SUMMONER

Core Deities: None.

Other Deities: Trithereon.

Granted Power: Add +2 to your caster level for all Conjunction (summoning) or Conjunction (calling) spells.

Summoner Domain Spells

- 1 Summon Monster I: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 2 Summon Monster II: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 3 Summon Monster III: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 4 Lesser Planar Ally: Exchange services with an 8 HD outsider.
- 5 Summon Monster V: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 6 Planar Ally: As lesser planar ally, but up to 16 HD.
- 7 Summon Monster VII: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 8 Greater Planar Ally: As lesser planar ally, but up to 24 HD.
- 9 Gate: Connects two planes for travel or summoning.

WEATHER

Core Deities: Fharlanghn, Obad-Hai.

Other Deities: Geshtai.

Granted Power: Inclement weather has less of an effect on you.

Rain and snow don't penalize your Spot and Search checks. You can move through snow-covered and icy terrain at your normal movement.

Wind effects, whether natural or magical, affect you as if you were one size category larger.

Weather Domain Spells

- 1 Obscuring Mist: Fog surrounds you.
- 2 Gust of Wind: Blows away or knocks down smaller creatures.
- 3 Call Lightning: Calls down lightning bolts (3d6 per bolt) from sky.
- 4 Ice Storm: Hail deals 5d6 damage in cylinder 40 ft. across.

- 8 Whirlwind: Cyclone deals damage and can pick up creatures.
- 9 Whirlwind, Greater: As whirlwind, but larger and more destructive.

COMPLETE WARRIOR (3.5)

COURAGE

Deities: Valkar.

At the DM's option, this domain may also be available to the following deities from the Player's Handbook:

Heironeous, Yondalla.

Granted Power: You radiate an aura of courage that grants all allies within 10 feet (including yourself) a +4 morale bonus on saving throws against fear effects. This supernatural ability functions while you are conscious, but not if you are unconscious or dead.

Courage Domain Spells

- 1 Remove Fear: Suppresses fear or gives +4 on saves against fear for one subject + one per four levels.
- 2 Aid: +1 on attack rolls and saves against fear, 1d8 temporary hp +1/level (max. +10).
- 3 *Cloak of Bravery: You and your allies gain a bonus on saves against fear.
- 4 Heroism: Gives +2 bonus on attack rolls, saves, skill checks.

- 5 *Valiant Fury: +4 Str, Con; +2 Will saves; extra attack; cures 1d8 hp +1/level (max. +20).
- 6 Heroes' Feast: Food for one creature/level cures and grants combat bonuses.
- 7 Heroism, Greater: Gives +4 bonus on attack rolls, saves, skill checks; immunity to fear; temporary hp.
- 8 *Lion's Roar: Deals 1d8 points of damage per two levels to enemies; allies get +1 on attacks and saves against fear, plus temporary hp.
- 9 *Cloak of Bravery, Greater: You and your allies become immune to fear and get +2 bonus on attacks.
- * New spell described later in this chapter.

FATE

Deities: Lyris.

At the DM's option, this domain may also be available to the following deities from the Player's Handbook: Nerull, Obad-Hai.

Granted Power: You gain the uncanny dodge ability, allowing you to retain your Dexterity bonus to AC (if any) even if caught flat-footed or struck by an invisible attacker. However, you still lose your Dexterity bonus to AC if immobilized.

If you have another class that gives you uncanny dodge, your cleric levels add to that class's level for determining when you gain the improved uncanny dodge class feature (see page 26 of the Player's Handbook).

Fate Domain Spells

- 1 True Strike: +20 on your next attack roll.
- 2 Augury: Learns whether an action will be good or bad.
- 3 Bestow Curse: -6 to an ability score; -4 on attack rolls, saves, and checks; or 50% chance of losing each action.
- 4 Status: Monitors condition, position of allies.
- 5 Mark of Justice: Designates action that will trigger curse on subject.
- 6 Geas/Quest: As lesser geas, plus it affects any creature.
- 7 Vision: As legend lore, but quicker and strenuous.
- 8 Mind Blank: Subject is immune to mental/emotional magic and scrying.
- 9 Foresight: "Sixth sense" warns of impending danger.

NOBILITY

Deities: Altua.

At the DM's option, this domain may also be available to the following deities from the Player's Handbook: Heironeous, Pelor.

Granted Power: You have the spell-like ability to inspire allies, giving them a +2 morale bonus on saving throws, attack and damage rolls, ability checks, and skill checks. Allies must be able to hear you speak for 1 round.

Using this ability is a standard action.

It lasts a number of rounds equal to your Charisma bonus and can be used once per day.

Nobility Domain Spells

- 1 Divine Favor: You gain +1 per three levels on attack and damage rolls.
- 2 Entrhall: Captivates all within 100 ft. + 10 ft./level.
- 3 Magic Vestment: Armor or shield gains +1 enhancement per four levels.
- 4 Discern Lies: Reveals deliberate falsehoods.

- 5 Command, Greater: As command, but affects one subject/level.
- 6 Geas/Quest: As lesser geas, plus it affects any creature.
- 7 Repulsion: Creatures can't approach you.
- 8 Demand: As sending, plus you can send suggestion.
- 9 Storm of Vengeance: Storm rains acid, lightning, and hail.

PLANNING

Deities: Halmyr.

At the DM's option, this domain may also be available to the following deities from the Player's Handbook: Boccob, Vecna, Wee Jas.

Granted Power: You gain Extend Spell as a bonus feat.

Planning Domain Spells

- 1 Deathwatch: Reveals how near death subjects within 30 ft. are.
- 2 Augury: Learns whether an action will be good or bad.
- 3 Clairaudience/Clairvoyance: Hear or see at a distance for 1 min./level.
- 4 Status: Monitors condition, position of allies.
- 5 Detect Scrying: Alerts you to magical eavesdropping.
- 6 Heroes' Feast: Food for one creature/level cures and grants combat bonuses.
- 7 Scrying, Greater: As scrying, but faster and longer.
- 8 Discern Location: Reveals exact location of creature or object.
- 9 Time Stop: You act freely for 1d4+1 rounds.

TYRANNY

Deities: Typhos.

At the DM's option, this domain may also be available to the following deities from the Player's Handbook: Hextor, Vecna, Wee Jas.

Granted Power: Add +1 to the save DC of any compulsion spell you cast.

Tyranny Domain Spells

- 1 Command: One subject obeys selected command for 1 round.
- 2 Entrhall: Captivates all within 100 ft. + 10 ft./level.
- 3 Discern Lies: Reveals deliberate falsehoods.
- 4 Fear: Subjects within cone flee for 1 round/level.
- 5 Command, Greater: As command, but affects one subject/level.
- 6 Geas/Quest: As lesser geas, plus it affects any creature.
- 7 Bigby's Grasping Hand: Hand provides cover, pushes, or grapples.
- 8 Charm Monster, Mass: As charm monster, but all within 30 ft.
- 9 Dominate Monster: As dominate person, but any creature.

DEFENDERS OF THE FAITH (3.0)

Granted Power Note

The Divination domain grants a character the ability to cast divination spells at +2 caster levels instead of the more usual +1. Similarly, the Creation domain grants a +2 caster levels benefit for the casting of spells from the creation subschool. In each case, the spells in question tend to be less immediately useful in a conflict, and the total number of such spells tends to be smaller than those for similar granted powers from Chapter 11 of the Player's Handbook.

BEASTMASTER

Deities: Ehlonna, Obad-Hai.

Granted Power: Speak with animals once per day per level as the spell.

This is a supernatural ability.

Beastmaster Domain Spells

- 1 Animal Friendship: Gains permanent animal companions.
- 2 Beastmask: Animals and beasts think subject is one of them.
- 3 Animal Trance: Fascinates 2d6 HD of animals.
- 4 Bear's Heart: One ally/level +4 Strength and +1d4/level hit points.
- 5 Animal Growth: One animal/2 levels doubles in size.
- 6 Summon Nature's Ally III: Calls creatures to fight.
- 7 Animal Shapes: One ally/level polymorphs into chosen animal.
- 8 Summon Nature's Ally IV: Calls creatures to fight.
- 9 Shapechange: Transforms you into any creature, and change forms once per round.

CELERITY

Deities: Fharlanghn, Olidammara.

Granted Power: +2 enhancement bonus to Dexterity, speed increased +10 ft. when in light armor, +2 enhancement bonus on initiative.

These are supernatural abilities.

Celerity Domain Spells

- 1 Blur: Attacks miss subject 20% of the time.
- 2 Cat's Grace: Subject gains 1d4+1 Dex for 1 hr./level.
- 3 Air Walk: Subject treads on air as if solid (climb at 45-degree angle).
- 4 Haste: Extra partial action and +4 AC.
- 5 Tree Stride: Step from one tree to another far away.
- 6 Wind Walk: You and your allies turn vaporous and travel fast.
- 7 Mass Haste: As haste, affects 1/level subjects.
- 8 Blink: You randomly vanish and reappear for 1 round/level.
- 9 Time Stop: You act freely for 1d4+1 rounds.

COMMUNITY

Deities: Corellon Larethian, Garl Glittergold, Pelor, St. Cuthbert, Yondalla.

Granted Power: Use calm emotions as a spell-like ability once per day.

Gain +2 bonus on Diplomacy checks.

Community Domain Spells

- 1 Bless: Allies gain +1 attack and +1 on saves against fear.
- 2 Shield Other: You take half of subject's damage.
- 3 Prayer: Allies gain +1 on most rolls, and enemies suffer -1.
- 4 Status: Monitors condition, position of allies.
- 5 Rary's Telepathic Bond: Link lets allies communicate.
- 6 Heroes' Feast: Food for 1 creature/level, cures and blesses.
- 7 Refuge: Alters item to transport its possessor to you.
- 8 Mass Heal: As heal, but with several subjects.
- 9 Miracle: Requests a deity's intercession.

CREATION

Deities: Corellon Larethian, Garl Glittergold, Moradin, Obad-Hai, Pelor, Vecna, Yondalla.

Granted Power: Cast Conjunction (creation) spells at +2 caster levels.

Creation Domain Spells

- 1 Create Water: Creates 2 gallons/level of pure water.
- 2 Minor Image: Creates aural and visual illusion of your design.
- 3 Create Food and Water: Feeds three humans (or one horse)/level.
- 4 Minor Creation: Creates one cloth or wood object.
- 5 Major Creation: As minor creation, plus stone and metal.
- 6 Heroes' Feast: Food for 1 creature/level, cures and blesses.
- 7 Permanent Image: Includes sight, sound, and smell.
- 8 True Creation: As major creation, but permanent.
- 9 Genesis: Creates a pocket demiplane.

DIVINATION

Deities: Boccob, Obad-Hai, Pelor, Vecna.

- 3 Suggestion: Compels subject to follow stated course of action.
- 4 Dominant Person: Controls humanoid telepathically.
- 5 Greater Command: As command, but affects one subject/level.
- 6 Geas/Quest: As lesser geas, but affects any creature.
- 7 Mass Suggestion: As suggestion, plus one/level subjects.
- 8 True Domination: As dominate person, but save at -4.
- 9 Monstrous Thrall: As dominate person, but permanent and affects any creature.

EXORCISM

Deities: Corellon Larethian, Heironeous, Kord, Moradin, Pelor.

Granted Power: You have the supernatural ability to force possessing spirits out of the bodies they inhabit. You make a Charisma check (1d20 + your Charisma modifier) and consult Table 8-16, page 140 of the Player's Handbook, using your prestige class level plus your cleric level, if any, plus your paladin level -2, if any. If the result from the table is at least equal to the HD of the possessing creature, you force it out of the body. If the spirit belongs to a spellcaster using magic jar, the spirit returns to the receptacle. If it is a ghost, it becomes ethereal and free-floating again. In any case, the spirit cannot attempt to possess the same victim again for one day.

Exorcism Domain Spells

- 1 Protection from Evil: +2 AC and saves, counter mind control, hedge out elementals and outsiders.
- 2 Magic Circle against Evil: As protection from evil, but 10-ft. radius and 10 min./level.
- 3 Remove Curse: Frees object or person from curse.
- 4 Dismissal: Forces a creature to return to native plane.
- 5 Dispel Evil: +4 bonus against attacks.
- 6 Banishment: Banishes 2 HD/level extraplanar creatures.
- 7 Holy Word: Kills, paralyzes, weakens, or dazes nongood subjects.
- 8 Holy Aura: +4 AC, +4 resistance, and SR 25 against evil spells.
- 9 Unbinding: Destroys binding spells within 180 ft.

GLORY

Deities: Heironeous, Pelor.

Granted Power: Turn undead with a +2 bonus on the turning check and +1d6 on the turning damage roll.

Glory Domain Spells

- 1 Disrupt Undead: Deals 1d6 damage to one undead.
- 2 Bless Weapon: Weapon gains +1 bonus.
- 3 Searing Light: Ray deals 1d8/2 levels, more against undead.
- 4 Holy Smite: Damages and blinds evil creatures.
- 5 Holy Sword: Weapon becomes +5, deals double damage against evil.
- 6 Bolt of Glory: Ray deals positive energy damage, more against undead and evil outsiders.
- 7 Sunbeam: Blinds and deals 3d6 damage.
- 8 Crown of Glory: Gain +4 Cha and enthralls subjects.
- 9 Gate: Connects two planes for travel or summoning.

INQUISITION

Deities: Heironeous, Moradin, St. Cuthbert.

Granted Power: Gain a +4 bonus on all dispel checks.

Inquisition Domain Spells

- 1 Detect Evil: Reveals creatures, spells, or objects.
- 2 Zone of Truth: Subjects within range can't lie.
- 3 Detect Thoughts: Allows "listening" to surface thoughts.

- 8 Holy Aura: +4 AC, +4 resistance, and SR 25 against evil spells.
- 9 Trap the Soul: Imprisons subject within gem.

MADNESS

Deity: Boccob, Erythnul, Vecna.

Granted Power: You gain an "Insanity score" equal to half your class level (add cleric levels to prestige class levels for this purpose).

For spellcasting (determining bonus spells and DCs), add this score to your Wisdom score and use the result in place of Wisdom alone.

For all other purposes, such as skill checks and saving throws, subtract this score from your Wisdom score and use the result in place of Wisdom alone.

This means that your spells are very difficult to resist, but you are in general unaware of your surroundings and act imprudently—often erratically.

Once per day, you can see and act with the clarity of true madness.

Use your Insanity score as a bonus on a single roll involving Wisdom, such as a Listen check or a Will saving throw.

Choose to use this power before the roll is made.

Madness Domain Spells

- 1 Random Action: One creature acts randomly for one round.
- 2 Touch of Madness: Dazes one creature for 1 round/level.
- 3 Rage: Gives +4 Str, +4 Con, +2 morale bonus on Will saves.
- 4 Confusion: Makes subject behave oddly for 1 round/level.
- 5 Bolts of Bedevilment: One ray/round, dazes 1d3 rounds.

- 6 Phantasmal Killer: Fearsome illusion kills one creature or deals 3d6 damage.
 7 Insanity: Subject suffers continuous confusion.
 8 Maddening Scream: Subject has -4 AC, no shield, Reflex save on 20 only.
 9 Weird: As phantasmal killer, but affects all within 30 ft.

MIND

Deities: Boccob, Vecna, Wee Jas.

Granted Power: Gain a +2 bonus on Bluff, Diplomacy, Innuendo, Read Lips, and Sense Motive checks. Gain a +2 bonus on Will saves against enchantment spells and effects.

Mind Domain Spells

- 1 Comprehend Languages: Understands all spoken and written languages.
- 2 Detect Thoughts: Allows "listening" to surface thoughts.
- 3 Lesser Telepathic Bond: Link with subject within 30 ft. for 10 min./level.
- 4 Discern Lies: Reveals deliberate falsehoods.
- 5 Rary's Telepathic Bond: Link lets allies communicate.
- 6 Probe Thoughts: Read subject's memories, one question/round.
- 7 Brain Spider: Eavesdrop on thoughts of up to eight other creatures.
- 8 Mind Blank: Subject is immune to mental/emotional magic and scrying.
- 9 Weird: Fearful illusion, affects all within 30 ft., either killing or dealing 3d6 damage.

MYSTICISM

Deities: Any good or evil deity.

Granted Power: You apply your Charisma modifier (if positive) as a bonus on all saving throws. If you already have this ability (for example, because you are a paladin), you add +1 to the bonus.

Mysticism Domain Spells

- 1 Divine Favor: You gain attack, damage bonus, +1/3 levels.
 - 2 Spiritual Weapon: Magical weapon attacks on its own.
 - 3 Lesser Aspect of the Deity: Your form becomes more like your deity's.
 - 4 Weapon of the Deity: +1 to your weapon's attack and damage, plus a special ability.
 - 5 Righteous Might: Your size increases, and you gain +4 Strength.
 - 6 Aspect of the Deity: As lesser aspect, but you get celestial or fiendish qualities.
 - 7 *Blasphemy/Holy Word: Kills, paralyzes, weakens, or dazes nonevil/nongood subjects.
 - 8 *Holy Aura/Unholy Aura: +4 AC, +4 resistance, and SR 25 against evil/good spells.
 - 9 Greater Aspect of the Deity: As lesser aspect, but gain wings, enhanced ability scores, and various resistances and immunities.
- * Choose one spell of those given, based on alignment, that is always your domain spell for this level.

PESTILENCE

Deities: Erythnul, Hextor, Nerull, Wee Jas.

Granted Power: Immunity to the effects of all diseases, though clerics with this power can still carry infectious diseases.

Pestilence Domain Spells

- 1 Doom: One subject suffers -2 on attacks, damage, saves, and checks.
- 2 Summon Monster II: Calls 1d3 fiendish dire rats to fight for you.
- 3 Contagion: Infects subject with chosen disease.
- 4 Poison: Touch deals 1d10 Con damage, repeats in 1 min.
- 5 Plague of Rats: Summons horde of diseased rats.
- 6 Curse of Lycanthropy: Causes temporary lycanthropy in subject.
- 7 Scourge: Inflicts a disease that must be magically cured, one subject/level.
- 8 Create Greater Undead: Creates one mummy from a corpse.
- 9 Otyugh Swarm: Creates 3d4 otyughs or 1d3+1 Huge otyughs.

SUMMONING

Deities: Any.

Granted Power: You cast any summon monster spell at twice your caster level, increasing the range and duration of the spell.

Summoning Domain Spells

- 1 Summon Monster I: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 2 Summon Monster II: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 3 Summon Monster III: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 4 Lesser Planar Ally: Exchange services with an 8 HD outsider.
- 5 Summon Monster V: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 6 Planar Ally: As lesser planar ally, but up to 16 HD.
- 7 Summon Monster VII: Calls outsider to fight for you.
- 8 Greater Planar Ally: As lesser planar ally, but up to 24 HD.
- 9 Gate: Connects two planes for travel or summoning.

MADNESS

Deities: (Olympian) Dionysus

Granted Power: You gain an Insanity score equal to half your class level (add cleric levels to prestige class levels for this purpose).

For spellcasting (determining bonus spells and DCs), you use your Wisdom score plus your Insanity score in place of Wisdom alone.

For all other purposes, such as skills and saves, use Wisdom minus Insanity in place of Wisdom.

This means that your spells are very difficult to resist, but you are in general unaware of your surroundings and act imprudently—often erratically.

Once per day, you can see and act with the clarity of true madness.

Use your Insanity score as a positive rather than a negative modifier on a single roll involving Wisdom, such as a Listen check or a Will saving throw.

Choose to use this power before the roll is made.

Madness Domain Spells

SAND

Deity: Zoser.

Granted Power: Once per day, you can shape a small amount of sand into any solid object you can imagine, up to 8 cubic feet in volume.

You can shape one object or several, up to a number equal to your Wisdom bonus, as long as the total volume does not exceed 8 cubic feet.

You must make a special Wisdom check (d20 + your Wis modifier + 1/2 your cleric level) against a DC determined by the size and complexity of the item.

The item to be created has a base DC of 5, plus the modifiers on the table below.

Item Complexity	Modifier
Fine details	+2
Functioning tool	+2
Functioning armor/weapon	+5
Multiple parts	+5
Masterwork version	+10
Moving parts	+10

Each attempt to create an item requires a number of minutes equal to its DC.

You can take 10 or take 20 on this check.

Created items persist for 1 minute per cleric level, and can only be solid objects.

The objects created have no magical properties, though they radiate faint transmutation magic.

All items created in this fashion have hardness 5 and hit points as follows: Fine 1, Diminutive 2, Tiny 3, Small 5, Medium 8, Large 10.

- 9 Whirlwind, Greater: As whirlwind, but larger and more destructive.

WRATH

Granted Power: Once per day, you can subtract a number of points from your Wisdom score equal to or less than your cleric level.

For every 2 points you subtract from your Wisdom score, add 1 point and add them to your Strength score.

You suffer all the effects of reduced Wisdom, including access to spells and bonus spells, reduction of Will saves, and penalties on Wisdom-based skills.

This trade between ability scores lasts for 1 round per cleric level and cannot be ended prematurely.

Wrath Domain Spells

- 1 Rhino's Rush: Next charge deals double damage.
- 2 Bull's Strength: Subject gains +4 Str for 1 minute/level.
- 3 Rage: Subjects gain +2 to Str and Con, +1 on Will saves, -2 to AC.
- 4 Shout: Deafens all within cone and deals 5d6 sonic damage.

- 1 *Quickswim: Your swim speed increases by 10 ft.
 - 2 *Fins to Feet: Transforms tails, tentacles, or finned extremities into humanoid legs and feet.
 - 3 *Scales of the Sealord: Add 10 ft. to swim speed or gain swim speed of 15 ft.; add natural armor bonus +1/3 levels.
 - 4 *Siren's Call: Compel one creature/2 levels to submerge itself.
 - 5 Commune with Nature: Learn about terrain for 1 mile/level.
 - 6 *Airy Water: Turn normal water into a breathable substance; negate underwater movement and melee attack penalties.
 - 7 *Megalodon Empowerment: Gain scent, water breathing, swim speed for 1 hour/level.
 - 8 *Depthsurge: Water slam deals 2d6 + caster level damage to all within 20-ft. radius, pushes targets back, sinks ships.
 - 9 Foresight: Sixth sense warns of impending danger.
- * New spell described in this chapter.

STORM

Deities: Ishtishia, The Mockery, Procan, Umberlee

Granted Power: You gain resistance to electricity 5.

Storm Domain Spells

- 1 Entropic Shield: Ranged attacks against you have 20% miss chance.
- 2 Gust of Wind: Blows away or knocks down smaller creatures.
- 3 Call Lightning: Calls down lightning bolts (3d6 per bolt) from sky.
- 4 Sleet Storm: Hampers vision and movement.
- 5 Ice Storm: Hail deals 5d6 damage in cylinder 40 feet across.

6 Call Lightning Storm: As call lightning, but 5d6 damage per bolt.

7 Control Weather: Changes weather in local area.

8 Whirlwind: Cyclone deals damage and can pick up creatures.

9 Storm of Vengeance: Storm rains acid, lightning and hail.

UNAPPROACHABLE EAST (3.5)

BLIGHTBRINGER

Deity: Talona.

Granted Power: Rebuke or command blightspawned creatures and evil-aligned animals or plants as an evil cleric rebukes undead.

You may use this ability a number of times per day equal to 3 + your Charisma modifier.

This is a supernatural ability.

Blightbringer Prestige Domain Spells

- 1 Hold animal
- 2 Snilloe's snowball swarm
- 3 Contagion
- 4 Fear
- 5 Cone of cold
- 6 Finger of death
- 7 Command plants
- 8 Horrid wilting
- 9 Energy drain

UNDERDARK (3.5)

BALANCE

Deities: Grumbar, Oghma, Ubtao, Waukeen.

Granted Power: Once per day, as a free action, you may add your Wisdom modifier to your Armor Class.

This bonus lasts for 1 round per cleric level.

Balance Domain Spells

- 1 Make Whole: Repairs an object.
- 2 Calm Emotions: Calms creatures, negating emotion effects.
- 3 Clarity of Mind: Grants +4 bonus on saves against charm, compulsion, and glamor spells; reduces glamor miss chance by 10%.
- 4 Dismissal: Forces a creature to return to native plane.
- 5 Sanctuary, Mass: One touched creature/2 levels can't be attacked, and can't attack.

- 6 Drown: Target immediately begins to drown.
- 7 Contagious Fog: 30-ft.-radius cloud of fog inflicts disease.
- 8 Horrid Wilting: Deals 1d6/level damage within 30 ft.
- 9 Drown, Mass: As drown, but affects 1/level subjects.

DRACONIC INVOCATIONS

DRAGON MAGIC (3.5)

LEAST

AQUATIC ADAPTATION

Least; 2nd

When you use this invocation, you gain the ability to breathe underwater.

You also gain a swim speed equal to your base land speed.

Your breath weapon functions normally underwater regardless of its effect.

The invocation's effect lasts 24 hours.

BEGUILING INFLUENCE

Least; 2nd

You can invoke this ability to beguile and bewitch your foes.

You gain a +6 bonus on Bluff, Diplomacy, and Intimidate checks for 24 hours.

BREATH OF THE NIGHT

Least; 1st

A misty cloud of fog spreads in a 20-foot radius around you, as the spell fog cloud (PH 232).

The fog does not block line of sight, but all creatures in the fog have concealment.

A moderate wind or any fire larger than a torch immediately disperses the fog.

Otherwise, the fog disperses on its own after 1 minute.

DARKNESS

You can create magical darkness, as the darkness spell (PH 216).

DEAFENING ROAR

Least; 2nd

You utter a loud roar that fills a 30-foot cone.

All creatures within this area that fail a Fortitude save become deafened for 1 hour.

DRACONIC KNOWLEDGE

Least; 2nd This invocation gives you access to the great ancestral memories of dragonkind.

You gain a +6 bonus on Knowledge and Spellcraft checks for a period of 24 hours, and such checks are treated as though you are trained even if you have no ranks in the skill.

ENDURE EXPOSURE

Least; 3rd

With a touch, you grant a creature (or yourself) the ability to withstand hot or cold environments as if affected by the endure elements spell (PH 226).

In addition, the target is immune to any effects of your breath weapon.

This invocation's effect lasts for 24 hours.

MAGIC INSIGHT

You can use detect magic as the spell (PH 219).

While the invocation is active, you can end the effect as a full-round action to determine all properties of a single touched item (as the identify spell, PH 243, but with no components required).

SCALDING GUST

Least; 2nd

You create a strong blast of wind (as the gust of wind spell, PH 238, except that the duration is instantaneous).

Any creature within the effect takes 1 point of fire damage per caster level, regardless of whether it succeeds on the Fortitude save to avoid the gust.

SEE THE UNSEEN

Least; 2nd

You grant yourself great powers of vision, allowing you to see invisible creatures and objects, as the see invisibility spell (PH 275).

You also gain darkvision out to 60 feet for 24 hours.

LESSER

CHARM

Lesser; 4th

You can beguile a creature within 60 feet.

The creature must succeed on a Will save or instantly regard you as its comrade.

This is a language-dependent ability.

Other than these differences, this ability works as the charm monster spell (PH 209).

You can never have more than one target charmed at a time with this ability.

If a second creature is charmed, you lose your hold on the first creature.

DRACONIC FLIGHT

Lesser; 3rd

When you use this invocation, you sprout spectral wings resembling those of a dragon.

You can fly at a speed equal to your land speed with good maneuverability for 24 hours.

Your wings allow you to cover overland distances with great endurance; you gain a +4 bonus on Constitution checks made to avoid nonlethal damage from a forced march.

ENERGY RESISTANCE

Lesser; 3rd

You gain resistance 10 to acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic damage for 24 hours.

Choose the energy type when you use the invocation.

If you use this invocation again while the first duration is still active, the new resistance replaces the old one.

ENTHRALLING VOICE

Lesser; 6th

Your speech causes all enemies within a 40-foot radius of you who fail a Will save to become fascinated.

To be affected, targets must have Hit Dice equal to or less than your caster level and must be able to hear you, but you need not share a common language.

Affected targets remain fascinated for as long as you continue to speak and concentrate on the effect (up to a maximum of 1 round per level), plus 5 rounds thereafter. Even after the effect ends, any creature that failed its Will save regards you in a better light than it did previously.

Its attitude to you is adjusted one step toward friendly (see Influencing NPC Attitudes, PH 72) for the next 24 hours.

Multiple uses of this invocation do not further adjust the attitude.

This is a mind-affecting effect.

FRIGHTFUL PRESENCE

Lesser; 3rd

In any round in which you attack or use your breath weapon, you can use this invocation as a swift action.

Any enemies within 30 feet of you who fail a Will save become shaken for 10 minutes.

This is a mind-affecting fear effect.

Dragons and other creatures immune to the frightful presence of dragons are likewise immune to this invocation.

HUMANOID SHAPE

Lesser; 3rd

You can assume any humanoid form, as the change shape special ability (MM 306).

You can remain in the form for up to 24 hours or until you take a standard action to assume a new form or return to your natural form.

VOIDSENSE

Lesser; 4th

You sharpen your hearing and sight, gaining blindsense out to 30 feet for 24 hours.

VORACIOUS DISPELLING

Lesser; 4th

You can use dispel magic as the spell (PH 223).

Any creature with an active spell effect dispelled by this invocation takes 1 point of damage per level of the spell effect (no save).

WALK UNSEEN

Lesser; 2nd

You gain the ability to fade from view.

You can use invisibility (self only) as the spell (PH 245), except that the duration is 24 hours.

GREATER

AURA OF FLAME

Greater; 6th

You become wreathed in an aura of orange fire, which gives off light equivalent to a torch.

Any creature striking you with a natural weapon or a nonreach melee weapon takes a number of points of fire damage equal to your caster level.

If the attacker has spell resistance, it applies to this effect.

BALEFUL GEAS

Greater; 6th

You place a magical command on a living creature to carry out a service or to refrain from an action or course of activity, as you desire.

The creature's Hit Dice must be no more than your class level.

Twenty-four hours after the target becomes affected by this invocation, it takes 1d4 points of Strength damage; this damage repeats every 24 hours thereafter.

If the target's Strength is reduced to 0, the invocation immediately ends.

Creatures immune to Strength damage instead take 2d4 points of damage every 24 hours.

This invocation otherwise functions as the geas/quest spell (PH 234).

CHILLING FOG

Greater; 6th

You create a cold magical fog, as the solid fog spell (PH 281).

Each creature within the area takes 2d6 points of cold damage at the start of its turn.

You can have only one chilling fog in place at a time; creating a second chilling fog automatically dismisses any chilling fog you previously created.

DEVOUR MAGIC

Greater; 6th

You can deliver a targeted greater dispel magic (PH 223) with your touch, gaining 5 temporary hit points for each spell level dispelled.

For example, if you successfully dispel a wall of ice, you gain 20 temporary hit points.

These temporary hit points fade after 1 minute and do not stack with other temporary hit points.

If you devour a new spell, you can replace the old temporary hit points with the hit points gained from the more recent spell, thus resetting the duration.

You cannot devour your own invocations.

DRACONIC TOUGHNESS

Greater; 5th

You gain temporary hit points equal to your caster level.

These hit points last for 24 hours or until you use the invocation again (in which case any remaining temporary hit points are replaced by the new value).

TERRIFYING ROAR

Greater; 5th

You utter a powerful roar that fills a 30-foot cone. All creatures within the area whose Hit Dice are equal to or less than your caster level become panicked for 1 round. Any creature that succeeds on a Will save is shaken for 1 round instead, during which time it cannot make a melee or ranged attack against you, nor target you with a spell or other effect. This is a mind-affecting fear effect.

WINGSTORM

Greater; 5th

You must have either draconic flight or greater draconic flight active in order to use this invocation. Your spectral wings create a storm of winds around you, pushing away and knocking down nearby creatures. All creatures within 20 feet of you are pushed away until they are at least 25 feet away and then knocked prone. A successful Fortitude save negates the effect; creatures more than one size category larger than you are immune. If an affected creature encounters an obstacle (such as a wall or another creature), both it and the obstacle each take 2d6 points of damage (as if they had fallen 20 feet).

DARK

DRACONIC FLIGHT, GREATER

Dark; 7th

As draconic flight, except that your fly speed is 30 feet faster than your land speed, and your maneuverability is perfect.

ENERGY IMMUNITY

Dark; 8th

You gain immunity to acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic damage for 24 hours.

Choose the energy type when you use the invocation. If you use this invocation again while the first duration is still active, the new immunity replaces the old one.

INSTILL VULNERABILITY

Dark; 7th

You imbue a single creature within 30 feet with vulnerability to a particular type of energy (acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic).

A successful Fortitude save negates the effect; creatures that have immunity to the chosen energy type automatically succeed on the saving throw to resist this effect.

The vulnerability lasts for 24 hours or until you use the invocation on the creature a second time, in which case the first effect ends and the new vulnerability and duration take effect.

PERILOUS VEIL

Dark; 7th

You instantly change the appearance of one or more subjects, as the veil spell (PH 298).

Any creature that succeeds on a Will save to disbelieve (and thus see through) the glamor takes 5d6 points of damage. Spell resistance applies against this secondary effect.

EPIC SPELLS

BOOK OF EXALTED DEEDS (3.5)

TRANSMUTATION

CHANNEL CELESTIAL PARAGON

Transmutation [Good]

Spellcraft DC: 28 (see text)

Components: V, S, F, Abstinence, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Target: You and 3–5 willing creatures and 1 willing celestial paragon

Duration: 20 rounds (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (see text)

To Develop: 252,000 gp; 6 days; 10,080 XP (see text).

Seeds: Summon (DC 14, +36 DC for minimum CR 20, +60 DC for unique individual), Transform (DC 21, +5 DC for transformation into outsider, +25 DC for transformation into specific creature, +22 DC for minimum 26 HD).

Factors: Dismissible by caster (+2 DC), up to five additional targets (+50 DC).

Mitigating factors: Increase casting time by 9 minutes (–18 DC), abstinence component (–15 DC), sacrifice component (–120 DC), one additional caster contributing a 9th-level spell slot (–17 DC), channeling rather than summoning (ad hoc –20 DC), major artifact required as focus (ad hoc –20 DC).

By means of this mighty epic spell, you channel the power of a celestial paragon through you body and at least 3 (but no more than 5) of your allies.

The spell effect is similar to that of the channel greater celestial sanctified spell.

However, one mortal form cannot easily contain the power of a celestial paragon without the aid of a deity.

Instead, the paragon's power is divided up among the participants in the spell.

Each willing mortal participant in the spell gains certain attributes of the paragon, while other abilities of the paragon are divided up among the participants.

- Each participant gains the ability scores listed on Table 7–1 or retains his own ability scores, whichever are higher. An increase in Intelligence does not grant extra skill points.

- Each participant gains a natural armor bonus, deflection bonus, and insight bonus to AC, as shown on Table 7–1.

- Each participant gains damage reduction and spell resistance, as shown on Table 7–1.

- Each participant gains a singular spell-like ability, usable at will unless otherwise indicated on Table 7–1.

- Participants channeling a paragon of the Celestial Hebdomad (Barachiel, Dmiel, Erathaol, Pistis Sophia, Raziel, Sealtiel, or Zaphkiel) gain the archon subtype.

- Participants channeling a paragon of the Five Companions (Bharrai, Kharash, Manath, Sathia, Talisid, or Vhara) gain the guardinal subtype.

- Participants channeling a paragon of the Court of Stars (Faerinaal, Gwynharwyf, or Morwel) gain the eladrin subtype.

- As a move action, each participant can use greater teleport at will (caster level 14th), except that it can transport only himself and up to 100 pounds of objects.

- Each participant can speak with any creature that has a language, as though using a tongues spell cast by a 20th-level cleric.

This ability is always active.

Each participant in the spell must be willing, must meet the abstinence components detailed below, and must have the same alignment as the paragon.

The Spellcraft DC and cost to develop specified above are for the simplest version of the spell, which summons Manath, one of the five guardinal Companions.

Channeling a more powerful celestial paragon entails a higher DC and a higher cost, as shown on Table 7–2.

This ritual spell requires one other spellcaster, who must contribute an unused 9th-level spell slot to the casting and who must be one of the targets of the spell.

You can add additional spellcaster participants, each contributing a 9th-level spell slot and reducing the spell DC by 17, to a minimum DC of 28.

Focus: You must have a major artifact of good alignment, such as the Regalia of Good (see Chapter 6 for a description of this item).

Abstinence Component: You and each willing participant must abstain from intoxicants and stimulants for one week before casting this spell.

You and each willing participant must not be the subject of any other spell at the time you cast this spell.

You and each willing participant must not be suffering from any ability damage, ability drain, or energy drain at the time you cast this spell, including the effects of any previously cast sanctified spell.

Sacrifice: You and each willing participant in the spell each lose one experience level.

CHAMPIONS OF RUIN (3.5)

EVOCATION

CATARACT OF FIRE

Evocation [Fire]

Spellcraft DC: 204

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 300-ft.-radius cylinder, 2,000 ft. tall; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 1,836,000 gp, 37 days, 73,440 XP; Seeds: energy (DC 19), destroy (DC 29); Factors: increased damage die (+40), increased damage (+70), cylinder (+2), increase area (+18), maximized (+28); Mitigating factor: personal (-2) This spell is similar to the flame strike spell, in that a pillar of magical fire descends upon the target.

The difference is the size and destructive power of the spell, and its magical source.

A cataract of fire delivers 500 points of damage, equally divided between elemental fire and raw magical energy, to everything within a 300-foot radius centered on the spellcaster, 250 points of damage to everything outside the 300-foot radius but within a 600-foot radius, and 100 points of damage to everything else out to a quarter-mile.

The pillar reaches well into the clouds and can be used to harm flying creatures.

The nature of the spell grants the spellcaster immunity to the magical damage but not the fire damage.

A successful Reflex saving throw halves the damage.

The magical energy affects even magical matter, energy fields, and force effects that are normally only affected by a disintegrate spell, such as Bigby's forceful hand, wall of force, globe of invulnerability, and antimagic field.

Such effects are automatically destroyed.

Material Component: A bronze gong, which is struck when the spell is complete.

The gong is consumed in the resulting conflagration.

DILUVIAL TORRENT

Evocation [Water]

Spellcraft DC: 204

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius cylinder of water, 100 ft. tall, drops from a height of 200 ft.; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 1,836,000 gp, 37 days, 73,440 XP; Seeds: energy (DC 19), destroy (DC 29), Factors: increased damage die (+40), increased damage (+70), cylinder (+2), increase area (+18), maximized (+28); Mitigating factor: personal (-2)

This spell is similar to the cataract of fire spell, except that a cylinder of magical water drops upon the target area.

A diluvial torrent delivers 500 points of damage, equally divided between physical damage and damage from raw magical energy, to everything within a 100-foot radius centered on the spellcaster, 250 points of damage to everything outside the 100-foot radius but within a 300-foot radius, and 100 points of damage to everything else out to 750 feet.

The nature of the spell grants the spellcaster immunity to the magical damage but not the physical damage.

A successful Reflex saving throw halves the damage.

At the DM's discretion, creatures surviving the initial impact of 628,000 cubic feet of water might also be subject to drowning and/or being swept away by the resulting flood.

Material Component: A silver gong, which is struck when the spell is complete.

The gong is consumed in the resulting torrent.

NECROMANCY

AUMVOR'S SOULSHATTER

Necromancy

Spellcraft DC: 51

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 357,000 gp; 8 days; 14,280 XP.

Seeds: slay (DC 25), animate dead (DC 23).

Factors: creating a ghost (+8).

Mitigating factors: seed within specialist school (-5).

For any one living creature within range, you separate soul from its body.

The target is entitled to a DC 51 Fortitude save to survive the attack.

If the save is successful, the creature instead takes 3d6+20 points of damage.

If the save is failed, the subject's soul is dead and passes on to the afterlife, but the body remains alive.

After the successful casting of this spell, the body of the creature can then be possessed (as by a magic jar spell) or dominated (as by a dominate person spell) without resistance (automatic saving throw failure).

The body retains the physical characteristics (Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, skills based on those abilities, and extraordinary abilities) of the departed soul but otherwise reflects the abilities and skills of the possessor or dominator.

If not possessed or dominated, the body lies dormant—alive, but lacking an animating force.

The soul can be returned to the body by means of a raise dead or resurrection spell at any time.

The passage of time has no effect on the success of either spell, assuming the body is still alive.

BONFIRE OF INSANITY (RITUAL)

Necromancy [Chaotic, Evil, Vile]

Spellcraft DC: 217

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 1-mile radius

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 1,953,000 gp, 39 days, 78,120 XP; Seeds: animate dead (DC 23), slay (DC 25); Factors: area effect (+15) to 20-ft. radius (+2) increased 800% (+32), additional 160 HD (+160); Mitigating factors: increase casting time (-20), ghouls (-10), uncontrolled undead (-10)

A bonfire is built of human bones and burned during a rainstorm while this spell is cast.

The smoke from the fire rises up and mingles with the rain clouds, filling them with vile power.

As the tainted water rains down and soaks the ground, up to sixty corpses within range rise up as ghouls.

Even skeletal remains are affected.

The corpses receive no saving throw against the spell's effects, not even if they are buried in consecrated ground. Humanoids (including the spellcasters) of up to 80 HD that are touched by the vile rain must make a Fortitude saving throw or be afflicted with a magical disease that turns them into flesh-starved ghouls within 24 hours.

The disease is resistant to all forms of magical healing less powerful than a heal spell.

The total Hit Dice worth of undead created from this spell, both from corpses and living creatures, is 180.

The spell does not grant the spellcaster any ability to control the undead created by the spell.

These undead can be commanded, rebuked, or turned normally.

Material Component: A bonfire, at least 10 feet in diameter, made out of the remains of at least twenty humanoids. These remains are destroyed by the fire and are unaffected by the vile rain.

HORRENDOUS DESSICATION

Necromancy

Spellcraft DC: 118

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal

Area: 300-ft.-radius/level centered on the spellcaster

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 1,062,000 gp, 22 days, 42,480 XP; Seeds: transport (DC 27); Factors: interplanar (+4), unwilling target (+4), area effect (+2), increase area (+16), area level dependent (+25), damage/volume level dependent (+25), augment minor magic item $\times 10$ (+40); Mitigating factor: loss of limb (-25)

This spell causes everything within the area to become desiccated—withering plants, mummifying flesh, drying up pools and ponds, and turning lush land to dust.

Any living thing, not including the spellcaster, within the area takes 40 points of dessication damage per spellcaster level.

The spell also absorbs 1,000 pounds (120 gallons) of water per caster level from any standing or moving body of water. Casting this spell permanently withers one of the spellcaster's limbs.

Material Component: One application of dust of dryness.

NECROMANTIC SINGULARITY

Necromancy [Death]

Spellcraft DC: 119

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 1-mile radius

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: No

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 1,071,000 gp, 22 days, 42,840 XP; Seeds: slay (DC 25); Factors: increase HD (+96), target to area (+10), area radius (+2), increase area (+36); Mitigating factor: destroy minor artifact (-50)

This powerful spell brings into being a short-lived conduit between the Material Plane, the magical Weave, and the Negative Energy Plane, allowing undiluted negative energy to spew into the world.

The energy instantly slays up to 1,000 HD worth of living creatures.

The spell kills creatures one at a time, in order of proximity to the singularity, until all 1,000 HD are accounted for.

Material Components: A sphere of annihilation.

The sphere is destroyed by the spell.

TRANSMUTATION

AUMVOR'S FRAGMENTED PHYLACTERY

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 30

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: One or more objects, including the caster's phylactery

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 210,000 gp; 5 days; 8,400 XP.

Seeds: transform (DC 21), ward (DC 14).

Mitigating factors: field specialization (-5).

This spell can only be cast by a lich.

It either separates the lich's phylactery into multiple objects or expands the phylactery to include multiple objects, as determined by the spellcaster.

The number of such objects can be no greater than the caster's modifier for its spellcasting ability (Charisma for a sorcerer, Intelligence for a wizard).

Thereafter, destroying the lich's phylactery requires the destruction of the whole set of objects that comprise the phylactery.

As long as at least one such object of the set exists, the caster cannot be permanently killed.

This spell can be cast repeatedly on a phylactery or part thereof.

Each time it is cast, the number of objects that comprise the lich's phylactery can be increased by an amount equal to the caster's modifier for its spellcasting ability.

DRAGONS OF FAERÛN (3.5)

ENCHANTMENT

DRACORAGE MYTHAL

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 59

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 10 days, 20 min.

Range: 30 ft.

Area: All Faerûn

Duration: Permanent (see text)

Saving Throw: Special (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 531,000 gp; 11 days; 41,240 XP, Seed: mythal (DC 25).

Component cost: wisdom damage, medium prevalent power keyed to dragons (+40 DC); hostility, major prevalent power keyed to dragons (+100 DC); rage, medium prevalent power keyed to dragons (+40 DC); aointed fear effects during rage, keyed to dragons (+15 DC); aointed charm effects during rage, keyed to dragons (+15 DC).

Factors: contingent on.

appearance of King-Killer Star (+25 DC), change area to all Faerûn with intermittent frequency (+925 DC).

Mitigating factors: capstone (−20), increase casting time by 10 minutes (−20 DC), increase casting time by 10 days (−20 DC), burn 20,000 XP (−200 DC), 6 additional casters contributing epic-level spell slots (−114 DC), 6 additional casters contributing 9th-level slots (−102), 13 casters die with no resurrection possible (−650 DC).

The Rage of Dragons is the result of an elven high magic effect cast millennia ago in the far northern reaches of Faerûn in an ancient observatory built to track the wanderings of the King-Killer Star. The Fair Folk created the mythal to undermine the rule of dragons, but mitigated its effects by binding it to the King-Killer Star, thereby preventing the Dracorage from completely overwhelming the other kingdoms of Faerûn.

When the King-Killer Star becomes visible in the Realms (which happens in localized areas of roughly 250,000 square miles every several decades and across all of Faerûn about every 300 years), it causes all the dragons (including creatures with the dragonblood subtype) in the affected areas to gradually become more reckless and agitated and eventually devolve into rampaging monsters, called the Dracorage.

The star usually remains visible in Faerûn's sky for 10d6 days before once again disappearing.

Effect: All dragons and dragonblood creatures in the area must make successful DC 10 Will saves when the Dracorage begins (or immediately upon entering the affected area), and they must make subsequent Will saves for every day spent in dragon form within the area, every five days spent in a nondragon form within the area (regardless of whether the effect changes the creature's type or subtype), and every ten days spent asleep within the area (regardless of form).

Each failure causes the creature to take one point of Wisdom damage.

The DC for each successive Will save increases by 1, with each increase stacking on the previous DC.

Due to their greater aversion to the Dracorage, lawful dragons gain a +4 bonus on their saving throws, and good dragons a +2 bonus.

Contrariwise, evil dragons take a −2 penalty, and chaotic dragons a −4 penalty.

(These alignment bonuses and penalties also stack).

The Wisdom damage and attitude shift gradually change the dragon's opinions about acceptable behavior, diminishing its higher cerebral functions while simultaneously intensifying its baser instincts.

Moreover, the dragon slowly loses the ability to see nondragons as allies, mentally transforming them into threats or even mere food.

For every 5 points of Wisdom damage, the dragon becomes more aggressive, and its attitude toward nondragons shifts one step toward hostile.

This persists until the dragon's Wisdom score reaches 1. After that, assuming the dragon is not already hostile to all nondragons, it must make a successful save every day or continue its attitude shift.

(Attitudes toward other dragons and dragonblood creatures remain unaffected).

When the dragon's Wisdom falls below 10, the dragon develops the rage ability (including, as appropriate, the greater rage or mighty rage ability) of a barbarian of equal level to the dragon's Hit Dice, except the dragon has no limit on the number of times per day it can rage and does not become fatigued at the end of its rages.

While raging, the dragon adds a bonus equal to its rage-based Will save bonus to the DC of its frightful presence ability, and it also gains immunity to charm effects (but not compulsion effects), fear effects, and morale effects.

The dragon can use any of its extraordinary or supernatural abilities while enraged, but not spell-like or spellcasting abilities (though as soon as its rage abates, or is broken, it can again use those abilities, as well as any other abilities requiring concentration).

While under the influence of the Dracorage, if a dragon takes damage in combat, it must make a successful Will save or fly into a rage on its next turn, clawing and biting madly until either it or its opponent is dead.

(The Will save DC, taking into account the lapse of time, is determined as noted above).

Once enraged, the dragon can try to break out of its rage by making another more difficult Will save against the Dracorage (DC equals the appropriate Dracorage Will save DC as noted above +5).

Reversal/Healing: During the period of the Dracorage, the dragon's Wisdom damage cannot be healed naturally or through most magical means.

Break enchantment, heal, and greater restoration are completely ineffective, and even a miracle or wish spell heals only 1 point of Wisdom damage per spell.

The most effective magical reprieve is the extremely rare abate Dracorage spell.

Wisdom damage heals naturally at the conclusion of the Dracorage.

The attitude shift can likewise be reversed by one step with an abate Dracorage, miracle, or wish spell, but reverses instantly at the conclusion of the Dracorage.

Dragons who leave the affected area of the Dracorage (by leaving the Prime Material Plane, for example) are no longer subject to the effects of the Dracorage and begin to heal as noted above.

Duration: Like all mythals, a Dracorage mythal is a persistent magical field that cannot be dispelled, disjoined, or suppressed by any non-epic spell.

A character attempting to dispel a Dracorage mythal with an epic spell (such as superb dispelling) must make a DC 81 caster level check to succeed.

An antimagic field suppresses the portion of the mythal that it overlaps but otherwise has no effect.

The antimagic field does not restore Dracorage-induced Wisdom damage or attitude shifts, but it does prevent a dragon wholly within the antimagic field from making further saves against the Dracorage.

Dragon Flights: Dragons affected by the Dracorage are drawn toward the violent impulses of one another and a desire to share in the destruction of everything else.

This usually causes dragons within a couple hundred miles of one another to group into relatively large "flights" of 2d6+4 dragons.

Most flights are made up of a mix of species, including chromatic dragons (and other evil true dragons), wyverns, elemental drakes, and landwyrms, though all types of dragons can be found in Dracorage-induced flights.

However, most members of the flight will not have an alignment more than two steps away from the most powerful dragon in the flight.

Metallic dragons and other good dragons (as well as gem dragons) are relatively rare participants in these flights as they take pains to avoid the Dracorage to the best of their ability—whether through sleep or by fleeing to the Elemental Planes.

Similarly, planar dragons are even more rare, since they don't often come to Faerûn.

EVOCATION

AHGHAIRON'S DRAGONWARD

Evocation

Spellcraft DC: 46

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 10 min.

Area: 12,800-ft.-radius dome

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 414,000 gp; 9 days; 16,560 XP.

Seed: mythal (DC 25).

Component cost: keyed prevalent antipathy spell (+24 DC).

Factors: increase area by 700% (+28 DC), +29 to Will save DC (+58 DC), +16 caster level check to overcome spell resistance (+32 DC).

Mitigating factors: change sphere to a dome ($\times 0.5$), anchorable ($\times 0.75$), corruptible ($\times 0.75$).

Just over three centuries ago, the noted adventurer Ranressa Shiard flew over the Palace of Waterdeep and alighted from dragonback atop Mount Waterdeep to a hero's welcome.

However, her dramatic flourish caused much consternation among the Waterdhavian populace, leading Ahghairon to craft a magical ward preventing most wyrms from doing such today.

This spell wards the enveloped area against all creatures of the dragon type or the dragonblood subtype, except for those specifically permitted by the mythal's key, as the spell antipathy.

A successful DC 51 Will save is required to resist the full force of the antipathy effect.

The bonus on the caster level check of the antipathy effect against spell resistance is +32.

Keyed Power: A dragon can temporarily ignore the antipathy effect of this mythal after physically touching the dragonstaff of Ahghairon (a unique staff of power), currently in the possession of Maaril the Dragon Mage.

This immunity lasts for a number of days specified by the bearer of the dragonstaff at the time of the contact.

If not specified, the immunity lasts for 24 hours.

KING-KILLER SHIELD

Evocation

Spellcraft DC: 29

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 10 min.

Area: 12,800-ft.-radius dome

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 261,000 gp; 6 days; 10,440 XP.

Seed: mythal (DC 25).

Component cost: prevalent spell (+28 DC).

Factors: increase area by 700% (+28 DC).

Mitigating factors: change sphere to a dome ($\times 1/2$), anchorable ($\times 3/4$).

Elf high mages crafted this spell during the Crown Wars to shield their draconic cohorts from the ravages of the Dracorage.

Examples of this spell are known to shield the city of Waterdeep (built atop the ruins of Aelinthaldaar), the ruins of Mhiilamniir in the High Forest, the druid-ruled settlement of Tall Trees (once the Eaerlanni capital city known as Teuveamanthaar), and the Serpent Hills.

This spell wards the enveloped area against the effects of a Dracorage mythal.

Dragons (both creatures with the dragon type as well as creatures with the dragonblood subtype) are immune to the effects of the Dracorage for as long as they remain within the King-Killer shield.

You can cancel another caster's epic spell or standard spell.

To use epic counterspell, select an opponent as the target.

You do this by readying an action, electing to wait to complete your action until your opponent tries to cast a spell (you may still move your speed, because readying a counterspell is a standard action).

If the target tries to cast a spell, make a dispel check: Roll $d20+40$ against a DC of 11 + the foe's caster level.

If the check is successful, your spell negates your foe's spell.

EPIC REPULSION

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 52

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Target: Object or creature touched

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 468,000 gp; 10 days; 18,720 XP.

Seed: ward (DC 14).

Factor: permanent (×5 DC).

Mitigating factor: increase casting time by 9 minutes (−18 DC).

You can create a permanent ward against a specific type of creature (choose from among those in the Monster Manual). Any creature of the specified type cannot attack or touch the warded creature or object.

The protection ends if the warded creature makes an attack against or intentionally moves to within 5 feet of a specified creature.

Spell resistance can allow a creature to overcome this protection and touch the warded creature.

EPIC SPELL REFLECTION (RITUAL)

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 68

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 41 days, 11 minutes

Range: Touch

Target: Object or creature touched

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 630,000 gp; 13 days; 25,200 XP.

Seed: reflect (DC 27).

Factors: reflect up to 9th-level spells (+160 DC), change range to touch (+2 DC), permanent (×5 DC).

Mitigating factors: increase casting time by 10 minutes (−20 DC), increase casting time by 41 days (−82 DC), 20d6 backlash (−20 DC), six additional casters contributing one 8th-level spell slot (−90 DC), burn 9,500 XP per caster (−665 DC).

You can create a permanent ward against all spells of 1st through 9th level that target the subject.

These spells are reflected back on the caster.

Spells that affect an area are not affected by this spell.

XP Cost: 7,500 XP.

ETERNAL FREEDOM (RITUAL)

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 150

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Touched creature or object of 2,000 lb. or less

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 1,350,000 gp; 27 days; 54,000 XP.

Seed: ward (DC 14).

Factors: specific protections entangle (+0 DC), hold monster (+8 DC), hold person (+4 DC), imprisonment (+16 DC), paralysis (ad hoc +6 DC), petrification (ad hoc +6 DC), sleep (+0 DC), slow (+4 DC), stunning (ad hoc +6 DC), temporal stasis (+16 DC), and web (+4 DC); permanent (×5 DC).

Mitigating factors: ten additional casters contributing 9th-level spell slots (−170 DC), burn 10,000 XP (−100 DC).

The subject goes boldly where others fear to tread, becoming permanently immune to the following specific spells, effects, and spell-like abilities: entangle, hold, imprisonment, paralysis, petrification, sleep, slow, stunning, temporal stasis, and web.

This is a ritual spell requiring ten other spellcasters, each of whom must contribute an unused 9th-level spell slot to the casting.

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

KINETIC CONTROL

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 103

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal; touch

Target: You; creature or object touched

Duration: 12 hours or until discharged

To Develop: 927,000 gp; 19 days; 37,080 XP.

Seeds: ward (5 points against bludgeoning and piercing) (DC 14), reflect (DC 27).

Factors: also against slashing (+4 DC), additional 15 points of protection (+30 DC), contingent reflection of damage on creature touched (+28 DC).

Once you've cast this spell, you can absorb, store, and redirect the energy contained in the swing of a club, the slash of a sword, or the piercing flight of an arrow.

You absorb 20 points of each separate slashing, bludgeoning, and piercing attack made against you, saving it for later.

You can absorb up to 150 points of damage in this fashion; however, if the stored damage is not discharged prior to reaching the 150-point limit, the spell automatically discharges, dealing the 150 points of damage to you.

You keep track of the number of points of damage you've absorbed (you don't have to keep track of the type of damage).

At any time during the spell's duration, you can make a touch attack against another creature or object.

If successful, you deal the target some or all (your choice) of the points of damage you've stored.

The damage delivered is considered bludgeoning damage. You can absorb and discharge damage any number of times during the spell's duration, so long as you don't absorb more than 150 points at a time.

When the spell expires, any stored damage you have not redirected is discharged into you.

PERIPETY

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 27

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 12 hours

To Develop: 243,000 gp; 5 days; 9,720 XP.

Seed: reflect (DC 27).

Ranged attacks targeted against you rebound on the original attacker.

Any time during the duration, five attacks are automatically reflected back on the original attacker; you decide which attacks before damage is rolled.

The reflected attack rebounds on the attacker using the same attack roll.

Once five attacks are so reflected, the spell ends.

SUPERB DISPELLING

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 59

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One creature or object

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 531,000 gp; 11 days; 21,240 XP.

Seed: dispel (DC 19).

Factors: additional +30 to dispel check (+30 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factor: 10d6 backlash (-10 DC).

As greater dispelling (see Chapter 11: Spells in the Player's Handbook), except that the maximum bonus on the dispel check is +40, and you take 10d6 points of backlash damage.

CONJURATION

CONTINGENT RESURRECTION

Conjuration (Healing)

Spellcraft DC: 52

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: You or creature touched

Duration: Contingent until expended, then instantaneous

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

To Develop: 468,000 gp; 10 days; 18,720 XP.

Seed: life (DC 27).

Factor: activates when subject is slain (+25 DC).

Contingent resurrection returns the subject to life if she is slain.

Once cast, the spell remains quiescent and does not activate until the trigger conditions have been met (but each day it remains untriggered, it uses up an epic spell slot, even if you cast it on another creature).

Once triggered, the spell is expended.

If the subject is killed (the trigger), she is restored to life and complete health 1 minute later, so long as even a tiny bit of dust remains for contingent resurrection to act upon.

A golden shaft of light shines down from the heavens, illuminating the subject and everything within 20 feet, as the target's life is visibly restored.

The creature is restored to full hit points, vigor, and health, with no loss of prepared spells.

However, the subject loses one level (or 1 point of Constitution if the subject was 1st level).

Contingent resurrection does not work on a creature that has died of old age.

CREATE LIVING VAULT (RITUAL)

Conjuration (Creation)

Spellcraft DC: 58

Components: Ritual, V, S, XP

Casting Time: 100 days, 11 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: One living vault, 50 ft. by 50 ft. by 10 ft.

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: None

To Develop: 540,000 gp; 11 days; 21,600 XP.

Seeds: animate (DC 25) large chunk of stone, fortify (DC 27).

Factors: allow vault to "grow" to proper size in 4d4 days (ad hoc +20 DC), increase HD of object by 92 (+184 DC), grant magical immunity (ad hoc +105 DC), increase damage reduction to 30 (+29 DC) and to /+7 (+18 DC), make permanent (x5 DC).

Mitigating factors: increase casting time by 10 minutes (-20 DC), increase casting time by 100 days (-200 DC), 16d6 backlash (-16 DC), seven additional casters contributing one epic spell slot (-133 DC), four additional casters contributing one 2nd-level spell slot (-12 DC), one additional casters contributing one 1st-level spell slot (-1 DC), burn 20,000 XP per epic caster (-1,600 DC).

You can create a construct known as a living vault (see Chapter 5: Monsters) to protect and hide your treasures. Upon completion, the vault initially measures only 5 feet on a side, but it gradually increases to its proper size over the following 4d4 days.

The vault is attuned to you and you only, allowing you entrance and egress in a manner similar to a dimension door spell.

When you desire the vault to hide itself, you give it a simple command.

To summon the vault, you may cast a sending spell or arrange some other manner to contact it.

XP Cost: 20,000 XP.

CROWN OF VERMIN

Conjuration (Summoning)

Spellcraft DC: 56

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal

Effect: Aura of one thousand insects that surrounds you in a 10-ft.-radius spread

Duration: 20 rounds (D)

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 504,000 gp; 11 days; 20,160 XP.

Seeds: summon (DC 14), fortify (DC 17).

Factors: summon vermin mass instead of one creature (ad hoc +8 DC), grant damage reduction 1/+6 (+15 DC), allow mass to move at your speed (ad hoc +2 DC), perfect control of vermin (ad hoc +2 DC).

Mitigating factor: change range to personal (-2 DC).

When you "don" a crown of vermin, one thousand venomous, biting and stinging spiders, scorpions, beetles, and centipedes apparently erupt from the very air around you.

This swarm forms a living aura around you to a radius of 10 feet.

You are immune to your own crown of vermin.

The swarm goes where you go at your speed, even if you take to the air or water (though water drowns the vermin after 1 full round of immersion, unless the spell is cast underwater, in which case aquatic or marine vermin answer the call and cannot leave the water).

Each vermin in the crown of vermin bites a creature who enters the area occupied by the effect (or you force the effect into an area occupied by another creature) for 1 point of damage, and then dies.

Each victim takes enough points of damage to kill it, destroying that number of vermin in the process.

Victims get a Reflex saving throw each round to avoid the full press, and if successful, take only 10d10 bites (and 10d10 points of damage).

A total of 1,000 points of damage can be dealt to those who fall prey to the crown of vermin.

The vermin have damage reduction 1/+6, allowing them to affect creatures with high damage reduction.

Likewise, the vermin are slightly more resistant to normal damage.

If there aren't enough vermin to kill all the creatures in the spell's effect, the creature with the fewest hit points is affected first, then the creature with the second fewest hit points, and so on.

After all creatures that can be killed have been killed, any remaining damage is distributed among the survivors equally.

You can force them into areas that would normally deter common vermin.

You can completely suppress your vermin aura as a free action so that no vermin are visible at all.

The time that vermin are suppressed does not count toward the spell's duration.

Alternatively, you can roughly shape and move the vermin in any fashion you desire within the limits of the 10-foot-radius spread as a move-equivalent action.

For example, you could leave a corridor within the area free of vermin, or give a functional or fanciful shape to the mass. The vermin cannot be wrested from your control through any means.

The vermin make all saving throws to avoid damaging effects using your base saving throw bonuses.

They gain your spell resistance, if any, and they get saving throws against spells that would otherwise automatically slay vermin.

You can see through your crown of vermin without difficulty, but you gain one-half concealment against enemy attacks launched both outside and within your crown of vermin.

DRAGON KNIGHT (RITUAL)

Conjuration (Summoning) [Fire]

Spellcraft DC: 38

Components: V, S, Ritual

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 75 ft.

Effect: One summoned adult red dragon

Duration: 20 rounds (D)

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 342,000 gp; 7 days; 13,680 XP.

Seed: summon (DC 14).

Factors: summon creature other than outsider (+10 DC), summon CR 14 creature (+24 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factor: two additional casters contributing 8th-level spell slots (-30 DC).

This spell summons an adult red dragon.

It appears where you designate and acts immediately.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its abilities (on the first round, it prefers to breathe fire on an enemy, if possible).

You can direct the dragon not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

This is a ritual spell requiring two other spellcasters, each of which must contribute an unused 8th-level spell slot to the casting.

DRAGON STRIKE (RITUAL)

Conjuration (Summoning) [Fire]

Spellcraft DC: 50

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 75 ft.

Effect: Ten summoned adult red dragons

Duration: 20 rounds (D)

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 450,000 gp; 9 days; 18,000 XP.

Seed: summon (DC 14).

Factors: summon creature other than outsider (+10 DC), summon CR 14 creature (+24 DC), summon ten creatures (×10 DC).

Mitigating factors: eleven additional casters contributing 9th-level spell slots (-187 DC), burn 2,000 XP per caster (-280 DC), 3d6 backlash (-3 DC).

As dragon knight, except the spell summons ten adult red dragons.

On the first round, they all prefer to simultaneously breathe fire on an enemy, if possible.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP (per caster).

ECLIPSE

Conjuration (Creation)

Spellcraft DC: 42

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 200 miles

Area: 5-mile radius, centered on you

Duration: Up to 8 hours (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 378,000 gp; 8 days; 15,120 XP.

Seeds: conjure (DC 21), transport (to move disk into position 100 miles up) (DC 27).

Factors: increase mass by 1,000% (+40 DC), spread mass into paper-thin disk (ad hoc +2 DC), keep disk in place for 8 hours (ad hoc +10 DC).

Mitigating factors: increase casting time by 9 minutes (-18 DC), burn 4,000 XP (-40 DC).

With this spell, you can create a limited eclipse, as though a heavenly body moves between the sun and the earth.

The landscape within a five-mile radius of your location experiences the dimming of the sun as a disk you create passes in front of it, culminating in a complete blackout and accompanying coronal ring.

The eclipse follows you across the landscape for up to 8 hours, or until the sun goes down, or until you dismiss the eclipse.

You do not need to concentrate on the eclipse while it lasts.
XP Cost: 4,000 XP.

EIDOLON

Conjuration (Creation)

Spellcraft DC: 79

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 5 ft.

Effect: One duplicate of caster

Duration: 8 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 711,000 gp; 15 days; 28,440 XP.

Seed: conjure (to make base substance) (DC 21), transform (DC 21) transport (to move part of caster's soul into duplicate) (DC 27).

Factors: nonliving substance to humanoid (+10 DC), transform into specific individual (+25 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 2,500 XP (-50 DC).

You split off a portion of your essence, creating a duplicate of yourself with a fragment of your soul.

Upon casting eidolon, you create a duplicate version of yourself as you were when you were a 21st-level character, and you gain one negative level while your duplicate persists.

For each additional negative level you bestow upon yourself at the time of casting, the eidolon has one additional character level.

No matter how many negative levels you bestow on yourself, your eidolon can never have more character levels than you have (taking your negative levels into account).

For example, a 30th-level wizard could cast eidolon, then bestow four negative levels upon herself to make her eidolon a 25th-level duplicate (and herself a character with an effective level of 26th).

She could not give the eidolon even one more level, because then the eidolon would have more character levels than she does.

Treat the duplicate as yourself with a number of negative levels conferred that would lower you to the character level of the eidolon.

Your eidolon is considered fresh and rested when created. It may cast any spell you have access to, including an epic spell.

Use the eidolon's Spellcraft modifier as the basis for the number of epic spells it can cast in a day, and its effective character level as a basis for its skills, feats, and other abilities.

Your eidolon is effectively lower level than you and probably can't cast all the spells you know.

A powerful enough eidolon might conceivably cast the eidolon spell itself.

Your eidolon appears in whatever mundane clothing you desire when initially conjured, but it has no other possessions.

It shares part of your soul, so it is you for all intents and purposes.

You and your eidolon communicate with each other normally.

Usually, your eidolon does not begrudge its brief existence, because it is still part of you.

If your eidolon is killed prior to the expiration of the spell's duration, you immediately regain the lost levels.

Normally, the eidolon does not last long enough to threaten you with permanent level drain.

XP Cost: 2,500 XP.

EPIC MAGE ARMOR

Conjuration (Creation) [Force]

Spellcraft DC: 46

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 24 hours (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

To Develop: 414,000 gp; 9 days; 16,560 XP.

Seed: armor (DC 14).

Factor: +16 additional armor bonus (+32 DC).

An invisible but tangible field of force surrounds the subject of epic mage armor, providing a +20 armor bonus to Armor Class.

Unlike mundane armor, epic mage armor entails no armor check penalty, arcane spell failure chance, or speed reduction.

Because epic mage armor is made of force, incorporeal creatures can't bypass it the way they do normal armor.

GATHERING OF MAGGOTS

Conjuration (Healing)

Spellcraft DC: 49

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 7 days

Target: Dead creature touched

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

To Develop: 441,000 gp; 9 days; 17,640 XP.

Seeds: life (DC 27), transform (DC 21).

Factors: change creature type to aberration (+5 DC); add worm that walks' spell-like, extraordinary, and supernatural abilities (+40 DC).

Mitigating factors: increase casting time by 10 minutes (-20 DC); increase casting time by 7 days (-14 DC).

When this spell is cast, worms or maggots slither and crawl their way inexorably toward the corpse touched.

Over the course of the next week, they consume the flesh of the corpse, and when the last bit of the corpse is devoured, the creature is returned to a semblance of life as a worm that walks.

LORD OF NIGHTMARES

Conjuration (Summoning)

Spellcraft DC: 50

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 75 ft.

Effect: One summoned creature

Duration: 20 rounds

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 450,000 gp; 9 days; 18,000 XP.

Seed: summon (DC 14).

Factors: summon CR 31 creature (+58 DC), allow creature to possess body and act at its own discretion (ad hoc -20 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factors: 1d6 backlash (-12 DC), burn 1,000 XP (-10 DC).

You are possessed by a creature of nightmare—a dream larva (see Chapter 5: Monsters).

For 20 rounds, the dream larva's body physically replaces yours, though the dream larva has your equipment.

The dream larva is free to call on all its own powers and abilities, or use your equipment.

Your consciousness and physical form are suppressed for the duration of the possession.

You have no way to dismiss the spell, communicate, or otherwise maintain awareness once possession has commenced.

The dream larva, temporarily freed from its imprisonment in some distant nightmare, will attempt to slay and incapacitate any creature it can see or find, whether it is a friend or foe of the caster.

Casting lord of nightmares entails some risk for the caster, since it's unknown what terrible mischief a dream larva might get up to over the course of 20 rounds.

The larva will dispatch all enemies it can find before turning to its own concerns.

Sometimes a dream larva will attempt to place itself in a dangerous or precarious situation prior to the end of the spell, leaving the caster to extricate himself.

If the dream larva is slain during the duration of the spell, your consciousness is instantly restored to awareness within your own body.

Your condition remains what it was when you completed casting lord of nightmare, regardless of what damage the dream larva received.

However, magic item charges used, potions consumed, and other physical resources used up by the dream larva are permanent.

XP Cost: 1,000 XP.

ORIGIN OF SPECIES: ACHAIERAI (RITUAL)

Conjuration (Creation, Healing)

Spellcraft DC: 38

Components: V, S, DF, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 100 days, 11 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: One constructed creature up to Medium-size (20 cu. ft.)

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 360,000 gp; 8 days; 14,400 XP.

Seeds: conjure (DC 21), life (DC 27), fortify (DC 17).

Factors: +4 HD (5 hp per HD) (+20 DC), +6 to natural AC (+12 DC), add three more natural attacks (ad hoc +6 DC), add black cloud spell-like ability (+33 DC), add SR 19 (+15 DC), permanent (×5 DC).

Mitigating factors: 50d6 backlash (-50 DC), increase casting time by 10 minutes (-20 DC), increase casting time by 100 days (-200 DC), burn 10,000 XP (-105 DC), eleven additional casters contributing 9th-level spell slots (-187 DC), ten additional casters contributing 8th-level spell slots (-150 DC), ten additional casters contributing 1st-level spell slots (-10 DC).

Copied from the repertoire of a fiendish epic caster from Acheron, this spell literally creates a new creature: an achaierai, as it appears in the Monster Manual.

When first created, the achaierai is Medium-size, but it grows to Large size in 1d4 days.

A created achaierai does not possess the treasure, culture, or specific knowledge of a normal achaierai.

If released to be among its own kind, it quickly picks up achaierai traits and alignment.

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

PESTILENCE (RITUAL)

Conjuration, Necromancy

Spellcraft DC: 104

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 1,000-ft.-radius hemisphere

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 936,000 gp; 19 days; 37,440 XP.

Seed: afflict (DC 19).

Factors: change target to area (+10 DC), change 20-ft. radius to 1,000-ft. radius (+200 DC), disease effects (as per contagion spell) (ad hoc +21 DC), additional target type (plants) (+10 DC).

Mitigating factors: casting time increased by 9 minutes (-18 DC), two additional casters contributing epic spell slots (-38 DC), burn 10,000 XP (-100 DC).

When pestilence is successfully cast, a wave of illness radiates outward from the site of the ritual, instantly infecting every living thing in the area with the debilitating disease known as slimy doom.

Within 24 hours, everything in the area begins to show signs of rot and decay, plants liquefy and yellow, drooping to the ground as they begin to dissolve.

Animals and people are consumed from within by the disease, initially bleeding from the gums, eyes, nose, and other soft tissue, and eventually exhibiting ghastly, purple blotches.

The disease culminates in open, scabrous wounds over the entirety of the victims' bodies.

The entire region afflicted by this horrid disease is quickly engulfed in fetid stench and overrun by flies and maggots, adding further discomfort to the victims.

Each day that a victim fails a Fortitude save, it takes 1d4 points of temporary Constitution damage.

If the victim then fails a second save, 1 point of that damage is permanent drain.

If the victim succeeds at the first saving throw of the day on consecutive days, he has recovered from the disease.

This magical form of the disease is not contagious and will not spread beyond those initially infected.

This potent and terrible ritual might be perpetrated upon a small rural farming community, spreading in every direction and afflicting crops, orchards, farm animals and residents alike in devastating fashion.

Or it could be cast in the middle of a bustling metropolis, infecting commoners and nobility alike. Fruits and vegetables infected with slimy doom are unfit for consumption, as are disease-ridden livestock. This is a ritual spell requiring two other spellcasters, each of whom must expend an unused epic spell slot for the casting. The primary caster must also burn 10,000 XP. XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

RAISE ISLAND (RITUAL)

Conjuration (Creation)

Spellcraft DC: 38

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 65 days, 11 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 100-ft.-radius hemispherical island

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 360,000 gp; 8 days; 14,400 XP.

Seed: conjure (DC 21).

Factors: change area to 10-ft. radius, 30-ft. high cylinder (+2 DC), change radius to 100 ft. (+40 DC), change height to 1,000 feet (+133 DC), permanent (×5 DC).

Mitigating factors: increase casting time by 10 minutes (−20 DC), increase casting time by 65 days (−130 DC), nineteen additional casters contributing epic spell slots (−361 DC), one additional caster contributing 6th-level spell slots (−11 DC), burn 2,000 XP per epic caster (−400 DC), spell only works on liquid (ad hoc −20 DC).

You can literally raise a new island from out of the sea, bringing to the surface a sandy or rocky but otherwise barren protrusion that is solid, stable, and permanently established.

The island is roughly circular and about 200 feet in diameter.

Raise island only works if the ocean is less 1,000 feet deep where the spell is cast.

Rumors exist of extremely powerful rituals involving epic spellcasters and dozens or even hundreds of other contributors, summoning forth great masses of land from the middle of the ocean or, in acts of terrible devastation, sinking small continents and the civilizations that dwelt on them.

A variant reversal of the spell could be developed separately, causing small islands and sandbars to sink (perhaps to help clear shipping channels).

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

SUMMON BEHEMOTH

Conjuration (Summoning)

Spellcraft DC: 72

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 75 ft.

Effect: Summoned creature

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 648,000 gp; 13 days; 25,920 XP.

Seed: summon (DC 14).

Factors: summon CR 21 creature (DC +38), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

You can summon a behemoth (see Chapter 5: Monsters) to attack your enemies.

It appears where you designate and acts immediately, on your turn.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its ability.

If you can communicate with the creature, you can direct it not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

Summoned creatures act normally on the last round of the spell and disappear at the end of their turn.

DIVINATION

SOUL DOMINION

Divination, Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 72

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: See text

Target: One other living creature

Duration: 20 minutes (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 648,000 gp; 13 days; 25,920 XP.

Seeds: contact (DC 23), reveal (DC 19), compel (DC 19).

Factors: apply to all five senses (+8 DC), total compulsory control (+10 DC), stricter compulsion of any creature (ad hoc +11 DC).

Mitigating factor: increase casting time by 9 minutes (−18 DC).

As soul scry, except you can also take total control of the target's body.

The target receives a Will saving throw, and if successful, prevents you from making the telepathic connection.

The target is aware of the attempted takeover as a strange, momentary tingling.

If the Will save fails, you are able to control the subject's body as if it were your own, hearing, seeing, feeling, smelling, and tasting everything the target senses.

Once you dismiss the spell or its duration ends, the target resumes control of its body, fully aware of all events that occurred, having been a helpless witness trapped inside its own body.

The target knows the name and general nature of its possessor if it succeeds at an additional Will saving throw. You cannot control undead or incorporeal creatures with soul dominion.

SOUL SCRY

Divination

Spellcraft DC: 55

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: See text

Target: One other living creature

Duration: 20 minutes (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 495,000 gp; 10 days; 19,800 XP.

Seeds: contact (DC 23), reveal (DC 19), conceal (DC 17).
Factors: apply to all five senses (+8 DC), conceal detection (ad hoc +6 DC).
Mitigating factor: increase casting time by 9 minutes (-18 DC).

When you cast this spell, you are temporarily able to tap the consciousness of another sentient creature with whom you are familiar (by meeting, observing, or successfully scrying the subject), experiencing everything she does with all five senses.

The target receives a Will save, and if successful, prevents you from making the telepathic connection.

Whether the saving throw is successful or not, the target is unaware of the attempted intrusion.

Once the subject is tapped, you are able to hear, see, feel, smell, and taste everything the subject senses.

You cannot control the subject, however.

You can only see what the subject chooses to look at, and you taste something only if the subject eats or drinks it during the spell's duration.

During this time, your own body remains in a trancelike state.

If the subject takes damage, you sense the injuries, although your own body does not actually suffer any ill effects.

If the subject is knocked unconscious or killed, the spell immediately ends.

ENCHANTMENT

DAMNATION

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Teleportation] [Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 97

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous (20 hours for compulsion)

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 873,000 gp; 18 days; 34,920 XP.

Seeds: foresee (to preview likely hellscape) (DC 17), transport (DC 27), compel (to keep target in hell) (DC 19).

Factors: unwilling target (+4 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC), +15 to DC of subject's save (+30 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 2,000 XP (-20 DC).

You send your foe to hell, if you succeed at a melee touch attack, the target must succeed at a Will saving throw (DC = the standard epic spell DC + 15).

If he fails his saving throw, he is sent straight to a layer of the Nine Hells (or the Abyss, at your option) swarming with fiends.

The subject will not willingly leave the Nine Hells for 20 hours, believing that his predicament is a just reward for an ill-spent life.

Even after the compulsion fades, he must devise his own escape from the Nine Hells.

Unless your DM devises a specific location and scenario in the Nine Hells, the subject encounters a group of 1d4 pit fiends (or balors, if in the Abyss) every hour he spends in hell.

See the Monster Manual for statistics for these creatures, as well as Chapter 5 for statistics for infernals, a new kind of creature.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

ENSLAVE (RITUAL)

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 80

Components: V, M, XP, Ritual

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 75 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 720,000 gp; 15 days; 28,800 XP.

Seed: compel (DC 19).

Factors: stricter compulsion of any creature (ad hoc +11 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC), permanent (×5 DC).

Mitigating factor: 2d6 backlash (-2 DC), four additional casters contributing one 9th-level spell slot (-68 DC), burn 2,000 XP per caster (-100 DC).

You make a permanent thrall of any living creature.

You establish a telepathic link with the subject's mind.

If the creature has a language, you can generally force the subject to perform as you desire, within the limits of its abilities.

If the creature has no language, you can communicate only basic commands, such as "Come here", "Go there", "Fight", and "Stand still".

You know what the subject is experiencing, but you do not receive direct sensory input from it.

A subject forced to take an action against its nature receives a saving throw with a penalty of -10 to resist taking that particular action, but if it succeeds, it still remains your thrall despite its minor mutiny.

Once a subject makes a successful saving throw to resist a specific order, it makes all future saving throws to resist taking that specific action without a penalty.

Protection from evil or a similar spell can prevent you from exercising control or using the telepathic link while the subject is so protected, but it does not prevent the establishment of enslave or dispel it.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

SPELL WORM

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 45

Components: V, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 75 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: 20 hours or until completed

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 405,000 gp; 9 days; 16,200 XP.

Seed: compel (DC 19).

Factors: unobtrusive (ad hoc +6 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

You infect the subject with a compulsive urge that uses up her spells for the day.

On a failed save, the subject must spend a standard action each round abandoning her highest-level spell (or losing her highest-level unused spell slot).

Each round, the subject eliminates another spell or spell slot, moving to lower-level spells once all the higher-level spells are gone.

In the case of prepared spells, the subject decides which spells to abandon at each level.

If the subject has more than one standard action allowed in the round (from a haste spell or other magic), she may spend those actions as she desires.

The subject doesn't realize the spells or spell slots are gone until she tries to cast a spell and finds it unavailable.

Abandoning a spell slot or losing a spell is standard action, but it does not draw an attack of opportunity.

It is a purely mental exercise not obvious to observers.

EVOCATION

ANIMUS BLAST

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 50

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius hemisphere burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 450,000 gp; 9 days; 18,000 XP.

Seeds: energy (DC 19), animate dead (DC 23).

Factors: set undead type to skeleton (–12 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

When this spell is cast, you can engulf your enemies in a coldball that deals 10d6 points of cold damage.

However, up to twenty of those victims that perish as a result of this blast are then instantly animated as Medium-size skeletons.

These skeletons serve you indefinitely.

You cannot exceed the normal limit for controlling undead through use of this spell, but other means that allow you to exceed the normal limit for controlled undead work just as well with undead created with animus blast.

ANIMUS BLIZZARD

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 78

Components: V S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius hemisphere burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 702,000 gp; 15 days; 28,080 XP.

Seeds: energy (DC 19), animate dead (DC 23).

Factors: increase damage to 30d6 (+40 DC), set undead type to wight (–4 DC).

When this spell is cast, you can engulf your enemies in an unusually powerful burst of cold that deals 30d6 points of damage.

However, up to five victims that perish as a result of this blast are then instantly animated as wights.

These five wights serve you indefinitely.

You cannot exceed the normal limit for controlling undead through use of this spell, but other means that allow you to exceed the normal limit for controlled undead work just as well with undead created with animus blizzard.

COLD CLAWS

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 39

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 20 miles

Area: A 20-mile radius, centered on you

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 351,000 gp; 8 days; 14,040 XP.

Seed: energy (DC 25).

Factor: increase range to 20 miles (+36 DC).

Mitigating factor: increase casting time by 9 minutes (–18 DC), 4d6 backlash (–4 DC).

This spell creates a blizzard within the area of the spell.

The change in weather takes 10 minutes to complete once the casting is complete, lasts for 20 hours, and takes another full day to gradually return to normal.

A blizzard combines high winds, heavy snow (1d3 feet), and bitter cold; see the DUNGEON MASTER's Guide for specific effects.

The caster takes 4d6 points of damage from the casting.

DIRE WINTER

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 319

Components: V S, XP

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 1,000 ft.

Area: 1,000-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: None

To Develop: 2,871,000 gp; 58 days; 114,840 XP.

Seed: energy (emanate 2d6 cold in 10-ft. radius) (DC 19).

Factor: 100 times increase in base area (+400 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 10,000 XP (–100 DC).

You summon winter.

The creature or object you target emanates bitter cold to a radius of 1,000 feet for 20 hours.

The emanated cold deals 2d6 points of damage per round against unprotected creatures (the target is susceptible if not magically protected or otherwise resistant to the energy).

The intense cold freezes water out of the air, causing constant snowfall and wind.

The snow and wind produce a blizzard effect within the area (see the Weather Hazards section in Chapter 3 of the DUNGEON MASTER's Guide).

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

HELLBALL

Evocation [Acid, Fire, Electricity, Sonic]

Spellcraft DC: 90

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 40-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 810,000 gp; 17 days; 32,400 XP.

Seed: energy (deals 10d6 each of acid, fire, electricity, sonic) (DC 76).

Factors: change area from bolt to ball (+2 DC), double base area (+6 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factors: 10d6 backlash (-10 DC), burn 400 XP (-4 DC).

A hellball is a massive blast of energy that detonates with a thundering roar.

It deals 10d6 points of acid damage, 10d6 points of fire damage, 10d6 points of electricity damage, and 10d6 points of sonic damage to all creatures within the area.

Unattended objects also take this damage.

The spell is barely controlled, and you take 10d6 points of damage as you release it (in addition to burning 400 XP).

You point your finger and determine the range (distance and height) at which the hellball is to detonate.

A sun-bright, fist-sized globe of strobing energy streaks forth and, unless it impacts a material body or solid barrier prior to attaining the indicated range, blossoms into an effect described by the rare survivor as “hell on earth”.

XP Cost: 400 XP.

ICE FIST

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 40

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: Reflex partial (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 360,000 gp; 8 days; 14,400 XP.

Seed: energy (DC 19).

Factors: increase damage to 10d6+20 (+16 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC), change area to touched target (+4 DC).

Mitigating factors: burn 1,300 XP (-13 DC), 6d6 backlash (-6 DC).

This spell encases the target, whom you must hit with a melee touch attack, in a block of ice that radiates cold energy.

The imprisoned creature takes 10d6+20 points of cold damage per round it remains trapped in the block.

The ice is 5 feet thick on every side of the imprisoned creature (so each wall around the creature has 180 hit points).

Any creature passing through the ice to free the imprisoned creature takes the same cold damage.

If the target makes a successful saving throw, it dodges the forming ice, but still takes 10d6+20 points of cold damage from your frigid touch.

The caster takes 6d6 points of damage from the casting.

XP Cost: 1,300 XP.

ICERAZOR

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 40

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Effect: A bolt of cold 300 ft. long and 10 ft. wide

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 360,000 gp; 8 days; 14,400 XP.

Seeds: destroy (DC 29), energy (DC 19).

Factors: 1-action casting time (+20 DC), change target to area (+2 DC).

Mitigating factors: burn 2,000 XP (-20 DC), 10d6 backlash (-10 DC).

This spell creates a slicing bolt of energy that deals 10d6 points of damage plus 20d6 points of cold damage to creatures it strikes.

If the target is killed or destroyed by the bolt, the remains are utterly destroyed as if disintegrated.

The caster takes 10d6 points of damage from the casting.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

LIVING LIGHTNING

Evocation [Electricity]

Spellcraft DC: 140

Components: None

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft. or 150 ft.

Area: A bolt 5 ft. wide by 300 ft. long, or 10 ft. wide by 150 ft. long

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 1,260,000 gp; 26 days; 50,400 XP.

Seeds: life (DC 27), energy (DC 19).

Factors: 1-action casting time (+20 DC), no verbal or somatic components (+4 DC), giving life to a spell (ad hoc ×2 DC).

You develop a spell that you can cast; thereafter, the spell can effectively “cast itself”.

When you cast the spell, a stroke of energy deals 10d6 points of electricity damage to each creature within the spell’s area.

Living lightning follows all the standard rules for epic spell casting when you cast it.

Living lightning is sentient and generally friendly toward you.

It has your mental ability scores, but it has no physical ability scores.

It senses the world through your senses and communicates with you by thought.

As a self-triggering spell, it isn’t truly alive but is a fragment of your personality.

It cares little for the world around it, but at your urging (and sometimes at its own discretion) it casts itself at your foes.

Casters who prepare spells before casting must prepare living lightning normally in order for it to cast itself.

When the spell casts itself, it acts on your initiative but does not count against your own actions in the round.

Assuming you had enough epic spell slots for the day, you could be simultaneously taking another action, including casting another epic spell or nonepic spell.

You cannot simultaneously cast living lightning while it is casting its own effect, even if it has been prepared more than once.

Living lightning uses up one of your epic spell slots for the day whenever it casts itself.

When you've used up all your epic spell slots for the day (or you've cast all your prepared living lightning spells, if you are a caster who must prepare spells), living lightning becomes quiescent.

It remains so until you've rested to regain your epic spell slots for the next day.

RAIN OF FIRE

Evocation [Fire]

Spellcraft DC: 50

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 2-mile-radius emanation

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: Reflex negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 450,000 gp; 9 days; 18,000 XP.

Seeds: energy (fire) (DC 19), energy (weather) (DC 19).

Factor: change rain to wisps of flame (ad hoc +12 DC).

This spell summons a swirling thunderstorm that rains fire rather than raindrops down on you and everything within a two-mile radius of you.

Everything caught unprotected or unsheltered in the flaming deluge takes 1 point of fire damage each round. A successful Reflex save results in no damage, but the save must be repeated each round.

Unless the ground is exceedingly damp, all vegetation is eventually blackened and destroyed, leaving behind a barren wasteland similar to the aftermath of a grass or forest fire.

The fiery storm is stationary and persists even if the caster leaves.

NECROMANCY

DEMISE UNSEEN

Necromancy (Death, Evil), Illusion (Figment)

Spellcraft DC: 82

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One creature of up to 80 HD

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fort negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 738,000 gp; 15 days; 29,520 XP.

Seeds: slay (DC 25), animate dead (DC 23), delude (DC 14).

Factors: change undead type to ghoul (-10 DC), apply figment element to all 5 senses (+10 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

You instantly slay a single target and at the same moment animate the body so that it appears that nothing has happened to the creature.

The target's companions (if any) do not immediately realize what has transpired.

The target receives a Fortitude saving throw to survive the attack.

If the save fails, the target remains in its exact position with no apparent ill effects.

In reality, it is now a ghoul under your control.

The target's companions notice nothing unusual about the state of the target until they interact with it, at which time each companion receives a Will saving throw to notice discrepancies ("By Moradin's beard, you move slowly today!").

The ghoul serves you indefinitely.

You cannot exceed the normal limit for controlling undead through use of this spell, but other means that allow you to exceed the normal limit for controlled undead work just as well with undead created with demise unseen.

MOMENTO MORI

Necromancy [Death]

Spellcraft DC: 86

Components: None

Casting Time: 1 quickened action

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 774,000 gp; 16 days; 30,960 XP.

Seed: slay (DC 25).

Factor: increase to 160 HD (+8 DC), quickened (+28 DC), no verbal or somatic components (+4 DC), +10 to DC of subject's save (+20 DC).

Your passing thought connotes death for the target.

As a free action that counts as a quickened spell, you will the target dead without a word or gesture.

Your bloodthirsty wish snuffs out the life force of a living creature of 160 or fewer HD, killing it instantly.

The subject is entitled to a Fortitude saving throw (DC 30 + relevant ability modifier) to have a chance of surviving the attack.

If the save is successful, the target instead takes 3d6+20 points of damage.

MUMMY DUST

Necromancy [Evil]

Spellcraft DC: 35

Components: V, S, M, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Effect: Two 18-HD mummies

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 315,000 gp; 7 days; 12,600 XP.

Seed: animate (DC 23).

Factors: 16-HD undead (+16 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factors: burn 2,000 XP (−20 DC), expensive material component (ad hoc −4 DC).

When you sprinkle the dust of ground mummies in conjunction with casting mummy dust, two Large 18-HD mummies (see below) spring up from the dust in an area adjacent to you.

The mummies follow your every command according to their abilities, until they are destroyed or you lose control of them by attempting to control more Hit Dice of undead than you have caster levels.

Material Component: Specially prepared mummy dust (10,000 gp).

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

➤ Mummy, Advanced: CR 6; Large undead; HD 18d12+3; hp 120; Init −2; Spd 30 ft.; AC 17, touch 7, flat-footed 17; Atk +17 melee (1d8+8, slam); Face/Reach 5 ft. by 5 ft./10 ft.; SA Despair, mummy rot; SQ Undead traits, resistant to blows, DR 5/+1, fire vulnerability; AL LE; SV Fort +8, Ref +4, Will +13; Str 25, Dex 6, Con —, Int 6, Wis 14, Cha 15. Skills and Feats: Hide +9, Listen +15, Move Silently +13, Spot +15; Alertness, Blind-Fight, Great Fortitude, Power Attack, Weapon Focus (slam).

Despair (Su): At the sight of a mummy, the viewer must succeed at a Will save (DC 21), or be paralyzed with fear for 1d4 rounds.

Whether or not the save is successful, that creature cannot be affected again by that mummy's despair ability for one day.

Mummy Rot (Su): Supernatural disease—slam, Fortitude save (DC 20), incubation period 1 day; damage 1d6 temporary Constitution.

Unlike normal diseases, mummy rot continues until the victim reaches Constitution 0 (and dies) or receives a remove disease spell or similar magic (see Disease in Chapter 3 of the DUNGEON MASTER'S Guide).

An afflicted creature that dies shrivels away into sand and dust that blow away into nothing at the first wind unless both remove disease and raise dead are cast on the remains within 6 rounds.

Undead Traits: Immune to poison, sleep, paralysis, stunning, disease, death, effects, necromantic effects, mind-affecting effects, and any effect requiring a Fortitude save unless it also works on objects.

