COMPREHENSION OF THE EPON STONE

Although your divination has allowed you to read the Epon Stone (it reads: "Go away! I do not accept visitors!"), something happened when you touched the stone. You feel as if something reached back into your mind. You now have a memory of trees, a village of stick huts, a wife and a son, and you know they're not yours.

OUTLAWED IN EK'KASEL

You are wanted for the murder of Kasite military officials. The penalty for this is death. Any time you are in a Kasite town or city or when encountering a Kasite patrol, you risk being recognized. A roll of a 1 on a d10 means you have been recognized (with a Disguise check (DC 16) this changes to a 1 on a d20). The player is arrested, tried and executed. Remove the character from the campaign.
