim with evil smelling liquid and bubbling nastiness. As you enter its depths the stone floor and walls are slimy and the air is thick and heavy. Your ears can make out the sound of the rat swarm as it scurries away into the tunnels!

The rats have eluded the dogs in the maze of tunnels under the city! The group must make three successful DC 12 Perception or Investigation checks to track the rats. The dogs have Advantage on these tests as they are tracking a smell.

Each test they fail, they are lured into a dead end or away from the rat group! This will affect their next encounter!

Eventually you reach a section where the sewer floor has collapsed into an older undersewer below. Strange markings have been scratched into the walls. The rats hiss and snap at you all as you draw close then attack in a tide of tooth and claw!

The rats have fled into a section of sewer partially collapsed and blocked by rubble. Most of the rats flee but some form into swarms to prevent the dogs from continuing.

- If the dogs tracked the rats with no failed checks, they face two swarms of rats and have a surprise round.
- If they failed one or two checks, they do not have a surprise round
- If they failed three or more checks, the rats have a surprise round!

The drop into the tunnel below is shallow and rubble filled, so is not hazardous and may be moved freely up and down. Once the rats are defeated, the dogs may pick their way over the rubble into the passage beyond.

Encounter 4: Conclave of Rodents

The party track their way to the rats' lair and must force their way into the chamber and battle the Conclave of Rodents for the Whistle.

Ahead, you see the tunnel opens into a larger, circular chamber that drops away in stepped tiers. The sounds of chittering and chanting can be heard coming from the entrance and a sickly green luminous glow comes from within. The smell of rats, water and corruption is very strong...

The chamber itself is filled with rats. A large pool of green water lies at the centre with three water channels feeding fetid liquid into it.

A particularly large rat holds the whistle as the party enter. He turns it in his claws greedily and rubs it against his face. As soon as he is aware of the dogs, he cries out!

"Attack, my children! They must not get the shiny!"

The rats gather into rat swarms (6, or 2 per party member if the party is smaller than four dogs) arrayed around the leader. In addition, a monstrous giant rat hides in the water and will rise up to battle the group on its turn in the first round of combat.

The rat swarm will attack unless the leader is slain at which point they will flee leaving the Monstrous rat to fight on.

Encounter 4: Conclave of Rodents

Encounter 5: Celebration

The party are victorious and the golden whistle is now theirs.

With the rat fiend slain, the Whistle is yours once more. The Guardian Hound appears to you again and nods approvingly...

If a dog blows the whistle, a great spectral dog appears to them. It tips its head back and unleashes a deafening, spirit lifting bark that echoes around the chamber.

Any dog that hears the Bark receives the effects of Beacon of Hope and Bless for one hour. In addition, the Bark acts like a level 3 Cleric using Channel Divinity: Turn Undead.

With the blessing of the Lost Bark and the Guardian Hound upon you, and the rat conclave defeated, your minds turn to the future. Gathering the various treasures secreted around the room, you discover enough coin for new equipment, hot food, a warm fire and a comfy place to curl up for the night. Tonight is a night for belly rubs and biscuits. Tomorrow, you can set out to greet whatever fresh challenges await you.

C Cornelius

Fire Bolt

You hurl a mote of fire at a creature or object within range. Make a ranged spell attack against the target. On a hit, the target takes 1d10 fire damage.

A flammable object hit by this spell ignites if it isn't being worn or carried.

C Cornelius

Message

You point your finger toward a creature within 120 feet and whisper a message.

The target (and only the target) hears the message and can reply in a whisper that only you can hear.

You can cast this spell through solid objects if you are familiar with the target and know it is beyond the barrier.

C Cornelius

Mage Hand

A spectral, floating hand appears at a point you choose within range. The hand vanishes if it is ever more than 30 feet away from you. You can use your action to control the hand. You can use the hand to manipulate an object, open an unlocked door or container, stow or retrieve an item from an open container, or pour the contents out of a vial. You can move the hand up to 30 feet each time you use it.

1 Cornelius

Magic Missile

You create three glowing darts of magical force. Each dart hits a creature of your choice that you can see within range. A dart deals 1d4 + 1 force damage to its target. The darts all strike simultaneously and you can direct them to hit one creature or several.

1 Cornelius

Burning Hands

As you hold your hands with thumbs touching and fingers spread, a thin sheet of flames shoots forth from your outstretched fingertips. Each creature in a 15-foot cone must make a Dexterity saving throw. A creature takes 3d6 fire damage on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one.

The fire ignites any flammable objects in the area that aren't being worn or carried.

2 Cornelius

Dragon's Breath

You touch one willing creature and imbue it with the power to spew magical energy from its mouth. Choose acid, cold, fire, lightning, or poison. For a minute, the creature can use an action to breathe in a 15-foot cone. Each creature in that area must make a Dexterity saving throw, taking 3d6 damage of the chosen type on a failed save, or half as much damage on a successful one.

2 Cornelius

Scorching Ray

You create three rays of fire and hurl them at targets within 120 feet. You can choose one target or several. Make a ranged spell attack for each ray.

On a hit the target takes 2d6 Fire damage.

PROFICIENCIES & LANGUAGES

Frenzied Fighting • 1 / Long Rest
You are adept at the frantic combination of barking, scratching, biting and general chaos that typifies some dogs when they are enraged. Once per long rest, you may cause each creature in a 15-foot cube originating from you to make a Constitution saving throw. On a failed save, a creature takes 2d8 damage and is pushed 10 feet away from you. On a successful save, the creature takes half as much damage and isn't pushed.

=== BONUS ACTIONS ===
Cunning Action
You can take a bonus action on each of your turns to take the Dash, Disengage, or Hide action.

=== SPECIAL ===
Sneak Attack
Once per turn, you can deal an extra 2d6 damage to a target that doesn't know you are there or who is engaged by an ally.