Not subject to critical hits, subdual damage, ability damage, ability drain, or energy drain.

Negative energy heals.

Not at risk of death from massive damage, but destroyed at 0 hit points or less.

Darkvision 60 ft. Cannot be raised; resurrection works only if creature is willing.

Resistant to Blows (Ex): Physical attacks deal only half damage to mummies.

Apply this effect before damage reduction.

Fire Vulnerability (Ex): A mummy takes double damage from fire attacks unless a save is allowed for half damage.

A successful save halves the damage and a failure doubles it.

TRANSMUTATION

DREAMSCAPE

Transmutation [Teleportation]

Spellcraft DC: 29

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: You and other touched willing creatures weighing up to 1,000 lb.

Duration: Instantaneous (D)

Saving Throw: Yes (harmless) (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

To Develop: 261,000 gp; 6 days; 10,400 XP.

Seed: transport (DC 27).

Factor: transport to region of dreams (+2 DC).

You and any creatures you touch are drawn along a crystal arc of reverie to the edge of conscious thought and into the region of dreams.

You can take more than one creature along with you (subject to your weight limit), but all must be touching each other.

You physically enter the land of dreams, leaving nothing behind.

In the region of dreams, you move through a menagerie of thoughts, desires, and phantoms created by the minds of dreamers everywhere.

For every minute you move through the dream landscape, you can “wake” to find yourself five miles displaced in the waking world.

Thus, a character can use this power to travel rapidly by physically entering where only dreams normally prowl, moving for a certain length of time (at five miles per minute) and then stepping back into the waking world. You do not know precisely where you will come out in the waking world, nor the conditions of the waking world through which you travel.

You know approximately where you will end up based on time spent traveling in dream.

Dreamscape can also be used to travel to other planes that contain creatures that dream, but doing this requires crossing into the dreams of outsiders, where you are subject to the dangers of alien dream realities.

This is a potentially perilous proposition, at your DM's option.

Transferring to another plane of existence requires 1d4 hours of uninterrupted journey.

Any creatures touched by you when dreamscape is cast also make the transition to the borders of unconscious thought. They may opt to follow you, wander off into the dreams of others, or stumble back into the waking world (50% chance for either of the latter results if they are lost or abandoned by you).

Creatures unwilling to accompany you into the region of dreams receive a Will save, negating the effect if successful.

GREATER RUIN

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 59

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 12,000 ft.

Target: One creature, or up to a 10-foot cube of nonliving matter

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 531,000 gp; 11 days; 21,240 XP.

Seed: destroy (DC 29).

Factors: increase damage to 35d6 (+30 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 2,000 XP (−20 DC).

As ruin, except the target is dealt 35d6 points of damage.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

GREATER SPELL RESISTANCE

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 45

Components: V, S, Ritual

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

To Develop: 405,000 gp; 9 days; 16,200 XP.

Seed: fortify (DC 27).

Factor: +10 additional SR (+40 DC).

Mitigating factor: two additional casters contributing 6th-level spell slots (−22 DC).

You grant the subject touched spell resistance 35 until the duration expires.

The spell resistance granted does not stack, but overlaps with, any previous spell resistance.

This is a ritual spell, requiring two other spellcasters, each of whom must contribute an unused 6th-level spell slot to the casting.

LET GO OF ME

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 43

Components: None

Casting Time: 1 free action

Range: Touch (see text)

Target: One creature or force grappling you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 387,000 gp; 8 days; 15,480 XP.

Seed: destroy (DC 29).

Factors: quickened (+28 DC), no verbal or somatic components (+4 DC).

Mitigating factors: limited circumstance (ad hoc −8 DC), 10d6 backlash (−10 DC).

You radiate destruction, dealing 20d6 points of damage to any creature grappling you.

The damage dealt is of no particular type or energy—it is a purely destructive impulse, if grappled by a magical force, such as Bigby's grasping hand or Bigby's crushing hand, the force is automatically destroyed.

Being grappled is dangerous for most spellcasters, so few mind taking 10d6 points of backlash damage.

MASS FROG

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 55

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 40-ft.-radius hemisphere

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 495,000 gp; 10 days; 19,800 XP.

Seed: transform (DC 21).

Factors: change target to area of 20-ft. hemisphere (+10 DC), increase area by 100% (+4 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Culled from the repertoire of the legendary wizard Miko, this epic spell turns all Medium-size or smaller creatures in the area into frogs.

The transformed creatures retain their mental faculties, including personality, Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores, level and class, hit points (despite any change in Constitution score), alignment, base attack bonus, base save bonuses, extraordinary abilities, spells, and spell-like abilities, but not supernatural abilities.

They assume the physical characteristics of frogs, including natural size and Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution scores.

(Use the statistics for the toad as given in the Monster Manual).

All the creatures' equipment drops to the ground upon transformation.

NAILED TO THE SKY

Transmutation [Teleportation]

Spellcraft DC: 62

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Target: Creature or object weighing up to 1,000 lb.

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 558,000 gp; 12 days; 22,320 XP.

Seeds: foresee (to preview endpoint of teleportation) (DC 17), transport (DC 27).

Factors: unwilling target (+4 DC), increase range from touch (+4 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 1,000 XP (−10 DC).

Your spell fixes the target to the heavens.

Nailed to the sky actually places the target so far from the surface of the world and at such a speed that it keeps missing the surface as it falls back, so it enters an eternal orbit.

Unless the target can magically fly or has some other form of non-physical propulsion available, the target is stuck until someone else rescues it.

Even if the target can fly, the surface is 2 to 4 hours away, assuming a fly spell, which allows a maximum speed of 720 feet per round while descending.

The target may not survive that long.

Depending on the world where nailed to the sky is cast, conditions so far from its surface may be deadly.

Deleterious effects include scorching heat, cold, and vacuum.

Targets subject to these conditions take 2d6 points of damage each from heat or cold and 1d4 points of damage from the vacuum each round.

The target immediately begins to suffocate (see the Suffocation sidebar in Chapter 3 of the DUNGEON MASTER's Guide).

XP Cost: 1,000 XP.

RUIN

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 27

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: 12,000 ft.

Target: One creature, or up to a 10-foot cube of nonliving matter

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 243,000 gp; 5 days; 9,720 XP.

Seed: destroy (DC 29).

Factor: reduce casting time by 9 rounds (+18 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 2,000 XP (-20 DC).

You deal 20d6 points of damage to a single target within range and line of sight.

If the target is reduced to -10 hit points or less (or a construct, object, or undead is reduced to 0 hit points), it is utterly destroyed as if disintegrated.

Only a trace of fine dust remains.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

SAFE TIME

Transmutation [Teleportation]

Spellcraft DC: 64

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: You or creature touched

Duration: Contingent until expended, then 1 round of safe time

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 576,000 gp; 12 days; 23,040 XP.

Seed: transport (DC 27).

Factors: move to time stream (+8 DC), reduce static time to 1 round (ad hoc +4 DC), activates when you would otherwise take 50 or more points of damage (+25 DC).

Safe time can move you (or the target) out of harm's way by shunting you into a static time stream.

Once cast, the spell remains quiescent and does not activate until the trigger conditions have been met.

Each day it remains untriggered, it uses up an epic spell slot, even if you cast it on another creature.

Once triggered, the spell is expended normally.

When you would otherwise be subject to any instantaneous effect that would deal you 50 or more points of damage, you are instead transported to a static time stream where time ceases to flow for you.

Your condition becomes fixed—no force or effect can harm you until 1 round of real time has passed.

Thus, you duck the damage you would otherwise receive, but you also miss out on one round of activity.

To you, no time passes at all, but to onlookers who are part of real time, you stand frozen and fixed in space for 1 full round.

TIME DUPLICATE

Transmutation [Teleportation]

Spellcraft DC: 71

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 free action

Effect: You

Duration: 1 round (see text)

Saving Throw: None (harmless)

Spell Resistance: None (harmless)

To Develop: 639,000 gp; 13 days; 25,560 XP.

Seed: transport (to move future you back in time 1 round) (DC 27).

Factors: move to time stream (+8 DC), stretch the base temporal effect (ad hoc +8 DC), quickened (+28 DC).

You snatch yourself from 1 round in the future, depositing your future self in an adjacent space as a free action that counts as a quickened spell.

Your future self is technically only a possible future self (the time stream is a maelstrom of multiple probabilities), but snatching that future self from 1 round in the future collapses probability, and the possible future becomes the definite future.

You and your future self are both free to act normally this round (you've already used up your limit of one quickened spell per round, but your duplicate hasn't).

Your future self has all the resources you have at the moment you finish casting time duplicate.

Because your future self was previously only a possibility, his or her resources are not depleted as a result of whatever might occur this round (even if you die this round).

Likewise, he or she doesn't have any special knowledge of what might occur during this round.

Because your future self is still part of the time stream, the round it spends with you is a round it misses in its own future.

Because your future duplicate is also you, you miss the next round as well.

You simply aren't there.

Tampering with the time stream is a tricky business.

Here is a round-by-round summary.

Round One: You cast time duplicate, your future self from round two arrives, and you both act normally.

Round Two: Your future self—you—gets snatched back in time to help your past self.

During this round, there are no versions of you present.

Round Three: You rejoin the time stream.

You arrive in the same location and condition that your future self ended with at the end of the first round.

Any resources (spells, damage, staff charges) your future self used up in round one are gone for real.

Record them now.

Using this spell to snatch a single future self stretches time and probability to its limit; more powerful versions of time duplicate are not possible.

You cannot bring more than a single future version of yourself back to help you at one time, nor can you snatch a version of you from farther in the future.

VENGEFUL GAZE OF GOD

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 419

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 12,000 ft.

Target: One creature, or up to a 10-foot cube of nonliving matter in line of sight

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 3,771,000 gp; 76 days; 150,840 XP.

Seed: destroy (DC 29).

Factor: increase damage to 305d6 (+570 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

Mitigating factor: 200d6 backlash (–200 DC).

The target of this spell is subject to a fury like unto heavenly wrath that deals 305d6 points of damage (or half of that if a Fortitude save succeeds).

If the target is reduced to –10 hit points or less (or a construct, object, or undead is reduced to 0 hit points), it is utterly destroyed as if disintegrated, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust.

Channeling such terrific forces has its price, and the caster is likewise dealt 200d6 points of damage as your eyes bleed and your skin convulses when the power is released.

This spell often kills the caster, but it's often worth it.

Note: Table 3–4: Average Damage Dice is useful if you don't want to roll hundreds of 6-sided dice.

VERDIGRIS TSUNAMI

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 170

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 1,500 ft.

Area: 1,000-ft.-radius hemisphere

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 1,530,000 gp; 31 days; 61,200 XP.

Seed: conjure (DC 21).

Factor: change area to 20-ft.-radius hemisphere (+2 DC), increase radius to 1,000 ft. (+196 DC), increase range to 1,500 ft. (+8 DC), deal 10d6 damage during growth (ad hoc +19 DC), increase damage to 40d6 (+60 DC), permanent (×5 DC).

Mitigating factors: increase casting time by 9 minutes (–18 DC), eleven additional casters contributing 6th-level spell slots (–121 DC), three additional casters contributing 4th-level spell slots (–21 DC), burn 10,000 XP per 6th-level spell contributor plus caster (–1,200 DC).

As verdigris, except creatures in the area take 40d6 points of damage (Reflex save for half), as do buildings, and the plant growth is permanent.

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

VERDIGRIS

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 58

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 100-ft.-radius hemisphere

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 522,000 gp; 11 days; 20,880 XP.

Seed: conjure (DC 21).

Factors: change area to 20-ft.-radius hemisphere (+2 DC), increase radius to 100 ft. (+16 DC), deal 10d6 damage during growth (ad hoc +19 DC).

When you cast this spell, you create a tsunami of grass, shrubs, and trees that overgrows the area like a tidal wave. The plant growth creeps and curls across everything in the area, ensnaring it and coiling around it as if it had been growing there for a century or more, like some ancient ruin overrun by jungle.

Creatures in the area must make a Reflex saving throw to avoid the fast-moving growth, which otherwise deals 10d6 points of damage from the crushing press.

Buildings are engulfed by tendrils of vines, creepers, thick roots, and branches, and they likewise take 10d6 points of damage.

Those destroyed by the damage have their foundations uprooted and walls crumbled.

The plant growth remains for 24 hours, after which it vanishes.

CONJURATION

GLORIOUS LIGHT OF RENEWAL

Conjuration (Healing)

Spellcraft DC: 80

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 100 ft.

Target: Up to 5 dead creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

To Develop: 720,000 gp; 15 days; 28,800 XP.

Seed: life (DC 27).

Factors: change from touch to target (+4 DC), change from target to area (+10 DC), increase range by 400% (+8 DC), add 4 extra targets (+40 DC).

Mitigating Factor: backlash 9d6 (–9 DC) Up to five dead creatures are restored to life and complete vigor so long as any portion of the creatures' bodies remain.

The creature can have been dead for no longer than two hundred years.

The vast amount of positive energy channeled by this spell deals 9d6 damage in backlash to the caster.

Seed: life (DC 27).

Factors: change from touch to target (+4 DC), change from target to area (+10 DC), increase range by 400% (+8 DC), add 4 extra targets (+40 DC).

Mitigating Factor: backlash 9d6 (−9 DC).

Up to five dead creatures are restored to life and complete vigor so long as any portion of the creatures' bodies remain. The creature can have been dead for no longer than two hundred years.

The vast amount of positive energy channeled by this spell deals 9d6 points of damage in backlash to the caster.

NECROMANCY

HORRIBLE ARMY OF THE DEAD

Necromancy [Death, Evil]

Spellcraft DC: 112

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 300-ft. radius

Target: One or more living creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 1,008,000 gp; 21 days; 40,320 XP.

Seeds: animate dead (DC 23), slay (DC 25).

Factors: reduce casting time by 9 rounds (+18 DC), create additional 60 HD of undead (+60 DC), create skeletons (−12 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 1,000 XP (−10 DC).

All living creatures within the area (to a maximum of 80 HD, no creature with more than 10 HD is affected) wither and die, their flesh falling to dust in seconds.

The next round, these creatures rise as skeletons.

You can naturally control 1 HD of undead per caster level; any undead beyond this number are uncontrolled (but since you're probably creating them out of the middle of your enemy's army, they'll cause plenty of chaos on their own).

XP Cost: 1,000 XP.

FROSTBURN (3.5)

EVOCATION

ANIMUS BLAST

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 50

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius hemisphere burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 450,000 gp; 9 days; 18,000 XP.

Seeds: energy (DC 19), animate dead (DC 23).

Factors: set undead type to skeleton (−12 DC), 1-action casting time (+20 DC).

When this spell is cast, you can engulf your enemies in a coldball that deals 10d6 points of cold damage to each one.

Up to twenty of those victims that perish as a result of the blast are then instantly animated as Medium skeletons.

These skeletons serve you indefinitely.

You cannot exceed the normal limit for controlling undead through use of this spell, but other means that allow you to exceed the normal limit for controlled undead work just as well with undead created with animus blast.

ANIMUS BLIZZARD

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 78

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius hemisphere burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 702,000 gp; 15 days; 28,080 XP.

Seeds: energy (DC 19), animate dead (DC 23).

Factors: increase damage to 20d6 (+40 DC), set undead type to wight (−4 DC).

When this spell is cast, you can engulf your enemies in an unusually powerful burst of cold that deals 20d6 points of cold damage to each one.

Up to five victims that perish as a result of the blast are then instantly animated as wights. These five wights serve you indefinitely. You cannot exceed the normal limit for controlling undead through use of this spell, but other means that allow you to exceed the normal limit for controlled undead work just as well with undead created with animus blizzard.

COLDFIRE BLAST

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 93

Components: V, S, Coldfire

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 40-ft.-radius hemisphere burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 837,000 gp; 17 days; 33,480 XP.

Seed: energy (emanate 2d6 cold in 10-ft. radius) (DC 19).

Factor: 1-action casting time (+20 DC), increase area by 100% (+4 DC), increase damage to 40d6 (+60 DC), coldfire component (-10 DC).

You blast all creatures in the spell's area with unusually intense cold, dealing 40d6 points of frostburn damage to each one.

Material Component: 10 ounces of coldfire.

DIRE WINTER

Evocation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 319

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 1,000 ft.

Area: 1,000-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 2,871,000 gp; 58 days; 114,840 XP.

Seed: energy (emanate 2d6 cold in 10-ft. radius) (DC 19).

Factor: 100 times increase in base area (+400 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 10,000 XP (-100 DC).

You summon winter.

The creature or object you target emanates bitter cold to a radius of 1,000 feet for 20 hours.

The emanated cold deals 2d6 points of cold damage per round against unprotected creatures (the target is susceptible if not magically protected or otherwise resistant to the energy).

The intense cold freezes water out of the air, causing constant snowfall and wind.

The snow and wind produce a blizzard effect within the area.

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

TRANSMUTATION

ICE AGE

Transmutation [Cold]

Spellcraft DC: 323

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 20-mile-radius emanation

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 2,907,000 gp; 59 days; 116,280 XP.

Seed: transform (DC 21).

Factor: change target to area (+2 DC), 100 times increase in base area (+400 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 10,000 XP (-100 DC).

You summon an ice age.

A massive glacier fills a 20-mile-radius area, covering the surface (land, water, and so forth).

The temperature drops by 100 degrees (or to 0° F, whichever results in the lower temperature).

All water in the air instantly freezes, creating a blizzard that lasts until ice age is dispelled.

This can only be done with a superb dispelling spell (see page 87 of the Epic Level Handbook).

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

LOST EMPIRES OF FAERÛN (3.5)

TRANSMUTATION

IOULAUM'S LONGEVITY

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 152

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 12,000 ft.

Area: 120-ft. radius

Duration: Special

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 1,368,000 gp; 27 days; 54,720 XP.

Seeds: destroy (DC 29), fortify (DC 17).

Factors: change from target to area (+10), change area to 20-ft. radius (+2), increase area by 3,600% (+144).

Mitigating factors: 1-d6 backlash (-10), burn 4,000 XP (-40).

This spell deals 20d6 points of damage to every creature within its area.

A living target that is reduced to -10 or fewer hit points (or a construct, object, or undead that is reduced to 0 hit points) is utterly destroyed as if disintegrated, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust.

This spell also extends the caster's current age category by 1 year for every living creature it slays.

The spell's duration is instantaneous, but the age extension is permanent.

PLAYER'S GUIDE TO FAERÛN (3.5)

CONJURATION

GIFT OF ALLIANCE

Conjuration (Summoning) (Elven High Magic)

Spellcraft DC: 80

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes or more; see text

Range: 75 ft.

Effect: One or more summoned creatures; see text

Duration: Permanent (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 720,000 gp; 15 days; 28,800 XP.

Seed: summon (DC 14).

Factors: Make permanent ($\times 5$ DC), any creature type (ad hoc +40 DC), CR 25 (+46 DC).

Mitigating factors: Increase casting time by 9 minutes (-18 DC), burn 6,600 XP (-66 DC).

You summon one or more creatures of any creature type to your aid, usually in the defense of an elf realm.

The creatures come from the surrounding area and are of a kind appropriate to the terrain and specific location.

For every 10 minutes you spend casting the spell, you can summon creatures with up to a total of 12 Hit Dice.

Thus, if you cast for 1 hour, you could summon six astral devas (12-HD creatures) or two bronze wyrms (36-HD creatures).

No single creature can have a Challenge Rating higher than 25.

XP Cost: 6,600 XP per 10 minutes of casting time.

GLORIOUS LIGHT OF RENEWAL

Conjuration (Healing)

Spellcraft DC: 80

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 100 ft.

Target: Up to five dead creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Development: 720,000 gp; 15 days; 28,800 XP.

Seed: life (DC 27).

Factors: Change from touch to target (+4 DC), change from target to area (+10 DC), increase range by 400% (+8 DC), add four extra targets (+40 DC).

Mitigating factor: Backlash 9d6 (-9 DC).

Up to five dead creatures are restored to life and complete vigor so long as any portion of each creature's body remains.

The targets can have been dead for no longer than two hundred years.

The vast amount of positive energy channeled by this spell deals 9d6 points of damage in backlash to the caster.

STARSHINE UPON THE PEOPLE

Conjuration [Healing] (Elven High Magic)

Spellcraft DC: 44

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 40 ft.

Area: All creatures within a 40-ft.-radius spread, centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous and 20 hours; see text

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Development: 396,000 gp; 8 days; 15,840 XP.

Seeds: heal (DC 25), fortify (DC 23).

Factors: Change target to 20-ft.-radius area (+10 DC), increase area by 100% (+4 DC).

Mitigating factors: Increase casting time by 9 minutes (-18 DC).

You lead a number of your allies in a ritual of chant and dance that cleanses the participants both physically and spiritually.

A shower of glittering stardust descends over the area, settling upon the participants and channeling positive energy to heal and empower them.

The starshine removes all dirt and grime from creatures and equipment in the spell's area.

It also cures all diseases, blindness, deafness, hit point damage, and temporary ability damage that afflicts the subjects, and it offsets feeblemindedness and cures mental disorders caused by spells or injuries to the brain.

Furthermore, it neutralizes poisons in the subjects' systems so that they suffer no additional damage or ill effects from those toxins.

In addition, it dispels all magical effects penalizing the subjects' abilities—even effects caused by epic spells developed with the afflict seed.

Once the ritual is complete, a blessing settles upon all participants, granting each a +1 morale bonus on attack rolls for the next 20 hours.

ENCHANTMENT

SONG OF ENEVAHR

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 39

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 300 ft.

Area: All creatures within 300 ft.

Duration: 20 minutes

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 351,000 gp; 8 days; 14,040 XP.

Seeds: afflict enemies (DC 14), fortify allies (DC 23).

Factors: Reduce casting time to 1 standard action (+20 DC), change from target to 20-ft.-radius area (+10 DC), increase area by 1500% (+60 DC), fortify allies with +3 morale bonus (+12 DC).

Mitigating factors: Burn 10,000 XP (-100 DC).

By singing in the midst of battle, you inspire courage in your allies and fear in your foes.

Every ally within the area of the spell gains a +3 morale bonus on Will saving throws, and every enemy takes a -2 penalty on attack rolls, checks, and saving throws.

EVOCATION

TOLODINE'S KILLING WIND

Evocation [Acid] (Netherese)

Spellcraft DC: 70

Components: V, XP

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 1,000 ft.

Effect: Cloud of acidic fog, up to 100 10-ft. cubes (S)

Duration: 20 hours (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 630,000 gp; 13 days; 25,200 XP.

Seed: energy (DC 19).

Factors: Increase damage by 18d6 (+36 DC), range 400% (+8 DC), change area to cubes (+2 DC), increase area 2,500% (+100 DC), dismissible (+2 DC), increase DC on the fly (ad hoc +3).

Mitigating factors: Burn 10,000 XP (-100 DC).

You create a cloud of billowing acidic vapors that blow at high speed from you through the area you designate.

These vapors deal 20d6 points of acid damage to each creature caught within them.

You can reshape the area as a standard action each round during the spell's duration if you so desire.

As a special feature of this spell, you can increase the saving throw DC at the time of casting by sacrificing more XP.

For every 1,000 XP you sacrifice beyond the 10,000 XP required to cast the spell, the saving throw DC increases by 5.

XP Cost: 10,000 XP or more.

NECROMANCY

HORRIBLE ARMY OF THE DEAD

Necromancy [Death, Evil]

Spellcraft DC: 112

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 300-ft. radius

Target: One or more living creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Development: 1,008,000 gp; 21 days; 40,320 XP.

Seeds: animate dead (DC 23), slay (DC 25).

Factors: Reduce casting time by 9 rounds (+18 DC), create additional 60 HD of undead (+60 DC), create skeletons (-12 DC).

Mitigating factor: Burn 1,000 XP (-10 DC).

All living creatures within the area (to a maximum of 80 HD) wither and die, their flesh falling to dust in seconds.

The next round, these creatures rise as skeletons.

You can control 1 HD of undead per caster level; any undead beyond this number are uncontrolled.

(Since you're probably creating them out of the middle of your enemy's army, however, they're likely to cause plenty of chaos on their own).

No single creature with more than 10 HD can be affected by this spell.

XP Cost: 1,000 XP.

TRANSMUTATION

PROCTIV'S MOVE MOUNTAIN

Transmutation (Netherese)

Spellcraft DC: 280

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 day

Range: 1 mile

Target: Mountain (rough cone of earth 1 mile tall and 1 mile in radius at the base)

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

Development: 2,520,000 gp; 51 days; 100,800 XP.

Seeds: transform (DC 21), transport (to move mountain into the air, DC 27).

Factors: Increase range (+34 DC), hardness of stone (+4 DC), make transport permanent (×5 DC), increase mass of transport (ad hoc +40 DC).

Mitigating factors: Increase casting time (-20 DC), burn 5,000 XP (-50 DC).

You shear off the top of a mountain, levitate it into the air, and invert it, creating a floating mass of earth with a smooth surface suitable for construction.

The ancient archwizards of Netheril used this spell to create their famous floating enclaves.

You control the movement, both vertical and horizontal, of the floating mountain.

XP Cost: 5,000 XP.

POWER OF FAERÛN (3.5)

EVOCATION

AMAUNATOR'S ETERNAL SUN

Evocation (Fire)

Spellcraft DC: 36

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 11 minutes.

Range: 12,000 ft.

Area: 150-mile radius, centered on you

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 603,000 gp; 13 days; 24,120 XP; Seeds: delude (DC 14), energy (DC 19).

Factors: increase mass by 600% (+24), increase range by 4000% (+80), thermal aspect (+2), permanent (×5).

Mitigating Factors: increase casting time by 10 minutes (-20 DC), 176 additional participant 1st-level spell slots (-176 DC), 12 additional participant 2nd-level spell slots (-36 DC), 4 additional participant 3rd-level spell slots (-20 DC), 1 additional participant 4th-level spell slots (-7 DC). When this spell is cast, it creates a miniature sun more than 2 miles above the point of casting and hides the true sun from anyone able to see the false sun (anyone within 150 miles of the caster's location at the time of the casting). The sun's apparent size (the same as the real sun, subtending about 0.5 degrees in the sky) stays the same regardless of a viewer's distance from it. This has the effect of making it seem to be permanently as bright as high noon within the spell's area (although the actual position of the false sun in the sky is gradually lower in the sky as a viewer moves away from the point of casting, eventually sinking below the horizon once the viewer is more than 150 miles away).

SANDSTORM (3.5)

CONJURATION

VOLCANO

Conjuration (Creation) [Earth, Fire]

Spellcraft DC: 56

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 day, 11 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Area: Volcanic cone (500 ft. tall and 500 ft. wide)

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None; see text

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 504,000 gp; 11 days; 20,160 XP.

Seed: conjure (21), energy (DC 25).

Factors: change area to 40-ft. cone (+2 DC), increase area by 1250% (+50 DC).

Mitigating factors: burn 2,000 XP (-20 DC), increase casting time by 1 day and 10 minutes (-22 DC).

You raise a small volcano.

The new volcano is active, drawing magma from deep within the ground, spewing lava and smoke into the air. Its base is roughly circular and about 500 feet across, and the cone tapers to a crater about 500 feet up.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

EVOCATION

BEAST OF A THOUSAND LEGS

Evocation

Spellcraft DC: 132

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 2-mile-radius emanation

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 1,152,000 gp; 24 days; 46,080 XP.

Seed: energy (weather) (DC 25).

Factors: produce multiple tornados (ad hoc ×10 DC).

Mitigating factors: burn 10,000 XP (-100 DC), increase casting time by 9 minutes (-18 DC).

You manipulate the atmosphere to create a terrible, roiling storm from which tornados sprout randomly and writhe across the land.

The storm forms over the course of 10 minutes after the spell is cast.

At any time, ten tornados are active in the storm, and each tornado is 150 feet across.

A particular tornado touches the ground for 1d6×10 minutes; when this duration expires, another tornado appears at a random location elsewhere within the storm. See page 95 of the Dungeon Master's Guide for details on the effects of tornado-force winds.

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

DIRE DROUGHT

Evocation [Fire]

Spellcraft DC: 319

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 1,000 ft.

Area: 1,000-foot-radius emanation

Duration: 20 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 2,871,000 gp; 58 days; 114,840 XP.

Seed: energy (emanate 2d6 heat in 10-ft. radius) (DC 19).

Factor: 100 times increase in base area (+400 DC).

Mitigating factor: burn 10,000 XP (-100 DC).

You call forth the heat and drought of the deep desert.

The creature or object you target emanates heat to a radius of 1,000 feet for 20 hours.

The emanated heat deals 2d6 points of desiccation damage per round to unprotected creatures, or 2d8 points to plants or elementals with the water subtype (the target is susceptible if not magically protected or otherwise resistant to energy).

The intense heat evaporates water from the soil, killing ordinary plant life.

The difference in temperature from the surrounding area causes a strong wind, which blows the soil away and produces a duststorm within the area (see Sandstorms, page 16).

Creatures damaged by this spell are dehydrated.

Dire drought counters and dispels dire winter (dire drought is also countered and dispelled by dire winter; see that spell description on page 76 of the Epic Level Handbook).

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

GLOBAL WARMING

Evocation [Fire]

Spellcraft DC: 100

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 100-mile-radius emanation

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

To Develop: 900,000 gp; 18 days; 36,000 XP.

Seed: energy (weather) (DC 25).

Factors: 50 times increase in base area (+200 DC), permanent duration (×5).
Mitigating factors: increase casting time by 9 minutes (−18 DC), eleven additional casters contributing 9th-level spell slots (−187 DC).

You increase the temperature of the region, drying up water and baking the soil within a 100-mile-radius area. 10 minutes after the spell is cast, the temperature band increases to warm or by one step (see page 12), whichever produces the hotter result.

Open water and moisture in soil and plants evaporates, creating desert conditions that last until global warming is dispelled.

If the region was ice-covered, the snow and ice melt rapidly, which might result in flooding.
Global warming counters and dispels ice age (described in the Frostburn supplement).

This is a ritual spell requiring eleven other spellcasters, each of whom must contribute an unused 9th-level spell slot to the casting.

XP Cost: 5,000 XP.

STORMWRACK (3.5)

ABJURATION

PART THE WATERS

Abjuration [Water]

Spellcraft DC: 68

Components: V, S, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Personal

Area: Cylinder, up to 300 ft. radius and 30 ft. high (S); see text

Duration: 1 hour (D)

To Develop: 612,000 gp; 13 days; 24,480 XP.

Seed: ward (DC 14); Factors: Change from touch to personal (−2 DC), change area from radius to 10-ft.-by-30-ft. cylinder (+4 DC), increase area by 3000% (+120 DC), dismissible by caster (+2 DC).

Mitigating Factors: Increase casting time to 10 minutes (−20 DC), reduce duration (−48 DC).

You cause a large body of water or a river to move away from the area you designate, leaving a relatively dry path. The water is held away from the sides of the area like a wall. You can make as narrow or as wide a path as you desire within the spell's capacity.

The default shape is a cylinder up to 300 feet wide and 30 feet high, but you can deform the area into a long, narrow path through shallow water or a high but small cylinder in deep water.

The area of dry land moves with you and can be shaped as often as you please during its duration.

TRANSMUTATION

RIVER DRAGON

Transmutation [Water]

Spellcraft DC: 78

Components: V, S, WP

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 75 ft.

Effect: One summoned creature

Duration: 20 rounds

Saving Throw: No

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 702,000 gp; 14 days; 28,080 XP.

Seeds: summon (DC 14) and transform (DC 21); Factors: transform inanimate object to creature (+10 DC), summon different creature type (+10 DC, dragon), summon CR 23 creature (+42 DC), transform 36 HD creature (+42 DC).
Mitigating Factors: Burn 4,000 XP (−40 DC), half cost to summon from transformed creature (−21 DC).

You transform part of a stream or river into a wyrm dragon with the water subtype, either a black dragon (an evil spell) or a bronze dragon (a good spell).

The dragon appears where you designate within the river or stream and acts immediately on your turn.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its abilities (preferring to use its breath weapon on the first round).

You can direct the dragon not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

When the spell's duration elapses, or when you dismiss the dragon, it immediately transforms into an equal volume of water.

Treat this as rough water for any creatures caught in it (see page 84 of the Player's Handbook); if they fail their Swim checks, they are knocked prone for 1 round.

XP Cost: 4,000 XP.

SEAS OF BLOOD

Transmutation [Evil]

Spellcraft DC: 64

Components: V, S, Ritual, XP

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 300 ft.

Area: 200-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

To Develop: 576,000 gp; 12 days; 23,040 XP.

Seeds: summon (DC 14) and transform (DC 21); Factors: Change from target to area (+12 DC, 20-ft. radius), increase area by 1000% (+40 DC, 200-ft. radius), summon CR 11 creature (+18 DC), multiply summon seed by 3 for extra creatures (+64 DC).

Mitigating Factors: Increase casting time to 10 minutes (−20 DC), five additional casters each contributing 9th-level spell slots (−85 DC).

You transform an area of water into a viscous, bloody soup. Non-evil, water-breathing creatures within the spell's area must succeed on a Fortitude save or take 1d4 points of nonlethal damage per round they remain within the seas of blood.

A creature who becomes disabled as a result of nonlethal damage begins to take lethal damage at the same rate.

Creatures who fail this save also become nauseated while they remain in the bloody water and for 1d6 rounds after leaving.

Those who make the save are instead sickened while they remain in the bloody water and for 1d6 rounds after leaving.

Other non-evil living creatures in the spell's area (whether or not they are in the water) are sickened while they remain and for 1d6 rounds after leaving.

The bloody water does not diffuse into its surroundings.

When you finish casting the spell, three fiendish dire sharks appear where you designate within the spell's area and act immediately on your turn.

The sharks depart after 20 rounds, but thenceforth whenever a good-aligned creature enters the bloody area, another group of fiendish dire sharks appear and attack.

The bloody water provides concealment (20% miss chance) to creatures up to 10 feet away and total concealment (50% miss chance) beyond that distance.

This is a ritual spell requiring five other spellcasters, each of whom must contribute one 9th-level spell slot to the casting.

INCANTATIONS

UNEARTHED ARCANA (3.5)

CONJURATION

FIRES OF DIS

Conjuration (Calling)

Effective Level: 6th

Skill Check: Knowledge (arcana) DC 23, 6 successes; Knowledge (religion) DC 23, 2 successes; Knowledge (the planes) DC 23, 1 success

Failure: Death

Components: V, S, M, XP, SC, B

Casting Time: 90 minutes

Range: Touch

Effect: 80-ft.-radius burst centered on caster

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half (DC 19 + caster's Cha modifier)

Spell Resistance: Yes

This incantation, dreamed up by insane cultists, opens a fell rift between the Material Plane and Dis, the fiery second layer of the Nine Hells.

This rift brings about a massive conflagration that destroys almost everything in the immediate area, then releases a powerful devil who capers over the smoldering ruins and begins to rampage across the countryside.

The fires of Dis ignite everything they touch—except for the caster, who is transported to Dis as the result of the incantation's backlash.

When the incantation is complete, the fires of Dis fill an 80-foot-radius spread around the caster's former location, dealing 18d6 points of fire damage (Reflex half) to all creatures and objects.

Additionally, everything flammable in that radius is now on fire (as described in Catching on Fire, page 303 of the Dungeon Master's Guide).

In the following round, a pit fiend comes through the rift, which then closes.

The creature begins to destroy everything in sight.

Failure: Death of the character who failed the second consecutive skill check.

Material Component: Rare unguents and dark alchemical concoctions worth 5,000 gp.

XP Component: 1,000 XP.

Backlash: The caster is knocked unconscious and transported to Dis (no save).

Extra Casters: Six required; they chant choruses and supplications to various dark deities throughout the incantation.

Campaign Use: Obviously, the backlash component is significant enough that most PCs will not seriously consider casting this incantation.

But even a low- to mid-level character has a decent chance of making all the skill checks without failing twice in a row, so the incantation could show up in a campaign in a number of different circumstances.

For instance, the PCs may be tipped off that suicidal cultists are trying to bring the fires of Dis to their city, and they have to disrupt the incantation.

The fires of Dis might also have a place in a mystery adventure, where the PCs must discover who stole rare alchemical compounds.

A routine investigation takes on new urgency when the PCs find out that the missing vials can be the material component for a fires of Dis incantation.

HROTHGAR'S JOURNEY

Conjuration (Teleportation)

Effective Level: 6th

Skill Check: Knowledge (arcana) DC 20, 2 successes; Perform (oratory) DC 20, 4 successes

Failure: 5d6 points of fire damage to caster

Components: V, S, M, SC, B

Casting Time: 60 minutes

Range: Touch

Target or Targets: Caster plus four to twelve other creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless) (DC 16 + caster's Cha modifier)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Hrothgar's journey is an incantation based on the tale of Hrothgar, a powerful barbarian hero from ages past.

When the poetic epic of Hrothgar is recited in the stifling heat of a sweat lodge during the winter solstice, the orator and his listeners receive the same final reward that Hrothgar did: a one-way trip to Ysgard's plain of Ida, where they can drink and make merry with the greatest warriors of myth.

To cast the incantation, the caster must construct a small, windowless hut in the middle of the forest, then build a bonfire in the hut's center.

At least four and up to twelve others accompany the caster into the hut.

Then the flames are lit and the telling of the tale of Hrothgar begins.

Because the bonfire is large and the hut is small, the atmosphere inside quickly gets stiflingly hot.

This is the incantation's backlash; unlike most backlash components, it affects the incantation's other targets as well as the caster.

Any creature inside the hut must make a Fortitude save every 10 minutes or suffer the effects of severe heat (as described in Heat Dangers, page 303 of the Dungeon Master's Guide).

Just as the tale of Hrothgar approaches its conclusion (near the end of the casting time), the bonfire's flames light the hut on fire, which creates a great deal of smoke but no additional heat or damage.

If the final skill check succeeds, the flames consume the hut's roof and walls, revealing the plain of Ida on the plane of Ysgard (see page 158 of the Dungeon Master's Guide).

Material Component: A windowless, thatched hut in a forest.
Backlash Component: Severe heat.

Extra Casters: Four required; they provide the dialogue for other characters in the epic of Hrothgar.

Campaign Use: Hrothgar's journey is well within the reach of mid-level PCs, especially bards.

Of all the Outer Planes, Ysgard is perhaps the most hospitable to PCs and the easiest to work into an ongoing campaign, so the incantation may be a good way to whet the players' appetite for planar travel without opening up the entire cosmology.

In the hands of NPCs, Hrothgar's journey can be an escape route for the barbarian raiders the characters have been chasing for months.

Or a mischievous NPC bard can beckon the PCs into a warm hut on a cold winter's night, promising them a wondrous reward if they just listen to a tale....

DIVINATION

CALL FORTH THE DWELLER

Divination

Effective Level: 6th

Skill Check: Knowledge (arcana) DC 20, 6 successes

Failure: Falsehood

Components: V, S, M, F, XP, B

Casting Time: 60 minutes

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This incantation contacts the enigmatic, extradimensional being known as the Dweller on the Threshold, an entity that imparts knowledge about its specific obsession: doors and other entrances.

To cast call forth the Dweller, the caster must inscribe forty-two mystic symbols around an open doorway, then begin the chants and supplications required for the incantation. If the incantation succeeds, an image of the Dweller—an inky mass of tentacles and mouths—appears on the other side of the doorway.

The Dweller on the Threshold truthfully answers any questions it is asked about a particular door.

For example, the Dweller can provide a magical password that unlocks a door, indicate how to disarm a trap on a door, reveal the weaknesses of a door's guardian, or describe the room that lies beyond the door.

Its answers are clear and fairly specific, if somewhat terse.

The caster may well appreciate such concise answers, because one of the forty-two symbols inscribed around the doorway during the casting of the incantation fades away with each word the Dweller on the Threshold speaks—and when all the symbols are gone, the Dweller disappears.

If the caster asks the Dweller on the Threshold a question that doesn't involve doors, the Dweller responds with a cutting insult, often about something the caster thought was secret.

Each word of the insult likewise makes a symbol disappear from the perimeter of the doorway.

The exact nature of the Dweller on the Threshold is shrouded in mystery.

Some contend that it is somehow connected to Vecna, god of secrets, although no one has ever found conclusive evidence that the Dweller on the Threshold is evil.

Option: If the doorway used as the focus is one that the Dweller has been asked about in the past, the caster gains a +4 bonus on the Knowledge (arcana) checks during the incantation.

For example, if Mialee uses call forth the Dweller to learn about the Gateway to Despair, then when she reaches the Gateway, she can use the Gateway as the focus and gain a +4 bonus when she uses the incantation to ask about the Arches of Certain Doom.

Failure: If the caster fails two consecutive Knowledge (arcana) checks, the Dweller on the Threshold gleefully lies, employing falsehoods that demonstrate its inclination toward mischief and cruelty.

Material Component: Forty-two mystic symbols inscribed around the perimeter of the focus doorway (requiring materials costing 500 gp).

As described above, these symbols gradually disappear during the time the incantation is in effect.

Focus: An open doorway large enough to allow a Medium creature to pass through it.

XP Component: 400 XP.

Backlash: After speaking with the Dweller on the Threshold, the caster is exhausted.

Campaign Use: This incantation is an obvious solution for characters who are "stuck" by an especially impenetrable door.

The exhaustion backlash makes it less likely they immediately try the door after casting the incantation, and the XP cost ensures that they won't try to use call forth the Dweller on every door they face.

If you introduce this incantation in your game, you're giving the PCs occasional access to a powerful divination. But because it's rather specific, it doesn't make the characters more powerful.

Typically, getting through a door lands PCs in trouble more quickly than if they were unable to pass the portal.

INVOCATIONS

CITYSCAPE (3.5)

LEAST

COCOON OF REFUSE

Least; 1st

You cause various bits of trash and detritus in an area—loose wood, rotting garbage, old clothes, discarded dishes, scraps of parchment, even dead animals—to fly about and latch onto a single target creature.

If the target fails a Reflex save, he is entangled.

The subject can escape with a successful DC 20 Strength or Escape Artist check, which can be repeated in every round as a standard action.

The invocation ends when the target successfully escapes, or after 1 round per caster level.

This invocation requires that at least 50% of the refuse be urban trash, so it does not function in the wilderness.

Creatures of Huge or larger size are immune to this invocation.

LESSER

THIEVES' BANE

Lesser; 3rd

So named for the people who most commonly suffer its effects, this invocation allows you to make a deadly trap of an ordinary door.

You can produce a hold portal effect, as the spell.

In addition, should anyone other than you open the ensorcelled portal from the outside by any means (including knock or dispel magic spells) before the spell's duration expires, the portal (or a large portion thereof) instantly explodes outward, dealing 5d6 points of damage to all within 20 feet of the door on that side.

Creatures standing on the inside of the door are unaffected.

Each creature but the one that triggered the effect (assuming it was standing in front of the door) can attempt a Reflex save for half damage.

Spell resistance does not apply to the damage caused by this effect.

GREATER

DEVIL'S WHISPERS

Greater; 5th

You can use a suggestion effect, as the spell.

Additionally, when the duration ends or the task is completed, the subject must attempt a second Will save with a -5 penalty.

If this second save fails, the subject completely forgets that you were the one who suggested the course of action mandated by the use of devil's whispers, instead becoming convinced that it was his own idea—even if he's not certain why he might have chosen to perform such an action.

A successful break enchantment spell can rid him of this delusion, but dispel magic and similar effects cannot.

You can have a number of devil's whispers active at any one time equal to your Charisma modifier (minimum 1).

Devil's whispers is a mind-affecting compulsion effect.

COMPLETE ARCANE (3.5)

LEAST

BALEFUL UTTERANCE

Least; 2nd

You speak a single syllable of the Dark Speech (described in Book of Vile Darkness), affecting an object or area as if by a shatter spell.

If a creature is holding or wearing the target of the spell and the target is destroyed, the creature must make a Fortitude save or be dazed for 1 round and deafened for 1 minute by your terrible word.

This is a sonic effect.

BEGUILING INFLUENCE

Least; 2nd

You can invoke this ability to beguile and bewitch your foes.

You gain a +6 bonus on Bluff, Diplomacy, and Intimidate checks for a period of 24 hours.

BREATH OF THE NIGHT

Least; 1st

A misty cloud of fog spreads in a 20-foot radius around you when you use this invocation, as the spell fog cloud.

The fog does not block line of sight, but all creatures in the fog have concealment.

A moderate wind or any fire larger than a torch immediately disperses the fog.

The fog disperses on its own after 1 minute.

DARK ONE'S OWN LUCK

Least; 2nd

You are favored by the dark powers if you have this invocation.

You gain a luck bonus equal to your Charisma bonus (if any) on Fortitude saves, Reflex saves, or Will saves (your choice each time you use this ability) for a period of 24 hours.

You can't apply this ability to two different save types at the same time.

This bonus can never exceed your class level.

DARKNESS

Least; 2nd

You can use darkness as the spell.

DEVIL'S SIGHT

Least; 2nd

You gain the visual acuity of a devil for 24 hours. You can see normally in darkness and magical darkness out to 30 feet.

EARTHEN GRASP

Least; 2nd

You can use earthen grasp as the spell (see page 104).

ELDRITCH SPEAR

Least; 2nd; Blast Shape

This blast shape invocation extends your eldritch blast attacks to great distances.

Eldritch spear increases the range of an eldritch blast attack to 250 feet with no range increment.

ENTROPIC WARDING

Least; 2nd

When this invocation is activated, chaotic energies swirl about you, deflecting incoming arrows, rays, and other ranged attacks (as entropic shield).

You leave no trail (as pass without trace) and cannot be tracked by scent.

(You can still be detected normally by scent, just not tracked).

FRIGHTFUL BLAST

Least; 2nd; Eldritch Essence

This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a frightful blast.

Any creature struck by a frightful blast must succeed on a Will save or become shaken for 1 minute.

A shaken creature struck by a frightful blast is not affected by the shaken aspect of the blast but takes damage normally.

Creatures with immunity to mind-affecting spells and abilities or fear effects cannot be shaken by a frightful blast.

HIDEOUS BLOW

Least; 1st; Blast Shape

As a standard action, you can make a single melee attack.

If you hit, the target is affected as if struck by your eldritch blast (including any eldritch essence applied to the blast).

This damage is in addition to any weapon damage that you deal with your attack, although you need not deal damage with this attack to trigger the eldritch blast effect.

LEAPS AND BOUNDS

Least; 2nd

You invoke this ability to gain amazing agility.

You gain a +6 bonus on Balance, Jump, and Tumble checks for 24 hours.

MIASMIC CLOUD

Least; 1st

A misty cloud of fog spreads in a 10-foot radius from you when you use this invocation.

The fog does not block line of sight, but all creatures in the fog have concealment.

Any creature (other than you) that enters the fog must make a Fortitude save or become fatigued.

This effect lasts as long as the creature remains within the cloud and for 1 round thereafter.

A moderate wind, or any fire larger than a torch, immediately disperses the fog.

The fog otherwise lasts for 1 minute.

SEE THE UNSEEN

Least; 2nd

When you use this invocation, you can activate great powers of vision, allowing you to see invisible creatures and objects (as see invisibility).

You also gain darkvision out to 60 feet for a period of 24 hours.

SICKENING BLAST

Least; 2nd; Eldritch Essence

This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a sickening blast.

Any living creature struck by a sickening blast must make a Fortitude save or become sickened for 1 minute.

A sickened creature struck by a second sickening blast is not affected by the sickening aspect of the blast but still takes damage normally.

SPIDERWALK

Least; 2nd

You can grant yourself the ability to spider climb (as the spell) with a duration of 24 hours.

While this invocation is in effect, you are unaffected by webs (either mundane or magical).

SUMMON SWARM

Least; 2nd

You can use summon swarm as the spell with this invocation.

Unlike the spell, this invocation has a duration of concentration instead of concentration + 2 rounds.

LESSER

BESHADOWED BLAST

Lesser; 4th; Eldritch Essence

This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a beshadowed blast.

Any living creature struck by a beshadowed blast must succeed on a Fortitude save or be blinded for 1 round.

BRIMSTONE BLAST

Lesser; 3rd; Eldritch Essence

This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a brimstone blast.

A brimstone blast deals fire damage.

Any creature struck by a brimstone blast must succeed on a Reflex save or catch on fire, taking 2d6 points of fire damage per round until it takes a full-round action to extinguish the flames or the duration expires. The fire damage persists for 1 round per five class levels you have.

For example, a 15th-level warlock deals 2d6 points of fire damage for 3 rounds after the initial brimstone blast attack. A creature burning in this way never takes more than 2d6 points of fire damage in a round, even if it has been hit by more than one brimstone blast.

CHARM

Lesser; 4th

You can beguile a creature within 60 feet. The creature must succeed on a Will save or instantly come to regard you as its comrade.

This is a language-dependent ability.

Other than these differences, this ability works as the charm monster spell.

You can never have more than one target charmed at a time with this ability.

If a second creature is charmed, you lose your hold on the first creature.

CURSE OF DESPAIR

Lesser; 4th

You can use this invocation to bestow a curse upon a touched opponent (as bestow curse).

Even if the save against this ability succeeds, the creature takes a -1 penalty on attack rolls for 1 minute.

ELDRITCH CHAIN

Lesser; 4th; Blast Shape

This blast shape invocation allows you to improve your eldritch blast by turning it into an arc of energy that “jumps” from the first target to others.

An eldritch chain can jump to one or more secondary targets within 30 feet of the first target, allowing you to make additional ranged touch attacks and deal damage to the secondary targets if you hit.

You can “jump” the chain to one secondary target per five caster levels, so you can strike two additional targets at 10th level, three additional targets at 15th level, and four additional targets at 20th level.

Each new target must be within 30 feet of the previous one, and you can't target the same creature more than once with the eldritch chain.

If you miss any target in the chain, the eldritch chain attack ends there.

Each target struck after the first takes half the damage dealt to the first target.

This reduction in damage to secondary targets applies to any effect that increases the damage of your eldritch blast (such as vitriolic blast).

You must make a separate spell penetration check for each target, if applicable.

FELL FLIGHT

Lesser; 3rd

When you use this invocation, the powers of darkness bear you aloft as you sprout a streaming, winglike cape of shadows.

You can fly at a speed equal to your land speed with good maneuverability for 24 hours.

FLEE THE SCENE

Lesser; 4th

You can use dimension door as a spell-like ability, although the range is limited to short (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels).

When you use this ability, you leave behind a major image of yourself in your place that lasts for 1 round.

The image reacts appropriately to attacks as if you were concentrating on it.

HELLRIME BLAST

Lesser; 4th; Eldritch Essence

This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a hellrime blast.

A hellrime blast deals cold damage.

Any creature struck by the attack must make a Fortitude save or take a -4 penalty to Dexterity for 10 minutes.

The Dexterity penalties from multiple hellrime blasts do not stack.

HUNGRY DARKNESS

Lesser; 3rd

You can create an area of shadow (as the darkness spell) that is filled with bats (as the bat swarm, page 237 of the Monster Manual, except the swarm fills every square occupied by the darkness).

The hungry darkness is stationary.

You are immune to the attacks of your own hungry darkness, but you are still subject to the effect of the darkness.

The hungry darkness remains as long as you concentrate on it (like concentrating on a spell), plus 2 rounds thereafter.

If the bat swarm is destroyed, the darkness disappears as well.

STONY GRASP

Lesser; 3rd

You can use stony grasp (see page 124) as the spell.

THE DEAD WALK

Lesser; 4th

You can turn the bones or bodies of dead creatures into undead skeletons or zombies (as the animate dead spell).

Unless you include the normal material component for the spell (an onyx gem worth 25 gp per Hit Die of the undead) as part of the process, undead created by this ability crumble into dust after 1 minute per caster level.

VOIDSENSE

Lesser; 4th

You can sharpen your hearing and sight when you use this invocation, gaining blindsense out to 30 feet for 24 hours.

VORACIOUS DISPELLING

Lesser; 4th

You can use dispel magic as the spell.

Any creature with an active spell effect dispelled by this invocation takes 1 point of damage per level of the spell effect (no save).

WALK UNSEEN

Lesser; 2nd
You gain the ability to fade from view.
You can use invisibility (self only), except the duration is 24 hours.

WALL OF GLOOM

Lesser; 2nd
You can use wall of gloom (see page 129) as the spell.

GREATER

BEWITCHING BLAST

Greater; 4th; Eldritch Essence
This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a bewitching blast.
Any creature struck by a bewitching blast must succeed on a Will save or be confused for 1 round in addition to the normal damage from the blast.
This is a mind-influencing effect.

CHILLING TENTACLES

Greater; 5th
This invocation allows you to conjure forth a field of soul-chilling black tentacles that ooze from the ground, groping for victims.
This invocation functions identically to the Evard's black tentacles spell, except that each creature within the area of the invocation takes 2d6 points of cold damage each round. Creatures in the area take this cold damage whether or not they are grappled by the tentacles.

DEVOUR MAGIC

Greater; 6th
This invocation allows you to deliver a targeted greater dispel magic with your touch.
You gain 5 temporary hit points for each spell level dispelled by this touch.
For example, if you successfully dispel a wall of ice, you gain 20 temporary hit points.
These temporary hit points fade after 1 minute and do not stack with other temporary hit points.
If you devour a new spell, you can replace the old temporary hit points with the ones gained from the more recent spell, thus resetting the duration.
You cannot devour your own invocations.

ELDRITCH CONE

Greater; 5th; Blast Shape
This blast shape invocation allows you to invoke your eldritch blast as a 30-foot cone.
The eldritch cone deals the normal eldritch blast damage to all targets within the area.
This is not a ray attack, so it requires no ranged touch attack.

Any creature in the area of the cone can attempt a Reflex save for half damage.

ENERVATING SHADOW

Greater; 5th
The dark powers cloak you and shield you from harm while draining vitality from nearby foes.
This invocation grants you total concealment in any area that isn't brightly lit (it will not work in daylight or in the radius of a spell with the light descriptor).
In addition, any living creature adjacent to you with this ability active must make a Fortitude save at the beginning of its turn or take a -4 penalty to Strength for 5 rounds.
Once a creature is affected by enervating shadow, it cannot be affected again by your enervating shadow for 24 hours.
The duration of this ability is 5 rounds, and it can be countered or dispelled by any light spell or effect of equal or higher level.

NOXIOUS BLAST

Greater; 6th; Eldritch Essence
This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a noxious blast.
Any creature struck by a noxious blast must make a Fortitude save or be nauseated for 1 minute.

REPELLING BLAST

Greater; 6th; Eldritch Essence
This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a repelling blast.
Any Medium or smaller creature struck by a repelling blast must make a Reflex save or be hurled 1d6×5 feet (1d6 squares) directly away from you and knocked prone by the energy of the attack.
If the creature strikes a solid object, it stops prematurely, taking 1d6 points of damage per 10 feet hurled, and it is still knocked prone.
Movement from this blast does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

TENACIOUS PLAGUE

Greater; 6th
You can use this invocation to summon a swarm, as the insect plague spell.
You add your Charisma modifier to the Fortitude save DC to resist the swarm's distraction ability.
The attacks of any locust swarm summoned by this ability are treated as magic weapons for the purpose of overcoming damage reduction.

VITRIOLIC BLAST

Greater; 6th; Eldritch Essence
This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a vitriolic blast.
A vitriolic blast deals acid damage, and it is formed from conjured acid, making it different from other eldritch essences because it ignores spell resistance.
Creatures struck by a vitriolic blast automatically take an extra 2d6 points of acid damage on following rounds.

This acid damage persists for 1 round per five class levels you have.
For example, a 15th-level warlock deals 2d6 points of acid damage per round for 3 rounds after the initial vitriolic blast attack.

WALL OF PERILOUS FLAME

Greater; 5th
You can conjure a wall of fire as the spell with this invocation.
Half the wall's fire damage results from supernatural power and is therefore not subject to being reduced by resistance to fire.
If a creature is reduced to 0 hit points or lower by a wall of perilous flame, its remains are completely consumed 1 round later (as if by a destruction spell).

WARLOCK'S CALL

Greater; 5th
You can use this invocation to send a message as the sending spell.
However, a creature unwilling to reply to you can attempt a Will save to turn the sending back on you, dealing 1d10 points of damage to you.

DARK

DARK DISCORPORATION

Dark; 8th
One with the powers of darkness, you learn to abandon your body.
When you use this ability, you become a swarm of Diminutive, batlike shadows that fills two 10-foot squares (or eight contiguous 5-foot squares, shapeable as you desire).
The duration of this ability is 24 hours.
In this swarmlike form, you gain the following characteristics and traits.
—Abilities: Your Strength score drops to 1, but your Dexterity score increases by 6.
—Armor Class: You lose any natural armor or armor bonuses to Armor Class.
You gain a +4 size bonus to AC, and a deflection bonus to AC equal to your Charisma modifier.
—Movement: You gain a fly speed of 40 feet with perfect maneuverability.
You can pass through openings a Diminutive creature could pass through.
—Swarm Traits: You are not subject to critical hits or flanking, and you are immune to weapon damage. You cannot be tripped, grappled, or bull rushed, and you cannot grapple an opponent.
You are immune to any spell or effect that targets a specific number of creatures, except for mind-affecting spells and abilities.
You take half again as much damage (+50%) from spells or effects that affect an area.
Unlike other swarms of Diminutive creatures, you are not vulnerable to wind effects.
If reduced to 0 hit points or less, or rendered unconscious by nonlethal damage, you instantly return to your normal form in a square of your choice that was formerly covered by the swarm.

—Swarm Attack: You gain a swarm attack that deals 4d6 points of damage to any creature whose space you occupy at the end of your turn.

Your swarm attack strikes as a magic weapon of your alignment.

—Distraction: Any living creature vulnerable to your swarm attack that begins its turn in a square occupied by your swarm must make a Fortitude save or be nauseated for 1 round.

Spellcasting or concentrating on spells within the area of your swarm requires a Concentration check (DC 20 + spell level).

—Possessions: All of your worn or carried equipment and items become nonfunctional, absorbed into your new form. You can take only move actions (so you cannot use other invocations) while under the effect of dark discorporation.

DARK FORESIGHT

Dark; 9th
You can use foresight as the spell with this invocation.
If you are within 100 feet of and have line of sight to the target of the ability, you can communicate telepathically with the target.

ELDRITCH DOOM

Dark; 8th; Blast Shape
This blast shape invocation allows you to invoke your eldritch blast as the dreaded eldritch doom.
This causes bolts of mystical power to lash out and savage nearby targets.
An eldritch doom deals eldritch blast damage to any number of targets designated by you and within 20 feet.
This is not a ray attack, so it requires no ranged touch attack.
Each target can attempt a Reflex save for half damage.

PATH OF SHADOW

Dark; 6th
This invocation allows you to use shadow walk as the spell.
Each hour that you spend shadow walking with this ability, you regain hit points as if you had rested for a full day.

RETRIBUTIVE INVISIBILITY

Dark; 6th
You can use greater invisibility as the spell, but you can target only yourself with the invocation.
If your retributive invisibility is dispelled, a shock wave releases from your body in a 20-foot-radius burst.
This shock wave deals 4d6 points of sonic damage to all creatures in the area and stuns them for 1 round (a Fortitude save halves the damage and negates the stunning effect).

UTTERDARK BLAST

Dark; 8th; Eldritch Essence
This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into an utterdark blast.

An utterdark blast deals negative energy damage, which heals undead creatures instead of damaging them (much like inflict spells).

Any creature struck by the attack must make a Fortitude save or gain two negative levels.

The negative levels fade after 1 hour.

If a target ever has as many negative levels as Hit Dice, it dies.

WORD OF CHANGING

Dark; 5th

You utter a powerful word that transforms a creature into an inoffensive form.

This effect functions like the baleful polymorph spell, except that 24 hours after being transformed, the subject is entitled to a second saving throw (at its original save bonus) to spontaneously resume its normal form.

If this second save fails, it remains in its new form permanently or until restored by some other means.

COMPLETE MAGE (3.5)

LEAST

ALL-SEEING EYES

Least; 2nd

You gain a supernaturally precise vision of the world around you.

You gain the benefits of comprehend languages, albeit for written words only.

Additionally, you gain a +6 bonus on Search and Spot checks.

All-seeing eyes lasts for 24 hours.

CALL OF THE BEAST

Least; 2nd

You gain a rapport with the beasts of the world.

You gain the wild empathy ability as a druid of your warlock level and can communicate with animals as if under the effect of speak with animals.

This invocation lasts for 24 hours.

HAMMER BLAST

Least; 2nd; Eldritch Essence

You transform your eldritch blast into a hammer blast.

The blast deals normal damage to objects, rather than half.

OTHERWORLDLY WHISPERS

Least; 2nd

You hear whispers in your ears, revealing secrets of the multiverse.

You gain a +6 bonus on Knowledge (arcana), Knowledge (religion), and Knowledge (the planes) checks for 24 hours.

SERPENT'S TONGUE

Least; 2nd

Your tongue transforms into that of a serpent, and you gain the scent ability (MM 314).

Additionally, you gain a +5 bonus on saves against poison.

This invocation lasts for 24 hours.

SOULREAVING AURA

Least; 2nd

You can use reaving aura as the spell (see page 114).

In addition to the normal effect, if any creature within 10 feet of you dies, you gain temporary hit points equal to its HD (maximum 10) for 1 round.

SWIMMING THE STYX

Least; 2nd

By channeling the fiendish and infamous river, you become an aquatic creature.

Your hands and feet become slightly webbed, granting you a swim speed equal to your base land speed (and all other benefits derived from a swim speed, including a +8 racial bonus on Swim checks; see MM 311).

You gain the ability to breathe water as well as air.

This invocation lasts for 24 hours.

LESSER

BANEFUL BLAST

Lesser; 3rd; Eldritch Essence

You transform your eldritch blast into a baneful blast.

This blast deals an extra 2d6 points of damage against creatures of a specific type.

You must select the creature type when you first gain this invocation, and you can't later change your mind (though you can take this invocation more than once, choosing a new creature type each time).

You choose your creature type from the categories offered for a ranger's favored enemy (PH 47), including a subtype if you choose humanoid or outsider.

COLD COMFORT

Lesser; 2nd

Your unnatural aura renders you partly immune to the ravages of the environment.

You remain cool in hot weather and warm in cold weather, as the spell endure elements.

Additionally, you radiate a small aura of warmth or cold; allies within 30 feet of you also benefit from this effect.

This invocation lasts for 24 hours.

CRAWLING EYE

Lesser; 3rd

One of your eyes leaves your head and sprouts spidery legs. You can see through the eye no matter where it goes, so you can use it to scout or spy.

The eye can't crawl of its own volition, but you can direct it to move or climb up to 20 feet as a move action.

Its Climb modifier is equal to your warlock level +8.

You can direct a crawling eye in your space to climb back into your eye socket as a move action.

When you use this invocation, your current and full normal hit point totals are reduced by 2 for as long as the eye is detached.

The eye is considered a Fine creature with AC 20 and 2 hit points.

Its Hide and Move Silently modifiers are equal to your warlock level.

For all other purposes, its statistics are equal to yours.

You can't cast most invocations or spells through the eye, but any spells or invocations that affect your sense of sight—such as devil's sight, all-seeing eyes, or detect magic—function through the eye as though it was still attached.

If your crawling eye is destroyed, you are dazzled for 1d4 hours, during which time the eye regrows.

(If you normally have only one eye, you are blinded instead).

At the end of this period, you regain the 2 lost hit points, and the dazzled condition ends.

Only one of your eyes can be used for crawling eye at any time; if your crawling eye is destroyed, you can't use this invocation again until your eye regrows.

DISEMBODIED HAND

Lesser; 4th

One of your hands drops off at the wrist and floats in the air.

You can use the hand in all ways as if it were still attached—manipulating items, delivering attacks with a light or one-handed weapon, or even delivering a touch attack with a spell or invocation that you cast before it detaches.

However, it requires you to expend the same action that would have been required—picking up an item takes a move action, making an attack takes a standard action, and so forth.

The hand flies rather than crawls, but it can't move on its own.

You can move the hand up to 30 feet through the air as a move action.

You can direct a disembodied hand in your space to reattach to your arm as a move action.

When you use this invocation, your current and full normal hit point totals are reduced by 5 for as long as the hand is detached.

The hand is considered a Diminutive creature with AC 20 and 5 hit points.

Its Hide and Move Silently modifiers are equal to your warlock level.

For all other purposes, its statistics are equal to yours.

If your disembodied hand is destroyed, it regrows in 1d4 hours.

At the end of this period, you regain the 5 lost hit points.

Only one of your hands can be used for disembodied hand at any time; if your disembodied hand is destroyed, you can't use this invocation again until your hand regrows.

MASK OF FLESH

Lesser; 3rd

Make a touch attack against a living creature of your size category.

If you succeed, your physical appearance (including garb) changes to match his, as disguise self.

In addition, when you use this invocation you can choose to bestow a -1d6 penalty to the touched creature's Charisma score.

This penalty can't reduce the creature's Charisma below 1.

A successful Will save by the target negates both effects.

A creature that successfully saves can't be affected by your mask of flesh for 24 hours.

Both effects last for 1 hour per warlock level; if you dismiss the invocation, both effects end.

RELENTLESS DISPELLING

Lesser; 4th

You can use the targeted version of dispel magic, as the spell.

The round after you use this invocation, the target of the effect is subjected to another targeted dispel magic at the start of your turn (with no additional action required on your part).

WITCHWOOD STEP

Lesser; 3rd

Your footsteps become supernaturally sure and supportive. Your movement is unaffected by undergrowth or rubble of any kind, and you are immune to being entangled.

You can even walk on water, as the water walk spell.

This invocation lasts for 24 hours.

GREATER

CAUSTIC MIRE

Greater; 4th

You can use caustic mire as the spell (see page 98).

If you use this invocation a second time while a previous caustic mire is still present, the previous effect ends.

HELLSPAWNED GRACE

Greater; 6th

You take on the form and statistics of a hellcat (MM 54) for a number of rounds equal to 1/2 your warlock level.

This is a polymorph effect (see page 91).

If reduced to 0 or fewer hit points while in hellcat form, you can't use this invocation again for 1 hour.

HINDERING BLAST

Greater; 4th; Eldritch Essence

You transform your eldritch blast into a hindering blast.

Any living creature struck by a hindering blast must succeed on a Will save or be slowed for 1 round in addition to the normal damage from the blast.

NIGHTMARES MADE REAL

Greater; 5th

You can use nightmare terrain as the spell (see page 111).

In addition to the normal effect, all creatures within the area at the start of your turn take 1d6 points of damage if they do not succeed on Will saves to disbelieve the effect.

If you use this invocation a second time while a previous nightmares made real is still present, the previous effect ends.

PAINFUL SLUMBER OF AGES

Greater; 6th You can use endless slumber as the spell (see page 103). Any creature awakened from this effect by anything other than a successful save takes damage equal to your warlock level (no save).

DARK

BINDING BLAST

Dark; 7th; Eldritch Essence
You transform your eldritch blast into a binding blast. Any creature struck by a binding blast must succeed on a Will save or be stunned for 1 round. This is a mind-affecting effect.

CASTER'S LAMENT

Dark; 8th
You can produce a break enchantment effect (as the spell) with your touch. You can only attempt to affect any single magical effect—an ongoing spell, a permanent transformation, a magic item, or the like—once per 24-hour period. In addition, you can use casters lament to counterspell another caster's spell (of 7th level or lower) as if casting greater dispel magic.

STEAL SUMMONING

Dark; 6th
You can use steal summoning as the spell (see page 118).

DRAGON MAGIC (3.5)

LEAST

ELDRITCH GLAIVE

Least; 2nd; Blast Shape
Your eldritch blast takes on physical substance, appearing similar to a glaive. As a full-round action, you can make a single melee touch attack as if wielding a reach weapon. If you hit, your target is affected as if struck by your eldritch blast (including any eldritch essence applied to the blast). Unlike hideous blow (Complete Arcane 134), you cannot combine your eldritch glaive with damage from a held weapon. Furthermore, until the start of your next turn, you also threaten nearby squares as if wielding a reach weapon, and you can make attacks of opportunity with your eldritch glaive. These are melee touch attacks. If your base attack bonus is +6 or higher, you can (as part of the full-round action) make as many attacks with your eldritch glaive as your base attack bonus allows. For example, a 12th-level warlock could attack twice, once with a base attack bonus of +6, and again with a base attack bonus of +1.

LESSER

DETERIORATING BLAST

Lesser; 4th; Eldritch Essence
This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a deteriorating blast. Any creature struck by a deteriorating blast must succeed on a Fortitude save or have its damage reduction lowered by 5 for 1 minute. If the target has more than one type of damage reduction, this effect applies to all of them. Multiple uses of this essence don't stack; instead, the new duration replaces the old one.

DREAD SEIZURE

Lesser; 4th
You speak a word that sends wracking pain through the limbs of a single target creature within 60 feet. Though these seizures are not powerful enough to immobilize the creature, they do reduce all of its speeds by 1/2 (round fractions up to the nearest 5-foot increment). The target also takes a -5 penalty on attacks made against creatures more than 5 feet away from it (or against creatures outside its own space, for creatures with a natural reach of 0 feet). This effect lasts for 3 rounds; a successful Fortitude save negates the effect.

IGNORE THE PYRE

Lesser; 4th
When you use this invocation, you gain remarkable resilience to any one energy type (acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic). For 24 hours, you gain resistance equal to your invocation caster level against the energy type of your choice. If you use this invocation a second time before the duration of the first expires, the new resistance and duration replace the old one.

WEIGHTY UTTERANCE

Lesser; 4th
You speak a word of the Dark Speech (Book of Vile Darkness 47), causing one flying creature to be forced downward suddenly. You can affect a single target creature within 60 feet. The target must make a Will save or fall 5 feet per caster level. A creature that is forced to the ground as a result of this invocation takes 1d6 points of damage per 10 feet traveled and cannot fly again for 1 round.

GREATER

DRAGONWARD

Greater; 6th
Using this invocation makes you resistant to the attacks and special abilities of dragons for 24 hours.

You gain the following benefits, which apply against any creature of the dragon type or the dragonblood subtype (see page 4):

- Immunity to frightful presence.
- Damage reduction 5/– against natural weapons (this stacks with similar damage reduction you might already have, such as from barbarian levels).
- Resistance 20 against any acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic damage dealt by a breath weapon.

ELDRITCH LINE

Greater; 5th; Blast Shape

This blast shape invocation allows you to invoke your eldritch blast as a 60-foot line.

An eldritch line deals the normal eldritch blast damage to all targets within the area.

This is not a ray attack, so it requires no ranged touch attack.

Any creature in the line can attempt a Reflex save for half damage.

PENETRATING BLAST

Greater; 6th; Eldritch Essence

This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into a penetrating blast.

A penetrating blast gains a +4 bonus on caster level checks made to penetrate a target's spell resistance.

A creature affected by a penetrating blast must succeed on a Will save or have its spell resistance lowered by 5 for 1 minute.

Multiple uses of this essence don't stack; instead, the new duration replaces the old one.

DARK

IMPENETRABLE BARRIER

Dark; 7th

You can conjure a wall of force as the spell (PH 298) with this invocation.

The wall is black and blocks sight of all kind.

You can only have one impenetrable barrier in effect at a time.

If you use the invocation a second time before the duration of the first expires, the previous wall disappears.

If your barrier is destroyed (such as by a rod of cancellation, a sphere of annihilation, a disintegrate spell, or a Mordenkainen's disjunction spell), you take 1d10 points of damage.

DROW OF THE UNDERDARK (3.5)

LESSER

SPIDER-SHAPE

Lesser; 3rd

You can transform yourself into the form of a Small or Medium fiendish monstrous spider.

The available range of sizes you can assume increases as your caster level increases.

Level	Additional Size Available
8th	Large
11th	Tiny
15th	Huge
20th	Gargantuan

This invocation is a polymorph effect (see page 59 for details of the polymorph subschool).

It lasts for a number of hours equal to your caster level, or until you choose to end it.

SUDDEN SWARM

Lesser; 4th

When you kill a living creature with one of your invocations (including eldritch blast), a swarm of spiders bursts from the corpse.

This swarm has the same statistics as a normal spider swarm (MM 239), except that you add your warlock level to its hit points and the save DC for its poison.

The swarm is entirely under your mental control, and fights as you direct it.

Commanding the swarm is a free action.

The swarm remains for a number of rounds equal to your caster level or until it is destroyed.

The swarm can take only a standard action in the round when it emerges.

At any given time, you can control only one of these swarms.

If you slay a second creature when a previous swarm is still active, you can choose either to create a second swarm (in which case the first disappears) or to leave the first swarm active and not create a second one.

Sudden swarm lasts for 24 hours or until its effect is triggered.

MAGIC OF INCARNUM (3.5)

LEAST

DRAIN INCARNUM

Least; 2nd

This ephemeral claw reaches into a single creature within 30 feet.

Unless the creature succeeds on a Fortitude save, it takes 1 point of essentia damage.

A creature without an essentia pool instead takes 1 point of Wisdom damage.

LESSER

STEAL INCARNUM

Lesser; 4th

You can use this invocation to steal essentia from a touched opponent for your own use.

Unless the creature succeeds on a Fortitude save, it loses 1 point of essentia for every 5 caster levels (to a maximum loss of 4 points at 20th level), and you gain essentia equal to the amount lost.

The gained essentia fades after 1 minute, though the essentia loss must be healed or otherwise restored normally.

If a creature fails its save against this invocation, it can't be affected by it again for 24 hours.

A target without essentia can't be affected by this invocation.

GREATER

INCARNUM BLAST

Greater; 6th; Eldritch Essence

This eldritch essence invocation allows you to change your eldritch blast into an incarnum blast.

Any living creature whose alignment is opposed to at least one component of yours must succeed on a Fortitude save or be dazed for 1 round.

(For example, a chaotic good warlock would daze lawful good, lawful neutral, lawful evil, neutral evil, and chaotic evil opponents).

If the creature also has an essentia pool, it also loses 1 point of essentia if it fails the save.

Other living creatures take the normal damage for your eldritch blast but are not dazed.

Nonliving creatures are entirely unaffected by incarnum blast.

You can invest essentia in this invocation once per day as if it were an incarnum feat.

Every point of essentia invested in your incarnum blast invocation increases the damage dealt by the blast by 1d6 points, but only against living creatures whose alignment is opposed to at least one component of yours.

Once the amount of essentia invested is chosen, it cannot be altered and remains invested for 24 hours.

DARK

INCARNUM SHROUD

Dark; 8th

Your incarnum shroud grants you concealment (20% miss chance) from all attackers, though you do not suffer any miss chance against others because of this invocation.

You gain 1 point of essentia when this invocation is in effect.

The duration of the invocation is 24 hours.

You can invest essentia in this invocation once per day as if it were an incarnum feat.

Every point of essentia invested in your incarnum shroud invocation grants you a +1 insight bonus to your Armor Class and on your Fortitude saving throws.

Once the amount of essentia invested is chosen, it cannot be altered and remains invested for 24 hours.

If your incarnum shroud is dispelled during this time, the essentia investment remains in place, taking effect once again when you activate the invocation.

MANEUVERS AND STANCES

TOME OF BATTLE (3.5)

DESERT WIND

Desert Wind maneuvers focus on quick movement and swirling, flaming strikes.

The scimitar, light mace, light pick, spear, and falchion are the preferred weapons of the Desert Wind discipline.

The complex spinning and slashing of the curved blade incorporated into many Desert Wind maneuvers are in fact carefully honed gestures that evoke the power of fire, if performed correctly and with the proper focus.

Tumble is the key skill for Desert Wind, providing the initiator with agility and maneuverability.

Desert Wind maneuvers are usable only by a swordmage, unless you take the Martial Study feat (see page 31).

BLISTERING FLOURISH

Desert Wind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: 1 minute

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Your weapon bursts into flames as you twirl it over your head.

With a flourish, you cause the fire to explode with a blinding flash.

When you use this strike, you generate a burst of brilliant light.

Any creature other than you caught in this maneuver's area must make a Fortitude save (DC 11 + your Wis modifier) or be dazzled for 1 minute.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

BURNING BLADE

Desert Wind (Boost) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: End of turn

Your blade bursts into flame as it sweeps toward your foe in an elegant arc.

A subtle yet precise twisting of your blade unlocks the power of flame.

When you initiate this maneuver, fire trails from your melee weapon.

For the rest of your turn, your melee attacks deal an extra 1d6 points of fire damage +1 point per initiator level.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

BURNING BRAND

Desert Wind (Boost) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 2

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: End of turn

Your weapon transforms into a roaring gout of flame.

As you swing your burning blade, it stretches out beyond your normal reach to scorch your foes.

When you initiate this maneuver, your weapon turns into a burning brand for the rest of your turn.

The brand increases your reach by 5 feet, and your melee attacks made with the brand deal fire damage equal to your normal melee damage.

You still gain all the normal benefits from a high Strength score, feats, and other effects that increase your melee damage.

For example, an attack with a longsword that normally deals 1d8+4 points of slashing damage would instead deal 1d8+4 points of fire damage.

You otherwise attack with your weapon as normal.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

DEATH MARK

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 3

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Area: Variable spread; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half; see text

As your weapon strikes your foe, his body convulses as waves of flame run down your blade into his body.

The fire causes him to briefly glow with a brilliant internal fire before the flames erupt from his body in a terrible explosion.

When you use the strike, you channel overwhelming fiery energy into the body of your foe.

In addition to dealing normal melee damage with your attack, you cause fire to erupt from your enemy's body in a spread.

The radius of the spread is determined by the size of the target creature, as indicated on the table below.

All creatures in the area, including your enemy, take 6d6 points of fire damage, with a Reflex save (DC 13 + your Wis modifier) for half.

This radius is centered on the creature's position.

You have immunity to the fire damage from your own death mark.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

Size	Spread Radius
Small or smaller	5 feet
Medium	10 feet
Large	20 feet
Huge	30 feet
Gargantuan	40 feet
Colossal	50 feet

DESERT TEMPEST

Desert Wind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Personal

Target: You

You move in a blur, leaving scorch marks in your wake as you twirl around the battlefield, slicing into your foes as you move.

As part of this maneuver, you move up to your speed.

Each time you exit a square adjacent to an enemy, you can first make a single melee attack against that foe.

You cannot attack a single enemy more than once with this maneuver.

Your movement provokes attacks of opportunity, as normal.

DISTRACTING EMBER

Desert Wind (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 30 ft.

Effect: One summoned fire elemental

Duration: End of turn

A wave of heat sweeps over the area, forms a small dust funnel, and ignites into flame next to your foe.

This boost allows you to conjure a Small fire elemental (MM 99) to threaten your enemy, providing you or an ally with the benefit of a flanking position.

You can use this ability to place the elemental in any space within range.

The elemental remains until the end of your current turn.

It threatens all creatures within its reach.

It takes no actions or attacks of opportunity during your turn.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

DRAGON'S FLAME

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: Cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

With a defiant roar, you summon your ki and unleash it, igniting it with a combination of your meditative focus and seething fury.

As a master of the Desert Wind advances in his studies, he learns to stoke raging fires with his ki.

This maneuver allows you to generate a gout of fire similar to a dragon's burning breath.

With this maneuver, you blast forth a cone of fire that deals 6d6 points of fire damage to everything in the area.

Creatures in the area can attempt Reflex saves (DC 15 + your Wis modifier) for half damage.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

FAN THE FLAMES

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Desert Wind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Target: One creature

Flickering flame dances across your blade, then springs toward your target as you sweep your sword through the air.

A skilled Desert Wind adept can gather flame within his weapon and hurl it through the air.

When you initiate this maneuver, you launch a fist-sized ball of white-hot fire at a single opponent.

If you make a successful ranged touch attack, your target takes 6d6 points of fire damage.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

FIERY ASSAULT

Desert Wind (Stance) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 6

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Fire dances along your arms and across your weapon, lending burning energy to every attack you make.

While you are in this stance, every melee attack you make deals an extra 1d6 points of fire damage.

This stance is a supernatural ability.

FIRE RIPOSTE

Desert Wind (Counter) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 2

Prerequisite: One Desert Wind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

You focus the pain from a wound you have just suffered into a fiery manifestation of revenge.

When a creature successfully strikes you with a melee or natural weapon, you can use this maneuver to give yourself the ability to make an immediate melee touch attack.

If your attack hits, your target takes 4d6 points of fire damage.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

FIRESNAKE

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 4

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Special

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

You drive your weapon into the ground, causing a gout of fire to jet into the air.

The fire flows back to the ground and creeps ahead like a serpent, sweeping over your enemies and roasting them where they stand. When you initiate this maneuver, you cause a line of fire to twist across an area to burn your enemies. This line is 60 feet long.

Unlike a standard line, a firesnake can bend and twist to hit your foes.

A firesnake starts in an adjacent square.

It can move up to 60 feet each round.

It can move out of your line of sight or line of effect, but you gain no special knowledge of the areas it moves into.

If a firesnake moves into a creature's space, that creature takes 6d6 points of fire damage, with a Reflex save (DC 14 + your Wis modifier) for half damage.

A creature can only take damage from the firesnake once in a single round.

It makes the saving throw and takes damage the first time that the firesnake touches it.

After that, a firesnake has no effect on that creature.

A firesnake must move along the ground.

It cannot fly, and it pays the standard movement penalties for difficult terrain and other effects.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

FLAME'S BLESSING

Desert Wind (Stance) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Fire is not your enemy, and it does not harm you.

You gain some resistance to fire as long as you remain in this stance.

The amount of resistance is determined by your ranks in Tumble.

If you have 19 or more ranks in Tumble, you gain immunity to fire while you are in this stance.

This stance is a supernatural ability.

Tumble Ranks	Fire Resistance
4–8	5
9–13	10
14–18	20
19+	Immunity

FLASHING SUN

Desert Wind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 2

Prerequisite: One Desert Wind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Almost a blur of acceleration, your shining blade flashes as you attack with impossible speed.

Flashing sun allows you to make an additional melee attack during this round.

As part of this maneuver, you take a full attack action and make your normal melee attacks.

However, you can make one additional attack this round at your highest attack bonus.

All the attacks you make this round, including the extra attack granted by this maneuver, are made with a –2 penalty.

HATCHLING'S FLAME

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 2

Prerequisite: One Desert Wind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: Cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

You focus a burning aura of energy at the end of your blade.

It forms a seething sphere that, after a moment, bursts into a torrent of energy.

The Desert Wind discipline teaches its students how to unleash their ki as burning energy.

This maneuver allows you to create a wave of fire that sweeps over your enemies.

When you initiate this maneuver, you blast forth a cone of flame that deals 2d6 points of fire damage.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

HOLOCAUST CLOAK

Desert Wind (Stance) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Desert Wind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Fire trails from your blade as you spin it about, cloaking you in flames that leap out to burn those who attack you.

The flame from your weapon hangs in midair, providing you with a fiery defense against your attackers.

An adjacent opponent that hits you with a melee attack while you are in this stance takes 5 points of fire damage.

Your holocaust cloak does not harm a creature using a reach weapon to attack you.

This stance is a supernatural ability.

INFERNO BLADE

Desert Wind (Boost) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 7

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: End of turn

A blinding light flashes from your weapon, and for a split second, it transforms into burning magma.

You convert your ki into fiery energy, allowing it to flow down your arms and across your weapon.

Until the end of your turn, your melee attacks deal an extra 3d6 points of fire damage + 1 point per initiator level.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

INFERNO BLAST

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 9

Prerequisite: Five Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: 60-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Hot winds swirl about you, and a faint aroma of brimstone sweeps over the area.

A flickering yellow aura surrounds you and grows in intensity, shedding tremendous heat and light.

Creatures around you stumble back from the heat.

With a howling roar, you unleash a hellish blast of fire that melts steel and warps stone.

Only true masters of the Desert Wind school are capable of unleashing an inferno blast.

You focus your internal ki into a blinding hot burst of fire that deals 100 points of fire damage to all creatures in the area.

You are not harmed by your own inferno blast.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

LEAPING FLAME

Desert Wind (Counter) [Teleportation]

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

As your foe attacks you, you disappear in a burst of flame and smoke, only to reappear as if out of thin air next to him.

You instantly appear in a square adjacent to a creature that attacks you with a melee or ranged attack, after resolving the enemy's attack.

You cannot move into a space that is occupied by a creature or object.

You can move up to 100 feet in this manner.

If you cannot move adjacent to the target, this maneuver fails to function but is still considered used.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

LINGERING INFERNO

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 3 rounds; see text

A blue, dancing flame appears on your weapon.

As you strike your foe, this flame slides off your weapon and covers your enemy in raging fire.

You make a single melee attack that deals an extra 2d6 points of fire damage.

In addition, if your strike hits, the flames upon your weapon bind to the target, which takes an extra 2d6 points of fire damage each round at the start of its turn for 3 rounds.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

RING OF FIRE

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 6

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Special; see text

Area: Special; see text

Saving Throw: Reflex half

You move in a blur, your feet wreathed in flaming energy.

As you run, you leave a trail of fire behind you.

You encircle a foe, and the ring of fire you leave behind bursts into an inferno that engulfs your enemy and everything else in the area.

As part of this maneuver, you can move up to two times your speed along the ground.

All of your movement must be along continuous, solid ground.

You leave a trail of flames in your wake.

These flames have no effect unless they form a closed area.

In this case, a raging inferno erupts within that area.

All creatures within the area take 12d6 points of fire damage, with a Reflex save (DC 16 + your Wis modifier) for half damage.

The inferno erupts the first time you form a closed area.

You cannot create multiple areas in one move.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

RISING PHOENIX

Desert Wind 8 (Stance) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 8

Prerequisite: Three Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Hot wind swirls about your feet, lifting you skyward as flames begin to flicker below.

A column of superheated air lifts you into the air.

While you are in this stance, you can hover up to 10 feet above any solid or liquid surface.

You gain a fly speed equal to your land speed, with perfect maneuverability, but you must remain within 10 feet of the ground when you fly.

If you hover in place and make a full attack, the column of air becomes superheated, dealing 3d6 points of fire damage to creatures adjacent to or within the column, including creatures adjacent to your square.

You are not harmed by this effect.

You can move across shallow pits or other such variations in terrain without losing altitude, so long as your movement wouldn't take you more than 10 feet above a solid or liquid surface.

If you are ever more than 10 feet above the ground (such as if the floor drops out from under you or you move over the edge of a tall cliff), the rising phoenix stance immediately ends and you fall to the ground.

This stance is a supernatural ability.

SALAMANDER CHARGE

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 7

Prerequisite: Three Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Special

Area: One 5-ft square per 5 ft. of movement

Duration: Instantaneous; 5 rounds; see text (D)

You spin and tumble about the battlefield, a wall of raging flame marking your steps.

You initiate this maneuver as part of a charge attack.

As with a charge, you can move up to double your speed and make a single attack, gaining a +2 bonus on the attack roll and a -2 penalty to your Armor Class while you move and until your next turn.

Unlike a normal charge, however, your salamander charge does not need to be in a straight line and is not impeded by difficult terrain, or even other creatures.

You can change direction as much as you want during your movement, and you can also use your Tumble skill to avoid attacks of opportunity or to move through opponents' squares during the charge.

When you initiate a salamander charge, a wall of shimmering, spectral fire appears in each of the squares along the path you take.

A creature standing in the wall takes 6d6 points of fire damage at the beginning of that creature's turn.

A creature occupying a square adjacent to the wall takes 3d6 points of fire damage at the start of its turn.

Creatures that move into or through the wall also take 6d6 points of fire damage.

The wall lasts up to 5 rounds.

You can automatically dispel the wall with a wave of your hand (a swift action), and the wall is automatically dispelled if you initiate another salamander charge.

The wall does not block line of sight or line of effect.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

SEARING BLADE

Desert Wind (Boost) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 4

Prerequisite: Two Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: End of turn

Your weapon transforms into a raging torrent of flame, causing those around you to recoil slightly from the tremendous heat.

You convert your ki into fiery energy, allowing it to flow down your arms and across your weapon.

Until the end of your turn, your melee attacks deal an extra 2d6 points of fire damage + 1 point per initiator level.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

SEARING CHARGE

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 4

Prerequisite: One Desert Wind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 full round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

You rush through the air toward your foe, fire streaming in your wake.

As part of this maneuver, you must charge an opponent.

You gain the ability to fly at your base land speed with perfect maneuverability while charging.

Resolve your charge attack normally.

On a successful hit, you deal an extra 5d6 points of fire damage to the target of your charge.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

WIND STRIDE

Desert Wind (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: End of turn

A warm breeze swirls about you as you move speedily away.

The desert wind envelops you and carries you across the battlefield, giving you a burst of speed to move around and through your enemies.

Until the end of your turn, you gain a +10-foot enhancement bonus to your land speed.

WYRM'S FLAME

Desert Wind (Strike) [Fire]

Level: Swordsage 8

Prerequisite: Three Desert Wind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: Cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

You spin your blade in a whirling arc.

With each revolution, seething flames build upon its length.

With a flourish, you bring your blade to a halt, point it at your foe, and unleash a roaring wall of flame.

Masters of the Desert Wind can twirl and spin their blades with such power that they can evoke a great burst of fire.

When you execute this maneuver, you blast forth a cone of fire that deals 10d6 points of fire damage to all in its area.

Creatures in the area can attempt a Reflex save (DC 18 + your Wis modifier) for half damage.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

ZEPHYR DANCE

Desert Wind (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Desert Wind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous; see text

You spin gracefully away from a foe's attack, whirling like the desert zephyr racing across the sands.

Your enemy's blade barely touches your cloak as you nimbly dodge aside.

You gain a +4 dodge bonus to AC against a single attack.

You can choose to use this maneuver after an opponent resolves his attack but before he determines damage.

DEVOTED SPIRIT

Devoted Spirit maneuvers focus on toughness, endurance, ripostes, and abilities designed to defeat a specific alignment.

Those who follow the Devoted Spirit discipline seek to support a cause by defending it, nurturing it, and destroying its enemies.

The falchion, greatclub, longsword, and maul are the Devoted Spirit discipline's preferred weapons, though many who fellow this school of battle embrace weapons tied to the causes they follow.

Intimidate is the key skill for Devoted Spirit.

AURA OF CHAOS

Devoted Spirit (Stance) [Chaos]

Level: Crusader 6

Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

A coruscating aura of purple energy surrounds you as chaos runs rampant in the area immediately around you.

While you are in this stance, your attacks have the potential to be utterly devastating.

When rolling damage for a melee attack, you gain a special benefit from any damage die that rolls its maximum amount (such as a result of 6 on a d6).

When one or more of your damage dice show a maximum possible result, reroll each such die and add its result to the original damage total.

You can continue to reroll as long as a die shows its maximum possible result, adding each new number to the damage total until each die has shown less than a maximum result.

AURA OF PERFECT ORDER

Devoted Spirit (Stance) [Law]

Level: Crusader 6

Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

A perfect, hazy square of golden energy surrounds you as you enter this stance.

Order reigns supreme, driving away the whims of chaos.

This stance allows you to treat a potential d20 result as an 11.

You must decide to use this ability immediately before rolling the d20.

You can use this ability once per round.

Using this ability does not take an action.

You simply decide to invoke it before rolling a d20 for any reason, such as for an attack, save, or check.

AURA OF TRIUMPH

Devoted Spirit (Stance) [Good]

Level: Crusader 6

Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Targets: You and one ally within 10 ft.

Duration: Stance

You channel the power of good through your body and soul, infusing the area around you with a soft, golden radiance.

With each blow you strike against evil, you feel invigorated and driven onward.

While you are in this stance, you and any ally within 10 feet of you both heal 4 points of damage with each successful melee attack either of you makes against an evil target.

AURA OF TYRANNY

Devoted Spirit (Stance) [Evil]

Level: Crusader 6

Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

A sickly gray radiance surrounds you, sapping the strength of your allies and funneling it to you.

While you are in this stance, you drain hit points from your allies.

At the end of your turn, you can choose to deal 2 points of damage to each willing ally within 10 feet.

For each ally who takes this damage, you heal 1 point of damage.

CASTIGATING STRIKE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)

Level: Crusader 7

Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Area: 30-ft.-radius burst; see text

Duration: 1 minute

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text

With a howling battle cry, your weapon crackles with energy.

As you strike your foe, that energy detonates in a burst that scythes through those who stand against your cause.

When you use this strike, make a single melee attack.

If you hit your opponent and his alignment has at least one component different from yours, a blast of divine energy originates from your attack's point of impact.

The target of this strike takes an extra 8d6 points of damage and must succeed on a Fortitude save (DC 17 + your Cha modifier) or take a -2 penalty on attack rolls for 1 minute.

All of your opponents within a 30-foot-radius burst of the target creature must also succeed on a Fortitude save.

Those who fail take 5d6 points of damage and take a -2 penalty on attack rolls for 1 minute.

A successful save results in half damage and negates the attack penalty.

CRUSADER'S STRIKE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)

Level: Crusader 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature
Divine energy surrounds your weapon as you strike. This power washes over you as your weapon finds its mark, mending your wounds and giving you the strength to fight on.
As part of initiating this strike, you must make a successful melee attack against an enemy whose alignment has at least one component different from yours.
This foe must pose a threat to you or your allies in some direct, immediate way.
If your attack hits, you or an ally within 10 feet of you heals 1d6 points of damage + 1 point per initiator level (maximum +5).

DAUNTING STRIKE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)
Level: Crusader 5
Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: Melee attack
Target: One creature
Saving Throw: Will negates
Duration: 1 minute
You attack your foe with an overwhelming strike, hammering through his shield and armor to cleave into his flesh. This display of raw power causes him to stumble backward, fear in his eyes.
As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against an opponent you threaten.
If this attack hits, your must make a Will save with a DC equal to the damage you deal or become shaken for 1 minute.

DEFENSIVE REBUKE

Devoted Spirit (Boost)
Level: Crusader 3
Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver
Initiation Action: 1 swift action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 round
You sweep your weapon in a wide, deadly arc. When your blows strike home, you send your foe tumbling back on the defensive. He must deal with you first, or leave himself open to your deadly counter.
Defensive rebuke allows you to excel at controlling the battlefield around you.
Your enemies must pay heed to the threat you pose.
If they ignore you in favor of attacking other targets, you take advantage of their lapses with a punishing counterattack.
Each enemy you strike after you initiate this maneuver becomes vulnerable to your further attacks.
If such an opponent attacks anyone other than you in melee for the duration of the maneuver, that attack provokes an attack of opportunity from you (each separate attack a target makes provokes an attack of opportunity, making this boost especially lethal if you have Combat Reflexes).
Enemies you strike become aware of the consequences of the maneuver.

DIVINE SURGE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)
Level: Crusader 4
Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: Melee attack
Target: One creature
Your body shakes and spasms as unfettered divine energy courses through it. This power sparks off your weapon and courses into your foe, devastating your enemy but leaving you drained.
As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack that deals an extra 8d8 points of damage.

DIVINE SURGE, GREATER

Devoted Spirit (Strike)
Level: Crusader 8
Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers
Initiation Action: 1 full-round action
Range: Melee attack
Target: One creature
Duration: 1 round; see text
A torrent of divine energy courses through you. With supreme force of will, you channel the energy into a devastating attack even as it saps your mortal form.
As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack that deals an extra 6d8 points of damage.
In addition, before making this melee attack, you can also decide to take a number of points of Constitution damage equal to your initiator level or lower.
For each point of Constitution damage you take, you gain a +1 bonus on your attack roll and deal an extra 2d8 points of damage.
After using this maneuver, you are considered flat-footed until the beginning of your next turn.

DOOM CHARGE

Devoted Spirit (Strike) [Evil]
Class: Crusader 5
Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver, evil alignment
Initiation Action: 1 full-round action
Range: Melee attack
Target: One creature
Duration: 1 round
You cloak yourself in a black, terrible aura of contempt and spite. You must make a charge attack as part of this maneuver. If your target is good-aligned, your attack deals an extra 6d6 points of damage. In addition, if your charge attack hits and the target is good-aligned, you become wreathed in unholy energy. You gain damage reduction 10/- until the beginning of your next turn.

ENTANGLING BLADE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)
Level: Crusader 4
Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: See text

You hack into your foe's legs, forcing his movement to slow and his resolution to falter.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against an opponent.

Your attack deals an extra 2d6 points of damage.

In addition, if your attack hits, your target's speed is reduced by 20 feet until the end of its next turn, which might prevent it from moving entirely.

This penalty applies to all movement modes.

A flying creature with a fly speed of 0 feet falls to the ground (and takes falling damage appropriately) if it is subject to this effect while in the air.

FOEHAMMER

Devoted Spirit (Strike)

Level: Crusader 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your throw yourself behind your attack, lending your blow such great weight and force that you leave injuries that even magical defenses cannot mend.

Your devotion to your cause gives you boundless energy that allows you to smash through supernatural defenses.

When you land an attack, you hit with such force that damage reduction offers little resistance against you.

When you use this maneuver, you make a melee attack against a single foe.

This attack automatically overcomes the opponent's damage reduction and deals an extra 2d6 points of damage.

IMMORTAL FORTITUDE

Devoted Spirit (Stance)

Level: Crusader 8

Prerequisite: Three Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Despite the horrific wounds you suffer, the flash of searing spells, and the crash of a foe's mighty attacks, you stand resolute on the field.

So long as the potential for victory exists, you fight on.

Death has little meaning to you in light of the cause you fight for.

So long as the mission stands before you uncompleted, or a battle remains in doubt, you fight on.

Stories abound of crusaders who, while in the grips of this stance, fought for days on end to hold a mountain pass against orcs, trolls and other fiends.

So long as you remain in this stance, you cannot be killed or incapacitated by effects or attacks that reduce you to 0 or fewer hit points.

If you take such damage, you can make a Fortitude save with a DC equal to your negative hit point total.

If you fail this save, you die or fall unconscious (as appropriate).

If this save is successful, you are still alive and conscious, with 1 hit point remaining.

This stance provides no protection against effects that slay you without dealing hit point damage, or other effects that petrify, paralyze, and so forth.

You can still be slain by a coup de grace if a spell or effect renders you helpless.

After you attempt three saving throws to avoid death or unconsciousness, this stance automatically ends.

You can activate it again on your turn as normal.

Even the toughest crusader can endure only so much punishment.

IRON GUARD'S GLARE

Devoted Spirit (Stance)

Level: Crusader 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

With a quick snarl and a glare that would stop a charging barbarian in his tracks, you spoil an opponent's attack.

Rather than strike his original target, your enemy turns his attention toward you.

While you are in this stance.

any opponent that you threaten takes a -4 penalty on attack rolls against your allies.

This penalty does not apply to attacks made against you.

Enemies you threaten become aware of the consequences of the stance.

LAW BEARER

Devoted Spirit (Strike) [Law]

Class: Crusader 5

Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver, lawful alignment

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

The air around you hums with cosmic energy as the power of pure law surges through you.

For a moment, you take on the aspect of a perfect being as you charge forward to smite your foes.

You must make a charge attack as part of this maneuver.

If the target is chaotic-aligned, you gain a +8 bonus on your attack (in addition to the charge bonus) and your attack deals an extra 4d6 points of damage.

In addition, if your charge attack hits and the target is chaotic-aligned, you become wreathed in axiomatic energy.

You gain a +5 bonus on saves and to AC until the beginning of your next turn.

MARTIAL SPIRIT

Devoted Spirit (Stance)

Level: Crusader 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

As you cleave through your foes, each ferocious attack you make lends vigor and strength to you and your allies.

While you are in this stance, you or an ally within 30 feet heals 2 points of damage each time you make a successful melee attack.

This healing represents the vigor, drive, and toughness you inspire in others.

Your connection to the divine causes such inspiration to have a real, tangible effect on your allies' health.

Each time you hit an opponent in melee, you can choose a different recipient within range to receive this healing.

RADIANT CHARGE

Devoted Spirit (Strike) [Good]

Class: Crusader 5

Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver, good alignment

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

You gather the power of your faith and discipline, surrounding yourself in an aura of blinding glory.

You must make a charge attack as part of this maneuver.

If the target is evil-aligned, your attack deals an extra 6d6 points of damage.

In addition, if your charge attack hits and the target is evil-aligned, you become wreathed in holy energy.

You gain damage reduction 10/- until the beginning of your next turn.

RALLYING STRIKE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)

Level: Crusader 6

Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your weapon blazes with divine energy as you smite your enemy. The energy discharges in a great pulse, sweeping over your allies and mending their wounds.

As part of initiating this strike, you must make a successful melee attack against an enemy whose alignment has at least one component different from yours.

This foe must pose a threat to you or your allies in some direct, immediate way.

If your attack hits, you and all allies within 30 feet of you heal 3d6 points of damage +1 point per initiator level (maximum +15).

REVITALIZING STRIKE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)

Level: Crusader 3

Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

As you rear back to strike your foe, an aura of divine energy surrounds you.

As your attack slams home, this aura dissipates in a flash, knitting your wounds as it discharges.

As part of initiating this strike, you must make a successful melee attack against an enemy creature whose alignment has at least one component different from yours.

This foe must pose a threat to you or your allies in some direct, immediate way.

If your attack hits, you or an ally within 10 feet of you heals 3d6 points of damage + 1 point per initiator level (maximum +10).

SHIELD BLOCK

Devoted Spirit (Counter)

Level: Crusader 2

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

With a heroic burst of effort, you thrust your shield between your defenseless ally and your enemy.

As an immediate action, you can grant an AC bonus to an adjacent ally equal to your shield's AC bonus + 4.

You apply this bonus in response to a single melee or ranged attack that targets your ally.

You can initiate this maneuver after an opponent makes his attack roll, but you must do so before you know whether the attack was a success or a failure.

SHIELD COUNTER

Devoted Spirit (Counter)

Level: Crusader 7

Prerequisite: Two Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

As your opponent prepares to make his attack, you bash him with your shield and disrupt his attempt.

As an immediate action, you can attempt a shield bash against an opponent you threaten.

This attack is made with a -2 penalty.

If your shield attack hits, your target's next attack automatically misses.

You can use this maneuver immediately after an opponent declares an attack, but you must do so before the attack's result has been determined.

STRIKE OF RIGHTEOUS VITALITY

Devoted Spirit (Strike)

Level: Crusader 9

Prerequisite: Three Devoted Spirit maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

As your enemy reels from your mighty blow, an ally nearby is simultaneously healed and cleansed of its wounds by the power of your faith.

When you make this strike, you or one ally within 10 feet of you gains the benefit of a heal spell cast as a cleric of your character level.

To gain the benefit of this maneuver, you must strike an enemy creature whose alignment has at least one component different from yours.

This foe must pose a threat to you or your allies in some direct, immediate way.

THICKET OF BLADES

Devoted Spirit (Stance)

Level: Crusader 3

Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You maintain a careful guard as you search for any gaps in your opponent's awareness.

Even the slightest move provokes a stinging counter from you.

While you are in this stance, any opponent you threaten that takes any sort of movement, including a 5-foot step, provokes an attack of opportunity from you.

Your foes provoke this attack before leaving the area you threaten.

Your opponents also cannot use the withdraw action (PH 143) to treat the square they start in as no longer threatened by you.

TIDE OF CHAOS

Devoted Spirit (Strike) [Chaos]

Class: Crusader 5

Prerequisite: One Devoted Spirit maneuver, chaotic alignment

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

The power of chaos swirls around you, lending strength to your attacks as you cast your fate to the whims of luck.

You must make a charge attack as part of this maneuver.

If the target is lawful-aligned, you gain a +8 bonus on your attack (in addition to the charge bonus) and your attack deals an extra 4d6 points of damage.

In addition, if your charge attack hits and the target is lawful-aligned, you become wreathed in anarchic energy.

You gain total concealment against all attacks that target you until the beginning of your next turn.

VANGUARD STRIKE

Devoted Spirit (Strike)

Level: Crusader 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You batter aside your foes defenses with a vicious, overwhelming attack, leaving him vulnerable to your allies' blows.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against an opponent you threaten.

If that attack hits, all your allies gain a +4 bonus on ranged and melee attacks against that target until the start of your next turn.

DIAMOND MIND

Diamond Mind maneuvers allow a warrior to use her cunning, intellect, and feel for the battlefield against her enemies.

Time seems to flow slower to a Diamond Mind initiate.

The bastard sword (or katana), rapier, shortspear, and trident are this discipline's favored weapons.

Concentration is the Diamond Mind discipline's key skill.

ACTION BEFORE THOUGHT

Diamond Mind (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 2, warblade 2

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Your supreme sense of the battlefield, unmatched martial training, and simple, intuitive sense of danger allow you to act faster than the speed of thought.

When a spell or other attack strikes you, you move a split second before you are even aware of the threat.

Your mind is a keenly honed weapon.

Other warriors rely on their physical talents.

You know that a mix of mental acuity and martial training, along with a strong sword arm, is an unbeatable combination.

This maneuver epitomizes your approach.

Your mind, rather than your raw reflexes, dictates your defenses.

You can use this maneuver any time you would be required to make a Reflex save.

Roll a Concentration check instead of the Reflex save and use the result of that check to determine the save's success.

You must use this maneuver before you roll the Reflex save.

A result of a natural 1 on your Concentration check is not an automatic failure.

AVALANCHE OF BLADES

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

In a flashing blur of steel, you unleash a devastating volley of deadly attacks against your enemy, striking it again and again.

You lash at an opponent.

If your attack hits, you repeat the same attack again and again at nearly superhuman speed, allowing you to score multiple hits in a blur of activity.

Unfortunately, as soon as an attack misses, your tempo breaks, and this delicate maneuver crumbles into a flurry of wasted motion.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack against an opponent.

If that attack hits, resolve your damage as normal.

You can then make another attack against that foe with a -4 penalty on your attack roll.

If that attack hits, you can make another attack against that opponent with a -8 penalty.

You continue to make additional attacks, each one with an additional -4 penalty, until you miss or your opponent is reduced to -1 hit points or fewer.

You must direct all these attacks at a single foe.

BOUNDING ASSAULT

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: Two Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You spring across the battlefield, using your focus and ability to act quickly to make an attack while moving.

You combine speed and power into a deadly combination.

With this maneuver, you move across the battlefield in a blur, pausing only to deliver a ferocious attack.

As part of this maneuver, make a double move.

After you move, you can also make a melee attack.

You gain a +2 bonus on this attack.

This maneuver is considered a charge attack when determining if feats and other abilities apply to your attack.

DIAMOND DEFENSE

Diamond Mind (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 8, warblade 8

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

You steel yourself against an opponent's spell, drawing on your focus and training to overcome its effect.

You can initiate this maneuver any time you would be required to make a saving throw.

You gain a bonus on that save equal to your initiator level.

You must use this maneuver before you roll the saving throw.

DIAMOND NIGHTMARE BLADE

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 8,

warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You spot a single fatal flaw in your opponent's defenses.

With a single attack, you put all the force of your supreme focus into a single, crippling blow.

You must make a Concentration check as part of this maneuver.

The DC of this check is the target creature's AC.

You then make a single melee attack against your target, also as part of the maneuver.

If your Concentration check succeeds, this attack deals four times your normal melee damage.

If your check fails, your attack is made with a -2 penalty and doesn't deal any additional damage.

If your strike is a critical hit, you stack the multipliers as normal (PH 304).

DISRUPTING BLOW

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Will negates

Duration: 1 round

With a combination of brute force, keen timing, and exacting aim, you force your opponent into an awkward position that ruins his next action.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack.

If this attack hits, your target takes normal melee damage and must make a Will save (DC 15 + your Str modifier) or be unable to take any actions for 1 round.

The target does not suffer any other drawbacks or penalties.

He can still make attacks of opportunity but is unable to take immediate actions until his next turn.

EMERALD RAZOR

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 2, warblade 2

Prerequisite: One Diamond Mind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You stare at your enemy, studying his every move.

You mentally probe his defenses in search of a weakness.

A lesser warrior could spend long minutes pondering this problem, but you see an opening and seize upon it in an instant.

Your understanding of combat, your keenly honed mind, and your capability to read your opponents make you a deadly combatant.

When you focus your mind, even the most elusive opponent becomes an easy target.

As part of this maneuver, make a single melee attack against an opponent.

This is a touch attack rather than a standard melee attack.

If you hit, you deal normal melee damage.

HEARING THE AIR

Diamond Mind (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Your perception becomes so fine that you can hear the tiniest flutter of air moving past you.

Invisible foes and other hidden threats become as plain as day in the area of your heightened senses.

Drawing on your combat training, sharpened senses, and capability to predict your enemy's moves, you become a faultless sentinel on the battlefield.

Even the smallest detail or stealthiest enemy cannot hope to evade your notice.

While you are in this stance, you gain blindsense out to 30 feet and a +5 insight bonus on Listen checks.

INSIGHTFUL STRIKE

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 3, warblade 3

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You study your opponent and spot a weak point in her armor.

With a quick, decisive strike, you take advantage of this weakness with a devastating attack.

Your mind rather than your physical power allows you to deal grievous injuries to your foes.

When you attack, your training and mental focus allow you to score a telling blow.

As part of this maneuver, make a melee attack.

If this attack hits, you do not deal normal damage.

Instead, you make a Concentration check and deal damage equal to the check result.

Your Strength modifier, your weapon's magical properties (if any), and any other extra damage you normally deal do not modify this check (including extra damage from class abilities, feats, or spells).

INSIGHTFUL STRIKE, GREATER

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6, warblade 6

Prerequisite: Two Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your keen eye picks out the slightest imperfection in your opponent's defenses.

Your weapon becomes a tool of your mind.

This maneuver functions like insightful strike, except that you deal damage equal to 2 × your Concentration check result.

MIND OVER BODY

Diamond Mind (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 3, warblade 3

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Your training and mental toughness allow you to use your focus to overcome physical threats.

By focusing your mind, you ignore the effect of a deadly poison or debilitating sickness.

Your diligent training and intense mental focus combine to allow you to overcome physical threats with the raw power of your mind.

You can use this maneuver any time you would be required to make a Fortitude save.

Make a Concentration check instead of the Fortitude save and use the result of that check to determine the saves success.

You must use this maneuver before you attempt the Fortitude save.

A result of a natural 1 on your Concentration check is not an automatic failure.

MIND STRIKE

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: Two Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Will negates

You strike your opponent's head, rattling his senses and causing him to lose focus.

As a warrior who fights with your mind as well as your brawn, you know that attacking a foe's senses is just as valuable as sapping his strength.

With this attack, you leave an opponent befuddled and vulnerable.

As part of this maneuver, make a melee attack.

If this attack hits, your target must make a Will save (DC 14 + your Str modifier) or take 1d4 points of Wisdom damage.

The target ignores the Wisdom damage on a successful save but still takes weapon damage normally.

MOMENT OF ALACRITY

Diamond Mind (Boost)

Class: Swordsage 6, warblade 6

Prerequisite: Two Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

You step into a space between heartbeats and act again while your enemies are still reacting to your last strike.

You can improve your initiative count for the next round and all subsequent rounds of the current encounter.

When you initiate this maneuver, your initiative count improves by 20, and your place in the initiative order changes accordingly.

This modifier applies at the end of the round.

Your place in the initiative order changes to reflect moment of alacrity's effect starting with the next round.

MOMENT OF PERFECT MIND

Diamond Mind (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Your mental focus and martial study rendered your will into an unbreakable iron wall.

When someone targets you with a spell that seeks to erode your willpower, you steel yourself against the attack.

Between your devoted study, iron will, and supreme focus, you have learned to resist attempts to subvert your willpower.

When you feel such an effect try to cloud your mind, you can draw on untapped reserves of energy to counter the attempt.

You can use this maneuver any time you would be required to make a Will save.

Make a Concentration check instead of the Will save and use the result of that check to determine the save's success. You must use this maneuver before you attempt the Will save.

A result of a natural 1 on your Concentration check is not an automatic failure.

PEARL OF BLACK DOUBT

Diamond Mind (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Diamond Mind maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

With every miss, your opponents become more uncertain, their doubt growing like an irritating pearl in the mouth of a helpless oyster.

You prey on your opponents' fear and lack of confidence. Each failed attack against you reminds them that their skill cannot hope to match yours.

When you enter this stance, you become more difficult to hit with each successive attack that misses you.

Each time an opponent misses you with a melee attack, you gain a +2 dodge bonus to AC.

This bonus lasts until the start of your next turn and is cumulative for the round.

The bonus applies to any attacks made by all opponents until the beginning of your next turn.

QUICKSILVER MOTION

Diamond Mind (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

In the blink of an eye, you make your move.

Your speed, reflexes, and boundless confidence combine to allow you to make a fast, bold move that catches your foes off guard.

With a burst of energy, you move forward to press an attack, draw an item from your backpack, or take some other move action.

Your training, mental acuity, and drive allow you to move with greater speed and confidence than other warriors.

This maneuver requires a swift action to initiate.

You can take a free move action after you initiate this maneuver.

You can use any of the options available for a move action. You can then use the rest of your actions as normal.

For example, you could use this maneuver to move next to a foe, then take a full attack action.

You could move, then make a charge attack, and so forth.

The move action you gain from this maneuver provokes attacks of opportunity as normal.

RAPID COUNTER

Diamond Mind (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 5, warblade 5

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

You lash out, your weapon a blur, hammering at the slightest gap that appears in your defenses.

This maneuver allows you to make a free attack against a reckless enemy.

When a foe provokes an attack of opportunity from you, you can initiate this maneuver.

As part of this maneuver, you make an immediate melee attack against the foe that provoked the attack of opportunity.

This attack does not replace the normal attack of opportunity you receive.

You can also use this maneuver before making your normal attack of opportunity when an opponent provokes (or vice versa).

The attack granted by the maneuver is not an extra attack of opportunity.

You can initiate this maneuver before, after, in addition to, or instead of making an attack of opportunity against an opponent (thus possibly saving your attack of opportunity to use against another enemy later in the round).

RUBY NIGHTMARE BLADE

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: Two Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

With a moment's thought, you instantly perceive the deadliest place to strike your enemy as you study her defenses, note gaps in her armor, and read subtle but important clues in how she carries herself or maintains her fighting stance.

The ruby nightmare blade is a favored finishing move of warriors who study the Diamond Mind discipline.

By intently analyzing your foe's stance and moves, you find the precise spot that you must strike to end the fight with a decisive blow.

You attempt a Concentration check as part of this maneuver, using the target creature's AC as the DC of the check.

You then make a single melee attack against your target. This attack is also made as part of this maneuver.

If your Concentration check succeeds, this melee attack deals double normal melee damage.

If your check fails, your attack is made with a -2 penalty and deals only normal melee damage.

If your strike is a critical hit, you stack the multipliers as normal (PH 304).

SAPPHIRE NIGHTMARE BLADE

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You study your enemy for a brief moment, watching his defensive maneuvers and making a strike timed to take advantage of a lull in his vigilance.

The sapphire nightmare blade is one of the most basic, but important, maneuvers that a Diamond Mind adept studies. It illustrates that a keen mind can pierce even the toughest defenses.

You attempt a Concentration check as part of this maneuver, using the target creature's AC as the DC of the check.

You then make a single melee attack against your target. The attack is also part of this maneuver.

If your Concentration check succeeds, the target is flat-footed against your attack, and you deal an extra 1d6 points of damage.

If your check fails, your attack is made with a -2 penalty and deals normal damage.

STANCE OF ALACRITY

Diamond Mind (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Your mind and body meld, granting you an edge in combat.

You move slightly faster than normal due to a combination of confidence, training, and clarity of mind.

This slight edge adds up with each action.

Your mental swiftness translates to physical action on the battlefield.

You are constantly on edge, allowing you to react to multiple attacks and threats.

Most warriors can only manage a single counter move each round.

While you are in this stance, you can use one counter per round without taking an immediate action.

You cannot use the same maneuver two times in a round.

In essence, one counter you use during the round does not require an immediate action.

If you have already taken an immediate action within the past round, such as casting a feather fall spell, you can still use this stance to initiate a counter.

STANCE OF CLARITY

Diamond Mind (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You focus your efforts on a single opponent, studying his moves and preparing an attack.

Your other opponents fade from sight as your mind locks onto your target.

This stance allows you to focus on a single opponent to the exclusion of all others.

You read your foe's fighting stance, his favored attacks, and the methods he used to train.

By combining these factors into a single analysis of his abilities, you see how to foil his attacks.

While you are in this stance, you must choose a single opponent as your target at the start of your turn.

You gain a +2 insight bonus to AC against that foe until you change the target of this stance.

You take a -2 penalty to AC against all other opponents while using stance of clarity.

TIME STANDS STILL

Diamond Mind (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 9, warblade 9

Prerequisite: Four Diamond Mind maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Personal

Target: You

The raindrops themselves stand still as you act at the speed of thought.

You move like a blur, catching your enemies by surprise until a complex action carried out in a tiny fraction of the time normally needed to complete it.

In an unmatched burst of speed, agility, and decisive action, you move more quickly than the eye can follow.

You can lash out with your blade, striking your opponent so rapidly that observers can't keep track of your moves.

As part of this maneuver, you can use a full attack action two times in succession.

Take your first full attack as normal.

Once you have resolved those attacks, you can then take another full attack action.

You must resolve these actions separately.

You cannot combine the attacks provided by both actions as you wish.

Instead, you must take them separately and in order as normal for a full attack.

IRON HEART

The Iron Heart discipline focuses on pure weapon skill.

Its students learn to complete fighting maneuvers that border on the supernatural.

The Iron Heart's preferred weapons are the bastard sword, dwarven waraxe, longsword, and two-bladed sword.

Its key skill is Balance, because body control, good footing, and impeccable timing are important to completing Iron Heart maneuvers.

ABSOLUTE STEEL

Iron Heart (Stance)

Level: Warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Iron Heart maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You shift your weight to the back of your feet and hold your blade carefully forward at the ready.

Your muscles twitch slightly as you prepare to dodge the next attack you face.

The absolute steel stance allows you to enhance your mobility and speed.

You move quickly, keep a sharp eye on your enemies, and are ready to instantly sidestep any incoming attacks.

While you are in this stance, you gain a +10-foot enhancement bonus to your speed.

If you move at least 10 feet during your turn, you gain a +2 dodge bonus to AC until the beginning of your next turn.

ADAMANTINE HURRICANE

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Targets: One or more adjacent creatures you threaten

In a blur of motion, you make a short, twisting leap in the air. As you turn, your weapon flashes through the enemies around you like a blazing comet.

As you drop back to the ground in your fighting stance, your enemies crumple to the ground around you.

You sweep your weapon in a circle around you, striking out at nearby enemies.

You strike with the speed and ferocity of a lightning bolt, forcing your enemies to rely on their reflexes for protection rather than their armor and shields.

You make two melee attacks against each adjacent opponent you threaten when you initiate this maneuver. You receive a +4 bonus on each of these attacks, which are otherwise made with your highest attack bonus.

DANCING BLADE FORM

Iron Heart (Stance)

Level: Warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You strike forward like a slithering snake, tiding yourself almost beyond your ability to maintain your balance.

Your foe stumbles backward, surprised that you could reach him from such a great distance.

By carefully distributing your weight and establishing a steady, rugged posture, you can reach out and strike opponents with your melee attacks at a greater than normal distance.

A warrior with less training and expertise would fall flat on his face attempting this maneuver.

You, on the other hand, have the grace, focus, and skill needed to complete this complex move.

While you are in this stance, you gain a bonus to your reach during your turn.

When you make a melee attack, your reach increases by 5 feet.

Your reach is not improved when it is not your turn, such as when you make an attack of opportunity.

You cannot improve your reach by more than 5 feet by using this ability in conjunction with other maneuvers.

DAZING STRIKE

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Through focus, raw power, and expert aim, you make a mighty attack against your foe, leaving him temporarily knocked senseless by your attack.

The proper application of force to just the right part of a foe's anatomy allows you to disrupt his actions.

While he stumbles back, senseless, you press the advantage.

You make a single melee attack as part of this strike.

If this attack hits, the target takes melee damage normally and must make a Fortitude save (DC 15 + your Str modifier) or be dazed for 1 round.

DISARMING STRIKE

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You chop at your foe's hand, causing a grievous injury and forcing him to drop his weapon.

This maneuver allows you to combine a disarm attempt with a normal attack.

You make a single melee attack as part of this strike.

If this attack hits and deals damage, you can also attempt to disarm your opponent (PH 155).

This disarm attempt does not provoke attacks of opportunity, nor is there any risk that your foe can disarm you.

EXORCISM OF STEEL

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Iron Heart maneuver

Initiation Action: Standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 minute

Saving Throw: Will half

You attack, striking not your foe, but his weapon, sending a shockwave up his arm that leaves him unable to strike with full force.

Your mastery of the Iron Heart style has taught you much about the power within a blade, and you can use this knowledge to not only enhance your own ability but also to deprive others of that power.

When you initiate this maneuver, you attack your opponent's weapon (PH 155).

This attack does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

If you succeed, your foe takes a -4 penalty on melee damage rolls for 1 minute.

The wielder of the weapon can attempt a Will save (DC 13 + your Str modifier) to halve this penalty.

You can use this maneuver only against manufactured weapons.

You cannot use it against natural weapons.

FINISHING MOVE

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You deliver a devastating strike against a wounded foe, aiming to finish him off once and for all.

Iron Heart teaches that it is best to finish off a foe with as little effort as possible, the better to save your strength for your remaining enemies.

When you use this maneuver, you throw yourself on the offensive with little thought to your defenses. If this attack strikes home, it might end a fight several crucial seconds early. As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against a creature. This attack deals an extra 4d6 points of damage. If the target's current hit points are less than its full normal hit points, the attack instead deals an extra 6d6 points of damage. If its hit points are equal to or less than one-half its full normal hit points, the attack instead deals an extra 14d6 points of damage.

IRON HEART ENDURANCE

Iron Heart (Boost)
Level: Warblade 6
Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers
Initiation Action: 1 swift action
Range: Personal
Target: You
You push aside the pain of your injuries to fight on past mortal limits.
If you have half or fewer of your full normal hit points remaining, you can initiate this maneuver to heal hit points equal to 2 × your level.

IRON HEART FOCUS

Iron Heart (Counter)
Level: Warblade 5
Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers
Initiation Action: 1 immediate action
Range: Personal
Target: You
With a last-second burst of speed, you summon reserves of mental and physical will and throw off the effects of your enemy's attack.
Your training in the Iron Heart discipline grants you excellent reflexes, mental toughness, and stamina. You can draw upon your training and focus to overcome a variety of deadly effects. As an immediate action, you can reroll a saving throw you have just made. You must accept the result of this second roll, even if the new result is lower than your initial roll.

IRON HEART SURGE

Iron Heart
Level: Warblade 3
Prerequisite: One Iron Heart maneuver
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: See text
By drawing on your mental strength and physical fortitude, you break free of a debilitating state that might otherwise defeat you.
Your fighting spirit, dedication, and training allow you to overcome almost anything to defeat your enemies. When you use this maneuver, select one spell, effect, or other condition currently affecting you and with a duration of 1 or more rounds. That effect ends immediately.

You also surge with confidence and vengeance against your enemies, gaining a +2 morale bonus on attack rolls until the end of your next turn.

LIGHTNING RECOVERY

Iron Heart (Counter)
Level: Warblade 4
Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers
Initiation Action: 1 immediate action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Your foe twists out of the way of your initial attack, but your weapon becomes a blur as you reverse direction and strike at him again with lightning speed.
In the blink of an eye, you complete your attack and resume your defensive posture.
This maneuver embodies the ethos of speed and energy that the Iron Heart tradition teaches. If one of your melee attacks misses, you can initiate this maneuver to reroll that attack roll with a +2 bonus.

LIGHTNING THROW

Iron Heart (Strike)
Level: Warblade 8
Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: 30 ft.
Area: 30-ft. line
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Reflex half
You throw your weapon through the air, sending it flying end over end to strike with uncanny accuracy and terrible force.
It leaves in its wake a trail of battered enemies.
The Iron Heart tradition's more esoteric teachings allow a student to transform any melee weapon into a thrown projectile. By focusing your concentration and attuning your senses to your weapon's balance, you can throw almost anything. When you use this strike, you make a single melee attack (even though you are throwing your weapon). You deal damage to each creature in the maneuver's area equal to your normal melee damage (including damage from your strength modifier, feats, magical abilities on your weapon, and so forth), plus an extra 12d6 points of damage. Each creature in the attack's area can make a Reflex save with a DC equal to the result of your attack roll. A successful save halves the damage dealt. Your weapon automatically returns to your hand at the end of the round.

MANTICORE PARRY

Iron Heart (Counter)
Level: Warblade 6
Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers
Initiation Action: 1 immediate action
Range: Personal
Target: You
You block an enemy's attack with a lightning-quick parry, then deflect it toward a different target.
Your foe can barely control its momentum as its attack now slams into an ally.

When you initiate this maneuver, you can attempt to block an enemy's melee attack that targets you and redirect it to another target adjacent to you.

Make a melee attack roll.

If your result is greater than your foe's attack roll, you bat aside the strike and direct it against a target of your choice that stands adjacent to you.

You must decide whether to initiate this maneuver after the enemy attacks, but before you know whether or not the attack you are attempting to deflect actually hits.

If the attack misses, you can still attempt to deflect it.

If you succeed in deflecting the attack, use the result of your opponent's attack roll to determine if it strikes the new target.

This maneuver functions only against armed melee attacks.

You cannot use it against unarmed attacks, natural weapons, or touch spells.

MITHRAL TORNADO

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 4

Prerequisite: Two Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: All adjacent opponents

Your weapon becomes a blur of motion as you swing it in a tight arc over your head.

Once you build up enough speed, you explode into a sweeping attack that chops into the enemies around you.

When you initiate this strike, you make a melee attack against every opponent adjacent to you.

Resolve each attack separately.

You gain a +2 bonus on each of these attacks, which are otherwise made at your highest attack bonus.

PUNISHING STANCE

Iron Heart (Stance)

Level: Warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You chop down violently with your weapon, lending extra force to your blows.

These attacks come at a cost, as your enemies slash at your undefended legs and flanks.

You hold your weapon overhead, allowing you to chop down with superior force.

However, this fighting stance leaves you vulnerable to an opponent's attacks.

Only an initiate of the Iron Heart tradition can manage the perilous balance between trading attack power for defense. A lesser warrior would leave himself nearly helpless to resist an opponent's attacks.

While you are in this stance, you deal an extra 1d6 points of damage with all melee attacks.

You also take a -2 penalty to AC, because this fighting stance emphasizes power over a defensive posture.

SCYTHING BLADE

Iron Heart (Boost)

Level: Warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

You strike at one foe with a long, high backhand cut, then make a quick turn to continue the stroke against another nearby enemy.

You swing your weapon in a wide, deadly arc.

With your supreme skill and martial training, you aim your attack so that as you strike one opponent, you set yourself up perfectly to make a second attack against a different foe.

As your weapon strikes one opponent, it cuts into him. then ricochets to your second target.

If the first melee attack you make during your turn hits, you can immediately make a free attack at your highest attack bonus against a different enemy that you threaten.

You can only gain one free attack each time you initiate this maneuver, regardless of how many successful attacks you make in this round.

STEEL WIND

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: Two creatures

You swing your weapon in a broad, deadly arc, striking two foes with a single, mighty blow.

Through a combination of sheer power and unmatched talent, you make an attack that injures multiple opponents. As you initiate this strike, you make two melee attacks, each against a different foe that you threaten.

Resolve each attack separately.

STEELY STRIKE

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round; see text

You focus yourself for a single, accurate attack, shrugging off your opponent's blows and ignoring the need for defense as you make your assault.

The Iron Heart discipline teaches focus, allowing you to engage and defeat one opponent at a time.

Your other enemies mean nothing to you as you press your attack.

You make a single melee attack as part of this strike.

You gain a +4 bonus on the attack roll.

All opponents other than the one you attacked gain a +4 bonus on attack rolls against you for 1 round.

STRIKE OF PERFECT CLARITY

Iron Heart (Strike)

Level: Warblade 9

Prerequisite: Four Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your supreme focus and perfect fighting form allow you to make a single, devastating attack.

You execute a flawless strike to drop your foe with a single attack.

The ultimate Iron Heart maneuver teaches the precise, perfect cut necessary to slay almost any creature.

Only the mightiest foes can withstand this attack.

Adepts of the Iron Heart tradition seek to use this attack to end fights as quickly as possible.

You might open a fight with a quick flurry of attacks, but once a foe is injured, you seek to end the battle with this decisive strike.

You make a single melee attack as part of this strike.

If your attack hits, it deals an extra 100 points of damage (in addition to your normal melee damage).

SUPREME BLADE PARRY

Iron Heart (Stance)

Level: Warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Iron Heart maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You drop into a relaxed pose, allowing your defenses to flow naturally and easily.

Your blade lashes out to absorb or deflect each attack you face, blunting the force of your enemies' blows.

As a student of the Iron Heart discipline, you learn that a simple flick of the wrist or turn of the blade can transform a deadly strike into a wild miss.

In battle, you enter a steady rhythm that makes you frustratingly difficult to fight.

You disrupt each attack with a perfectly timed counter, leaving your foes' strikes weak and ineffectual.

While you are in this stance, you gain damage reduction 5/- against any opponent that does not catch you flat-footed.

To gain this benefit, you must be proficient with the weapon you carry.

You gain this benefit while unarmed only if you have the Improved Unarmed Strike feat.

WALL OF BLADES

Iron Heart (Counter)

Level: Warblade 2

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Your weapon sways back and forth in your hand, ready to block incoming blows. With the speed of a thunderbolt, you clash your weapon against your foe's blade as he attempts to attack.

Your weapon mastery transforms your blade into an extension of your arm, allowing you to wield it with the speed and timing needed to make a precise block.

When an enemy makes a melee or ranged attack against you, you can initiate this counter to oppose that attack by making an attack roll with any melee weapon you are holding.

Use the higher of your AC or your attack roll as your effective AC against the incoming attack.

You can't use this maneuver if you are denied your Dexterity bonus to AC against your attacker.

You can decide to use this ability after you learn the result of your opponent's attack.

SETTING SUN

The Setting Sun discipline teaches its initiates to turn their opponents' strength against them.

With a quick shift in stance and a carefully aimed attack, a Setting Sun warrior sends a charging enemy tumbling in a new direction.

Setting Sun's preferred weapons are the quarterstaff, short sword, nunchaku, and unarmed strike.

The discipline's key skill is Sense Motive.

BAFFLING DEFENSE

Setting Sun (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 2

Prerequisite: One Setting Sun maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

You crouch balanced on one foot, hands held high over your head.

Your foe hesitates, unsure of how to attack you in this unlikely stance.

If your opponent strikes you on his turn, you can replace your AC with the result of a Sense Motive check as an immediate action.

You must decide whether to initiate this maneuver before you know the result of your opponent's attack (but after the attack is declared).

Your Sense Motive check applies to only one attack.

You must be aware of the attack to which you will apply the effect of this maneuver.

If you are flat-footed against the incoming attack, you cannot use this maneuver.

BALLISTA THROW

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6

Prerequisite: Two Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Touch and 60 ft.; see text

Target: Creature touched

Area: 60-ft. line

You grab your opponent and spin like a top, swinging him around before throwing him at your opponents like a bolt from a ballista.

This maneuver functions like mighty throw (page 73), except as noted here.

As part of this maneuver, you must succeed on a melee touch attack against your foe.

You can then make a trip attempt against your enemy.

You gain a +4 bonus on the ability check.

If you succeed in tripping your foe, you throw him in a 60-foot line.

The target and all creatures in this area take 6d6 points of damage.

The thrown creature lands prone at the end of this line.

You must place the target in an empty space.

If the space at the end of the line is occupied, your opponent falls prone in the open space closest to the line's endpoint.

CLEVER POSITIONING

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Reflex partial

With a swift flurry of motion, you knock your foe off balance, slip into his space, and force him into the spot you just occupied.

You make a melee attack, and while your opponent is slightly off balance from your blow, you find the leverage needed to pull him into your space while moving into his space.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack against a target.

If your attack hits, the target takes damage normally and must make a Reflex save (DC 12 + your Dex modifier).

If this save fails, you swap positions with the target.

If the target is Large or larger, you can occupy any of the squares that make up its space.

The target must in turn occupy the square, or one of the squares, you previously occupied.

You cannot use this maneuver if you or the target would end up sharing the same space as another creature or an impassable terrain feature, such as a wall.

If your target occupies a larger space than you do, he chooses his final position according to the guidelines given above.

COMET THROW

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4

Prerequisite: One Setting Sun maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched; see text

Saving Throw: Reflex partial; see text

You use your foe's momentum against him, throwing him through the air to crash into a second enemy.

This maneuver functions like mighty throw (page 73), except as noted here.

As part of this maneuver, you must succeed on a melee touch attack against your foe.

You can then make a trip attempt against your enemy.

You gain a +4 bonus on the ability check.

If you succeed in tripping your foe, you throw him up to 10 feet away from you in a direction of your choice.

You select your enemy's destination square.

The target falls prone in that space and takes 4d6 points of damage.

For every 5 points by which you win the opposed check, you gain an additional 5 feet of throw range.

For example, if you win by 10, you can place your foe in any space within 20 feet of you.

You can throw your opponent into a space occupied by a second foe.

In this case, the opponent in the target square also takes 4d6 points of damage and is knocked prone.

A Reflex save (DC 14 + your Str modifier) halves this damage and allows the second target to remain standing.

The thrown creature then falls prone in a clear space of your choice adjacent to the second target.

COUNTER CHARGE

Setting Sun (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

With a quick sidestep, you send a charging opponent sprawling.

With this counter, you can attempt to redirect a creature that intends to make a charge attack against you.

Immediately before the creature makes its charge attack, make your choice of an opposed Strength or Dexterity check against it.

The target makes its check using the same ability you chose for your check.

If you are of a larger size category than the attacking creature, you use your superior bulk to redirect your foe and gain a +4 bonus on your Strength check (if you opt for a Strength check).

If you are of a smaller size category, you use leverage, misdirection, and trickery to gain a +4 bonus on your Dexterity check (if you use that option).

If you succeed on the Strength or Dexterity check, the creature does not get to attack you.

You can then move it up to 2 squares in a direction of your choice away from you.

If you fail the Strength or Dexterity check, the creature gains a +2 bonus on its charge attack, in addition to the normal +2 bonus from taking the charge attack action.

DEVASTATING THROW

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Setting Sun maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Seizing your foe by the arm, you spin in a quick half-circle and hurl him headlong away from you.

This maneuver functions like mighty throw (page 73), except as noted here.

To set up a devastating throw, you must move at least 15 feet.

As part of this maneuver, you must succeed on a melee touch attack against your foe.

You can then make a trip attempt against your enemy.

You gain a +4 bonus on the ability check.

If you succeed in tripping your foe, you throw him up to 10 feet away from you.

The target falls prone in the destination space and takes 2d6 points of damage.

You choose where he lands.

For every 5 points by which you win the opposed check, you gain an additional 5 feet of throw distance.

For example, if you win by 10, you can place your foe in any space within 20 feet of you.

You must place the target in an empty space.

If you lack the distance to throw your target into a clear space, he falls prone in his current space.

FEIGNED OPENING

Setting Sun (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Setting Sun maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

You show your opponent a seemingly fatal mistake in your defenses, but easily avoid the ensuing attack and simultaneously draw your foe into overextending.

As she fights to regain her balance, you make a swift counterattack.

You can use this maneuver when an opponent attempts an attack of opportunity against you.

As you provoke the attack of opportunity, you position yourself in such a way as to force your opponent to throw herself off balance to strike you.

Even if she succeeds in striking you, your foe might regret her attack as your allies leap in to finish her.

When your enemy makes an attack of opportunity against you, but before you know the result of the attack, you can initiate this maneuver.

If her attack misses, she provokes an attack of opportunity from you.

If her attack of opportunity hits you, she provokes an attack of opportunity from any of your allies who threaten her.

FOOL'S STRIKE

Setting Sun (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 8

Prerequisite: Three Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

A creature strikes, but you turn the blow straight back at it.

When an enemy attacks you on its turn, you can attempt to block the blow and send it back at that creature.

You step into the attack and redirect it.

This maneuver pits your skill against that of your foe.

If an opponent attacks you, you can initiate this maneuver to make an opposed attack roll as an immediate action.

If your foe's result is higher, he attacks you as normal.

If your result is higher, your foe rolls damage as normal for the attack and takes that much damage.

GHOSTLY DEFENSE

Setting Sun (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 8

Prerequisite: Three Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You lurk within concealing mist, luring your opponent into attacking you, only to dodge out of the way and direct your enemy's blow at an unwitting ally.

You are a ghost in the mist, capable of turning a foe against her allies.

By gauging your opponent's fighting stance, timing your dodge correctly, and placing yourself in the right position, you can lead her into attacking one of her allies rather than you.

When your foe strikes, you duck out of the way.

As she follows through with her attack, she inadvertently attacks an ally.

You gain this stance's benefit when an opponent's attack against you has a miss chance, such as from concealment. Whenever an opponent's melee or ranged attack misses you because of this miss chance, you can choose to change the target of the attack from you to another eligible target (other than your attacker).

For a melee attack, the new target must be within your opponent's reach and adjacent to you.

For a ranged attack, the new target must be adjacent to you, and your opponent must have line of effect to him.

Use the result of the original attack to determine if it hits the new target.

Your foe does not check again for a miss chance, as you guide the attack directly to the new target.

This ability applies only once per attack.

If you use ghostly defense to redirect an attack against a foe using this stance, he does not have the option to redirect the attack again.

You must be aware of an opponent's attack to gain the benefit of this stance.

You cannot use it against attacks that catch you flat-footed.

GIANT KILLING STYLE

Setting Sun (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Setting Sun maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You dart between a giant's legs, lashing at his inner ankles and other vulnerable areas while staying inside his reach where he cannot hope to parry your attacks.

The Setting Sun school teaches a fighting style that emphasizes using an opponent's strength and momentum against him.

The giant killing strike epitomizes this approach.

By sizing up a larger opponent and studying his fighting stance and tendencies, you aim your strikes at vulnerable points on his lower body that he cannot defend effectively. You slice at tendons on your foe's feet, smash his knees, and cut into his hamstrings.

When you are in this stance, you gain a +2 bonus on attack rolls and a +4 bonus on damage rolls against opponents of a larger size category than yours.

This bonus applies to all attacks you make for the rest of your turn.

HYDRA SLAYING STRIKE

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 7

Prerequisite: Three Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You take stock of an opponent's lighting style and make a single, carefully aimed attack that leaves the creature unable to make all of its attacks.

You take careful aim at an enemy creature, striking it with the precise amount of force needed to push it off guard and leave it unable to bring all of its attacks to bear. Your opponent must spend critical seconds adjusting its guard and reevaluating its surroundings. As part of this maneuver, make a single melee attack. If this attack hits, your target takes normal damage and cannot make a full attack on its next turn. Otherwise, it can act normally.

MIGHTY THROW

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

You use superior leverage and your Setting Sun training to send an opponent fumbling to the ground.

As part of this maneuver, you must succeed on a melee touch attack against your foe.

Resolve the throw as a trip attempt (PH 158), but you do not provoke attacks of opportunity, and your opponent cannot try to trip you if you lose the opposed check.

You can use your Dexterity or Strength modifier, whichever is higher.

You gain a +4 bonus on the ability check.

If you succeed in tripping your foe, you throw it up to 10 feet away from you.

The target falls prone in the destination space.

You choose where it lands.

You must place the target in an empty space.

If you lack the distance to throw your target into a clear space, it falls prone in its current space.

An enemy you throw with this maneuver does not provoke attacks of opportunity for passing through enemies' threatened areas as part of the throw, and you can throw an enemy through occupied squares.

MIRRORED PURSUIT

Setting Sun (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Your movements perfectly match your foe's, allowing you to move as she does.

Try as she might to escape, you remain at her side.

Your ability to study a foe and match her motions allows you to remain within arm's reach at all times.

Your opponent cannot hope to escape you.

When an opponent adjacent to you moves, you can initiate this maneuver to immediately move to any square adjacent to her as soon as she stops moving, as long as the distance you cover is less than or equal to your speed.

This movement does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

SCORPION PARRY

Setting Sun (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 6

Prerequisite: Two Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

You knock your opponent's attack aside, guiding his weapon into one of his allies.

Your keen eye and ability to discern a foe's motives and intentions allow you to deflect an incoming attack into a different target.

If an opponent attacks you, you can initiate this maneuver to make an opposed attack roll as an immediate action.

If your foe's result is higher, he attacks you as normal.

If your result is higher, you can choose a creature adjacent to you and within your opponents threatened. The chosen creature is the new target of your foe's attack.

Use your enemy's original attack roll result to determine if he strikes the new target.

SHIFTING DEFENSE

Setting Sun (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You duck and move as you dodge your opponent's attacks.

Slowly but surely, each attack gives you the opportunity to move across the battlefield.

Your ability to read your opponents' moves and use their strength against them allows you to shift your position during a battle.

Each failed attack gives you the split-second you need to move without drawing attacks.

While you are in this stance, you can make an immediate 5-foot step each time an opponent attacks you.

Moving in this manner consumes one of your attacks of opportunity in the current round.

You cannot move in this manner if you have no attacks of opportunity remaining.

This movement does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

SOARING THROW

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

With a great shout, you send your opponent soaring through the air in a high arc.

He slams back to the ground with a bone-crushing thud.

As part of this maneuver, you must succeed on a melee touch attack against your foe.

Resolve the throw as a trip attempt (PH 158), but you do not provoke attacks of opportunity, and your opponent cannot try to trip you if you lose the opposed check.

You can use your Dexterity or Strength modifier, whichever is better.

You gain a +4 bonus on the ability check.

If you succeed in tripping your foe, you throw him up to 20 feet away from you.

The target falls prone in the destination space and takes 8d6 points of damage.

You choose where he lands.

For every 5 points by which you win the opposed check, you gain an additional 5 feet of throw distance.

For example, if you win by 10, you can place your foe in any space within 30 feet of you.

You must place the target in an empty space.

If you lack the distance to throw your target into a clear space, he falls prone in his current space.

An enemy you throw with this maneuver does not provoke attacks of opportunity for passing through enemies' threatened areas as part of the throw, and you can throw an enemy through occupied squares.

STALKING SHADOW

Setting Sun (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

When the creature you are bottling tries to back away, you step next to it in the blink of an eye, forcing it to stand and fight or suffer the consequences of withdrawal.

Using your watchful eye and your ability to judge an opponent's actions, you move at precisely the same time your enemy begins to move.

If an opponent in a square adjacent to you moves, you can initiate this maneuver to make a 5-foot step into the space (or one of the squares) it occupied.

This movement does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

STEP OF THE WIND

Setting Sun (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You walk across rubble and other broken terrain with deceptive ease, allowing you to take advantage of your opponents as they struggle to move at full speed.

You are so closely attuned to your environment that you easily pick out steady spots in rough terrain.

While others struggle to move over broken ground, you slip across it with ease.

When you fight on rough ground, you turn the uneven footing into an advantage.

By gauging how an opponent distributes his weight, you strike at just the right moment and in the precise spot needed to send him tumbling to the ground.

While you are in this stance, you ignore penalties to speed, movement, or skill checks associated with movement (such as Tumble, Jump, and Climb checks) incurred by moving through difficult terrain, if you attack an opponent standing on difficult terrain while you are in this stance, and if that foe takes a movement penalty for moving through difficult terrain, you gain a +2 bonus on attack rolls and a +4 bonus on Strength or Dexterity checks made as part of a bull rush or trip attempt against that enemy.

You gain this bonus on checks made to either accomplish or resist a bull rush or trip.

STRIKE OF THE BROKEN SHIELD

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4

Prerequisite: Two Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Reflex partial

You study your opponent and deliver an attack precisely aimed to ruin his defenses and force him to scramble for his balance.

While he struggles to ready himself, he becomes more vulnerable to your attacks.

As part of this maneuver, make a single melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 4d6 points of damage.

In addition, the target must make a Reflex save (DC 14 + your Str modifier) or become flat-footed until the start of his next turn.

The target takes damage (normal melee damage plus the extra damage) even if his save succeeds.

If the target cannot be caught flat-footed (he has uncanny dodge, for example), he still takes the extra damage from the strike but otherwise suffers no ill effect.

TORNADO THROW

Setting Sun (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 9

Prerequisite: Five Setting Sun maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One or more creatures

Like a whirlwind, you twist and spin across the battlefield, tossing foes away left and right.

As part of initiating this maneuver, you move up to your opponent, throw her aside, and move again.

You must move at least 10 feet before making your throw.

This movement and your movement after your throw provoke attacks of opportunity as normal.

You can move up to double your speed as part of this maneuver.

If you fail in your throw attempt, you can still move afterward.

After every 10 feet you move, you can attempt another throw against the same opponent or a different foe.

To make your throw attempt, you must succeed on a melee touch attack.

Resolve the throw as a trip attempt (PH 158), but you do not provoke attacks of opportunity, and your opponent cannot try to trip you if you lose the opposed check.

You can use your Dexterity or Strength modifier on this check, whichever is better.

You gain a +2 bonus on this check for every 5 feet that you have moved during your turn.

If you succeed in tripping your foe, you throw him up to 10 feet away from you.

The target falls prone in the destination space and takes 2d6 points of damage.

You choose where he lands.

For every 5 points by which you win the opposed check, you gain an additional 5 feet of throw distance and the target takes an additional 1d6 points of damage. For example, if you win by 10, you can place your foe in any space within 20 feet of you, and he takes a total of 4d6 points of damage.

You must place the target in an empty space.

If you lack the distance to throw your target into a clear space, he falls prone in his current space.

An enemy you throw with this maneuver does not provoke attacks of opportunity for passing through enemies' threatened areas as part of the throw, and you can throw an enemy through occupied squares.

SHADOW HAND

The Shadow Hand discipline teaches the arts of stealth, deception, and ambush.

Its maneuvers allow a warrior to take on a shadowy aspect or to channel dark energy to sap an enemy's strength.

This discipline's preferred weapons are the dagger, sai, short sword, spiked chain, siangham, and unarmed strike. Its key skill is Hide.

ASSASSIN'S STANCE

Shadow Hand (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Shadow Hand maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

As your foe struggles to regain his defensive posture, you line up an exacting strike that hits with superior accuracy and deadly force.

A shadow cast by a gap between two armored plates or a crease in a creature's thick hide calls to your weapon, allowing you to strike with deadly accuracy against an unprepared opponent.

While you are in this stance, you gain the sneak attack ability, if you do not already have it, which deals an extra 2d6 points of damage.

If you already have the sneak attack class feature, your existing sneak attack ability deals an extra 2d6 points of damage.

See the rogue class feature (PH 50) for a complete description of sneak attack.

BALANCE ON THE SKY

Shadow Hand (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 8

Prerequisite: Three Shadow Hand maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

With arms spread wide, you step onto the air.

You gain the ability to use air walk (PH 196) on yourself only.

You must keep at least one hand empty while using this stance.

Moving upward requires you to spend 10 feet of movement for each 5 feet of elevation you gain.

You gain the benefit of air walk only while you maintain this stance.

If for some reason your stance ends while you are in midair, you fall to the ground.

This stance is a supernatural ability.

BLOODLETTING STRIKE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Shadow Hand maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spinning your blade in a butterflylike pattern, you administer a dozen precise cuts in an eyeblink.

Blood flows from your foe's opened veins.

As part of this maneuver, you make single melee attack.

If this attack hits, your opponent takes 4 points of constitution damage in addition to your attack's normal damage.

A successful Fortitude save (DC 15 + your Wis modifier) reduces this Constitution damage to 2 points, although the foe still takes full normal melee damage.

CHILD OF SHADOW

Shadow Hand (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

As you move, shadows flutter and swarm around you.

Even under the bright desert sun, you are difficult to spot as long as you remain in motion.

As an initiate of the Shadow Hand school, you learn to channel and control dark, shadowy energies.

This energy flows around you like a concealing robe, hiding you from your opponents as they attempt to strike you.

If you move at least 10 feet during your turn, you gain concealment against all melee and ranged attacks until the start of your next turn.

You also gain the standard benefits of concealment, but you cannot use this stance to hide in plain sight; you must still use some other terrain feature that normally allows you to use the Hide skill.

The fluttering shadows make it difficult to specifically target you, but your enemies are aware of your position.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

CLINGING SHADOW STRIKE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Your weapon transforms into solid darkness.

When it strikes home, it discharges in a swirling orb of shadow that engulfs your foe's eyes.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack. If it hits, you deal an extra 1d6 points of damage, and your opponent must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 11 + your Wis modifier) or suffer a 20% miss chance on all melee and ranged attacks for 1 round. A successful save negates the miss chance, but not the extra damage. This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

CLOAK OF DECEPTION

Shadow Hand (Boost)
Level: Swordsage 2
Initiation Action: 1 swift action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: End of turn
The shadows around you seem to surge forward and engulf you. For a brief moment, they render you invisible.
When you initiate this maneuver, you turn invisible, as the greater invisibility spell (PH 245). You remain invisible until the end of your current turn. This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

DANCE OF THE SPIDER

Shadow Hand (Stance)
Level: Swordsage 3
Initiation Action: 1 swift action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: Stance
Black, shadowy energy covers your hands and feet, allowing you to scuttle across the walls and ceiling like a lurking spider.
While you are in this stance, you gain a benefit similar to the spider climb spell (PH 283). You gain a climb speed of 20 feet. You do not need to make a Climb check to traverse a vertical or horizontal surface, even if you attempt to move across a ceiling. You retain your Dexterity bonus to AC while climbing, and you must have at least one hand free to support yourself while you climb. You do not take any penalties, nor do your opponents gain any bonus when attacking you, while you climb. You cannot take a run action while climbing in this manner.

DEATH IN THE DARK

Shadow Hand (Strike)
Level: Swordsage 7
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: Melee attack
Target: One creature
Saving Throw: Fortitude partial
You catch your foe unaware, allowing you to deal a single, deadly strike that slays her instantly.
This maneuver functions only against a flat-footed opponent. As part of this maneuver, make a single melee attack. If this attack hits, you deal normal damage and the target must make a Fortitude save (DC 17 + your Wis modifier).

If the target fails this save, she takes an extra 15d6 points of damage. If her save succeeds, she takes an extra 5d6 points of damage. This maneuver functions only against opponents who are vulnerable to critical hits.

DRAIN VITALITY

Shadow Hand (Strike)
Level: Swordsage 2
Prerequisite: One Shadow Hand maneuver
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: Melee attack
Target: One creature
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates
A faint nimbus of sickly gray shadow surrounds your weapon. When you attack, this shadowy aura flows into the wound you inflict, sapping your opponent's strength, vitality, and energy.
As part of this maneuver, make a single melee attack. If this attack hits, you deal normal melee damage and the target must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 12 + your Wis modifier) or take 2 points of Constitution damage. A successful save negates the Constitution damage but not the normal melee damage.

ENERVATING SHADOW STRIKE

Shadow Hand (Strike)
Level: Swordsage 8
Prerequisite: Three Shadow Hand maneuvers
Initiation Action: 1 standard action
Range: Melee attack
Target: One creature
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates
Your weapon becomes cloaked in an inky, black nimbus. As you strike your opponent, that energy flows into the wound and leaves him pale, weak, and shaking.
As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack. If this attack hits, the target must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 18 + your Wis modifier) or gain 1d4 negative levels. You gain 5 temporary hit points for each negative level your enemy gains. Temporary hit points gained in this manner last until the end of the encounter. The effects of any negative levels bestowed by this strike disappear in 24 hours. If the target has at least as many negative levels as Hit Dice, it dies. Each negative level gives a creature a -1 penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, skill checks, ability checks, and effective level (for determining the power, duration, DC, and other details of spells or special abilities). Additionally, a spellcaster loses one spell or spell slot from her highest available level. Negative levels stack. In addition to the negative levels, your attack deals normal damage, even if the target succeeds on the saving throw. This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

FIVE—SHADOW CREEPING ICE ENERVATION STRIKE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 9

Prerequisite: Five Shadow Hand maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 minute

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text

With a single lunge, you pierce your enemy to the core.

A shadow of ultimate cold falls over his heart and begins to worm through his veins to the five points of his body.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If you hit, you deal normal melee damage plus an extra 15d6 points of damage, and a shadow spreads out from your enemy's heart, freezing the blood in his veins.

Roll a d20 and refer to the information below to determine toward which point of his body the freezing shadow spreads.

This effect functions even if your opponent is not humanoid; once you have struck your foe's heart, the shadow produces the same effects even in a creature with a different anatomy.

Result of 1–7: Spreads out to legs.

Ability damage: 2d6 Dex.

Special effect: Speed is reduced to 0 feet.

Result of 8–14: Spreads out to arms.

Ability damage: 2d6 Str.

Special effect: –6 penalty on attack rolls and Concentration checks.

Result of 15–20: Struck in the heart.

Ability damage: 2d6 Dex, 2d6 Str.

Special effect: 2d6 points of Constitution damage.

A foe struck by this attack must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 19 + your Wis modifier) to resist its effects.

On a successful save, the target ignores any special effect from the attack and takes half the indicated ability damage (but still takes normal melee damage as well as the extra 15d6 points of damage).

Each of the special effects lasts for 1d6 rounds.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

GHOST BLADE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6

Prerequisite: Three Shadow Hand maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

A smile brightens your foe's eyes; he has dodged your blow.

But that was merely the ghost blade.

The real blade is cutting swiftly from underneath, and yet he still smiles....

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack.

As you strike at your opponent, you create an illusory double of your weapon.

This double slashes at your opponent, tricking him into mistaking it for your attack.

In truth, the illusion cloaks your real attack.

Your opponent is caught flat-footed against this strike, as the hidden attack from a new direction ruins his defenses.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

HAND OF DEATH

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1d3 rounds

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

You reach out and tap your foe with a single finger.

Her look of puzzlement turns to fear as black energy spreads across her body, rendering her helpless.

You draw upon the power of shadow to render a single foe helpless.

By touching a specific nerve center and channeling your ki, you leave your enemy's muscles cold, locked, and useless.

This maneuver functions only against flat-footed opponents.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee touch attack against your opponent.

If this attack hits, your opponent must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 14 + your Wis modifier) or be paralyzed for 1d3 rounds.

ISLAND OF BLADES

Shadow Hand (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You cloak yourself in a swirling nimbus of shadow energy.

These shadows spin and flow around you, preventing any creature near you from being able to anticipate your attacks.

Your turn your enemies' strengths against them, improving your combat ability as well as that of an ally.

When you and a comrade move to attack an opponent, you time your attacks and position yourself to frustrate your opponent's defenses.

If both you and an ally are adjacent to the same creature, the two of you gain the benefit for flanking that opponent. You can gain this benefit against multiple opponents at the same time, as can your allies.

If both you and an ally are adjacent to the same two creatures, the two of you gain the benefit of flanking against both creatures.

OBSCURING SHADOW VEIL

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4

Prerequisite: Two Shadow Hand maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

As you strike your opponent, you summon the fell energies of the Shadow Hand school to rob your foe of her sight.

Inky, black energy burrows into her eyes, rendering her blind for a few critical moments.

As a standard action, you can make a single melee attack. If it hits, your opponent takes normal melee damage plus an extra 5d6 points of damage. She must also make a successful Fortitude save (DC 14 + your Wis modifier) or suffer a 50% miss chance on all melee and ranged attacks for 1 round. A successful save negates the miss chance, but not the extra damage. This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

ONE WITH SHADOW

Shadow Hand (Counter)

Level: Swordsage 8

Prerequisite: Three Shadow Hand maneuvers

INCORPOREAL SUBTYPE

The incorporeal subtype was updated in Monster Manual III for clarity. Reference this version of the subtype when you use the one with shadow maneuver.

Incorporeal Subtype: Some creatures are incorporeal by nature, while others (such as those that become ghosts) can acquire the incorporeal subtype. An incorporeal creature has no physical body. It can be harmed only by other incorporeal creatures, magic weapons or creatures that strike as magic weapons, and spells, spell-like abilities, or supernatural abilities. It is immune to all nonmagical attack forms. Even when hit by spells, including touch spells, or magic weapons, it has a 50% chance to ignore any damage from a corporeal source (except for positive energy, negative energy, force effects such as magic missile, or attacks made with ghost touch weapons). Nondamaging spell effects affect incorporeal creatures normally unless they require corporeal targets to function (such as implosion) or they create a corporeal effect that incorporeal creatures would normally be unaffected by (such as a web or wall of stone spell). Although it is not a magical attack, holy water can affect incorporeal undead, but a hit with holy water has a 50% chance of not affecting an incorporeal creature.

An incorporeal creature's attacks pass through (ignore) natural armor, armor, and shields, although deflection bonuses and force effects (such as mage armor) work normally against it. Nonmagical attacks made by an incorporeal creature with a melee weapon have no effect on corporeal targets, and any melee attack an incorporeal creature makes with a magic weapon against a corporeal target has a 50% miss chance, except for attacks it makes with a ghost touch weapon, which are made normally (no miss chance).

Any equipment worn or carried by an incorporeal creature is also incorporeal as long as it remains in the creature's possession. An object that the creature relinquishes loses its incorporeal quality (and the creature loses the ability to manipulate the object). If an incorporeal creature uses a thrown weapon or a ranged weapon, the projectile becomes corporeal as soon as

Initiation Action: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: See text

You fade into the raw essence of shadow, turning transparent, then insubstantial.

As an immediate action, you become incorporeal.

You gain all the benefits of the incorporeal subtype, along with the drawbacks, as outlined in the Incorporeal Subtype sidebar.

All of your gear becomes incorporeal, although you cannot grant this state to a living creature that you touch or carry. You remain incorporeal until the beginning of your next turn.

It is fired and can affect a corporeal target normally (no miss chance). Magic items possessed by an incorporeal creature work normally with respect to their effects on the creature or on another target. Similarly, spells cast by an incorporeal creature affect corporeal creatures normally.

An incorporeal creature has no natural armor bonus but has a deflection bonus equal to its Charisma bonus (always at least +1, even if the creature's Charisma score does not normally provide a bonus).

An incorporeal creature can enter or pass through solid objects, but must remain adjacent to the object's exterior, and so cannot pass entirely through an object whose space is larger than its own. It can sense the presence of creatures or objects within a square adjacent to its current location, but enemies have total concealment (50% miss chance) from an incorporeal creature that is inside an object. In order to see farther from the object it is in and attack normally, the incorporeal creature must emerge. An incorporeal creature inside an object has total cover, but when it attacks a creature outside the object it only has cover, so a creature outside with a readied action could strike at it as it attacks. An incorporeal creature cannot pass through a force effect.

Incorporeal creatures pass through and operate in water as easily as they do in air. Incorporeal creatures cannot fall or take falling damage. Incorporeal creatures cannot make trip or grapple attacks, nor can they be tripped or grappled. In fact, they cannot take any physical action that would move or manipulate an opponent or its equipment, nor are they subject to such actions. Incorporeal creatures have no weight and do not set off traps that are triggered by weight.

An incorporeal creature moves silently and cannot be heard with Listen checks if it doesn't wish to be. It has no Strength score, so its Dexterity modifier applies to both its melee attacks and its ranged attacks. Nonvisual senses, such as scent and blindsight, are either ineffective or only partly effective with regard to incorporeal creatures. Incorporeal creatures have an innate sense of direction and can move at full speed even when they cannot see.

SHADOW BLADE TECHNIQUE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You weave your weapon in an elaborate pattern, creating an illusory double that glows with white energy.

As you make your attack, both your true weapon and the illusion slash at your foe.

This maneuver allows you to create a mystical double of your weapon.

As you attack, your foe must decide which weapon to defend against.

In most cases, the illusory weapon distracts your foe and allows your true attack to hit.

In some cases, both attacks strike home.

In this case, the shadow blade discharges its magic and imbues your attack with cold energy.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack against an opponent.

Unlike on a normal attack, you roll 2d20 and select which of the two die results to use.

If you use the higher die result, resolve your attack as normal.

(Your mystic double misses, but your true attack might hit).

If you use the lower die result, or if both die results are the same, your attack deals an extra 1d6 points of cold damage as both the mystic double's attack and your true weapon strike home.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

SHADOW BLINK

Shadow Hand [Teleportation]

Level: Swordsage 7

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 50 ft.

Target: You

In the blink of an eye, you disappear and emerge from a mote of shadow energy across the battlefield.

This maneuver functions as the shadow jaunt maneuver, except that it can be initiated as a swift action.

SHADOW GARROTE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 3

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

With a subtle gesture, you carve a slice of shadow from the air around you and cast it toward your foe.

It wraps around the creature's neck and squeezes the life from it.

As part of this maneuver, you create a strand of shadow that you hurl at an opponent.

The strand wraps around the target's throat and chokes it.

As part of this maneuver, you make a ranged touch attack against a creature within range.

If your attack is successful, your opponent takes 5d6 points of damage.

In addition, it must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 13 + your Wis modifier) or become flat-footed until the start of its next turn.

This strike has no effect against nonliving creatures, such as constructs and undead.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

SHADOW JAUNT

Shadow Hand [Teleportation]

Level: Swordsage 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 50 ft.

Target: You

A cloud of shadow energy engulfs you, spins into a tiny mote, and disappears.

A moment later, this shadowy cloud appears across the battlefield and expels you from it.

As part of this maneuver, you disappear in a cloud of darkness and teleport up to 50 feet away.

You must have line of sight and line of effect to your destination.

If you attempt to use this maneuver to move into an occupied space, you do not move, and the maneuver is expended but has no effect.

SHADOW NOOSE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Target: One flat-footed living creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

As you foe struggles to ready his defenses, you make a subtle gesture in the air.

A noose formed of shadow drops from above him, wraps around his throat, and hoists him aloft.

His limbs flail as he struggles to free himself from the strangling noose.

As part of this maneuver, you form a noose of shadow that wraps around your target and strangles him.

This maneuver works only against a flat-footed target.

As part of this maneuver, you make a ranged touch attack against a flat-footed creature within range.

If it hits, your opponent takes 8d6 points of damage.

In addition, he must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 16 your Wis modifier) or be stunned for 1 round.

A successful save negates the stun, but not the extra damage.

This strike has no effect against nonliving creatures, such as constructs and undead.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

SHADOW STRIDE

Shadow Hand [Teleportation]

Level: Swordsage 5

Initiation Action: 1 move action

Range: 50 ft.

Target: You

You dissipate into a puff of black shadow.

A moment later, the shadow coalesces, and appear fifty feet away.

This maneuver functions as the shadow jaunt maneuver, except that it can be initiated as a move action.

STALKER IN THE NIGHT

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You slide through the dark like a bird of prey, emerging only to strike down your foe before sliding back into shadow's welcoming embrace.

As part of this maneuver, you move up to your speed and make a single melee attack at any point during your movement.

If you were hidden before initiating this maneuver, you can keep the results of your previous Hide and Move Silently checks even though you move and attack.

As long as you end your turn in a spot that allows you to hide, your foes must make Spot and Listen checks as normal to discern your presence.

Your movement and this maneuver's attack have no effect on your Hide and Move Silently results.

STEP OF THE DANCING MOTH

Shadow Hand (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 5

Prerequisite: Two Shadow Hand maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You focus your inner reserve of ki energy to generate flowing shadows that lift you off the ground.

You walk across the roughest ground, even water, with ease.

While you are in this stance, you can walk up to 5 feet above the ground.

Your speed becomes 20 feet while you are in this stance, and you cannot run.

You ignore any terrain feature that fails to project more than 5 feet above the ground, such as difficult terrain, burning lava, water, and so forth.

In addition, you ignore the standard penalties on Hide and Move Silently checks for moving quickly.

STRENGTH DRAINING STRIKE

Shadow Hand (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 3

Prerequisite: One Shadow Hand maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Liquid, black energy covers your weapon.

As you strike your opponent, this material flows into the wound, spreads along his veins, and leaves him weakened.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack against an opponent.

In addition to dealing normal melee damage with the attack, you deal 4 points of Strength damage.

A successful Fortitude save (DC 13 + your Wis modifier) halves this Strength damage, but has no effect on the normal melee damage you deal with the strike.

This maneuver is a supernatural ability.

STONE DRAGON

The Stone Dragon discipline focuses on strength, power, and toughness.

Its teachings grant a martial adept the ability to splinter steel with a single, focused blow.

Stone Dragon's defensive abilities focus on tapping into the enduring power of stone to turn aside attacks.

This discipline's favored weapons are the greatsword, greataxe, heavy mace, and unarmed strike.

Its key skill is Balance.

Unlike with other disciplines, adepts of this school rely on an external force—the power of the earth and stone—to help power their maneuvers.

As a result, Stone Dragon maneuvers can be initiated only if you are in contact with the ground.

ADAMANTINE BONES

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 8, swordsage 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

You are an impenetrable tower of defiance on the battlefield. Attacking you is as fruitless as striking a mountain with a walking stick.

The supreme focus, mental toughness, and physical durability taught by the Stone Dragon discipline culminate in this powerful combat maneuver.

When you make a successful attack, your mind focuses your body into the equivalent of a living shard of rock.

Even the most ferocious attacks bounce off without harm.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If this attack hits, you gain damage reduction 20/adamantine for 1 round.

ANCIENT MOUNTAIN HAMMER

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 7, swordsage 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature or unattended object

You put the weight of a great mountain behind your attack, pounding through armor and bone.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 12d6 points of damage and automatically overcomes damage reduction and hardness.

BONECRUSHER

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 3, swordsage 3, warblade 3

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text

You deliver your attack, and your enemy's eyes jerk wide open in panic as his skeleton begins to fracture in hundreds of places.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack.

If your attack hits, it deals an extra 4d6 points of damage.

The creature struck must succeed on a Fortitude save (DC 13 + your Str modifier) or its skeletal structure becomes massively weakened, and all rolls made to confirm a critical hit against the target gain a +10 bonus.

A successful save does not negate the extra damage.

This effect lasts until the target's hit points are restored to their full normal total, whether by magical or normal healing.

Creatures without a discernible anatomy or that are immune to critical hits are immune to this maneuver's special effect.

The extra damage still applies against such targets.

BONESPLITTING STRIKE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 4, swordmage 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: Two Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your attack slams home with a ferocious crack of shattered bones and pulped flesh.

Your target reels backward, still alive but severely crippled.

A Stone Dragon adept is an implacable foe.

Your attacks smash through armor and turn bone into dust.

By focusing your strength into a single, devastating attack, you smash an opponent to the core.

His very health and endurance are left wrecked by your attack.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If your attack hits, the target takes normal damage as well as 2 points of Constitution damage.

BOULDER ROLL

Stone Dragon (Boost)

Level: Crusader 4, swordmage 4, warblade 4

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Like a boulder tumbling down a mountainside, you slam through your enemies.

You are an implacable foe once you gain enough momentum.

As you move across the battlefield, your foes must stand aside or be crushed beneath your feet.

If you make an overrun attack (PH 157), you can initiate this boost.

You gain a +4 bonus on your Strength check made to overrun, and if you fail your check, your target can't knock you prone.

You simply stop moving in the last legal space you occupied.

You do not provoke attacks of opportunity for the movement or the overrun attempts.

CHARGING MINOTAUR

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 1, swordmage 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You charge at your foe, blasting him with such power that he stumbles back.

As you roar across the battlefield, your position yourself to deliver a devastating charge attack.

When you slam into an opponent, you crush him with concussive force and send him stumbling backward.

As part of this maneuver, you make a bull rush attack (PH 154) as part of a charge.

Neither the movement nor the bull rush attack provokes attacks of opportunity.

Resolve the bull rush attempt normally.

If your Strength check exceeds the opponent's result, you deal bludgeoning damage equal to 2d6 + your Str modifier in addition to pushing the target back as normal.

Assuming your Strength check is high enough, you can push your target back more than 5 feet (as normal for a bull rush, but without having to follow).

COLOSSUS STRIKE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 7, swordmage 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Two Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Focusing your strength with a deep, rumbling shout, you execute an attack that sends your opponent flying through the air.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against your foe.

This attack deals an extra 6d6 points of damage, and the creature struck must succeed on a Fortitude save (DC 17 + your Str modifier) or be hurled 1d4 squares away from you, falling prone in that square.

A creature of a smaller size category than yours gets a -2 penalty on this save; a creature of a larger size category than yours gets a +2 bonus on the save.

The enemy's movement doesn't provoke attacks of opportunity.

If an obstacle blocks the creature's movement, it instead stops in the first unoccupied square.

CRUSHING VISE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 6, swordmage 6, warblade 6

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

The overwhelming power behind your attack leaves your opponent unable to move.

The punishing strike forces it to waste a few moments shrugging off the effects of your attack.

By making a powerful, focused blow, you leave your opponent unable to move.

The crushing weight of your attack forces it to waste a precious moment regaining its footing.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 4d6 points of damage.

If the creature you hit is standing on the ground, your attack also drops the target's speed to 0 feet (for all movement types) for 1 round.

It can act normally in all other ways.

This maneuver functions only against opponents standing on the ground.

A flying creature or a levitating target is immune to the speed reducing effect, but not to the extra damage.

CRUSHING WEIGHT OF THE MOUNTAIN

Stone Dragon (Stance)

Level: Crusader 3, swordmage 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Stone Dragon maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You crush your opponent beneath you, squeezing the life out of him as you pin him to the ground.

Engaging in close combat against you is, at best, a foolish prospect.

Drawing on your understanding of the Stone Dragon discipline, you squeeze a foe within your grasp and force the life from him.

While you are in this stance, you gain the ability to constrict for 2d6 points of damage + 1-1/2 times your Str bonus (if any).

You can constrict an opponent that you grapple by making a successful grapple check.

EARTHSTRIKE QUAKE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 8, swordsage 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Two Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst, centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

You swing your weapon in a wild arc, slamming it into the ground at your feet.

Energy surges out from you, causing the ground to shudder with a sharp tremor.

You channel ki into the earth with your mighty strike, causing the ground to rumble and shake briefly.

Anyone standing on the ground in this maneuver's area must make a successful Reflex save (DC 18 + your Str modifier) or be knocked prone.

Any creature standing on the ground in this area that is currently casting a spell must succeed on a Concentration check (DC 20 + spell level) or lose the spell.

You are immune to the effect of the earthstrike quake maneuver.

Your allies must still save as normal against its effect.

Walls and similar barriers don't block the line of effect of an earthstrike quake.

ELDER MOUNTAIN HAMMER

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 5, swordsage 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature or unattended object

You draw strength from the earth beneath your feet and transfer it into ruinous power.

Your next attack drops like an avalanche upon your foe, hammering him into submission.

The students of the Stone Dragon discipline learn to tap into the power of the earth, channel its endless strength, and use it to grant their attacks tremendous force.

A strike delivered by a Stone Dragon adept can shatter a warrior's shield, turn a wooden door into splinters, or slay an ogre with a single blow.

When you use this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

That attack deals an extra 6d6 points of damage and automatically overcomes damage reduction and hardness.

GIANT'S STANCE

Stone Dragon (Stance)

Level: Crusader 5, swordsage 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You swing your weapon in a wide, deadly arc that slams into your foe with incredible force.

Only your mastery of the Stone Dragon techniques allows you to make such reckless blows without losing your footing.

Tapping into the power of the Stone Dragon, you strike with resolute, irresistible force.

You learn to set the full weight of your body into each of your attacks.

A warrior with less skill would lose his balance and fall to the ground when using this fighting style.

While you are in this stance, you deal damage as if you were one size larger than normal, to a maximum of Large.

This benefit improves your weapon and unarmed strike damage.

It does not confer any of the other benefits or drawbacks of a change in size, such as a modifier to ability scores or AC, or an improved reach.

This stance immediately ends if you move more than 5 feet for any reason, such as from a bull rush attack, a telekinesis spell, and so forth.

IRON BONES

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 6, swordsage 6, warblade 6

Prerequisite: Two Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

As you make a successful attack, you enter a meditative state that leaves you almost invulnerable to harm.

For a few brief moments, arrows bounce off your skin, and sword blows barely draw any blood.

This maneuver is an evolution of the techniques and abilities covered by the stone bones maneuver.

Your meditative focus, ki, and training allow your mind to overcome matter.

Weapons bounce from you skin and barely injure you.

When you use this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If this attack hits, you gain damage reduction 10/adamantine for 1 round.

IRRESISTIBLE MOUNTAIN STRIKE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 6, swordsage 6, warblade 6

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

You slam your weapon into your foe with irresistible force.

He can barely move as he struggles to marshal his defenses against you.

Your mighty attack causes your opponent to stagger aimlessly for a few key moments, leaving him unable to act fully on his next turn.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 4d6 points of damage.

A creature hit by this strike must also make a successful Fortitude save (DC 16 + your Str modifier) or be unable to take a standard action for 1 round.

It can otherwise act as normal.

A creature that successfully saves still takes the extra damage.

This maneuver functions only against opponents standing on the ground.

A flying creature or a levitating target need not save against the action loss effect, but still takes the extra damage.

MOUNTAIN AVALANCHE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 5, swordmage 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Saving Throw: Reflex half; see text

You wade through your enemies like a stone giant rampaging through a mob of orcs.

You crush them underfoot and drive them before you, leaving a trail of the dead in your wake.

As part of this maneuver, you can move up to double your speed and trample your opponents.

You can enter the space of any creature of your size category or smaller.

If you enter and occupy all of the space occupied by such a creature, it takes damage equal to 2d6 + 1-1/2 times your Str bonus (if any).

You can deal trampling damage to a creature only once per round, no matter how many times you move into or through its space.

You must move into every square a creature occupies to trample it.

If you move over only part of the space a creature occupies (for example, you are a Large creature moving over half the space of a Large opponent), it can either attempt an attack of opportunity against you or it can attempt a Reflex save (DC 15 + your Str modifier) to avoid half of your trampling damage.

MOUNTAIN HAMMER

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 2, swordmage 2, warblade 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature or unattended object

Like a falling avalanche, you strike with the weight and fury of the mountain.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 2d6 points of damage and automatically overcomes damage reduction hardness.

MOUNTAIN TOMBSTONE STRIKE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 9, swordmage 9, warblade 9

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You slam into your foe, turning bones into dust and muscle into bloody pulp.

Your foe's body is left a crippled, twisted mockery.

Your attack causes damage to the structure of your foe's body.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If this attack hits, you deal 2d6 points of Constitution damage in addition to your normal damage.

ONE DRAGON'S FURY

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 3, swordmage 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Stone Dragon maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: Creature or object struck

With a mighty war cry, you slam your weapon into a slight crack or other fault in an object.

The object shudders for a moment before it collapses into broken shards.

Your attunement to Stone Dragon's earth nature allows you to spot flaws in objects with uncanny precision.

You use this knowledge to your advantage, allowing you to make devastating attacks against objects and constructs.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If your attack hits a construct or an object, you deal an extra 4d6 points of damage.

You can use this strike in conjunction with the sunder special attack (PH 158) and attempt to damage held or carried objects.

Against other targets, you gain no special benefit from this maneuver.

OVERWHELMING MOUNTAIN STRIKE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 4, swordmage 4, warblade 4

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Your mighty strike temporarily disorients your opponent, costing him precious seconds as he shakes off the attack.

You slam your foe with a mighty strike, almost knocking him from his feet and forcing him to find his footing and steady himself before he can react.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 2d6 points of damage.

If the creature you hit is standing on the ground, your attack also causes the target to lose its ability to take a move action for 1 round.

It can otherwise act normally.

A successful Fortitude save (DC 14 + your Str modifier) by the creature struck negates the loss of its move action, but not the extra damage.

This maneuver functions only against opponents standing on the ground.
A flying creature or a levitating target need not save against the action loss effect, but still takes the extra damage.

ROOTS OF THE MOUNTAIN

Stone Dragon (Stance)

Level: Crusader 3, swordmage 3, warblade 3

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You crouch and set your feet flat on the ground, rooting yourself to the spot you stand.

Nothing can move you from this place.

Like a living mountain, you choose your position on the battlefield and sink your roots into the earth.

With your spot chosen on the field, you cannot be shifted from your position.

While you are in this stance, you gain a +10 bonus on checks to resist bull rush, overrun, and trip attacks, as well as on grapple checks made to resist an opponent's grapple attempt.

Any creature that attempts to move through your threatened area or the space you occupy takes a -10 penalty on any Tumble checks it makes.

This stance also grants you damage reduction 2/—.

This stance immediately ends if you move more than 5 feet for any reason, such as from a bull rush attack, a telekinesis spell, and so forth.

STONE BONES

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 1, swordmage 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

You focus your energy to enhance your defenses, drawing on the power of your weapon's impact with a foe to toughen yourself against a counterattack.

The Stone Dragon tradition teaches its disciples to shrug off attacks through a combination of mental focus, pure toughness, and resilience.

When you make a successful melee attack, you attune your mind and body to such an incredible extent that only the sharpest weapons can injure you.

Lesser armaments cause mere bruises and minor cuts.

When you use this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If this attack hits, you gain damage reduction 5/adamantine for 1 round.

STONE VISE

Stone Dragon (Strike)

Level: Crusader 2, swordmage 2, warblade 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: Creature struck

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

You make a crushing blow that staggers your opponent, leaving it unable to move.

By making a powerful, focused blow, you leave your opponent unable to move.

The crushing weight of your blow forces it to waste a precious moment regaining its footing.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 1d6 points of damage.

If the creature hit is standing on the ground, your attack also drops the target's speed to 0 feet (for all movement capabilities) for 1 round.

It can otherwise act normally.

A successful Fortitude save (DC 12 + your Str modifier) by the creature struck negates the immobilization, but not the extra damage.

This maneuver functions only against opponents standing on the ground.

A flying creature or a levitating target need not save against the speed reduction effect, but still takes the extra damage.

STONEFOOT STANCE

Stone Dragon (Stance)

Level: Crusader 1, swordmage 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You crouch and set your feet flat on the ground, drawing the resilience of the earth into your body.

The students of the Stone Dragon discipline model their defenses after the earth itself.

The wind might batter the mountain, the river might cut through the plains, but in the end the stone and rock shrug off such assaults.

While you are in this stance, you gain a +2 bonus on Strength checks and a +2 bonus to AC against creatures of a size category larger than yours.

This stance immediately ends if you move more than 5 feet for any reason, such as from a bull rush attack, a telekinesis spell, and so forth.

STRENGTH OF STONE

Stone Dragon (Stance)

Level: Crusader 8, swordmage 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Stone Dragon maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You enter an impenetrable defensive stance, making it almost impossible for an attack to strike you in a vulnerable area.

While you are in this stance, you focus your efforts on preventing any devastating attacks from penetrating your defenses.

You are immune to critical hits while you are in this stance.

This stance immediately ends if you move more than 5 feet for any reason, such as from a bull rush attack, a telekinesis spell, and so forth.

TIGER CLAW

The Tiger Claw discipline embraces a feral rage that lurks within the heart of its initiates.

In battle, such warriors growl like wild animals, attack with a fury similar to that of a barbarian, and rely on overwhelming, vicious assaults to defeat their enemies.

The Tiger Claw discipline's favored weapons are the kukri, kama, handaxe, claw, greataxe, and unarmed strike.

Its key skill is Jump.

BLOOD IN THE WATER

Tiger Claw (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 1, warblade 1

Prerequisite: One Tiger Claw maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

The smell of blood drives you into a fury.

As you slash into your foe, each fresh wound you inflict spurs you onward.

While you are in this stance, you whip yourself into a terrible rage.

When you score a critical hit against an opponent, you enter a nearfrenzied state from the sight and smell of blood.

You gain a +1 bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls.

Because this is an untyped bonus, it stacks with each successful critical hit you score.

If you go more than 1 minute without achieving a critical hit, you no longer gain the benefit of the stance.

CLAW AT THE MOON

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 2, warblade 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You leap into the air, catching your foe off guard as you slice down into him.

You learn to leap into the air and slice at a foe's vulnerable points.

Like a great cat, you spring into the air and attack your foe from an unexpected direction.

As part of this maneuver, you attempt a Jump check to leap into the air and make a melee attack that targets your foe's upper body, face, and neck.

The Jump check's DC is equal to your target's AC.

If this check succeeds, your attack deals an extra 2d6 points of damage.

If this attack threatens a critical hit, you gain a +4 bonus on your roll to confirm the critical hit.

If your check fails, you can still attack, but you do not deal extra damage or gain a bonus on a roll to confirm a critical hit.

The maneuver is still considered expended.

DANCING MONGOOSE

Tiger Claw (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: End of turn

You swing your weapons about you in a blur of speed, making a series of devastating attacks in the space of a single breath.

You make a flurry of deadly attacks.

After initiating this boost, you can make one additional attack with each weapon you wield (to a maximum of two extra attacks if you wield two or more weapons).

These extra attacks are made at your highest attack bonus for each of your respective weapons.

All of these attacks must be directed against the same opponent.

DEATH FROM ABOVE

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: One Tiger Claw maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

With a warcry, you leap into the air and lift your weapon high overhead.

As you arc downward, your weight and momentum lend bone-crushing force to your attack.

Like a thunderbolt, you slam into your foe from above.

You leap upon your enemy and drive him into the ground.

The impact of your attack gives you extra force, allowing you to score a deadly hit.

To use this maneuver, you must be adjacent to a foe.

As part of this maneuver, you attempt a DC 20 Jump check.

If this check succeeds, you can make a single melee attack against an opponent that you were adjacent to when you began this maneuver.

This attack occurs in the air as you soar over your opponent, also as part of the maneuver.

Your attack deals an extra 4d6 points of damage, and your opponent is considered flat-footed against this attack.

You then land in any square adjacent to the target of this attack, though no more than 20 feet away from your starting position.

If your Jump check fails, you remain in the last square you occupied before the Jump check and can make a single attack normally.

The maneuver is still considered expended.

FERAL DEATH BLOW

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 9, warblade 9

Prerequisite: Four Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

With a primal howl, you leap into the air and land on your opponent, hacking and clawing at his neck.

You leap upon your opponent, rending and tearing with your weapons in an attempt to kill him with a brutally overwhelming assault.

You grab onto your foe as you slash and hack at his neck, face, and other vulnerable areas.

To use this maneuver, you must be adjacent to your intended target.

As part of this maneuver, make a Jump check with a DC equal to your opponent's AC.

If the check succeeds, you can then make a single melee attack against your foe, also as part of this maneuver.

The target is considered flat-footed against this attack.

If your attack deals damage, your target must attempt a Fortitude save (DC 19 + your Str modifier).

If this save fails, your target is instantly slain (his hit points drop to -10).

If the save is successful, you deal an extra 20d6 points of damage to the target in addition to your normal weapon damage.

Creatures immune to critical hits are immune to the death effect of this strike.

If your Jump check fails, you can make a single attack normally.

The maneuver is still considered expended.

FLESH RIPPER

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round or more; see text

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

With a mixture of careful precision and animal savagery, you tear into a foe to produce jagged wounds that overwhelm him with pain.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against a single opponent.

If this attack hits, the target must make a successful Fortitude save (DC 13 + your Str modifier) or take a -4 penalty on attacks and to AC for 1 round.

If your attack is a critical hit, these penalties last for a number of rounds equal to your weapon's critical multiplier.

Your target takes normal damage from your attack regardless of the result of the save.

This maneuver functions only against creatures that are vulnerable to critical hits.

FOUNTAIN OF BLOOD

Tiger Claw (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: 1 minute

Saving Throw: Will partial; see text

As your foe dies on your blade, you twist and turn your weapon to send blood spraying across the battlefield.

Your enemies shriek in fear at their ally's grisly demise.

If you reduce a living opponent to -1 or fewer hit points during your turn, you can initiate this maneuver.

Your weapon rips into your foe as she drops, dealing an extra 1d6 points of damage and forcing all your enemies within a 30-foot radius to make successful Will saves (DC 14 + your Str modifier) or be shaken for 1 minute.

The foe you drop must be within your threatened area when you initiate this maneuver.

For each foe you drop during your turn prior to initiating this maneuver, the save DC increases by 1.

GIRALLON WINDMILL FLESH RIP

Tiger Claw (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One or more creatures

Duration: End of turn

Windmilling your arms in a furious blur, you strike your perplexed enemy from two directions at once, rending his flesh with each strike.

Each of your attacks is precisely timed to maximize the carnage it inflicts.

You must be wielding two or more weapons to initiate this maneuver.

As you hack into your opponent, you use your weapons together to murderous effect.

With a cruel twist of your blade, you widen the wounds you cause with each successive strike.

You must initiate this maneuver before making any attacks in the current round.

If you strike an opponent multiple times during your turn, you also deal rend damage.

This damage is based on the number of times you strike your opponent during your turn (see the table below).

Determine the rend damage dealt immediately after you make your last attack for your turn.

If you attack multiple opponents during your turn, you gain this extra damage against each of them.

A creature takes rend damage based on the number of attacks that hit it, not the number of successful attacks you make.

For example, if you hit a fire giant three times and an evil cleric twice during your turn, the fire giant takes rend damage for three attacks and the cleric takes rend damage for two attacks.

Successful Attacks	Rend Damage
2	8d6
3	10d6
4	12d6
5	14d6
6	16d6
7	18d6
8+	20d6

HAMSTRING ATTACK

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Duration: 1 minute

You slice into your opponent's legs, leaving him hobbled and stumbling about.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If this attack hits, it deals damage as normal.

In addition, the target takes 1d8 points of Dexterity damage and a -10-foot penalty to speed for 1 minute.

A successful Fortitude save (DC 17 + your Str modifier) halves both the Dexterity damage and the speed penalty.

HUNTER'S SENSE

Tiger Claw (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 1, warblade 1

Prerequisite: One Tiger Claw maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You sniff at the air like a hunting animal.

After you focus your mind, an array of scents that normally eludes your awareness become clear to you.

Your mastery of the Tiger Claw discipline allows you to become attuned to the feral side of your personality.

On a fundamental level, you begin to think more like a wild beast and less like a civilized creature.

Your enemies are prey to be hunted down and slain.

Your allies are packmates.

This shift in view spreads to your physical senses.

As long as you are in this stance, you gain the scent special ability (MM 314).

LEAPING DRAGON STANCE

Tiger Claw (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Tiger Claw maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Even when you are trapped in fight quarters and seemingly unable to move, a leap can send you flying gracefully through the air.

The Tiger Claw discipline teaches you to assume a stance that allows you to sail through the air when jumping.

You spring from the ground with an unmatched burst of speed and strength.

While you are in this stance, you gain a +10-foot enhancement bonus on Jump checks.

In addition, any jumps you make while in this stance are considered running jumps.

POUNCING CHARGE

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Personal

Target: You

With the roar of a wild beast, you throw yourself into the fray. Your weapons are little more than a blur as you hack at your foe with feral speed.

With a ferocious howl, you throw yourself into combat.

You move with such speed and ferocity that when you reach your enemy, you unleash a blistering flurry of slashes, cuts, and hacks.

As part of initiating this maneuver, you make a charge attack.

Instead of making a single attack at the end of your charge, you can make a full attack.

The bonus on your attack roll for making a charge attack applies to all your attack rolls.

PREY ON THE WEAK

Tiger Claw (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You scythe through weaker foes like a mighty predator turned loose among a herd of prey.

With each foe you strike, your bloodlust and battle fury rises ever higher.

After a brief moment of explosive rage, the foes around you are left bloodied, torn, and moaning.

Whenever an opponent within 10 feet of you drops to -1 or fewer hit points, whether from your attack, an ally's strike, or some other cause, you can immediately make an attack of opportunity against any opponent within your threatened area.

RABID BEAR STRIKE

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6, warblade 6

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

With a ferocious roar, you leap upon your enemy like a wild beast, slamming your weapon into her with a madman's fury.

You focus your primal fury into a single attack, laying an opponent low with a mighty blow that splinters bones and shatters steel.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

You gain a +4 bonus on this attack roll and deal an extra 10d6 points of damage.

After completing this maneuver, you take a -4 penalty to AC until the start of your next turn.

RABID WOLF STRIKE

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 2, warblade 2

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You foam at the mouth and scream in rage as you make a powerful attack against your enemy. You set aside all thoughts of defense as you lunge forward. For a split-second, you unleash the barely controlled, primal rage that surges within you. As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack. You gain a +4 bonus on this attack roll and deal an extra 2d6 points of damage. You take a -4 penalty to AC until the start of your next turn, as this wild strike sends you off balance and hinders your defenses.

RAGING MONGOOSE

Tiger Claw (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: End of turn

You unleash a ferocious volley of attacks, setting aside all thoughts of caution and self-control.

You make a flurry of deadly attacks.

After initiating this boost, you can make two additional attacks with each weapon you wield (to a maximum of four extra attacks if you wield two or more weapons).

These extra attacks are made at your highest attack bonus for each of your respective weapons.

You can spread these attacks out among as many foes as you wish.

SOARING RAPTOR STRIKE

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Tiger Claw maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You leap into the air, catching a larger opponent by surprise as you jump over its defenses to plunge your weapon into the crown of its head.

With a carefully timed leap, you jump over the target's defenses and attack it from an unexpected angle.

You can use this maneuver only against a foe of a larger size category than yours.

As part of this maneuver, you make a Jump check with a DC equal to your foe's AC.

If this check succeeds, you also make a melee attack as part of this maneuver.

If the check fails, you cannot make this attack and the maneuver is still considered expended.

You gain a +4 bonus on the attack roll and deal an extra 6d6 points of damage if your attack hits.

SUDDEN LEAP

Tiger Claw (Boost)

Level: Swordsage 1, warblade 1

Prerequisite: One Tiger Claw maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

You leap to a new position in the blink of an eye, leaving your opponents baffled.

You can make a Jump check as a swift action and move the distance determined by your check result.

You provoke attacks of opportunity with this movement, and you must move in a straight line.

As with any movement, you can attempt a Tumble check to avoid any attacks you provoke with this sudden leap.

You can't move through enemies, unless you succeed on the appropriate Tumble check.

SWOOPING DRAGON STRIKE

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Like a dragon, you swoop down upon your foe and let loose with a devastating attack.

You leap over her and, as you soar through the air, unleash a devastating volley of attacks.

You leap over an opponent and chop down at her, ruining her defenses and striking with a critical blow.

As part of this maneuver, you attempt a Jump check to leap over your target.

The result of this Jump check must be sufficient to allow you to move through an opponent's space and over her.

If you fail the Jump check needed to jump over your foe, you provoke attacks of opportunity for the distance you jump, if applicable.

If your jump was too short to clear your opponent but far enough that you would land in a space she occupies, you land adjacent to your opponent in the square closest to your starting square.

If your check is insufficient to jump over your target, you can also make a single attack against your foe with no special benefits or penalties, as long as your target is within reach.

If the check succeeds, you do not provoke attacks of opportunity for leaving threatened squares during your jump.

Your foe loses her Dexterity bonus to AC against your melee attack.

This attack deals an extra 10d6 points of damage, and the target must succeed on a Fortitude save (DC equal to your Jump check result) or be stunned for 1 round.

WOLF CLIMBS THE MOUNTAIN

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 6, warblade 6

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You slip between a larger foe's legs and strike its exposed side.

You then find cover in the shadow of your enemy's bulk.

You can use this maneuver only against an opponent of a size category larger than yours.

As part of this maneuver, you enter your target's square without provoking an attack of opportunity. You can then attack your target as part of this maneuver. Your attack deals an extra 5d6 points of damage. You remain within your opponent's space after you complete this maneuver. You gain cover against all attacks as long as you remain in his space, including those made by the target. If the target moves, it leaves you behind but provokes an attack of opportunity from you for leaving your space.

WOLF FANG STRIKE

Tiger Claw (Strike)

Level: Swordsage 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You lash out in a blur of movement with two weapons, hacking into your foe with a combination of feral strength and speed.

You tap into the speed and strength embodied within your feral spirit.

You must fight with two weapons to use this maneuver.

If you carry only one weapon, you can choose to make an unarmed strike with your offhand (as an unarmed attack) if you so wish.

As part of this maneuver, you make an attack with both weapons you wield against one opponent.

Both attacks must target the same creature, and you take a -2 penalty on each attack roll.

If your first attack drops your foe to -1 hit points or fewer, you cannot make a second attack.

WOLF PACK TACTICS

Tiger Claw (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Two Tiger Claw maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

With each stinging attack that connects against a foe, you slip around him, using the distraction provided by your attacks to prevent him from hindering your movement.

You prowl the battlefield like a mighty hunter.

You pick your spots to attack, striking foes when they are most vulnerable before moving on to attack elsewhere.

Each attack allows you to move forward and press your advantage.

While you are in this stance, each successful strike allows you to slowly work your way around an opponent.

Each time you make a successful melee attack, you can move 5 feet.

This movement does not provoke attacks of opportunity from the creature you struck.

You cannot use this stance to move more than your current speed in a single round.

WOLVERINE STANCE

Tiger Claw (Stance)

Level: Swordsage 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One Tiger Claw maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

Like a cornered wolverine, you fight with unmatched ferocity and rage when your opponents force you into close quarters.

When an opponent has you in his grasp, you transform into a snarling, frothing, raging beast.

You hack with your weapon at your foe's arms or tentacles, your wild frenzy allowing you to fight even with a large, awkward weapon.

When you are in the grasp of a larger foe, your frenzy ignites into an inferno as you desperately attempt to break free.

While you are in this stance, you can attack a foe grappling you with any one-handed weapon.

You do not take the -4 penalty for fighting while grappled.

If your foe is of a larger size category than yours, your feral rage ignites and grants you a +4 bonus on damage rolls against that creature while it continues to grapple you.

WHITE RAVEN

The White Raven discipline teaches that the combined effort of several warriors working together far exceeds the efforts of those same warriors working individually.

Adherents of this tradition serve as leaders and inspiring figures on the battlefield.

This discipline's favored weapons are the longsword, battleaxe, greatsword, halberd, and warhammer.

Its key skill is Diplomacy.

BATTLE LEADER'S CHARGE

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 2, warblade 2

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You lead from the front, charging your enemies so that your allies can follow in your wake.

The White Raven discipline teaches that he who seizes the initiative also seizes victory.

You have learned to lead an attack with a mighty charge, the better to disrupt the enemy and inspire your allies in battle.

As part of this maneuver, you charge an opponent.

You do not provoke attacks of opportunity for moving as part of this charge.

If your charge attack hits, it deals an extra 10 points of damage.

BOLSTERING VOICE

White Raven (Stance)

Level: Crusader 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: 60-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: Stance

Your clarion voice strengthens the will of your comrades.

So long as you remain on the field of battle, your allies are strengthened against attacks and effects that seek to subvert their willpower.

The discipline of the White Raven stresses that an army is effective only when its members are motivated to fight. In the face of a daunting enemy or unexpected hardship, the most skilled warrior is worthless if he lacks strength of will.

When you adopt the bolstering voice stance, you shout encouragement to your allies, disparage your foes, and lend much-needed support to raise your allies' spirits. By drawing on the example you set, your allies harden their will to fight and battle on despite your enemies' attempts to turn them aside.

While you are in this stance, all allies within range who can hear you gain a +2 morale bonus on Will saves, or a +4 morale bonus on Will saves against fear effects.

CLARION CALL

White Raven (Boost)

Level: Crusader 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: 60-ft.-radius burst centered on you
As you defeat an opponent, you shout a battle cry that inspires one of your allies to renew his efforts.

You are an inspiring figure on the battlefield.

Your personal victories are shared by your allies, allowing them to draw courage and vigor from your actions.

If during your turn a melee attack you make reduces an opponent to fewer than 0 hit points, you can initiate this maneuver.

Once it is initiated, all allies within range can immediately either make one melee attack at their highest attack bonus or take a single move action.

These allies must be able to see and hear you.

These extra attacks are not attacks of opportunity.

COVERING STRIKE

White Raven (Boost)

Level: Crusader 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 3 rounds

You make a ferocious series of attacks at your enemies, forcing them on the defensive and buying your allies critical seconds needed to slip past them unharmed.

By drawing on your combat experience and knowledge of how a warrior must carry herself in battle, you make an attack that disrupts your opponents and keeps them from taking advantage of your allies' lapses.

After you initiate this boost, you can make your attacks as normal.

In addition to taking normal melee damage from your blows, a foe you strike after initiating this maneuver cannot make attacks of opportunity for 3 rounds.

The target still threatens its normal area; it simply cannot make attacks of opportunity.

A creature can be affected by only one covering strike per encounter.

DOUSE THE FLAMES

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

You strike your enemy with a resounding blow, capturing his attention.

As he turns to look, you let loose with a string of oaths, challenges, and taunts that force him to focus his attention on you.

As a White Raven adept, you are as much a tactician as you are a war leader.

You learn to create openings for your allies to maximize the teamwork and esprit de corps that you foster.

You know that for a group to succeed, it must work together, and that individual glory must be set aside so that the group can achieve victory.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against a single target you threaten.

If your attack hits, you deal normal melee damage, and the target creature can't make attacks of opportunity for 1 round.

The opponent still threatens its normal area; it simply cannot make attacks of opportunity.

FLANKING MANEUVER

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your keen leadership grants you and your allies a sudden advantage in combat.

When you flank an opponent, you attack in such a way as to maximize your allies' openings.

By the same token, your friends' ferocious, accurate attacks give you multiple opportunities to pierce your foe's defenses.

When you flank an enemy with an ally who can see and hear your directions, the two of you form a potent combination.

Your attacks complement each other, leaving the flanked opponent in a tenuous position.

You can use this strike when you and any number of allies flank an opponent you designate.

As part of this maneuver, you make a melee attack against the flanked opponent.

If your attack hits, any ally flanking your foe can immediately make a melee attack against that creature.

These extra attacks are not attacks of opportunity.

Your allies must be able to see you to gain this benefit.

The coordination needed between you and your companions demands that you watch each other's attacks, though you do not need to hear each other.

LEADING THE ATTACK

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

You boldly strike at your enemy.

As you attack, you shout a war cry to demonstrate that victory is at hand.

This attack inspires nearby allies to join the fray with renewed vigor.

When you make an attack, your allies take heart in your example and fight with renewed purpose.

By stoking the fire of battle in your allies' hearts, you inspire them to greater heroics.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If your attack is successful, your allies gain a +4 morale bonus on attack rolls for 1 round against the creature you hit.

LEADING THE CHARGE

White Raven (Stance)

Level: Crusader 1, warblade 1

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: 60-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: Stance

You fire the confidence and martial spirit of your allies, giving them the energy and bravery needed to make a devastating charge against your enemies.

The White Raven discipline teaches that tactics, leadership, and planning can overcome an opponent's superior individual abilities.

This stance embodies that teaching, allowing you to spur your allies on to greater feats of martial skill.

While you are in this stance, all allies who hear you and make a charge attack in the area gain a bonus on damage rolls equal to your initiator level.

LION'S ROAR

White Raven (Boost)

Level: Crusader 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 60 ft.

Targets: You and allied creatures within 60 ft.

Duration: 1 round

You unleash a sudden battle roar as your mighty blow fells your enemy.

Inspired by your example, your allies fight with renewed energy and determination.

When you defeat an enemy, you call out to your allies to press the attack.

They respond by putting tremendous pressure on the enemy as their attacks strike with greater force.

As a swift action, you initiate this boost after you have reduced an opponent to fewer than 0 hit points.

You and allies within range gain a +5 morale bonus on damage rolls for 1 round.

ORDER FORGED FROM CHAOS

White Raven

Level: Crusader 6, warblade 6

Prerequisite: Two White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 move action

Range: Personal

Targets: Allied creatures within 30 ft.

You bark a series of stern orders, directing your comrades to shift formation.

The power of your presence is such that they obey without consciously thinking about it.

You excel at using your commanding presence to direct your allies on the battlefield.

After a few short, barked orders from you, your allies switch positions and assume a tactically advantageous position.

When you initiate this maneuver, all allies within 30 feet of you can immediately take a single move action to move up to their speed.

This movement provokes attacks of opportunity, and it does not count toward fulfilling the minimum movement requirements of any special abilities or feats, such as a scout's skirmish ability.

PRESS THE ADVANTAGE

White Raven (Stance)

Level: Crusader 5, warblade 5

Prerequisite: Two White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You shift across the battlefield, timing your movements precisely to avoid any attacks from your foes.

Your sense of the battlefield and intuitive understanding of the ebb and flow of combat allow you to move without dropping your defenses.

While others must slowly work through a melee, you seize gaps in a foe's defenses and move with great speed and confidence.

While you are in this stance, you can take a second 5-foot step immediately after you take one for the round.

This second movement does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

You can make a single 5-foot step into difficult terrain, but if you do, you cannot make the second 5-foot step.

SWARM TACTICS

White Raven (Stance)

Level: Crusader 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: 60-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: Stance

Your quick directions enable close teamwork between yourself and an ally.

At your urging, your allies seize the initiative and work in close coordination with you to defeat an enemy.

While you are in this stance, you use your tactical knowledge and mastery to improve your allies' teamwork.

If you are adjacent to one or more opponents, your allies gain a +5 bonus on attack rolls made against any of those opponents.

SWARMING ASSAULT

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 7, warblade 7

Prerequisite: Three White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You attack an opponent with brutal force, ruining his defenses.

As you strike, you call out sharp commands to your allies, spurring them to action and allowing them to take advantage of the opening.

You inspire your allies with a rousing speech, a war cry, a challenge to the enemy, or some other defiant gesture.

Combining this shout with a canny attack, you strip away a foe's defenses, allowing your allies to make potentially devastating attacks.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack against an opponent.

If this attack hits, you deal normal melee damage, and any ally who threatens your target can immediately make an attack against him.

You choose the order in which your allies' attacks resolve.

TACTICAL STRIKE

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 2, warblade 2

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your skill at arms and overwhelming power force your opponent to falter at a fatal moment.

As the foe attempts to recover from your devastating strike, your allies rush in to finish what you have started.

You make a mighty attack that knocks your opponent into a defenseless position, granting your allies a moment to move into a better position.

If your attack lands true, it leaves your enemy momentarily shaken by its tremendous impact.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If your attack hits, you deal an extra 2d6 points of damage.

In addition, each ally adjacent to the target can take an immediate 5-foot step that does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

TACTICS OF THE WOLF

White Raven (Stance)

Level: Crusader 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Stance

You shout orders that help coordinate allies' efforts.

They harass their enemies, shield each other from attacks, and otherwise maximize the support they lend to each other.

This stance allows you and your allies to gain additional benefits against a flanked opponent.

Under your direction, your allies coordinate their actions to a much greater degree than normal.

Your advice and shouted orders make them an unstoppable team.

Like a wolf pack, your allies fight together to devastating effect.

When you flank a foe, you and allies who flank the enemy with you gain a bonus on damage rolls against that opponent equal to 1/2 your initiator level.

WAR LEADER'S CHARGE

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 6, warblade 6

Prerequisite: Two White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

You summon a great fury within your lungs, releasing it with a titanic shout as you charge forward.

Your reckless move startles your foes and puts greater force behind your attack.

As a student of the White Raven, you learn to focus the energy within you into an overwhelming charge.

In battle, you must lead from the front.

As part of this maneuver, you charge an opponent.

You do not provoke attacks of opportunity for moving as part of this charge.

If your charge attack hits, it deals an extra 35 points of damage.

WAR MASTER'S CHARGE

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 9, warblade 9

Prerequisite: Four White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 full-round action

Range: Melee attack; see text

Target: One creature; see text

With a great battle cry, you lead your allies in a devastating charge.

Fired by your commanding presence and deftly led by your supreme grasp of tactics, you and your allies form an unstoppable wedge.

You are an inspiring figure on the battlefield, allowing you to lead others on attacks that would strike fear and doubt into even the stoutest warrior's heart.

Under your leadership, the group becomes much more than the sum of its parts.

As part of this maneuver, you charge an opponent.

In addition, all allies within 30 feet of you at the beginning of your turn can also charge this target as an immediate action.

You and allied creatures do not block each other when determining if you can charge.

Your charge attack deals an extra 50 points of damage, and those of your allies each deal an extra 25 points of damage. For each ally who charges, counting yourself, your charge attack and those of your allies are made with a cumulative +2 bonus (in addition to the normal bonus provided by charging).

An opponent struck by you and at least one other ally is stunned for 1 round.

You and your allies do not provoke attacks of opportunity for moving as part of this charge.

WHITE RAVEN HAMMER

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 8, warblade 8

Prerequisite: Three White Raven maneuvers

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

You slam your opponent with a mighty attack to disrupt his senses and leave him unable to defend himself while your allies close to finish him off.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single, devastating strike against an opponent.

The raw force of this blow knocks him senseless.

Your attack deals an extra 6d6 points of damage and stuns your opponent for 1 round.

WHITE RAVEN STRIKE

White Raven (Strike)

Level: Crusader 4, warblade 4

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 standard action

Range: Melee attack

Target: One creature

Your eye for tactics allows you to notice an enemy's weak points and attack them with a mighty blow.

The White Raven discipline focuses on tactics, teamwork, and the ability to make an attack that improves your allies' abilities.

This strike ruins a foe's defenses.

As part of this maneuver, you make a single melee attack.

If it hits, you deal an extra 4d6 points of damage, and the target is considered flat-footed until the start of his next turn.

WHITE RAVEN TACTICS

White Raven (Boost)

Level: Crusader 3, warblade 3

Prerequisite: One White Raven maneuver

Initiation Action: 1 swift action

Range: 10 ft.

Target: One ally

You can inspire your allies to astounding feats of martial prowess. With a few short orders, you cajole them into seizing the initiative and driving back the enemy.

Your knowledge of tactics can aid your allies' attacks, and it also allows you to spot, predict, and counter your enemies' actions.

In the chaos of battle, you impose the order needed for tight, effective group tactics.

When you use this maneuver, select an ally within range.

Her initiative count immediately equals your initiative count -1.

She then acts on her new initiative count as normal.

If she has already acted in the current round, she can act again.

If this maneuver would not change your ally's initiative count, it has no effect.

If she has not yet acted during this round, her initiative count changes, and she acts on that count as normal.

She does not act again on her original initiative count.

6 Evade Burst: You take no damage from a burst on a successful Reflex save.

8 Teleport, Psionic Greater: As psionic teleport, but with no range limit and no off-target arrival.

GOOD

Granted Ability: You can expend your psionic focus to deal additional damage to a non-good creature.

You deal an extra 1d6 points of damage with a melee or ranged attack, or a spell that deals damage and targets a single creature.

1 Protection from Evil, Psionic: +2 to AC and saves, counter mind control, hedge out summoned creatures.

2 Empathic Transfer: Transfer another's wounds to yourself.

4 Planar Apotheosis: Temporarily become celestial or fiendish (celestial only).

5 Celestial Conduit: Launch a line of ectoplasm-mediated positive energy from your fingertips.

6 Planar Embrace: Temporarily become a half-celestial or half-fiend (half-celestial only).

8 Greater Glory: Good creatures near you gain benefits.

GUARDIAN

Granted Ability: You can expend your psionic focus as an immediate action to take the damage dealt to an adjacent ally by a single melee attack.

You must declare the use of this ability after you know the result of the attack roll against your ally, but before damage is rolled.

1 Deaden Blow: A weapon deals nonlethal damage rather than lethal.

1 Thicken Skin: Gain +1 enhancement bonus to your AC for 10 min./level.

2 Damp Power: Variable numeric effects of enemy powers are minimized against you.

3 Dispel Psionics: Cancels psionic powers and effects.

5 Protection from Psionics: Gain +3 insight bonus on saves against powers and psi-like abilities.

6 Mind over Energy: Gain brief immunity to chosen energy type.

8 Iron Body, Psionic: Your body becomes living iron.

JUSTICE

Granted Ability: You can expend your psionic focus as an immediate action to make an attack of opportunity against a foe that attacks one of your allies.

1 Call Weaponry: Create temporary weapon.

2 Call Armor: Transfer chosen type of armor to your hand.

2 Incite Bravery: You and allies near you become immune to fear effects for 1 round/level.

2 Zone of Truth, Psionic: Subjects within range cannot lie.

4 Aura Sight: Reveals creatures, objects, powers, or spells of selected alignment axis.

4 Discern Lies, Psionic: Reveals deliberate falsehoods.

5 True Seeing, Psionic: See all things as they really are.

6 Perfect Riposte: Make an attack of opportunity against a creature who just missed you.

7 Reddopsi: Powers targeting you rebound on the manifester.

KNOWLEDGE

Granted Ability: While psionically focused, you can make Knowledge checks as if trained.

You can expend your psionic focus to gain a +5 bonus on one Knowledge check.

1 Call to Mind: Gain additional Knowledge check with +1 competence bonus.

1 Detect Psionics: You detect the presence of psionics.

1 Detect Teleportation: Know when teleportation powers are used in close range.

1 Know Direction and Location: You discover where you are and what direction you face.

2 Detect Hostile Intent: You can detect hostile creatures within 30 ft. of you.

2 Identify, Psionic: Learn the properties of a psionic item.

2 Object Reading: Learn details about an object's previous owner.

3 Touchsight: Your telekinetic field tells you where everything is.

4 Detect Remote Viewing: You know when others spy on you remotely.

4 Trace Teleport: Learn destination of subject's teleport.

6 Psychometry: Read psychic impressions from a given location.

LAW

Granted Ability: You can expend your psionic focus to deal additional damage to nonlawful creatures.

You deal an additional 1d6 points of damage with a melee or ranged attack, or a spell that deals damage.

1 Grip of Iron: You gain +4 bonus on grapple checks.

1 Hammer: Melee touch deals 1d8/round.

2 Psionic Lock: Secure a door, chest, or portal.

3 Heavy Earth: Alter gravity locally.

4 Immobility: You are almost impossible to move and gain damage reduction 15/-.

4 Steadfast Perception: Gain immunity to illusory effects, +6 bonus on Spot and Search checks.

5 Tower of Iron Will: Grant PR 19 against mindaffecting powers to all creatures within 10 ft. until your next turn.

8 Iron Body, Psionic: Your body becomes living iron.

9 Timeless Body: Ignore all harmful, and helpful, effects for 1 round.

LIFE

Granted Ability: If you expend your psionic focus as a swift action as you manifest a power from this mantle, your manifester level for that power is considered 1 higher (thus increasing the number of power points you can spend on manifesting the power, among other benefits).

1 Touch of Health: Channel positive energy to cure damage or deal damage to undead.

2 From the Brink: You stabilize a dying target.

3 Body Purification: You heal 1d12 points of damage.

4 Stygian Ward: Grant immunity to death spells and negative energy effects.

5 Psionic Revivify: Return the dead to life before the psyche leaves the corpse.

6 Mend Wounds: Cure nonundead of 55 damage, or deal 55 damage to undead.

6 Restoration, Psionic: Restores level and ability score drains.

8 True Metabolism: You regenerate 10 hit points/round.

Unlike other manifesters of this power, you gain a new augmentation option.

Augment: If you spend 5 additional power points, you can affect one additional willing creature touched with this power.

LIGHT AND DARKNESS

Granted Ability: When you gain this mantle, choose whether you gain low-light vision or darkvision out to 60 feet.

If you already have both, you can double the range of your low-light vision or add 30 feet to the range of your darkvision.

1 Control Light: Adjust ambient light levels.

You also gain an augmentation option unavailable to other manifesters of this power.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you can create the effect of a daylight or darkness spell.

1 Elfsight: Gain low-light vision, +2 bonus on Search and Spot checks, and notice secret doors.

1 My Light: Your eyes emit 20-ft. cone of light.

2 Claws of Darkness: Gain claw attacks and slow grappled targets.

4 Light Beam: Deal 5d6 damage in 120-ft. line.

5 Shadow Walk, Psionic: Step into shadow to travel rapidly.

8 Light Burst: Blinds all within 10 ft., deals 6d6 damage.

MAGIC

Granted Ability: You gain Use Magic Device as a class skill.

If you purchased ranks in Use Magic Device or Use Psionic Device at the cross-class rate, you get additional ranks in Use Magic Device or Use Psionic Device as if it had always been a class skill for you.

In addition, you always treat magic and psionics as identical.

Therefore, powers such as dispel psionics work for both magic and psionics.

Most campaigns already treat them in this manner, so this mantle is most useful in campaigns where they are considered different systems.

1 Metaphysical Weapon: Weapon gains +1 bonus.

3 Dispel Psionics: Cancels psionic powers and effects.

5 Power Resistance: Grant power resistance equal to 12 + level.

6 Analyze Dweomer, Psionic: Reveals magical aspects of subject.

You also gain an augmentation option unavailable to other manifesters of this power.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can analyze an additional object or creature, requiring an additional round per target.

6 Null Psionics Field: Create a field where psionic power does not function.

8 Protection from Spells, Psionic: Gain +3 on saves against spells and spell-like abilities.

MENTAL POWER

Granted Ability: For the purpose of determining bonus power points for the class that gives you this mantle, treat your Wisdom score as 2 points higher than its actual value.

1 Mind Thrust: Deal 1d10 damage.

2 Id Insinuation: Swift tendrils of thought disrupt and confuse your target.

2 Mental Disruption: Daze creatures within 10 feet for 1 round.

3 Mind Trap: Drain 1d6 power points from anyone who attacks you with a telepathy power.

4 Intellect Fortress: Those inside fortress take only half damage from all power and psi-like abilities until your next action.

5 Psychic Crush: Brutally crush target's mental essence, reducing subject to -1 hit points.

6 Cranial Deluge: Massive physical damage can cause your opponent's head to explode.

8 Hypercognition: You can deduce almost anything.

NATURAL WORLD

Granted Ability: You gain the wild empathy class feature (PH 35), except the result is determined by 1d20 + manifester level + your Cha modifier.

- 1 Chameleon: Gain +10 enhancement bonus on Hide checks.
- 1 Metaphysical Claw: Your natural weapon gains +1 bonus.
- 1 Stone Mind: Gain bonuses on Search checks while standing on stone or earth.
- 2 Animal Affinity: Gain +4 enhancement to one ability.
- 2 Psionic Scent: Gain the scent ability.
- 4 Metamorphosis: Assume shape of creature or object.
- 5 Oak Body: Your body becomes as hard as oak.
- 7 Animate Plants, Psionic: One or more plants animate and fight for you.
- 9 Earthquake, Psionic: Intense tremor shakes 5-ft./level radius.

PAIN AND SUFFERING

Granted Ability: As an immediate action, you can expend your psionic focus to share the pain of the next melee attack that deals damage to you. The attacker takes damage equal to half the damage it deals you.

- 1 Disable: Subjects incorrectly believe they are disabled.
- 2 Inflict Pain: Telepathic stab gives your foe -4 on attack rolls, or -2 if he makes the save.
- 2 Recall Agony: Foe takes 2d6 damage.
- 3 Empathic Transfer, Hostile: Your touch transfers your hurt to another.
- 3 Share Pain, Forced: Unwilling subject takes some of your damage.
- 4 Empathic Feedback: When you are hit in melee, your attacker takes damage.
- 5 Psychotic Break: Targets viciously attack closest creature.
- 6 Fuse Flesh: Fuse subject's flesh, creating a helpless mass.
- 9 Affinity Field, Pain: Negative effects that affect you also affect others.

PHYSICAL POWER

Granted Ability: As a free action, you can expend your psionic focus to gain a +2 bonus to Str, Dex, or Con for 1 round.

- 1 Adrenaline Boost: Receive a temporary Str and Dex boost.
- 1 Vigor: Gain 5 temporary hit points.
- 2 Animal Affinity: Gain +4 enhancement to one ability.
- 3 Graft Weapon: Your hand is replaced seamlessly by your weapon.
- 5 Psychofeedback: Boost Str, Dex, or Con at the expense of one or more other scores.
- 7 Oak Body: Your body becomes as hard as oak.
- 8 True Metabolism: You regenerate 10 hit points/round.

REPOSE

Granted Ability: While psionically focused, you gain a +2 bonus on Concentration checks.

You can expend your focus as a free action to gain a +5 bonus on a single Concentration check.

- 1 Empty Mind: You gain +2 on Will saves until your next action.
- 2 Serenity: Pacify a creature and stop it from fighting.
- 2 Empathic Transfer: Transfer another's wounds to yourself.
- 3 Solicit Psicrystal: Your psicrystal takes over your concentration power.

- 4 Steadfast Perception: Gain immunity to illusory effects, +6 bonus on Spot and Search checks.
- 6 Suspend Life: Put yourself into a state akin to suspended animation.
- 7 Mind Blank, Personal: You are immune to scrying and mental effects.

PLANES

Granted Ability: You can expend your focus to gain a +4 bonus on manifester level checks made to overcome an outsider's power resistance. You can use this ability in conjunction with the Power Penetration or Greater Power Penetration feat, and the effects stack.

- 1 Astral Traveler: Enable yourself or another to join an astral caravan-enabled trip.
- 3 Astral Caravan: You lead an astral traveler-enabled group to a planar destination.
- 4 Dimensional Anchor, Psionic: Bars extradimensional movement.
- 4 Dismissal, Psionic: Forces a creature to return to its native plane.
- 5 Plane Shift, Psionic: Travel to other planes.
- 6 Planar Champion: Call a good or evil creature to do your bidding.
- 7 Ethereal Jaunt, Psionic: Become ethereal for 1 round/level.
- 9 Etherealness, Psionic: Become ethereal for 1 min./level.

TIME

Granted Ability: You gain a +2 bonus on initiative checks.

In addition, once per day, you can expend your psionic focus as an immediate action to delay the onset of one damaging attack or effect.

Instead of taking the damage immediately, as normal, you take it 1 round later.

If, in the intervening turn, you gain some immunity that would have protected you from the damage, it does not protect you from the delayed damage.

You are subject to the damage as if you had taken it when the blow or effect was struck.

- 1 Deceleration: Target's speed is halved.
- 2 Sustenance: Go without food and water for one day.
- 3 Time Hop: Subject hops forward in time 1 round/level.
- 5 Anticipatory Strike: Take your action out of initiative order.
- 6 Temporal Acceleration: Your time frame accelerates for 1 round.
- 8 Time Hop, Mass: Willing subjects hop forward in time.
- 9 Time Regression: Relive the last round.

MYSTERIES

CITYSCAPE (3.5)

APPRENTICE

QUICKER THAN THE EYE

Apprentice, Night's Long Fingers

Level/School: 1st/Transmutation

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

A faint layer of shadow flows like ink over your hands, staining them pitch black—and then, in an instant, they appear normal once more.

You gain a +5 enhancement bonus on Sleight of Hand checks (which you can now attempt even if you have no ranks in that skill).

This bonus increases to +10 at 5th level, and +15 at 10th level.

In addition, if you invoke umbral hand (Tome of Magic 152), you may attempt Sleight of Hand checks through it.

TRAIL OF HAZE

Apprentice, Night's Long Fingers

Level/School: 2nd/Illusion (Phantasm)

Range: Touch

Target: One creature

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: No

At your touch, the target seems almost to leak.

A tiny plume of jet-black mist emerges from his flesh, first in a trickle, then an ever-increasing stream.

The mist emerging from the subject is an illusion that only you can see.

It constantly drifts from the subject to your location, providing a nearly foolproof way of finding and identifying the subject.

The trail stretches for a number of miles equal to half your shadowcaster level, so it is possible for the target to escape your detection if he moves fast enough (or teleports).

If the subject leaves the plane, the trail ends, though it resumes if he returns before the duration expires.

The haze allows you to track the target, identify him if he disguises himself, or even locate the square he is in should he become invisible.

UMBRAL FIST

Apprentice, Night's Long Fingers

Level/School: 3rd/Transmutation

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Your hand turns jet black and seems to flicker as tiny wisps of shadow constantly leak from between your fingers and disappear.

For the duration of this mystery, you can, as a standard action, make a special attack against any foe within medium range (100 ft. + 10 ft./level).

You must have line of sight to the target.

You can make any one of the following special attacks: bull rush, disarm, or trip.

For purposes of adjudicating these attacks, make your touch attack as normal, if one is necessary.

When actually resolving the opposed roll, however, substitute your caster level for your base attack bonus and either your Intelligence or Charisma modifier (your choice) for your Strength.

Because the attack is made at a distance, it does not draw an attack of opportunity that such an attack would draw under normal circumstances, nor can your foe attempt to perform the same maneuver on you in turn, even if such is normally allowed.

INITIATE

DEADLY SHADE

Initiate, Darkened Alleys

Level/School: 6th/Necromancy [darkness]

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 30-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

Tendrils of darkness flow from the ground like smoke, filling the area with writhing, shifting darkness.

A cold draft washes over your soul even as the tendrils rise.

The area of deadly shade is filled with shadowy illumination, as per darkness (PH 216).

In addition, each time you invoke this mystery, decide if you wish the spell to deal or absorb damage.

If you choose to deal damage, anyone within the area who suffers hit point damage from any source must make a Fortitude save.

Failure indicates that the subject gains a negative level. Success prevents the negative level, but if the individual is damaged again within the area, he must attempt a new save. These negative levels fade in 1 hour per caster level, and they never cause permanent level loss.

If you choose instead to have the deadly shade absorb damage, all creatures within the area gain DR 4/– and energy resistance 4 against all energy types.

(This stacks with other forms of resistance or other sources that grant DR X/–).

FEARFUL GLOOM

Initiate, Darkened Alleys

Level/School: 4th/Necromancy [Darkness, Fear, Mind-Affecting]

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 30-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will partial; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

Plumes of blackness swiftly fill the air like a viscous fog.

The shifting of shadow and mists just barely suggests the presence of screaming faces and indescribable horrors lurking in the dark.

The area of fearful gloom is filled with shadowy illumination, as per darkness (PH 216).

All creatures within the area, or who enter it, must attempt a Will save or become frightened; on a successful save, they are shaken instead.

If the creature has fewer than 5 HD, it is panicked on a failed save and frightened on a success.

Creatures within the area must repeat the save each round until they either fail or leave the area.

Once a creature has left the fearful gloom, the effects last an additional 2d6 rounds.

SICKENING SHADOW

Initiate, Darkened Alleys

Level/School: 5th/Necromancy [Darkness]

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 30-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

An oily black smoke rolls out of nowhere, obscuring sight and sound.

It leaves a distasteful residue on everything within, and the scent is one of open sewers and putrefied flesh.

The area of sickening shadow is filled with shadowy illumination, as per darkness (PH 216).

All creatures within the area, or those who enter it, must attempt a Fortitude save or be nauseated.

Those who succeed are merely sickened.

Creatures within the area must repeat the save each round until they either fail or leave the area.

Once a creature has left the sickening shadow, the sickened effect lasts for 2d6 rounds.

Nausea lasts for 1d4 rounds and is then followed by an additional 2d6 rounds of being sickened.

MASTER

BLACK LABYRINTH

Master, Shadowscape

Level/School: 9th/Conjuration (Creation)

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: One-mile-radius spread, centered on a point in space

Duration: 24 hours/2 levels (D)

Saving Throw: Will partial; see text

Spell Resistance: No

The air blackens, the shadows of the alleys lengthen, and the wind shrieks as the Shadow and Material Planes collide.

Black labyrinth causes substantial disorientation within the area it affects.

Direction and distance become impossible to determine, as the world itself bends and twists.

? All attacks have a 50% miss chance.

? Area effects with a source or target within the black labyrinth have a 20% chance of improper placement.

If this occurs, the spell is centered 1d4×5 feet in a random direction from where the caster intended.

To determine direction, use the rules for a missed splash weapon (PH 158).

? All Search and Spot checks take a –10 penalty.

? Any movement, from a 5-foot step to a full run and everything between, occurs in a random direction. (Again, use the rules for a missed splash weapon to determine direction).

Reroll any result that places the creature in an "illegal" space (in another creature's area, within a wall, and so on). A random roll that results in a fall off a ledge (or a similar mishap) is allowable.

A successful Will save negates this particular effect, but that save must be repeated for each round of movement.

? Any teleportation effects with a destination inside the black labyrinth deposit their passengers 1d%×5 feet from the intended destination.

If this would put them inside a solid object, treat as a mishap as described in the teleport spell.

If this would send them outside the mystery's area, roll again.

A teleport effect cast within the black labyrinth and intended to transport the subject to a point outside the affected area requires a successful Will save; failure indicates that the subject instead teleports to a random point within the black labyrinth.

When within your own black labyrinth, you are immune to the last two effects (movement and teleportation), but not the others.

You may attempt to guide your companions through the labyrinth; this does not allow them to find their way automatically, but it does grant them a +4 bonus on Will saves to resist those two effects.

GRASPING SHADOWS

Master, Shadowscape

Level/School: 7th/Conjuration (Creation)

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area/Target: 20-ft.-radius spread

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will partial

Spell Resistance: See text

Stalks of shadows burst from the ground, as though desperate to escape the bonds of the earth, and immediately flail at everyone nearby.

This mystery creates an area of grasping tendrils that function as the spell Evard's black tentacles (PH 228), with one additional hazard: Anyone successfully grappled by a tentacle must attempt a Will save or go blind.

A successful save means the individual is safe from blinding during that particular grapple, but if she escapes and is then regrappled, she must make another saving throw.

The blindness is permanent until magically cured.

MENAGERIE OF DARKNESS

Master, Shadowscape

Level/School: 8th/Transmutation

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Nearby animals and vermin abruptly shudder.

Their mouths and eyes gape wide as a torrent of blackness flows into them from the surrounding gloom.

Any animals or vermin within the emanation, or who enter it, must make a Will save or immediately take on the aspects of their shadow selves, temporarily gaining the dark creature template (Tome of Magic 158).

You gain control over these animals, as per the spell dominate animal (PH 224).

You can command any number of them as a single move action if you are giving them all the same orders.

If you wish to give different commands to different animals or vermin, however, you must spend a move action on each order.

MYSTERIES: SPELLS, SPELL-LIKE, AND SUPERNATURAL ABILITIES

Shadowcasters begin weaving their mysteries as spells, then develop them into spell-like abilities, and finally master them as supernatural abilities. These different kinds of effects have some, but not all, characteristics in common.

Spell-Like Abilities: Spell-like abilities are magical and work just like spells (although they are not spells and so have no verbal, somatic, material, focus, or XP components). They do not function in an antimagic field and are subject to spell resistance if the spell the ability resembles or duplicates would be subject to spell resistance.

Using a spell-like ability is a standard action unless otherwise noted, and doing so while threatened provokes attacks of opportunity. It is possible to make a Concentration check to use a spell-like ability defensively and avoid provoking an attack of opportunity, just as when casting a spell. A spell-like ability can be disrupted just as a spell can be. Spell-like abilities cannot be used to counterspell, nor can they be counterspelled.

NEW CONDITION: IMMOBILIZED

Several mysteries impose a condition not described in the Player's Handbook or the Dungeon Master's Guide: immobilized. An immobilized creature can attack and cast spells normally, but it cannot move from the square or squares that it is in. This condition does not prevent a creature from defending itself, nor does it cause a creature to lose its Dexterity bonus to Armor Class. Flying creatures that become immobilized in mid-flight can control their descent so that they do not take falling damage, but they are incapable of moving from their current square as long as the effect ends and automatically descend at a rate of 20 feet per round. Flying creatures with the ability to hover can maintain their initial altitude if they choose.

FUNDAMENTAL

ARROW OF DUSK

Fundamental

Level/School: 1st/Evocation

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

A bolt of shadow springs from your hand, draining vitality where it strikes.

You must succeed on a ranged touch attack to deal 2d4 points of nonlethal damage to the target.

At any given time, you may have a total number of Hit Dice of animals and vermin under your control equal to 4 × your caster level.

Menagerie of darkness does not affect animals or vermin with Hit Dice higher than your caster level.

TOME OF MAGIC (3.5)

Supernatural: Supernatural abilities are magical and do not function in an antimagic field but are not subject to spell resistance. Supernatural abilities cannot be dispelled or counterspelled, or used to counterspell. Using a supernatural ability is a standard action unless otherwise noted. Supernatural abilities might have a use limit or be usable at will, just like spell-like abilities. However, supernatural abilities do not provoke attacks of opportunity and never require Concentration checks.

The table below expands upon and supersedes Table 8–1 on page 290 of the Dungeon Master's Guide. Column A refers to spells, column B to spell-like abilities, and column C to supernatural abilities.

	A	B	C
Can be dispelled	Yes	Yes	No
Affected by antimagic field	Yes	Yes	Yes
Use provokes attacks of opportunity	Yes	Yes	No
Can be counterspelled	Yes	No	No
Requires somatic components	Yes	No	No
Subject to spell resistance	Yes	Yes	No

If you score a critical hit, triple the damage.

BLACK CANDLE

Fundamental

Level/School: 1st/Evocation [Light or Darkness]

Range: Touch

Target: Object touched

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You draw on extraplanar shadow or banish existing shadows to let in the light.

This mystery functions like the spell light or the spell darkness.

Only one of these two effects is possible per use, and you must decide which effect is desired when casting.

CAUL OF SHADOW

Fundamental

Level/School: 1st/Abjuration

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

A shifting, whirling field of semisolid shadows and tiny rifts in the air rises around you.

Caul of shadow faintly darkens your form, but does not provide any bonuses on Hide checks or similar efforts.

You gain a +1 deflection bonus to AC, with an additional +1 for every six caster levels (maximum bonus +4).

LIQUID NIGHT

Fundamental

Level/School: 1st/Conjuration (Creation)

Range: Touch

Effect: A small quantity of ink

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The shadows around your hand seem to weep, leaving a small puddle of dark tears.

You create a quantity of ink great enough for you to write approximately one page of text.

It is not of sufficient quality to scribe spells.

In darkness or shadowy illumination, the ink glows with red or yellow light that has the brightness of a candle.

Water splashed on the ink causes it to wash away and cease glowing, but otherwise the ink continues to glow indefinitely.

MYSTIC REFLECTIONS

Fundamental

Level/School: 0/Divination

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

You peer slightly into the Plane of Shadow and can see the distortion in an object's shadow-self caused by the presence of magic.

This mystery functions like the spell detect magic, except as noted above.

You can detect magic up to 30 feet away.

SHADOW HOOD

Fundamental

Level/School: 0/Evocation

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: No

Swirling shadows manifest around your foe's head.

Swirling tendrils and bursts of mystic shadow distract the subject.

It takes a -1 penalty on attack rolls and Dexterity-based checks.

SIGHT OBSCURED

Fundamental

Level/School: 0/Illusion (Glamer)

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You cloak the subject and her movements in subtly shifting shadow.

This mystery grants a +5 circumstance bonus on Hide checks, Sleight of Hand checks, and any other checks that involve concealing the subject's actions or gestures.

UMBRAL HAND

Fundamental

Level/School: 1st/Transmutation

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One unattended object weighing up to 5 lb./level

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (object)

Spell Resistance: No

You point your finger at a distant object, and the shadows seem to grasp and tug at it.

This mystery functions like the spell mage hand, except you can manipulate heavier objects and magic items.

Magic items are allowed a saving throw to negate the effect. You need not concentrate on the effect, but you must direct it with your thoughts once each round (a free action), or the effect ends.

WIDENED EYES

Fundamental

Level/School: 1st/Divination

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

You cover your eyes with a filter of shadow that channels and enhances incoming light.

You gain low-light vision, enabling you to see twice as far as a human in starlight, moonlight, torchlight, shadowy illumination, and similar conditions of poor illumination.

If you already have low-light vision, these effects stack, enabling you to see four times as far as a human in poor illumination.

APPRENTICE

AFRAID OF THE DARK

Apprentice, Umbral Mind

Level/School: 3rd/Illusion (Mind-Affecting, Shadow)

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Spell Resistance: Yes

A shadowy image of your foe appears before him and readies out to clutch him before vanishing.

You draw forth a twisted reflection of your foe from the Plane of Shadow.

The image unerringly touches the subject, causing Wisdom damage equal to 1d6 points +1 point per four caster levels (maximum +5).

A Will saving throw halves the Wisdom damage.

BEND PERSPECTIVE

Apprentice, Eyes of Darkness

Level/School: 1st/Divination (Scrying)

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

You send your vision through shadows and into planar reflections, altering your point of view.

You view the world as though you were standing in a different spot, up to a maximum distance of 25 feet plus 5 feet per two caster levels.

You cannot see through solid objects.

You can, however, look around corners or over barriers, obtain a bird's-eye view of your area, and the like.

Essentially, you shift your perspective as though you were located at any spot in range to which you have line of effect.

You can switch back and forth between your own eyes and your alternate viewpoint as a swift action.

You can move your alternate perspective, as in the spell arcane eye.

Its speed is only 10 feet per round, however, and every round of such movement decreases the mystery's duration by 1 minute (if you move the perspective in the last minute of the duration, you gain a few seconds of vision at the new position before the effect expires).

BLACK FIRE

Apprentice, Dark Terrain

Level/School: 2nd/Evocation [Cold]

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: One 5-ft. square/level (S)

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex negates; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

You open a conduit to the Plane of Shadow, drawing its element into the world and igniting a black fire on the ground.

You create a shapeable shadowy curtain of black flame that covers the affected squares.

The fire deals 1d6 points of cold damage per two caster levels to any creature standing in an affected square at the beginning of each of your turns until the effect ends.

In addition, the flame deals damage to any creature entering or passing through an affected square.

Black fire burns only a few feet tall, so a creature can avoid the effect of the mystery by jumping or flying over the area.

CARPET OF SHADOW

Apprentice, Dark Terrain

Level/School: 1st/Conjuration (Creation)

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: One 5-ft. square/level (S)

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The ground becomes rough and hazardous, the real floor superimposed with irregular terrain of the Plane of Shadow.

You cloak the ground with an uneven and hard to traverse surface.

The terrain becomes difficult, meaning that each 5-foot square within the area costs double to move into.

For instance, each light undergrowth square (normally costing 2 squares of movement to move into) now costs 4 squares of movement to move into.

If you cast this mystery a second time on the same area (or a portion of the same area) while the first casting is still active, the second casting does not worsen the terrain further (although it would extend the duration of the effect on that area).

CLINGING DARKNESS

Apprentice, Dark Terrain

Level/School: 3rd/Conjuration (Creation)

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation (D)

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Reflex negates; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

Shadow oozes out of the floors, the walls, even the air, filling the area with wisps of writhing blackness.

Creatures within the area become coated in these clinging shadows.

Any creature within the area affected by this mystery, or that enters the area on its turn, must make a Reflex save or become immobilized (see page 140).

Each round on its turn, an immobilized subject can attempt a new saving throw to end the condition.

Because of the subject's condition, this save is a full-round action (but does not provoke attacks of opportunity).

If an immobilized subject succeeds on its save, it still needs to save again at the start of its next turn in order to avoid succumbing to the darkness again.

CONGRESS OF SHADOWS

Apprentice, Ebon Whispers

Level/School: 2nd/Divination [Mind-Affecting]

Range: 1 mile/level

Target: One living creature whose exact location is known to you, or one living creature you know well whose approximate location (within 100 ft.) is known to you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You look toward your shadow and speak a few words knowing that some distance away, a subject hears them and might reply.

You speak, and your words appear in the mind of a distant creature.

The message can consist of up to five words, plus one additional word per caster level.

It cannot deliver command words for magic items, or in any other respect function as anything but normal speech. If the subject is where you believe it to be, the message is delivered.

The subject recognizes the identity of the sender of the message if it knows you.

The creature can then reply, using the same number of words that you used.

The message cannot cross planar boundaries.

DANCING SHADOWS

Apprentice, Shutters and Clouds

Level/School: 3rd/Illusion (Glamer)

Range: Touch

Target: One creature/5 levels

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You draw the shadows around yourself or other subjects, where they waver and shift, partially obscuring form.

You grant subjects concealment.

If you cast this mystery on a single subject, the shadows are thicker, and the subject gains total concealment. The spell see invisibility and the mystery piercing sight do not negate these miss chances, but the spell true seeing and the mystery truth revealed do.

DUSK AND DAWN

Apprentice, Shutters and Clouds

Level/School: 1st/Evocation

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation centered on a point in space

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

By drawing shade from the Plane of Shadow, or banishing the shadows back to it, you control the level of illumination in the area.

You make a dark area lighter or a light area darker, blanketing the affected area in shadowy illumination. Creatures with darkvision can see through this area normally.

FLESH FAILS

Apprentice, Touch of Twilight

Level/School: 2nd/Necromancy

Range: Touch

Target: Living creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You open your enemy to the darkness, trading his physical attributes for weaker abilities belonging to creatures of shadow.

You deal either 4 points of Strength damage, 4 points of Dexterity damage, or 2 points of Constitution damage to the subject; you choose which kind of ability damage when you cast the mystery.

FLICKER

Apprentice, Ebon Whispers

Level/School: 3rd/Conjuration (Teleportation)

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You flash through the conduits and pathways of the Plane of Shadow, manifesting in multiple locations in the real world.

Once per round, as an immediate action, you can instantly transfer yourself from your current location to any other spot within a distance of 5 feet per two caster levels.

You always arrive at exactly the spot desired—just as with the spell dimension door.

If you cast flicker in response to an attack against you, the strike has a 50% miss chance.

KILLING SHADOWS

Apprentice, Eyes of Darkness

Level/School: 3rd/Transmutation

Range: 30 ft.

Effect: Cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Spell Resistance: Yes

Your eyes turn black and shoot forth a shadowy cone of punishment.

Creatures within a cone of killing shadows take 1d8 points of damage per caster level (maximum 10d8), or half that amount on a successful Will save.

LIFE FADES

Apprentice, Touch of Twilight

Level/School: 1st/Necromancy

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

A wave of darkness washes over the subject, sapping his energy in the Plane of Shadow.

Your touch deals 1d6 points of nonlethal damage per caster level (maximum 5d6) and causes the subject to become fatigued for 1 round per caster level (a Fortitude save negates the fatigue).

This mystery does not stack with itself, so creature fatigued by one casting does not become exhausted by a second casting.

MESMERIZING SHADE

Apprentice, Umbral Mind

Level/School: 1st/Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

Shadows flicker before the eyes and in the mind of the subject creature, which suddenly seems to be disoriented.

Shadow flickers around the subject, distracting and dazing him.

The subject can avoid the daze effect with a successful Will saving throw, but still takes a -1 penalty on attack rolls, checks, and saves.

PIERCING SIGHT

Apprentice, Eyes of Darkness

Level/School: 2nd/Divination

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

You view the shadow reflection of the world around you, allowing you to penetrate darkness and mystical obstructions.

You can see invisible and ethereal creatures and objects as with the see invisibility spell.

In addition, you gain darkvision out to 60 feet.

SHADOW SKIN

Apprentice, Shutters and Clouds

Level/School: 2nd/Abjuration

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round or less; see text
Semisolid shadows rise up and serve as protectors, flickering around you and absorbing some of the damage you might otherwise have taken.

You can cast this mystery as an immediate action.
You gain damage reduction according to your caster level (see table below).
This DR lasts until the beginning of your next turn.

Caster Level	DR
Up to 4th	5/magic
5th–9th	10/magic
10th–14th	10/silver
15th–19th	15/silver
20th	15/—

SHARP SHADOWS

Apprentice, Cloak of Shadows
Level/School: 3rd/Abjuration

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

You cloak yourself in sharp spikes of darkness.

Although they are weightless and do nothing to impede you, your foes soon discover that they're not so lucky.

A creature striking you with, its body or a handheld weapon takes 1d6 points of damage +1 point per caster level (maximum +15).

A creature wielding a reach weapon, such as a long spear, is not subject to this damage if it attacks you.

If the attacker has spell resistance, it applies to this effect (unless you used the mystery as a supernatural ability).

Damage from sharp shadows is not considered magical for the purpose of overcoming damage reduction, and the effect is not considered a weapon for the purpose of spells such as align weapon or magic weapon.

SIGHT ECLIPSED

Apprentice, Cloak of Shadows
Level/School: 2nd/Illusion (Glamer)

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

You cloak yourself in shadow and shift the light that would reveal you into the Plane of Shadow.

While this mystery is in effect, you can attempt Hide checks even while being observed, just as if you had cover or concealment for the purpose of this determination.

STEEL SHADOWS

Apprentice, Cloak of Shadows
Level/School: 1st/Abjuration

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Darkness coalesces about your body, forming a shadow-shape armor and another that looks like a shield.

Although they are weightless as the air, you know they'll protect you as well as if they were made of steel.

Steel shadows grants you a +3 armor bonus and a +3 shield bonus to AC, but without weight, armor check penalty, arcane spell failure chance, or speed reduction.

The effect is not a force effect, and attacks from incorporeal creatures ignore it.

THOUGHTS OF SHADOW

Apprentice, Umbral Mind

Level/School: 2nd/Transmutation

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You open the subject's mind to shadow, and the new perceptions it offers.

You grant the subject a +4 enhancement bonus to Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma.

You decide which ability you are enhancing when you cast the mystery, and you may not later alter your choice.

UMBRAL TOUCH

Apprentice, Touch of Twilight

Level/School: 3rd/Conjuration

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or creatures touched

Duration: 1 minute/level (D); see text

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

Darkness surrounds your hand, turning it into a deadly weapon.

Umbral touch infuses one of your hands with dark, shadowy energy, allowing you to make debilitating melee touch attacks.

A successful strike deals 5d6 points of damage to a target, which must succeed on a Fortitude saving throw or also be slowed.

While this mystery is active, you threaten an area as if you were armed and can make attacks of opportunity with your umbral touch.

This mystery completely occupies one of your hands, as if you were holding an object in that hand.

If you have another open hand, you can cast other mysteries or spells normally, even those with a range of touch, but you cannot deliver another touch mystery or touch spell and make an attack with umbral touch in the same round.

This effect normally lasts for 1 minute per level, but each successful touch attack shortens the duration by 1 minute (allowing you to make one successful attack per level before the effect is discharged).

VOICE OF SHADOW

Apprentice, Ebon Whispers

Level/School: 1st/Enchantment (Compulsion)

[Language-Dependent, Mind-Affecting] or Necromancy; see text

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

By speaking via a conduit through the Plane of Shadow, you deliver a commanding message.

This mystery functions like the spell command.

A second function is a necromancy effect.

Undead and constructs that fail their saving throws against this effect are dazed for 1 round.

You can only use one version of this mystery in a single casting.

INITIATE

AURA OF SHADE

Initiate, Elemental Shadows

Level/School: 4th/Abjuration [Cold]

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

The environment grows immediately more comfortable as you surround yourself with an aura of protective shadow.

You protect the subject from low temperatures and cold energy with a thin layer of that energy's shadowy reflection.

This grants the subject immunity to normal extremes of temperature and absorbs cold damage from attacks and effects.

When an aura of shade absorbs a total of 12 points of cold damage per caster level (maximum 120), it expires.

For as long as the aura is active, the subject's weapon or natural weapon melee attacks deal an extra 1d6 points of cold damage.

BOLSTER

Initiate, Body and Soul

Level/School: 4th/Transmutation

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 10 minutes/level or until discharged (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

By linking the creature touched and the Plane of Shadow, you temporarily trade some of its traits for more potent ones belonging to creatures of that shady realm.

You grant the subject 5 temporary hit points for each of its Hit Dice (maximum 75).

For the duration of the effect, the subject's shadow grows larger than normal, and its movements are very slightly uncoordinated with those of the subject.

An observer can notice this characteristic by making a DC 20 Spot check.

CURTAIN OF SHADOWS

Initiate, Veil of Shadows

Level/School: 5th/Transmutation

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Shadowy wall whose area is up to one 10-ft. square/level (S)

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You create a wall of frigid shadow that blocks vision and wracks all who pass through it with cold.

You create a wall of shadow that completely blocks line of sight.

Any creature passing through the wall takes 1d6 points of cold damage per caster level (maximum 15d6).

DARK AIR OR WATER

Initiate, Elemental Shadows

Level/School: 5th/Transmutation [Air or Water]

Reaching out with your mind to the darkness attached to your soul, you infuse nature with shadow and compel it to do your will.

This mystery functions like the spell control water or control winds.

You decide which version to use at the time of casting.

ECHO SPELL

Initiate, Black Magic

Level/School: 5th/Universal

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Repeat a previously cast spell or mystery

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: See text

Spell Resistance: See text

Even as you recoil from your enemy's spell, you reach into the Plane of Shadow and draw forth the spiritual reflection of that spell.

With a grin, you manifest it in the physical world and hurl it back at him.

You can "echo" a mystery or spell cast by anyone other than yourself, causing it to remanifest under your control.

Both the caster and the effect must have been within echo spell's range, and the entire casting must have occurred in the previous round.

You choose the mystery or spell's target, and make any other choices involved in casting it.

You cast the mystery or spell using your mystery user level (use your Cha modifier to determine the mystery or spell's DC; its duration, saves, and the like are as normal for that spell).

You cannot echo a mystery or spell of a higher level than the highest-level mystery you can cast, and you can never echo a mystery or a spell of higher than 4th level.

FEIGN LIFE

Initiate, Dark Reflections

Level/School: 5th/Transmutation

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One Small object per caster level; see text

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You infuse one or more small objects with shadowstuff, causing them to animate at your command.

This mystery functions like the spell animate objects, but the items grow dark and warped, becoming more sharp-edged and appearing slightly worn or decayed for the duration of the effect.

In addition, objects animated by this mystery benefit from concealment.

FLOOD OF SHADOW

Initiate, Black Magic

Level/School: 6th/Abjuration

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 20-ft.-radius spread

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: See text

You inundate the area with strange energies from the Plane of Shadow, warping the effects of magic.

A flood of mystical shadow-power renders casting more difficult.

To cast most spells while in, or into, an area affected by flood of shadow, the caster must succeed on a Spellcraft check (DC 15 + spell level), or the spell is lost with no effect.

Mysteries or any spells of the shadow subschool can be cast within or into the affected area without making the Spellcraft check.

In addition, if a mystery or a spell of the shadow subschool originates in an area affected by flood of shadow, its variable numerical effect is increased by 50% (as if it was empowered), although its level does not increase.

LANGUOR

Initiate, Body and Soul

Level/School: 5th/Enchantment (Compulsion)

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature or one creature/level, no two of which are more than 30 ft. apart; see text

Duration: 1 round/2 levels (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You channel shadowstuff into the subject's shadow, literally weighing him down under its weight.

Languor functions like either the spell slow or the spell hold monster.

You choose which version you want before the effect begins.

If you choose hold monster, the mystery can affect only one subject.

PASS INTO SHADOW

Initiate, Ebon Roads

Level/School: 5th/Conjuration (Teleportation)

Range: Touch

Effect: Creature touched, or up to eight willing creatures joining hands

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You break down the boundaries between worlds, opening a path into the Plane of Shadow.

This mystery functions like the spell plane shift, except that your destination or origination must be the Plane of Shadow.

SHADOW EVOCATION

Initiate, Dark Reflections

Level/School: 4th/Illusion (Shadow)

This mystery functions like the spell shadow evocation, except as noted above.

In addition, this mystery can mimic an evocation spell of lower than 5th level (rather than 6th).

SHADOW EVOCATION, GREATER

Initiate, Dark Reflections

Level/School: 6th/illusion (Shadow)

This mystery functions like the spell grater shadow evocation, except as noted above.

In addition, this mystery can mimic an evocation spell of lower than 7th level (rather than 8th).

SHADOW INVESTITURE

Initiate, Body and Soul

Level/School: 6th/Transmutarion

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level(D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You draw the subject's shadow to you and sculpt it into a new shape.

The subject warps even as its shadow does.

You infuse the subject with the power contained in its own shadow.

This grants the creature resistance to cold 15, the evasion ability, and the ability to see in darkness (even magical darkness such as that created by the spell deeper darkness).

SHADOW STORM

Initiate, Elemental Shadows

Level/School: 6th/Evocation [Electricity, Cold]

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Targets: One primary target, plus one secondary target/level (each of which must be within 30 ft. of the primary target)

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

From a sudden rift into the Plane of Shadow, a cold wind begins to blow.

Torrents of shadow arc out, draining the life from nearby creatures.

This mystery creates a blast of electricity and cold energy, much like some of the most fearsome weather found on the Plane of Shadow.

The storm strikes one target initially, then arcs to other targets.

The storm deals 1d6 points of damage per caster level (maximum 20d6).

Half of this damage is electricity damage, and the other half is cold damage.

After it strikes, the Storm arcs (like the spell chain lightning) to a number of secondary targets equal to your caster level (maximum twenty).

The secondary arcs each strike one target and deal half as much damage as the primary one did (round down).

SHADOW VISION

Initiate, Veil of Shadows

Level/School: 4th/Transmutation

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature with an Intelligence of 3 or higher

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject's vision overlaps the Plane of Shadow, causing him to see flickering images, areas of darkness, and other visual discrepancies with the material world.

You impede the subject's vision and its ability to determine what's happening around it.

The subject takes a –4 penalty on attack rolls, saves, ability checks, and skill checks.

In addition, you have total concealment with respect to the subject (miss chance applies during each round of the duration).

SHADOWS FADE

Initiate, Unbinding Shade

Level/School: 4th/Abjuration

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature or object; or 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You reach into shadow and draw forth the reflection of active magic, merging it with that magic and causing them to cancel each other.

This mystery functions like the spell dispel magic.

SHADOWS FADE, GREATER

Initiate, Unbinding Shade

Level/School: 6th/Abjuration

This more potent version of the mystery shadows fade functions like the spell greater dispel magic.

STEP INTO SHADOW

Initiate, Ebon Roads

Level/School: 4th/Conjuration (Teleportation)

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Target: You and touched objects or other touched willing creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None and Will negates (object)

Spell Resistance: No and Yes (object)

You transport yourself through the Plane of Shadow to any spot within range.

Your shadow stretches out from you until it reaches your chosen destination, passing through solid objects and moving independently of the ambient light.

You appear to fall into your shadow at one end, and rise from it at the other.

This mystery functions like the spell dimension door.

UNRAVEL DWEOMER

Initiate, Unbinding Shade

Level/School: 4th/Abjuration

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Up to one creature/level within 30 ft. of each other

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: See text

Spell Resistance: No

You open a conduit to the Plane Shadow, leaching out the energy maintaining an ongoing magical effect.

This mystery functions like the spell break enchantment.

UNVEIL

Initiate, Veil of Shadows

Level/School: 6th/Divination

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Reaching into the shadow of the creature, you grasp the shadows of the deleterious things that affect it and tear them away.

This mystery immediately ends any of the following adverse conditions: ability damage, blinded, confused, dazed, dazzled, deafened, diseased, exhausted, fatigued, immobilized, insanity, nauseated, sickened, stunned, and poisoned.

In addition, it negates the effects of the mysteries mesmerizing shade, shadow hood, and shadow between, and cancels curses as the spell remove curse.

VOYAGE INTO SHADOW

Initiate, Ebon Roads

Level/School: 6th/Illusion (Shadow)

Range: Touch

Targets: Up to one touched creature/level

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You and other creatures you touch enter the Plane of Shadow for a brief span, using it as a means of crossing great distances on the Material Plane.

This mystery functions like the spell shadow walk, except as noted here.

Your movement rate on the Plane of Shadow is double that described by the spell.

Further, upon reaching your destination, you can attempt a DC 30 Knowledge (the planes) check; success indicates that you appear exactly where you wish, rather than being shunted to a nearby space as per the spell.

You need not leave the Plane of Shadow once you enter it, and this mystery can be used on the Plane of Shadow to travel rapidly.

WARP SPELL

Initiate, Black Magic

Level/School: 4th/Abjuration

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: A spell or mystery cast by someone else

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Spell Resistance: No

You reach out with shadowy energies, banishing your foe's spell or mystery into the Plane of Shadow while replacing it with its dark reflection.

You can cast this mystery as an immediate action to warp another caster's spell or mystery.

In this case, warp spell must be used at the moment of the other caster's casting.

To be successful, you must beat the other caster on an opposed caster level check (1d20 + caster level).

If you do not, you have failed to take control of his spell or mystery, and it manifests normally.

If you succeed on the opposed check, the other caster's mystery or spell is countered, as if you had used the counterspell action successfully, and you gain one additional use of an apprentice-path mystery that you know.

You can keep this additional use until a later turn (requiring a standard action to activate), but it must be used within 1 hour or it is lost.

You can also combine the activation of the additional spell or mystery with the immediate action required for the warp spell mystery itself, allowing you to cast the apprentice-path mystery out of turn.

MASTER

ARMY OF SHADOW

Master, Shadow Calling

Level/School: 9th/Conjuration (Summoning)

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One or more summoned creatures, no two of which are more than 30 ft. apart

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

Reality seems to tear open, revealing a dark rift.

From the blackness, a shadow elemental emerges.

The first of many, it is ready to serve.

This mystery functions like the spell summon monster I, except as noted here.

You can summon one elder, two greater, four Huge, or eight Large shadow elementals.

CONSUME ESSENCE

Master, Ebon Walls

Level/School: 9th/Necromancy [Death]

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous, then 1 round/level (D); see text

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You reach out and peel the subject's shadow away, then wrap inside your own.

The target of this horrid mystery must succeed on a Will saving throw or die.

If the creature succumbs to the mystery and dies, it immediately returns to life, gains the dark creature template, and is under your control.

The creature remains in this state for 1 round per level, and then dies again.

DARK SOUL

Master, Heart and Soul

Level/School: 7th/Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes; see text

You open the subject's mind to the Plane of Shadow, altering its personality.

You turn the dark energies from the Plane of Shadow upon another creature, compelling it to act in ways that it normally would not.

While this effect is active, you can use a standard action to focus the shadow energies on one living creature within 30 feet that you select.

The creature must succeed on a Will saving throw (DC 17 + your Cha modifier) or immediately make a melee attack against one target within its reach.

EPHEMERAL IMAGE

Master, Dark Metamorphosis

Level/School: 7th/Illusion (Shadow)

Effect: One shadow duplicate

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You detach your own shadow and animate it with extraplanar energies, creating a dark-hued, hazy duplicate of yourself.

This mystery functions like the spell project image, except as noted above.

In addition, the image that you project has concealment unless it is in direct sunlight or within the area of a daylight spell.

EPHEMERAL STORM

Master, Breath of Twilight

Level/School: 9th/Evocation

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature/2 levels, no two of which are more than 20 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

The air explodes with shadowy tendrils that slice like blades.

Targets of ephemeral storm must make a Fortitude save or die.

Those who succeed take 5d6 points of damage.

FAR SIGHT

Master, Eyes of the Night Sky

Level/School: 8th/Divination (Scrying)

Range: See text

Effect: Magical sensor
Duration: 1 minute/level (D)
Saving Throw: Will negates
Spell Resistance: Yes

You alter your perceptions to see through any shadow, anywhere. Far sight is similar to the spell greater scrying, with the modifications described here. This mystery allows you to see the subject's true essence, as with the truth revealed mystery.

FLESH FAILS, GREATER

Master, Breath of Twilight
Level/School: 5th/Necromancy
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One living creature/level in a 20-ft.-radius spread
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: None
Spell Resistance: Yes
Your foes suddenly find their bodies infused with shadowstuff weakening them greatly. This mystery functions like the mystery flesh fails, except that you can affect multiple subjects, and you deal either 6 points of Strength damage, 6 points of Dexterity damage, or 4 points of Constitution damage. You must deal the same kind of ability damage to all subjects.

LIFE FADES, GREATER

Master, Breath of Twilight
Level/School: 7th/Necromancy
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One living creature/level in a 20-ft.-radius spread
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude partial
Spell Resistance: Yes
Draining shadows erupt around your foes, funneling their essence and energy into the Plane of Shadow. Your touch deals 1d6 points of nonlethal damage per caster level (maximum 20d6) and causes the subject to become exhausted for 1 round per caster level (a Fortitude save reduces the damage by half and decreases the exhaustion to fatigue). This mystery does not stack with itself, so a creature fatigued by saving against one casting does not become exhausted by saving against a second casting.

PRISON OF NIGHT

Master, Ebon Walls
Level/School: 7th/Conjuration (Creation)
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One Huge or smaller creature
Duration: 1 round/level (D)
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates; see text
Spell Resistance: Yes
You solidify extraplanar shadow, creating a solid prison of darkness. This mystery immobilizes the subject in a prison of shadowstuff. This prison blocks both line of effect and line of sight to the creature inside it, and is impenetrable from the outside.

The creature inside the prison takes 1d6 points of cold damage at the beginning of each round that it remains inside the prison.

Once each round as a standard action, a creature caught in the prison can attempt a Fortitude saving throw against the spell's original DC to break out of the prison. Success means that the creature can move out of the prison, and it fades to nothingness. Failure means that the creature takes 1d4 points of Constitution damage and remains trapped.

REFLECTIONS OF THINGS TO COME

Master, Eyes of the Night Sky
Level/School: 9th/Divination
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 10 minutes/level or until discharged
Using the greatest of magic, you peer through the Plane of Shadow back into the Material Plane, and view shadows and reflections of events that have not yet happened. This mystery grants you knowledge of what will occur (or at least what is likely to occur), granting you several benefits. You gain the uncanny dodge ability, a +10 insight bonus on initiative checks (you always get to act in a surprise round), and a +4 insight bonus to Armor Class. In addition, you can discharge the energy of this mystery as an immediate action to cause an attack to miss you that would otherwise have been successful. You can declare that you are using this ability alter the result of the attack roll is known, but you must do so before damage is determined. Using this ability discharges and ends the mystery. You can also discharge the energy of this mystery as an immediate action to immediately reroll one failed saving throw. Using this ability discharges and ends the mystery.

SHADOW PLAGUE

Master, Shadow Calling
Level/School: 8th/Conjuration (Creation) [Cold]
This mystery functions like the spell incendiary cloud, except that it deals cold damage rather than fire damage.

SHADOW SURGE

Master, Heart and Soul
Level/School: 9th/Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: Up to one living creature/level, no two of which are more than 30 ft. apart
Duration: 1 round
Saving Throw: Will negates
Spell Resistance: Yes
You send the nearby souls plummeting into darkness, leaving their bodies empty vessels that follow your will. This mystery functions like the spell dominate monster, except as noted above.

SHADOW TIME

Master, Dark Metamorphosis

Level/School: 9th/Transmutation

Duration: 1d4+4 rounds (apparent time); see text for time stop

This mystery functions like the spell time stop, except as noted above.

SOUL PUPPET

Master, Heart and Soul

Level/School: 8th/Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature touched

Duration: 1 day/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Tendrils of shadow creep from your fingers, through, the Plane of Shadow, and into the soul of the subject by way of its own shadow. You now control the creature's actions as if it were a puppet.

The control granted by soul puppet follows the same mechanics as the spell dominate monster.

Anyone observing the subject with, the spell true seeing, the mystery truth revealed, or a similar ability sees tendrils of darkness extending a few feet from the subject before fading into nothingness.

Similarly, anyone observing you while using similar abilities notices tendrils extending from your fingers, also fading into nothing.

SUMMON UMBRAL SERVANT

Master, Shadow Calling

Level/School: 7th/Conjuration (Summoning)

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One summoned creature

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You summon a creature of shadow to serve you, calling it through the barriers between worlds.

This mystery functions like the spell summon monster I, except as noted here.

You can summon one Huge, two Large, or four Medium or smaller shadow elementals.

TOMB OF NIGHT

Master, Ebon Walls

Level/School: 8th/Conjuration (Creation)

You temporarily banish your foe to the depths of shadow.

This mystery functions like the mystery prison of night, except that instead of taking Constitution damage upon failing a Fortitude saving throw to escape the prison, the creature gains one negative level.

In addition, tomb of night deals 3d6 points of cold damage per round.

TRUTH REVEALED

Master, Eyes of the Night Sky

Level/School: 7th/Divination

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D); see text

By focusing on the spiritual shadow of the world, you can see hidden truths.

At its most basic, this mystery functions like the spell true seeing.

You can also, by concentrating on a particular creature or object for 1 minute or more, gain additional information on that subject.

However, because of the distortion between worlds and the twisting effect of shadows, any additional information gained in this manner might be false or misleading.

Effect	Rounds Studied
Detect chaos	1
Detect evil	1
Detect good	1
Detect law	1
Detect magic	1
Detect thoughts	1
Determine subject's recent actions ¹	3
Discern lies	1
Learn subject's greatest fear	2
Learn subject's greatest love	2
Learn subject's name	2

¹ See what the subject did a number of minutes into the past equal to your caster level.

The table below indicates what other mystical effects can be duplicated with truth revealed.

Concentrating on a specific target requires a substantial amount of time, during which you can only take move actions, and cannot focus on any other target.

At the end of this period, the target makes a saving throw against the DC of truth revealed to resist the detection effect. Spell resistance applies to this further detection effect as well.

You may not attempt any one effect on the same target more than once per use of truth revealed.

Remember that these effects are in addition to the basic knowledge granted by true seeing, which occurs instantly and reliably.

UMBRAL BODY

Master, Dark Metamorphosis

Level/School: 8th/Transmutation

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

You become a being of shadow, rather than one of substance.

You gain the incorporeal subtype (see page 164) and all advantages and traits associated with it.

POWERS

NEGATIVE LEVELS

Many stygian powers described in this book deal with negative levels. A quick primer on negative levels follows.

Each negative level gives a creature a -1 penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, skill checks, and ability checks; deals 5 points of damage; and gives a -1 penalty to effective level (for determining the duration, DC, and other details of powers or special abilities). Additionally, a psionic manifester loses a number of power points equal to his original manifester level.

CLAIRSENTIENCE

ANALYZE DWEOMER, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Magic 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One object or creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: None or Will negates; see text for analyze dweomer

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

You indicate the object, and with a bright flash of light, you understand it.

As analyze dweomer (PH 197), except as noted here.

DISCERN LIES, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Justice 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: One creature/level, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

A thin blue and gold strand connects your forehead with that of your target.

As discern lies (PH 221), except as noted here.

ETHEREAL AGENT

Clairsentience

Level: Lurk 5, psion/wilder 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Unlimited

Effect: Psionic sensor

Duration: Concentration + 5 rounds, up to 10 min./level (D)

COMPLETE PSIONIC (3.5)

Negative levels stack. Power point losses for each subsequent stacked negative level are calculated from the effective (lowered) level each time.

Furthermore, a spellcaster loses one spell or spell slot from the highest spell level available to him. If two or more spells fit this criterion, the caster decides which one becomes inaccessible. The lost spell becomes available again as soon as the negative level is removed, providing the caster would be capable of using it at that time.

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

The vague outline of a hulking shape shimmers into view before disappearing onto the Ethereal Plane.

You create an ethereal psionic sensor, vaguely humanoid and ominous in stature, that relays visual information.

You can summon an ethereal agent at any point you can see.

It then immediately re-forms on the Ethereal Plane and can travel beyond your line of sight without hindrance.

Even while outside your line of sight on the Ethereal Plane, it explores according to your mental directions.

The agent travels at 40 feet per round (400 feet per minute) if viewing an area ahead as a human would (primarily looking at the floor) or 10 feet per round (100 feet per minute) if examining the ceiling and walls as well as the floor ahead.

The agent travels in any direction as long as the power lasts. You must concentrate to use an ethereal agent.

If you do not concentrate, the agent stands inert.

Once your concentration lapses, the power ends after 5 rounds unless you renew your concentration.

An ethereal agent can pass through solid objects, but it can never leave the Ethereal Plane.

It can be seen and attacked by anything that can see and attack an ethereal creature.

It has an Armor Class equal to 14 + your Dexterity modifier and can take 10 points of damage before being destroyed.

An ethereal agent can see normally but also has darkvision out to 60 feet and blindsense out to 30 feet.

It uses its own senses to view its surroundings.

Because the agent resides on the Ethereal Plane, the perception of the corporeal world it relays to you is somewhat blurred; you can make Spot and Search checks through the ethereal agent while maintaining your concentration on it, but those checks carry a -2 penalty.

MOMENT OF INSIGHT

Clairsentience

Level: Lurk 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 3

A faint glow illuminates the hollows of your eyes, giving you clarity of vision sufficient to fully detect concealed foes. For the duration of this power, you can ignore the effects of concealment, but not invisibility, enjoyed by any creature within 30 feet.

Whatever effect is creating concealment—such as fog, shadow, or absolute darkness—you can see through it to your target for just one moment.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can increase the duration of this power by 1 round.

PERFECT ARCHERY

Clairsentience

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 3

Your swift thought protects you from retaliation as you fire your ranged weapon amid the chaos of battle.

While this power is manifested, you do not provoke attacks of opportunity for firing ranged weapons.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can increase this power's duration by 1 round.

PERFECT RIPOSTE

Clairsentience

Level: Justice 6, psychic warrior 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Melee weapon touched; see text

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None (object, harmless)

Power Resistance: No (object, harmless)

Power Points: 11

You take on an ominous glow.

You form a perfect bond with your melee weapon.

Once per round, as long as you hold the weapon with which you have bonded, you can make an attack of opportunity against any creature that attacks you with a melee weapon or natural attack and misses, provided that the attacking creature is within your threatened area.

You must be holding a melee weapon in your hand when you manifest this power.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

PROTECTION FROM PSIONICS

Clairsentience

Level: Guardian 5

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9

You grant a creature great insight into its surroundings, enabling it to better avoid harmful psionic manifestations.

The subject gains a +3 insight bonus on saving throws against powers and psi-like abilities (but not against supernatural and extraordinary abilities).

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, you increase the bonus by 1.

PSYCHOMETRY

Clairsentience

Level: Knowledge 6, psion/wilder 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 minute

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

Beneath the scrutiny of your measuring eye, images of the past stream across the wavering landscape.

You can see images of creatures that have come into the area in the recent past.

Upon manifesting this power in a given area, you can see all that has happened in the recent past.

You get a general feel for who has been present at the location and what they were doing there.

You might be able to tell when the creatures in question left the area and how long they had been there before departing, determine a rough estimate of their numbers, and discern strong emanations of chaos, evil, good, or law. The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study the location in question.

1st Minute: The number of creatures to last pass through the area (group or individual).

2nd Minute: The type of creatures to pass through the area.

3rd Minute: The length of time the creatures were in the area (up to the duration studied).

4th Minute: The general alignment of the creatures that were in the area.

5th Minute: What direction the creatures came from to get to the area.

6th Minute: What the creatures did while they were in the area.

7th Minute: What direction the creatures went when they left the area.

8th+ Minute: The next-to-last group of creatures in the area (repeat cycle with each previous group of creatures until concentration fails or duration elapses).

Creatures enjoying the benefit of mind blank or cloud mind (or similar effects) are not detected by psychometry.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can increase the radius of the area by 10 feet.

REALIZED POTENTIAL

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 5

You touch a creature and infuse it with the potential to realize its aspirations.

The target receives a vision of her own future, gaining deeper insight into her abilities, but only temporarily.

For the duration of this power, the character gains a +1 competence bonus on attack rolls and saving throws, and a +2 competence bonus on skill checks made using skills in which the character has ranks.

SEE INVISIBILITY, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Lurk 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 3

Your eyes take on a golden hue, glowing brightly as your vision pierces the veil of the invisible and ethereal.

As see invisibility (PH 275), except as noted here.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can include one additional willing creature, allowing it to see what you see.

You must be touching the additional subject(s) when you manifest this augmented version.

SPEAK WITH DEAD, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Death 3, lurk 3

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Target: One dead creature

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text for Speak with Dead

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

A death knell rings mournfully and a brackish ectoplasm seeps from your fingers, dripping on the corpse you seek to query.

The fluid is quickly absorbed into the corpse's rotting form, and it groans.

As Speak with Dead (PH 281), except as noted here.

You can ask up to five questions, unless you augment the power.

This is considered a negative energy power for the purpose of the Stygian Archon feat (page 57).

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, you can ask one additional question.

STYGIAN DISCERNMENT

Clairsentience

Level: Death 1, psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped emanation

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level; see text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

A halo of dead gray energy alights upon your brow as a soft moan is heard in the distance.

You can detect the aura that surrounds undead creatures.

Furthermore, you can detect the aura that emanates from negative energy effects, whether instantaneous or ongoing.

The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study a particular area.

If you fully study a location, you gain benefits against the threats your power might have revealed.

1st Round: Presence or absence of undead or negative energy auras.

2nd Round: Number of undead or negative energy auras in the area and the strength of the strongest such aura present.

If you are good-aligned, the strongest undead or negative energy aura's strength is overwhelming (see below), and if the creature (or negative energy effect) has Hit Dice (or is of a level) equal to at least twice your character level, you are stunned for 1 round and the power ends.

3rd Round: The strength and location of each undead or negative energy aura.

If an aura is outside your line of sight, you discern its direction but not its exact location.

Upon spending 3 rounds studying a particular area with Stygian Discernment, your enhanced knowledge provides you with a +2 insight bonus that you can apply toward your next attack roll, saving throw, or the save DC of the next power you manifest that affects the undead creature you have located using this spell.

Aura Strength: The strength of an undead or negative energy aura is determined by the Hit Dice (or spell/power level) of the undead creature (or negative energy effect), as shown on the following table:

HD/Spell or Power Level	Strength
0–1	Faint
2–4	Moderate
5–10	Strong
11 or higher	Overwhelming

SYNCHRONICITY

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

Your eyes flash with visions only you can truly make out.

You gain a brief glimpse into the future that allows you to arrange a coincidence of events.

When you manifest this power, you can ready a standard action (without spending an action to do so) and use it whenever you choose before your next turn.

Unlike the normal use of readied actions, you need not specify the condition under which you take your readied action.

If you do not perform your readied action before your next turn, you lose that action.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, you do not need to specify the standard action you are readying.

METACREATIVITY AND DAMAGE REDUCTION

Any damage-dealing metacreativity power that specifies piercing, slashing, or bludgeoning damage does not automatically overcome a creature's damage reduction. Such powers include crystal shard (EPH 89), hail of crystals (EPH 111), swarm of crystals (EPH 134), burrowing bonds (page 79), and crystalstorm (page 81).

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Creation 1, shaper 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One created astral construct

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

Coalescing ectoplasm takes the form you desire.

As astral construct (EPH 77), except as noted here.

You can have only one astral construct shaped at any one time.

If you shape another astral construct, any previous construct dissipates.

(The exception is if you are a 5th-level ectopic adept, which gives you the ability to create another astral construct while you have one active).

BURROWING BONDS

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 4

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One Medium or smaller creature

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

A pealing chime accompanies the appearance of a long, slender, malleable shaft of crystal.

It entwines your foe in its loops, piercing his flesh and holding him bound.

The crystalline bonds deal 3d6 points of damage when they first entwine and pierce the target's flesh, and 1d6 points of piercing damage (see the Metacreativity and Damage Reduction sidebar, below) every round thereafter as they continue to writhe and burrow, tightening their grasp. A target caught by the bonds can attempt purely mental actions, such as manifesting a power.

In effect, you can take your normal move action and then take any standard action at some later point in the round, depending on how events unfold.

METACREATIVITY

However, the burrowing nature of the bonds requires that a manifester make a Concentration check for each power attempted with a DC of 20 + half the continuous damage last dealt.

(The continuous damage is that damage dealt in each round after the initial round of the effect).

The target can break loose by spending 1 round and making a DC 20 Strength check or a DC 25 Escape Artist check. Alternatively, cutting or damaging the bonds can free a victim.

The crystal has AC 5, hardness 12, and 30 hit points.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC and the DCs to break loose increase by 1.
2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect a target of one size category larger.
3. For every 2 additional power points you spend, the continuous damage increases by 1d6 points.

CRYSTALSTORM

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Thousands of razor-sharp crystal shards spray in a thick ray from your hand toward your foe.

Razor-sharp crystal shards shoot from your hand.

These crystals are supernaturally sharp and lacerate flesh. You must succeed on a ranged touch attack with the ray to deal damage to a target.

The ray deals 2d4 points of slashing damage (see the Metacreativity and Damage Reduction sidebar, page 79) and causes a living target to gush blood, dealing an additional 1d4 points of Constitution damage on a failed Fortitude saving throw.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional power point you spend, the shards deal an additional 1d4 points of damage.
2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, the shards deal an additional point of Constitution damage on a failed Fortitude saving throw.

DEADEN BLOW

Metacreativity

Level: Guardian 1, lurk 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One weapon

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: Yes; see text

Power Points: 3

Ectoplasm issues forth from your fingertips, sheathing the weapon you touch in a rubbery gray cocoon.

A single manufactured weapon is sheathed in rubbery ectoplasm.

The ectoplasmic sheath transforms the damage dealt by the weapon from lethal to nonlethal damage.

Unattended weapons or weapons in your possession are automatically sheathed.

If you manifest this power on an attended weapon, the possessor of the weapon is allowed a Will saving throw to resist the attempt.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, this power can affect a natural weapon.

(The weapon is considered to be attended, which means that its possessor is allowed a save).

DETAIN ECTOPLASM

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 30-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous and 1 round/level; see text

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

The creatures, objects, and effects in the area disappear with an audible pop.

As dismiss ectoplasm (EPH 94), except that when you do away with creatures, objects, or effects composed of ectoplasm, you psionically reserve the constituent ectoplasm for later use with your own metacreativity powers.

An ectoplasmic creature that fails its Will saving throw dissipates into constituent ectoplasm that streams to you and either adheres to an object you hold or takes up orbit around your head.

A creature under the effect of the ectoplasmic form power that fails its saving throw is destroyed outright, and you detain its constituent ectoplasm.

Other ongoing powers that create ectoplasmic objects or effects, such as ectoplasmic cocoon, are detained if you succeed on a manifester level check (1d20 + your manifester level, maximum +15) against a DC of 11 + the power's manifester level.

Once you have successfully used this power, you have an ectoplasmic reserve until this power's duration elapses or until you use up the reserve.

If you manifest any metacreativity power while you maintain an ectoplasmic reserve, you manifest that power as if your manifester level were one higher than normal. Once you use up your ectoplasmic reserve to increase the manifester level of a metacreativity power, the duration of this power ends.

Against constructed psionic items that appear to be mere ectoplasm, such as any of the psychoactive skins, this power merely suppresses the item's abilities for 1d4 rounds (just as occurs with the dismiss ectoplasm power).

ECTOPLASMIC SWARM

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One ectoplasmic swarm

Duration: Concentration + 2 rounds

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

A bright flash of light heralds the arrival of a swarm of shiny jade spiders, surging out in a wave of legs and clicking mandibles.

You summon an ectoplasmic swarm (page 129) that attacks all other creatures within its area.

If no living creatures are within its area, the swarm attacks or pursues the nearest creature.

You have no control over its target or direction of travel.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, you can call the swarm so that it shares a space with creatures already present.

ENERGY CLAW

Metacreativity (Creation) [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: 10-ft. claw

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

You create a shining claw of energy and send it to grab your foe.

You target one opponent within range to be grappled by a Large claw made of energy (cold, electricity, fire, or sonic).

An energy claw gets one grapple attack per round.

It has a +12 bonus on its touch attack and a grapple check modifier of 17 + your Int modifier.

The claw deals 3d6 points of energy damage (of the appropriate type) to a creature it successfully grapples each round.

An energy claw is susceptible to dispelling and is suppressed in areas of null psionics.

Directing a claw to change targets is a move action.

It does not get a flanking bonus nor help a combatant get one.

Cold: A claw of this energy type deals +1 point of cold damage per die when grappling a target. The claw takes 1–1/2 times the normal damage from fire.

Electricity: A claw of this energy type provides a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance. The claw takes 1–1/2 times the normal damage from acid.

Fire: A claw of this energy type deals +1 point of fire damage per die when grappling a target. The claw takes 1–1/2 times the normal damage from cold.

Sonic: A claw of this energy type deals –1 point of sonic damage per die when grappling a target. This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the claw gains a +1 bonus on its touch attack and grapple checks. For every 2 power points you spend, the energy damage dealt to a grappled opponent increases by 1d6 points.

GLYPH OF WARDING, PSIONIC

Metacreativity
Level: Psion/wilder 3
Display: Material and visual
Manifesting Time: 10 minutes
Range: Touch
Target: Object touched or up to 5 sq. ft./level
Duration: Permanent until discharged (D)
Saving Throw: No (object) or yes; see text for glyph of warding
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 5
A pale glow issues from a thin tracery of silvery ectoplasm, laid down to entrap those who enter the area.
 As glyph of warding (PH 236), except as noted here.
Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power deals an additional 1d10 points of damage. For each additional 2d10 points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

LIVING ARROW

Metacreativity
Level: Psychic warrior 5
Display: Auditory
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Touch
Target: Projectile weapon touched
Duration: 1 round/level (D)
Saving Throw: Will negates (object)
Power Resistance: Yes (object)
Power Points: 9
A trill of sound indicates the projectile you've just touched has been granted a brief, predatory half-life.
 When you manifest living arrow, you give a semblance of life to the projectiles you shoot at your foes (often arrows fired from a bow, but crossbow bolts, sling stones, and other projectile weapons are also subject to this power). The power affects the first projectile you fire each round, granting it limited sentience and the ability to alter its course in mid-flight.
 You can launch a living arrow at a target known to you within the maximum range of the weapon.

The living arrow travels to the target, even around corners. Only an unavoidable obstacle or the limit of the arrow's range prevents the arrow from reaching its target. A closed door thwarts a living arrow, as does an otherwise sealed chamber.
 A living arrow ignores any cover or concealment its target might have, but the attack is otherwise rolled normally. The arrow retains any magical properties it otherwise would have, such as an enhancement bonus from the bow or the projectile itself.
Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.
 1. For every 3 additional power points you spend, you can launch an additional living arrow each round (assuming you have multiple attacks per round with that ranged weapon).
 2. If you spend 2 additional power points, you gain a brief vision of your target from the arrows point of view, as if you had manifested clairvoyant sense (EPH 83). You see the target for only a fraction of a second. The vision ends when the arrow either strikes the target or fails to reach it.

PSYCHOKINESIS

ANIMATE PLANTS, PSIONIC

Psychokinesis
Level: Natural World 7
Display: Auditory and olfactory
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Targets: One Large plant/3 levels or all plants within range; see text for animate plants
Duration: 1 round/level or 1 hour/level; see text for animate plants
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: No
Power Points: 13
The sweet scent of freshly cut grass and the rustle of leaves herald the kinetic force you instill in living plants.
 As animate plants (PH 199), except as noted here.

CELESTIAL CONDUIT

Psychokinesis
Level: Good 5, psion/wilder 5
Display: Material and visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: 120 ft.
Area: 120-ft. line
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Reflex halt
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 9
Your hands seem to shift and change into pure ectoplasm as a stream of radiant energy pulses outward from them.
 Reaching across the planes, you form a momentary link between yourself and the Positive Energy Plane. With the connection made, you instantly guide a massive charge of positive energy from your psyche into the material world, channeling it along a burning ectoplasmic line that extends from your outstretched hands.

Anyone caught in the area takes 9d6 points of damage. Undead caught in the area take 2 additional points of damage per die.

A construct or inanimate object takes only 5d6 points of damage from this power.

This power is a positive energy effect.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage (1d6+2 against undead), and the power's save DC increases by 1.

CONCUSSIVE DETONATION

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Force 6

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

A loud, echoing boom accompanies the burst of force you create. You create a massive burst of telekinetic force that deals 6d6 points of force damage to all creatures and unattended objects in its area.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the detonation deals an additional 1d6 points of damage. For every additional 2d6 points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

DEFLECTION FIELD

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Force 1, psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Concentration + 1 round, up to 1 min./level

Power Points: 1

A shimmering band of energy hums as it spins and twirls, protecting you from each incoming attack.

A shimmering band of energy spins around you, deflecting attacks away while you continue to concentrate.

While your concentration remains unbroken, and for 1 round after you stop concentrating, you gain a +4 deflection bonus to your Armor Class.

EARTHQUAKE, PSIONIC

Psychokinesis

Level: Natural World 9

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 80-ft.-radius spread (S)

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: See text for earthquake

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 17

A bass rumbling from deep within the earth builds into a roar of sound.

As earthquake (PH 225), except as noted here.

ENERGY ARC

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Area: 15-ft.-cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half (object)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

The air around you crackles as you draw energy from it to unleash in a focused arc.

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

A cone of the chosen type of energy shoots from your fingertips.

Any creature in the area of effect takes 1d4 points of damage.

Cold: An arc of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Electricity: Manifesting an arc of this energy type provides a +2 bonus on the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: An arc of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A bolt of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power deals an additional 1d4 points of damage, and the power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY BARRAGE

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Three 10-ft. spreads; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

A shrill whistle pierces the air, followed by three explosions that detonate with a cacophonous roar.

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You create three explosions of energy of the chosen type.

Each explosion deals 5d6 points of damage to every creature or object within each specified area.

The explosions create almost no pressure.

All the areas you choose must be in range of you and each other (100 feet + 10 feet per level).

The explosions can overlap each other's areas.

Any creature caught in multiple explosions must make a Reflex saving throw for each, which means that it is possible for a single creature to be required to make up to three saving throws.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, each explosion deals an additional 1d6 points of damage, and the power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY EMANATION

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 5 ft.

Target: 5-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

A glowing halo of energy surrounds you, damaging all who stand too near.

You expel concentrated energy from your body, dealing 1d6 points of energy damage to all creatures within the area every round.

The energy emanated is chosen by you when you first manifest the power: cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

Once chosen, you emanate the same energy type for the power's duration.

Cold: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Electricity: This energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: This energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage.

For every two extra dice of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY FLASH

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Touched creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

Your merest touch against your foe flashes with potent energy.

On a successful touch attack, you deal 5d6 points of damage to the creature touched, doing cold, electricity, fire, or sonic damage.

In addition to the energy damage, the target is dazed for 1 round on a failed Fortitude save (the same save that determines full or half damage).

Cold: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Electricity: This energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: This energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage.

For every 2d6 additional points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY LANCE

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature or object

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half (object); see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You fashion a lance composed of seething energy and release it like a ballista bolt at your foe.

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You release a focused lance of intense energy of the chosen type at a target, dealing it 5d6 points of damage.

Cold: This energy type chills the target and stiffens its joints in addition to dealing damage.

If the target fails its Fortitude save, it must give up its next move action.

Electricity.

This energy type jolts and disorients the target in addition to dealing damage.

If the target fails its Fortitude save, it takes a -2 penalty on all Will saves and Wisdom-based checks for 1 round.

Fire: This energy type scorches the target with pain in addition to dealing damage.

If the target fails its Fortitude save, it takes a -2 penalty on attack rolls and Reflex saves for 1 round.

Sonic: This energy type deals -1 point of damage per die.

The subject takes a -2 penalty on all Fortitude saves and Concentration checks for 1 round.

The lance ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage.

ENERGY MANIPULATION

Psychokinesis

Level: Energy 5

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Alter energy effect

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

You access a source of energy as it appears, altering it in fundamental ways according to your whim.

You can manipulate an existing source of energy or an ally's ability to deal energy damage (cold, fire, electricity, or sonic).

Once you have manifested this power, you can trigger the power's effect as an immediate action at any point during its duration.

When the power's effect is triggered, you can partially suppress or enhance the energy ability of a creature within range that exhibits any magical or psionic variable damaging energy effect (such as a fireball spell, an energy missile power, or a red dragon's breath weapon) by 5 dice. For example, you manifest energy manipulation, and then an ally psion manifests energy burst.

That power normally deals 5d6 points of damage, but you enhance the power so that it deals 10d6 points of damage of the chosen energy type.

Alternatively, if a young adult red dragon used its breath weapon during the duration of your energy manipulation, you could trigger its effect to suppress the damage.

The dragon's breath weapon would deal 5d10 points of fire damage instead of 10d10 points (provided you were able to overcome the dragon's spell resistance).

Either way, the power's duration ends once you trigger the effect.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest and trigger this ability as an immediate action instead of as a standard action (thus eliminating the need to manifest the power and use it within the following round).

ENERGY MISSILE

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Kineticist 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Targets: Up to five creatures or objects, no two of which are more than 15 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You send a missile of energy howling toward your foe.

As energy missile (EPH 102), except as noted here.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage. For each additional 2d6 points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY NULLIFICATION FIELD

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 5, psion/wilder 6

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

You concentrate and are rewarded by a low hum of protection.

An invisible field of energy surrounds you.

This power functions like a null psionics field, but it applies only to powers with the energy descriptor you choose when you first manifest this power: cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, the radius of this power's area increases by 5 feet.

ENERGY STUN

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 5-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

A roaring whoosh sounds through the air as you gather elemental energy to yourself.

As energy stun (EPH 104), except as noted here.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage. For each additional 2d6 points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

ETHEREAL VOLLEY

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Force 3, psychic warrior 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: 50 projectiles, all of which must be in contact with each other at the time of manifestation

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

Each piece of ammunition touched is covered in a sheath of hard ectoplasm, taking on a pale blue translucence.

Projectiles (such as arrows and bolts) transform into missiles of pure force as they are launched at your opponents.

Each projectile is treated as though it were a ghost touch weapon.

EXTEND RANGE

Psychokinesis

Level: Lurk 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Touch

Target: One thrown or ranged weapon

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 1

Your ranged weapon leaves energy trails that propel it unerringly through the air.

When using a ranged or thrown weapon, you can empower the weapon to provide a telekinetic thrust so that it travels farther with greater accuracy.

When manifesting extend range, you can double the range increment of a weapon you hold.

If used on a thrown weapon, the weapon itself is affected by the power.

If used on a ranged weapon that uses ammunition, the ammunition is not affected, but the weapon (such as a crossbow) is energized by your psionic impulse.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, you can increase the base range increment of the weapon by another 100 percent. For example, if you spend a total of 5 power points, you can triple the range increment of a weapon.

For a total of 9 power points, you can quadruple the range increment.

EXTEND REACH

Psychokinesis

Level: Lurk 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Touch

Target: One melee weapon

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 3

Your melee weapon warps and extends its reach.

You cause a telekinetic extension to form as you strike with your weapon, granting you greater reach in combat.

When you manifest this power, your weapon becomes a reach weapon, extending its reach by 5 feet.

If your weapon is already a reach weapon, this power extends its reach an additional 5 feet.

The weapon no longer threatens all the squares that it previously threatened, but instead threatens those that are 5 feet farther away.

For example, if you manifest extend reach while using a bastard sword, you cannot attack an adjacent opponent, but you can attack one 10 feet away.

If you are using a guisarme (a polearm with a 10-foot reach), you do not threaten an opponent 10 feet away, but you do threaten an opponent 15 feet away.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the duration increases by 1 round.

FIENDISH CONDUIT

Psychokinesis

Level: Evil 5

Your hands shift and change into pure ectoplasm as a stream of dark energy pulses outward from them.

As celestial conduit (page 80), except the link you form is between yourself and the Negative Energy Plane, and the ectoplasmic line formed is composed of negative energy.

The power heals undead creatures of 9d6 points of damage, and deals 9d6 points of damage to all other creatures.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the power heals undead of an additional 1d6 points of damage, or deals an additional 1d6 points of damage to all other creatures.

INTELLECT BOMB

Psychokinesis

Level: Destruction 9

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target/Area: One living creature with an Intelligence score and 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates and Reflex half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

Your target's head shudders briefly under a tremendous barrage of destructive mental power, then explodes in a burst of energy.

The backlash of the explosion assaults the minds of nearby creatures, tearing at their synapses.

When you manifest this power, you cause the target creature's brain—or whatever neural or magical network functions as its brain—to explode unless the target makes a successful Will save.

This explosion instantly kills (or destroys, in the case of intelligent undead) the subject.

A creature without an Intelligence score is immune to this power.

The explosion causes a backlash of devastating psionic energy to flood the area around the creature in a 20-foot-radius burst.

This energy deals damage equal to 1d6 points × the target creature's Intelligence score to all creatures in the area and causes them to become dazed for 1 round, regardless of whether they have Intelligence scores.

Affected creatures can attempt Reflex saves for half damage and to negate the daze effect.

LIGHT BEAM

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Light and Darkness 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 120 ft.

Area: 120-ft. line

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

A ribbon of flashing light or coruscating darkness flies from your hand.

Upon manifesting this power, you choose light, shadow, or darkness.

You release a powerful line of the chosen type that deals 5d6 points of damage to every creature or object within the area.

The beam begins at your fingertips.

Light: A beam of this type dazzles opponents that fail their saving throw.

Shadow: A beam of this type deals –1 point of damage per die, but damages ethereal creatures without a miss chance.

Darkness: A beam of this type deals +1 point of damage per die in conditions of shadowy illumination or darkness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of beam you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage.

LIGHT BURST

Psychokinesis

Level: Light and Darkness 8

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 80-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex partial; see text for sunburst

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15

You point and a bright flash of light fills the area you indicate.

As sunburst (PH 289), except as noted here.

Light burst deals 15d6 points of damage to undead creatures.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage.

For each additional 2d6 points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

MIGHTY SPRING

Psychokinesis

Level: Lurk 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

The sound of a collapsing metal coil accompanies your leap and reverberates as you're propelled through the air.

With a telekinetic boost, you can jump higher than normal. You receive a +10 enhancement bonus on one Jump check this round.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can add an additional +5 to the enhancement bonus.

POWER CLAWS

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level or until discharged

Power Points: 3

Your natural weapon takes on a deadly gleam.

You encase one of your natural weapons in telekinetic force.

The next successful attack with that natural weapon deals force damage instead of regular damage.

This has a number of effects: The natural weapon does not suffer a miss chance against incorporeal creatures, and the damage from the natural weapon overcomes damage reduction as if it were a spell and not a weapon attack.

Only the base natural weapon damage, magical enhancement bonuses, bonus damage from Strength, and other bonuses on the natural weapon itself are changed to force damage.

Bonus damage dice from any source, such as sneak attack or the flaming weapon quality, deal their normal type of damage.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can invest the weapon with an additional charge.

Each additional charge allows the weapon to be used one more time before the power claws effect is discharged.

POWER WEAPON

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Touch

Target: Melee or thrown weapon touched

Duration: 1 round/level or until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Your weapon takes on a deadly gleam.

This power functions like power claws (see above), except as noted here.

Instead of your natural weapon, your melee or thrown weapon deals force damage.

PSYCHOKINETIC WEAPON

Psychokinesis

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One weapon

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Yes (object)

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 7

The blade dances and twirls before you, becoming a whirling scythe of death as it moves of its own accord.

You animate an unattended weapon or weapon in your possession, causing it to attack foes seemingly of its own volition.

Once animated, the weapon attacks your opponents to the best of its ability and psychokinetically mimics a fly speed of 20 feet (perfect).

The weapon attacks using your base attack bonus modified by your Wisdom modifier, plus any additional bonuses the weapon might possess.

The weapon deals damage normally, though the damage is modified by your Wisdom modifier rather than your Strength modifier.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 3 additional power points you spend, you can add a +1 insight bonus to the psychokinetic weapon's attack bonus.

2. For every additional power point you spend, you can increase the weapon's fly speed by 5 feet.

STOMP, GREATER

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 5, psychic warrior 5

Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: 120 ft.
Area: 120-ft. line
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Reflex negates
Power Resistance: No
Power Points: 9

The earth splits and cracks as a thin chasm snakes across the area, fast as lightning.

Your foot stomp precipitates a psychokinetic shock wave that travels along a narrow channel in the ground, spreading into creatures and objects in the area. Creatures that fail their saving throws fall prone and take 7d6 points of damage.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage. For each additional 2d6 points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

SUPPRESS SCHISM

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 5
Display: Auditory and visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One creature
Duration: Instantaneous + 1 round/level
Saving Throw: Will partial; see text
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 9

A drum beats threateningly and the light around your foe turns dark as you cut your foe off from its extended mind.
Suppress schism interferes with powers and effects from the telepathy discipline.

When you manifest this power, you make a dispel check (1d20 + your manifester level, maximum +15) against each ongoing telepathy power in effect on the target creature. The DC for this dispel check is 11 + the power's manifester level.

If you succeed on a particular check, that power is dispelled; if you fail, that power remains in effect. In addition, if the target fails a Will save, any form of dual mind effect is disrupted for the duration of the power, including the effects of the schism power (EPH 130) and any of the various host feats (page 59–60).

In the EBERRON setting, this effect works against both an Inspired's dual mind ability and a kalashtar's +2 bonus on saving throws against mind-affecting spells and abilities. If the target is possessed, the possessing mind must make a save or become suppressed for the power's duration, in which case the target creature can act normally.

For the duration of the power, if the target attempts to manifest a telepathy power, he must make a manifester level check (DC 11 + your manifester level) or fail to manifest the power.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the DC of the Will save increases by 1.

TELEKINETIC BOOMERANG

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 swift action
Range: Touch
Target: One thrown weapon
Duration: 1 round/level (D)
Saving Throw: Will negates (object)
Power Resistance: Yes (object)
Power Points: 5

The object you touch glistens with silvery motes.

You can imbue a thrown weapon with an unusually fast-acting version of the returning weapon special ability. Half lings with psionic powers often use telekinetic boomerang on daggers or throwing axes.

Unlike a weapon with the returning special ability (DMG 225), a thrown weapon imbued with telekinetic boomerang returns to the thrower's hand immediately after the attack is resolved, allowing the weapon to be used again on the same turn.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can imbue an additional thrown weapon with the benefit of telekinetic boomerang.

TELEKINETIC BUFFER

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 5
Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Up to 15 ft.
Effect: Emanation of up to 15-ft. radius, centered on you
Duration: 1 round/level (D)
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 9

Waves of azure energy surge outward from you, pushing all creatures from your path.

A telekinetic field surrounds you, appearing between you and other creatures.

You decide the size of the buffer at the time of manifestation (either 0 feet, 5 feet, 10 feet, or 15 feet).

A buffer-radius of 0 feet means creatures can attack you (though you still gain the cover noted below).

This buffer moves with you, regardless of where you go or how an opponent tries to circumvent it, providing cover (+4 bonus to Armor Class) for you against opponents. The buffer cannot push through walls or other barriers. The radius at which the buffer surrounds you remains constant for the duration, which means you will be slowed to half your normal speed if you move down a narrow corridor too small to contain the field easily.

Any creature of Large or smaller size that tries to move through the field is slowed to half its normal speed.

The field cannot reduce the speed of a creature of Huge or larger size, but the buffer still provides cover from such creatures.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 4 additional power points you spend, you increase the size of creature that can be affected by this power by one size category.
2. If you spend 4 additional power points, you can push an opponent back.

Each round, as a standard action, you can choose one creature within the field to be subject to a bull rush with a Strength check result of 30.

If the creature succeeds on its opposed check, it remains where it is, but since it is still within the field, it cannot move closer without straining (see above).

If the creature fails its opposed check, it is pushed back 5 feet + an additional 5 feet for each 5 points by which the power's check result is greater than the defender's check result.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

ADRENALINE BOOST

Psychometabolism

Level: Lurk 1, Physical Power 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

A sharp, metallic musky scent overwhelms you for a moment as your body is energized by the power of your mind.

You can increase your physical prowess and reaction speed until the beginning of your next round.

You receive a +2 insight bonus to Strength and Dexterity.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, the bonus increases by 1.

AFFINITY FIELD, PAIN

Psychometabolism

Level: Pain and Suffering 9, psion/wilder 9

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

Your eyes burn with an intense red glow, and for a moment both you and your target are sheathed in a translucent red shimmer.

This ability functions as the affinity field power (EPH 75), except that you can opt not to include certain creatures that are in the area, and only negative conditions are shared. Those within the feedback loop take all damage (including ability damage) that you take, but they gain no benefits from any healing you receive.

Spells or powers that impose penalties are shared; those that grant bonuses are not.

BLACKSTONE HAMMER

Psychometabolism

Level: Elements 6, psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Melee weapon touched

Duration: 1 round/level or until discharged

Saving Throw: None (object, harm-less) or Fortitude negates; see text

Power Resistance: No (object, harmless) or yes; see text

Power Points: 11

The weapon you touch suddenly shines with a pale, glowing light.

You alter the nature of one weapon and imbue it with the ability to petrify those it strikes.

Although the base damage of the weapon is unaltered, the weapon deals bludgeoning damage for the duration of the power.

If a creature struck by a weapon affected by blackstone hammer fails its saving throw, it (along with all its carried gear) is turned into a mindless, inert statue of dark stone. Striking a creature with the weapon discharges the power. If a statue resulting from this power is broken or damaged, the subject (if ever returned to flesh) has similar damage or deformities.

The creature is not dead, but neither does it seem to be alive when viewed with spells such as deathwatch.

Only creatures made of flesh are affected by this power.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, you can invest the weapon with an additional charge.

Each additional charge allows the weapon to be used one more time before the blackstone hammer effect is discharged.

BREATHLESS

Psychometabolism

Level: Elements 3

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal; see text

Target: You; see text

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 5

Ectoplasm covers your mouth.

You alter your body so that you no longer need to breathe.

You cannot be harmed by inhaled substances and can function without fresh air (even underwater) for the duration of the power.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, this power can affect one additional touched creature.

CLAWS OF DARKNESS

Psychometabolism [Darkness]

Level: Light and Darkness 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 3

You draw material from the Plane of Shadow.

Your hands and forearms elongate and change shape into featureless claws of inky blackness.

You gain two natural attacks with your claws, each dealing 1d4 points of cold damage (or 1d6 points if you are Large, or 1d3 points if you are Small) plus your Strength bonus.

Your claws are natural weapons, so you are considered armed when attacking with them, and they can be affected by powers, spells, and effects that enhance or improve natural weapons (such as the magic fang spell). You cannot choose to deal nonlethal damage with your claws.

Your claws work just like the natural weapons of many monsters.

You can make an attack with one claw or a full attack with two claws at your normal attack bonus, replacing your normal attack routine.

You take no penalties for two-weapon fighting, and neither attack is a secondary attack.

If your base attack bonus is +6 or higher, you do not gain any additional attacks—you simply have two claw attacks at your normal attack bonus.

If you grapple an opponent, you deal claw damage with each successful grapple check, and the grappled target is under the effect of a slow spell for as long as you maintain the grapple unless the opponent makes a Fortitude save (DC 12 + key ability modifier).

As a swift action, you can extend the claws up to 6 feet, which increases your reach by 5 feet, giving a Small or Medium creature a reach of 10 feet and an upright Large creature a reach of 15 feet.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. By spending additional power points, you can create larger, sharper, and more deadly claws, as shown on the table below.

Power Points	Claw Damage
	Small	Medium	Large
3	1d4	1d6	1d8
5	1d6	1d8	2d6
7	1d8	2d6	3d6
11	2d6	3d6	4d6
15	3d6	4d6	5d6
19	4d6	5d6	6d6

Every 2 additional power points you spend to increase damage also increases the Fortitude save DC by 1.

2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

CRANIAL DELUGE

Psychometabolism

Level: Mental Power 6, psion/wilder 5

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature that has an Intelligence score of 3 or higher

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: Mental Power 11, psion/wilder 9

A deep, ominous tone builds into a maddening cacophony.

When the echoes abruptly cease, your foe's head detonates.

Grasping the biofeedback controls of your foe's brain, you begin to force his head to produce a deluge of cranial fluid.

At the beginning of your next turn, when you finish manifesting the power, your foe must succeed on a Fortitude save or take 18d6 points of damage from cranial swelling.

If your foe is reduced to 0 or fewer hit points by this power, his head explodes.

A creature that dies from cranial deluge can be resurrected but not raised.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power's save DC increases by 1.

DAMP POWER

Psychometabolism

Level: Guardian 2, psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: See text

Power Points: 3

An amber aura quickly spreads over your body, moderating the effects of the environment.

When you manifest this power, you are protected from the vagaries of destructive energies directed against you.

All variable numeric effects of the next power, psi-like ability, spell, or spell-like ability that affects you before the end of your next turn is decreased to its minimum possible value.

For instance, if you are struck by an energy ray augmented to deal 5d6 points of damage while protected by damp power, you would take only 5 points of damage.

If the power, psi-like ability, spell, or spell-like ability affects an area—as does energy ball (EPH 100), for example—its effect is only minimized for you.

Other creatures in the area are affected normally.

Beneficial numeric effects are likewise damped when you manifest this power.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, the next power, psi-like ability, spell, or spell-like ability that affects you and also affects an area is minimized for all creatures you designate within its area (not just for you).

DARK DESPAIR

Psychometabolism [Evil]

Level: Evil 8

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Effect: 10-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: Yes; see text

Power Points: 15

Good foes near you hear the dark wailing of lost souls.

When you manifest this power, you gain a dark aura that confers several benefits, especially while fighting good creatures.

A creature that enters the area of your aura is wracked with despair and must make a successful Will save or take a -2 penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, ability checks, skill checks, and weapon damage rolls.

Power resistance applies to this effect; you make your manifester level check each time a creature with power resistance enters the area of your aura (whether due to your movement or the creature's).

Good creatures must endure additional hardship from exposure to the dark energy surrounding you.

A good creature that enters the area of your aura rakes 1d6 points of damage, plus 1 additional point per manifester level.

It continues to take this damage at the beginning of each of its turns if it remains in the area of your aura.

Finally, you gain a +2 insight bonus to your Armor Class and on saves against the attacks, powers, and abilities of good creatures.

DEATH KNELL, PSIONIC

Psychometabolism [Death, Evil]

Level: Evil 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous/10 minutes per HD of subject; see text for death knell

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

A tolling bell sounds a funeral tone.

As death knell (PH 217), except as noted here.

DISTRACTING SHOUT

Psychometabolism [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Chaos 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 15 ft.

Area: 15-ft. cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

The power of your ear-splitting war cry echoes across the battlefield.

Your shout distracts your enemies.

Starting from your square, the power of your shout extends in a 15-foot cone.

Any creature caught in the area that fails a saving throw is momentarily distracted.

Affected creatures are subject to attacks of opportunity if any foes threaten the distracted subjects.

If you threaten a distracted subject, you can also make an attack of opportunity.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, the area of the power is transformed into a 15-foot burst.

EARTH WALK

Psychometabolism

Level: Elements 2, psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 3

You ascend the wall as if it were level ground.

You create a perfect mental bond with stone, allowing you to move over it with uncanny ease.

While this power is in effect, you can climb stone and earthen surfaces at your current base speed, including moving across ceilings, overhangs, and other slanted or vertical surfaces without making Climb checks.

While climbing in this manner, you do not have to make a Climb check to avoid losing your grip when you take damage.

In addition, you can cling to a stone surface easily with just one limb, allowing you to attack without restriction, manifest powers normally, and retain your Dexterity bonus to Armor Class while climbing.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

EMPOWER WEAPON

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Target: One weapon touched

Duration: Permanent until discharged (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 9

The blade of your weapon takes on a crystalline quality, shining faintly as psychic power converts it into a vessel of power.

You can store one power that you can manifest in a weapon of your choice.

Only one such power can be stored in a weapon at a time; you cannot have more than one empowered weapon at any given time.

You can store a power costing up to your manifester level minus 4.

You expend the power points for the stored power, including augmentations, when you empower the weapon initially (in addition to those spent to manifest empower weapon).

Once the power is stored, you can manifest the power from the weapon without expending power points from your own reserve.

You can manifest the power stored within the weapon as you stored it, complete with its chosen augmentations.

For example, the 14th-level psychic warrior Ragnar knows both empower weapon and oak body.

She manifests empower weapon and chooses to store oak body augmented with 1 power point (the maximum allowed at her manifester level minus 4).

At the time she manifests empower weapon and stores oak body, she spends 19 power points (9 for empower weapon and 10 for the augmented oak body).

Several days later, when she manifests the stored power, she does so without any power point expenditure.

ENDURE ELEMENTS, PSIONIC

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

An amber aura quickly spreads over your body, moderating the effects of the environment.

As endure elements (PH 226), except as noted here.

EYES OF THE BASILISK

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Target: One creature within 30 ft. per round

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

Your eyes glow with a pale green incandescence, hinting at concentrated malice.

Your look turns one creature per round to stone permanently.

Once each round, you can choose to look at a creature as a standard action.

The creature must succeed on a Fortitude saving throw or be turned to stone.

Creatures can avoid the need to make a saving throw by not looking at you.

On its turn, a creature chooses whether it is looking at you normally, averting its eyes, or looking away.

Averting Eyes: Your opponent can attempt to avoid looking at your face, and instead look at your body, watch your shadow, track you in a reflective surface, and so on.

Each round, an opponent has a 50% chance to avert its eyes in this manner, avoiding the need to make a saving throw against your eyes of the basilisk power.

However, you gain concealment against that opponent.

Looking Away: An opponent can look away or cover its eyes (such as with a blindfold) so that it cannot see you at all.

You gain total concealment against that opponent.

FROM THE BRINK

Psychometabolism (Healing)

Level: Life 2

Display: Material and mental

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One dying creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You exert your power to prevent a creature from stepping into the next world, anchoring it tenuously to its depleted, but stable, body.

When you manifest this power, you automatically stabilize the target.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the target regains 1 hit point, restoring it up to a maximum of 1 hit point.

For example, Kalar sees his ally Phenn drop in combat, reduced to -5 hit points.

Kalar can manifest this power to stabilize Phenn at a distance, and can augment the power with up to 6 power points to heal Phenn (bringing him back up to 1 hit point).

GREATER GLORY

Psychometabolism [Good]

Level: Good 8

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Targets: One good creature/level in a 20-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15

You cause pure light to surround good creatures near you, bathing them in a holy radiance that gives them great power when combating the forces of evil.

When you manifest this power, you give any good creatures near you the ability to combat evil more effectively.

This power has several benefits.

Each affected creature gains the ability to smite evil.

The smite attack can be used once during the duration of the power.

Creatures using the smite attack gain a bonus on their damage rolls equal to your manifester level.

Greater glory blocks any attempt by a nongood creature to possess the warded creatures (by a magic jar attack, for example) or to exercise mental control over the creatures (including charms and compulsions).

The protection does not prevent such attempts from targeting the creature, but it suppresses their effects for the duration of greater glory.

Each creature under the effect of greater glory gains a +2 insight bonus to Armor Class and on saves against the attacks, powers, and abilities of evil creatures.

Finally, evil creatures that attack a creature benefiting from greater glory must make Fortitude saves or be nauseated for 1d4 rounds.

HEAVY EARTH

Psychometabolism

Level: Law 3, psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst, centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Light explodes from your form and settles into the earth, infusing it with mass beyond its norm.

You create an area of strange, otherworldly gravity, causing the earth itself to pull creatures downward.

Creatures in the affected area that fail their saving throws fall prone.

In addition, these creatures are slowed (as the slow spell) as long as they remain prone and for 1 round after they stand up.

Creatures that succeed on their saves are not knocked down, but they are still slowed for 1 round.

Creatures that are already prone and fail their saves are slowed as long as they remain prone and for 1 round after they stand up.

Creatures with multiple legs or stability (such as a dwarf) have a bonus on this save as if they were attempting a Strength check to resist a normal trip attempt.

Since you are in the area of heavy gravity, you are slowed just as other creatures are, but you are never knocked prone when you manifest this power.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you are not slowed by manifesting this power.

HUNGRY TOUCH

Psychometabolism

Level: Consumption 1

Display: Mental and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

A delicious scent wafts through the air as your touch steals a small portion of the life essence of another creature.

On a successful touch attack, you deal 1d6 points of damage to the target creature and gain temporary hit points equal to the amount of damage dealt.

The target can attempt a Fortitude save to take half damage and negate your hit point gain.

The temporary hit points last for up to 10 minutes.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage, and the power's save DC increases by 1.

INSPIRE MOUNT

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One willing mount

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

Your mount is enveloped in a golden radiance as you infuse it with strength, stamina, and speed.

While your mount enjoys the benefit of this power, its speed increases by 20 feet.

Furthermore, you can make a Ride check to negate a hit on your mount as though you had the Mounted Combat feat.

If you already possess this feat, you receive a +10 competence bonus on your Ride check when attempting to negate a hit on your mount.

When you attempt to negate a hit on your mount (whether successful or not), the power ends.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as an immediate action.

2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can increase this power's duration to 10 minutes per level.

MEND WOUNDS

Psychometabolism (Healing)

Level: Life 6

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless) or Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

Your touch taps a conduit of positive energy, healing the target of its wounds.

With a touch, you can channel positive energy and cure a target creature of up to 55 points of damage.

If used against an undead creature, mend wounds instead deals 55 points of damage.

An undead creature can attempt a Will save for half damage.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional power point you spend, you heal an additional 5 points of damage or deal an additional 5 points of damage to an undead creature.

2. If you spend 4 additional power points, you can heal all creatures within 20 feet of you.

MIND OVER ENERGY

Psychometabolism

Level: Guardian 6, psion/wilder 6, psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 11

You concentrate, and your form's hue becomes partially saturated with a color related to the energy you choose.

You mentally reinforce your living tissue with pure psionic will, gaining immunity to the energy type you choose for the duration of the power: cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

MINDFIRE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Material and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Living creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 5

A gust of warm air wafts the odor of sickness and death across the area.

If the target fails her saving throw, she contracts mindfire. The disease has no incubation period; the victim immediately takes 1d4 points of Intelligence damage. Each day thereafter, the victim must succeed on a Fortitude saving throw (DC equal to the manifested power's DC) or take another 1d4 points of Intelligence damage. If the victim makes her Fortitude save for two days in a row, she fights off mindfire and recovers, taking no more damage.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, the disease deals 1 additional point of Intelligence damage, and the save DC (for the power and the disease) increases by 1.

PLANAR APOTHEOSIS

Psychometabolism [see text]

Level: Evil 4, Good 4, psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 7

A silver (or black) halo appears above your head, revealing your connection to the Outer Planes.

When you manifest this power, you choose between celestial apotheosis or fiendish apotheosis.

The power gains the good or evil descriptor, respectively.

If you are good-aligned, you must choose celestial, and if you are evil-aligned, you must choose fiendish.

If your alignment has no good or evil component, you can choose either version of the power.

You psionically reach across the planes and form a tenuous bond with a plane appropriate to the chosen apotheosis.

From this bond, you gain the following effects.

- Darkvision out to 60 feet.
- Power resistance equal to 5 + your manifester level.
- If you chose celestial apotheosis, you gain resistance to acid 10, cold 10, and electricity 10, as well as the ability to smite evil once, dealing additional damage equal to your manifester level against an evil foe.
- If you chose fiendish apotheosis, you gain resistance to cold 10 and fire 10, as well as the ability to smite good once, dealing additional damage equal to your manifester level against a good foe.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can increase the duration to 10 minutes per level.

PLANAR EMBRACE

Psychometabolism [see text]

Level: Evil 6, Good 6, psion/wilder 8

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 15

A silver (or black) halo appears above your head, and white feathered (or black leathery) wings sprout from your back, revealing a powerful connection to the Outer Planes.

When you manifest this power, you must choose whether to receive abilities from the half-celestial template (MM 144) or the half-fiend template (MM 147).

The power gains the good or evil descriptor, respectively.

If you are good-aligned, you must choose half-celestial, and if you are evil-aligned, you must choose half-fiend.

If your alignment has no good or evil component, you can choose either version of the power.

You psionically reach across the planes and form a bond with a plane appropriate to the chosen template.

From this bond, you gain the following effects.

- You receive spell-like abilities appropriate to a half-celestial or half-fiend that has Hit Dice equal to one-half your manifester level.

For instance, if you're a 13th-level psion, you receive spell-like abilities as if you were a 6 HD creature with the appropriate template.

- If you chose half-celestial, you gain wings and a fly speed equal to twice your base land speed (good maneuverability).
- If you chose half-fiend, you gain wings and a fly speed equal to your base land speed (average maneuverability).

PROTECTION FROM SPELLS, PSIONIC

Psychometabolism

Level: Magic 8

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 15

As you touch the creature, the smell of burned paper fills the air.

As protection from spells (PH 266), except as noted here.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, you can protect an additional creature.

PSYCHIC SCIMITAR

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: One psychic blade

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

A wraithlike, glowing scimitar shaped from your psychic might materializes and moves as you desire.

You can create an immaterial scimitar that allows you to attack enemies or deliver low-level touch powers at a distance.

When you manifest the power, you lose 2 Intelligence points (and any associated bonus power points) that return when the power ends (even if it is negated), but not if the scimitar is destroyed.

In this latter case, treat the lost Intelligence points as ability damage.

The scimitar appears in your hand when first manifested.

Directing the scimitar takes a standard action.

Once directed to attack an enemy within range, it disappears and then reappears in melee with that creature; thus, you can use a psychic scimitar to attack enemies at a distance.

Attacks with a psychic scimitar are melee touch attacks.

The power gives you a +2 bonus on your melee touch attack roll.

Attacking with a psychic scimitar counts normally as an attack.

You can choose to redirect the scimitar to attack a new opponent; doing so requires an additional standard action.

The blade deals 1d6 points of damage.

Since the blade is immaterial, your Strength modifier does not apply to the damage even if you wield the blade in your hand.

If you wield the scimitar in your hand, you are treated as proficient even if you lack proficiency with the scimitar.

Other creatures cannot wield your psychic scimitar.

A psychic scimitar always strikes from your direction.

The blade cannot flank targets as a creature can.

The blade is incorporeal and thus cannot be harmed by normal weapons.

It has improved evasion, your save bonuses, and a base Armor Class of 22.

Your Intelligence modifier applies to the blade's Armor Class as if it were the scimitar's Dexterity modifier.

A psychic scimitar has 4 hit points.

You can also use your scimitar to deliver the effect of any power of 4th level or lower with a range of touch that you can manifest.

If you make a successful attack with the blade, the power is manifested on the target as if you had manifested it yourself.

After it delivers a power, or if the blade goes beyond range or moves out of your sight, the blade returns to you and hovers until given further direction.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the psychic scimitar deals 1 additional point of damage.

RAGE OF THE REMORHAZ

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 11

You skin pulses with a red glow.

Your skin pulses, generating a heat so intense that anything touching your body takes 4d6 points of fire damage.

Creatures striking you with natural attacks or unarmed attacks are subject to this damage as well.

Creatures striking with melee weapons do not take damage from your heat, but their weapons do take damage.

You and your possessions are immune to your own heat (but you are not resistant or immune to heat from other sources).

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power deals an additional 1d6 points of damage.

For each additional 2d6 points of damage, the power's save DC increases by 1.

SENSORY GLOOM

Psychometabolism

Level: Lurk 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

Grayish ectoplasm erupts from the skin of your enemy's face (or body), inhibiting its senses.

You override your target's nervous system and partially shut down one of its senses.

You choose which sense to affect when manifesting this power.

Each obscured sense has a different effect on the foe.

Sight: The target's vision is hampered.

It sees its surroundings as if through a dense fog.

Creatures that are adjacent to the target seem blurry, and any attacks made against an adjacent opponent are made as if that opponent had concealment.

Creatures more than 5 feet away from the target have the benefit of total concealment.

Hearing: The target is temporarily deafened (PH 307).

Scent/Taste: The target cannot smell or taste anything.

Creatures that normally benefit from the scent ability (MM 314) no longer do so for the duration of the power.

Characters who try to ascertain the properties of a potion by taste automatically fail in the attempt.

Touch: The target cannot feel the ground (as if its limbs had fallen asleep) or assess its position in relation to the ground accurately.

The target must succeed on a DC 5 Balance check each round to keep from falling prone.

If the target falls prone, it must succeed on a DC 10 Balance check to stand up.

Creatures that normally benefit from the tremorsense ability no longer do so for the duration of the power.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can affect one additional sense simultaneously.

You can affect a total of four senses.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power's save DC increases by 1.

SLOW BREATHING

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: 1

You concentrate, and your shin radiates a healthy, rosy glow.
You reduce the need for oxygen in your body, increasing your ability to become acclimated to the thin air of high altitudes.
You gain a +4 competence bonus on saving throws against altitude sickness (DMG 90).
Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you become immune to altitude sickness.

STONE MIND

Psychometabolism
Level: Natural World 1, psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1
Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 min./level
Power Points: 1

Your manifestation gives your eyes the hue of boulders and your shin the dusty texture of a creature of the deep earth, signifying your enhanced knowledge of things below the ground.
When you manifest this power, your mind becomes as the earth, and the earth becomes your mind.
You gain a +4 bonus on Search checks while standing on a surface of earth or stone (including a worked stone floor). In addition, you gain a further +2 bonus on Search checks to notice unusual stonework.
This bonus stacks with the regular +4 bonus on all Search checks from this power and with the +2 bonus to notice unusual stonework from the stonecunning racial trait.
Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

STYGIAN BANE

Psychometabolism
Level: Psychic warrior 3
Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Touch
Target: Weapon touched
Duration: 1 min./level
Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)
Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)
Power Points: 5

A serene gray radiance, roughly as bright as a candle's flame, envelops your weapon.
You give a weapon the undead bane special ability in addition to any other properties it has.
Against undead, your weapon's enhancement bonus (if any) is +2 higher than normal, and it deals an additional 2d6 points of damage.
The power has no effect if manifested upon a weapon that already has the undead bane quality.
Alternatively, you can affect up to 50 arrows, bolts, or bullets.
The projectiles must be of the same kind and they have to be together, such as in the same quiver.
A projectile (but not a thrown weapon) loses the special ability after it is used in an attack.
The weapon is considered good-aligned for the purpose of overcoming damage reduction.

STYGIAN BOLT

Psychometabolism
Level: Psion/wilder 6
Display: Material and visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: 120 ft.
Area: 120-ft. line
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Reflex negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 11
Black lightning erupts from your fingertips and stabs at the life force of your enemies.
Reaching across the planes, you form a momentary link between yourself and the Negative Energy Plane.
Drawing on your temporary stygian channel, you discharge a powerful bolt that extends from your outstretched hand. Anyone caught in the area gains 1d4 negative levels. This is a negative energy effect.
If the subject has at least as many negative levels as it has Hit Dice, it dies.
Assuming the subject survives, it regains lost levels after a number of hours equal to your manifester level (maximum 15 hours).
Negative levels usually have a chance of permanently draining the victim's levels, but the negative levels from stygian bolt don't last long enough to do so.
Undead affected by a stygian bolt gain 2d4×5 temporary hit points that last for up to 1 hour.
Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, the power bestows an additional 1d4 negative levels, and affected undead gain 2d4×5 additional temporary hit points.

STYGIAN CONFLAGRATION

Psychometabolism
Level: Psion/wilder 9
Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)
Area: Cylinder (15-ft. radius, 40 ft high)
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 17
An exhalation of the void erupts from the ground and assaults the heavens in the form of a 40-foot-tall pillar of black flame.
You psionically reach across the planes to form a temporary bond with the Negative Energy Plane.
Drawing deeply on your link, you ignite a pillar of black flame that rises from the ground into the sky.
Each creature caught in the area of effect gains 1d4 negative levels.
There is no saving throw to avoid gaining the negative levels, but 24 hours after gaining them, an affected creature must make a Fortitude saving throw (DC equal to the stygian conflagration's save DC) for each negative level. If the save succeeds, that negative level is removed. If the save fails, the negative level still goes away, but one of the subject's character levels is permanently drained.
An undead creature in the area gains 1d4×5 temporary hit points that last for up to 1 hour.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power bestows one additional negative level, and affected undead gain 5 additional temporary hit points.

STYGIAN DISRUPTION

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One bludgeoning weapon

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 7

A massive surge of brilliant white light envelops your weapon.

You give a weapon the disruption special ability in addition to any other properties it has.

A weapon of disruption is the bane of all undead.

Any undead creature struck in combat must succeed on a Will saving throw or be destroyed as its link to the Negative Energy Plane is severed.

STYGIAN DOMINION

Psychometabolism

Level: Death 5, psion/wilder 5

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One undead creature

Duration: 1 hour/level or until you return to your body

Saving Throw: None; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

Your body drops lifeless as your consciousness travels in an arc of crackling black energy to assume control of an undead vessel.

You can assume control over the body of a mindless undead creature, such as a skeleton or zombie.

You can target any creature whose Hit Dice are equal to or less than your manifester level.

When you take control of the mindless undead creature, you leave your body empty of sentience and mind, but it still breathes.

The power ends when the undead body is destroyed, you leave the undead body to assume control of your own body, the duration of the power ends, or some other force (such as dispel psionics) drives you out of the undead body and back to your own.

While in the body of the undead creature, you retain your Intelligence, Wisdom, Charisma, level, class, base attack bonus, base save bonuses, alignment, and mental abilities (as well as psionic powers).

The body retains its Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, hit points, natural abilities, and special abilities.

As a standard action, you can shift from the undead creature to your body if it is within range, relinquishing control of the undead creature.

Doing this causes the power to end.

If the undead creature is destroyed when your body is beyond the range of the power, both you and the undead creature die.

Any life force with nowhere to go is treated as slain.

If the power's duration expires while you are in the undead creature's body, you return to your own body instantly (unless your body is out of range or destroyed, in which case you die).

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, you can attempt to assume control of an intelligent undead. In this case, the undead gets a Will saving throw to resist the attempt.

If the save fails, you control the undead's body, but its mind remains in the body you assume control over, and it can attempt another saving throw every 1d4 rounds to force you back into your own body (which means you could die if your body is out of range at the time of a successful save).

STYGIAN ERASURE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

A silvery-white curtain encompasses you, seeming to rise up from the ground and stretch toward the heavens.

When you manifest this power, you form a temporary bond with the Positive Energy Plane that removes one negative level you possess.

Stygian erasure does not restore lost levels.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can remove one additional negative level.

STYGIAN RAY

Psychometabolism

Level: Death 2, psion/wilder 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Ray

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

A black ray of energy springs from your outstretched hand to strike your enemy.

You form a momentary link between yourself and the Negative Energy Plane, allowing you to release a black ray that suppresses the life force of any living creature it strikes.

You must make a ranged touch attack to hit.

If the attack succeeds, the subject gains 1d4 negative levels for 1 round (see the Negative Levels sidebar on page 100).

If the subject has at least as many negative levels as it has Hit Dice, it is stunned for 1 round instead.

On the following round, the subject regains lost levels.

Usually, negative levels have a chance of permanently draining the victim's levels (or killing creatures with Hit Dice equal to or less than the number of negative levels gained), but the negative levels from stygian ray don't last long enough to do so.

An undead creature struck by the ray gains 5 temporary hit points that last for up to 1 round.

STYGIAN TOUCH

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature touched/level

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

Your fingertips darken until they are stained as black as the void.

You form a momentary link between yourself and the Negative Energy Plane, allowing you to suffuse your hands with negative energy so that your touch weakens the life force of living creatures.

Each touch channels negative energy that bestows one negative level on the target and grants you 5 temporary hit points.

Both the negative level and the temporary hit points last for up to 1 hour.

A successful Fortitude save negates the negative level and prevents you from gaining the temporary hit points.

You can use this melee touch attack once per manifester level.

An undead creature you touch gains 5 temporary hit points that last for up to 1 hour, and you lose 5 hit points (no save).

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, a negative level you bestow on a particular melee touch attack that you designate lasts for 24 hours.

STYGIAN VEIL

Psychometabolism

Level: Death 8, psion/wilder 8

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 15

Your skin pales and your eyes darken to dead-black orbs.

You form a momentary link between yourself and the Negative Energy Plane that allows you to gain many of the traits common to undead creatures.

You are immune to mindaffecting spells and abilities, poison, sleep effects, paralysis, stunning, disease, death effects, extra damage from critical hits, nonlethal damage, death from massive damage, ability drain, energy drain, fatigue, exhaustion, and damage to physical ability scores. You are immune to any effect requiring a Fortitude save unless it is harmless or affects objects.

You need not breathe, eat, or sleep.

For the duration of the power, you have no Constitution score (—).

You lose any bonus hit points gained from having a Constitution bonus (though this can't reduce your hit points to less than 1 per Hit Die).

If your Constitution modifier is normally a penalty, you don't gain any hit points by manifesting this power.

Like an undead creature, you are damaged by positive energy effects and healed by negative energy effects.

You don't actually gain the undead type by manifesting this power.

STYGIAN WARD

Psychometabolism

Level: Life 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Living creature touched

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 7

You touch your target, and a green radiance begins to cover it, spreading out from your point of contact.

As death ward (PH 217), except as noted here.

STYGIAN WEAPON

Psychometabolism

Level: Lurk 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Touch

Target: One weapon touched

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: None (object)

Power Resistance: Yes; see text

Power Points: 3

Tendrils of crackling black energy course from you into your weapon.

You form a momentary link between yourself and the Negative Energy Plane, allowing you to empower your weapon with fell energy.

One melee attack you make in this round is infused with negative energy.

On a successful attack, your foe is treated as if struck with a stygian ray (page 101).

That creature's power resistance (if any) applies to this attack.

TOUCH OF HEALTH

Psychometabolism (Healing)

Level: Life 1

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless) or Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

A delicate chime resounds as your touch heals a creature's minor wounds.

With a touch, you channel positive energy to cure 2 points of damage to a target creature.

If used against an undead creature, touch of health instead deals 2 points of damage.

An undead creature can attempt a Will save for half damage.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can cure 2 additional points of damage to a target creature, or deal 2 additional points of damage to undead.

URBAN STRIDER

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 1

Your legs appear to lengthen and take on more graceful lines, promising greater feats of speed and agility.

You enhance your ability to move rapidly through city streets and across rooftops.

You gain a +5 competence bonus on all Balance and Jump checks.

You do not need to make Balance checks when running or charging across a sloped surface.

You automatically succeed on all Jump checks to clear a horizontal distance of 5 feet or less, and you can make standing long jumps and high jumps as if they were running long jumps and high jumps.

You can move at your full normal speed through crowds.

Augment: If you spend 8 additional power points, you can walk normally on any city surface as if it were level ground.

This includes perfectly vertical walls, glass windows, and even clotheslines.

Your speed remains unchanged, even when walking straight up a wall.

PSYCHOPORTATION

ANTICIPATORY STRIKE

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 5, Time 5

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 9

The air reverberates with an eager hum as your movements pick up speed.

You take your normal action for the round at the time that you manifest this power, rather than waiting for your turn to come up in the initiative sequence.

In subsequent rounds, your place in the initiative order does not change—you change the time when you act for this round only.

You can take a standard action and a move action, or a full-round action, just as you could if you were taking your action at your normal place in initiative order.

You can't activate this power if you're flat-footed, and you can't use the power a second time until after your next turn has passed.

For example, if you normally act on initiative count 15, you could use this power to act again on initiative count 12, but this means that you wouldn't be able to act on the next round at initiative count 15 (since you've already used that turn's actions), and you wouldn't be able to use the power again until after your next turn (that is, after the next round's initiative count 15).

CALL ARMOR

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Justice 2, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: One suit of armor or shield; see text

Duration: 1 min./level (D); see text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: Justice 3, psychic warrior 1

Armor appears on your body, answering your mental call.

You call a suit of armor or a shield to you, seemingly from thin air.

(Actually, it is a real item snatched from some other random location in space and time).

You don't have to see or know of the item to call it.

In fact, you can't ever call a specific item; you just specify the kind (chain shirt, full plate, buckler, and so on).

The item is made of ordinary materials appropriate for its kind.

Armor appears correctly donned, and a shield appears on the proper arm.

Armor and shields gained by call armor are distinctive due to their astral glimmer.

If a called suit of armor is ever off your body or you relinquish your grip on a called shield for 2 or more consecutive rounds, the object automatically returns to its point of origin.

(For this purpose, you're considered to be wearing armor when you're donning or shedding it).

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 4 additional power points you spend, the item's enhancement bonus to Armor Class improves by 1.

For example, if you spend 15 power points, you call a shield or a suit of armor with a +3 enhancement bonus to Armor Class.

2. If you spend 4 additional power points, you can alter the substance of the armor to make it mithral.

If you spend 8 additional power points, you can make it adamantite.

DIMENSION DOOR, PSIONIC

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Lurk 4, psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Target: You and touched objects or other touched willing creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None and Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: No and yes (object)

Power Points: 7

You step into a black spherical void; when you step out, you are somewhere else.

As dimension door (PH 221), except as noted here.

Augment: This power appears in Expanded Psionics Handbook (page 92), but it has been updated here with new augmentation options.

A character who already knows the power also knows these new augmentations, which can be applied individually or all at once.

1. If you spend 2 points less than the given power point cost, you manifest this power as a full-round action.
2. If you spend 2 points less than the given power point cost, you teleport yourself and touched objects or other touched willing creatures up to 20 feet.
3. If you spend 2 additional power points, the visual display of the power is particularly dazzling. The bright flash left behind when you vacate an area dazzles all remaining creatures within a 10-foot radius of your previous position.
4. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a move action. This option cannot be used in conjunction with augmentation option 1.

DIMENSION HOP

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Freedom 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: 10 feet

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 1

With a soft chime, you disappear and reappear nearby.

You instantly move to an unoccupied square up to 10 feet away within line of sight.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can move an additional 5 feet.

DIMENSION TWISTER

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One Medium or smaller creature, or one object weighing up to 300 lb.

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Your foe is sucked down a vortex of shimmering silver energy, only to appear at a nearby location, hurt and twisted by the passage.

The subject of the power is violently displaced in space.

In effect, the subject appears to be sucked down a vortex of shimmering silver energy, only to be instantly spat out in the new location, in the direction you specify (within range).

The subject reappears in the same orientation as before.

However, the rift in space you create to enable this movement is crudely rendered, and the target takes 5d6 points of damage in the transition.

If the space into which the subject reappears is occupied, he appears in the closest unoccupied space, still in his original orientation.

Determine the closest space randomly if necessary.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can affect a creature of one size category larger, or double the weight of an object to be affected.
2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, the subject is moved an additional 5 feet.
3. For every 2 additional power points you spend, the subject takes an additional 1d6 points of damage.

DIMENSIONAL POCKET

Psychoportation

Level: Lurk 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One unattended object, weighing up to 1 lb./level

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

With a touch of your hand, a small object is sent into safekeeping.

Your touch transfers an unattended object to an extradimensional pocket hidden in the palm of your hand. The dimensional pocket is invisible and weightless, regardless of its contents.

When the power ends or is dismissed, the object returns to your hand (or next to your hand if you cannot hold it).

You can manifest this power again before its duration elapses, in which case the stored object remains stored and the duration resets to 1 hour/level.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional power point you spend, you can store an additional pound per level (but still only one object).
2. If you spend 2 additional power points, you gain the ability to dismiss this power as a swift action.

ELEMENTAL STEWARD

Psychoportation [see text]

Level: Elements 1, psion/wilder 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One summoned creature

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

A small rent appears in the fabric of space, and through it steps a small humanoid, surrounded by a nimbus of energy.

Choose one of the four kinds of elemental stewards (page 130): emberling (fire), geodite (sonic), arctine (cold), or tempestan (electricity).

The kind you choose appears where you designate and acts immediately, on your turn.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its ability.

If you can communicate with the elemental steward, you can direct it not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

Elemental stewards can be summoned only into an area that can support them.

For example, you cannot summon an emberling into an aquatic environment.

The type of elemental steward you summon determines the subtype of this power.

For example, elemental steward is considered to be a fire power when you summon an emberling.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you have a chance to summon one additional elemental steward.

Each additional steward you attempt to summon has a 50% chance of appearing.

All elemental stewards must be of the same kind.

ETHEREAL ABDUCTION

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

Misty tendrils snake from nowhere to wrap themselves around your opponent, dragging him inexorably into ethereal captivity. You can force another creature and its equipment onto the Ethereal Plane.

Until the duration expires, the creature is stuck on the Ethereal Plane unless it has another way of leaving.

You can also use this power while on the Ethereal Plane to pull a creature to you from the Material Plane.

For all other purposes, this power functions like psionic ethereal jaunt (EPH 105).

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can affect one additional creature.

EVADE ATTACK

Psychoportation

Level: Lurk 2, nomad 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

A shimmering, translucent blue sphere blinks into existence around you, remaining intact just long enough to deflect an attack of opportunity.

You warp space, briefly creating a shimmering, translucent blue sphere around yourself that deflects one attack of opportunity you provoke with your move action.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you can attempt to avoid one successful regular attack made against you (instead of an attack of opportunity).

To successfully evade a regular attack, you must make a manifester level check (1d20 + your manifester level, maximum +10) against a DC of 15.

If you succeed, the attack misses.

INCONSTANT LOCATION

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Chaos 6, psion/wilder 6, psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute

Power Points: 11

Your frame seems to shimmer, its outline vaguely blurred as you disappear and reappear around the battlefield.

You teleport yourself around the battlefield, making it hard for your enemies to pin you down.

At the beginning of each of your turns, as a swift action, you can teleport yourself to any other space to which you have line of sight, as long as that space is no farther than you could move in one normal move action.

You can bring along objects as long as their weight doesn't exceed your maximum load.

This transport is instantaneous and does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

Once you teleport, you can take your actions for the round normally.

You do not have to adjust your location each round, but the duration counts down just the same.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the duration of this power is extended by 1 round.

LARVAL FLAYERS

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 1d3 summoned larval flayers

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

A sick tearing noise heralds the arrival of several eyeless, squiggling creatures that resemble tadpoles, each a full 2 feet in length.

Their small, lampreylike mouths are obscured by a disquieting mass of tentacles.

This power calls 1d3 psionic creatures known as larval flayers (page 133).

The larval flayers appear where you designate and act immediately, on your turn.

(As Tiny creatures, they initially appear together in the same square).

They attack your opponents to the best of their ability.

If you can communicate with the creatures, you can direct them not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can call one additional larval flayer.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, one of the larval flayers you call appears already attached to a foe in range that you specify and can use its brain sap ability (page 133) unless the selected foe succeeds on a Reflex saving throw.

PLANAR CHAMPION

Psychoportation [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One summoned creature

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 13

The shimmer of a silver aura (or a cloud of foul gray smoke) heralds the arrival of a fantastic extraplanar being.

When you manifest this power, you must choose whether to call a champion of good (a sibyllic guardian, page 135) or a champion of evil (a cerebrilith, EPH 193).

The power gains the good or evil descriptor, respectively.

If you are good-aligned, you must choose a sibyllic guardian, and if you are evil-aligned, you must choose a cerebrilith.

If your alignment has no good or evil component, you can choose either version of the power.

The champion you choose appears where you designate and acts immediately, on your turn.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its ability.

If you can communicate with the champion, you can direct it not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

A planar champion called with this power does not have its summoning ability, if any.

Augment: For every 6 additional power points you spend, you summon one additional champion of the same type.

PSYCHOPORTIVE SHELTER

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 10 ft.

Effect: Extradimensional space

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

A distortion in the space around you heralds the creation of an extradimensional pocket whose entrance appears as a faint shimmer in the air.

You mentally grab an adjacent bubble of empty extradimensional space and stretch it so that it connects locally.

The shelter has a single entrance on the plane on which it was created.

The entry point looks like a faint shimmer in the air that is 7 feet in diameter.

You and other creatures can enter the shelter at will.

The shelter holds up to seven creatures of Large or smaller size.

From inside the shelter, you can look out of the entrance as if you were looking through a window.

However, creatures in the shelter are hidden, beyond the reach of powers (including clairsentient probes), unless those powers work across planes.

Powers cannot be manifested across the extradimensional interface, nor can area effects cross it.

Once inside the shelter, you can take a standard action to will the exterior entrance to become invisible on the plane on which it was created.

You can still see out of the entrance, but creatures on the plane of origin can't see in, even if they're able to discern the shimmering entrance itself.

When the power ends, anything inside the shelter is expelled.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the shelter can hold one additional creature of any size.

SHADOW EFT

Psychoportation [Evil]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One summoned shadow eft

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

A deep tone presages the appearance of an awful shape made half of bone and half of black so concentrated it has taken on form.

It looks like a faceless, wingless demon.

Its bony claws are long and tipped with the void.

This power calls a creature known as a shadow eft (page 134).

The shadow eft appears where you designate and acts immediately, on your turn.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its ability.

If you can communicate with the eft, you can direct it not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 4 additional power points you spend, you summon one additional shadow eft.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, one shadow eft you call appears already hiding in a shadow you specify (see the creature's hide in shadow ability).

However, foes gain an immediate Spot check to detect the hidden eft.

SHADOW WALK, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Light and Darkness 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One touched creature/level

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

You and the creatures you touch are shrouded with dark tendrils that writhe around your bodies.

As shadow walk (PH 277), except as noted here.

TEMPORAL REITERATION

Psichoptoration

Level: Nomad 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 9

A temporal fire encompasses your body.

Within its time-defying flames, you gain a moment of stasis.

The past round does not count as time spent from the duration of ongoing effects on you such as rage, spell duration, and poison.

Manifesting this power effectively increases their duration for you by 1 round.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, you can share the power's effect with one additional person who is within 30 feet of you at the time you manifest the power.

TELEPATHY

CEREBRAL PHANTASM

Telepathy [Fear, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

A dark flash in the corner of your subconscious awakens inner demons of the target's mind.

You and others see only a vague shape as it lurches forward and envelops the target.

You haul a horror lurking beneath the target's protective sanity into reality and thrust it into her waking mind.

Everyone sees something different, but many witness a nightmare of eyes, tentacles, dripping slime, and gnashing mouths all screaming atonally.

Everyone other than the target sees only a vague shape that lurches forward and envelops her.

If the target fails her Will saving throw, she takes 3d6 points of nonlethal damage and is dazed for 1d4 rounds, though she continues to scream, cry, and froth during that time.

If the target makes her Will save, she takes no damage and is not dazed.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power's save DC increases by 1.

CHAOS FISSURE

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Chaos 8

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation centered on a creature, object, or point in space

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates or none (object); see text

Power Resistance: Yes or no (object); see text

Power Points: 15

The area you indicate roils with the force of chaos.

The air shivers with flashes of light and moans with discordant notes.

When you manifest this power, complete chaos prevails in the affected area.

All psionic powers are manifested as if using the wilder's wild surge class feature (DMG 31) with the possibility of psychic enervation.

The wild magic planar trait (DMG 149) is applied to all spells cast and spell-like abilities used in the area.

EIDETIC LOCK

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: 1 willing creature

Duration: 1 day/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

The mental image of a large metallic deadbolt sliding into place is accompanied by a resounding mental click.

You can telepathically embed an image or a short passage of text into the long-term memory of a single creature.

The creature can, any time within the duration of the power, thoroughly describe the image or recite the passage verbatim.

The limit to this ability is an image of a single nonmoving figure, or a passage of a nonmagical or nonpsionic nature of up to 500 words.

If the creature has artistic skill (5 or more ranks in Craft [painting]), it can also reproduce the image on canvas.

If the creature can't read the language in which a passage is written but has skill in calligraphy (5 or more ranks in Craft [calligraphy]), it can reproduce the passage.

If the creature can read the language in which a passage is written, it can reproduce the passage without needing the Craft skill.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, the duration of the power becomes instantaneous.

The information becomes permanently locked in the creature's mind.

EMPATHIC TRANSFER, HOSTILE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Pain and Suffering 3, psychic warrior 3, telepath 3

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round or until discharged

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

A sharp cry of pain splits the air as your wounds disappear and reappear on your target.

You transfer your hurt to another.

When you manifest this power and make a successful touch attack, you can transfer up to 25 points of damage from yourself to the touched creature.

You cannot transfer more points than the damage you have already taken.

You immediately regain hit points equal to the amount of damage you transfer.

You cannot use this power to gain hit points in excess of your full normal total.

The transferred damage is empathic in nature, so powers and abilities the subject might have (such as damage reduction and regeneration) do not lessen or change this damage.

The damage transferred by this power has no type, so even if the subject has immunity to the type of damage you originally took, the transfer occurs normally and deals damage to the subject.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways:

1. For every additional power point you spend, you can transfer an additional 5 points of damage.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can affect one additional target within 20 feet of you.

Starting with the creature touched and continuing to the next closest creature, each target takes half the damage this power would deal (with a Will save to further reduce the damage) until each target has taken damage or you have been restored to maximum hit points.

EXHALATION OF THE BRONZE DRAGON

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft. cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

The spectral image of a bronze dragon encompasses your entire body as you open your mouth and exhale a cloud of shimmering breath.

Your mouth spews forth a gas that repulses targets.

Creatures within the cone must succeed on a Will save or be compelled to do nothing but move away from you for 1d4 rounds.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power's save DC increases by 1.

INCITE BRAVERY

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Justice 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius spread, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 3

Trumpets blare and drums crash, inspiring you and your allies to acts of bravery.

You and your allies within 20 feet become immune to fear effects.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you can increase the duration of this power to 10 minutes per level.

MENTAL TURMOIL

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Corruption and Madness 3, Pain and Suffering 3

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1d4+1 rounds

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Your target's body stiffens as it feels you set barriers inside its mind.

You set a mental barrier in the target's mind, preventing it from using abilities that require mental calm.

While under the effect of this power, the target cannot use any Charisma-, Dexterity-, or Intelligence-based skills (except for Balance, Escape Artist, Intimidate, and Ride), the Concentration skill, or any abilities that require patience or concentration.

In addition, the target can't cast spells, manifest powers, use spell-like or psi-like abilities, or activate magic items that require a command word, a spell trigger (such as a wand), or spell completion (such as a scroll) to function.

The target can use any feat it has except Combat Expertise, item creation feats, metamagic feats, and metapsionic feats.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power's save DC increases by 1 and the power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target must be within 15 feet of another target of the power.

POWER THIEF

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Consumption 7

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous; see text

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

You reach into a psionics-using creature's mind and extract the knowledge of one of its available powers.

When you use this power, you steal one of the subject creature's available powers, but you must use it quickly or lose it.

If the target fails its save, you gain the use of one of its powers, and it loses power points equal to its manifester level minus 2.

You must then activate the stolen power before the end of your next turn, or it fades away and is lost to you.

The subject regains the stolen power after 1 minute.

The level of the stolen power is one lower than the highest level of power the target knows.

For example, you steal a 5th-level power from an 11th-level psion.

The specific power stolen is determined randomly.

You can manifest the power once as a psi-like ability.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can retain the stolen power for 1 additional round before you must use it or lose access to it.

PRIMAL FEAR

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Corruption and Madness 1, psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature with an Intelligence of 3 or higher

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

When you look at your foe, images of terror blossom in its mind—images only it can see.

Primal fear slips past the target's mental defenses to blast his subconscious mind with pure visceral terror.

The victim can't even describe what he saw, but he is shaken for 1 round.

This effect doesn't stack with other fear effects.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can designate an additional target for the spell.

PROTECTION FROM EVIL, PSIONIC

Telepathy

Level: Good 1

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: No; see text for protection from evil

Power Points: 1

Your target glows with a soft light; a sighing sound is barely audible, and then fades.

As protection from evil (PH 266), except as noted here.

PROTECTION FROM GOOD, PSIONIC

Telepathy

Level: Evil 1

Your target glows with a red light, and a grating sound is heard.

As psionic protection from evil (see above), except as noted here.

PSYCHIC CONTAINMENT

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One psionic creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

A feeling of hopelessness overcomes your enemy as you erect a barrier in his mind.

You can temporarily prevent a psionic creature from using its psionics or psi-like abilities.

Reaching into its mind, you build a wall between its ego and the rest of its psyche.

(Any powers already active continue to work unless concentration is required, but the target can't manifest new powers for the duration).

Each round, as a fullround action on its turn, the subject can attempt another saving throw to break the containment and resume using its psionic abilities.

If the save is successful, the duration of psychic containment ends.

Augment: For each additional power point you spend, you can affect one additional psionic creature.

PSYCHOTIC BREAK

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Pain and Suffering 5, psion/wilder 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Targets: All creatures in a 15-ft.-radius burst

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

A brain-bending burst of swirling light detonates over your foes.

You broadcast a telepathic cacophony calculated to snap the minds of those caught within the area.

Affected subjects undergo a psychotic break and begin to attack the nearest creature (for this purpose, a psicrystal doesn't count as a creature).

Any psychotic character who is attacked automatically attacks its last attacker on its next turn, as long as the duration continues.

A psychotic character will not make attacks of opportunity against any creature that it is not already devoted to attacking (either because of its most recent action or because it has just been attacked).

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the power's save DC increases by 1.

SERENITY

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2, Repose 2

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

The sweet, calming scent of jasmine lingers in the air.

You can reach into the mind of one creature and calm its agitation.

You do not gain control over the creature, but you can stop it from fighting.

The target cannot take violent actions or do anything destructive.

However, it can defend itself.

Any aggressive action or damage dealt to an affected creature breaks your compulsion and allows the creature to act normally.

This power suppresses all morale bonuses and immediately brings a barbarian out of rage.

It also suppresses fear effects and removes the confused condition.

When serenity's duration elapses, the original power, spell, or effect takes hold of the creature again, provided that its duration has not expired in the meantime.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can affect one additional creature, no two of which can be more than 30 feet apart.

SPIRIT OF WAR

Telepathy

Level: Conflict 8

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Area: 40-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 15

You channel the raw spirit of war, giving nearby allies incredible battle prowess.

You emanate an aura that grants you and your allies within the area several benefits.

First, affected creatures gain a +4 competence bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls.

Second, each affected creature gains a +10 insight bonus on a single saving throw that it can use once at any time during the duration of the power.

Finally, each creature can automatically confirm a critical hit once during the duration of the power.

SUGGESTION, IMPLANTED

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 day/level or until completed

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You give a sharp, penetrating look at your target, implanting a command within its mind, just waiting to make itself felt.

This power is nearly identical to suggestion (PH 285), with a few important differences.

When this power is manifested, you implant a telepathic suggestion in the mind of the subject and establish a set of circumstances that trigger the suggestion.

You must be able to describe the trigger in no more than two sentences.

Example triggers include "Midnight tomorrow evening", "When Lord ir'Daza mentions the weather", or "Wait two days, then as soon as you see the king".

When the trigger event occurs, the subject senses the implanted suggestion and acts accordingly.

The suggestion is telepathic and is not language-dependent; the victim will not be able to explain later why he acted the way he did.

Aura sight (EPH 79) reveals the presence of a latent implanted suggestion, and aura alteration (EPH 78) can be used to remove it.

If the duration of the power expires before the suggestion is triggered, it fades away harmlessly.

The target makes his saving throw when the power is manifested, so you know whether your suggestion was placed successfully.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect an additional target.

Each additional target must be within 15 feet of another target of the power.

All targets must receive the same triggering instructions.

URGE EXTERMINATION

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature with 90 or fewer hp

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

A single indecipherable syllable erupts from the lips of your opponent as it collapses lifeless to the ground.

You issue a psychic command that instantly kills one creature of your choice by shutting down its mind.

Creatures with more than 90 hit points are unaffected by urge extermination.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can affect a creature with 10 more hit points.

For example, if you spend 2 additional power points when manifesting urge extermination, you can affect one living creature with 110 or fewer hit points.

ZONE OF ALERTNESS

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Lurk 2, psion/wilder 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Targets: You and all allies within 10 ft.

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 3

A call for unification extends from you across the mental plane, offering your allies the benefits of a linked consciousness.

If you or any ally within 10 feet of you is aware of a particular danger, you all are.

If one person included in this power is not flat-footed, none of you are.

You and the allies you select gain a bonus on Spot and Listen checks equal to the number of linked allies in range. As long as your allies stay within 10 feet of your position, they continue to gain the benefits of this power.

As soon as they move more than 10 feet away from you, the effect ends for them and can be regained only if the power is manifested on them again.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. If you spend 4 additional power points, you can increase the duration of this power to 10 minutes per level.
2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can specify that no one in the range of this power is considered flanked unless you all are.
3. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.
4. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can extend the range by 5 feet.
5. For each additional power point you spend, you can increase the bonus on Spot and Listen checks by 1.

ZONE OF TRUTH, PSIONIC

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Justice 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You create an area infused with a soft, golden light in which only truth can be spoken.

As zone of truth (PH 303), except as noted here.

DRAGON MAGIC (3.5)

METACREATIVITY

AMETHYST BURST

Metacreativity (Creation) [Force]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You form a mole of psionic energy in your chest, wrapping lairs of crystalline ectoplasm around it.

When the crystal is large enough, you let it burst forth from your chest and fly toward your enemies.

Upon manifesting this power, you propel a violet crystalline pellet out to a chosen point, where it explodes with concussive force.

The explosion deals 2d6 points of damage to every creature hit.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points, and the power's save DC increases by 1.

CRYSTAL BODY

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 13

You visualize your heart pumping blood through your body, then slowing, then stopping, and finally turning into a cut diamond. You channel energy into that diamond, feeling a cool shiver as your body turns to clear, hard crystal.

Upon manifesting this power, your body turns into living crystal, which grants you the following resistances and abilities.

- You gain damage reduction 5/adamantine.
 - You gain immunity to blindness, critical hits, ability score damage, deafness, disease, drowning, electricity, poison, stunning, sleep and paralysis effects, and all spells or attacks that affect your physiology or respiration (because you have no physiology or respiration while crystal body is in effect).
 - You take only half damage from acid, cold and sonic attacks.
 - Your unarmed attacks deal slashing damage equal to a short sword sized for you (1d4 points for Small characters or 1d6 for Medium characters), and you are considered armed when making unarmed attacks.
- You also gain the following vulnerabilities and conditions:
- You become vulnerable to all special attacks that affect crystalline creatures.
 - You cannot drink (and thus can't use potions) or play wind instruments.
 - Your weight increases by a factor of five, causing you to sink in water like a stone.

However, you could survive the crushing pressure and lack of air at the bottom of the ocean—at least until the duration of crystal body expires.

PSYCHOKINESIS

GEMSTONE BREATH

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: 30 ft. or 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped burst or line-shaped burst; see text

Duration: 1 round/level or until expended

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You channel mental power into your lungs, feeling it swirl and radiate as you transform the air inside you into a powerful psionic force, struggling to burst forth from your lips.

Upon manifesting this power, you gain a breath weapon similar to that of a crystal dragon (Monster Manual II 81)—a 30-foot cone of brilliant light that deals 2d6 points of damage and blinds each creature within its area for 1 round. A successful Reflex save halves the damage and negates the blinding effect.

You can use this breath weapon as a standard action, but you can't use it in consecutive rounds.

Once you have used the breath weapon a number of times equal to 1/2 your manifester level, the power is expended.

Augment: if you spend an additional 2 power points, you instead gain a breath weapon similar to that of a sapphire dragon (Monster Manual II 84), and the save DC increases by 1.

This breath weapon takes the form of a 30-foot cone that deals 4d6 points of sonic damage and renders each creature within its area shaken for 1 round.

A successful Reflex save halves the damage, and a successful Will save negates the shaken effect.

If you spend an additional 4 power points, you instead gain a breath weapon similar to that of an amethyst dragon (Monster Manual II 79), and the save DC increases by 2.

This breath weapon takes the form of a 60-foot line that deals 6d6 points of damage.

The breath weapon is a force effect.

A successful Reflex save halves the damage.

If you spend an additional 6 power points, you instead gain a breath weapon similar to that of an emerald dragon (Monster Manual II 82), and the save DC increases by 3.

This breath weapon takes the form of a 30-foot cone that deals 8d6 points of sonic damage and deafens each creature within the area for 1 minute.

A successful Reflex save halves the damage, and a successful Fortitude save negates the deafness.

If you spend an additional 8 power points, you instead gain a breath weapon similar to that of a topaz dragon (Monster Manual II 85), and the save DC increases by 4.

This breath weapon takes the form of a 30-foot cone that dehydrates living creatures within the area, dealing 10d6 points of damage.

A successful Reflex save halves the damage.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

CHANNEL THE PSYCHIC DRAGON

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 1

In your mind's eye, you picture a dragon made of gemstone.

You pour psionic energy into this image, constantly refining its every detail.

Then you allow the image to fade from your mind, feeling the energy you poured into it seep into your own body.

Upon manifesting this power, your body gains abilities drawn from the collective subconscious of crystal dragons (Monster Manual II 81).

You gain a +5 competence bonus on Diplomacy checks and resistance to cold 5.

Augment: If you spend an additional 2 power points, you instead draw upon the powers of sapphire dragons (Monster Manual II 84).

Instead of gaining the abilities noted above, you gain a +5 competence bonus on Climb checks and resistance to electricity 10.

If you spend an additional 4 power points, you instead draw upon the abilities of amethyst dragons (Monster Manual II 79).

Instead of gaining the abilities noted above, you gain a +5 competence bonus on Balance and Escape Artist checks, immunity to magic missile spells, and a +5 bonus on saves against spells and powers with the force descriptor.

If you spend an additional 6 power points, you instead draw upon the abilities of emerald dragons (Monster Manual II 82).

Instead of gaining the abilities noted above, you gain a +5 competence bonus on Bluff and Sense Motive checks and resistance to sonic 20.

If you spend an additional 8 power points, you instead draw upon the abilities of topaz dragons (Monster Manual II 85).

Instead of gaining the abilities noted above, you gain a +10 competence bonus on Intimidate and Swim checks and resistance to cold 30.

You also gain the ability to breathe water (as if under the effect of a water breathing spell).

EXPANDED PSIONICS HANDBOOK (3.5)

CLAIRSENTIENCE

ANCHORED NAVIGATION

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 4

Display: Material and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: 7

You know where you are in relation to a fixed starting point, which is essential for setting up a mishap-free teleport beacon.

While the duration lasts, you are aware of your exact distance and route (physical or psychoportive) back to a fixed starting point.

The "anchored" starting point is your exact location when you manifest the power.

To designate other anchored starting points, you must manifest this power multiple times and be present at the desired locations when you do so.

For instance, if you designated a starting point using this power before entering a potentially dangerous area, you can instantly manifest teleport to return to the starting point with no chance of mishap, no matter how little time you spent at that location (as long as you spent enough time to manifest this power).

You can also retrace your steps through a maze automatically while the power lasts, without resorting to a map.

Anchored navigation grants you a mindlink with one designated creature who remains within a 60-foot radius of the starting point, regardless of the distance between you and the creature.

The use of anchored navigation is confined to the plane of existence where you manifest it.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, the effect of this power extends across all planar boundaries.

AURA SIGHT

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped emanation centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You discern auras.

Auras are invisible to the naked eye, but to a psionic viewer manifesting this power they appear as glowing halos or envelopes of colored light that surround all objects.

The color of each aura reveals information to the psionic character.

The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study a particular area.

1st Round: Presence of good and evil auras in the area.

You can't pin an aura to a particular object or individual at this stage; instead, you see a colored haze suffusing the area. (This power can detect lawful and chaotic auras as well, but doing so requires a separate manifestation that focuses only on that alignment axis).

2nd Round: Number of auras (creatures, objects, powers, or spells) in the area.

You know how many auras are in the area, even though each aura doesn't resolve to its actual location quite yet.

3rd Round: The owner of each aura is revealed, unless the individual is outside your line of sight.

If a creature whose aura you detect has 5 or more Hit Dice than you do, you are overwhelmed by its presence and dazed for 1 round, and the power ends.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's range increases by 5 feet.

BEND REALITY

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: See text

Target, Effect, or Area: See text

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: None; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15, XP

Bend reality lets you create nearly any type of effect.

For example, bend reality can do any of the following:

- Duplicate any psion power of 6th level or lower, provided the power is not of a discipline prohibited to you.
- Duplicate any other power (but not a spell) of 5th level or lower, provided the power is not of a discipline prohibited to you.
- Duplicate any psion power of 5th level or lower, even if it's of a prohibited discipline.
- Duplicate any other power (but not a spell) of 4th level or lower, even if it's of a prohibited discipline.
- Undo the harmful effects of many powers, such as psionic dominate, geas/quest, or insanity.
- Produce any other effect whose power level is in line with the above effects, such as a single creature automatically hitting on its next attack or taking a -8 penalty on its next saving throw.

A duplicated power allows saving throws and power resistance as normal (but the save DC is for a 8th-level power).

When bend reality duplicates a power that has an XP cost, you must pay that cost or 300 XP, whichever is more.

When bend reality duplicates a spell with a material component, you must pay additional XP equal to the value of the material component divided by 5.

XP Cost: 300 XP or more (see above).

CLAIRTANGENT HAND

Clairsentience (Scrying)

Level: Seer 5

Display: Auditory, mental, and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: See text

Area: See text

Duration: Up to 1 min./level; see text (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

You can emulate a far hand effect at any distance while simultaneously emulating clairvoyant sense to target your far hand; see the appropriate power descriptions.

Clairtangent hand's duration is up to 1 minute per level when used with a far hand effect.

Augment: If you spend 8 additional power points, you can emulate clairvoyant sense in conjunction with either telekinetic force, telekinetic maneuver, or telekinetic thrust, but this power's duration expires as soon as any of the noted telekinetic powers deals damage.

CLAIRVOYANT SENSE

Clairsentience (Scrying)

Level: Seer 2

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: See text

Effect: Psionic sensor

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You can see and hear a distant location almost as if you were there.

You don't need line of sight or line of effect, but the locale must be known—a place familiar to you or an obvious one, such as behind a door, around a corner, or in a grove of trees.

Once you have selected the locale, the focus of your clairvoyant sense doesn't move, but you can rotate it in all directions to view the area as desired.

Unlike other scrying powers, this power does not allow psionically or supernaturally enhanced senses to work through it.

If the chosen locale is magically or psionically dark, you see nothing.

If it is naturally pitch black, you can see in a 10-foot radius around the center of the power's effect or out to the extent of your natural darkvision.

The power does not work across planes.

CONTINGENCY, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes or longer; see text

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: One day/level (D) or until discharged

Power Points: 11, XP

You can place another power upon your person so that it comes into effect under some condition you dictate when manifesting psionic contingency.

The psionic contingency power and the companion power are manifest at the same time.

The 10-minute manifesting time is the minimum total for both manifestations; if the companion power has a manifesting time longer than 10 minutes, use that instead.

The power to be brought into effect by the psionic contingency must be one that affects your person (concealing amorpha, psionic levitate, psionic fly, psionic teleport, and so forth) and be of a power level no higher than one-third your manifester level (rounded down, maximum 6th level). The conditions needed to bring the power into effect must be clear, although they can be general.

For example, a psionic contingency manifested along with concealing amorpha might prescribe that any time you are attacked, the concealing amorpha power instantly comes into effect.

Or a psionic contingency could bring a catfall power into effect any time you fall more than 4 feet.

In all cases, the psionic contingency immediately brings into effect the companion power, the latter being "manifested" instantaneously only when the prescribed circumstances occur.

If complicated or convoluted conditions are prescribed, the power combination (psionic contingency and the companion power) may fail when called on.

You can use only one psionic contingency companion power at a time; if a second is manifested, the first one (if still active) is dismissed.

XP Cost: 15 XP.

DANGER SENSE

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 5

You can sense the presence of danger before your senses would normally allow it.

Your intuitive sense alerts you to danger from traps, giving you a +4 insight bonus on Reflex saves to avoid traps and a +4 insight bonus to Armor Class against attacks by traps.

Augment: If you spend 3 additional power points, this power also gives you the uncanny dodge ability; if you spend 6 additional power points, this power gives you the improved uncanny dodge ability as well.

DARKVISION, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: Psion/wilder 5, psychic warrior 3

As darkvision (page 216 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

DESTINY DISSONANCE

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 1

Display: Material and mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

Your mere touch grants your foe an imperfect, unfocused glimpse of the many possible futures in store.

Unaccustomed to and unable to process the information, the subject becomes sickened for 1 round per level of the manifester.

DETECT PSIONICS

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped emanation centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You detect psionic auras.

A psionic aura is given off by any active or permanent power, or during the use of any psionic feat.

Characters who have levels in a psionic class, creatures with the psionic subtype, and creatures with the Wild Talent feat (see page 52) possess psionic auras.

The amount of information revealed by the manifestation of this power depends on how long you study a particular area or subject.

1st Round: Presence or absence of psionic auras.

2nd Round: Number of different psionic auras and the strength of the most potent aura.

3rd Round: The strength and location of each aura. If the items or creatures bearing the auras are in line of sight, you can make Psicraft checks to determine the discipline involved in each aura.

(Make one check per aura; DC 15 + power level, or 15 + one-half manifester level for an effect that is not created by a power, such as that of a psionic item).

Psionically charged locations, multiple disciplines, or strong local psionic emanations may confuse or conceal weaker auras.

Aura Strength: A psionic aura's strength depends on a functioning power's level or an item's manifester level.

If an aura falls into more than one category, detect psionics indicates the stronger of the two.

Detection of an overwhelming aura (see the accompanying table) dazes you for 1 round and the power ends.

DETECT PSIONICS

Power or Item (power level)	Aura Strength
	Faint	Moderate	Strong	Overwhelming
Functioning power (power level)	3rd or lower	4th–6th	7th–9th	10th+ (deity-level)
Psionic item (manifester level)	5th or lower	6th–11th	12th–20th	21st+ (artifact)

Lingering Aura: A psionic aura lingers after its original source dissipates (in the case of a power) or is destroyed (in the case of a psionic item).

If detect psionics is manifested and directed at such a location, the power indicates an aura of dim (even weaker than a faint aura).

How long the aura lingers at this dim level depends on its original strength:

Original Strength	Duration
Faint	1d6 minutes
Moderate	1d6×10 minutes
Strong	1d6 hours
Overwhelming	1d6 days

Each round, you can turn to detect psionics in a new area. You can tell the difference between magical and psionic auras.

The power can penetrate barriers, but 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood or dirt blocks it.

DETECT REMOTE VIEWING

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Mental and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Area: 40-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You immediately become aware of any attempt to observe you by means of a clairsentience (scrying) power or divination (scrying) spell.

The power's effect radiates from you and moves as you move.

You know the location of every psionic or magical sensor within the power's area.

If the viewing attempt originates within the area, you also know the viewer's location.

Otherwise, you and the remote viewer immediately make opposed manifester level checks (1d20 + manifester level, or viewer's caster level as appropriate).

If you at least match the remote viewer's result, you get a visual image of the remote viewer and an accurate sense of the remote viewer's direction and distance from you.

DETECT TELEPORTATION

Clairsentience

Level: Nomad 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Area: 40-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute (D)

Saving Throw: No

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You sense the use of any effects of the teleportation subdiscipline within the area.

You sense the use of these powers whether or not you have line of sight or line of effect (although a force effect, such as wall of force, prevents this detection).

When you sense the use of an appropriate power, you know the direction in which the power was used, though not the distance or the exact effect.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, this power's range increases to Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level).

DIVINATION, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Mental and visual

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 7

As divination (page 224 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

ESCAPE DETECTION

Clairsentience

Level: Psychic warrior 3, seer 3

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: 5

You (plus all your gear and any objects you carry) become difficult to detect by clairsentience powers such as clairvoyant sense, remote viewing, and psionic true seeing. If a clairsentience power or similar effect is attempted against you, the manifester of the power must succeed on a manifester level check (1d20 + manifester level, or caster level if the opponent is not a manifester) against a DC of 13 + your manifester level (maximum +10).

FATE LINK

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 3

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Any two living creatures that are initially no more than 30 ft. apart.

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You temporarily link the fates of any two creatures, if both fail their saving throws.

If either linked creature experiences pain, both feel it. When one loses hit points, the other loses the same amount.

If one takes nonlethal damage, so does the other.

If one creature is subjected to an effect to which it is immune (such as a type of energy damage), the linked creature is not subjected to it either.

If one dies, the other must immediately succeed on a Fortitude save against this power's save DC or gain two negative levels.

No other effects are transferred by the fate link.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

FATE OF ONE

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 7

Display: Mental and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 13

Your limited omniscience allows you to reroll a saving throw, attack roll, or skill check.

Whatever the result of the reroll, you must use it even if it is worse than the original roll.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefits in an emergency.

Manifesting this power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round. If you use the power to reroll a saving throw, you can manifest this power even when it is not your turn.

FEAT LEECH

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Mental and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You can use another's psionic or metapsionic feats for yourself.

You make a melee touch attack against a target.

If successful, you immediately are familiar with the target's psionic and metapsionic feats, if any, and you can choose a number of these feats to "leech" equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum one).

While the power lasts, you are treated as if you possessed the stolen feats, despite the fact that you have more feats than normally allowed.

During this same period, the target can make no use of the stolen feats.

When the power's duration expires, you lose access to the feats, and the target gains immediate use of them.

This transfer occurs regardless of the distance between you and the target.

If the duration of feat leech is extended by the use of a metapsionic feat, the target gains a Will saving throw every 10 minutes beyond the normal duration.

If this save succeeds, the power's duration ends.

If the target is killed before the duration expires, you immediately lose the benefit of the stolen feats.

You cannot steal a feat for which you do not meet the prerequisites, if any.

However, you can use a stolen feat as the prerequisite for another stolen feat.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

HYPERCOGNITION

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 8

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action or 1 immediate action; see text

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 15

You make lightning-fast deductions based on only the slightest clue, pattern, or scrap of memory resident in your mind.

You can make reasonable statements about a person, place, or object, seemingly from very little knowledge.

However, your knowledge is in fact the result of a rigorously logical process that you force your mind to undertake, digging up and correlating every possible piece of knowledge bearing on the topic (possibly even extracting echoes of knowledge from the Astral Plane). The nature of the knowledge you gain concerning the subject of your analysis is subject to the DM's discretion but might include the answer to a riddle, the way out of a maze, stray bits of information about a person, legends about a place or an object, or even a conclusion concerning a dilemma that your conscious mind is unable to arrive at. The DM may call for an Intelligence check to obtain the desired information (the DM secretly determines the DC). If so, you can manifest hypercognition as an immediate action prior to making the check and receive a +20 bonus for doing so.

IDENTIFY, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Material and mental

Manifesting Time: One day

Range: Touch

Target: One touched object

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

As identify (page 243 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

This power is used to identify the abilities of psionic items.

KNOW DIRECTION AND LOCATION

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 1

You generally know where you are.

This power is useful to characters who end up at unfamiliar destinations after teleporting, using a gate, or traveling to or from other planes of existence.

The power reveals general information about your location as a feeling or presentiment.

The information is usually no more detailed than a summary that locates you according to a prominent local or regional site, such as "approximately 20 miles northwest of Greyhawk City".

If no prominent sites are nearby, answers such as "adrift on the Sunless Sea" are also possible, which at least provide some information about location.

Using this power also tells you what direction you are facing.

Using this power prior to making a Knowledge (the planes) check with astral caravan grants a +2 bonus on the check.

MENTAL BARRIER

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 5

You project a field of improbability around yourself, creating a fleeting protective shell.

You gain a +4 deflection bonus to Armor Class.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefits in an emergency.

Manifesting the power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You can use this power even when it's not your turn; however, you must manifest it prior to an opponent's attack roll in order to gain this power's benefit against that attack.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. If you spend 4 additional power points, the deflection bonus to Armor Class increases by 1.
2. For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 round.

METAFACULTY

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 9

Display: Mental, olfactory, and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 hour

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous and 1 min./level (D); see text

Power Points: 17, XP

You elevate your mind to a near-universal consciousness, cogitating countless impressions and predictions involving any creature you have seen before, whether personally or by means of another power such as remote viewing.

This process gives you an uncannily accurate vision of the creature's nature, activities, and whereabouts.

When you manifest the power, you learn the following facts about the creature.

- Its name, race, alignment, and character class.
- A general estimate of its level or Hit Dice: low (5 HD or lower), medium (6 to 11 HD), high (12 to 20 HD), very high (21 HD to 40 HD), or deific (41 HD or higher).
- Its location (including place of residence, town, country, world, and plane of existence).
- Significant items currently in its possession.
- Any significant activities or actions the creature has undertaken in the previous 8 hours, including details such as locales traveled through, the names or races of those the creature fought, spells it cast, items it acquired, and items it left behind (including the location of those items).
- A current mental view of the creature, as described in the remote viewing power, which you can maintain for up to 1 minute per level.

The DM determines what items or activities are significant to the envisioned creature.

For instance, a high-level character probably pays little attention to a potion of cure light wounds in her belt, but a low-level character might regard it as a significant possession.

Similarly, no one regards a routine meal as noteworthy, but attending a court banquet most likely would be.

Metafaculty can defeat spells, powers, and special abilities such as screen or mind blank (or even a wish spell) that normally obscure clairsentience powers.

You can attempt a caster level check (DC 6 + caster level of the creator of the obscuring effect) to defeat these sorts of otherwise impervious defenses.

Metafaculty is defeated by epic powers, epic spells, and epic special abilities that obscure divinations and clairsentience powers.

XP Cost: 1,000.

MOMENT OF PRESCIENCE, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round./level or until discharged

Power Points: 13

As moment of prescience (page 255 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

OBJECT READING

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 2

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Object touched

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You can learn details of an inanimate object's previous owner.

Objects accumulate psychic impressions left by their previous owners, which can be read by use of this power. The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study a particular object.

1st Minute: Last owner's race.

2nd Minute: Last owner's gender.

3rd Minute: Last owner's age.

4th Minute: Last owner's alignment.

5th Minute: How last owner gained and lost the object.

6th+ Minute: Next-to-last owner's race, and so on.

The power always correctly identifies the last owner of the item, and the original owner (if you keep the power active long enough).

There is a 90% chance that this power will successfully identify all other former owners in sequence, but there is a 10% chance that one former owner will be skipped and thus not identified.

This power will not identify casual users as owners.

(Anyone who uses an object to attack someone or something is not thereafter considered a casual user).

An object without any previous owners reveals no information.

You can continue to run through a list of previous owners and learn details about them as long as the power's duration lasts.

If you use this power additional times on the same object, the information yielded is the same as if you were using the power on the object for the first time.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's maximum duration increases by 10 minutes.

POWER RESISTANCE

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9

The creature gains power resistance equal to 12 + your manifester level.

PRECOGNITION

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 1

Precognition allows your mind to glimpse fragments of potential future events—what you see will probably happen if no one takes action to change it.

However, your vision is incomplete, and it makes no real sense until the actual events you glimpsed begin to unfold. That's when everything begins to come together, and you can act, if you act swiftly, on the information you previously received when you manifested this power.

In practice, manifesting this power grants you a "precognitive edge".

Normally, you can have only a single precognitive edge at one time.

You must use your edge within a period of no more than 10 minutes per level, at which time your preknowledge fades and you lose your edge.

You can use your precognitive edge in a variety of ways.

Essentially, the edge translates into a +2 insight bonus that you can apply at any time to either an attack roll, a damage roll, a saving throw, or a skill check.

You can elect to apply the bonus to the roll after you determine that your unmodified roll is lower than desired.

PRECOGNITION, DEFENSIVE

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 1

Your awareness extends a fraction of a second into the future, allowing you to better evade an opponent's blows. You gain a +1 insight bonus to AC and on all saving throws. If caught in a situation where your Dexterity bonus isn't applied to your Armor Class, this bonus to AC and saving throws does not apply.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 3 additional power points you spend, the insight bonus gained increases by 1.
2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

PRECOGNITION, GREATER

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 6

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: 11

As precognition, except as noted here.

You gain a +4 insight bonus instead of a +2 bonus.

PRECOGNITION, OFFENSIVE

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action; see text

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 1

Your awareness extends a fraction of a second into the future, allowing you to better land blows against your opponent.

You gain a +1 insight bonus on your attack rolls.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 3 additional power points you spend, the insight bonus gained on your attack rolls increases by 1.
2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

PRESCIENCE, OFFENSIVE

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 1

Your awareness extends a fraction of a second into the future, allowing you to better aim blows against your opponent.

You gain a +2 insight bonus on your damage rolls.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 3 additional power points you spend, the insight bonus gained on your attack rolls increases by 1.
2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

PROWESS

Clairsentience

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

If an enemy provokes an attack of opportunity from you, you can make the attack even if you've already taken your allotted number of attacks of opportunity this round (usually one).

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain an extra attack of opportunity in the same round.

Manifesting this power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

REALITY REVISION

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: See text

Power Points: 17, XP

As bend reality, but with more far-reaching effects.

A reality revision can produce any one of the following effects.

- Duplicate any psion power of 8th level or lower, provided the power is not prohibited to you.
- Duplicate any other power (but not a spell) of 6th level or lower, such as a psychic warrior power.
- Duplicate any psion power of 7th level or lower even if it's a power prohibited to you.
- Undo the harmful effects of many other powers, such as microcosm, geas/quest, or insanity.
- Create a nonpsionic item of up to 25,000 gp in value.
- Create a psionic item, or add to the powers of an existing psionic item (see XP cost below).
- Grant a creature a +1 inherent bonus to an ability score.

Two to five reality revisions manifested in immediate succession can grant a creature a +2 to +5 inherent bonus to an ability score (two reality revisions for a +2 inherent bonus, three reality revisions for a +3 inherent bonus, and so on).

Inherent bonuses are instantaneous, so they cannot be negated or dispelled.

An inherent bonus cannot exceed +5 for a single ability score.

Inherent bonuses to a particular ability score do not stack; only the best one applies.

- Remove injuries and afflictions.

A single reality revision can aid one creature per manifester level, and all subjects are cured of the same kind of affliction.

For example, you could heal all the damage you and your companions have taken, or remove all poison effects from everyone in the party, but you can't do both with the same manifestation.

Reality revision cannot restore the experience point loss from manifesting a power or casting a spell, or the level or Constitution loss from being returned to life by those effects that reduce level or Constitution.

- Revive the dead.

Reality revision can bring a dead creature back to life by duplicating a resurrection spell.

This power can revive a dead creature whose body has been destroyed, but the task takes two manifestations of reality revision, one to re-create the body and another to infuse the body with life again.

Reality revision cannot prevent a character who is brought back to life from losing a level.

- Transport travelers.

This power can lift one creature per manifester level from anywhere on any plane and place those creatures anywhere else on any plane regardless of local conditions.

An unwilling target gets a Will save to negate the effect, and power resistance (if any) applies.

- Undo misfortune.

Reality revision can undo a single recent event.

Manifesting the power forces a reroll of any roll made within the last round (including your last turn).

Reality reshapes itself to accommodate the new result.

The reroll, however, may be as bad as or worse than the original roll.

An unwilling target gets a Will save to negate the effect, and power resistance (if any) applies.

You can try to use reality revision to produce more powerful effects than these, but doing so is dangerous.

Such a manifestation gives the DM the opportunity to respond to your request without fulfilling it completely.

(The manifestation may pervert your intent into a literal but undesirable fulfillment or only a partial fulfillment).

Duplicated powers allow saves and power resistance as normal (but save DCs are calculated as though the power is 9th level).

XP Cost: The minimum XP cost for manifesting reality revision is 5,000 XP.

When a manifestation duplicates a power that has an XP cost, you must pay 5,000 XP or that cost, whichever is more.

When a manifestation creates or improves a psionic item, you must pay twice the normal XP cost for crafting or improving the item, plus an additional 5,000 XP.

RECALL AGONY

Clairsentience [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

The fabric of time parts to your will, revealing wounds your foe has received in the past (or has yet to receive).

That foe takes 2d6 points of damage as the past (or future) impinges briefly on the present.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

For each extra 2d6 points of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

RECALL DEATH

Clairsentience [Death, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Saving Throw: Will partial; see text

Power Points: 15

As recall agony, except the wounds revealed by folding the fourth dimension are potentially fatal.

If the target fails its Will save.

it dies.

If the save succeeds, the target instead takes 5d6 points of damage.

REMOTE VIEW TRAP

Clairsentience [Electricity]

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Mental and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 24 hours + 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will half; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

When others use clairvoyant sense, remote viewing, or other means of scrying you from afar, your prepared trap gives them a nasty surprise.

If the scryer fails its saving throw, you are undetected.

Moreover, the would-be observer takes 8d6 points of electricity damage.

If the scryer makes its saving throw, it takes only 4d6 points of electricity damage and is able to observe you normally.

Either way, you are aware of the attempt to view you, but not of the viewer or the viewer's location.

It is possible that you might recognize the quasireal viewpoint of someone using the remote viewing power if you could pierce its invisibility (which is true for remote viewing whether or not you use this power).

REMOTE VIEWING

Clairsentience (Scrying; see text)

Level: Seer 4

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 hour

Range: See text

Effect: Quasi-real viewpoint

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7, XP

You send your mind across space and dimensions, forming it into a quasireal viewpoint from which you can see and hear some creature located at any distance from you, even if planar boundaries separate you.

If the subject succeeds on a Will save, the remote viewing attempt fails, and you can't attempt to view that creature again for at least 24 hours.

The difficulty of the save depends on how well you know the subject and what sort of physical connection (if any) you have to that creature.

Furthermore, if the subject is on another plane, it gets a +5 bonus on its Will save.

Knowledge	Will Save Modifier
-----------	--------------------

None*	+10
-------	-----

Secondhand (you have heard of the subject)	+5
--	----

Firsthand (you have met the subject)	+0
--------------------------------------	----

Familiar (you know the subject well)	-5
--------------------------------------	----

*You must have some sort of connection to a creature you have no knowledge of.

Connection	Will Save Modifier
------------	--------------------

Likeness or picture	-2
---------------------	----

Possession or garment	-4
-----------------------	----

Body part, lock of hair, bit of nail, etc.	-10
--	-----

Subject on another plane	+5
--------------------------	----

If the subject fails its Will save, your mind coalesces a quasi-real viewpoint near enough to the subject to see and hear the subject and its immediate surroundings (up 30 feet in all directions away from the subject).

While the remote viewing lasts, your real body remains unmoving and unaware of your actual surroundings.

On the other hand, your quasi-real viewpoint is treated in some ways as if it were an invisible ectoplasmic form of yourself, except as follows.

This power is of the Scrying subdiscipline, but use the following information in place of the standard scrying sensor.

As a quasi-real viewpoint, you can speak (though your voice is whispery).

You may potentially be sensed by the subject of your viewing (subjects who can see or sense invisible or hidden creatures automatically sense you; otherwise you make a Hide check with a +40 bonus to escape detection if immobile, or a +20 bonus if moving).

You could be attacked (although if you become subject to dispel psionics, the remote viewing simply ends).

If the subject moves, you can attempt to follow it at a speed of 20 feet, though if it gets farther than 30 feet from you (or you move farther than 30 feet from it), the power ends.

You can attempt to manifest one power through your quasi-real viewpoint, but you must make a Concentration check (DC 20 + level of the power you wish to manifest) to succeed.

Manifesting (or attempting and failing to manifest) a power immediately ends the remote viewing.

Furthermore, all powers from your quasi-real viewpoint cost twice the usual number of power points (you can't exceed the power point limit set by your manifester level, so you are restricted to manifesting lower-level powers than you otherwise could).

Power points you spend as a quasireal viewpoint are drained from your real body.

XP Cost: 20 XP.

SECOND CHANCE

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 5

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level or until discharged

Power Points: 9

You take a hand in influencing the probable outcomes of your immediate environment.

You see the many alternative branches that reality could take in the next few seconds, and with this foreknowledge you gain the ability to reroll one attack roll, one saving throw, one ability check, or one skill check each round.

You must take the result of the reroll, even if it's worse than the original roll.

You do not have to make another roll if satisfied with your original roll.

SENSITIVITY TO PSYCHIC IMPRESSIONS

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 2

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 hour

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Spread with a radius of 25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels, centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You gain historical vision in a given location.

Rooms, streets, tunnels, and other discrete locations accumulate psychic impressions left by powerful emotions experienced in a given area.

These impressions offer you a picture of the location's past.

The types of events most likely to leave psychic impressions are those that elicited strong emotions: battles and betrayals, marriages and murders, births and great pain, or any other event where one emotion dominates.

Everyday occurrences leave no residue for a manifester to detect.

The vision of the event is dreamlike and shadowy.

You do not gain special knowledge of those involved in the vision, though you might be able to read large banners or other writing if they are in your language.

For example, you could manifest sensitivity to psychic impressions in the nave of a shattered chapel.

The vision you gain is of a mob of terrified parishioners fleeing the chapel through front and side doors, and even through windows.

Meanwhile, a demonic presence bursts through the floor of the nave and systematically begins to desecrate the former holy site.

The primary emotion you perceive is terror.

Beginning with the most recent significant event at a location and working backward in time, you can sense one distinct event for every 10 minutes you maintain concentration, if any such events exist to be sensed.

Your sensitivity extends into the past a maximum number of years equal to $100 \times$ your manifester level.

SEQUESTER, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One willing creature or one object (up to a 2-ft. cube/level) touched

Duration: One day/level (D)

Saving Throw: None or Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: No or Yes (object)

Power Points: 13, XP

As sequester (page 276 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

XP Cost: 75 XP.

STEADFAST PERCEPTION

Clairsentience

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Power Points: 7

Your vision cannot be distracted or misled, granting you immunity to all figments and glamers (such as invisibility). Moreover, your Spot and Search checks receive a +6 enhancement bonus for the duration of this power.

This power also grants you another saving throw against someone using false sensory input on you, but you must realize that that power has been used in order to know enough to manifest steadfast perception.

TRACE TELEPORT

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Spread with a radius of 25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels, centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

As detect teleportation, except you can trace the destination of any psionic or magical teleportation made by others within this power's area within the last minute.

You know the direction and distance the individuals traveled and could teleport to the location yourself if you so desired (and if you know the psionic teleport power), as if you had "seen casually" the location.

This power does not grant you any information on the conditions at the other end of the trace beyond the mental coordinates of the location.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, this power's range increases to Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level).

TRUE SEEING, PSIONIC

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 9

As true seeing (page 296 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

UBIQUITOUS VISION

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Power Points: 5

You have metaphoric "eyes in the back of your head", and on the sides and top as well, granting you benefits in specific situations.

In effect, you have a 360-degree sphere of sight, allowing you a perfect view of creatures that might otherwise flank you.

Thus, flanking opponents gain no bonus on their attack rolls, and rogues are denied their sneak attack ability because you do not lose your Dexterity bonus (but they may still sneak attack you if you are caught flat-footed). Your Spot and Search checks gain a +4 enhancement bonus.

Concurrently, you take a -4 penalty on saves against all gaze attacks during the power's duration.

METACREATIVITY

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 1

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One created astral construct

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

This power creates one 1st-level astral construct (see Chapter 8: Monsters) of solidified ectoplasm that attacks your enemies.

It appears where you designate and acts immediately, on your turn.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its ability.

As a free action, you can mentally direct it not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

The astral construct acts normally on the last round of the power's duration and dissipates at the end of its turn.

Astral constructs are not summoned; they are created on the plane you inhabit (using ectoplasm drawn from the Astral Plane).

Thus, they are not subject to effects that hedge out or otherwise affect outsiders; they are constructs, not outsiders.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the level of the astral construct increases by one.

ASTRAL SEED

Metacreativity

Level: Shaper 8

Display: Material; see text

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: One storage crystal

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 15

This power weaves strands of astral ectoplasm into a crystal containing the seed of your living mind (hardness 1 and 1 hit point).

You can have only one astral seed in existence at any one time.

Until such time as you perish, the astral seed (also called the storage crystal) is utterly inert.

If you are slain at some later date, your soul transfers into the storage crystal, which begins to dimly glow.

Upon transference, your physical remains (should they still exist) become inert matter and cannot thereafter be restored to life.

The transfer from the slain body to the astral seed works over any distance, physical or extradimensional.

Once your body's physical demise activates the storage crystal, you have the abilities of a psycrystal of the appropriate level, plus all the powers you knew and the maximum power points you possessed when astral seed was manifested—but you also have a negative level that cannot be healed and that does not convert to real level loss in your current crystalline form.

You have thirty days to grow an organic body, after which time your sentience fades and your soul passes on if it hasn't entered a new body.

To grow a body, you (in the storage crystal) must spend ten days in uninterrupted solitude.

The body's constituent parts are pulled as ectoplasm from the Astral Plane, then slowly molded and transformed into a living, breathing body that is an exact duplicate of your body at the time you manifested astral seed (the crystal itself breaks down and becomes a part of the new organic body).

When the tenth day ends, you completely and totally inhabit the new body.

You possess all the abilities you possessed when astral seed was manifested, at one level lower, but you have none of your equipment.

If the body is struck for any amount of damage during the ten-day period when it is growing, it is destroyed and your soul passes on.

Conceivably, you could manifest mind switch to utilize a temporary body, but only an evil creature would smash his own temporarily empty storage crystal to permanently usurp a subject's organic body (unless the subject is itself irredeemably evil).

BOLT

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: A normal bolt, arrow, or sling bullet

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You create 2d4 ectoplasmic crossbow bolts, arrows, or sling bullets, appropriate to your size, which dissipate into their constituent ectoplasmic particles when the duration ends or after being fired.

Ammunition you create has a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, this power improves the ammunition's enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls by 1.

CONCEALING AMORPHA

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Material; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: Quasi-real amorphous film centered on you

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 3

Using concealing amorpha, you weave a quasi-real membrane around yourself.

You remain visible within the translucent, amorphous enclosure.

This distortion grants you concealment (opponents have a 20% miss chance), thanks to the rippling membrane encasing your form.

You can pick up or drop objects, easily reaching through the film.

Anything you hold is enveloped by the amorpha.

Likewise, you can engage in melee, make ranged attacks, and manifest powers without hindrance.

CONCEALING AMORPHA, GREATER

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 3, psychic warrior 3

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 5

As concealing amorpha, except the quasi-real membrane so distorts your image and actual position that you gain total concealment (opponents have a 50% miss chance), but for a shorter period of time.

CREATE SOUND

Metacreativity (Creation) [Sonic]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Sounds; see text

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You create a volume of sound that rises, recedes, approaches, or remains at a fixed place.

You choose what type of sound the power creates when manifesting it and cannot thereafter change its basic character.

The volume of sound created, however, depends on your level.

You can produce as much noise as four normal humans per manifester level (maximum twenty humans).

Thus, talking, singing, shouting, walking, marching, or running sounds can be created.

The noise produced can be virtually any type of sound within the volume limit.

A horde of rats running and squeaking is about the same volume as eight humans running and shouting.

A roaring lion is equal to the noise from sixteen humans, while a roaring dire lion is equal to the noise from twenty humans.

If you wish to create a specific message, up to twenty-five words can be created, and those words repeat over and over until the duration expires or the power is dismissed.

If you attempt to exactly duplicate the voice of a specific individual or an inherently terrifying sound (such as a dragon's roar), you must succeed on a Bluff check with a +2 circumstance bonus opposed by the listener's Sense Motive check to avoid arousing suspicion.

Create sound can be used to bring sounds into existence that you later manipulate by manifesting control sound.

CRYSTAL SHARD

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

Upon manifesting this power, you propel a razor-sharp crystal shard at your target.

You must succeed on a ranged touch attack with the ray to deal damage to a target.

The ray deals 1d6 points of piercing damage.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

CRYSTALLIZE

Metacreativity

Level: Shaper 6

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

You seed the subject's flesh with supersaturated crystal.

In an eyeblink, the subject's form seems to freeze over, as its flesh and fluids are instantly crystallized.

Following the application of this power, the subject appears lifeless.

In fact, it is not dead (though no life can be detected with powers or spells that detect such).

This power has a chance of being dispelled only by a manifester of a higher level than you when you manifested this power.

When the power is dispelled, crystal melts back into flesh, and the subject is in exactly the state he was prior being affected by crystallize.

DISMISS ECTOPLASM

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 30-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You dismiss creatures, objects, or effects composed of ectoplasm, such as astral constructs or the ectoplasmic cocoon power, or that were formerly composed of ectoplasm, such as items created by metacreativity (creation) powers.

An ectoplasmic creature that fails its Will saving throw dissipates into so much constituent ectoplasm, which evaporates immediately.

A creature under the effect of the ectoplasmic form power that fails its saving throw is either destroyed out right or physically shifted to a random location on the Astral Plane (50% chance for either result).

Other ongoing powers that create ectoplasmic objects or effects, such as ectoplasmic cocoon, are dismissed if you succeed on a manifester level check (1d20 + your manifester level, maximum +10) against a DC of 11 + the power's manifester level.

ECTO PROTECTION

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action; see text

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: An astral construct you manifest

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

This power reinforces an astral construct created by the astral construct power, giving you a +1 bonus on any manifester level checks you make to protect it against dispel psionics or a similar effect, and a +1 bonus on its saving throw to resist dismiss ectoplasm.

This power can be manifested as a swift action in the same round that you manifest an astral construct, as long as the power points you spend to perform both actions does not exceed your manifester level.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, your bonus on manifester level checks to protect your astral construct increases by 1, and your astral construct's bonus on its saving throw to resist dismiss ectoplasm increases by 1.

ECTOPLASMIC COCOON

Metacreativity

Level: Shaper 3

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One Medium or smaller creature

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You draw writhing strands of ectoplasm from the Astral Plane that wrap up the subject like a mummy.

The subject can still breathe but is otherwise helpless, unable to see outside the cocoon, speak, or take any physical actions.

The subject's nostrils are clear (air passes through the cocoon normally).

The subject can execute purely mental actions (such as manifesting powers or casting spells with no verbal, somatic, or material components).

Cutting or damaging the cocoon can free a victim.

The cocoon has hardness 8 and 20 hit points.

Teleportation and other forms of travel provide a means of escape, but the cocoon extends into the Ethereal Plane, blocking ethereal travel.

An ectoplasmic cocoon can't be affected by dispel psionics, but it can be dismissed with dismiss ectoplasm, or otherwise destroyed by extreme measures or items.

The creature within the cocoon is visible only as a vague shape (substantial enough to interrupt line of sight) and cannot be directly harmed or interacted with unless the cocoon is destroyed.

The cocooned creature can be moved normally (the weight of the cocoon is negligible).

A creature that is cocooned while aloft begins to fall immediately, and a creature that is cocooned while swimming or underwater may drown.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect a target one size category larger.

ECTOPLASMIC COCOON, MASS

Metacreativity

Level: Shaper 7

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 13

As ectoplasmic cocoon, except you can cocoon several creatures (or a single big creature that fits in a 20-foot-radius sphere or hemisphere) in a mass of writhing ectoplasm.

Targets entirely within the area who fail their save are caught and cocooned.

If a creature's body is only partially within the area, this power does not affect that creature.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the radius of this power's area increases by 5 feet.

ECTOPLASMIC SHAMBLER

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Auditory, material, and olfactory; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Effect: One ectoplasmic manifestation of a size equal to ten 10-ft. cubes (S)

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

You fashion an ephemeral, many-legged mass of pseudo-living ectoplasm called an ectoplasmic shambler.

You can direct the shambler as a free action.

It has a speed of 10 feet.

It can completely surround objects (and opponents) over which it is manifested or onto which it moves, because it has the consistency of thick mist.

The vision of those within the shambler is limited to 5 feet, and manifesting powers (or casting spells) within the shambler is difficult due to the constant turbulence felt by those caught in the shambler's form.

Creatures enveloped by the shambler, regardless of Armor Class, take 1 point of damage for every two manifester levels you have in each round they become or remain within the roiling turbulence of the shambler.

Anyone trying to manifest a power must make a Concentration check (DC 15 + power's or spell's level) to successfully manifest a power or cast a spell inside the shambler.

A wind stronger than 20 miles per hour that blows against the shambler reduces its speed to 0 feet during the first round, and in subsequent rounds moves it in the direction of the wind at a speed of 5 feet.

A wind stronger than 20 miles per hour that blows in the direction the shambler travels increases its speed to 15 feet.

ENERGY WALL

Metacreativity (Creation) [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: An opaque sheet of energy up to 20 ft. long/level or a ring of energy with a radius of up to 5 ft./2 levels

Duration: Concentration + 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You create an immobile sheet of energy of the chosen type formed out of unstable ectoplasm.

One side of the wall, selected by you, sends forth waves of energy, dealing 2d6 points of damage to creatures and objects within 10 feet and 1d6 points of damage to those beyond 10 feet but within 20 feet.

In addition, anyone passing through the energy wall takes 2d6 points of damage +1 point per manifest level (maximum +20).

If you manifest the wall so that it appears where creatures are, each creature takes damage as if passing through the wall.

If you manifest this power in the form of a ring of energy, you choose whether the waves of energy radiate inward or outward from the ring.

Cold: A sheet of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold wall is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a sheet of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifest level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A sheet of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A sheet of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

ENTANGLING ECTOPLASM

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One Medium or smaller creature

Duration: 5 rounds

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You draw forth a glob of ectoplasmic goo from the Astral Plane and immediately throw it as a ranged touch attack at any creature in range.

On a successful hit, the subject is covered in goo and becomes entangled.

The goo evaporates at the end of the power's duration.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect a target one size category larger.

FABRICATE, GREATER PSIONIC

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 6

Target: Up to 100 cu. ft./level

Power Points: 11

As psionic fabricate, except ten times as much material is affected by the power.

FABRICATE, PSIONIC

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 4

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: See spell text

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Up to 10 cu. ft./level; see spell text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

As fabricate (page 229 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

GENESIS

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 9

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: One week (8 hours/day)

Range: 180 ft.; see text

Effect: A demiplane coterminous with the Astral Plane, centered on your location

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 17, XP

You create a finite plane with limited access: a demiplane. Demiplanes created by this power are very small, very minor planes.

This power works best when manifested while you are on the Astral Plane (various powers allow access to these planes, including astral caravan and plane shift).

Manifestation of this power creates a local density fluctuation that precipitates the creation of a demiplane. At first, the fledgling plane grows in radius at a rate of 1 foot per day to an initial maximum radius of 180 feet as it rapidly draws substance from the surrounding astral ectoplasm.

Once the new demiplane reaches its maximum size, it doesn't really stop growing, but its growth rate decreases to only 1 foot per week (approximately a 50-foot increase in radius per year).

Once your demiplane is created, you can travel to it using astral caravan, plane shift, or some other power or permanent link that you arrange for separately.

You determine the environment within the demiplane when you manifest genesis, reflecting most any desire you can visualize.

You determine factors such as atmosphere, water, temperature, and the general shape of the terrain.

This power cannot create life (including vegetation), nor can it create construction (such as buildings, roads, wells, dungeons, and so forth).

You must add these details in some other fashion if you desire.

You can't create lingering psionic effects with this power; you have to add those separately, if desired.

Similarly, you can't create a demiplane out of esoteric material, such as silver or uranium; you're limited to stone and dirt.

You can't manipulate the time trait on your demiplane; its time trait is as the Material Plane.

Once your demiplane reaches 180 feet in radius, you can manifest this power again to gradually add another 180 feet of radius to it, and so on.

Antigenesis: If genesis is manifested on the Material Plane, the power takes effect and the demiplane begins to grow at the rate noted above, but it gets no larger than a radius of 1 foot per level.

The energies of the new plane are exactly canceled by the energies of the original plane, creating a dead spot like a limited cancer on the original plane.

The expanding boundary of the dead spot wipes away all construction, crumbles natural land forms, and evaporates water, leaving behind a uniformly level area of inert dust. Living creatures that pass the boundary of the growing dead spot are not directly, but plants can find no sustenance in the dust of the dead spot, water-breathing creatures die quickly when water turns to dust, and mobile animals know enough to leave the area alone.

Once the wave of change passes, no special essence remains in the dead spot, and it may be colonized naturally over the course of several years by bacteria, plants, and animals.

XP Cost: 1,000 XP.

GREASE, PSIONIC

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target or Area: One object or a 10-ft. square

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: See spell text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

As grease (page 237 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Sometimes this power is referred to as ectoplasmic sheen.

HAIL OF CRYSTALS

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 5

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

A tiny ectoplasmic crystal emanates from your outstretched hand and rapidly expands to a 2-foot-diameter ball of crystal as it speeds toward the location you designate.

You can choose to aim this crystal at a single target or at a specific point in space (a grid intersection).

If you aim the crystal at a single target, you must make a ranged touch attack to strike the target.

Any creature or object struck by the ball of crystal takes 5d4 points of bludgeoning damage.

Whether the crystal hits its target, misses, or was aimed at a point in space, it explodes upon arrival at the location you designated.

Anyone within 20 feet of the explosion takes 9d4 points of slashing damage from the thousands of crystal shards that spray forth.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage from the explosion of the crystal increases by 1d4 points.

INCARNATE

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 2 rounds

Range: See text

Target, Effect, or Area: See text

Duration: Permanent; see text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9, XP

This power makes certain other powers permanent.

Depending on the power to be affected, you must be of a minimum manifester level and must expend a number of XP.

You can make the following powers permanent only in regard to yourself.

Power	Minimum Manifester Level	XP Cost
Aura sight	15th	2,000 XP

You manifest the desired power and then follow it with the incarnate manifestation.

IRON BODY, PSIONIC

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 15

As iron body (page 245 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

KEEN EDGE, PSIONIC

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: One weapon or fifty projectiles, all of which must be in contact with each other at the time of manifestation

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 5

As keen edge (page 246 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

MAJOR CREATION, PSIONIC

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Duration: See spell text

Power Points: 9

As major creation (page 252 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

MATTER MANIPULATION

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Display: Auditory and mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 1 cu. ft./level of inanimate material

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15, XP

You can weaken or strengthen the substance of an object or structure.

You can affect both mundane and magical inanimate material.

Weakening an object's substance decreases its hardness and hit points, and strengthening it increases its hardness and hit points.

You can increase or decrease an object's hardness by up to 5 from its original hardness (see the tables on page 166 of the Player's Handbook).

When hardness increases, the object (or portion of an object) gains 3 hit points per inch of thickness for every point of increased hardness.

When hardness decreases, the object (or portion of an object) loses 2 hit points per inch of thickness for every point of decreased hardness (to a minimum of 1 hit point per inch of thickness).

You can't decrease the hardness of an object that already has hardness 0.

For example, you could increase the hardness of a 1-inch-thick rope from 0 to 5, at the same time giving it a total of 17 hit points.

You could reduce the hardness of a stone wall to 3 and its hit points per inch of thickness to 5, making the affected area much more easily breached.

Working Manipulated Metals: An object or portion thereof whose hardness is decreased or increased is permanently changed.

Even hardening adamantite to 25 is possible.

You can also harden or weaken a preforged weapon, a suit of armor, or some other finished item.

XP Cost: 250 XP for each point by which the object's hardness is altered.

METAPHYSICAL WEAPON

Metacreativity

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Weapon touched

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 1

Metaphysical weapon gives a weapon a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls.

(An enhancement bonus does not stack with a masterwork weapon's +1 bonus on attack rolls).

Alternatively, you can affect up to fifty arrows, bolts, or bullets.

The projectiles must be of the same type, and they have to be together (such as in the same quiver).

Projectiles, but not thrown weapons, lose their enhancement when used.

(Treat shuriken as projectiles, rather than thrown weapons, for the purpose of this power).

You can't manifest this power on most natural weapons, including a psychic warrior's claw strike.

This power does work on a weapon brought into being by the graft weapon power.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, this power's duration increases to 1 hour per level.

In addition, for every 4 additional power points you spend, this power improves the weapon's enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls by 1.

MINOR CREATION, PSIONIC

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 minute

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: Unattended, nonpsionic, nonmagical object of nonliving plant matter, up to 1 cu. ft./level

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

As minor creation (page 233 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

PSIONIC REPAIR DAMAGE

Metacreativity

Level: Shaper 2

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Construct touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 3

When laying your hands upon a construct that has at least 1 hit point remaining, you reknit its structure to repair damage it has taken.

The power repairs 3d8 points of damage +1 point per manifester level.

Constructs that are immune to psionics or magic cannot be repaired in this fashion.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power repairs an additional 1d8 points of damage.

QUINTESSENCE

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 4

Display: Material; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: 1-inch-diameter dollop of quintessence; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You collapse a bit of time from the continuum, forming a 1-ounce dollop of thick, gooey material called quintessence.

This substance shimmers like a silver mirror when viewed from some angles but is transparent from other viewpoints.

You can smooth a dollop of quintessence around any extremely small object, such as a key, a ring, a seal, or an insignia.

Objects sealed within quintessence are protected from the effects of time; in practical terms, they enter a state of stasis. Living flesh with only partial contact with quintessence is also partially pulled out of the time stream (the manifester is immune to this effect).

This disruption deals 1 point of damage per round beginning 10 rounds after partial contact occurs.

Quintessence can be manually scraped away from a protected object, freeing it to rejoin the time stream. When you do this, there is a 75% chance that the quintessence evaporates back into the continuum.

Otherwise, it coalesces again into a 1-inch-diameter bead, available for later use.

Large quantities of quintessence could theoretically be gathered to preserve large items or structures (or even a complete living creature; if completely immersed, a living creature would not take the damage associated with partial contact).

However, psionic characters and creatures are generally loath to do so because accumulations of quintessence weighing 1 pound or more hinder psionic activity within a 5-foot radius of the accumulation: Powers require twice as many power points to manifest, unless the manifester makes a successful Will save each time he or she attempts to manifest a power.

Also in these circumstances, manifesting a psi-like ability that is usable at will is a full-round action rather than a standard action.

SWARM OF CRYSTALS

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 15 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Thousands of tiny crystal shards spray forth in an arc from your hand.

These razorlike crystals slice everything in their path.

Anyone caught in the cone takes 3d4 points of slashing damage.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d4 points.

TRUE CREATION

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Shaper 9

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 17, XP

As psionic major creation, except items created are enduring and cannot be negated by dispelling magic or negating powers.

For all intents and purposes, these items are completely real.

XP Cost: 1/5 of the item's gold piece value (see the Player's Handbook and the Dungeon Master's Guide for item prices), or a minimum of 1 XP.

WALL OF ECTOPLASM

Metacreativity (Creation)

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Wall whose area is up to one 10-ft. square/level or a sphere or hemisphere with a radius of up to 1 ft./level

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You fashion a roiling wall of ectoplasm, imbuing it with solidity.

The wall cannot move once it is formed.

It is 1 inch thick per four manifester levels and occupies up to one 5-foot square per level.

Each 5-foot square of the wall has 10 hit points per inch of thickness and hardness 5.

A section of the wall whose hit points drop to 0 is breached.

If a creature tries to break through the wall, the DC for the Strength check is $15 + 2$ per inch of thickness.

The wall of ectoplasm is susceptible to dispel psionics, but it gains a +4 bonus on any check to determine whether the wall is negated.

Spells, powers, and breath weapons cannot pass through the wall in either direction (though they could damage it).

It blocks ethereal creatures as well as material creatures (though ethereal creatures can usually get around the wall by floating under or over it through material floors and ceilings).

The wall is opaque, so neither vision nor gaze attacks operate through it.

The wall does not block psychoportive travel, such as that provided by the psionic teleport power.

You can form the wall into a flat, vertical plane whose area is up to one 10-foot square per level or into a sphere or hemisphere with a radius of up to 1 foot per level.

The wall of ectoplasm must be continuous and unbroken when manifested.

If its surface is interrupted by any object or creature, the power fails.

PSYCHOKINESIS

CLAW OF ENERGY

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 7

If you have a claw attack (either from an actual natural weapon or from an effect such as claws of the beast), you can use this power to energize that weapon.

The claw attack deals an extra 1d6 points of cold, electricity, or fire damage (as chosen by you at the time of manifestation) on a successful hit.

On a critical hit, it deals an extra 1d10 points of energy damage.

If the claw's critical multiplier is $\times 3$, add 2d10 points of energy damage instead; if the multiplier is $\times 4$, add 3d10 points of energy damage.

This power can be manifested on a claw attack that already deals energy damage, but if the claw already deals the same type of damage as the power, the effects stack.

If this power is manifested on a claw attack already benefiting from the effect of the power, the newer manifestation supersedes the older manifestation, even if both manifestations are of different energy types.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy infused in the natural weapon.

CONCUSSION BLAST

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature or object

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

A subject you select is pummeled with telekinetic force for 1d6 points of force damage.

You can choose to have the power deal an equal amount of nonlethal damage instead.

Concussion blast always affects a subject within range that you can see, even if the subject is in melee or has cover or concealment (you cannot use this power against creatures with total cover or total concealment).

Nonmagical, unattended objects (including doors, walls, locks, and so on) may also be damaged by this power.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

CONTROL AIR

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 50-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You have some control over wind speed and direction.

The speed of the wind within the area of this power can be increased or decreased by up to 10 miles per hour.

You can spend as many as 5 additional power points to augment this power, with each point allowing you to modify the wind speed by an additional 10 miles per hour, to a maximum change in wind speed of 60 miles per hour.

This power also gives you the ability to alter the direction of the wind by as much as 90 degrees (turning a north wind into an east wind, for instance).

Powerful enough winds can cause creatures to be blown away, knocked down, or checked; see Table 3–24, page 95 of the Dungeon Master's Guide.

Unless the DM determines the day to be particularly windy or calm, determine the initial wind speed when you first use this power by rolling 1d20.

The result is the current wind speed in miles per hour.

Augment: See above.

CONTROL BODY

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 4

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One Medium or smaller creature with humanoid physiology

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You psychokinetically control the actions of any humanoid (including undead or outsiders with a humanoid physiology) that is within range and to which you have line of sight.

Control body doesn't require mental contact with the subject, since you are actually forcing limb movements independent of the target's mind.

You can force the subject to stand up, sit down, walk, turn around, and so on, but operating the vocal cords is too difficult.

You can also hold the subject immobile, rendering it helpless.

You cannot force the subject to manifest powers, cast spells, or use any special ability that is not a function of just its body movements.

If you lose line of sight to the subject, the effect of this power ends.

If you force the subject to engage in combat, its attack bonus is equal to your base attack bonus + your Intelligence bonus, and its bonus on damage rolls is equal to your Intelligence bonus.

A subject of this power cannot make attacks of opportunity. The subject gains no benefit to Armor Class from its Dexterity, but it does gain a bonus to its AC equal to your Intelligence bonus.

Although the subject's body is under your control, the subject's mind is not.

Creatures capable of taking purely mental actions (such as manifesting powers) can do so.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect a target one size category larger.

CONTROL FLAMES

Psychokinesis [Fire]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: One nonmagical fire source; see text

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You pyrokinetically control the intensity or movements of one fire source.

A nonmagical fire source can be controlled if it is equal to or smaller than the maximum size of fire you can control according to your manifester level, as noted on the accompanying table.

You can freely switch control between fire sources, or change the nature of your control, while you maintain concentration, but only one specified change (keeping a fire burning, animating it, or altering its size) can be made to one fire source in a round.

When your control over a fire source lapses, that fire immediately returns to its original state (or goes out if it has no fuel or has been moved away from its original location). With this power, you can artificially keep a fire burning that would normally expire for lack of fuel; even dousing a controlled flame with water does not put it out (though completely submerging the flame would).

Normally, a creature at risk of catching on fire can avoid this fate by making a DC 15 Reflex saving throw, with success indicating that the fire has gone out.

If the fire is one that has been kept burning by the use of control flames, then the DC of the Reflex save needed to put out the flames increases to 25.

This power also enables you to make a fire move as if it were a living creature.

You can animate only a naturally burning fire; if you attempt to animate one that has been increased or decreased in size by your augmentation of this power, the fire immediately returns to its original size.

An animated fire moves at a speed of 30 feet.

A fire that moves away from its fuel or its original location dies as soon as your control over it lapses.

An animated fire can enter any square, even if a creature already occupies it.

If an animated fire enters a square occupied by a creature, that creature can make a Reflex save to get out of the way (DC 11 + the number of dice of damage the fire does + your Int modifier if you are a psion or your Cha modifier if you are a wilder).

A successful Reflex save moves the creature to the nearest unoccupied square.

The flames deal the indicated damage to any creature that is either on fire or surrounded by the flames (in the fire's space); see the accompanying table).

At the start of your turn, the animated fire deals damage to any creature in its space, and the creature catches on fire unless it makes a Reflex save (DC as noted above).

A victim on fire takes 1d6 points of damage each round.

Additional rounds in the same space as the animated fire occupies mean additional chances of ignition.

The damage from multiple normal fires stacks, but the victim gets a saving throw each round to negate each fire.

It is possible to switch control from the animated fire (causing it to disappear) to intensify flames that are already burning (thus denying the foe Reflex saves after the first).

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can increase the size of a fire you want to control by one step, up to the maximum size of fire you can control according to your manifester level.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can decrease the size of a fire you want to control by one step. You can reduce a Tiny or smaller fire to nothing, extinguishing it.

CONTROL FLAMES

Manifester Level	Maximum Fire Size	Example	Damage per Round	Space
1st–2nd	Fine	Tindertwig	1	1 foot square
3rd–4th	Diminutive	Torch	1d3	1 foot square
5th–6th	Tiny	Small campfire	1d6	1 foot square
7th–8th	Small	Large campfire	2d6	1 foot square
9th–10th	Medium	Forge	3d6	1 foot square
11th–12th	Large	Bonfire	4d6	2-by-2-foot square
13th–14th	Huge	Burning shack	5d6	3-by-3-foot square
15th–16th	Gargantuan	Burning tavern	6d6	4-by-4-foot square
17th or higher	Colossal	Burning inn	7d6	5-by-5-foot square

CONTROL LIGHT

Psychokinesis [Light]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Nine 10-ft. cubes + three 10-ft. cubes/level

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level, or 1 round; see text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

By manipulating the ambient light level, you can decrease or increase the illumination of an area.

The change in illumination can be gradual (taking as long as 1 minute) or sudden (occurring immediately when you manifest this power).

You can alter the level of illumination from its original level at any time during the power's duration.

Decrease: You can decrease the illumination of an area by as little as 5% (barely perceptible) or as much as 100% (total darkness).

If you decrease the light by 50% or more, the visual ability of creatures that depend on light to see declines accordingly.

For instance, a human carrying a torch can see well out to 20 feet.

If you use control light to decrease the illumination around him by 75%, then the area he sees as brightly lit by the torch extends only out to 5 feet.

If you decrease the ambient light in an area by 100%, even those with lowlight vision are unable to see within the affected area.

For each 25% decrease in ambient light, characters in the area gain a cumulative +1 circumstance bonus on Hide checks (to a maximum of +4 when all the light is gone).

Increase: You can increase the illumination of an area by as little as 5% (barely perceptible) or as much as 100%.

If you increase the light by 50% or more, the visual ability of creatures that depend on light to see improves accordingly.

For instance, an elf carrying a sunrod can see well out to 60 feet (because of her lowlight vision).

If you use control light to increase the illumination around her by 50%, then the area she sees as brightly lit by the sunrod extends out to 90 feet.

You can use this power to increase the illumination of an area by 200% (improving visual abilities accordingly), but in such a case the power's duration is only 1 round.

CONTROL OBJECT

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One unattended object weighing up to 100 lb.

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You telekinetically “bring to life” an inanimate object.

Though it is not actually alive, the object moves under your control.

Live vegetation cannot be controlled in this fashion, nor can already animated objects or undead.

The controlled object moves like a puppet, with jerky and clumsy movements, at a speed of up to 20 feet.

If its form is rigid, it makes creaking, groaning, or grating sounds as you control it.

A controlled object can attack an opponent if you direct it to do so.

It has one slam attack, at a base attack bonus equal to your base attack bonus plus your Intelligence modifier.

If the attack hits, it deals points of damage equal to 1d6 plus your Intelligence modifier.

A controlled object has its usual hardness and hit points.

You can use this power on a nonmagical lock, making it move in such a way as to attempt to unlock itself.

If another character makes an Open Lock check involving a lock that you are concentrating on controlling, the character gains a +4 bonus on the check.

CONTROL SOUND

Psychokinesis [Sonic]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One sound or mixture of related sounds

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level; see text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You shape and alter existing sounds.

You can target one sound, such as a person speaking or singing, or a group of related sounds, such as the patter of many raindrops or the tramp of soldiers passing by.

A sound as quiet as a snapping finger can be controlled.

You can substitute any sound you have heard for the target sound.

For instance, you could replace the sound of a dragon's snoring with the sound of a trickling waterfall.

You could change the words of a speaker into inarticulate babbling or into other words entirely (though a speaker generally comes to a halt quickly when he realizes that every word coming out of his mouth is unintended).

If you attempt to exactly duplicate the voice of a specific individual, or an inherently terrifying sound (such as a dragon's roar), you must succeed on a Bluff check with a +5 circumstance bonus opposed by the intended listener's Sense Motive check to avoid arousing suspicion.

You can entirely muffle a noise or magnify a sound to such loudness that it drowns out all other conversation in the immediate area.

In this way, you can provide yourself or any with a +4 circumstance bonus on Move Silently and Listen checks. Alternatively, you can use up the power in an instant. You do this by modulating a sound into a one-time destructive impetus that shatters nonmagical/nonpsionic, unattended objects of crystal, glass, ceramics, or porcelain (vials, bottles, flasks, jugs, mirrors, and so forth) in the area.

DISPEL PSIONICS

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target or Area: One manifester, creature, or object; or 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous or 1d4 rounds; see text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You can use dispel psionics to end ongoing powers that have been manifested on a creature or object, to temporarily suppress the psionic abilities of a psionic item, or to end ongoing powers (or at least their effects) within an area. A dispelled power ends as if its duration had expired. Some powers, as detailed in their descriptions, can't be defeated by dispel psionics, or can be ended only if you manifest dispel psionics at a high enough manifester level. Dispel psionics can end spell-like effects just as it does powers.

The effect of a power with an instantaneous duration can't be dispelled, because the psionic effect is already over before the dispel psionics can take effect.

You choose to use dispel psionics in one of two ways: a targeted dispel or an area dispel.

Targeted Dispel: One object, creature, or power is the target of the dispel psionics power.

You make a dispel check (1d20 + your manifester level, maximum +10) against the power or against each ongoing power currently in effect on the object or creature.

The DC for this dispel check is 11 + the power's manifester level.

If you succeed on a particular check, that power is dispelled; if you fail, that power remains in effect.

If you target an object or creature that is the effect of an ongoing power or is under the effect of an ongoing power (such as an astral construct created by the astral construct power, or a character who has temporary hit points provided by the vigor power), you make a dispel check to end the power or its effect.

If the object that you target is a psionic item, you make a dispel check against the item's manifester level.

If you succeed, all the item's psionic properties are suppressed for 1d4 rounds, after which the item recovers on its own.

A suppressed item becomes nonpsionic for the duration of the effect.

An interdimensional interface (such as a bag of holding) is temporarily closed.

A psionic item's physical properties are unchanged: A suppressed psionic sword is still a sword (a masterwork sword, in fact).

Artifacts and deities are unaffected by mortal power such as this.

You automatically succeed on your dispel check against any power that you manifested yourself.

Area Dispel: When dispel psionics is used in this way, the power affects everything within a 20-foot radius.

For each creature within the area that is the subject of one or more powers, you make a dispel check against the power with the highest manifester level.

If that check fails, you make dispel checks against progressively weaker powers until you dispel one power (which discharges the dispel psionics power so far as that target is concerned) or until you fail all your checks.

The creature's psionic items are not affected.

For each object within the area that is the target of one or more powers, you make dispel checks as with creatures.

Psionic items are not affected by an area dispel.

For each ongoing area or effect power whose point of origin is within the area of the dispel psionics power, you can make a dispel check to dispel the power.

For each ongoing power whose area overlaps that of the dispel psionics power, you can make a dispel check to end the effect, but only within the overlapping area.

If an object or creature that is the effect of an ongoing power is in the area, you can make a dispel check to end the power that created that object or construct in addition to attempting to dispel powers targeting the creature or object.

You can choose to automatically succeed on dispel checks against any power that you have manifested.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the bonus on your dispel check increases by 2 (to a maximum bonus of +20 for a 5-point expenditure).

DISPELLING BUFFER

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 6, psychic warrior 6

Display: Material and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal or close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels); see text

Target: You or one willing creature or one object (object weighing up to 100 lb./level); see text

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 11

You create a psychokinetic shield around the subject that improves the chance that any powers affecting the subject will resist a dispel psionics power (or a dispel magic spell) or a negation effect that targets a specific power (such as shatter mind blank).

When dispelling buffer is manifested on a creature or object, add +5 to the DC of the dispel check for each ongoing effect that is subject to being dispelled.

Dispel psionics can negate dispelling buffer, but against a targeted dispel, dispelling buffer is always checked last (with the same +5 bonus).

Against an area dispel, dispelling buffer is checked in the order according to its level (with the same +5 bonus).

Special: When a psychic warrior manifests this power, the range is personal and the target is the manifester.

ENERGY BALL

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Kineticist 4

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You create an explosion of energy of the chosen type that deals 7d6 points of damage to every creature or object within the area.

The explosion creates almost no pressure.

Cold: A ball of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold ball is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a ball of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A ball of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A ball of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra two dice of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY BOLT

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 120 ft.

Area: 120-ft. line

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You release a powerful stroke of energy of the chosen type that deals 5d6 points of damage to every creature or object within the area.

The beam begins at your fingertips.

Cold: A bolt of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold bolt is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a bolt of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A bolt of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A bolt of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra two dice of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY BURST

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Area: 40-ft-radius burst centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You create an explosion of unstable ectoplasmic energy of the chosen type that deals 5d6 points of damage to every creature or object within the area.

The explosion creates almost no pressure.

Since this power extends outward from you, you are not affected by the damage.

Cold: A burst of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold burst is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a burst of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A burst of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A burst of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra two dice of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY CONE

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Kineticist 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You create a cone of energy of the chosen type, extending outward from your hand, that deals 5d6 points of damage to every creature or object within the area.

Cold: A cone of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold cone is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a cone of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A cone of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A cone of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra two dice of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY CURRENT

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Kineticist 5

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Any two creatures no more than 15 ft. apart

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

Your body's psionically fueled bioenergetic currents produce an arc of energy of the chosen type that targets a creature you designate as the primary foe for 9d6 points of damage in every round when the power remains in effect. Energy also arcs off the primary foe to strike one additional foe that is initially within 15 feet of the primary foe, or that subsequently moves within 15 feet of the primary foe while the duration lasts.

Secondary foes take half the damage that the primary foe takes in every round while the duration lasts.

Should either the primary or secondary foe fall to less than 0 hit points (or should a target completely evade the effect with a special ability or power), the energy current's arc randomly retargets another primary and/or secondary foe while the duration lasts.

Targeted foes can move normally, possibly moving out of range of the effect, but each round they are targeted and remain in range they must make a saving throw to avoid taking full damage in that round.

Concentrating to maintain energy current is a full-round action.

If you take damage while maintaining energy current, you must make a successful Concentration check (DC 10 + damage dealt) to avoid losing your concentration on the power.

Cold: A current of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold current is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a current of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A current of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A current of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra two dice of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

2. For every 4 additional power points you spend, this power can affect an additional secondary target.

Any additional secondary target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

ENERGY MISSILE

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Kineticist 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Targets: Up to five creatures or objects; no two targets can be more than 15 ft. apart.

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You release a powerful missile of energy of the chosen type at your foe.

The missile deals 3d6 points of damage to each creature or object you target, to the maximum of five targets.

You cannot hit the same target multiple times with the same manifestation of this power.

Cold: A missile of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold missile is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a missile of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A missile of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A missile of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6) and its save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY PUSH

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You project a solid blast of energy of the chosen type at a target, dealing it 2d6 points of damage.

In addition, if a subject of up to one size category larger than you fails a Strength check (DC equal to the save DC of this power), the driving force of the energy blast pushes it back 5 feet plus another 5 feet for every 5 points of damage it takes.

If a wall or other solid object prevents the subject from being pushed back, the subject instead slams into the object and takes an extra 2d6 points of damage from the impact (no save).

The movement caused by energy push does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

Cold: A blast of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die (damage from impact remains at 2d6 points).

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold push is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a blast of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A blast of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die (damage from impact remains at 2d6 points).

Sonic: A blast of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die (damage from impact remains at 2d6 points) and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6) and its save DC increases by 1.

The damage increase applies to both the initial blast and any damage from impact with an object.

ENERGY RAY

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You create a ray of energy of the chosen type that shoots forth from your fingertip and strikes a target within range, dealing 1d6 points of damage, if you succeed on a ranged touch attack with the ray.

Cold: A ray of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Electricity: Manifesting a ray of this energy type provides a +3 bonus on your attack roll if the target is wearing metal armor and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A ray of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A ray of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

ENERGY RETORT

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal and close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels); see text

Targets: You and creature or object attacking you; see text

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You weave a field of potential energy of the chosen type around your body.

The first successful attack made against you in each round during the power's duration prompts a response from the field with out any effort on your part.

The attack may be physical, the effect of a power, or the effect of a spell (including spell-like, supernatural, and extraordinary abilities).

An "ectoburst" discharges from the field, targeting the source of the attack and dealing 4d6 points of damage of the chosen energy type.

To be affected, a target must be within close range, you must have line of sight and line of effect to it, and you must be able to identify the source of the attack.

(For instance, if the attack comes from a foe that is hiding or invisible, you might not be able to identify the source; if you can't, the attacker isn't targeted by the ectoburst).

The ectoburst is a ranged touch attack made using your base attack bonus plus your key ability modifier for your manifesting class.

Cold: A field of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold retort is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a field of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A field of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A field of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 minute.

ENERGY STUN

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 5-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You release a powerful stroke of the chosen energy type that encircles all creatures in the area, dealing 1d6 points of damage to each of them.

In addition, any creature that fails its save for half damage must succeed on a Will save or be stunned for 1 round.

Cold: A stroke of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold stun is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a stroke of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A stroke of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A stroke of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6) and its save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY WAVE

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 120 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Fortitude half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

Upon manifesting this power, you choose cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You create a flood of energy of the chosen type out of unstable ectoplasm that deals 13d6 points of damage to each creature and object in the area.

This power originates at your hand and extends outward in a cone.

Cold: A wave of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

The saving throw to reduce damage from a cold wave is a Fortitude save instead of a Reflex save.

Electricity: Manifesting a wave of this energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: A wave of this energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: A wave of this energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra two dice of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ERADICATE INVISIBILITY

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 50 ft.

Targets: You and all invisible creatures and objects in a 50-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You radiate a psychokinetic burst that disrupts and negates all types of invisibility (though this power can't negate the effect of cloud mind).

Any creature that fails its save to avoid the effect loses its invisibility.

Creatures that are naturally invisible, such as an invisible stalker, are revealed as a dim outline for 1 round (until the beginning of your next turn) and do not have total concealment during this period.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's range and the radius of the burst in which it functions both increase by 5 feet.

FAR HAND

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: A nonmagical, unattended object weighing up to 5 lb.

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min.

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You can mentally lift and move an object at will from a distance.

As a move action, you can propel the object as far as 15 feet in any direction, though the power ends if the distance between you and the object exceeds the power's range.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's range increases by 5 feet.

2. For every additional power point you spend, the weight limit of the target increases by 2 pounds.

FIERY DISCORPORATION

Psychokinesis [Fire]

Level: Kineticist 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous and up to one day; see text

Power Points: 9

You use your mastery of energy to cheat death.

If you are within 30 feet of an open flame, you can use this power.

Any damage that would reduce you to 0 hit points or lower instead has a chance to disincorporate you.

You attempt a Will save (DC 5 + damage dealt); if it succeeds, you simply break apart into dozens of flitting tongues of flame and vanish, along with all your gear and anything you are holding or carrying.

One day later, you reappear adjacent to an open flame nearest to the place where you disincorporated, seeming to materialize from the fire (you choose where you appear along the perimeter of that open flame).

While disincorporated, you do not exist—you can do nothing, nor can any of your enemies do anything to you.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, you gain a +1 bonus on your Will save to determine whether you disincorporate.

FORCE SCREEN

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 1

You create an invisible mobile disk of force that hovers in front of you.

The force screen provides a +4 shield bonus to Armor Class (which applies against incorporeal touch attacks, since the force screen is a force effect).

Since it hovers in front of you, the effect has no armor check penalty associated with it.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, the shield bonus to Armor Class improves by 1.

INERTIAL ARMOR

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 1; see text

Your mind generates a tangible field of force that provides a +4 armor bonus to Armor Class.

Unlike mundane armor, inertial armor entails no armor check penalty or speed reduction.

Because inertial armor is composed of psychokinetic force, incorporeal creatures can't bypass it the way they do normal armor.

Your inertial armor can be invisible or can appear as a colored glow, at your option.

The armor bonus provided by inertial armor does not stack with the armor bonus provided by regular armor.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the armor bonus to Armor Class increases by 1.

INERTIAL BARRIER

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Auditory and mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 7

You create a skin-tight psychokinetic barrier around yourself that resists blows, cuts, stabs, and slashes, as well as providing some protection against falling.

You gain damage reduction 5/–.

Inertial barrier also absorbs half the damage you take from any fall.

INTELLECT FORTRESS

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius spread centered on you

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You encase yourself and your allies in a shimmering fortress of telekinetic force.

All damage from powers and psi-like abilities taken by subjects inside the area of the intellect fortress, including ability damage, is halved.

This lowering takes place prior to the effects of other powers or abilities that lessen damage, such as damage reduction and evasion.

Powers that are not subject to power resistance are not affected by an intellect fortress.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefits in an emergency.

Manifesting the power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You can use this power even when it's not your turn.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 round.

MATTER AGITATION

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 2 sq. ft. of surface area of an object or creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You can excite the structure of a nonpsionic, nonmagical object, heating it to the point of combustion over time.

The agitation grows more intense in the second and third rounds after you manifest the power, as described below.

1st Round: Readily flammable material (paper, dry grass, tinder, torches) ignites.

Skin reddens (1 point of damage).

2nd Round: Wood smolders and smokes, metal becomes hot to the touch, skin blisters (1d4 points of damage), hair smolders, paint shrivels, water boils.

3rd and Subsequent Rounds: Wood ignites, metal scorches (1d4 points of damage for those holding metallic objects).

Skin burns and hair ignites (1d6 points of damage), lead melts.

MY LIGHT

Psychokinesis [Light]

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Effect: 20-ft. cone of light emanating from you

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Power Points: 1

Your eyes beam forth a 20-foot cone of light.

You and other creatures can see normally in the light.

If you walk into an area filled with psionic or magical darkness, my light goes dark while you stay within that area.

If my light is used in conjunction with elfsight, the cone of light extends out to 40 feet instead of 20 feet.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

NULL PSIONICS FIELD

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 6

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: See text

Power Points: 11

An invisible barrier surrounds you and moves with you.

The space within this barrier is impervious to most psionic effects, including powers, psi-like abilities, and supernatural abilities.

Likewise, it prevents the functioning of any psionic items or powers within its confines.

A null psionics field suppresses any power or psionic effect used within, brought into, or manifested into its area, but does not negate it.

A creature under the effect of schism, for example, loses the benefit of the power while inside the field, but the schism resumes functioning when the creature leaves the field.

Time spent within a null psionics field counts against a suppressed effect's duration.

Astral constructs and summoned creatures wink out if they enter a null psionics field.

They reappear in the same spot once the field goes away.

Time spent winked out counts normally against the duration of the power that is maintaining the construct or summoned creature.

Creation powers with instantaneous durations and calling powers are not affected by a null psionics field because the power itself is no longer in effect, only its result.

A normal creature (a normally encountered construct rather than a created one, for instance) can enter the area, as can normal missiles.

Furthermore, while a psionic sword does not function psionically within the area, it is still a sword (and a masterwork sword at that).

The power has no effect on golems and other constructs that are imbued with magic during their creation process and are thereafter self-supporting (unless they have been summoned or have a limited duration, in which case they are treated like any other summoned creatures).

Elementals, corporeal undead, and outsiders are likewise unaffected unless summoned.

These creatures' spell-like or supernatural abilities, however, may be temporarily nullified by the field.

Dispel psionics does not remove the field.

Two or more null psionics fields sharing any of the same space have no effect on each other.

Certain powers may be unaffected by null psionics field (see the individual power descriptions).

Artifacts and deities are unaffected by mortal power such as this.

Should a creature's space extend across the boundary of the area enclosed by the field, any part of the creature that lies outside the effect is unaffected by the field.

REDDOPSI

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 7

Display: Auditory, mental, and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Until discharged or 10 min./level

Power Points: 13

When you manifest reddopsi, powers targeted against you rebound to affect the original manifester.

This effect reverses powers that have only you as a target (except dispel psionics and similar powers or effects).

Powers that affect an area and those that produce effects can't be reversed.

Reddopsi also can't reverse any power with a range of touch.

Should you rebound a power back against a manifester who also is protected by reddopsi, the power rebounds once more upon you.

STOMP

Psychokinesis

Level: Psychic warrior 1
Display: Auditory and visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: 20 ft.
Area: Cone-shaped spread
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Reflex negates
Power Resistance: No
Power Points: 1

Your foot stomp precipitates a psychokinetic shock wave that travels along the ground, toppling creatures and loose objects.

The shock wave affects only creatures standing on the ground within the power's area.

Creatures that fail their saves are thrown to the ground, become prone, and take 1d4 points of nonlethal damage.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's nonlethal damage increases by 1d4 points.

TELEKINETIC FORCE

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psion/wilder 3
Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)
Target: One object at a time
Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level
Saving Throw: Will negates (object); see text
Power Resistance: Yes (object)
Power Points: 5

You move an object by concentrating your mind upon its current location and then the location you desire, creating a sustained force.

You can move an object weighing no more than 250 pounds up to 20 feet per round.

A creature can negate the effect on an object it possesses with a successful Will save or with power resistance.

The weight can be moved across the ground or through the air.

This power ends if the object is forced out of range.

If you cease concentration, the object falls or stops.

You can drop a weight and pick up another during the power's duration, as long as you don't stop concentrating on maintaining the power.

An object can be telekinetically manipulated as if you were moving it with one hand.

For example, a lever or rope can be pulled, a key can be turned, an object rotated, and so on, if the force required is within the weight limitation.

You might even be able to tie or untie simple knots, though delicate activities such as these require Intelligence checks against a DC set by the DM.

If you spend at least 5 rounds concentrating on an unattended object, you can attempt to break or burst it as if making a Strength check, except that you apply your key ability modifier to the check instead of your Strength modifier.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the weight limit of the target increases by 25 pounds.

TELEKINETIC MANEUVER

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psion/wilder 4
Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)
Target: One creature
Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 7

You can affect a foe by concentrating your mind upon its current status and the status you desire, once per round. You can perform a bull rush, a disarm, a grapple (including a pin), or a trip.

Resolve these attempts as normal, except that they don't provoke attacks of opportunity, you use your manifester level in place of your base attack bonus (for disarm and grapple attempts), you use your Intelligence modifier in place of your Strength modifier or Dexterity modifier, and a failed attempt doesn't allow a reactive attempt by the target (such as normally allowed on disarm or trip attempts).

No save is allowed against these attempts, but power resistance applies normally.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power grants a +1 bonus on your checks involving bull rush, disarm, grapple, or trip attempts.

TELEKINETIC SPHERE, PSIONIC

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Kineticist 8
Display: Material
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Effect: 1-ft.-diameter/level sphere, centered around creatures or objects
Duration: 1 min./level (D)
Saving Throw: Reflex negates (object)
Power Resistance: Yes (object)
Power Points: 15

As Otiluke's telekinetic sphere (page 259 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

TELEKINETIC THRUST

Psychokinesis

Level: Psion/wilder 3
Display: Visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)
Target or Targets: One or more objects or creatures with a total weight of 250 lb. or less
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Will negates or Will negates (object); see text
Power Resistance: Yes or Yes (object); see text
Power Points: 5

You can affect one or more objects or creatures by concentrating your mind upon, sending them in a deadly hail at your foes—or simply by hurling your foe! You can hurl one object or creature per manifester level (maximum fifteen separate targets), as long as all are within the power's range and each is no more than 10 feet away from another one.

Each object or creature can be hurled a maximum distance of 10 feet per level.

You must succeed on ranged attack rolls (one per creature or object thrown) to hit the target of the hurled items with the items, applying your Intelligence modifier to the attack roll instead of your Dexterity modifier.

Hurled weapons deal their standard damage (your Strength bonus does not apply; arrows or bolts deal damage as daggers of their size when used in this manner).

Other objects deal damage ranging from 1 point per 25 pounds of weight (for less dangerous objects such as an empty barrel) to 1d6 points per 25 pounds of weight (for hard, dense objects such as a boulder).

Creatures are allowed Will saves (and power resistance) to negate the effect, as are those whose held possessions are targeted by this power.

If you use this power to hurl a creature against a solid surface, it takes damage as if it had fallen 10 feet (1d6 points).

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the weight limit of the target or targets increases by 25 pounds.

TORNADO BLAST

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 9

Display: Auditory and visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 40-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 17

You induce the formation of a slender vortex of fiercely swirling air.

When you manifest it, a vortex of air visibly and audibly snakes out from your outstretched hand.

If you want to aim the vortex at a specific creature, you can make a ranged touch attack to strike the creature.

If you succeed, direct contact with the vortex deals 8d6 points of damage to the creature (no save).

Regardless of whether your ranged touch attack hits (and even if you forgo the attack), all creatures in the area (including the one possibly damaged by direct contact) are picked up and violently dashed about, dealing 17d6 points of damage to each one.

Creatures that make a successful Reflex save take half damage.

After being dashed about, each creature that was affected finds itself situated in a new space 1d4×10 feet away from its original space in a random direction.

Walls and other barriers can restrict this relocation; in such a case, the creature ends up adjacent to the barrier.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's area damage (not the damage from direct contact dealt to a specific creature) increases by 1d6 points (to a maximum of 24d6 points).

For each extra 2d6 points of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

WEAPON OF ENERGY

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Range: Touch

Target: Weapon touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (object, harmless)

Power Resistance: None

Power Points: 7

As claw of energy, except this power can be manifested on a touched weapon.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy infused in the touched weapon.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

ADAPT BODY

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 5, psychic warrior 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 9

Your body automatically adapts to hostile environments.

You can adapt to underwater, extremely hot, extremely cold, or airless environments, allowing you to survive as if you were a creature native to that environment.

You can breathe and move (though penalties to movement and attacks, if any for a particular environment, remain), and you take no damage simply from being in that environment.

You need not specify what environment you are adapting to when you manifest this power; simply activate it, and your body will instantly adapt to any hostile environment as needed throughout the duration.

You can somewhat adapt to extreme environmental features such as acid, lava, fire, and electricity.

Any environmental feature that normally directly deals 1 or more dice of damage per round (such as lava, which deals 20d6 points of damage per round of immersion) deals you only half the usual amount of damage.

An attack form is not treated as an environment.

For example, even if you're adapted to extremely cold conditions, you are still vulnerable to psionic or magical attacks that deal cold damage.

AFFINITY FIELD

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (potentially harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

You create an affinity feedback loop with all creatures within the area.

While the duration lasts, affected creatures take all damage (including ability damage) as you do and heal all wounds as you do.

For instance, if you take 10 points of damage from a sword wound, all creatures within the area also take 10 points of damage.

On the other hand, if you are subject to healing psionics or magic, all creatures in the affinity field are also healed.

Hit points gained or lost persist after this power ends.

Creatures in range are also subject to magical and psionic effects of 3rd level or lower (you therefore couldn't grant all nearby subjects the effects of greater metamorphosis when you manifest it on yourself, for instance).

Creatures that have an affinity to you gain a saving throw against each new power transferred through the affinity field as if the power were manifested upon them normally.

All magical and psionic effects transferred to subjects fade at the end of this power's duration, although instantaneous effects remain, such as the effects of curing power.

If you suddenly become immune to a particular effect or power, such as might be the case if you manifested iron body on yourself, the effect or power to which you are immune cannot be transferred to creatures that have affinity to you.

For example, if you manifest animal affinity to gain an enhancement to your Strength score, so too do all creatures in range.

However, even though animal affinity lasts much longer, when affinity field ends, all affected creatures lose the benefit of whatever power or powers still remain in effect on you.

On the other hand, any hit point damage taken by subjects through the affinity field remains.

ANIMAL AFFINITY

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 3

You forge a psychometabolic affinity with an idealized animal form, thereby boosting one of your ability scores (choose either Strength, Dexterity, Constitution, Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma).

The power grants a +4 enhancement bonus to the ability score you choose, adding the usual benefits provided by a high ability bonus.

Because you are emulating the idealized form of an animal, you also take on minor aspects of the animal you choose (for instance, if you gain a +4 bonus to Strength, you may appear more bearlike; if gaining a +4 bonus to Dexterity, you may appear more catlike, and so on).

If you choose to increase the ability you use to manifest powers, you do not gain the benefit of an increased ability score long enough to gain any bonus power points for a high ability score, but the save DCs of your powers increase for the duration of this power.

Augment: For every 5 additional power points you spend, this power grants a +4 enhancement bonus to another ability.

ASSIMILATE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous and 1 hour; see text

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

Your pointing finger turns black as obsidian.

A creature touched by you is partially assimilated into your form and takes 20d6 points of damage.

Any creature reduced to 0 or fewer hit points by this power is killed, entirely assimilated into your form, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust.

An assimilated creature's equipment is unaffected.

A creature that is partially assimilated into your form (that is, a creature that has at least 1 hit point following your use of this power) grants you a number of temporary hit points equal to half the damage you dealt for 1 hour.

A creature that is completely assimilated grants you a number of temporary hit points equal to the damage you dealt and a +4 bonus to each of your ability scores for 1 hour.

If the assimilated creature knows psionic powers, you gain knowledge of one of its powers (chosen by the DM) for 1 hour.

You gain some semblance of a creature you completely assimilate for 1 hour, granting you a +10 bonus on Disguise checks made to appear as that creature during that time.

BIOFEEDBACK

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 1

You can toughen your body against wounds, lessening their impact.

During the duration of this power, you gain damage reduction 2/–.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, your damage reduction increases by 1.

BITE OF THE WOLF

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 1

Your posture becomes stooped forward, and you grow a muzzle complete with fangs.

You gain one bite attack each round, instead of or in addition to any other attacks you have, that deals 1d8 points of damage (assuming you are a Medium creature) when it hits.

Your bite attack is a natural weapon, so you are considered armed when attacking with it, and it can be affected by powers, spells, and effects that enhance or improve natural weapons (such as the magic fang spell).

You can choose to deal nonlethal damage with your bite, taking the standard -4 penalty on your attack roll.

If you bite as your only attack, you use your highest base attack bonus on the attack roll, and you can apply your full Strength bonus to damage.

If you bite in addition to making other attacks, the bite is a secondary attack.

If you are not a Medium creature, your bite attack's base damage varies as follows: Fine 1d2, Diminutive 1d3, Tiny 1d4, Small 1d6, Large 2d6, Huge 2d8, Gargantuan 4d6, Colossal 6d6.

Based on your psychic warrior level, your bite increases in ferocity as noted here: at 5th level your bite deals an extra 1d8 points of damage, at 10th level an extra 2d8, at 15th level an extra 3d8, and at 20th level an extra 4d8 points.

BODY ADJUSTMENT

Psychometabolism (Healing)

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 2

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: Psion/wilder 5, psychic warrior 3

You take control of your body's healing process, curing yourself of 1d12 points of damage.

As usual, when regular damage is healed, an equal amount of nonlethal damage is also healed.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power heals an additional 1d12 points of damage.

BODY EQUILIBRIUM

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Power Points: 3

You can adjust your body's equilibrium to correspond with any solid or liquid that you stand on.

Thus, you can walk on water, quicksand, or even a spider's web without sinking or breaking through (this effect does not confer any resistance to particularly sticky webs).

You can move at your normal speed, but you cannot run (×4 speed) on an unfirm surface without sinking or breaking through.

If you fall from any height while using this power, damage from the impact is halved.

BODY PURIFICATION

Psychometabolism (Healing)

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 2

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: Psion/wilder 5, psychic warrior 3

You restore up to 2 points of damage to a single ability score.

You cannot use body purification to heal ability drain.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power heals 1 additional point of damage to the same ability score.

BREATH OF THE BLACK DRAGON

Psychometabolism [Acid]

Level: Psion/wilder 6, psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Cone-shaped burst centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

Your mouth spews forth vitriolic acid that deals 11d6 points of acid damage to any targets in the area.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

CHAMELEON

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 2, psychic warrior 1

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Power Points: 1

Your skin and equipment take on the color and texture of nearby objects, including floors and walls.

You receive a +10 enhancement bonus on Hide checks.

CLAWS OF THE BEAST

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: see text

You call forth the aggressive nature of the beast inherent in yourself, psionically transforming your hands into deadly claws.

You gain two natural attacks with your claws, each dealing 1d4 points of damage (1d6 if you are Large, or 1d3 if you are Small) plus your Strength bonus.

Your claws are natural weapons, so you are considered armed when attacking with them, and they can be affected by powers, spells, and effects that enhance or improve natural weapons (such as the magic fang spell).

You can choose to deal nonlethal damage with your claws, taking the standard -4 penalty on your attack roll.

Your claws work just like the natural weapons of many monsters.

You can make an attack with one claw or a full attack with two claws at your normal attack bonus, replacing your normal attack routine.

You take no penalties for two-weapon fighting, and neither attack is a secondary attack.

If your base attack bonus is $+6$ or higher, you do not gain any additional attacks—you simply have two claw attacks at your normal attack bonus.

You can manifest this power with an instant thought, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the power on your turn before you attack.

Manifesting this power is a swift action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You cannot manifest this power when it isn't your turn.

You can call or dismiss the claws as a swift action during the duration of the power.

If you attack with a manufactured weapon or another natural attack, you can't make any claw attacks in that round.

You can still hold and manipulate items with your claws or cast spells just as well as you could with your hands.

Augment: If you spend additional power points, you can create larger, sharper, and more deadly claws, as shown on the table below.

Power Points	Claw Damage
	Small	Medium	Large
1	1d3	1d4	1d6
3	1d4	1d6	1d8
5	1d6	1d8	2d6
7	1d8	2d6	3d6
11	2d6	3d6	4d6
15	3d6	4d6	5d6
19	4d6	5d6	6d6

CLAWS OF THE VAMPIRE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 3

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 5

If you have a claw attack (either from an actual natural weapon or from an effect such as claws of the beast), you can use this power to change the nature of that weapon.

When this power is manifested, your claws take on an ominous glimmer.

Each time you make a successful claw attack against a living creature of Small or larger size, you are healed of some amount of damage.

You heal a number of hit points equal to half the base damage dealt by your claws of the vampire, rounded down (additional damage dealt because of a high Strength score or other enhancements does not count toward the amount you heal).

You heal as many hit points as can be gained while the creature remains at 1 hit point or higher.

Any damage that would reduce the creature to 0 or fewer hit points does not benefit you.

You do not heal damage if your attack deals nonlethal damage, such as when you attack a creature that has the regeneration ability.

Moreover, you gain no healing from attacking any creature that is under the effect of biofeedback.

Using fission on yourself and then attacking your duplicate also fails to grant any healing.

COMPRESSION

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 1

This power causes instant diminution, halving your height, length, and width and dividing your weight by 8.

This decrease changes your size category to the next smaller one.

You gain a $+2$ size bonus to Dexterity, a -2 size penalty to Strength (to a minimum effective Strength score of 1), a $+1$ size bonus on attack rolls, and a $+1$ size bonus to Armor Class due to your reduced size.

If your new size is Tiny, you have a space of $2\frac{1}{2}$ feet and a natural reach of 0 feet (meaning that you must enter an opponent's square to attack).

If your new size is Diminutive, you have a space of 1 foot and a natural reach of 0 feet.

This power doesn't change your speed.

All your equipment, worn or carried, is similarly reduced by the power.

Melee and projectile weapons deal less damage (see Table 2-3, page 28 of the Dungeon Master's Guide).

Other psionic or magical properties are not affected by this power.

Any affected item that leaves your possession (including a projectile or thrown weapon) instantly returns to its normal size.

This means that thrown weapons deal their normal damage (projectiles deal damage based on the size of the weapon that fired them).

Multiple effects that reduce size do not stack, which means (among other things) that you can't use a second manifestation of this power to further reduce yourself.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. If you spend 6 additional power points, this power decreases your size by two size categories.

You gain a +4 size bonus to Dexterity, a -4 size penalty to Strength (to a minimum effective Strength score of 1), a +2 size bonus on attack rolls, and a +2 size bonus to Armor Class due to your reduced size.

2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action instead of a standard action.
3. If you spend 2 additional power points, this power's duration is 1 minute per level rather than 1 round per level.

DISSOLVING TOUCH

Psychometabolism [Acid]

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or object touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Your touch, claw, or bite is corrosive, and sizzling moisture visibly oozes from your natural weapon or hand.

You deal 4d6 points of acid damage to any creature or object you touch with your successful melee touch attack.

Acid you secrete denatures 1 round after use, losing all efficacy and ability to deal damage.

You are immune to your own acid.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

DISSOLVING WEAPON

Psychometabolism [Acid]

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: One held weapon; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

As dissolving touch, except your weapon is charged with acid until you make a successful attack.

DUODIMENSIONAL CLAW

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 3

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 5

If you have a claw attack (either from an actual natural weapon or from an effect such as claws of the beast), you can use this power to improve that weapon.

One of your claws becomes two-dimensional, making it razor-sharp.

The weapon is now psionically keen, increasing its threat range from 20 to 19-20.

This benefit does not stack with other effects that improve a weapon's threat range.

The third spatial component of your hand still exists but is temporarily shunted into the Ethereal Plane, so against ethereal or incorporeal targets this power is ineffective.

ECTOPLASMIC FORM

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 5

You and all your gear become a partially translucent mass of rippling ectoplasm that generally conforms to your normal shape.

You gain damage reduction 10/psionics, and you gain immunity to poison and critical hits.

Your material armor (including inertial armor) becomes meaningless, although your size, Dexterity, deflection bonuses, and armor bonuses from force effects (such as those gained by inertial armor) still apply to your Armor Class.

You can manifest powers while in ectoplasmic form, but you must make a Concentration check (DC 20 + power level) for each power you attempt to manifest.

You cannot physically attack, you lose supernatural abilities (if any), and you can't speak while in ectoplasmic form.

You can't run, but you can fly at a speed of 20 feet (perfect). You can pass through small holes or narrow openings, even mere cracks, with all you were wearing or holding in your hands.

You are subject to the effects of wind, and you can't enter water or other liquid.

You also can't manipulate objects or activate items, even those carried along with you.

Continuously active items remain active, though in some cases their effects may be moot (such as items that provide armor or natural armor bonuses).

ELFSIGHT

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 1

You gain low-light vision (as an elf) for the duration of the power, as well as a +2 bonus on Search and Spot checks.

In addition, you gain the ability to notice secret or concealed doors by merely passing within 5 feet of one, getting to make a Search check as if you were actively looking for it.

If elfsight is used in conjunction with my light, the cone of light extends out to 40 feet instead of 20 feet.

EMPATHIC TRANSFER

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Willing creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

You heal another creature's wounds, transferring some of its damage to yourself.

When you manifest this power, you can heal as much as 2d10 points of damage.

The target regains a number of hit points equal to the dice result, and you lose hit points equal to half of that amount. (This loss can bring you to 0 or fewer hit points).

Powers and abilities you may have such as damage reduction and regeneration do not lessen or change this damage, since you are taking the target's pain into yourself in an empathic manner.

The damage transferred by this power has no type, so even if you have immunity to the type of damage the target originally took, the transfer occurs normally and deals hit point damage to you.

Alternatively, you can use this power to absorb one poison or one disease afflicting the target creature into yourself.

When you absorb a poison or disease, you do not take any of the damage previously dealt to the target by the affliction, but you do assume the burden of making the secondary and/or continuing Fortitude saves to combat the affliction.

Finally, you can use this power to transfer up to 1 point of ability damage per manifester level from the target to yourself.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, you can heal an additional 2d10 points of damage (to a maximum of 10d10 points per manifestation).

ENERGY ADAPTATION

Psychometabolism [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 7

Your body assimilates some of the effect of an energy attack and converts it to harmless light.

You gain resistance 10 against any attack that deals acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic damage.

When you absorb damage, you can choose to radiate visible light that illuminates a 60-foot radius for a number of rounds equal to the points of damage you successfully resisted, or merely dissipate the energy without giving off a visual display.

The energy resistance provided by this power increases to 20 points at 9th manifester level and to a maximum of 30 points at 13th level.

The power protects your equipment as well.

The resistance provided by this power does not stack with other forms of energy resistance.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of damage it protects against.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you can manifest this power as an immediate action.

ENERGY ADAPTATION, SPECIFIED

Psychometabolism [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Power Points: 3

As energy adaptation, except you must choose one type of energy to which you gain resistance when this power is manifested.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of damage it protects against.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you can manifest this power as an immediate action.

ENERGY CONVERSION

Psychometabolism [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal and close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels); see text

Effect: Ray; see text

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

As energy adaptation, except that instead of radiating away energy as light, you store up the energy and can later discharge it as a ray.

To discharge a ray requires a standard action.

You can choose to fire any number of rays during the power's duration.

The ray you fire must be of one of the energy types you have stored (if you have stored more than one type, you can choose what kind of energy to use for each ray).

If a ray successfully strikes its target (requiring a ranged touch attack), the target takes damage equal to the amount of energy damage of that type you have stored, up to a maximum of three times your manifester level.

As long as this power remains in effect, you can continue to absorb energy damage and fire additional rays using the stored damage.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you discharge in a ray; thus, its subtype can change during the course of the power's duration.

EVASIVE BURST

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 7, psychic warrior 3

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: Psion/wilder 13, psychic warrior 5

You throw off a faux ectoplasmic shell, allowing you to slide out of range of a damaging effect.

When you manifest this power in conjunction with making a successful Reflex save against an attack that normally deals half damage on a successful save (such as firefall), you instead take no damage.

You can manifest this power with an instant thought, quickly enough to save yourself if you unexpectedly come within range of a dangerous effect.

Manifesting this power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You can even manifest this power when it isn't your turn.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you take only half damage on a failed Reflex save.

EXHALATION OF THE BLACK DRAGON

Psychometabolism [Acid]

Level: Psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You spit forth vitriolic acid, originating from your mouth, at your target.

If you succeed on a ranged touch attack, the target takes 3d6 points of acid damage.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

EXPANSION

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 1

This power causes instant growth, doubling your height, length, and width and multiplying your weight by 8.

This increase changes your size category to the next larger one.

You gain a +2 size bonus to Strength, a -2 size penalty to Dexterity (to a minimum effective Dexterity score of 1), a -1 size penalty on attack rolls, and a -1 size penalty to Armor Class due to your increased size.

If your new size is Large or larger, you have a space of at least 10 feet and a natural reach of at least 10 feet (see Table 7-1, page 314 of the Monster Manual).

This power doesn't change your speed.

If insufficient room is available for the desired growth, you attain the maximum possible size and can make a Strength check (using your increased Strength score) to burst any enclosures in the process.

If you fail, you are constrained without harm by the materials enclosing you—you cannot crush yourself to death by increasing your size.

All your equipment, worn or carried, is similarly expanded by this power.

Melee and projectile weapons deal more damage (see Table 2-2, page 28 of the Dungeon Master's Guide).

Other psionic or magical properties are not affected by this power.

Any affected item that leaves your possession (including a projectile or thrown weapon) instantly returns to its normal size.

This means that thrown weapons deal their normal damage (projectiles deal damage based on the size of the weapon that fired them).

Multiple effects that increase size do not stack, which means (among other things) that you can't use a second manifestation of this power to further expand yourself.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. If you spend 6 additional power points, this power increases your size by two size categories instead of one.

You gain a +4 size bonus to Strength, a -4 size penalty to Dexterity (to a minimum effective Dexterity score of 1), a -2 size penalty on attack rolls, and a -2 size penalty to Armor Class due to your increased size.

2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action instead of a standard action.

3. If you spend 2 additional power points, this power's duration is 1 minute per level rather than 1 round per level.

FISSION

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 7

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Effect: Duplicate of yourself

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 13

You can divide yourself, creating a duplicate that comes into existence 5 feet away.

Your duplicate thinks and acts exactly as you do and follows your orders, although it will not do anything you wouldn't do yourself.

Your duplicate has all your abilities but none of your psionic or magical equipment (it does possess a duplicate of all your mundane equipment, clothing, armor, and implements, as well as mundane versions of any psionic or magical equipment you have).

You and your duplicate evenly split your power points, your remaining usages of pertinent special abilities for the day, and so on.

You retain your psionic focus, if you maintain such when this power is manifested.

Treat your duplicate as yourself with two negative levels for the purpose of determining the powers to which the duplicate has access (while the duration of this power lasts, those negative levels cannot be removed by any means).

Your duplicate has all other physical traits you had at the time you manifest this power.

Powers, spells, or other effects affecting you when you manifest this power do not transfer to your duplicate.

When the duration expires or when you dismiss the power, you and your duplicate rejoin, no matter how far from each other you are.

You gain back any power points the duplicate has not spent. At the time of rejoining, you take half of the damage your duplicate has taken since this power was manifested.

This damage could potentially leave you with negative hit points, but it can't reduce your hit points to less than -9. If your duplicate dies before the duration expires, no rejoining occurs, and you gain one negative level. If you die, your duplicate remains in existence, and is for all intents you, but with two negative levels. (Once the duration expires, one of the negative levels immediately converts to one lost level; the other negative level can be removed by standard means). You can have only one fissioned duplicate in existence at one time; your duplicate cannot use this power. You cannot use fusion or metacombat with a duplicate, or share any other power or effect that pools abilities (the sum of you and you is still just you). Similarly, attempting to use powers such as claws of the vampire or vampiric blade to hurt your duplicate only damages your duplicate; these powers do not heal you. Empathic transfer and similar powers are likewise ineffective (transferring wounds to yourself isn't a good healing strategy).

All powers affecting a fissioned creature, either the original or the duplicate, end when the fission ends.

All damage, including hit point damage, ability damage, ability drain, and ability burn damage, is added together.

FORM OF DOOM

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal; see text

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 11

You wrench from your subconscious a terrifying visage of deadly hunger and become one with it.

You are transformed into a nightmarish version of yourself, complete with an ooze-sleek skin coating, lashing tentacles, and a fright-inducing countenance.

You effectively gain a +10 bonus on Disguise checks, though you retain your basic shape and can continue to use your equipment.

This power cannot be used to impersonate someone; while horrible, your form is recognizably your own.

You gain the frightful presence extraordinary ability, which takes effect automatically when you charge a foe.

Opponents within 30 feet of you that have fewer Hit Dice or levels than you and that witness your charge become shaken for 5d6 rounds if they fail a Will save (DC 16 + your Cha modifier).

An opponent that succeeds on the saving throw is immune to your frightful presence for 24 hours.

Frightful presence is a mind-affecting fear effect.

Your horrific form grants you a natural armor bonus of +5, damage reduction 5/-, and a +4 bonus to your Strength score.

In addition, you gain +10 feet to your land speed as well as a +10 bonus on Climb and Jump checks.

A nest of violently flailing black tentacles sprout from your hair and back.

You can make up to four additional attacks with these tentacles in addition to your regular melee attacks in each round that you take a full attack action.

You can make tentacle attacks within the space you normally threaten.

If you make your tentacle attacks in addition to your regular melee attacks, each tentacle attacks at your highest base attack bonus with a -5 penalty.

If you forgo all your other attacks, making only tentacle attacks, you make your tentacle attacks at your highest base attack bonus with no penalty.

These tentacles deal 2d8 points of damage plus one-half your Strength bonus on each successful strike.

This power functions only while you inhabit your base form (for instance, you can't be metamorphed or polymorphed into another form, though you can use breath of the black dragon, claws of the beast, and bite of the wolf in conjunction with this power for your regular attacks), and while your mind resides within your own body.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 2 rounds.

FUSE FLESH

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates and Fortitude partial; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

You cause the touched subject's flesh to ripple, grow together, and fuse into a nearly seamless whole.

The subject is forced into a fetal position (if humanoid), with only the vaguest outline of its folded arms and legs visible below the all-encompassing wave of flesh.

The subject retains the ability to breathe, eat, and excrete, but may lose the use of its senses (see below).

If the sudden transformation would prove fatal to the creature (such as fusing a swimming air-breathing subject, or a flying subject), the subject gets a +4 bonus on the save. Unless it loses the use of its senses (see below), the creature can still perform purely mental actions, such as manifesting powers.

If the target fails its Fortitude save to avoid the power's effect, the subject must immediately attempt a second Fortitude save.

If this second save is failed, the creature's eyes and ears fuse over, effectively blinding and deafening it.

Moreover, it loses its extraordinary, supernatural, and spell-like abilities, as well as its ability to manifest powers (if any), and is generally in sorry shape.

Incorporeal or gaseous creatures and creatures not composed of flesh are immune to fuse flesh, and a shapechanger (such as a lycanthrope or a doppelganger) can revert to its unfused form as a standard action.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

FUSION

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 8

Display: Auditory, material, and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Touch

Targets: You and one touched willing creature of your type and your size or smaller

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 15, XP

You and another willing, corporeal, living creature of the same or smaller size fuse into one being.

As the manifester, you control the actions of the fused being.

However, you can give up this control to the other creature.

Once you give up control, you cannot regain it unless the other creature relinquishes it.

The fused being has your current hit points plus the other creature's current hit points.

The fused being knows all the powers you and the other creature know, has the sum of your and the other creature's power points, and knows or has prepared any spells you or the other creature possesses (if any).

Likewise, all feats, racial abilities, and class features are pooled (if both creatures have the same ability, the fused being gains it only once).

For each of the six ability scores, the fused being's score is the higher of yours and the other creature's, and the fused being also has the higher Hit Dice or manifester level—this effectively means the fused being uses the better saving throws, attack bonus, and skill modifiers of either member, and it manifests powers at the higher of the manifester levels that you or the other creature possessed before becoming fused.

You decide what equipment is absorbed into the fused being and what equipment remains available for use.

These fused items are restored once the power ends.

When the power ends, the fused being separates.

The other creature appears in an area adjacent to you that you determine.

If separation occurs in a cramped space, the other creature is expelled through the Astral Plane, finally coming to rest materially in the nearest empty space and taking 1d6 points of damage for each 10 feet of solid material passed through. Damage taken by the fused being is split evenly between you and the other creature when the power ends.

You do not leave the fusion with more hit points than you entered it with, unless you were damaged prior to the fusion and the fused being was subsequently healed.

In a like manner, the fused being's remaining power points are split between you and the other creature (you can leave with more points than you entered with, as long as you don't exceed the maximum power points for your level and ability score).

Ability damage and negative levels are also split between you and the other creature.

(If an odd number of negative levels or ability score reductions must be split, you decide whether you or the other creature receives the additional loss).

If a fused being is killed, it separates into its constituent creatures, both of which are also dead.

You cannot use fission on a fused being.

XP Cost: 50 XP.

GRAFT WEAPON

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 3

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 24 hours (D)

Power Points: 5

You attach any melee weapon you can use in one hand—mundane, psionic, or magical—onto the end of one of your arms.

The weapon becomes a natural extension of your arm, and that hand blends seamlessly into the shaft, hilt, or head of the weapon.

Now that the weapon and you are one, you gain a +1 competence bonus on all attack and damage rolls while using the weapon.

The grafted weapon is considered both a standard weapon and a natural weapon for the purpose of effects that distinguish between either weapon type.

For instance, the grafted weapon is treated as a natural weapon for the purpose of delivering a touch attack with a power in conjunction with the weapon attack.

As with any power (or spell) melee touch attack made in conjunction with a natural weapon attack, the touch attack effect is not delivered unless the natural weapon strikes normally; on a failed attack, the touch power (or spell) is wasted.

For a psychic warrior under the effect of the claws of the beast power, grafting a weapon means that attacks with this hand deal the base damage of the weapon, instead of the claw upon which a psychic warrior normally relies.

While your hand is grafted to a weapon, you lose the use of that hand and take a –2 penalty on all skill checks requiring the use of hands.

Powers that temporarily polymorph or metamorph you can ignore the grafted weapon or alter it normally, at your discretion.

If the weapon takes damage, you take damage as well.

If you are healed, so is your grafted weapon.

If your weapon is destroyed, you permanently lose 2 points of Constitution; the ability drain persists until you can restore your natural anatomy (by means of regenerate or a similar effect).

When this power's duration expires, the grafted weapon falls to the ground and your hand returns.

GRIP OF IRON

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 1

You can improve your chances in a grapple as an immediate action, gaining a +4 enhancement bonus on your grapple checks.

You can manifest this power with an instant thought, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the power in the current round.

Manifesting this power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round. You can manifest this power when it isn't your turn (if you are grappled).

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, the enhancement bonus on your grapple checks increases by 2.

HAMMER

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

This power charges your touch with the force of a sledgehammer.

A successful melee touch attack deals 1d8 points of bludgeoning damage.

This damage is not increased or decreased by your Strength modifier.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 round.

HUSTLE

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 3, psychic warrior 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Effect: 1 extra move action

Power Points: Egoist 5, psychic warrior 3

You gain an additional move action in the current round.

For instance, on your turn you could manifest this power to move into a position that would set up a charge, then take your normal action to charge an opponent.

Alternatively, you could manifest this power to move up to a foe, then take a full-round action to make attacks on your foe.

Taking a full round's worth of attacks and then using this power to move away from your foe does provoke attacks of opportunity.

You can manifest this power with an instant thought, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the power before you move.

Manifesting the power is a swift action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You cannot manifest this power when it isn't your turn.

IMMOVABILITY

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Concentration

Power Points: 7

You are almost impossible to move.

Your weight does not vary; instead, you mentally attach yourself to the underlying fabric of the plane.

Thus, you could conceivably anchor yourself in midair.

Any creature attempting to physically move you must succeed on an opposed Strength check, and you gain a +20 bonus on the check.

You can't voluntarily move to a new location unless you stop concentrating, which ends the power.

You cannot apply your Dexterity bonus to Armor Class; however, your anchored body gains damage reduction 15/-

You cannot make physical attacks or perform any other large-scale movements (you can make small-scale movements, such as breathing, turning your head, moving your eyes, talking, and so on).

Powers with the teleportation descriptor, or any telekinetic effect, manifested on you automatically fail.

Augment: If you spend 8 additional power points, you can manifest this power as an immediate action.

LEECH FIELD

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal; see text

Target: You

Duration: 1 min.

Power Points: 9

You raise a field of potentiality that drains the vitality from powers that you successfully save against.

When you succeed on a saving throw to negate the effect of a foe's power on you, and the power is one that leech field is effective against (see below), your body erupts in a brief flash of crackling dark energy.

You gain 1 power point for every 2 power points your foe spent to manifest the power you just saved against (to a maximum number of points equal to your manifester level).

You cannot gain power points that would cause you to exceed your normal daily maximum.

This power is effective against any power that targets a single creature and allows the target a saving throw to negate it, except those that are delivered by a touch attack or a ranged touch attack (including a ray).

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 minute.

METAMORPHOSIS

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 4

Display: Material and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D) for a creature; 1 hour/level (D) for an object

Power Points: 7

You assume the form of a creature of the same type as your normal form, or any other type except construct, elemental, outsider, and undead.

The assumed form can have as many Hit Dice as your manifester level, to a maximum of 15.

You can't assume a form smaller than Fine, nor can you assume an incorporeal, ectoplasmic, or gaseous form.

You cannot take the form of any creature that has a template.

Your type and subtype (if applicable) change to match the new form.

Upon changing, you regain lost hit points as if you had rested for a night (though this healing does not restore ability damage and provide other benefits of resting; and changing back does not heal you further).

If you are slain while under the effect of this power, you revert to your original form, though you remain dead.

You gain the Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution scores of the new form but retain your own Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores.

You also gain all extraordinary special attacks possessed by the form (such as constrict, improved grab, and poison) but do not gain the extraordinary special qualities possessed by the new form (such as blindsense, fast healing, regeneration, and scent) or any supernatural, psionic, or spell-like abilities.

You retain all supernatural and spell-like special attacks and special qualities of your normal form, except for those requiring a body part that the new form does not have, if any.

You keep all extraordinary special attacks and special qualities derived from class levels, but you lose any benefits of the racial traits of your normal form.

If you have a template, special abilities it provides are likewise not retained.

If the assumed form is capable of speech, you can communicate normally.

You retain any manifesting ability you had in your original form.

You acquire the physical qualities of the new form while retaining your own mind.

Physical qualities include natural size, mundane movement capabilities (such as burrowing, climbing, walking, swimming, and flight with wings, to a maximum speed of 120 feet for flying or 60 feet for nonflying movement), natural armor bonus, natural weapons (such as claws or a bite), racial bonuses on skill checks, racial bonus feats, and any anatomical qualities (presence or absence of wings, number of extremities, and so forth).

A body with extra limbs does not allow you to make more attacks (or more advantageous two-weapon attacks) than normal.

You can freely designate the new form's minor physical qualities (such as hair color, hair texture, and skin color) within the normal ranges for a creature of that type.

The new form's significant physical qualities (such as height, weight, and gender) are also under your control, but they must fall within the norms for the new form's species.

You are effectively disguised as an average member of the new form's race.

If you use this power to create a disguise, you get a +10 bonus on your Disguise check.

When the change occurs, your equipment either remains worn or held by the new form (if it is capable of wearing or holding the item in question) or melds into the new form and becomes nonfunctional.

When you revert to your normal form, any objects previously melded into the new form reappear in the same location on your body they previously occupied and are once again functional.

Any new items you wore in the assumed form and can't wear in your normal form fall off and land at your feet; any that you could wear in either form or carry in a body part common to both forms (mouth, hands, or the like) at the time of reversion are still held in the same way.

Any part of the body or piece of equipment that is separated from the whole reverts to its normal form.

You can also use this power to assume the form of an inanimate object.

You gain the object's hardness and retain your own hit points.

You can take the shape of almost any simple object you can think of, such as a chair, a sword, or a rug.

If you attempt to take the form of a complex object, you must make an appropriate skill check.

For instance, if you want to take the form of a beautiful painting, you must make a Craft (painting) check against a DC set by the DM to determine the quality of the painting. If you fail the check, your manifestation of the power does not succeed.

Likewise, you cannot take the form of a complex mechanical mechanism unless you have some sort of skill associated with the object.

You cannot use this power to assume the form of a psionic item or a magic item, or any object with a hardness of 15 or higher.

You also cannot take the form of a psionically animated mechanism or any object formed of ectoplasm.

As an inanimate object, you lose all mobility.

You retain your normal senses and your ability to speak.

You can manifest a power if you make a Concentration check (DC 20 + power level); however, doing so ends the duration of this power.

If you take damage while in the form of an object, your actual body also takes damage (but the object's hardness, if any, protects you).

METAMORPHOSIS, GREATER

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 9

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D) for a creature; 1 hour/level (D) for an object

Power Points: 17, XP

As metamorphosis, except that this power enables you to assume the form of any single nonunique object or creature (of any type) from Fine to Colossal size.

The assumed form cannot have more Hit Dice than twice your manifester level (to a maximum of 50 HD).

Unlike metamorphosis, this power allows incorporeal, ectoplasmic, or gaseous forms to be assumed.

You gain all extraordinary and supernatural abilities (both special attacks and special qualities) of the assumed form, but you lose your own supernatural abilities.

You also gain the type of the new form (for example, dragon or magical beast) in place of your own. The new form does not disorient you. Parts of your body or pieces of equipment that are separated from you do not revert to their original form. You can become just about anything you are familiar with. You can change form once each round as a swift action. The change takes place either immediately before your regular action or immediately after it, but not during the action. If you use this power to create a disguise, you get a +10 bonus on your Disguise check. As an inanimate object, you lose all mobility; however, you retain your ability to manifest powers normally. XP Cost: 200 XP.

METAPHYSICAL CLAW

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 1

If you have a claw attack (either from an actual natural weapon or from an effect such as claws of the beast) or a bite attack (which could be a natural bite attack or one you gain by means of the power bite of the wolf), you can use this power to provide one of your natural weapons a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, this power's duration increases to 1 hour per level.

In addition, for every 4 additional power points you spend, this power improves the natural weapon's enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls by 1.

OAK BODY

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 7, psychic warrior 5

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: Psion/wilder 13, psychic warrior 9

This power transforms your body into living oak, which grants you several advantages.

You gain damage reduction 10/slashing and a +5 bonus to natural armor that overlaps (does not stack with) any natural armor bonus you may already have.

You are immune to ability damage, blindness, deafness, disease, drowning, poison, stunning, and all powers, spells, or attacks that affect your physiology or respiration, because you have no physiology or respiration while this power is in effect.

You take only half damage from cold effects of all kinds.

However, you become susceptible to all special attacks that affect wood, and you gain vulnerability to fire (see page 317 of the Monster Manual).

You gain a +4 enhancement bonus to Strength, but you take a -2 penalty to Dexterity (to a minimum Dexterity score of 1), and your speed is reduced to half normal.

You can speak but cannot drink (and thus can't use potions) or play wind instruments.

You have an armor check penalty of -4 and an arcane spell failure chance of 25%.

Your unarmed attacks deal damage equal to a club sized for you (1d4 for Small characters, 1d6 for Medium characters), and you are considered armed when making unarmed attacks.

When you make a full attack against an object or structure using your unarmed strike, you deal double damage.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 minute.

PAINFUL STRIKE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 3

Your natural weapons cause additional pain.

Each successful attack you make with a natural weapon deals an extra 1d6 points of nonlethal damage to the target.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

PREVENOM WEAPON

Psychometabolism (Creation)

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Range: Touch

Target: Weapon touched

Power Points: 1

As prevenom, except your weapon gains the poison coating as long as it remains in your grip.

PREVENOM

Psychometabolism (Creation)

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level or until discharged

Power Points: 1

If you have a claw attack (either from an actual natural weapon or from an effect such as claws of the beast), you can use this power to produce a mild venom that coats one of your claws.

On your next successful melee attack, the venom deals 2 points of Constitution damage.

A target struck by the poison can make a Fortitude save (DC 10 + 1/2 your manifester level + your key ability modifier) to negate the damage.

Augment: For every 6 additional power points you spend, this power's Constitution damage increases by 2 points.

PSIONIC LION'S CHARGE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Mental

Casting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

You gain the powerful charging ability of a lion.

When you charge, you can make a full attack in the same round.

You can manifest this power with an instant thought, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the power as you charge.

Manifesting the power is a swift action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You cannot manifest this power when it isn't your turn.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, each of your attacks after a charge in the current round gains a circumstance bonus on damage equal to the number of additional points spent.

PSIONIC REVIVIFY

Psychometabolism (Healing) [Good]

Level: Egoist 5

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Dead creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9, XP

Psionic revivify lets a manifester reconnect a corpse's psyche with its body, restoring life to a recently deceased creature.

The power must be manifested within 1 round of the victim's death.

Before the psyche of the deceased has completely left the body, this power halts its journey while repairing somewhat the damage to the body.

This power functions like the raise dead spell (page 268 of the Player's Handbook), except that the affected creature receives no level loss, no Constitution loss, and no loss of powers.

The creature has -1 hit points (but is stable) after being restored to life.

XP Cost: 200 XP.

Augment: For every 100 additional experience points that both you and the subject pay, the manifestation of this power can be delayed by 1 additional round.

For example, if you and the subject both pay 500 XP to augment this power, it works on a creature that has been dead for up to 6 rounds.

PSIONIC SCENT

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 3

You gain an enhanced sense of smell, equivalent to the scent ability of some monsters.

This ability allows you to detect approaching enemies, sniff out hidden foes, and track by sense of smell.

With the scent ability, you can identify familiar odors just as humanoids do familiar sights.

You can detect opponents within 30 feet by sense of smell.

If the opponent is upwind, the range increases to 60 feet; if downwind, it drops to 15 feet.

Strong scents, such as smoke or rotting garbage, can be detected at twice the ranges noted above.

Overpowering scents, such as skunk musk or troglodyte stench, can be detected at triple normal range.

When you detect a scent, the exact location of the source is not revealed—only its presence somewhere within range.

You can take a move action to note the direction of the scent.

Whenever you come within 5 feet of the source, you pinpoint the source's location.

If you have the Track feat, you can follow tracks by smell, making a Wisdom (or Survival) check to find or follow a track.

The typical DC for a fresh trail is 10 (no matter what kind of surface holds the scent).

This DC increases or decreases depending on how strong the quarry's odor is, the number of creatures, and the age of the trail.

For each hour that the trail is cold, the DC increases by 2.

The ability otherwise follows the rules for the Track feat.

If you are tracking with psionic scent, you ignore the effects of surface conditions and poor visibility.

PSYCHIC VAMPIRE

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

This power shrouds your hand or a natural weapon you possess with darkness that you can use to drain an opponent's power.

If you manifest this power to affect your hand, the next successful melee touch attack you make (if the victim fails its Fortitude save) drains 2 power points from your foe for every manifester level you have.

The drained points simply dissipate.

Your touch attack, charged with psionic power, is treated as an armed attack.

If you manifest this power to affect a natural weapon you possess, you must make a successful melee attack with the weapon to gain the power's benefit.

Against a psionic being that has no power points (such as a psionic character with an empty power point reserve) or a nonpsionic foe, your attack instead deals 2 points of Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma damage (your choice).

PSYCHOFEEEDBACK

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 5, psychic warrior 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 9

You can readjust your body to boost one physical ability score at the expense of one or more other scores.

Select one ability score you would like to boost, and increase it by the same amount that you decrease one or more other scores.

All score decreases are treated as a special form of ability damage, called ability burn, which cannot be magically or psionically healed—it goes away only through natural healing (see page 67).

You can boost your Strength, Dexterity or Constitution score by an amount equal to your manifester level (or any lesser amount), assuming you can afford to burn your other ability scores to such an extent.

When the duration of this power expires, your ability boost also ends, but your ability burn remains until it is healed naturally.

For example, a 12th-level manifester can boost his Strength score by as much as 12 points if he takes 12 points of ability burn to any of his other five scores.

He might decide to split the points evenly between Charisma, Intelligence, and Wisdom, assigning 4 points of ability burn to each.

RESTORATION, PSIONIC

Psychometabolism (Healing)

Level: Egoist 6

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 3 rounds

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 11

This power cures all ability damage, and it restores all points drained from a single ability score (your choice if more than one score is drained).

It also eliminates any fatigue or exhaustion suffered by the target.

Restoration does not restore levels or Constitution points lost due to death.

Restoration can remove negative levels.

It can also restore one level to a creature who has had a level drained, if the number of days since the creature lost the level is equal to or less than your manifester level.

In such a case, restoration brings the creature up to the minimum number of experience points necessary to advance it to the next higher level, gaining it an additional Hit Die and level benefits accordingly.

RESTORE EXTREMITY

Psychometabolism (Healing)

Level: Egoist 5

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9

You restore a severed extremity to a creature that has lost a digit, hand, arm, leg, or even its head.

This power does not restore life, but it returns a lost extremity to a living or dead creature if the creature is otherwise mostly intact.

The original extremity need not be present when this power is manifested; a new extremity is created by the power.

If a head is restored to a body, the original head (if not already destroyed) loses all spark of identity, and can be considered so much dead tissue.

SHADOW BODY

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 15

Your body and all your equipment are subsumed by your shadow.

As a living shadow, you blend perfectly into any other shadow and vanish in darkness.

You appear as an unattached shadow in areas of full light.

You can move at your normal speed, on any surface, including walls and ceilings, as well as across the surfaces of liquids—even up the face of a waterfall.

Your space does not change, so you cannot move into locations you would not normally be able to move into.

While in your shadow body, you gain damage reduction 10/magic and darkvision out to 60 feet.

You are immune to extra damage from critical hits, ability damage, disease, drowning, and poison.

You take only half damage from acid, electricity, and fire of all kinds.

While affected by this power, you can be detected by powers that read thoughts, life, or presences (including true seeing), or if you make suspicious movements in lighted areas.

You cannot harm anyone physically or manipulate any objects, but you can use your powers normally.

Doing so may attract notice, but if you remain in a shadowed area, you get a +15 bonus on your Hide check to remain unnoticed.

SHARE PAIN

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Material and mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Targets: You and one willing creature, or two willing creatures; see text

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 3

This power creates a psychometabolic connection between you and a willing subject so that some of your wounds are transferred to the subject.

You take half damage from all attacks that deal hit point damage to you, and the subject takes the remainder.

The amount of damage not taken by you is taken by the subject.

If your hit points are reduced by a lowered Constitution score, that reduction is not shared with the subject because it is not a form of hit point damage.

When this power ends, subsequent damage is no longer divided between the subject and you, but damage already shared is not reassigned.

If you and the subject move farther away from each other than close range, the power ends.

You can manifest this power on two willing subjects, one of which you designate to share its damage with the other.

SHARE PAIN, FORCED

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

As share pain, except as noted here.

You attempt to force the sharing of your wounds with an unwilling creature, and for less time.

If you are immune to the type of damage dealt, or if you convert lethal damage into nonlethal damage, the target takes no damage.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

STRENGTH OF MY ENEMY

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 3

You gain the ability to siphon away your enemy's strength for your own use.

One of your natural or manufactured weapons becomes the instrument of your desire, and deals 1 point of Strength damage on each successful hit.

You gain that point of Strength as an enhancement bonus to your Strength score.

Strength you siphon from different foes is tracked separately—the total siphoned from each individual foe is considered a separate enhancement bonus to your Strength (maximum +8), and you gain only the highest total.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 3 additional power points you spend, the maximum enhancement bonus you can add to your Strength increases by 2.
2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

SUSPEND LIFE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 6, psychic warrior 6

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Permanent unless ended or dismissed; see text

Power Points: 11

You can place yourself into a trance so deep that you are almost in suspended animation.

Even powers that detect life or thought are incapable of determining that you are alive.

While you are suspended, you are aware of your surroundings.

You feel the passage of one day for every year that actually passes.

Though on a slower schedule, you grow hungry after a "day" without food (though a year passes in actuality) and begin to suffer the effects of thirst and starvation as appropriate.

If you take any damage, you come out of your trance 4 rounds later.

The trance can also be ended by a successful use of dispel psionics.

If you choose to dismiss the power, your trance ends 10 rounds later.

SUSTENANCE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

You can go without food and water for one day.

Each time you manifest this power, your body manufactures sufficient solid and liquid nourishment to satisfy your needs for that time.

SYNESTHETE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Power Points: 1

You receive one kind of sensory input when a different sense is stimulated.

In particular, you can either feel light or feel sound.

You can shift your stimulated sense between these two options once per round as a swift action.

Your senses continue to work normally as well, unless they are impaired for some reason.

Your face must be uncovered to use this power, because it is the skin of your face that acts as the sensory receiver.

If you are feeling light by absorbing ambient light onto your skin, you have your normal visual abilities (except for darkvision), even if your eyes are closed or you are blinded.

If your eyes are working normally, you gain a +4 circumstance bonus on all Spot and Search checks.

While feeling light, you are immune to gaze attacks.

If you are feeling sound by absorbing sound onto your skin and your ears are working normally, the expanded audio input provides you with a +4 circumstance bonus on Listen checks.

Psionic or magical displacement effects, invisibility effects, illusions, and other similar effects confuse your synesthete senses just as they would your normal senses.

You can also use this power to see sound if you are deafened, or hear light if you are blinded, thus removing all penalties associated with either condition (though you gain no bonuses for using the power in this way if you are not deafened or blinded).

THICKEN SKIN

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 1

Your skin or natural armor thickens and spreads across your body, providing a +1 enhancement bonus to your Armor Class.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 3 additional power points you spend, the enhancement bonus increases by 1.
2. If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

TOUCHSIGHT

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal; see text

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 5

You generate a subtle telekinetic field of mental contact, allowing you to “feel” your surroundings even in total darkness or when your sight would otherwise be obscured by your physical environment.

Your touchsight field emanates from you out to 60 feet.

You ignore invisibility, darkness, and concealment, though you must have line of effect to a creature or an object to discern it.

You do not need to make Spot or Listen checks to notice creatures; you can detect and pinpoint all creatures within 60 feet.

In many circumstances, comparing your regular senses to what you learn with touchsight is enough to tell you the difference between visible, invisible, hiding, and concealed creatures.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the radius of your touchsight field increases by 10 feet.

TRUE METABOLISM

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 15

You are difficult to kill while this power persists.

You automatically heal damage at the rate of 10 hit points per round.

This power is not effective against damage from starvation, thirst, or suffocation.

Also, attack forms that don't deal hit point damage (for example, most poisons) ignore true metabolism.

You can also use this power to regrow lost portions of your body and to reattach severed limbs or body parts, if you do nothing but concentrate on regrowing the lost body part or reattaching the severed limb for the duration of the power.

You do not gain the benefits described earlier when you manifest true metabolism for this purpose.

You must have a Constitution score to gain any of this power's benefits.

TRUEVENOM WEAPON

Psychometabolism (Creation)

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Range: Touch

Target: Weapon touched

Power Points: 7

As truevenom, except your weapon gains the poison coating as long as it remains in your grip, until the effect is discharged, or until the duration expires, whichever occurs first.

TRUEVENOM

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 4

Display: Material; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level or until discharged

Saving Throw: None and Fortitude negates; see text

Power Points: 7

If you have a claw attack (either from an actual natural weapon or from an effect such as claws of the beast), you can use this power to produce a horrible poison that coats one of your claws.

On your next successful melee attack with the claw during the power's duration, the poison deals 1d8 points of Constitution damage immediately and another 1d8 points of Constitution damage 1 minute later.

The target of your attack can negate each instance of damage with a Fortitude save.

VAMPIRIC BLADE

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 3

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 0 ft.

Target: One weapon you hold

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 5

As claws of the vampire, except your weapon is affected as long as it remains in your grip or until this power's duration expires.

VIGOR

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 1

You suffuse yourself with power, gaining 5 temporary hit points.

Using this power again when an earlier manifestation has not expired merely replaces the older temporary hit points (if any remain) with the newer ones.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the number of temporary hit points you gain increases by 5.

PSYCHOPORTATION

ASTRAL CARAVAN

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 3

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 hour

Range: Personal

Targets: You and touched willing creatures

Duration: See text

Power Points: 5

You lead a caravan into the Astral Plane, leaving the Material Plane behind.

Since the Astral Plane touches upon other planes, you can travel astrally to any of these other planes as you wish, but only if you know your way (see below).

You can bring other willing creatures with you, provided that these subjects have each manifested astral traveler and are linked hand to hand with you at the time of the astral caravan's manifestation.

These fellow travelers are dependent upon you and must accompany you at all times.

If something happens to you during the journey that causes you to break hand-to-hand contact, your companions are stranded wherever you leave them.

Because the planes are a dangerous place, those who lead astral caravans usually choose to manifest this power only if they have a large party of travelers assembled.

Sometimes groups of lower-level adventurers may hire you to lead forays beyond the Material Plane.

The astral caravan power lasts while you and your fellow travelers maintain your original formation, until (1) you reach your intended destination plane, (2) you desire to end the power while still traversing the Astral Plane, (3) you or anyone traveling with you breaks the hand-to-hand chain connecting the travelers for 2 consecutive rounds, or (4) the power is terminated by some outside means, such as dispel psionics.

When the power ends, you and your fellow travelers halt in whatever portion of the Astral Plane you happen to be traversing (the Astral Plane is in many ways subjective in location; in any event, one place on the Astral looks much like any other).

While you are traveling through the Astral Plane, those natives who happen to glimpse you and your fellow travelers perceive you to be moving at a speed of 30 feet (you can't run), with you flying in the lead and your fellow travelers strung out behind you, each linked to the next by one hand.

The DM determines the nature of the natives that may glimpse your passage, as well as their animosity, benevolence, or apathy.

The DM has encounter tables (in the Dungeon Master's Guide) suitable for the Astral Plane and any destination plane.

Depending on your knowledge of the planes, your journey through the subjective space that is the Astral Plane may take a longer or shorter period of time.

For each 24 hours you travel, make a Knowledge (the planes) check against a DC set by the DM.

Unless a location is particularly hard to find and well guarded, or conversely easy to find and well advertised, the average DC for an astral caravan journey should be set at 20.

You cannot take 20 on this check, though you can take 10. Each check may be modified by your degree of familiarity with the destination or by some connection you have with the place; see the tables below.

ASTRAL TRAVELER

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 hour

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

This power allows you or a creature you touch to participate in an astral caravan created through use of the astral caravan power.

While participating in a journey allowed by the astral caravan power, you must hold the hand of both your fellow passenger ahead of you (or the caravan leader) and your fellow passenger behind you (unless you happen to be the last in the hand-linked line).

If you or any one of your fellow passengers breaks the hand-to-hand link for 2 consecutive rounds, the impetus through the Astral Plane provided by astral caravan fails. See the astral caravan power for more information.

Each successful check indicates that you are one step closer to your goal.

To finally arrive at your location, you must succeed on six checks within a span of 12 days.

(If you fail to make six successful checks within the first 12 days, you can continue to make one check per day until you get the requisite six successes within a span of 12 consecutive days).

When you successfully make the requisite number of checks, the journey ends, and you appear on your chosen plane within 10–1,000 (1d%×10) miles of your intended destination on that plane.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, this power weaves a quasi-real filmy membrane around yourself and all those adjacent to each other in the caravan (being linked by hand is not required if this membrane is used). You remain visible within the translucent, amorphous enclosure.

You can pick up or drop willing passengers, easily reaching through the film.

Anything you hold is enveloped by the film.

Any attacks made through the enclosure in either direction have a 25% miss chance due to the rippling membrane.

When you manifest this power in its augmented form, your apparent speed to those observing on the Astral Plane is 40 feet, and you can make a Knowledge (the planes) check once every 12 hours to attempt to make it to your destination (six successful checks within 12 consecutive days still sees you to your desired goal).

referents that can be used by someone manifesting astral caravan. PCs may find these maps in the treasure of a defeated foe, or they may purchase maps selected by the DM in cities with a population of at least 25,000. On average, one of these maps costs 1,000 gp.

All those who are part of the caravan who are capable of performing purely mental actions, such as manifesting a power, may do so while maintaining hand-to-hand contact with their fellow travelers.

When astral travelers begin their journey, each one is connected to the Material Plane by an insubstantial silvery cord.

A githyanki silver sword (see page 167) is the only known weapon that can damage a silvery cord.

The last creature in the line of those making up the caravan is sometimes referred to as the rear guard, because he or she has one hand free and can use it to wield a weapon without relinquishing his or her grip on the next traveler in line.

The weightless, subjective environment of the Astral Plane allows the caravan to flex and bend as necessary to bring the rear guard's weapon to bear.

BALEFUL TELEPORT

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Nomad 5

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One corporeal creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

You psychoportively disperse minuscule portions of the subject, dealing 9d6 points of damage.

Targets can be protected from the effects of baleful teleport by dimensional anchor.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points. For each extra 2d6 points of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1 and your manifester level increases by 1 for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

BANISHMENT, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 6

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: One or more extraplanar creatures, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

As banishment (page 203 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Psions gain no benefit from presenting objects or substances that the target hates, fears, or otherwise opposes.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1 and your manifester level increases by 1 for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

BURST

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

This power increases your land speed by 10 feet.

(This adjustment counts as an enhancement bonus to speed).

You can manifest this power with an instant thought, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the power on your turn before you move.

Manifesting this power is a swift action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You cannot manifest this power when it isn't your turn.

CALL WEAPONRY

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psychic warrior 1

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: One weapon; see text

Duration: 1 min./level; see text (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You call a weapon "from thin air" into your waiting hand (actually, it is a real weapon hailing from another location in space and time).

You don't have to see or know of a weapon to call it—in fact, you can't call a specific weapon; you just specify the kind (longsword, shortbow, warhammer, or some other). If you call a projectile weapon, it comes with 3d6 nonmagical bolts, arrows, or sling bullets, as appropriate. The weapon is made of ordinary materials as appropriate for its kind.

If you relinquish your grip on the weapon you called for 2 or more consecutive rounds, it automatically returns to wherever it originated.

Weapons gained by call weaponry are distinctive due to their astral glimmer.

They are considered magic weapons and thus are effective against damage reduction that requires a magic weapon to overcome.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, this power improves the weapon's enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls by 1.

For example, if you spend 13 power points, you call a weapon with a +3 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls.

CATFALL

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Until landing or 1 round/level

Power Points: 1

You recover instantly from a fall and can absorb some damage from falling.

You land on your feet no matter how far you fall, and you take damage as if the fall were 10 feet shorter than it actually is.

This power affects you and anything you carry or hold (up to your maximum load).

You can manifest this power with an instant thought, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the power while you fall.

Manifesting the power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You can manifest this power even when it isn't your turn.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power reduces your damage as if the fall were an additional 10 feet shorter.

DECELERATION

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./level)

Target: One Medium or smaller creature

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You warp space around an individual, hindering the subject's ability to move.

The subject's speed (in any movement mode it possesses) is halved.

A subsequent manifestation of deceleration on the subject does not further decrease its speed.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect a target one size category larger.

DECEREBRATE

Psychoportation [Teleportation]

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

With decerebrate, you selectively remove a portion of the subject's brain stem.

The creature loses all cerebral function, vision, hearing, and other sensory abilities, and all voluntary motor activity. The subject becomes limp and unresponsive.

Without extreme measures, such as greater restoration or some other suitable effect of 7th level or higher, the creature perishes in 1d4 days.

DIMENSION DOOR, PSIONIC

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Target or Targets: You and touched objects or other touched willing creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None and Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: No and Yes (object)

Power Points: 7

As dimension door (page 221 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a move action.

DIMENSION SLIDE

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: You; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 5

You instantly transfer yourself from your current location to any other spot within range to which you have line of sight.

You can bring along possessions that amount to as much as a medium load, including living creatures that weigh as much as 20 pounds.

Movement caused by the use of dimension slide does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

If you somehow attempt to transfer yourself to a location occupied by a solid body or a location you can't see (which might happen if your perceptions are being controlled by a telepath), the power simply fails to function.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a move action.

DIMENSION SWAP

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Nomad 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: You and one ally in range, or any two allies in range; see text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 3

You instantly swap positions between your current position and that of a designated ally in range.

Alternatively, you can swap the positions of any two allies in range.

This power affects creatures of Large or smaller size.

You can bring along objects, but not other creatures.

Special: A psychic warrior can manifest this power to swap positions with an ally, but not to swap the positions of two allies.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect a target one size category larger.

DIMENSIONAL ANCHOR, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 4

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Ray

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 7

As dimensional anchor (page 221 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

DISINTEGRATE, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Auditory, material, and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial (object)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

A thin, green ray springs from your pointing finger. You must make a successful ranged touch attack to hit. Any creature struck by the ray takes 2d6 points of damage. Any creature reduced to 0 or fewer hit points by this power is entirely disintegrated, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust.

A disintegrated creature's equipment is unaffected.

When used against an object, the ray simply disintegrates as much as one 10-foot cube of nonliving matter.

Thus, the power disintegrates only part of any very large object or structure targeted.

The ray affects even objects constructed entirely of force, but not psionic effects such as a null psionics field.

A creature or object that makes a successful Fortitude save is partially affected, taking only 5d6 points of damage.

If this damage reduces the creature or object to 0 or fewer hit points, it is entirely disintegrated.

Only the first creature or object struck can be affected; that is, the ray affects only one target per manifestation.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the damage this power deals to a subject that fails its saving throw increases by 2d6 points.

Augmenting this power does not change the amount of damage the target takes if it succeeds on its saving throw.

DISMISSAL, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 4

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One extraplanar creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

As dismissal (page 222 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

DISSIPATING TOUCH

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or object touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 1

Your mere touch can disperse the surface material of a foe or object, sending a tiny portion of it far away.

This effect is disruptive; thus, your successful melee touch attack deals 1d6 points of damage.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

DIVERT TELEPORT

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action; see text

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: A circle, centered on you, with a radius of 50 ft. + 10 ft./level

Effect: Diverts the teleportation of any object or creature whose weight does not exceed your maximum load

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (foils diversion)

Power Resistance: Yes (foils diversion)

Power Points: 13

Similar to detect teleportation, except that you know the intended destination, and you can divert the final destination of any teleportation attempt made by others within the area.

This is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and counts toward the limit of one quickened power per round.

You can manifest this power even if it is not your turn.

You can divert the destination of both incoming and outgoing teleportations, psionic and magical.

You must overcome the power resistance of creatures that possess it to make a successful diversion, and the teleporting creature can make a Will save to foil the diversion as well.

For the purpose of this power, "divert" means you choose the actual destination of any teleportation attempt you can affect, as if you yourself were teleporting to that location, regardless of the teleportation range of the effect you are diverting.

The destination you choose must be a location with which you are very familiar or that you have studied carefully.

DREAM TRAVEL

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Targets: You and touched creature or creatures (up to one/level)

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

You and any creature you touch are drawn along a crystal arc of reverie to the edge of conscious thought and into the region of dreams.

You can take more than one creature along with you (subject to your level limit), but each one must be touching another one.

You physically enter the land of dreams, leaving nothing behind.

In the region of dreams, you move through a menagerie of thoughts, desires, and phantoms created by the minds of dreamers everywhere.

For every minute you move through dream, you can "wake" to find yourself five miles displaced in the waking world.

Thus, a character can use this power to travel rapidly by physically entering where only dreams normally prowl, moving the desired distance, and then stepping back into the waking world.

You know where you will come out in the waking world. Dream travel can also be used to travel to other planes that contain creatures that dream, but doing this requires crossing into the dreams of outsiders, where you are subject to the vagaries of many dream realities—a potentially perilous proposition, at your DM's option.

Transferring to another plane of existence in this fashion requires 1d4 hours of uninterrupted travel.

Any creatures that come along when dream travel is manifested also make the transition to the borders of unconscious thought.

A creature separated from you wanders off into the dreamscape.

When the duration ends, all affected creatures return to the waking world as much as 1,000 miles ($d\% \times 10$) from their starting point.

If a creature remains in the dreamscape, it is powerless to leave unless it can manifest the dream travel power itself or someone who manifests the power seeks out the lost creature.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ETHEREAL JAUNT, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 13

As ethereal jaunt (page 227 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

ETHEREALNESS, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Targets: You and one other touched willing creature/three levels; all targets must be joined by linked hands

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 17

As etherealness (page 228 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

FLOAT

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 1

You mentally support yourself in water or similar liquid.

You can swim at a speed of 10 feet using the power alone, or use it to boost your swim speed by 10 feet.

FLY, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 4

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 7

As fly (page 232 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 7

As freedom of movement (page 233 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

KNOCK, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One door, box, or chest with an area of up to 10 sq. ft./level

Duration: Instantaneous; see spell text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

As knock (page 246 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

LEVITATE, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 2, psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal or close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: You or one willing creature or one object (total weight up to 100 lb./level)

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 3

As levitate (page 248 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Special: When a psion, wilder, or a psychic warrior manifests this power, the target is the manifester (not a willing creature or an object).

OVERLAND FLIGHT, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 11

As overland flight (page 259 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

PHASE DOOR, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: Ethereal 5-ft. by 8-ft. opening, 10 ft. deep + 5 ft. deep per three levels

Duration: One usage per two levels

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 13

As phase door (page 261 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

This power is subject to dispel psionics.

PLANE SHIFT, PSIONIC

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Targets: Willing creature touched, or up to eight willing creatures joining hands

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 9

As plane shift (page 262 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

PSIONIC LOCK

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Door, chest, or portal touched, up to 30 sq. ft./level in size

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

A psionic lock manifested upon a door, chest, or portal psionically locks it.

You can freely pass your own lock without affecting it; otherwise, a door or object secured with psionic lock can be opened only by breaking in or by a successful dispel psionics effect.

Add +10 to the normal DC to break open a door or portal affected by this power.

RETRIEVE

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One object you can hold or carry in one hand, weighing up to 10 lb./level

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

You automatically teleport an item you can see within range directly to your hand.

If the object is in the possession of an opponent, it comes to your hand if your opponent fails a Will save.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the weight limit of the target increases by 10 pounds.

SKATE

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal or touch; see text

Target: You or one willing creature or one unattended object (total weight up to 100 lb./level); see text

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 1

You, another willing creature, or an unattended object can slide along solid ground as if on smooth ice.

If you manifest skate on yourself or another creature, the subject of the power retains equilibrium by mental desire alone, allowing her to gracefully skate along the ground, turn, or stop suddenly as desired.

The skater's land speed increases by 15 feet.

(This adjustment is treated as an enhancement bonus).

As with any effect that increases speed, this power affects the subject's maximum jumping distance.

The subject can skate up or down any incline or decline she could normally walk upon without mishap, though skating up an incline reduces the subject's speed to normal, while skating down a decline increases her speed by an additional 15 feet.

(This adjustment is treated as a circumstance bonus).

If you manifest skate on an object, treat the object as having only one-tenth of its normal weight for the purpose of dragging it along the ground.

TELEPORT TRIGGER

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Nomad 5

Display: Material
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 9
You specify a situation that triggers your automatic manifestation of a psionic teleport, taking you to a predetermined location.

You must know the psionic teleport power and have sufficient power points to manifest it when the specified situation occurs.

The teleport trigger goes off on the initiative count immediately after the specified situation occurs, even if you are flat-footed or you have already taken your turn in the current round.

The specified situation can be described in general terms (“if I’m attacked”) or specific terms (“if my hit points drop to 9 or lower”).

TELEPORT, PSIONIC GREATER

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Power Points: 15

As greater teleport (page 293 of the Player’s Handbook), except as noted here.

TELEPORT, PSIONIC

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Nomad 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal and touch

Target or Targets: You and touched objects or other touched willing creatures

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None or Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: No or Yes (object)

Power Points: 9

As teleport (page 292 of the Player’s Handbook), except as noted here.

TELEPORTATION CIRCLE, PSIONIC

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Nomad 9

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: 5-ft.-radius circle that teleports those who activate it

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

As teleportation circle (page 293 of the Player’s Handbook), except as noted here.

TEMPORAL ACCELERATION

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round (in apparent time); see text

Power Points: 11

You enter another time frame, speeding up so greatly that all other creatures seem frozen, though they are actually still moving at normal speed.

You are free to act for 1 round of apparent time.

You can manifest powers, cast spells, move, or perform other types of actions, subject to the restrictions outlined below.

While your temporal acceleration is in effect, other creatures are invulnerable to your attacks and powers.

This means you cannot target a creature with any attack or power.

However, a power you manifest that affects an area and has a duration longer than the remaining duration of your temporal acceleration has its normal effect on creatures in the area once this power ends.

You can affect an unattended object but not an object held, carried, or worn by another creature.

You are undetectable by any means while your temporal acceleration lasts.

While under the effect of this power, you cannot enter an area protected by a null psionics field or by a power or spell that neutralizes high-level powers or spells.

Normal and magical fire, cold, acid, and the like can still harm you.

When your temporal acceleration expires, you resume acting during your current turn in the standard time frame.

You are shaken for 1 round upon your return to the standard time frame.

Splintered or partitioned minds within your own mind, such as might be in effect through the use of powers such as schism, are not temporally speeded up, even if your second mind manifested this power (your primary mind gains the benefit, while your second mind remains stuck in the standard time frame).

Manifesting this power is a swift action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You cannot manifest this power when it isn’t your turn.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, this power’s duration (in apparent time) increases by 1 round.

TIME HOP

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: One Medium or smaller creature, or one object weighing 300 lb. or less

Duration: 1 round/level; see text

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

The subject of the power hops forward in time 1 round for every manifester level you have.

In effect, the subject seems to disappear in a shimmer of silver energy, then reappear after the duration of this power expires.

The subject reappears in exactly the same orientation and condition as before.

From the subject's point of view, no time has passed at all. In each round of the power's duration, on what would have been the subject's turn, it can attempt a DC 15 Wisdom check.

Success allows the subject to return.

The subject can act normally on its next turn after this power ends.

If the space from which the subject departed is occupied upon his return to the time stream, he appears in the closest unoccupied space, still in his original orientation. Determine the closest space randomly if necessary.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can affect a creature of one size category larger, or double the weight of an object to be affected.

2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

TIME HOP, MASS

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 8

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: All willing creatures in range

Duration: Up to 1 hour/level; see text

Power Points: 15

As time hop, except you can affect any number of willing subjects in range, including yourself.

You can choose which creatures are affected by the power.

The subjects hop forward in time a number of hours equal to your manifester level, or some shorter number of hours; you decide how many hours the mass time hop lasts when you manifest the power.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as an immediate action.

TIME REGRESSION

Psychoportation

Level: Nomad 9

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 17, XP

You can regress apparent time 1 round into the past.

In effect, you "replay" the previous round of activity.

The power regresses time to the point along the time stream just prior to your previous turn, undoing the effects of everyone else's actions in the meantime.

Once you have used time regression, only you retain knowledge of what happened during the round that is being replayed; however, you can communicate that knowledge verbally to your companions, if desired.

During the round that you live through a second time, you can act on knowledge you previously gained by already living through the immediate future.

In all likelihood, you'll probably not choose to manifest time regression during your second pass through the time stream, instead taking completely new actions, but you pay the XP cost all the same.

XP Cost: 1,000 XP.

TIMELESS BODY

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 17

Your body ignores all harmful (and helpful) effects, beginning when you finish manifesting this power and ending at the end of your next turn.

While timeless body is in effect, you are invulnerable to all attacks and powers.

This power cannot be quickened.

WALL WALKER

Psychoportation

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 3

You can walk on vertical surfaces or even traverse ceilings (you need not make Climb checks to traverse these surfaces).

Because of the need to keep at least one foot in contact with the wall or ceiling at all times, you cannot jump or use the run action, and you can move at only half speed.

You retain your Dexterity bonus to Armor Class, if any, and opponents gain no special bonuses against you.

TELEPATHY

APOPSI

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Display: Auditory, material, and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living psionic creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17, XP

By using this power, you delete 1d4 powers permanently from the subject's mind.

You specify the level of each power, and the DM randomly determines which of the subject's powers is actually deleted.

Psychic surgery or reality revision can be used to restore the lost powers, but it must be performed within 1 week of losing the powers.

XP Cost: 50 XP per level of the deleted powers.

ATTRACTION

Telepathy (Charm) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You plant a compelling attraction in the mind of the subject.

The attraction can be toward a particular person or an object.

The subject will take reasonable steps to meet, get close to, attend, or find the object of its implanted attraction.

For the purpose of this power, "reasonable" means that, while attracted, the subject doesn't suffer from blind obsession.

He will act on this attraction only when not engaged in combat.

The subject won't leap into a fire or over a cliff, or climb into the jaws of a dragon.

He can still recognize danger but will not flee unless the threat is immediate.

If you make the subject feel an attraction to yourself, you can't command him indiscriminately, although he will be willing to listen to you (even if he disagrees).

This power grants you a +4 bonus on any interaction checks you make involving the subject (such as Bluff, Diplomacy, Intimidate, and Sense Motive).

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1 and the bonus on interaction checks increases by 1.

AURA ALTERATION

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One willing creature

Duration: 10 min./level or instantaneous; see text

Power Points: 11

You can use this power in one of two ways: to disguise the subject's aura (alignment) and level, or to remove a compulsion or charm effect from the subject.

Disguise: If you use this power to disguise the subject's alignment and level, the power has a duration of 10 minutes per level.

You can change the subject's alignment by only one step.

For instance, you could not make a chaotic evil creature appear lawful good, but you could make it appear chaotic neutral or neutral evil.

You can adjust the subject's apparent level up or down by a number equal to one-half your own level (rounded down) or less.

Remove Compulsion: If you use this power to attempt to cleanse the subject's aura of a baleful or controlling effect, the duration is instantaneous.

This power can remove the compulsion of a curse or a geas/quest effect.

It can also negate any charm and compulsion powers of 6th level or lower, such as crisis of breath or death urge.

When aura alteration is manifested for this purpose, the subject gains another saving throw to remove the compulsion afflicting it against the original save DC, but with a +2 bonus.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional power point you spend, the duration of the disguise aura increases by 10 minutes.

2. If you spend 2 additional power points, the subject's alignment shifts an additional step (chaotic evil to lawful evil, for instance); if you spend 4 additional power points, the subject's alignment changes to its opposite (chaotic evil to lawful good, for instance).

AVERSION

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 2

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You plant a powerful aversion in the mind of the subject.

If the object of the implanted aversion is an individual or a physical object, she will prefer not to approach within 30 feet of it.

If it is a word, she will try not to utter it; if it is an action, she will not willingly attempt to perform it; and if it is an event, she will not willingly attend it.

The subject will take reasonable steps to avoid the object of its aversion, but will not put herself in jeopardy by doing so.

For instance, you could make a subject have an aversion to fighting or to her sword, but if fighting is the only way to save herself, she'll ignore the aversion until the threat is over.

If the subject is forced into taking an action she has an aversion to, she takes a -2 penalty on any attack rolls, ability checks, or skill checks involved.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1 and the duration increases by 1 hour.

BESTOW POWER

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Target: One psionic creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You link your mind with another psionic creature's mind, creating a brief conduit through which mental energy can be shared.

When you manifest this power, the subject gains up to 2 power points.

You can transfer only as many power points to a subject as it has manifester levels.

Because of the intimate nature of this power, it cannot be fabricated into a psionic item—only power points generated by a psionic creature in the moment can be shared using bestow power.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, the subject gains 2 additional power points.

BRAIN LOCK

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 2

Display: Material and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One humanoid

Duration: Concentration + 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

The subject's higher mind is locked away.

He stands dazed, unable to take any psionic actions (including manifesting powers or using psionic feats that require a decision to be used) nor any mental actions at all.

A brain locked subject is not stunned, so attackers get no special advantage against him.

A brain locked flyer must descend to the closest safe level area below it.

An air-breathing swimmer must make for the surface.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. If you spend 2 additional power points, this power can also affect an animal, fey, giant, magical beast, or monstrous humanoid.

2. If you spend 4 additional power points, this power can also affect an aberration, dragon, elemental, or outsider in addition to the creature types mentioned above.

CALL TO MIND

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 1

By meditating on a subject, you can recall natural memories and knowledge otherwise inaccessible to you.

On a failed Knowledge check, you can manifest this power to gain a new check with a +4 competence bonus.

If successful, you instantly recall what was previously buried in your subconscious.

CATAPSI

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 5, psychic warrior 5

Display: Mental and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

By manifesting this power, you generate psychic static, interfering with the ability of other psionic characters to manifest their powers or use psi-like abilities (you are not affected by your own catapsi manifestation).

All psionic activity within the area requires 4 more power points to manifest than normal, unless a character makes a Will save each time he attempts to manifest a power.

Using a psi-like ability becomes a full-round action, instead of a standard action, in a catapsi field.

If two or more fields of catapsi overlap, the effects are not cumulative.

The limit on the number of power points a subject can spend on a power remains in effect; thus, a subject may not be able to manifest its highest-level powers.

If manifesting a power would cause the manifester to exceed his available power points or his spending limits, the manifestation fails automatically, but no power points are expended.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, this power's range and the radius of its area both increase by 5 feet.

CHARM, PSIONIC

Telepathy (Charm) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One humanoid

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

As charm person (page 209 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. If you spend 2 additional power points, this power can also affect an animal, fey, giant, magical beast, or monstrous humanoid.

2. If you spend 4 additional power points, this power can also affect an aberration, dragon, elemental, or outsider in addition to the creature types mentioned above.

3. If you spend 4 additional power points, this power's duration increases to one day per level.

In addition, for every 2 additional power points you spend to achieve any of these effects, this power's save DC increases by 1.

For example, if you spend 8 additional power points (4 to affect an aberration and 4 to increase the duration), this power's save DC increases by 4.

CLOUD MIND

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You make yourself completely undetectable to the subject by erasing all awareness of your presence from its mind.

This power has the following effects.

First, you are invisible and inaudible to the creature.

It cannot even detect your presence by means of blindsense, blindsight, scent, or tremorsense.

It cannot pinpoint your location by any means.

Second, the subject remains unaware of your actions, provided you do not make any attacks or cause any obvious or directly threatening changes in the subject's environment.

For example, you could open a door and slip out without the subject noticing, but if you opened a door and let in allies that the subject can see, it would note the arrival of those allies.

You could remove a hand-sized, unattended object from the subject's presence without risking notice, but moving a larger object or an attended object might end the effect (see below).

If you attack the subject creature, the effect ends.

If you take an action that creates a sustained and obvious change in the subject's environment—for example, attacking a creature aside from the subject or moving a large or attended object the subject can see—the subject immediately gains a new saving throw against the power.

An ally of the subject creature that is able to see or perceive you can use a move action to warn the subject and thereby grant it a new saving throw.

CLOUD MIND, MASS

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Target: One creature/level

Power Points: 11

As cloud mind, except as noted above.

Each creature is affected individually; it's possible for you to cloud the minds of half a band of trolls, while the trolls that succeeded on their saving throws perceive you normally.

CONCEAL THOUGHTS

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One willing creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

You protect the subject's thoughts from analysis.

While the duration lasts, the subject gains a +10 circumstance bonus on Bluff checks against those attempting to discern its true intentions with Sense Motive.

It also gains a +4 bonus on its saving throw against any power or spell used to read its mind (such as read thoughts or mind probe).

CO-OPT CONCENTRATION

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 6

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

You take over control of a power that was manifested by the subject and that must be maintained through concentration.

Once you wrest control of the power from the subject, you have several options.

- Allow the power to function as normal.
- Keep the power targeted on the subject (if a personal power) but decide how the power fulfills its function each round.
- Retarget the power on yourself (if a personal power).
- Choose not to concentrate on the co-opted power in the next round, ending the power at that point.

When the duration of co-opt concentration expires, the power you took control of ends (even if this would mean that the power ends earlier than normal).

CORRESPOND

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: See text

Target: One creature with an Intelligence score of 3 or higher

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You forge a passive mental link with a creature with which you have previously had physical or mental contact.

The subject need not be within sight or even on the same plane as you are.

The subject recognizes you, and you can mentally communicate with it for the duration (though nothing forces the subject to respond to you), exchanging messages of twenty-five words or less once per round. Receiving a message is not an action and does not provoke attacks of opportunity; however, sending a message is equivalent to a standard action that can provoke attacks of opportunity.

CRISIS OF BREATH

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One breathing humanoid

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates, Fortitude partial; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You compel the subject to purge its entire store of air in one explosive exhalation, and thereby disrupt the subject's autonomic breathing cycle.

The subject's lungs do not automatically function again while the power's duration lasts.

If the target succeeds on a Will save when crisis of breath is manifested, it is unaffected by this power.

If it fails its Will save, it can still continue to breathe by taking a standard action in each round to gasp for breath.

An affected creature can attempt to take actions normally (instead of consciously controlling its breathing), but each round it does so, beginning in the round when it failed its Will save, the subject risks blacking out from lack of oxygen.

It must succeed on a Fortitude save at the end of any of its turns in which it did not consciously take a breath.

The DC of this save increases by 1 in every consecutive round after the first one that goes by without a breath; the DC drops back to its original value if the subject spends an action to take a breath.

If a subject fails a Fortitude save, it is disabled (0 hp).

In the following round, it drops to -1 hit points and is dying.

Curing powers or spells can revive a dying subject normally, so long as this power's duration has expired; if the power is still in effect, a revived creature is still subject to Fortitude saves in each round when it does not consciously breathe.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. If you spend 2 additional power points, this power can also affect an animal, fey, giant, magical beast, or monstrous humanoid.
2. If you spend 4 additional power points, this power can also affect an aberration, dragon, elemental, or outsider in addition to the creature types mentioned above.
3. If you spend 6 additional power points, this power can affect up to four creatures all within a 20-ft.-radius burst. In addition, for every 2 additional power points you spend to achieve any of these effects, this power's save DC increases by 1.

For example, if you spend 10 additional power points (4 to affect an aberration and 6 to increase the number of targets), this power's save DC increases by 5.

CRISIS OF LIFE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting, Death]

Level: Telepath 7

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

You interrupt the subject's autonomic heart rhythm, killing it instantly on a failed saving throw if it has 11 Hit Dice or less.

If the target makes its saving throw or has more than 11 Hit Dice, it takes 7d6 points of damage.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power can kill a subject that has Hit Dice equal to 11 + the number of additional points.

DAZE, PSIONIC

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Material and mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One humanoid creature that has 4 HD or less

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

As daze (page 217 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power can affect a target that has Hit Dice equal to 4 + the additional points.

DEATH URGE

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You plant a hidden death-urge impulse in the subject's unconscious.

On the subject's next turn, it looks for the quickest method to end its life and attempts to do so.

The subject takes no other action on its turn except attempting to harm itself.

If armed, the subject attacks itself as a full-round action. The attack automatically succeeds and deals damage as a critical hit.

If unarmed, the subject moves adjacent to the nearest enemy and provokes an attack of opportunity, offering its opponent an opening, which the opponent may or may not choose to take advantage of.

If the subject is unarmed and no enemy is nearby, the subject simply does nothing at all.

At the Dungeon Master's option, a subject close to an immediate and lethal hazard such as a cliff or a fire might hurl itself off the cliff or into the fire instead of striking itself with a weapon.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 2 and its duration increases by 1 round.

DÉJÀ VU

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

Your mental impulse forces the subject to repeat the actions it took on its previous turn.

If the situation has changed in such a way that the subject can't take the same actions again (if its foe is dead, or the subject has run out of power points, and so on), the subject stands still and takes no actions for 1 round.

In any event, the subject can still defend itself, and it retains its Dexterity bonus to AC even if it stands still.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

DEMORALIZE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Mental and olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius spread centered on you

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You fill your enemies with self-doubt.

Any enemy in the area that fails its save becomes shaken for the duration of the power.

Allies and creatures without an Intelligence score are unaffected.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's range and the radius of its area both increase by 5 feet, and the power's save DC increases by 1.

DETECT HOSTILE INTENT

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

While the duration of this power lasts, you become aware of the presence of any creatures with hostile intent within 30 feet of you, and their direction from you (but not their specific location).

The power detects active aggression, as opposed to vigilance.

For instance, if you walk up to a door with an assassin behind it, you sense that hostility is somehow associated with the door.

However, a soldier assigned to guard the door would not register.

In addition, while this power is active you cannot be surprised or caught flat-footed by creatures that are susceptible to mind-affecting powers.

While under the effect of this power, you can make Sense Motive checks as a free action against anyone within 30 feet of you.

The power can penetrate barriers, but 3 feet of stone, 3 inches of common metal, 1 inch of lead, or 6 feet of wood or dirt blocks it.

DISABLE

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped emanation centered on you

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You broadcast a mental compulsion that convinces one or more creatures of 4 Hit Dice or less that they are disabled (see page 307 of the Player's Handbook).

Creatures with the fewest HD are affected first.

Among creatures with equal Hit Dice, those who are closest to the power's point of origin are affected first.

Hit Dice that are not sufficient to affect a creature are wasted.

Creatures that are rendered helpless or are destroyed when they reach 0 hit points cannot be affected.

Creatures affected by this power believe that they have somehow been brought to the brink of unconsciousness and must act accordingly.

While it's possible for an important nonplayer character to attempt some sort of "heroic" action, common NPCs and creatures under the effect of this power typically cower or retreat.

Any creature that attempts to take a standard action immediately breaks the compulsion and can act normally.

A creature that attempts to heal itself or that receives healing is likewise freed of the compulsion, and if it is not actually wounded, the healing is wasted.

A creature that takes damage is also instantly freed of the compulsion (although the damage still counts against its actual current hit points).

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's range increases by 5 feet and its save DC increases by 1.

In addition, for every additional power point you spend to increase the range and the save DC, this power can affect targets that have Hit Dice equal to 4 + the number of additional points.

DISTRACT

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You cause your subject's mind to wander, distracting her. Subjects under the effect of distract make all Listen, Spot, Search, and Sense Motive checks at a -4 penalty.

DOMINATE, PSIONIC

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 4

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One humanoid

Duration: Concentration

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

As dominate person (page 224 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or more of the following ways.

1. If you spend 2 additional power points, this power can also affect an animal, fey, giant, magical beast, or monstrous humanoid.

2. If you spend 4 additional power points, this power can also affect an aberration, dragon, elemental, or outsider in addition to the creature types mentioned above.

3. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

In addition, for every 2 additional power points you spend to achieve any of these effects, this power's save DC increases by 1.

For example, if you spend 8 additional power points (4 to affect an aberration and 4 to affect two additional creatures), this power's save DC increases by 4.

EGO WHIP

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

Your rapid mental lashings assault the ego of your enemy, debilitating its confidence.

The target takes 1d4 points of Charisma damage, or half that amount (minimum 1 point) on a successful save.

A target that fails its save is also dazed for 1 round.

Augment: For every 4 additional power points you spend, this power's Charisma damage increases by 1d4 points and its save DC increases by 2.

EMPATHIC FEEDBACK

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 3

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: Psion/wilder 7, psychic warrior 5

You empathically share your pain and suffering with your attacker.

Each time a creature strikes you in melee, it takes damage equal to the amount it dealt to you or 5 points, whichever is less.

This damage is empathic in nature, so powers and abilities the attacker may have such as damage reduction and regeneration do not lessen or change this damage.

The damage from empathic feedback has no type, so even if you took fire damage from a creature that has immunity to fire, empathic feedback will damage your attacker.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage potential increases by 1 point.

For example, if a psychic warrior spends 8 points to manifest this power, her attacker takes damage equal to the amount it dealt to her or 8 points, whichever is less.

EMPATHIC TRANSFER, HOSTILE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Auditory and material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You transfer your hurt to another.

When you manifest this power and then make a successful touch attack, you can transfer 50 points of damage (or less, if you choose) from yourself to the touched creature.

You immediately regain hit points equal to the amount of damage you transfer.

You cannot use this power to gain hit points in excess of your full normal total.

The transferred damage is empathic in nature, so powers and abilities the subject may have such as damage reduction and regeneration do not lessen or change this damage.

The damage transferred by this power has no type, so even if the subject has immunity to the type of damage you originally took, the transfer occurs normally and deals hit point damage to the subject.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional power point you spend, you can transfer an additional 10 points of damage (maximum 90 points per manifestation).
2. If you spend 6 additional power points, this power affects all creatures in a 20-foot-radius spread centered on you.

EMPATHY

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius spread centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You detect the surface emotions of any creature you can see that is in the power's area.

You can sense basic needs, drives, and emotions.

Thirst, hunger, fear, fatigue, pain, rage, hatred, uncertainty, curiosity, friendliness, and many other kinds of sensations and moods can all be perceived.

You gain a +2 insight bonus on any Bluff, Diplomacy, Intimidate, or Sense Motive checks that you make in the round when you cease concentrating on this power.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional power point you spend, this power's range and the radius of its area increases by 5 feet.
2. If you spend 2 additional power points, this power's maximum duration increases to 1 hour/level.

EMPTY MIND

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

You empty your mind of all transitory and distracting thoughts, improving your self-control.

You gain a +2 bonus on all Will saves until your next action.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefit in an emergency.

Manifesting this power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You can use this power even when it is not your turn.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the bonus on your Will saves increases by 1.

FALSE SENSORY INPUT

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 3

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You have a limited ability to falsify one of the subject's senses.

The subject thinks she sees, hears, smells, tastes, or feels something other than what her senses actually report.

You can't create a sensation where none exists, nor make the subject completely oblivious to a sensation, but you can replace the specifics of one sensation with different specifics.

For instance, you could make a human look like a dwarf (or one human look like another specific human), a closed door look like it is open, a vat of acid smell like rose water, a parrot look like a bookend, stale rations taste like fresh fruit, a light pat feel like a dagger thrust, a scream sound like the howling wind, and so on.

You can switch between senses you falsify round by round.

You can't alter the size of an object by more than 50% by using this power.

Thus, you couldn't make a castle look like a hovel, but you could make it look like a different castle, or a rough hillock of approximately the same size.

If this power is used to distract an enemy manifester who is attempting to use his powers, the enemy must make a Concentration check as if being grappling or pinned.

Because you override a victim's senses, you can fool a victim who is using true seeing or some other method of gathering information, assuming you know that the victim is actively using such an effect and you can maintain concentration.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

ID INSINUATION

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Concentration + 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

As confusion (page 212 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Swift tendrils of thought disrupt the unconscious mind of any one creature, sapping its might.

As long as the manifester remains concentrating fully on this power, the subject is confused, making it unable to independently determine it will do.

Roll on the following table at the beginning of each of the subject's turns to see what the subject does in that round.

d%	Behavior
01–10	Attack manifester with melee or ranged weapons (or move toward manifester if attack is not possible).
11–20	Act normally.
21–50	Do nothing but babble incoherently.
51–70	Flee from manifester at top possible speed.
71–100	Attack nearest creature (for this purpose, a psicrystal counts as part of the subject's self).

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1, and the power can affect an additional target. Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

INFLICT PAIN

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will partial; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You telepathically stab the mind of your foe, causing horrible agony.

The subject suffers wracking pain that imposes a –4 penalty on attack rolls, skill checks, and ability checks.

If the target makes its save, it takes only a –2 penalty.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1, and the power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

INSANITY

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

As confusion (page 212 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Creatures affected by this power are permanently confused and constantly behave randomly.

Roll on the following table at the beginning the subject's turn each round to see what the subject does in that round.

d%	Behavior
01–10	Attack manifester with melee or ranged weapons (or move toward manifester if attack is not possible).
11–20	Act normally.
21–50	Do nothing but babble incoherently.
51–70	Flee from manifester at top possible speed.
71–100	Attack nearest creature (for this purpose, a psicrystal counts as part of the subject's self).

Only psychic surgery, reality revision, and other similarly extreme measures can restore the subject's sanity.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1, and the power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

MENTAL DISRUPTION

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft.-radius spread centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You generate a mental wave of confusion that instantly sweeps out from your location.

All creatures you designate in the affected area (you can choose certain creatures to be unaffected) must make a Will save or become dazed for 1 round.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.
2. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's range and the radius of its area both increase by 5 feet.

METACONCERT

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psychic warrior 5, telepath 5

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 minute

Range: 20 ft.

Target: You and up to nine other willing psionic creatures in range

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 9

You link your psychic might with other psionic creatures, creating an entity more powerful than the sum of its parts. When you manifest this power, a number of power points you designate flows from each participant into a collective pool.

Thus, if ten psionic characters each contribute 10 power points, the initial total of the pooled power points is 100. One individual is chosen as the metaconcert conductor by mutual consent of the other participants (this is usually the manifester, but doesn't have to be).

Until the power ends, this conductor directs the efforts of the group.

Misty strands of glowing power link the brows of all the participants in a complex and shifting pattern.

All the powers of each participant are known to the mental entity created with metaconcert (which is under the conductor's command).

This entity can't take any more actions than a normal individual, but it manifests all its powers more effectively.

Each participant contributing to the entity provides a cumulative +1 bonus to save DCs that apply when manifesting a power or using a psi-like ability.

Likewise, each individual provides a cumulative +1 bonus when the entity makes its own saving throws in response to powers or psi-like abilities.

If the psionic entity takes ability damage from a psionic attack, such as mind thrust, the total is divided among all the members as determined by the conductor (so, if a ten-person group took 3 points of ability damage, the conductor could select three different participants to each take 1 point of damage).

If the entity manifests a power that has an XP cost, all the participants pay an equal share (the conductor pays the remainder if the cost can't be divided evenly).

Once linked, the participants must remain within a 20-foot-radius area, and as a group can move at a speed of 10 feet.

If a participant moves outside the 20-foot-radius area occupied by the others (whether willingly or involuntarily), that individual drops out of the group, and the power point pool of the metaconcert is instantly recalculated.

All participants who leave before a metaconcert ends or is dismissed reclaim a number of power points equal to the current power point pool divided by the number of members.

If the conductor drops out, the power ends.

For example, if a participant left a metaconcert composed of eight individuals, he would reclaim 1/8 of the power points currently in the pool (round down).

That same number of points is removed from the power point pool.

When a metaconcert ends normally or is dismissed, remaining power points in the pool are divided among all the participants (the conductor receives the remainder if the points can't be divided evenly).

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 minute.

MICROCOSM

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 9

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target or Area: One creature; or one or more creatures within a 15-ft.-radius sphere

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

This power enables you to warp the consciousness and senses of one or more creatures, sending the victim into a catatonic state.

When microcosm is manifested, you can target either a single creature within range or a group of creatures all located within the power's area.

Single Target: If microcosm targets a single creature, that creature's senses are pinched off from the real world if it currently has 100 or fewer hit points.

The subject's senses are all completely fabricated from within its own mind, though it may not realize this.

In reality, the subject sprawls limply, drooling and mewling, and eventually dies of thirst and starvation without care.

The subject lives within its own made-up world until the time of its actual death.

Area Effect: If microcosm is manifested on an area, it sends all affected creatures into a shared catatonia (the world is a construct, but within the world, the victims can interact with each other).

It affects only creatures that currently have 30 or fewer hit points, and only up to a total of 300 hit points of such creatures.

The power affects creatures with the lowest hit point totals first.

(Creatures with negative hit points count as having 0 hit points).

Manifesting microcosm a second time on an affected creature turns its sensory pathways outward once more.

Otherwise, only very potent powers (such as psychic chirurgery or reality revision) or similar effects (such as miracle or wish) can undo the mental crosswiring that this power brings about.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the number of individual and group hit points the power can affect increases by 10.

For example, if you spend 2 additional points, the single target version of the power affects a creature that currently has 120 or fewer hit points, and the area effect version is usable against creatures that each currently have 50 or fewer hit points, up to a total of 320 hit points of such creatures.

MIND BLANK, PERSONAL

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 7, psychic warrior 6
Display: Olfactory
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: One day
Power Points: Psion/wilder 13, psychic warrior 11
As psionic mind blank (see below), except as noted here.

MIND BLANK, PSIONIC

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 8
Display: Olfactory
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One creature
Duration: One day
Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)
Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)
Power Points: 15

The subject is protected from all devices, powers, and spells that detect, influence, or read emotions or thoughts.

This power protects against powers with the mind-affecting or scrying descriptors.

Psionic mind blank even foils bend reality, limited wish, miracle, reality revision, and wish when they are used in such a way as to affect the subject's mind or to gain information about it (however, metafaculty can pierce the protective quality of psionic mind blank).

In the case of remote viewing or scrying that scans an area the creature is in, the effect works but the creature simply isn't detected.

Remote viewing (scrying) attempts that are targeted specifically at the subject do not work at all.

MIND PROBE

Telepathy (Charm) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 5
Display: Auditory, material, and visual
Manifesting Time: 1 minute
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One creature
Duration: 1 round/level (D)
Saving Throw: Will partial; see text
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 9

All the subject's memories and knowledge are accessible to you, from memories deep below the surface to those still easily called to mind.

You can learn the answer to one question per round, to the best of the subject's knowledge.

If the subject succeeds on a Will save, it is not required to answer the question; however, making a save does not end the power.

You can ask the subject a new question (or the same question) in subsequent rounds for as long as the power's duration persists.

You can probe a sleeping subject and automatically get an answer to your question.

If the subject then succeeds on a Will save, it wakes after providing the answer and thereafter can resist answering by making Will saves as described above.

Subjects that do not wish to be probed can attempt to move beyond the power's range, unless they are somehow hindered.

You pose the questions telepathically, and the answers to those questions are imparted directly to your mind. You and the subject do not need to speak the same language, though less intelligent creatures may yield up only appropriate visual images in answer to your questions.

MIND SEED

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 8
Display: Mental
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Touch
Target: One touched Medium or smaller humanoid
Duration: Instantaneous; see text
Saving Throw: Will negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 15, XP

You impress the totality of your psyche into a subject's subconscious.

If successfully implanted, the seed of your mind "germinates" over the period of one week.

During this time, the subject begins to unconsciously take on your mannerisms.

For instance, if you habitually mutter, "Sure, sure, sure", this same litany is soon heard from the subject's lips, though it is not uttered consciously.

When integration is complete (after one week), the subject becomes you in mind as you were when you manifested the power, but the subject's level is eight lower than your own. (In effect, the subject has received eight negative levels—but these are negative levels that can't be removed).

The subject does not have any of your physical ability scores or equipment, but does have the Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores you had when you were eight levels lower.

The subject also knows the powers you knew when you were eight levels lower.

While the subject is initially your mental duplicate, the two personalities diverge over time.

Although the subject starts off with memories of your experiences, it possesses its original "soul" and physical body and is free to develop its own personality based on its own new experiences.

Thus, the subject is not your slave or servant, but instead a nonplayer character in its own right that shares your earlier memories.

Protection from evil or a similar spell or power can prevent you from implanting mind seed, or prevent a seed from germinating while the protective power lasts.

Otherwise, a germinating seed can be removed (prior to germination) only by psionic chirurgery, reality revision, or similarly high-level effects.

Manifesting mind seed again during the germination period also cleanses the subject's mind.

XP Cost: 3,000 XP.

MIND SWITCH

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: You and one other creature

Duration: 10 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11, XP

You can attempt to take control of a nearby living creature, forcing your mind (and soul) into its body, and its mind into your body.

You can target any creature whose Hit Dice are equal to or less than your manifester level.

You possess the target's body and force the creature's mind into your body unless it succeeds on a Will save.

You can move your mind back into your own body whenever you desire, which returns the subject's mind to its own body and ends the power.

If the manifestation succeeds, your life force occupies the host body, and the host's life force takes over yours.

You can call on rudimentary or instinctive knowledge of the subject creature, but not upon its acquired or learned knowledge (such as skills and feats it possesses).

The same is true for the subject in your body.

The mind switch brings about the following changes.

- You gain the type of your assumed body.
- You gain the Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution scores of your assumed body.
- You gain the natural armor, natural attacks, movement, and other simple physical characteristics of your assumed body.
- You gain the extraordinary special attacks and qualities of your assumed body, but you do not gain supernatural or spell-like abilities.
- You gain the possessions and equipment of your assumed body.

• You retain your own hit points, saving throws (possibly modified by new ability scores), class abilities, supernatural and spell-like abilities, spells and powers, and skills and feats (although skill checks use your new ability scores, and you may be temporarily unable to use feats whose requirements you do not meet in your new body).

Supernatural abilities that require a certain body part, such as a beholder's eye rays or a dragon's breath weapon, may be unavailable in your new form.

For example, if you were a 10th-level human psion with 70 hit points who used mind switch on a 1st-level goblin warrior with 4 hit points, you are now a goblin psion with 70 hit points in the goblin's body, and your target is now a 1st-level human warrior with 4 hit points in your natural body.

(When using this power, you should be careful about whom or what you allow to occupy your natural body, and what you let the subject do with it).

If either body is killed while the power is in effect, the other participant also dies when the power ends.

If one participant's body becomes petrified, imprisoned by temporal stasis or imprisonment, or incapacitated in some other way, the other participant will be incapacitated in that way when the power ends.

A targeted dispel psionics (or similar spells or effects) successfully manifested on either participant causes both minds to return to their original bodies.

XP Cost: 100 XP.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

MIND SWITCH, TRUE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 9

Manifesting Time: 1 minute

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17, XP

As mind switch, except as noted here.

You permanently exchange bodies with the subject.

Since this power's duration is instantaneous, you cannot be forced to return to your natural body by means of dispel psionics, an antimagic field, or a similar effect.

If the subject's body dies while you are in it, you are dead.

The subject immediately loses one level, but otherwise survives the experience in your natural body.

If your natural body dies while the subject is in it, you immediately lose one level, but you likewise survive the experience in your new body.

Your "natural" body is always considered to be the last one you switched out of.

If you exchange bodies with a chain of multiple subjects, you need worry only about the welfare of the last body you switched with.

In other words, if your mind is expelled from your current body, your mind returns to the last body you switched with, not to your original body.

Similarly, if your original body dies but you have since switched minds with a second subject, you take no penalty. You lose a level only if the body you inhabited immediately prior to your current body is killed.

XP Cost: 10,000 XP.

MIND THRUST

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You instantly deliver a massive assault on the thought pathways of any one creature, dealing 1d10 points of damage to it.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d10 points.

For each extra 2d10 points of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

MIND TRAP

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 3
Display: Auditory
Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 round
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)
Power Points: 5

You set up a trap in your mind against psionic intruders. Anyone who attacks you with a telepathy power immediately loses 1d6 power points. This power's effect does not negate the power that is currently being used against you. You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefit in an emergency. Manifesting the power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round. You can use this power even when it is not your turn.
Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 round.

MINDLINK

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]
Level: Telepath 1
Display: Mental
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels); see text
Targets: You and one other willing creature within range that has an Intelligence score of 3 or higher
Duration: 10 min./level
Saving Throw: None; see text
Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)
Power Points: 1

You forge a telepathic bond with your target. You can communicate telepathically through the bond even if you do not share a common language. No special power or influence is established as a result of the bond. Once the bond is formed, it works over any distance (although not from one plane to another).
Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. If you spend 4 additional power points, you can attempt to create a telepathic bond with a creature that is not willing (Will save negates).
2. For every additional power point you spend, this power can affect an additional target. Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

MINDLINK, THIEVING

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]
Level: Telepath 4
Duration: 10 min./level (D)
Saving Throw: Will negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 7

As mindlink, except that if the target is a psionic character or creature that knows powers, you can temporarily borrow a power of your choice (you are aware of what powers the subject knows, up to the highest level of power you can manifest).

Borrowing the subject's power is a separate standard action that provokes an attack of opportunity.

If that attack succeeds, the mental communication provided by this power ends immediately.

The borrowed power fades from the subject's awareness and appears within your own.

You can now spend power points to manifest the borrowed power just as if it were one of your powers known.

You maintain knowledge of the borrowed power until the duration of your thieving mindlink expires, at which time you lose knowledge of the power and the power reappears in the mind of the subject, no matter how far from you the subject is.

Even if the subject is slain, you lose knowledge of the borrowed power when this power's duration expires.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.

MINDWIPE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]
Level: Psion/wilder 4
Display: Auditory, mental, and visual
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One creature
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 7

You partially wipe your victim's mind of past experiences, bestowing two negative levels upon it.

If the subject has at least as many negative levels as Hit Dice, it dies.

If the subject survives, each negative level gives it several disadvantages (see page 310 of the Player's Handbook).

In addition, for each negative level it gains, a psionic creature loses knowledge of one power from its highest available level, and a number of power points from its maximum power point total sufficient to manifest that power.

The effects of multiple negative levels stack.

If the subject survives, it loses these two negative levels after 1 hour.

(No Fortitude save is necessary to avoid gaining the negative level permanently).

Augment: You can manifest this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1.
2. For every 3 additional power points you spend, this power bestows an additional negative level on the subject.

MISSIVE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting, Language-Dependent]
Level: Psion/wilder 1
Display: Mental
Manifesting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One creature

Effect: Mental message delivered to subject

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You send a telepathic message of up to ten words to any living creature within range.

Missive is strictly a one-way exchange from you to the subject.

If you do not share a common language, the subject “hears” meaningless mental syllables.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power’s range increases by 5 feet and its save DC increases by 1.

MISSIVE, MASS

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting, Language-Dependent]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Targets: All creatures in a 400 ft. + 40 ft./level radius centered on you; see text

Effect: Mental message delivered to subjects

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 3

You send a telepathic message of up to twenty-five words to all creatures within range.

You can include or exclude from this broadcast any creature you can see, as well as any creature that you know or know of.

Mass missive is strictly a one-way exchange from you to the subjects.

If you do not share a common language, the subjects “hear” meaningless mental syllables.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power’s range increases by 40 feet and its save DC increases by 1.

MODIFY MEMORY, PSIONIC

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 4

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

As modify memory (page 255 of the Player’s Handbook), except as noted here.

PERSONALITY PARASITE

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One Medium or smaller humanoid

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You attempt to briefly partition the mind of your foe, calving off a minor personality that is antagonistic to the main personality.

The parasitic personality functions with complete autonomy from the main personality.

It does not control the body physically, but it can take one standard action each round that is purely mental, such as manifesting a power, in the same turn that the subject takes its normal actions.

The parasitic personality manifests powers using the subject’s power point reserve and known powers, but can only manifest powers three or more levels lower than the highest level of power the subject can normally manifest. Thus, if the highest level of power the subject can normally manifest is 3rd level or lower, the parasitic personality cannot manifest any powers.

The parasitic personality actively attempts to manifest powers that negatively impact the subject, using the highest-level powers possible (so as to deplete the subject’s power point reserve), and the most deadly to the subject?. You do not have control over what the parasitic personality does (it is under the DM’s control), though it always works against the interest of the subject.

Both minds communicate with each other telepathically.

If a creature is targeted by a compulsion or charm effect while under the effect of this power, it can make a second saving throw if the first one fails.

If both saving throws fail, then this power ends and the creature is affected by the charm or compulsion effect.

The parasitic personality does not gain any advantages if the main personality is subjected to a haste or schism effect.

POWER LEECH

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Any psionic creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level; see text

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

Your brow erupts with an arc of crackling dark energy that connects with your foe, draining it of 1d6 power points and adding 1 of those points to your reserve (unless that gain would cause you to exceed your maximum).

The drain continues in each round you maintain concentration while the subject of the drain remains in range.

If the subject is drained to 0 power points, this power ends. Concentrating to maintain power leech is a full-round action (you can take no other actions aside from a 5-foot step) instead of a standard action.

PSIONIC BLAST

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft. cone-shaped burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

The air ripples with the force of your mental attack, which blasts the minds of all creatures in range.

Psionic blast stuns all affected creatures for 1 round.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the duration of the stun effect increases by 1 round.

PSYCHIC CHIRURGERY

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 9

Display: Auditory, mental, and visual

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17, XP; see text

You can repair psychic damage or grant another creature knowledge of powers you know, depending on the version of this power you manifest.

Repair Psychic Damage: You can remove any compulsions and charms (such as crisis of breath and death urge) affecting the subject.

In fact, you can remove any instantaneous or permanent effect caused by a psychic power with psychic surgery.

Unlike with aura alteration, these effects end or are negated as soon as this power is manifested, with no need for another saving throw.

You can remove all negative levels affecting the subject, regardless of how it lost those levels, restoring it to the highest level it had previously attained.

Also, you can restore levels lost to energy drain or a similar effect if the level drain occurred within a number of hours equal to your manifester level.

You can also remove all psionic effects penalizing the subject's ability scores, heal all ability damage, and remove any ability drain affecting the subject.

Psychic surgery negates all forms of insanity, confusion, the effect of such powers as microcosm, and so on, but it does not restore levels or Constitution points lost due to death.

Transfer Knowledge: If desired, you can use this power to directly transfer knowledge of a power you know to another psionic character.

You can give a character knowledge of a power of any level that she can manifest, even if the power is not normally on the character's power list.

Knowledge of powers gained through psychic surgery does not count toward the maximum number of powers a character can know per level.

XP Cost: Each time you use psychic surgery to implant knowledge of a power in another creature, you pay an XP cost equal to 1,000 × the level of the power implanted.

If you and the subject are both willing to do so, you can split this cost evenly.

PSYCHIC CRUSH

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will partial; see text

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

Your will abruptly and brutally crushes the mental essence of any one creature, debilitating its acumen.

The target must make a Will save with a +4 bonus or collapse unconscious and dying at -1 hit points.

If the target succeeds on the save, it takes 3d6 points of damage.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

PSYCHIC REFORMATION

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Auditory, mental, and visual

Manifesting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7, XP; see text

When this power is manifested, the subject can choose to spend its most recently gained skill points differently (picking new skills and abandoning old ones if it chooses) and to choose a different feat from the one it selected when advancing from its previous level to its current level.

The subject can also choose to forget powers it acquired when advancing to its current level, replacing them with new ones.

The subject can undo decisions of these sorts that were made at lower levels, if both the subject and the manifester agree to pay the necessary XP before this power is manifested (see below).

The subject must abide by the standard rules for selecting skills and feats, and so it cannot take feats for which it doesn't qualify or take cross-class skills as class skills.

For instance, a subject, upon attaining her current level, put 2 skill points into Spot and chose the Dodge feat as part of her benefits for level advancement.

She has since decided that she would rather have put 2 points in Autohypnosis and taken the Burrowing Power metapsionic feat instead.

After this power is manifested on her, she can reverse her earlier decisions.

She could also choose to change the power or powers she learned when reaching her current level, but she is happy with her original decision, and so does not change her powers known.

XP Cost: This power costs 50 XP to manifest to reformat choices made when the character reached her current level. For each additional previous level into which the revision reaches, the power costs an additional 50 XP.

The manifester and subject split all XP costs evenly.

READ THOUGHTS

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 2

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped emanation centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You know the surface thoughts of the mind of any creature in the area that fails a Will save.

A target that succeeds on its save is not affected by this manifestation of the power, even if it leaves the area and then reenters the area before the duration expires.

Creatures of animal intelligence have simple, instinctual thoughts that you can pick up.

If you read the thoughts of a creature with an Intelligence of 26 or higher (and at least 10 points higher than your own Intelligence score), you are stunned for 1 round and the power ends.

This power does not let you pinpoint the location of an affected mind if you don't have line of sight to the subject. Each round, you can turn to use this power in a new area. The power can penetrate barriers, but 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood or dirt blocks it.

SCHISM

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Telepath 4

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 7

Your mind splits into two independent parts.

Each part functions in complete autonomy, like two characters in one body.

Your new "second mind" does not control your body physically but is free to take one standard action in each round if the action is purely mental (such as manifesting a power) in the same round you take your normal actions.

Your second mind can manifest powers using your power point reserve, but only as if your manifester level were six lower than it is.

Thus, if your manifester level is 8th, your second mind has a manifester level of 2nd, limiting the number of power points you can spend with your second mind to 2.

Your second mind doesn't provoke attacks of opportunity when manifesting a power, because doing so doesn't distract your primary mind.

Your second mind takes its first action on your turn in the round after schism is manifested.

Both your minds communicate with each other telepathically.

If you are subject to a compulsion or charm effect while you are of two minds, make a second saving throw if you fail the first.

If you fail both, then the schism ends and you are affected normally by the power.

If you fail just one, the schism ends immediately, but you are not subject to the compulsion or charm.

Your second mind does not gain any advantages if you are subject to a haste effect, although you gain the overall standard benefits.

SENSE LINK

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One willing creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 min./level

Power Points: 1

You perceive what the subject creature perceives using its sight, hearing, taste, or smell.

Only one sense is linked, and you cannot switch between senses with the same manifestation.

For example, you could see what the subject sees, or hear what it hears, or taste what it tastes, and so on.

You make any skill checks involving senses, such as Spot or Listen, as the subject, and only within the subject's field of view.

You lose your Dexterity bonus to AC while directly sensing what the subject senses.

Most manifesters choose to link to the subject's vision, taste, or hearing.

Once sense link is manifested, the link persists even if the subject moves out of the range of the original manifestation (but the link does not work across planes).

You do not control the subject, nor can you communicate with it by means of this power.

The strength of the subject's linked sense could be enhanced by other powers or items, allowing you the same enhanced sense.

You are subject to any gaze attack affecting the subject creature (if you linked vision).

If you are blinded or deafened, or suffer some other sensory deprivation, the linked creature functions as an independent sensory organ, and provides you the benefit of the linked sense from its perspective while this power's duration lasts.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. If you spend 2 additional power points, you can have the subject perceive one of your senses instead of the other way around.
2. If you spend 4 additional power points, you can link to a second sense of the same subject.

SENSE LINK, FORCED

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

As sense link, except you can use this power on any creature (willing or unwilling), and this power can't be augmented.

SHATTER MIND BLANK

Telepathy

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Olfactory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

This power can negate a psionic mind blank or a personal mind blank affecting the target.

If the target fails its save and does not overcome your attempt with its power resistance, you can shatter the mind blank by making a successful check (1d20 + your manifester level, maximum +20) against a DC equal to 11 + the manifester level of the creator of the mind blank effect. If you succeed, the psionic mind blank or personal mind blank ends, allowing you to affect the target thereafter with mind-affecting powers.

SOLICIT PSICRYSTAL

Telepathy

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Your psicrystal

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: No

Power resistance: No

Power Points: 5

Your psicrystal takes over the responsibility of maintaining concentration on any single power you have manifested and are concentrating on.

While maintaining this concentration, the psicrystal is limited to move actions in each round, as normal.

When the duration of solicit psicrystal expires, the power you transferred to the psicrystal ends (even if this would mean that the power ends earlier than normal).

If necessary, the psicrystal makes Concentration checks using your Concentration modifier.

You can manifest this power (and transfer the responsibility) with an instant thought, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the power before you take any other actions in a round.

Manifesting the power is a swift action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You cannot manifest this power when it isn't your turn.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's maximum duration increases by 1 round.

SUGGESTION, PSIONIC

Telepathy (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting, Language-Dependent]

Level: Telepath 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 hour/level or until completed

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

As suggestion (page 285 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

TELEPATHIC PROJECTION

Telepathy (Charm) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 min./level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You alter the subject's mood, adjusting its attitude toward you by one step in a positive direction.

For instance, an unfriendly creature can be made indifferent, or a hostile creature unfriendly (see Influencing NPC Attitudes, page 72 of the Player's Handbook).

You can grant a +4 bonus on your own (or others') Bluff, Diplomacy, Intimidate, Perform, or Sense Motive checks involving the affected creature.

THOUGHT SHIELD

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 3

You fortify your mind against intrusions, gaining power resistance 13 against all mind-affecting powers.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefits in an emergency.

Manifesting the power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You can use this power even when it's not your turn.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 round, and the power resistance it provides increases by 1 point.

TONGUES, PSIONIC

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: None

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 min./level

Power Points: 3

As tongues (page 294 of the Player's Handbook), except as noted here.

This power does not enable you to speak with creatures immune to mindaffecting powers.

TOWER OF IRON WILL

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: None (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9

You generate a bastion of thought so strong that it offers protection to you and everyone around you, improving the self-control of all.

You and all creatures in the power's area gain power resistance 19 against all mindaffecting powers.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefits in an emergency.

Manifesting the power is an immediate action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

You can use this power even when it is not your turn.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 round and the power resistance it provides increases by 1 point.

ULTRABLAST

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Auditory; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 15 ft.

Area: 15-ft.-radius spread centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

You "grumble" psychically (which both psionic and nonpsionic creatures can detect), then release a horrid shriek from your subconscious that disrupts the brains of all enemies in the power's area, dealing 13d6 points of damage to each enemy.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by 1d6 points.

FROSTBURN (3.5)

PSYCHOKINESIS

ENERGY EMANATION

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 5 ft.

Target: 5-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You expel concentrated energy from your body, dealing 1d6 points of energy damage to all creatures within the area every round.

Creatures in the area must make a new Fortitude save each round.

The energy is the type you choose: cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

Once chosen, you emanate the same energy type for the power's duration.

Cold: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Electricity: This energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: This energy type deals -1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra die of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY FLASH

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Touched creature, or up to 1 cu. ft. of water/level

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

On a successful touch attack, you deal 7d6 points of damage to the creature touched, doing either cold, electricity, fire, or sonic damage.

In addition to the energy damage, on a failed Fortitude save (the same save that determines full or half damage), a target is dazed for 1 round.

Cold: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Electricity: This energy type provides a +2 bonus to the save DC and a +2 bonus on manifester level checks for the purpose of overcoming power resistance.

Fire: This energy type deals +1 point of damage per die.

Sonic: This energy type deals –1 point of damage per die and ignores an object's hardness.

This power's subtype is the same as the type of energy you manifest.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's damage increases by one die (d6).

For each extra two dice of damage, this power's save DC increases by 1.

ENERGY NULLIFICATION FIELD

Psychokinesis [see text]

Level: Kineticist 5

Display: Visual and auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 10 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: See text

Power Points: 9

An invisible field of energy surrounds you.

This power functions like null psionics field, but applies only to powers with the energy descriptor you choose when you first manifest this power: cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

MIND OVER ENERGY

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 6, psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

You mentally reinforce your living tissue with pure psionic will, gaining immunity to the energy type you choose for the duration of the power: cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

SLOW BREATHING

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None (harmless)

Power Resistance: No (harmless)

Power Points: 1

You reduce the need for oxygen in your body, increasing your ability to become acclimated to the thin air of high altitude.

You gain a +4 competence bonus on saving throws against altitude sickness (see page 90 of the Dungeon Master's Guide).

Augmentation: For every additional power point you spend, the competence bonus increases by 2.

MAGIC OF INCARNUM (3.5)

METACREATIVITY

INCARNUM FUSION

Metacreativity

Level: Psychic warrior 3, shaper 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: Psychic warrior 5, shaper 7

You gain damage reduction 2/adamantine, and your claws are treated as weapons of your alignment for the purpose of overcoming damage reduction.

Claws created by means of the power claws of the beast, or a similar spell or effect, can be affected by this power if you do not otherwise possess natural claw attacks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in this power increases the damage reduction by 1 point.

Your claws also gain an enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls equal to the number of points of invested essentia.

SOUL CRYSTAL

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 7

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: One soul-imbued crystal shard

Duration: 1 hour/level or until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 13

You call into being a shard of psionic crystal and entice the soul of a powerful psion not yet born to enter the shard.

You then imbue the soul crystal with a single power you know and can manifest, and a number of power points you expend from your power reserve (in addition to the points necessary to manifest soul crystal in the first place).

You can choose to bestow a number of power points up to twice your manifester level.

Any creature you give the created soul crystal to can then manifest the imbued power, using the power point reserve you bestowed in the crystal.

The wielder's manifester level is equal to your own manifester level when you create the crystal, so the wielder can choose to augment the power you implanted in the crystal (if manifester level and the soul crystal's remaining power point reserve permit) or possibly use the power multiple times.

The imbued power can be manifested only by spending power points from the reserve you initially created when you made the soul crystal, so if you give the crystal to another manifester, that character can't use her own power points to manifest the power in the soul crystal. Manifesting a power from the soul crystal is a standard action that provokes an attack of opportunity. The person using the soul crystal makes all decisions about targeting the imbued power, just as if she were a psion manifesting the power herself. The soul crystal persists until the duration of the power lapses or there are no longer sufficient power points remaining in the crystal's reserve to manifest the imbued power one time.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

OPEN CHAKRA, PSIONIC

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Auditory, material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 7

You use your psionic powers to pry open one chakra, allowing a creature to form a chakra bind that it otherwise could not.

You can open a creature's crown, feet, or hands chakra with this power.

A creature benefiting from this power can bind a soulmeld or magic item to his opened chakra just as if he had gained the ability to form a chakra bind from a feat or class feature.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can open the subject's arms, brow, or shoulders chakra.

If you spend 10 additional power points, you can open the subject's throat or waist chakra.

PSIONICS HANDBOOK (3.0)

CLAIRSENTIENCE

ANCHORED NAVIGATION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Ol, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You know where you are in relation to a fixed starting point.

While the duration lasts, you are aware of your exact distance and route (physical or psychoportive) back to a fixed starting point.

You must designate the "anchored" starting point when you first manifest the power.

To designate other anchored starting points, you must manifest additional anchored navigation powers.

For instance, if you designated a starting point using this power before entering a maze, you can retrace your steps through the maze automatically while the power lasts.

This power also allows teleport to return you to the fixed point with no chance of error.

Moreover, this power allows normal telepathic communication with any receptive beings within a 60-foot radius of the fixed point, regardless of distance.

Use of anchored navigation is confined to the plane of existence where you manifest it.

AUGURY

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Ol, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

An augury can tell you whether a particular action will bring good or bad results for you in the immediate future. For example, if a parry is considering destroying a weird sea that closes a portal, an augury might determine whether it's a good idea.

The base chance for receiving a meaningful reply is 70% plus 1% per manifester level; the DM makes the roll secretly.

The DM may determine that the question is so straightforward that a successful result is automatic, or so vague as to have no chance of success.

If the augury succeeds, you get one of four results:

- "Weal" (if the action will probably bring good results).
- "Woe" (for bad results).
- "Weal and woe" (for both).
- "Nothing" (for actions that don't have especially good or bad results).

If the power fails, you get the "nothing" result.

A psion who gets the "nothing" result has no way to tell whether it resulted from a failed or successful augury.

The augury can see into the future only about half an hour so anything that might happen after that does not affect the augury.

Thus, it might miss the long-term consequences the contemplated action.

All auguries manifested by the same person about the same action use the same die to result as the first augury.

AURA SIGHT

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 30-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You discern auras.

Auras are invisible to the naked eye, but to the psionic viewer appear as glowing halos or envelopes of colored light that surround all things.

The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study a particular area.

1st round: Presence of good or evil auras in the area.

You can't pin an aura to a particular object or individual at this stage.

2nd round: Number of auras (creatures, objects, powers, or spells) in the area.

3rd round: The owner of each aura is revealed, unless the individual is somehow hidden.

If your character level is 5 or more levels below a target's actual experience level or HD, you are "overwhelmed" by its presence and stunned for 1 round, and the power ends. Of course, this also reveals something.

CLAIRAUDIENCE/CLAIRVOYANCE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Vi, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: See text

Effect: Psionic sensor

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Clairaudience/clairvoyance enables you to concentrate upon some locale and hear or see (your choice) almost as if you were there.

Distance is not a factor, but the locale must be known—a place familiar to you or an obvious one (such as behind a door, around a corner, in a copse of trees, and so on).

The power does not allow psionically enhanced senses to work through it.

If the chosen locale is magically or psionically dark, you see nothing.

If it is naturally pitch black, you can see in a 10-foot radius around the center of the power's effect.

Lead sheeting, magical protection (such as antimagic field, mind blank, or nondetection) or psionic protection (such as null psionics field) blocks the power, and you sense that the power is so blocked.

The power creates an invisible sensor, similar to that created by a remote viewing power, that can be dispelled or negated.

The power functions only on your current plane of existence.

COMBAT PRECOGNITION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

Your awareness extends a fraction of a second into the future, allowing you to better evade an opponent's blows. You gain a +1 insight bonus to AC.

If you are caught flat-footed, this bonus to AC does not apply.

COMBAT PRESCIENCE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Your awareness extends a fraction of a second into the future, allowing you to better land blows against your opponent.

You gain a +2 insight bonus on your attack roll.

DANGER SENSE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 3/Psychic Warrior 3

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You can sense the presence of danger before your Sense would normally allow it.

Your intuitive sense alerts you to danger from traps, giving you a +4 insight bonus on Reflex saves to avoid traps and a +4 insight bonus to AC against attacks by traps.

DARKVISION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 3

The subject gains the ability to see 60 feet even in total darkness.

Darkvision is black and white only but otherwise like normal sight.

Darkvision does not grant one the ability to see in magical darkness.

DESTINY DISSONANCE

Clairsentience (Wis) [Mind-affecting]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Ma, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or object touched

Duration: Until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

Your mere touch grants your foe an imperfect, unfocused glimpse of the many possible futures in store.

Unused to and unable to process the information, the subject takes 1d8 points of subdual damage from the dissonance.

Your touch attack, charged with a psionic power, is treated as an armed attack.

DETECT POISON

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 0

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target or Area: One creature, one object, or a 5-foot cube

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You determine whether a creature, object, or area has been poisoned or is poisonous.

You can determine the exact type of poison with a successful Wisdom check (DC 20).

A character with the Alchemy skill may additionally try an Alchemy check at DC 20.

Note: The power can penetrate barriers, but 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood or dirt blocks it.

DETECT PSIONICS

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Vi, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Quarter circle emanating from you to the extreme of the range

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You detect psionic auras.

The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study a particular area or subject:

1st Round: Presence or absence of psionic auras.

2nd Round: Number of different psionic auras and the strength of the strongest aura.

An overwhelming aura stuns you for 1 round and the power ends.

3rd Round: The strength and location of each aura.

If the items or creatures bearing the auras are in line of sight, you can make Psicraft checks to determine the discipline involved in each.

(Make one check per aura; DC 15 + power level, or 15 + half manifester level for a nonpower effect).

Psionic areas, multiple disciplines, or strong local psionic emanations may confuse or conceal weaker auras.

Aura Strength: An aura's psionic power and strength depend on a power's functioning power level or an item's manifester level.

Functioning Power Level	Item Manifester Level	Aura Strength
0-level or lingering aura	Lingering aura	Dim
1st-3rd	1st-5th	Faint
4th-6th	6th-11th	Moderate
7th-9th	12th-20th	Strong
Artifact or deity-level	Beyond mortal psionics	Overwhelming manifester

If an aura falls into more than one category, detect psionics indicates the stronger of the two.

Time Aura Lingers: How long the aura lingers depends on its original strength:

Original Strength	Duration
Faint	1d6 minutes
Moderate	1d6x10 minutes
Strong	1d6 hours
Overwhelming	1d6 hours

Note: Each round, you can turn to detect things in a new area.

You can tell the difference between magical and psionic auras.

The power can penetrate barriers, but 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood or dirt blocks it.

DETECT REMOTE VIEWING

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Vi, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 120 ft.

Area: A 120-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You immediately become aware of any attempt to observe you by means of clairaudience/clairvoyance or remote viewing. The power's effect radiates from you and moves as you move.

The power also reveals the use of other means of viewing, including magical scrying (unless the Psionics Are Different option is used).

You know the location of every psionic sensor within the power's area.

If the viewing attempt originates within the area, you also know its location.

If the attempt originates outside this range, you and the remote viewer immediately make opposed.

Remote View checks.

(A Remote View check is the same as an Intelligence check for a creature without the Remote View skill. If opposing magical scrying, your Remote View check is opposed by the opponent's Scry check) If you at least match the remote viewer's result, you get a visual image of the remote viewer and a sense of the remote viewer's direction and distance from you (accurate to within one-tenth the distance).

DIVINATION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Vi, Me

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 7

Similar to augury but more powerful, a divination power can provide you with a useful piece of advice in reply to a question concerning a specific goal, event, or activity that is to occur within 1 week.

The advice can be as simple as a short phrase, or it might take the form of a cryptic rhyme or omen.

For example, suppose the question is "What are our chances of storming the front gate of the Dreaming Tower?" The DM knows that the front gate is guarded by eight invisible Huge monstrous spiders waiting to ambush gatecrashers, but estimates that your party could win past after a hard fight.

Therefore the divination response might be: "Terrible danger is conquered by resolute strength of arms and an equal measure of cunning strategy".

In all cases, the DM controls what information you receive. Note that if your party doesn't act on the information, the conditions probably change so that the information is no longer useful.

The base chance for a correct divination is 70% + 1% per manifester level.

The DM adjusts the chance if unusual circumstances require it (if, for example, unusual precautions against Clairsentience powers have been taken).

If the dice roll fails, you know the power failed, unless specific psionics or magic yielding false information is at work.

As with augury, multiple divinations about the same action by the same manifester use the same dice roll result as the first divination and yield the same answer each time.

EMULATE POWER

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: See text

Target, Effect, or Area: See text

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13, XP cost

When manifesting emulate power, you choose any other power, regardless of discipline or whether you know the power, of 6th level or less, and duplicate its effect as if you had manifested that power.

However, you pay a high price for this flexibility.

XP Cost: 300 XP or the XP requirement of the emulated power, whichever is greater.

EXPANDED VISION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

Your field of vision is wider than normal, granting you reduced penalties and even bonuses in specific situations. In effect, you have a 315-degree arc of sight, allowing you some slight vision of creatures that might otherwise fully flank you.

Thus, opponents flanking you gain only a +1 bonus on their attack rolls instead of +2 (although rogues can still take sneak attacks because you are still partly flanked).

All your Spot checks gain a +1 enhancement bonus.

Concurrently, you suffer a -2 enhancement penalty against all gaze attacks while the power persists.

FATE OF ONE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Me, Vi

Manifestation Time: See text

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 7

Your limited omniscience allows you to reroll a saving throw, attack roll, or skill check, and use the better of the two rolls for your result.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain its benefits in a clutch situation.

Manifesting the power is a free action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

FORESIGHT

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 8

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal or touch

Target: See text

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: None or Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: No or Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 15

You gain a powerful sixth sense in relation to yourself or another.

Once the power is manifested, you receive instantaneous warnings of impending danger or harm to the subject of the power.

Thus, if you are the subject of the power you would be warned in advance if a rogue were about to attempt a sneak attack on you, or if a creature were about to leap out from an unexpected direction, or if an attacker were specifically targeting you with a power, spell, or ranged weapon. You are never surprised or flat-footed.

In addition, the power gives you a general idea of what action you might take to best protect yourself—duck, jump right, close your eyes, and so on—and gives you a +2 insight bonus to AC and Reflex saves.

This insight bonus is lost whenever you would lose a Dexterity bonus to AC.

When another creature is the object of the power, you receive warnings about that creature.

You must communicate what you learn to the other creature for the warning to be useful, and it can be caught unprepared in the absence of such a warning.

Shouting a warning, yanking a person back, and even telepathically communicating (via an appropriate power) can all be accomplished before some danger befalls the power's subject, provided you act on the warning without delay.

The subject, however, does not gain the insight bonus to AC or Reflex saves.

GREATER EMULATION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: See text

Target, Effect, or Area: See text

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17, XP cost

As emulate power, except that you can duplicate the effect of any other power, regardless of its discipline or whether you know the power, of 8th level or lower.

XP Cost: 5,000 XP or the XP requirement of the emulated power, whichever is greater.

HYPERCOGNITION

Clairsentience (Wis); and Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 8

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 15

You make lightning-fast deductions based on only the slightest clue, pattern, or scrap of memory resident in your mind.

You can make reasonable statements about a person, place, or object, seemingly from very little knowledge.

However, it is in fact the result of a rigorously logical process you forced your mind to undertake, digging up and correlating every possible piece of knowledge bearing on the topic (possibly even extracting echoes from the Astral Plane).

The nature of the knowledge you gain concerning the subject of your analysis is subject to your DM's discretion but might include the answer to a riddle, the way out of a maze, stray bits of information about a person, legends about a place or object, or even a conclusion concerning a dilemma that your conscious mind is unable to produce. Your DM may ask for an Intelligence check to receive the desired information (DM secretly determines the DC). Intelligence checks made with the aid of hypercognition have a +30 bonus.

IDENTIFY

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Me, Ma

Manifestation Time: 8 hours

Range: Touch

Target: Up to 1 touched object per level

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

This power determines the single most basic function of a psionic item, including how to activate that function (if appropriate), and how many charges are left (if any).

If a psionic item has multiple different functions that are equally basic, identify determines the lowest-level function.

If these functions are also of equal level, the DM decides randomly which is identified.

IMPROVED ANCHORED NAVIGATION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 7

Duration: 1 day/level

Power Points: 13

As anchored navigation, except the effect of the power extends across all planar boundaries, and it is useful for all psychoportation powers (and in the minimum time for the method of travel utilized).

INKLING

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 0

Power Points: 1

As augury, except the base chance for receiving a meaningful reply is 50%.

Note: You may only manifest inkling a number of times per day equal to your Wisdom modifier +1, regardless of further payment of power points or number of free manifestations left in the day.

This restriction reflects the strain you put on your mind by using such a low-level power to attempt to wrench information from the future.

INVISIBILITY PURGE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 5

You surround yourself with a sphere of power with a radius of 5 feet per manifester level that negates all forms of invisibility.

Anything invisible becomes visible while in the area.

KNOW DIRECTION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 1

You instantly know which way is north.

If in a place where magnetic field lines do not specify north, you may know the direction of a prominent landmark, at the DM's discretion.

You only know the direction of north immediately after manifesting this power.

Subsequent movement on your part could confuse matters once again.

KNOW LOCATION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 1

You generally know where you are.

This power is useful to characters who frequently travel via teleportation, gates, or via other planes of existence.

The power reveals general information about the character's location.

The information is usually no more detailed than a summary that locates you according to a prominent local landmark, such as "approximately 20 miles west-northwest of Greyhawk City".

If no prominent locations are nearby, answers such as "adrift on the Sunless Sea" are also possible, which at least provide some information about location.

Subsequent movement on your part could confuse matters once again.

METAFACULTY

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Vi, Ol, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Power Resistance: See text

Power Points: 17, XP cost

You gain exceptional insight concerning any individual or creature whom you have previously detected via any other Clairsentience or Telepathy power.

For purposes of this power, "exceptional insight" includes a name, a mental image of the subject, the subject's alignment, and the subject's location (an image of the subject's current location that is good enough to teleport to as if studied carefully).

Powers, special abilities, and spells do not protect against metafaculty's ability to find the truth, not even mind blank or spells such as wish.

XP Cost: You expend a number of XP equal to the total level (or HD) of the individual you focus on \times 500.

Thus, you would expend 5,000 XP to gain exceptional insight about a 10th-level or 10-HD subject.

You can never expend so much XP using metafaculty that you would lose a level.

If that would be the case, metafaculty simply fails to work (which provides some information by itself).

NONDETECTION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 3

Display: None

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or object touched

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 5

The warded creature or object becomes difficult to detect by Clairsentience powers such as clairaudience/clairvoyance and remote viewing, or psionic and magic items that allow others to view the subject from afar.

If a Clairsentience power is attempted against the warded creature or item, the manifester of the Clairsentience power must succeed at a manifester level check ($1d20 +$ manifester level) with a DC of $11 +$ the manifester level of the psionic creature or character who manifested nondetection.

If you manifested nondetection on yourself or on an item currently in your possession, the DC is $15 +$ your manifester level.

If manifested on a creature, nondetection wards the creature's gear as well as the creature itself.

OBJECT READING

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One object

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You can learn details of an inanimate object's previous owner.

Objects accumulate psychic impressions left by their previous owners, which can be read by use of this power. The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study a particular object.

1st Round: Last owner's race.

2nd Round: Last owner's gender.

3rd Round: Last owner's age.

4th Round: Last owner's alignment.

5th Round: How last owner gained and lost the object.

6th+ Round: Previous-to-last owner's race, and so on.

An object without any previous owners reveals no information.

You can continue to run down the list of previous owners and learn details about them as long as the power's duration lasts.

If you read the same object again, you do not pick up where you left off in the list of previous owners.

POISON SENSE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 30 ft.

Target: 30-ft.-radius spread, centered on you

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You sense poison's presence in your immediate locale.

While the duration lasts you become aware of the presence of poison within 30 feet of you, and its general location.

For instance, if you walk up to a door with a hidden poison needle trap, you sense that poison is somehow associated with the door.

You can determine the exact type of poison with a successful Wisdom check (DC 16).

A character with the Alchemy skill may additionally try an Alchemy check (DC 16).

Note: The power can penetrate barriers of up to 3 feet of stone, 3 inches of common metal, 1 inch of lead, or 6 feet of wood or dirt.

POWER RESISTANCE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Ma, Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9

You grant the subject a power resistance (PR) equal to 12 + your manifester level.

In order to affect a creature that has power resistance with a power, roll the creature's power resistance or higher on 1d20 + manifester level. A creature with power resistance may voluntarily lower it in order to accept a psionic effect.

PRECOGNITION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 6

Display: Vi, Au

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 5

Similar to divination but more powerful, the precognition power provides you with a useful vision in reply to a question concerning a specific goal, event, or activity that is to occur within a year.

The vision can be as simple as a short glimpse of a meaningful image, or it might take the form of a full-length dream lasting several minutes.

For example, suppose the question is "What is the greatest danger our party will face in the coming year?" The DM eventually wants to pit the player characters against a black dragon he has long prepared, and he considers this in all likelihood the worst threat that "fate" has in store for the party.

Therefore the precognition response might be this vision: "You see you and your comrades standing before the mouth of a high, dark cave-mouth.

The entrance is blocked by a steaming pool of acid, while the rock all around is scorched by acid and lacerated by what can only be gargantuan claws".

In all cases, the DM controls what information you receive. Note that if your party doesn't act on the information, the conditions may change so that the information is no longer useful.

The base chance for a correct precognition is 80%, plus 1% per manifester level.

The DM adjusts the chance if unusual circumstances require it (if, for example, unusual precautions against Clairsentience powers have been taken).

If the dice roll fails, you know the power failed, unless specific psionics or magic yielding false information is at work.

As with divinations, multiple precognitions about the same action by the same manifester use the same die roll result as the first precognition and yield the same answer each time.

PROWESS

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psychic Warrior 3

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: See text

Range: Personal

Target: You

Power Points: 5

If an enemy provokes an attack of opportunity, you can take it, even if you've already taken your allotted number of attacks of opportunity this round (usually one).

You may not make two attacks of opportunity against the same target in one round even if using this power, unless the target provokes two separate attacks. You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain an extra attack of opportunity in the same round. Manifesting the power is a free action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

RECALL AGONY

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 5

Power Points: 9

As recall pain, except the wounds revealed by folding the fourth dimension are worse: The foe takes 9d6 points of damage.

RECALL DEATH

Clairsentience (Wis) [Death]

Level: Psion 8

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Saving Throw: Will partial

Power Points: 15

As recall pain, except the wounds revealed by folding the fourth dimension are mortal. The target is entitled to a Will save to survive the attack. If she succeeds, she instead sustains 3d6+15 points of damage.

RECALL PAIN

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

The fabric of time parts to your will, revealing wounds your foe has received in the past (or has yet to receive).

That foe takes 3d6 points of damage as the past (or future) impinges briefly on the present.

REMOTE VIEW TRAP

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 6

Display: Vi, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 24 hours + 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

When others use clairaudience/clairvoyance, remote viewing, or other means of observing you from afar, your prepared trap gives them a nasty surprise.

Prior to an attempt to view you from afar, you and the remote viewer immediately make opposed Remote View checks, but you gain a +10 insight bonus on your check. (A Remote View check is the same as an Intelligence check for a creature without the Remote View skill.

If opposing a magical scrying, your Remote View check is opposed by the opponent's Scry check).

If you meet or beat the remote viewer's result, you are undetected.

Moreover, the would-be observer takes 4d14 points of bioelectrical (electricity), damage for his trouble.

You are aware of the attempt to view you, but not of the perpetrator or the perpetrator's location.

REMOTE VIEWING

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Au, Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 hour

Range: See text

Effect: Psionic sensor

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You can see and hear some creature, who may be at any distance.

You must succeed at a Remote View check to do so.

The difficulty of the task depends on how well you know the subject and what sort of physical connection (if any) you have to that creature.

Furthermore, if the subject is on another plane, you get a -5 penalty on the Remote View check.

Knowledge	Remote View Check DC
None*	20
Secondhand (You have heard of the subject)	15
Firsthand (You have met the subject)	10
Familiar (You know the subject well)	5

*You must have some sort of connection to a creature whom you have no knowledge of.

Connection	Remote View Check Bonus
Likeness or picture	+5
Possession or garment	+8
Body part, lock of hair, nail clippings, and so on	+10

This power creates a barely detectable translucent image (roughly similar to your own, but not enough to allow recognition) located near the subject.

Any creature with an intelligence score of 12 or higher can notice the image with a successful Remote View check (or Intelligence check against DC 20).

Missive and darkvision can be manifested through remote viewing.

Aura sight can be manifested through remote viewing but with only a 5% chance per manifester level of operating correctly.

SEE INVISIBILITY

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Cone

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You see any objects or beings that are invisible, as well as any that are astral or ethereal, as if they were normally visible.

The power does not reveal the method used to obtain invisibility, although an astral traveler is easy to identify if he has a silver cord.

It does not reveal illusions or enable you to see through opaque objects.

It does not reveal creatures that are simply hiding, concealed, or otherwise hard to see.

SENSITIVITY TO PSYCHIC IMPRESSIONS

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Area within a 25-ft. + 5 ft./2 levels-radius spread, centered on you

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 2

You gain historical vision in a given location.

Rooms, streets, tunnels, and other discrete locations accumulate psychic impressions left by powerful emotions experienced in a given area.

These impressions offer you a picture of the location's past.

The types of events most likely to leave psychic impressions are those that elicited strong emotions: battles and betrayals, marriages and murders, births and great pain, or any other event where one emotion dominates.

Everyday occurrences leave no residue for the manifestor to detect.

The vision of the event is dreamlike and shadowy.

You do not gain special knowledge of those involved in the vision, though you might be able to read large banners or other writing if they are in your language.

For example, you manifest sensitivity to psychic impressions in the nave of a shattered chapel.

The vision you gain is: A mob of terrified parishioners flees the chapel through front and side doors, and even through windows.

Meanwhile, a demonic presence bursts through floor of the nave and systematically begins to desecrate the former holy site.

The primary emotion noted by you is terror.

You can sense one distinct event per round of concentration, if any exist at all.

Your sensitivity extends into the past a number of years equal to 100 × your level.

SEQUESTER

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 7

Display: None

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature or one object (up to a 2-ft. cube/level) Touched

Duration: 1 day/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 13

This power not only prevents Clairsentience powers from working to detect or locate the creature or object affected by sequester, it also renders the affected creature or object invisible to any form of sight or seeing.

(It also shields against divination magic, unless the Psionics Are Different option is in use).

Thus, sequester can mask a secret door, a treasure vault, and so on.

The power does not prevent the subject from being discovered through tactile means or through the use of devices (such as a robe of eyes or a third eye view).

Living creatures (and even undead creatures) affected by sequester become comatose and are effectively in a state of suspended animation until the power wears off or is negated.

Note: The Will save prevents a character from being sequestered.

There is no saving throw to see the sequestered creature or object or to detect it with a Clairsentience power.

SHIELD OF PRUDENCE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 6/Psychic Warrior 6

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

Your awareness extends a few fractions of a second into the future, allowing you to better evade an opponent's blows.

You gain a +6 insight bonus to AC.

If you are caught flat-footed, shield of prudence still grants a +4 insight bonus to AC.

STEADFAST GAZE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Power Points: 1

Your gaze suffers no distractions, granting you immunity to all gaze attacks while the duration lasts.

STEADFAST PERCEPTION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psychic Warrior 4

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 7

Your gaze suffers no distractions, granting you a +4 enhancement bonus on your saving throw to resist all figments, glamers, and other illusory effects. Moreover, your Spot and Search skills receive a +2 enhancement bonus while this power remains in effect.

TRUE SEEING

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9

You confer on the subject the ability to see all things as they actually are.

The subject sees through normal and magical or psionic darkness, notices secret doors hidden by magic or psionics, sees the exact locations of creatures or objects under blur or displacement effects, sees invisible creatures or objects normally, sees through illusions, sees through falsified sensory input, and sees the true form of polymorphed, changed, or transmuted things.

Further, the subject can focus her vision to see into the Ethereal Plane.

The range of true seeing conferred is 120 feet.

True seeing, however, does not penetrate solid objects.

It in no way confers X-ray vision or its equivalent.

It does not cancel concealment, including that caused by fog and the like.

True seeing does not help the viewer see through mundane disguises, spot creatures that are simply hiding, or notice secret doors hidden by mundane means.

In addition, the power effects cannot be further enhanced with known psionics or magic, so one cannot use true seeing through a third eye open or in conjunction with clairaudience/clairvoyance.

UBIQUITOUS VISION

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 3/Psychic Warrior 3

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 2 rounds/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You have “eyes in the back of your head”, and in the sides and top as well (though only in effect, not literally) granting you reduced penalties and bonuses in specific situations.

In effect, you have a 360-degree sphere of sight, allowing you perfect view of creatures that might otherwise flank you.

Thus, flanking opponents gain no bonus on their attack rolls instead of +2, and rogues are denied their sneak attack because you do not lose your bonus to Dexterity (but they may still sneak attack you if you are caught flat-footed).

Your Spot checks gain a +3 enhancement bonus, and your Search checks gain a +1 enhancement bonus.

Concurrently, you suffer a -4 enhancement penalty on saves against all gaze attacks during the power's duration.

UNDEAD SENSE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Spread of 25-ft.-radius + 5 ft./2 levels, centered on you

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You sense the presence of undead.

While the duration lasts, you become aware of the presence of undead within the affected space and their general location.

For instance, if you walk along a corridor where incorporeal wraiths are waiting within the wall to spring a trap, you sense that undead are either in or behind the wall.

The type of undead is not revealed, but numbers are.

VIGILANCE

Clairsentience (Wis)

Level: Psychic Warrior 2

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You gain the ability to see 30 feet in total darkness, fog, silty water, dust-laden air, and similar vision-impairing media. Vision is black and white only but otherwise like normal sight.

In magically obscured regions, such as magical darkness or fog, vigilance allows you to see only 10 feet.

The power does not grant you the ability to see through solid objects.

METACREATIVITY

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT I

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 full round

Range: close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One created astral construct

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

This power creates one 1st-level astral construct (see Chapter 8: Monsters) of solidified ectoplasm that attacks your enemies.

It appears where you designate and acts immediately, on your turn.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its ability.

You can mentally direct it not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

The astral construct acts normally on the last round of the power and dissipates at the end of its turn.

It is not necessary to learn a lower-level astral construct power before learning a higher-level version.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT II

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 2

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 3

As astral construct I, except you can create one 2nd-level astral construct or 1d3 1st-level astral constructs.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT III

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 3

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 5

As astral construct I, except you can create one 3rd-level astral construct, 1d3 2nd-level astral constructs, or 1d4+1 1st-level astral constructs.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT IV

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 4

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 7

As astral construct I, except you can create one 4th-level astral construct, 1d3 3rd-level astral constructs, or 1d4+1 astral constructs of lower level.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT V

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 5

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 9

As astral construct I, except you can create one 5th-level astral construct, 1d3 4th-level astral constructs, or 1d4+1 astral constructs of lower level.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT VI

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 6

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 11

As astral construct I, except you can create one 6th-level astral construct, 1d3 5th-level astral constructs, or 1d4+1 astral constructs of lower level.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT VII

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 7

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 13

As astral construct I, except you can create one 7th-level astral construct, 1d3 6th-level astral constructs, or 1d4+1 astral constructs of lower level.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT VIII

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 8

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 15

As astral construct I, except you can create one 8th-level astral construct, 1d3 7th-level astral constructs, or 1d4+1 astral constructs of lower level.

ASTRAL CONSTRUCT IX

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 9

Effect: One or more astral constructs, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 17

As astral construct I, except you can create one 9th-level astral construct, 1d3 8th-level astral constructs, or 1d4+1 astral constructs of lower level.

BOLT

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: A nonmagical bolt, arrow, or sling bullet

Duration: 2 rounds

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You create a single, nonmagical, standard-size crossbow bolt, arrow, or sling bullet, which dissipates into its constituent ectoplasmic particles when the duration lapses.

BURNING RAY

Metacreativity (Int) [Fire]

Level: Psion 2

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

A ray of hellish, ectoplasm projects from your brow (your “third eye”).

You must succeed at a ranged touch attack to strike a target with the ray, which deals 3d6 points of fire damage.

CONTINGENCY

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: At least 10 minutes (see text)

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 day/level or until discharged

Power Points: 13

You can place another power upon your person so that the latter power comes into effect under some condition you dictate when manifesting contingency.

The contingency power and the power it is to bring into effect are manifested at the same time.

The 10-minute manifestation time is the minimum total for both manifestations; if the companion power has a manifestation time longer than 10 minutes, use that manifestation time instead.

The power to be brought into effect by the contingency must be one that affects your person and be of a power level no higher than one-third your manifester level (rounded down, maximum 6th level).

The conditions needed to bring the power into effect must be clear, although they can be general. For example, a contingency manifested with combat prescience might prescribe that any time you enter combat, the combat prescience power instantly comes into effect.

The contingency immediately brings into effect the second power, the latter being “manifested” instantaneously when the prescribed circumstances occur.

Note that if complicated or convoluted conditions are prescribed, the whole power complex (contingency and the companion power) may fail when called on.

The companion power occurs based solely on the stated conditions, regardless of whether you want it to.

You can use only one contingency power at a time; if a second is manifested, the first one (if still active) is negated.

CREATE FOOD AND WATER

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Food and water to sustain three humans or one horse/level for 1 day

Duration: 1 day (see text)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

The food that this power fashions is simple fare of your choice—highly nourishing, if rather bland.

The food decays and becomes inedible within 24 hours.

The water created by this power is just like clean rain water. The water doesn't go bad as the food does.

DISMISS ECTOPLASM

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Vi, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 30-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You dismiss creatures or objects composed of ectoplasm (such as astral constructs), or that were formerly composed of ectoplasm (such as items created using any of the creation powers).

The power affects everything in a 30-foot radius.

Creatures that fail their saving throw dissipate into so much constituent ectoplasm, which evaporates in the course of 1 round.

Unattended objects automatically fail their saving throws unless they are psionically enhanced in some fashion, in which case they save as psionic items (see Chapter 8: Psionic Items).

Characters in ectoplasmic form who fail their saving throws may be displaced.

Roll d%: On a 01–50 result they are physically shifted to a random location in the Astral Plane, and on 51–00 they are destroyed outright.

To observers, it looks lethal either way.

ECTO PUPPET

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au, Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: A “tethered” astral construct of the highest level you can manifest

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

As astral construct 1, except the astral construct is visibly tethered to you, and you directly control its actions.

It appears within 5 feet of you and can move up to the noted range.

The “tether” consists of filamentous light connecting your hands with its forelimbs (when you raise your right hand, the construct raises the corresponding appendage). Except for being visibly tethered, the astral construct is as described in Chapter 8: Monsters.

The power creates an astral construct of the highest level possible, corresponding to the highest-level astral construct power you know.

As a consequence of your direct control, the construct gains a +2 enhancement bonus to Strength and Dexterity, and a +2 enhancement bonus on Will saves.

In practice, the cost to manifest ecto puppet is variable, and is equal to the cost of the astral construct power you emulate + 2.

ECTOPLASMIC ARMOR

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 5/Psychic Warrior 5

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 9

The subject is dressed in a suit of shimmering ectoplasmic armor that provides a +10 armor bonus to AC.

Other armor cannot be worn at the same time as ectoplasmic armor.

If subject takes off the ectoplasmic armor, it immediately dissipates.

Treat ectoplasmic armor as leather armor for purposes of armor check penalty or speed reduction.

Because the armor is composed of astral ectoplasm (emulating force for the purposes of this power), incorporeal creatures can't bypass it the way they do normal armor.

ECTOPLASMIC COCOON

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Ma, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature of Medium-size or smaller

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You draw writhing strands of ectoplasm from the Astral Plane that wrap up the subject like a mummy.

The subject can still breathe but is otherwise helpless, being unable to see or take any physical actions.

The subject cannot speak because the ectoplasmic strands muffle sounds, but the subject's nostrils are clear.

The subject can execute purely mental actions (such as manifesting powers).

The writhing, regenerating nature of the cocoon prevents its occupant from making a physical bid for escape.

However, cutting or damaging a large enough strand can free the cocooned victim.

The strands have hardness 17 and 30 hit points.

Creatures that are cocooned high in the air fall, and cocooned swimmers may drown.

ECTOPLASMIC SHAMBLER

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Ma, Au, Ol (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 full round

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Effect: One ectoplasmic construct, 60 ft. wide and up to 30 ft. high

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

You fashion an ephemeral, many-legged mass of pseudo-living ectoplasm called an ectoplasmic shambler.

The shambler moves as you direct it at a speed of 10 feet. It can completely surround objects (and opponents) over which it is manifested or onto which it moves, because it has the consistency of thick mist.

The vision of those within the shambler is limited to 10 feet, and manifesting powers (or casting spells) within the shambler's “belly” is impossible.

Creatures enveloped by the shambler, regardless of Armor Class, sustain 1 point of damage at the end of each round they remain within the roiling turbulence of the shambler's medium.

A strong wind that blows against the shambler reduces its speed to 0 during the first round, and in subsequent rounds moves it in the direction of the wind at a speed of 5 feet.

FABRICATE

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: See text

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Up to 1 cubic yard/level (see text)

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You convert material of one sort into a product that is of the same material.

Thus, you can fabricate a wooden bridge from a clump of trees, a rope from a patch of hemp, clothes from flax or wool, and so forth.

Creatures and psionic or magic items cannot be created or altered by fabricate.

The quality of items made by this power is commensurate with the quality of material used as the basis for the new fabrication.

If you work with a mineral, the target is reduced to 1 cubic foot per manifester level instead of 1 cubic yard.

You must make an appropriate Craft check to fabricate articles requiring a high degree of craftsmanship (jewelry, swords, glass, crystal, and so on).

Manifesting requires 1 full round per cubic yard (or cubic foot) of material to be affected by the power.

FINGER OF FIRE

Metacreativity (Int) [Fire]

Level: Psion 0

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

A ray of unstable, burning ectoplasm projects from your pointing finger.

You must succeed at a ranged touch attack with the ray to deal damage to a target.

The ray deals 1d3 points of fire damage.

FIREFALL

Metacreativity (Int) [Fire]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 10-ft. radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

Motes of unstable ectoplasm flare and dissipate explosively within the area you designate.

Any creature in the area takes 1d4 points of fire damage.

Flammable materials such as cloth, paper, parchment, thin wood, and so on, burn if the flames touch them.

A character can extinguish burning items as a full-round action.

FLAMING SHROUD

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 6

Display: Ma (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature of Large size or smaller

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

You draw writhing strands of unstable ectoplasm from the Astral Plane and wrap the subject in a shroud of hellish fire.

If the target fails its Reflex save, it suffers 11d6 points of fire damage.

GENESIS

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 week (8 hours/day)

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: See text

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 17

You create a finite plane with limited access: a demiplane. Demiplanes created by this power are very small, very minor planes.

This power should be manifested only while you are on the Ethereal or Astral Plane.

Manifestation of the power creates a local density fluctuation that precipitates the creation of a demiplane.

At first, the fledgling plane grows at a rate of 1 foot in radius per day to an initial maximum radius of 10 feet per manifester level as it rapidly draws substance from surrounding ethereal vapors and protomatter or astral ectoplasm.

Once the new demiplane reaches its maximum size, it doesn't really stop growing, but its growth rate decreases dramatically to only 1/2 inch in radius per week (just over 2 feet per year).

The environment within the demiplane is determined by the manifester when genesis is first manifested, reflecting most any desire the psion can visualize, as long as the DM approves (although no environmental effect within the plane can duplicate effects greater than those of 3rd-level powers).

Factors such as solid ground, air, water, and temperature must be determined by the manifester.

This power cannot create life, nor can it create construction such as buildings, roads, wells, dungeons, and so forth; such particulars must be introduced to the demiplane in some other fashion.

All demiplanes created with genesis are in contact with the Astral and Ethereal Planes.

Antigenesis: It is possible to manifest genesis on normal planes and demiplanes, but only the most perverse or evil shaper would consider doing so.

If genesis is manifested within a normal plane or demiplane, the power takes effect according to the speed noted above; however, the energies of the new plane are exactly canceled by the energies of the original plane, creating a growing dead spot like a cancer on the original plane.

The expanding boundary of the dead spot utterly wipes away all construction, crumbles natural land forms, and evaporates water, leaving behind a uniformly level plain of inert dust.

Living things that pass the boundary of the growing dead spot are not directly harmed.

But plants can find no sustenance in the dust of the dead spot, marine creatures die even more quickly when water turns to dust, and mobile animals know enough to leave the area alone.

An antigenesis wave dies out after 100d10 years, or can be canceled by yet another manifestation of genesis.

GREASE

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target or Area: One object or a 10-ft. × 10-ft. square

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

A grease power covers a solid surface with a layer of slippery grease.

Any creature entering the area or caught in it when the power is manifested must make a successful Reflex save or slip, skid, and fall.

Those who successfully save can move at half speed across the surface.

However, those who remain in the area must each make a new saving throw each round to avoid falling and to be able to move.

The DM should adjust saving throws by circumstance.

The power can also be used to create a greasy coating on an item—a rope, ladder rungs, weapon handle, and so on.

Material objects not in use are always affected by this power, while objects wielded or employed by creatures receive a Reflex save to avoid the effect.

If the initial saving throw fails, the creature immediately drops the item.

A saving throw must be made each round the creature attempts to pick up or use the greased item.

IMPROVED FABRICATE

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 6

Target: Up to 10 cubic yd./level

Power Points: 11

As fabricate, except ten times as much material is affected by the power.

INCARNATE

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 2 rounds

Range: See text

Target, Effect, or Area: See text

Duration: Permanent (see text)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9, XP cost

You invest other powers with self-sustaining energy so that they become permanent.

You must be at least the minimum level required to manifest the power.

This power has no effect on powers that already create a permanent effect.

You can't incarnate a power with no duration or a duration of instantaneous.

You can't incarnate a power that has an XP cost of its own, nor can you incarnate a power of level 6 or higher.

You must expend XP when manifesting this power.

You can never expend so much XP that doing so would drop you one or more levels (though you could forgo gaining a level in order to incarnate a particularly costly power).

The XP costs vary depending on the target.

Incarnate can be negated by a higher-level psion who also manifests incarnate or by use of psychic surgery.

The DM may not allow some powers to become permanent through incarnate.

(Use the permanency spell description for a guide to what can and cannot be made permanent).

You know before you attempt to incarnate a power if you can or cannot make it permanent.

XP Cost: To make a power permanent in regard to yourself, you must expend a number of XP equal to the power's level × 300.

To make a power permanent in regard to another creature, you must expend a number of XP equal to the power's level × 600.

To make a power permanent on an object or location, you must expend a number of XP equal to the power's level × 900.

LESSER METAPHYSICAL WEAPON

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Power Points: 1

As metaphysical weapon, except the weapon gains a +1 enhancement bonus on attack and damage rolls.

MAJOR CREATION

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 5

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Duration: See text

Power Points: 9

As minor creation, except you can also create an object of mineral nature: stone, crystal, metal, and so on.

The duration of the created item varies with its relative hardness and rarity:

Hardness and Rarity Examples	Duration
Vegetable matter	2 hours/level
Stone, crystal; base metals	1 hour/level
Precious metals	20 minutes/level
Gems	10 minutes/level
Mithral*	2 rounds/level
Adamantine	1 round/level

*Includes similar rare metals. Items made of mithral are 50% lighter than similar items made of steel.

Items made of adamantite weigh 75% as much as similar items made of steel. They are also harder and better capable of retaining an edge, so armor and shields provide higher AC and weapons allow a bonus on attack and damage rolls (although the Items are not psionic or magical).

See the DUNGEON MASTER's Guide for details.

MASS COCOON

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: A 10-ft. cube-sized cocoon

Duration: 2 hours/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 13

As ectoplasmic cocoon, except you can cocoon several creatures (or a single large creature that fits in a 10-foot cube) in a mass of writhing, tightening ectoplasm. Also, no saving throw is granted; targets within the area are caught and cocooned unless they are too big to fit inside. Teleport and other forms of travel provide a means of escape, but the cocoon extends into the Ethereal Plane, blocking ethereal travel. The mass cocoon resists negate psionics, but it can be disintegrated or destroyed through brute force (it has hardness 25 and too hit points).

METAPHYSICAL WEAPON

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 3/Psychic Warrior 3

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One weapon or fifty projectiles (all of which must be in contact with each other at the time of manifestation)

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 5

A weapon gains a +3 enhancement bonus on attack and damage rolls.

The enhanced weapon glows with pale silver radiance (not sufficient to provide illumination).

An enhancement bonus does not stack with a masterwork weapon's +1 bonus on attacks.

Alternatively, you can affect up to fifty arrows, bolts, or bullets.

The projectiles must all be of the same type, and they have to be together in one group (such as in the same quiver).

Projectiles (but not thrown weapons) lose their enhancement when used.

MIND STORE

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 8

Display: Ma (see text)

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Effect: One storage crystal

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 15

This power makes a storage crystal containing the essence of your living mind (this power can't be used on a dead subject).

Until such time as you perish, the storage crystal is utterly inert.

If you are slain at some later date, your soul transfers into the storage crystal, which begins to dimly glow.

Upon transference, your physical remains (should they still exist) become inert matter and cannot thereafter be restored to life.

The transfer from the slain body to the storage crystal works over any distance, physical or extradimensional, unless some sort of special planar geometry supersedes the transfer.

Once the storage crystal is activated by your physical body's demise, you have the abilities of a psicrystal of the appropriate level, plus all the powers you knew and the power points you possessed when mind store was manifested but at one level lower.

You have thirty days to grow an organic body, after which time your sentience fades and your soul passes on if it hasn't entered a new body.

To grow a body, you (in the storage crystal) must spend ten days in uninterrupted solitude.

The body's constituent parts are pulled as ectoplasm from the Astral Plane, and slowly molded and transformed into a living, breathing body that is an exact duplicate of your body at the time you manifested mind store (the crystal itself slowly breaks down and becomes a part of the new organic body).

When the ten days are completed, you completely and totally inhabit the new body.

You possess all the abilities you possessed when mind store was manifested, at one level lower, but you have none of your equipment.

If the growing body is struck for any amount of damage, it is destroyed and your soul passes on.

Conceivably, you could manifest mind switch to utilize a temporary body, but only an evil psion would smash the storage crystal with an imbedded mind in order to permanently usurp the subject's organic body (unless the subject is, itself, irredeemably evil).

MINOR CREATION

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: An unattended, nonmagical object of nonliving plant matter, up to 1 cu. ft./level

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You create a nonmagical, nonpsionic, unattended object of nonliving, vegetable matter: linen clothes, a hemp rope, a wooden ladder, and so on.

The volume of the item created cannot exceed 1 cubic foot per manifester level.

You must succeed at an appropriate skill check to make a complex item, such as a Craft (bowmaking) check to make straight arrow shafts.

Attempting to use any created object as a material component in a spell causes the spell to fail.

PSYCHOLUMINESCENCE

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi (see text), Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Object touched

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

The object touched begins to glow with a silvery light, shedding in a 20-foot radius.

Creatures who suffer penalties in bright light suffer them while exposed to this psycholuminescence.

The power cannot be manifested on a creature.

If the power is manifested on a small object that is then inside or under a lightproof covering, the power's effects are blocked until the covering is removed.

Psycholuminescence brought into an area of magical darkness (or vice versa) is temporarily negated, so that the otherwise prevailing light conditions exist in the overlapping areas (unless the Psionics Are Different option is in force).

QUINTESSENCE

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Ma (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 1 ounce dollop of quintessence (see text)

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You can collapse a bit of time from the continuum, forming a 1-inch-diameter dollop of thick, gooey material called quintessence.

Quintessence shimmers like a silver mirror from some angles but is transparent from others.

It brings a cool shock that slowly fades to complete numbness after contact with the skin.

You can smooth a dollop of quintessence around any small object, such as a key, a ring, a seal, or an insignia.

Objects sealed within quintessence are protected from the effects of time; in practical terms, they enter a state of stasis.

Living flesh with only partial contact with quintessence is also partially pulled out of the timestream.

This disruption deals 1 point of damage per round beginning 10 rounds after partial contact begins.

Quintessence can be manually scraped away from a protected object, freeing it to rejoin the time stream.

Removing the protective film is 75% likely to force the quintessence to evaporate back into the continuum.

Otherwise, it coalesces again into a 1-inch-diameter bead, available for later usage.

Large quantities of quintessence could theoretically be gathered to preserve large items or structures (or even a complete living creature, which would prevent the damage taken from partial contact).

However, psionic characters and creatures are generally loath to do so because accumulations of quintessence weighing 1 pound or more generate a half-strength catapsi effect (DC 16, radius 5 feet, all are affected, including caster).

SUDDEN MINOR CREATION

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Power Points: 3

As minor creation, except manifestation time is 1 action instead of 1 minute.

TRINKET

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 0

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 round

Range: 0

Effect: One unattended, nonmagical object of nonliving plant matter, up to 1 cu. in.

Duration: 1 minute

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

As minor creation, except the object you create is smaller, and you create it quicker.

For instance, you could create a wooden ring, a piece of paper, a handkerchief, a thin glove, or other item.

You cannot create a dried herb.

poison, or other distillate of dead plant matter that has a special secondary effect.

TRUE CREATION

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 8

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 15, XP cost

As major creation, except items created are permanent and cannot be negated by dispelling magic or negating powers. For all intents and purposes, these items are completely real.

XP Cost: The XP cost equals 10 times the cost of the item in gold pieces (see the Player's Handbook for item costs), or a minimum of 1 XP.

WALL OF ECTOPLASM

Metacreativity (Int)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Wall whose area is up to one 10-ft. square/level or a sphere or hemisphere with a radius of up to 1 ft./level

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 7

You fashion a roiling wall of ectoplasm, imbuing it with solidity.

The wall cannot move and is immune to damage of all kinds.

Wall of ectoplasm is susceptible to powers that negate psionics, but it gains a +4 bonus on any check to determine if the wall is negated.

Spells, powers, and breath weapons cannot pass through the wall in either direction, although psychoportive travel can bypass the barrier.

It blocks ethereal creatures as well as material creatures (though ethereal creatures can usually get around the wall by floating under or over it through material floors and ceilings).

The wall is opaque, so neither vision nor gaze attacks operate through it.

You can form the wall into a flat, vertical plane whose area is up to one 10-foot square per level or into a sphere or hemisphere with a radius of up to 1 foot per level.

The wall of ectoplasm must be continuous and unbroken when formed.

If its surface is broken by any object or creature, the power fails.

WHITEFIRE

Metacreativity (Int) [Fire]

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You draw unstable ectoplasm from the Astral plane that ignites with hellish, white-hot fury.

Whitefire deals 5d4 points of fire damage to all creatures within the area you designate (you must be able to see the target area or a portion of it).

Unattended objects also take damage.

Whitefire sets fire to combustibles and damages objects in the area.

It can melt metals with a low melting point, such as lead, gold, copper, silver, or bronze.

PSYCHOKINESIS

ABLATING

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 6/Psychic Warrior 6

Display: Ma, Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal or close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: You or one willing creature or one object (total weight up to 100 lb./level)

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

You create a psychokinetic shield around the subject that bolsters its powers' chance to survive a negate psionics power (or dispel magic spell).

When ablating is manifested on a creature or object, add +6 to the DC of the negation check or dispel check for each ongoing power subject to negate psionics.

Thus, the DC for each power check is equal to 11 + the power-to-be-negated's manifester level +6.

Ablating ends when its duration expires or after a negate psionics is manifested on its subject.

Negate psionics can negate ablating, but against a targeted negation, ablating is always checked last.

Against an area negation, ablating is checked according to its level (but because of its relatively high level, it could well be negated before weaker powers).

AMPLIFIED INVISIBILITY

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Ma

Target: You or creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Points: 7

As invisibility, except the power persists through one attack made by you.

It ends normally after a second attack.

BIOCURRENT

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Any two living creatures who are no more than 15 ft. apart

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level (see text)

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

Your body's psionically fueled bioelectric currents produce an arc of blue-white electricity that targets a primary foe for 1d4 points of electricity damage per round that you meet the requirements (see below).

Electricity also arcs off the primary foe to strike one additional foe initially within 15 feet of the primary foe, or who subsequently moves within 15 feet of the primary foe while the duration lasts.

Secondary foes also take 1d4 points of damage per round the duration lasts.

Should either the primary or secondary foe fall to below 0 hit points, biocurrent's electrical arc randomly retargets another primary and secondary foe while the duration continues.

Targeted foes may move or make a saving throw each round for half damage (on that round only), but as long as they remain in range, they continue to be affected.

Maintaining biocurrent is a full-round action (you are limited to only 5-foot steps and no other actions).

If you take damage while maintaining biocurrent, you must make a successful Concentration check.

If any of these requirements are not met, the electrical arc winks out.

BRILLIANT BLAST

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi (see text) Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: A 20-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

You psychokinetically focus even the tiniest ambient light into a shriveling blast of brilliance, dealing 9d4 points of heat damage to all creatures within the area. Unattended objects also take damage.

CLAIRTANGENCY

Psychokinesis (Can)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi, Au, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: See text

Area: See text

Duration: Up to 1 minute/level (see text) (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

You can emulate a far hand or far punch effect at any distance, simultaneously emulating clairaudience/clairvoyance.

You can concentrate upon some locale and see almost as if you were there.

Distance is not a factor, but the locale must be known—a place familiar to you or an obvious one (such as behind a door, around a corner, in a copse of trees, and so on).

Once you are gazing upon a particular location, you may use an effect similar to either far hand or far punch (you don't need to manifest either power).

Clairtangency's duration is up to 1 minute/level when used with a far hand effect, but it expires as soon as a far punch effect is used.

CONCUSSION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One individual

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

A target you select is pummelled with telekinetic force for 3d6 points of damage.

You may choose to have the power deal an equal amount of subdual damage instead.

Concussion always affects a subject within range that you can see, even if the subject is in melee or has partial cover or concealment.

Inanimate objects (doors, walls, locks, and so on) cannot be damaged by the power.

CONE OF SOUND

Psychokinesis (Con) [Sonic]

Level: Psion 3

Display: VI, Au (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You release a focused scream of sonic energy that deals 5d4 points of damage to each creature within its area.

The cone begins at your mouth, instigated by the barest whisper.

(Cone of sound doesn't work in an area of magical silence).

Unattended objects also take damage, and the sonic energy can break fragile items.

If the damage caused to an interposing barrier shatters or breaks through it, the sound may continue beyond the barrier if the power's range permits; otherwise, it stops there just as any other power effect does.

CONTROL AIR

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 1,000 feet + 500 ft./level

Area: 1,000-ft.-radius spread + 500 ft./level

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You have some control over wind speed and direction.

The speed of air within the area can be increased or decreased by up to 10 +5/level miles per hour.

You can alter the direction of any wind that moves at this speed or less by up to 90 degrees from its original direction. High winds can create a stinging spray of sand or dust, fan a large fire, heel over a small boat, and blow gases or vapors away.

If powerful enough, they can even knock characters down (see Table 3–17 in Chapter 3 of the DUNGEON MASTER'S Guide for specific effects of various wind speeds).

CONTROL BODY

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One humanoid of Medium-size or smaller

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You psychokinetically control the actions of any humanoid that is Medium-size or smaller.

Control body doesn't require mental contact with the subject.

You can force the subject to perform, although you have only rudimentary control over his limbs.

You can make the subject stand up, sit down, walk, turn around, and so on, but operating the vocal cords is too difficult, and power manifestation is not possible.

You can force the subject to engage in combat, but its attack roll and AC are not its own.

The controlled subject's attack bonus is equal to your base attack bonus + the subject's Strength modifier (or Dexterity modifier if a ranged attack) with a -4 circumstance penalty applied.

The controlled subject cannot make attacks of opportunity against creatures the subject threatens.

The controlled subject's AC gains no benefit from his Dexterity score, but he does gain a positive benefit, if any, equal to half your own Dexterity modifier.

of course, you could also hold the subject immobile, rendering it helpless.

Subjects resist this control, and those forced to take actions against their natures receive one new saving throw with a morale bonus of +2.

You need to see the subject to control it.

While the subject's body is under control, the subject's mind is not.

Creatures that can trigger abilities by an act of will alone can continue to do so.

Thus, a psion in the grip of a control body power could attempt to manifest powers.

Attempting to manifest powers in this fashion requires a Concentration check for each power manifested against a DC of 10 + the level of the power the subject attempts to manifest.

CONTROL FLAMES

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: One nonmagical fire source up to 1 sq. ft./level (see text)

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You pyrokinetically control the intensity or movements of one fire source.

A nonmagical fire source can be controlled if its bed or base is equal to or less than 1 square foot/level; larger fires cannot be controlled.

You can freely switch control between fire sources, or change the character of control while you maintain concentration, but only one specified change can be made to one fire source in a round.

When control over a fire source lapses, that fire immediately returns to its original state (or goes out if it has no fuel or has been moved beyond its original bed).

Increase/Decrease Flame: You can increase a fire's size by up to 1 square foot/level.

Each 1-square-foot expansion increases the potential damage the flames can deal by +1.

You can increase a fire's size beyond the original area, as long as it was equal to or smaller than the allowed size to begin with.

You can artificially keep a fire burning that would normally expire for lack of fuel, but dousing a controlled fire in sufficient water still puts it out.

For instance, an opponent targeted by burning oil or otherwise at risk of catching fire must succeed at a Reflex save (DC 15) to avoid this fate.

On a failed saving throw, the victim takes 1d6 points of damage.

Normally the victim is allowed a Reflex save each round to put out the flames, but a 4th-level psion using control flames can artificially keep the flames alive, and moreover, mentally fan them so that the victim takes 1d6+4 points of damage each round.

You can decrease the intensity of a flame by 1 square foot/level.

Each such decrease in flame intensity causes a -1 reduction to its damage potential (to a minimum of 1 point).

Reducing a fire's size to zero extinguishes it permanently.

Animate Fire: You can make a fire move as if a living creature.

An animated fire moves with a speed of 30 feet.

It can have a crude humanoid or crude shape (or something more artistic, with an appropriate Craft [sculpting] check against a DC set by the DM), as long as the fire's overall volume does not exceed its original volume.

A fire that moves away from its fuel or its original bed dies as soon as control over it lapses.

The animated fire can attack a target using the controller's base attack bonus to deliver touch attacks.

A successful attack has a chance to set the foe on fire (the foe must roll a Reflex save [DC 15] to avoid this).

Normally the victim is allowed a Reflex save each round to put out the flames; otherwise the fire burns for another 1d6 points of damage.

Additional hits by the animated fire mean additional chances of ignition.

The damage from multiple normal fires stacks, but the victim gets a saving throw each round to negate each fire.

It is possible to switch control from the animated fire to intensify flames that are already burning (thus denying the foe Reflex saves after the first).

CONTROL LIGHT

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 9 10-ft. cubes + 3 1 0-ft. cubes/level

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You manipulate ambient light levels within the area.

You can increase or decrease total illumination in an area by up to 20% per manifester level. This increases or decreases overall effective range of vision for characters and creatures dependent on light by the same percentage. For instance, a human can see 30 feet with the light of a torch.

If control light is used to increase illumination by 20%, humans can see 36 feet and elves (with low-light vision) can see 72 feet within the power's area.

If you decrease the ambient light in an area by 100% (at 5th level or higher), even those with low-light vision are blinded within the affected area.

The change in intensity can be gradual or sudden.

Decreasing ambient light grants circumstance bonuses to Hide checks in the area by +1 for each 40% graduation.

You can increase the ambient light in the area to “blinding intensity”, blinding all normally sighted creatures in the area who fail Fortitude save for 1 round.

CONTROL OBJECT

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One nonmagical, unattended object weighing up to 100 pounds

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You telekinetically “bring to life” inanimate objects. Though not actually alive, objects move under your control. For instance, a chair may walk, a dead tree shuffle, a stone waddle.

Live vegetation may not be controlled in this fashion, nor may already animate objects or undead.

The controlled object moves like a puppet, with jerky and clumsy movements.

If rigid, it makes creaking, groaning, or grating sounds as you control it.

The object can move with a speed of 10 feet.

A controlled object that attacks an opponent has one slam attack with an attack bonus of +0, dealing 1d4 points of bludgeoning damage.

Note: You may attempt to “control” a normal lock, making it move in such a way as to attempt to unlock itself.

Using this power in this fashion grants a +4 competence bonus on Open Lock checks involving that particular lock.

CONTROL SHADOW

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 4/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: 01

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: Shadow cast by any object or creature with a total area of up to 100 sq. ft.

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You control the shadow cast by anyone or anything. The controlled shadow is like a puppet that parodies imagined actions of the object or creature casting the shadow, even if the subject stands still.

You can even make the shadow move away from its source, so long as it is cast along a wall or flat surface and remains within range.

CONTROL SOUND

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One sound or mixture of related sounds

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: See text

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You shape and alter existing sounds.

You can target one sound, such as a person speaking or singing, or a group of related sounds, such as the patter of many raindrops or the tramp of soldiers passing by. A sound as quiet as a snapping finger can be controlled, but no quieter.

You can substitute any nonmagical sound you’ve heard for the target sound.

For instance, you could replace the sound of a dragon’s snores with the sound of a trickling waterfall.

You can change the words of a speaker into inarticulate babble or into other words entirely (though a speaker generally winds to a halt when every word comes out as something unintended).

If you attempt to exactly duplicate the voice of a specific individual, or an inherently terrifying sound (such as a dragon’s roar), you must succeed at a Bluff check with a +5 circumstance bonus opposed by the defender’s Sense Motive check to avoid arousing suspicion.

You can muffle a sound all the way to nothing, or magnify a sound of such loudness that it can shatter nonmagical objects of crystal, glass, ceramics, or porcelain (vials, bottles, flasks, jugs, mirrors, and so forth).

When a sound is destructively magnified in this manner, all applicable objects within a 3-foot radius of the originating sound are smashed into dozens of pieces.

Objects weighing more than 1 pound per manifester level are not affected.

Alternatively, you can modulate a sound so that it affects only a single item of the appropriate material weighing up to 10 pounds per manifester level, if within 5 feet of the originating sound.

Crystalline creatures of any weight take 1d6 points of damage per manifester level (maximum 10d6) if within 5 feet of the originating sound.

CREATE SOUND

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Sounds (see text)

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You create a volume of sound that arises, recedes, approaches, or remains at a fixed place.

You choose what type of sound the power creates when first manifesting it and cannot thereafter change its basic character.

The volume of sound created, however, depends on your level.

You can produce as much noise as four normal humans per manifester level (maximum twenty humans).

Thus, talking, singing, shouting, walking, marching, or running sounds can be created.

The noise produced can be virtually any type of sound within the volume limit.

A horde of rats running and squeaking is about the same volume as eight humans running and shouting.

A roaring lion is equal to the noise from sixteen humans, while a roaring dire cat is equal to the noise from twenty humans.

If you wish to create a specific message, only a few words can be created, and they repeat over and over until the duration expires or is dismissed.

If you attempt to exactly duplicate the voice of a specific individual or an inherently terrifying sound (such as a dragon's roar), you must succeed at a Bluff check with a +2 circumstance bonus opposed by the defender's Sense Motive check to avoid arousing suspicion.

Create sound can be used as a basis for control sound effects.

DETONATION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 9

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 17

As concussion, except detonation deals 17d6 points of damage. You may choose to have the power deal an equal amount of subdual damage instead.

DISINTEGRATE

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 6

Display: Vi, Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

A slick, translucent ray springs from your pointing finger, causing the creature or object it strikes to glow and vanish, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust.

You must make a successful ranged touch attack to hit.

Up to a 10-foot cube of nonliving matter is affected, so the power disintegrates only part of any very large object or structure targeted.

The ray affects even magical and psionic matter or energy of a magical or psionic nature, such as a wall of force or a wall of ectoplasm, but not a null psionics field or similar areas that negate psionics or magic.

A creature or object that makes a successful Fortitude save is only partially affected.

It suffers 5d6 points of damage instead of disintegrating. Only the first creature or object struck can be affected (that is, the ray only affects one target per manifestation).

DISSOLUTION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature or object

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

A creature or object you select is disintegrated, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust.

Dissolution is like disintegrate except that it affects up to a 50-foot cube of nonliving, nonmagical matter whose hardness is less than 15.

A creature or object that makes a successful Fortitude save is only partially affected, taking 10d6 points of damage instead of disintegrating.

Only the first creature or object targeted can be affected (that is, the power affects only one target per manifestation).

FAR HAND

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 0

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: A nonmagical, unattended object weighing up to 5 pounds

Duration: Concentration

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You can lift and move an object at will from a distance.

As a move-equivalent action, you can move the object up to 15 feet in any direction, though the power ends if the distance between you and the object ever exceeds the power's range.

FAR PUNCH

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Vi, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One individual

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

A target you select is buffeted with telekinetic force for 1 point of damage.

Far punch always affects a target within range that you can see, even if the target is in melee or has partial cover or concealment.

However, a shield spell protects the target.

Inanimate objects (doors, walls, locks, and so on) cannot be damaged by the power.

GREATER BIOCURRENT

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 6

Target: Any four living creatures that are no more than 15 ft. apart

Power Points: 11

As bicurrent except you deal 6d6 points of electricity damage per round you meet the requirements.

Electricity also arcs off the primary target to strike three additional foes initially within 15 feet of the primary foe, or who subsequently move within 15 feet of the primary foe while the duration lasts.

Secondary foes also take 6d6 points of damage per round the duration lasts.

Should any of the primary or secondary foes fall to below 0 hit points, greater bicurrent's electrical arc randomly retargets another primary and other secondary foes while the duration continues.

Targeted foes may move or make a saving throw each round for half damage (on that round only), but as long as they remain in range, they continue to be affected.

GREATER CONCUSSION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 3

Power Points: 5

As concussion, except greater concussion deals 5d6 points of damage.

You may choose to have the power deal an equal amount of subdual damage instead.

IMPROVED CLAIRTANGENCY

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 8

Power Points: 15

As clairtangency, except you can emulate telekinesis in conjunction with a clairaudience/clairvoyance effect (you don't need to manifest telekinesis to use this power).

Improved clairtangency's duration is up to 1 minute/level when the telekinesis effect is used as a sustained force, but it expires immediately after a violent thrust.

IMPROVED TELEKINESIS

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 7

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes/level, or instantaneous (see text)

Power Points: 13

As telekinesis, except stronger and longer lasting (if a sustained force).

When generating a sustained force, you move a creature or object weighing up to 100 pounds per manifester level up to 50 feet per round.

When generating a violent thrust, objects cause damage as noted in telekinesis, and creatures within the weight range take 6d6 points of damage (as if they had fallen from 60 feet).

INERTIAL BARRIER

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 4/Psychic Warrior 4

Display: Au, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 10 minutes/level or until discharged

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 7

You create a psychokinetic barrier around the subject that resists blows, cuts, stabs, and slashes, as well as providing some protection against falling.

The subject gains damage reduction 10/+5.

Once the power has prevented a total of 10 points of damage per manifester level (maximum 150 points), it is discharged.

Inertial barrier also absorbs up to half the damage from a fall. Damage absorbed from a fall counts toward discharging the effect.

The psychokinetic barrier delays the effects of gases in the atmosphere for 2d4 rounds.

INVISIBILITY

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 2

Display: None

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal or touch

Target: You or a creature or object weighing no more than 100 lb./level

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

Power Points: 3

The creature or object touched vanishes from sight, even from darkvision.

If the recipient is a creature carrying gear, the gear vanishes, too.

If you manifest the power on someone else, neither you nor your allies can see the subject, unless you can normally see invisible things or employ psionics to do so.

Items dropped or put down by an invisible creature become visible; items picked up disappear if tucked into the clothing or pouches worn by the creature.

Light, however, never becomes invisible, although a source of light can become so (thus, the effect is that of a light with no visible source).

Any part of an item that the subject carries but that extends more than 10 feet from her becomes visible, such as a trailing rope.

Of course, the subject is not magically silenced, and certain other conditions can render the recipient detectable (such as stepping in a puddle).

The power ends if the subject attacks any creature.

For purposes of this power, an "attack" includes any power targeting a foe or whose area or effect includes a foe. (Exactly who is a foe depends on the invisible character's perceptions).

Actions directed at unattended objects do not negate the power.

Causing harm indirectly is not an attack.

Thus, an invisible being can open doors, talk, eat, climb stairs, fashion an astral construct and have it attack for her, cut the ropes holding a rope bridge while enemies are on the bridge, remotely trigger traps, open a portcullis to release attack dogs, and so on.

If she attacks directly, however, she immediately becomes visible along with all her gear.

Note that powers that specifically affect allies but not foes are not attacks for this purpose, even when they include foes in their area.

An invisible attacker gains a +2 bonus on his attack roll (for the single attack, either melee or ranged, that he is allowed before becoming visible), and the defender against such an attack loses any Dexterity bonus to Armor Class.

LESSER CONCUSSION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 1

Power Points: 1

As concussion, except lesser concussion deals 1d6 points of damage.

MASS CONCUSSION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft. radius sphere

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

As concussion, except telekinetic pressure causes all creatures and objects within the area to explosively rupture, dealing 7d4 points of damage to creatures and unattended objects.

MATTER AGITATION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 2 sq. ft. of surface area of an object or creature

Duration: Concentration, up to 2 rounds/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You can excite the structure of a nonmagical object, heating it to the point of combustion over time.

If you shift your focus to another object, the first object cools and the second object begins to heat up.

1st Round: Readily flammable materials (paper, dry grass, tinder, torches) ignite.

Skin reddens (1 point of damage).

2nd Round: Wood smolders and smokes, metal becomes hot to the touch, skin blisters (1d4 points of damage), hair smolders, paint shrivels, water boils.

3rd Round: Wood ignites, metal scorches (1d4 points of damage for those holding metallic objects).

Skin burns and hair ignites (1d6 points of damage), lead melts.

You can continue to agitate a chosen surface area up to the duration of the power if concentration holds, but you can only deal a maximum of 1d6 points of damage against a living or undead subject.

MATTER MANIPULATION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 8

Display: Au, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 1 cu. ft./level of inanimate material

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15, XP cost

You can weaken or strengthen the substance of an object or structure.

You can affect both mundane and magical inanimate material.

Weakening an object's substance decreases its hardness and hit points, and strengthening it increases its hardness and hit points.

You can increase or decrease an object's hardness by up to 5 from its base hardness (see Table 8-12, Table 8-13, and Table 8-15 in Chapter 8 of the Player's Handbook).

When hardness increases, the object (or portion of an object) gains 3 hit points per inch of thickness per increased hardness.

When hardness decreases, the object (or portion of an object) loses 2 hit points per inch of thickness per decreased hardness (to a minimum of 1 hit point/inch of thickness).

You can't decrease the hardness (or the hit points) of an object that already has a hardness of 0.

For instance, you can increase the hardness of a 1-inch-thick rope from 0 to 5, at the same time giving it a total of 17 hit points.

You could also reduce the hardness of a stone wall to 3 and its hit points/inch of thickness to 5, making the affected area much more easily breached.

Working Manipulated Metals: An object or portion thereof whose hardness is decreased or increased is permanently changed.

If several ingots of iron were increased to hardness 15, they would possess the strength qualities of mithral (although having more hit points).

If mithral were manipulated to hardness 20, it would share the special characteristics of a weapon or armor forged of adamantine (though it would look like mithral).

Hardening adamantine to 25 is possible, but this confers no benefits other than a higher hardness and more hit points/inch of thickness.

You can also harden or weaken a preforged weapon, armor, or other finished item.

XP Cost: The item's final hardness × 100 XP.

MATTER REARRANGEMENT

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Nonmagical metal objects weighting up to a total of 1/10 pound, each no more than 1 inch from another

Duration: instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9, XP cost

You can transmute one metal into another.

Each time you manifest the power, you affect a metal object up to 1/10 pound, or several metal objects whose total weight does not exceed 1/10 pound.

In practical terms, 1/10 pound equals five standard coins (5 cp, 5 sp, 5 gp, and so on).

XP Cost: The XP cost equals the gp value of the newly transmuted metal, or a minimum of 1 XP.

For instance, if you transmute 5 copper coins into 5 gold coins, the cost is 5 XP.

If you transmute 5 copper coins to 5 platinum coins, the cost is 50 XP.

MY LIGHT

Psychokinesis (Con) [Light]

Level: Psion 0

Display: Au, Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal and 20 ft.

Target: You and 20-ft. cone

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Power Points: 1 Your eyes beam forth a 20-foot-long cone of light.

You and other creatures can see normally in the light.

If you walk into an area filled with psionic or magical darkness, my light goes dark while you stay within it.

NEGATE PSIONICS

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target or Area: One psionic character or creature, or one object; or 30-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You can use negate psionics to end ongoing powers that are manifested on a creature or object, to temporarily suppress the psionic abilities of a psionic item, or to end ongoing power (or at least their effects) within an area.

A negated power ends as if its duration had expired.

Negate psionics can negate (but not counter) the ongoing effects of supernatural abilities as well as psionic powers.

Negate psionics affects spell-like abilities just as it affects powers (and spells).

You can't use negate psionics to undo the effects of any power with instantaneous duration.

You choose to use negate psionics in one of two ways: a targeted negation or an area negation: Targeted Negation: One object, creature, or power is the target of the power. You make a negation check against the power or against each ongoing power currently in effect on the object or creature.

A negation check is 1d20 + 1 per manifester level (maximum +10) against a DC of 11 + the power-to-be-negated's manifester level.

If the object that you target is a psionic item, you make a negation check against the item's manifester level.

If you succeed, all the item's psionic properties are suppressed for 1d4 rounds, after which the item recovers on its own.

A suppressed item becomes nonpsionic for the duration of the effect.

You automatically succeed in your negation check against any power that you manifest yourself.

Area Negation: The power affects everything within a 30-foot radius.

For each creature that is the target of one or more powers, you make a negation check against the power with the highest manifester level. If that fails, you make negation checks against progressively weaker powers until you negate one power (which discharges the negate psionics so far as that target is concerned) or fail all your checks. The creature's psionic items are not affected.

For each object that is the target of one or more powers, you make negation checks as with creatures.

Psionic items are not affected by area negations.

For each ongoing power with an area centered within the negate psionics target area, you make a negation check to negate the power.

For each ongoing power whose area overlaps with that of the negation, you make a negation check to end the effect but only within the area of the negate psionics.

NULL PSIONICS FIELD

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 6

Display: Vi, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: A 10-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: See text

Power Points: 11

An invisible barrier surrounds you and moves with you.

The space within this barrier is totally impervious to most psionic effects.

Likewise, it prevents the functioning of any psionic items or psionic powers within its confines.

The field suppresses any powers or psionic effects used within, brought into, or manifested into the area, but does not negate them.

A dominated creature, for example, is not dominated while inside the field, but the power resumes functioning when it leaves the field.

Time spent within a null psionics field counts against the suppressed power's duration.

Astral constructs wink out if they enter the field (or are inside one when it is created).

The construct reappears in the same spot once the null psionics field no longer covers the spot where the construct was.

Time spent winked out counts normally against the duration of the power that's maintaining the creature.

If the construct has power resistance, when you manifest the null psionics field you must make a manifester level check (1d20 + manifester level) against the construct's PR to make it wink out.

A psionic sword does not function psionically within the area, but it is still a sword (and a masterwork sword at that). The power has no effect on constructs that are imbued with psionics during their creation process and are thereafter self-supporting (unlike astral constructs that persist only so long as a power's duration).

Undead and outsiders are likewise unaffected (unless summoned).

These creatures' psionic powers, spell-like abilities, or supernatural abilities, however, may be temporarily nullified by the field.

A negate psionics power does not remove the field.

Two or more null psionics fields have no appreciable effect on each other.

Artifacts, relics, and creatures of demigod or higher status are unaffected by mortal psionics such as this.

Note: Should you be larger than the area enclosed by the field, any part of your person that lies outside the field is unaffected by the field.

POWER TURNING

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Vi, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Until completely expended or 10 minutes/level

Power Points: 13

Powers (and spell-like effects) targeted against you rebound on the original manifester.

This power only turns psionic powers that have you as a target.

Effect and area powers are not affected.

Power turning also fails to affect touch range powers.

Thus, a charm person power manifested at you could be turned back upon and possibly charm the manifester, but whitefire could not be turned back, and neither could destiny dissonance.

From 7 to 10 (1d4+6) power levels are affected by the turning.

The DM secretly rolls the exact number.

Each power turned subtracts its level from the amount of power turning left.

A power might be only partially turned.

Subtract these from the power level of the incoming psionic power.

Divide the number of the remaining levels of the incoming power by the power level of the incoming power to see what fraction of the effect gets through.

For damaging power, you and the original manifester each suffer a fraction of the damage.

For nondamaging powers, each of you has a proportional chance to be affected.

If you and an attacker are both warded by power turning effects in operation, a resonating field is created.

Roll randomly to determine the result:

d%	Effect
01-70	Power drains away without effect.
71-80	Power affects both of you equally at full effect.
81-97	Both turning effects are rendered non-functional for 1d4 minutes.
98-100	Both of you go through a rift into another plane.

PSYCHIC VAMPIRE

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 5/Psychic Warrior 5

Display: Vi (see text), Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

This power shrouds your hand with darkness that you can use to drain an opponent's power.

Your successful melee touch attack drains 2 power points/level from your foe and transfers them immediately to you.

You can't gain more power points than you normally have available in a day.

The stolen power points remain in your reserve until used normally.

Your touch attack, charged with a psionic power, is armed as an armed attack.

Against psionic beings who have no power points (such as a psionic character with an empty power point reserve, or a psionic monster that freely manifests its powers), your touch instead deals 1 point of temporary Intelligence, Wisdom, or Charisma damage (your choice).

You gain 1 power point from this drain.

You have the same effect on nonpsionic opponents.

REDDOPSI

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Au, Ol, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Until expended or 10 minutes/level

Power Points: 13

When you manifest reddopsi [red-ob-sigh], psionic powers (excluding attack modes) targeted against you rebound on the original manifester.

This reverses only powers that have you as a target.

Area powers and those that target effects are not affected.

Reddopsi also fails to reflect touch range powers.

Reddopsi can reverse any power, but ends as soon as it has done so, no matter how minor the power.

Should you reverse a power back on a manifester who also is affected by reddopsi, the power rebounds once more upon you.

SEVER THE TIE

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Several undead creatures within a 10-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You disrupt an undead creature's tie to the Negative Energy Plane, damaging or destroying the creature.

Your psychokinetic "scythe" deals 3d8 points of damage to all undead within the area.

Undead that are brought to 0 hit points or below by use of the power fall limply and molder into dust (if corporeal), or slowly disperse (if incorporeal).

STOMP

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au, Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: Two-dimensional "cone" (see text)

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex negates

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

Your foot stomp precipitates a psychokinetic shock wave that travels along the ground, toppling creatures and loose objects.

The area is conelike but extends in only two dimensions, flat along the ground (creatures in the air above the shock wave are not affected).

All creatures standing in the area who fail their Reflex saves are thrown to the ground and take 1d4 subdual damage in the process.

Rising from a prone position is a move-equivalent action.

TELEKINESIS

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 4/Psychic Warrior 4

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Target or Targets: See text

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 round/level, or instantaneous (see text)

Saving Throw: Will negates (object) (see text)

Power Resistance: Yes (object) (see text)

Power Points: 7

You move objects or creatures by concentrating on them.

The power can provide either a gentle, sustained force or a single short, violent thrust (manifesters' choice).

Sustained Force: A sustained force moves a creature or object weighing up to 25 pounds per manifester level up to 20 feet per round.

A creature can negate the effect against itself or against an object it possesses with a successful Will save or with power resistance.

This version of the power lasts up to 1 round per manifester level, but it ends if you cease concentration.

The weight can be moved vertically, horizontally, or both.

An object cannot be moved beyond your range.

The power ends if the object is forced beyond the range.

If you cease concentration for any reason, the object falls or stops.

An object can be telekinetically manipulated as if with one hand.

For example, a lever or rope can be pulled, a key can be turned, an object rotated, and so on, if the force required is within the weight limitation.

You might even be able to untie simple knots, though fine actions such as these require Intelligence checks against a DC set by the DM.

Violent Thrust: Alternatively, the telekinetic power can be expended in a single round.

You can hurl one or more objects or creatures that are within range and all within 10 feet of each other toward any target within 10 feet/level of all the objects.

You can hurl up to a total weight of 25 pounds per manifester level.

You must succeed at attack rolls (one per creature or object thrown) to hit the target with the items, using your base attack plus your Intelligence modifier.

Weapons cause standard damage (with no Strength bonus).

Other objects cause damage ranging from 1 point per 25 pounds (for less dangerous objects such as a barrel) to 1d6 points of damage per 25 pounds for hard, dense objects (such as a boulder).

Creatures who fall within the weight capacity of the power can be hurled, but they are allowed Will saves to negate the effect, as are those whose held possessions are targeted by the power.

If creatures are telekinetically hurled against solid surfaces, they take damage as if they had fallen 10 feet (1d6 points).

TELEKINETIC SPHERE

Psychokinesis (Con) [Force]

Level: Psion 8

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 1-ft.-diameter/level sphere, centered on creatures or objects

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex negates (object)

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 15

A globe of shimmering force encloses a creature or object, provided it is small enough to fit within the diameter of the sphere.

The sphere contains its subject for the power's duration.

The sphere is not subject to damage of any sort except from a third eye negate (or similar magical items), disintegrate, or a targeted negate psionics power.

These destroy the sphere without harm to the subject.

Nothing can pass through the sphere, inside or out, though the subjects can breathe normally.

Creatures or objects inside the globe are nearly weightless. Anything contained within a telekinetic sphere weighs only one-sixteenth of its normal weight.

You can telekinetically lift anything in the sphere that normally weighs up to 5,000 pounds. Telekinetic control extends to a maximum distance of medium range from you (100 feet + 10 feet per manifester level) after the sphere has actually encapsulated its contents.

You move objects or creatures in the sphere by concentrating on them.

The sphere begins moving the round after manifesting the power.

A round's concentration (a standard action) moves the sphere up to 30 feet.

If you cease concentrating, the sphere does not move that round (if on a level surface) or descends at its falling rate (if aloft) until it reaches a level surface, the power's duration ends, or you begin concentrating again.

Because of the reduced weight, the sphere falls at a rate of only 60 feet per round, which is not fast enough to cause damage to its contents.

If you cease concentrating (voluntarily or due to failing a Concentration check), you can resume concentrating on your next turn or any later turn during the power's duration.

You can move the sphere telekinetically even if you are in it.

Note that even if more than 5,000 pounds of weight is englobed, the perceived weight is only one-sixteenth of the actual weight, so the sphere can be rolled without exceptional effort.

TRUE CONCUSSION

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 7

Power Points: 13

As concussion, except true concussion deals 13d6 points of damage.

You may choose to have the power deal an equal amount of subdual damage instead.

TRUE TELEKINESIS

Psychokinesis (Con)

Level: Psion 9

Duration: Concentration, up to 10 minutes/level, or instantaneous (see text)

Power Points: 17

As telekinesis and improved telekinesis, except stronger and longer lasting (if a sustained force).

When generating a sustained force, you move a creature or object weighing up to 500 pounds per manifester level up to 100 feet per round.

When generating a violent thrust, objects cause damage as noted in telekinesis, and creatures within the weight range take 16d6 points of damage (as if they had fallen from 160 feet).

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

ADAMANT GRASP

Psychometabolism(Str)

Level: Psychic Warrior 5

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 9

All your grapple checks receive a +10 competence bonus while the duration lasts.

ADAPT BODY

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 5/psychic Warrior 5

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 9

You can adapt your body to hostile environments.

You choose the environment at the time you manifest the power.

You can adapt to underwater, extremely hot, extremely cold, and even airless environments, allowing you to survive like a creature native to that environment, if any. You can breathe and move, and you take no damage simply from being in that environment.

You can somewhat adapt to extreme environments such as acid, lava, fire, electricity, and other volatile areas.

Any environment that normally directly deals 1 or more dice of damage per round (such as lava, which deals 20d6 points of damage per round of immersion) is too extreme for this power (although it subtracts the first die of damage from the total dealt per round).

An attack form does not constitute an environment.

For example, even if you're adapted to arctic conditions, you are still vulnerable to psionic or magical attacks that deal cold damage.

AFFINITY FIELD

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 10 minutes (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

You create an affinity feedback loop with all creatures within the area.

While the duration lasts, affected creatures feel all physical forces that you feel.

Hit point gain or loss persists after this power ends.

For instance, if you take 10 points of damage from a sword wound, all creatures within the area also take 10 points of damage.

On the other hand, if you are subject to healing psionics or magic, all creatures in the affinity field are also healed.

Creatures in range are also subject to magical and psionic effects of 3rd level or less, but all magic and psionic effects transferred to others fade at the end of this power's duration, although instantaneous effects remain, such as the effects of curing power.

For instance, if you manifest animal affinity to gain the average Strength score of a black bear, so too do all creatures in range.

However, even though animal affinity lasts much longer, when affinity field ends, all affected creatures lose the benefit of whatever power or powers still remain in affect on you.

ANIMAL AFFINITY

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 3

You forge a psychometabolic affinity with a chosen kind of animal ("animal" is a creature type defined in the Monster Manual), from which you emulate one ability score.

You can emulate only one ability score per manifestation of animal affinity, although multiple manifestations can affect you, as long as each emulates different ability score.

Any of the six ability scores can be enhanced in this fashion.

You can increase your own ability score by a maximum of $1d4+1$ points.

Thus, if you have a Dexterity of 10, you could raise it to a maximum of 15 (on a good roll).

The new ability score takes the place of your own for the duration of the power.

You cannot emulate gross physical qualities such as wings, claws, fangs, and related anatomies, but you do take on some subtle characteristics of the chosen animal, at the DM's discretion.

BIOFEEDBACK

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 1

You can constrict bleeding around wounds, lessening their impact.

You take a portion of any attack that deals damage as points of subdual damage equal to your Strength modifier.

Thus, a character with a Strength score of 15 who is dealt 10 points of damage by a power or weapon actually takes 8 points of normal damage and 2 points of subdual damage. This power is not retroactive to wounds received prior to manifesting biofeedback.

BITE OF THE TIGER

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 3/Psychic Warrior 3

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

Your posture becomes stooped forward, and you grow a tigerlike muzzle complete with rending fangs.

The power grants you a bite attack (which does not draw an attack of opportunity) with a base damage of 2d8 points.

You can use this power in conjunction with feats, powers, or spells allowing additional attacks in one round, and it can be used with: multiple attacks gained through level advancement.

See Psychometabolism Powers in Chapter 4: Psionics for how to handle multiple attacks.

BITE OF THE WOLF

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: 1

Your posture becomes stooped forward, and you grow a wolflike muzzle complete with fangs.

The power grants you a bite attack (which does not draw an attack of opportunity) with a base damage of 1d8 points.

You can use this power in conjunction with feats, powers, or spells allowing additional attacks in one round, and it can be used with multiple attacks gained through level advancement.

See Psychometabolism Powers in Chapter 4: Psionics for how to handle multiple attacks.

BODY ADJUSTMENT

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 full round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

You take control of your own living body, allowing you to heal injury.

You cure yourself of 3d6 points of damage.

Alternatively, you can focus on a disease or poison.

You must manifest body adjustment separately for each different condition.

If used against a disease, your next daily Fortitude save to attempt to throw off the infection gains a bonus equal to 4 + your manifester level.

If used against a poison, your secondary Fortitude save (usually made 1 minute after the first exposure to poison) gains a bonus equal to 4 + your manifester level. Multiple uses of body adjustment for use against poison or disease do not stack.

Finally, you can use body adjustment to heal 2 points of temporary ability damage.
You don't gain all three benefits from a single manifestation of this power.

BODY EQUILIBRIUM

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2
Display: Vi, Ma
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 3
You can adjust your body equilibrium to correspond with any solid or liquid that you stand on.
Thus, you can walk on water, quicksand, or even a spider's web without sinking breaking through (this does not confer any resistance to particularly sticky webs).
You can move at your normal speed, but you cannot run ($\times 4$ speed) on an unfirm surface without sinking or breaking.
If you fall while using this power, damage from the impact is halved.

BREATH OF THE DRAGON

Psychometabolism (Str) [Fire]
Level: Psion 6/Psychic Warrior 6
Display: Vi (see text), Ma
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Area: Cone
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Reflex half
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 11

You breathe forth raging fire, originating from your mouth and extending outward in a cone.
This attack deals 11d4 points of fire damage.

CHAMELEON

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 2
Display: Ol
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)
Power Points: 3

Your skin and equipment take on the color and texture of nearby objects, including floors and walls.
You receive a +10 enhancement bonus on Hide checks.

CLAWS OF THE BEAR

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2
Display: Vi, Ma
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 hour/level

Power Points: 3

Your forearms lengthen, your hands broaden into wide paws, and you grow sicklelike bear claws on both hands.
The power grants you a claw attack (which does not draw an attack of opportunity) with a base damage of 1d12.
You can use this power in conjunction with feats, powers, or spells allowing additional attacks in 1 round, and it can be used with multiple attacks gained through level advancement.
See Psychometabolism Powers in Chapter 4: Psionics for how to handle multiple attacks.

CLAWS OF THE VAMPIRE

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 3/Psychic Warrior 3
Display: Vi, Ma
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 hour/level
Power Points: 5

The fingernails on both your hands grow to wicked, 2-inch-long points.
The power grants you a claw attack (which does not draw an attack of opportunity) with a base damage of 1d8.
Simultaneously, you heal as many points of damage as you deal with claws of the vampire.
You can use this power in conjunction with feats, powers, or spells allowing additional attacks in one round, and it can be used with multiple attacks gained through level advancement.
See Psychometabolism Powers in Chapter 4: Psionics for how to handle multiple attacks.

COMPRESSION

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1
Display: Ol
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 minute/level (D)
Power Points: 1

You can decrease your size.
You shrink up to 10% per your manifester level, decreasing by this amount in height, width and depth (to a maximum reduction of 50%).
Weight decreases by approximately the cube of the size decrease as follows:

Height Decrease	Weight Decrease
-10% (x0.9)	-30% (x0.7)
-20% (x0.8)	-50% (x0.5)
-30% (x0.7)	-60% (x0.4)
-40% (x0.6)	-80% (x0.2)
-50% (x0.5)	-90% (x0.1)

Your equipment also shrinks.
Your hit points, Armor Class and attack rolls do not change, but Strength decreases along with size.
For every 10% of reduction, your Strength score suffers an enlargement penalty of -1, to a minimum score of 1.

Multiple psionic or magical effects that decrease size do not stack.

DISPLACEMENT

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 3/Psychic Warrior 3

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 5

Emulating the displacement ability of the displacer beast, you appear to be about 2 feet away from your true location. You benefit from a 50% miss chance as if you had total concealment.

However, unlike actual total concealment, displacement does not prevent enemies from targeting you normally.

True seeing reveals your true location.

DISSOLVING TOUCH

Psychometabolism (Str) [Acid]

Level: Psion 4/psychic Warrior 4

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or object touched

Duration: Until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 7

Your touch (or bite) is corrosive.

You deal 7d6 points of acid damage to any creature or object you touch.

If making an unarmed attack, or using any of the bite or claw powers, this damage is in addition to any other damage you deal.

If you successfully grapple or pin a foe, your grasp deals 10d6 points of acid damage.

If you can entirely enclose an object (or a very small creature) in the grip of both of your hands, you deal 12d6 points of damage.

Acid you secrete denatures 1 round after use, losing all efficacy and ability to deal damage.

You are immune to the acid you secrete.

DUODIMENSIONAL HAND

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Power Points: 5

Your hand becomes two-dimensional, making it razor-sharp.

Instead of bludgeoning damage, your unarmed attacks do slashing or piercing damage (your choice), but your damage potential does not increase.

Additionally, your hand is now psionically keen, increasing its critical threat range to 17–20.

If a combination of powers would allow you to manifest duodimensional hand on a weapon (such as the graft weapon power), the threat range can be increased to no more than 17–20, but the damage multiplier is that of the weapon.

Note: The third spatial component of your hand still exists but is temporarily shunted into the Ethereal Plane, so against ethereal or incorporeal targets this power is ineffective.

ECTOPLASMIC FORM

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 2 minutes/level (D)

Power Points: 5

You and all your gear become a partially translucent mass of rippling ectoplasm that generally conforms to your normal shape.

You gain damage reduction 20/+1.

Your material armor (including natural armor) becomes worthless, although your size, Dexterity, deflection bonuses, and armor bonuses from force effects (such as those gained by the feat Inertial Armor) still apply.

You become immune to poison and critical hits.

You cannot attack or manifest powers while in ectoplasmic form.

As with polymorph self, you lose supernatural abilities, if any, while in ectoplasmic form.

You cannot run, but you can swim with a +15 circumstance bonus on your Swim skill.

You can pass through small holes or narrow openings, even mere cracks, along with all you are wearing or holding in your hands while the duration persists.

ELFSIGHT

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 0/psychic Warrior 0

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute

Power Points: 1

You gain low-light vision (as an elf) for the duration of the power.

If elfsight is used in conjunction with my light, you can see twice as far as indicated in the latter power's description.

EMPATHIC TRANSFER

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Ma, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

You transfer the hurts of others to yourself. when you manifest this power, you can transfer up to 8 points of damage per manifester level from the subject creature to yourself.

Alternatively, you can absorb one poison or one disease afflicting the subject creature into yourself.

When you absorb a poison or disease, you do not absorb the damage done previously dealt by the affliction, but you do take up the burden of making the secondary and/or continuing Fortitude saves against the affliction.

Finally, you can choose to transfer up to 1 point of temporary ability damage per manifester level from the subject to yourself.

In most cases, you would only use empathic transfer with the intent to heal yourself using another Psychometabolism power, but self-healing is not mandatory.

ENERGY BARRIER

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 5/Psychic Warrior 5

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level or until discharged

Power Points: 9

Your body assimilates and converts energy attacks to harmless light.

You gain resistance 10 to a specific energy attack (you ignore the first 10 points of damage dealt by a specified energy source).

Once the power has prevented a total of 10 points of damage per manifester level (maximum 150 points) from specified energy attacks, it is discharged.

Specified energy attacks include powers and spells that deal acid, cold, electricity, fire, and sonic damage.

When you absorb damage, you radiate visible light for a number of rounds equal to the points of damage you successfully ignore.

The light is strong enough to illuminate a 60-foot-radius area.

ENERGY CONVERSION

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 7

Range: Personal and Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: You and one object or creature

Power Points: 13

As energy barrier, except you can discharge stored energy in a ray as a single ranged touch attack.

This is a standard action.

The ray is composed of the energy type you absorbed.

You can choose to fire the ray prior to complete saturation of your energy barrier, though this ends the power.

If the ray successfully strikes the target, the target takes a number hit points equal to the total number of hit points successfully ignored by the energy barrier.

EXPANSION

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 3

You can increase your size.

You grow up to 10% per your manifester level, increasing by this amount in height, width, and depth (to a maximum growth of 100%).

Weight increases by approximately the cube of the size increase as follows:

Height Increase	Weight Increase
+10% (x1.1)	+30% (x1.3)
+20% (x1.2)	+70% (x1.7)
+30% (x1.3)	+120% (x2.2)
+40% (x1.4)	+170% (x2.7)
+50% (x1.5)	+240% (x3.4)
+60% (x1.6)	+310% (x4.1)
+70% (x1.7)	+390% (x4.9)
+80% (x1.8)	+480% (x5.8)
+90% (x1.9)	+590% (x6.9)
+100% (x2.0)	+700% (x8.0)

Equipment worn or carried is also enlarged.

If insufficient room is available for the desired growth, you burst weak enclosures.

However, your larger size is constrained without harm by stronger materials.

You cannot crush yourself.

Your hit points, Armor Class, and base attack bonus do not change, but Strength increases along with size.

For every 20% of enlargement, you gain a +1 enlargement bonus to Strength.

Multiple psionic or magical effects that increase size do not stack.

Psionic and magical properties are not enhanced with this power.

FEEL LIGHT

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Power Points: 1

You experience light translated through tactile sensation (by touch).

Your entire body becomes a receiver for light.

In effect, your body replaces your eyes.

You can "see" what your eyes would normally reveal.

Your field of vision does not change, but if you have darkvision, sight is not translated to touch via feel light.

If your eyes are working normally, the expanded view gives you a +1 enhancement bonus on all Spot and Search checks.

If this power is used in conjunction with hear light, the bonus is +2.

FEEL SOUND

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Power Points: 1

As feel light, except you experience sound translated through tactile sensation (by touch).

Your entire body becomes a receiver for sound.

In effect, your body replaces your ears.

You can “hear” what your ears would normally reveal.

Your range of hearing does not change.

If your ears are working normally, the expanded reception gives you a +1 enhancement bonus on all Listen checks.

If this power is used in conjunction with see sound, the bonus is +2.

FISSION

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 13

You can divide yourself, creating a duplicate up to 5 feet away.

Your duplicate thinks and acts exactly as you do and follows your orders, although it will not do anything you wouldn't do yourself.

Your duplicate has all your abilities but none of your equipment.

Your duplicate has all your hit points, half your power points (figured after you deduct the cost of this power), and other physical traits you had at the time you manifested the power.

Powers, spells, or other effects affecting you do not affect your duplicate.

When the duration expires or when you dismiss the power, you and your duplicate rejoin, no matter how far from each other you are.

You take half of the damage your duplicate has suffered at the time of rejoining.

This could potentially put you at 0 hit points or lower, but it can't bring you to -10 hit points or less.

Also, you lose half of the power points your duplicate used up.

If one of you dies before the duration expires, there is no rejoining; however, you (either in your original flesh or that of your duplicate) gain one negative level.

GRAFT WEAPON

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 5/Psychic Warrior 5

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 9

You permanently attach any weapon—mundane, psionic, or magical—onto the end of one of your arms.

The weapon becomes a natural extension of your arm, and that hand is nowhere to be seen.

If you are proficient with the weapon, you add +1 to all attack and damage rolls while using the weapon (this stacks with all other bonuses, including those granted by Weapon Focus and Weapon Specialization).

The grafted weapon becomes subject to powers that normally do not effect equipment, such as expansion.

More importantly, since the weapon is a natural part of your body, powers that normally only enhance unarmed attacks and touch attacks now apply to your grafted weapon (such as hammer, duodimensional hand, or even dissolving touch).

However, you lose the use of one hand and receive a -2 competence penalty on all skill checks requiring the use of hands.

Powers that temporarily polymorph or metamorphose you (or just your hands) can ignore the grafted weapon or alter it normally, at your discretion.

If the weapon takes damage, you take the damage as well.

If you are healed, so is your grafted weapon.

If your weapon is destroyed, you lose 2 points of Constitution; the ability damage persists until you can graft another weapon or restore your natural anatomy (see below).

You can change out weapons by using this power again.

If you manifest this power without any weapon, your natural anatomy returns (but you can't use this power to recover a limb lost through some other mishap).

HAMMER

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or object touched

Duration: Until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 1

This power charges your mere touch with the force of a sledgehammer.

A successful melee touch attack deals 1d8 points of bludgeoning damage.

Your touch attack, charged with a psionic power, is treated as an armed attack.

HEAR LIGHT

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Power Points: 1

As feel light, except you experience light translated through auditory sensation (by hearing).

You can “see” with your ears because any light waves that reach you are converted to sound, and you “hear” the image. You can see what your eyes would normally reveal, but if you have darkvision, sight is not translated to sound via hear light.

If your eyes are working normally, the expanded view gives you a +1 enhancement bonus on all Spot and Search checks.

If this power is used in conjunction with feel light, the bonus is +2.

HUSTLE

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Effect: 1 extra partial action

Power Points: 1

You can take an extra partial action, but you must wait until your next round's worth of actions to do so.

In effect, you give up a standard action on the round you manifest this power, but gain an extra partial action on the following round.

This benefit counts as an enhancement bonus.

IMMOVABILITY

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 4/Psychic Warrior 4

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 7

You are almost impossible to move.

Your weight does not vary; instead, you mentally attach yourself to the underlying fabric of the plane.

Thus, you could conceivably anchor yourself in midair.

You oppose any attempt to move you by a Strength check modified by a bonus equal to three times your manifester level. Thus, at 8th level, your bonus to resist being moved is +24.

Once immovable, you can't move to a new location unless you first dismiss the power or its duration expires.

While you are immovable, you lose all Dexterity bonuses to AC.

Neither can you attack or make any other movement.

However, your anchored body gains damage reduction 20/+3.

IMPROVED BIOFEEDBACK

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 3/Psychic Warrior 3

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 5

As biofeedback, except you take a portion of each damaging attack as subdual damage equal to twice your Strength modifier, and the duration is extended.

IMPROVED VIGOR

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 6

Power Points: 11

As vigor, except you gain 13 temporary hit points.

IRON BODY

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 8

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 15

This power transforms your body into living iron, which grants you several powerful resistances and abilities.

You gain damage reduction 50/+3.

You are immune to blindness, critical hits, damage to ability scores (except if that damage comes as a result of psionic combat), deafness, disease, drowning, poison, stunning, and all powers, spells or attacks that affect your physiology or respiration, because you have no physiology or respiration while this power is in effect.

You only suffer half damage from acid and fire of all kinds. However, you also become vulnerable to all special attacks that affect iron golems.

You gain a +6 enhancement bonus to your Strength score but you suffer a -6 enhancement penalty to Dexterity as well (to a minimum Dexterity score of 1), and your speed is reduced to half normal.

You cannot drink (and thus can't use potions), nor play wind instruments.

Your unarmed attacks deal 1d6 points of normal damage, and you are considered “armed” when making unarmed attacks (a small manifester instead deals 1d4 points of damage).

Your weight increases by a factor of 10, causing you to sink like a stone in water.

However, you could survive the crushing pressure and lack of air at the bottom of the ocean—at least until the power expires.

LESSER BODY ADJUSTMENT

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1

Power Points: 1

As body adjustment, except you cure yourself of 1d8 hit points, or gain just a +1 bonus on your next Fortitude save against poison or disease, or heal 1 point of temporary ability damage.

You don't gain all three benefits simultaneously for a single manifestation.

LESSER NATURAL ARMOR

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 0
Display: Ol, Ma
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 minute
Power Points: 1
Your skin grows thick ridges, providing a +1 natural armor bonus to your AC.
Unlike mundane armor, natural armor entails no armor check penalty or speed reduction.

METAMORPHOSIS

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 5
Display: Ma, Ol
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 hour/level (D)
Power Points: 9

As polymorph self, except you can also assume the form of inanimate objects as well as creatures.
Thus, you could change yourself into a rock (if no smaller than Diminutive size), or a boulder (if no more than one size larger than your normal size).
As with polymorph self, you can switch forms each round. You can take the shape of most any object you can think of, such as a chair, a sword, or a rug, but if you attempt to take the form of a complex object, you must make an appropriate skill check.
For instance, if you take the form of a beautiful painting, you must make a Craft (painting) check against a DC set by your DM to determine the quality of the painting.
Likewise, you cannot take the form of a complex clockwork or mechanical mechanism unless you have some sort of skill associated with the object.
You cannot metamorphose into inherently psionic or magical materials or objects, or any object with a hardness of 15 or greater.
You also cannot take the form of a psionically animated mechanism or any sort of object formed of ectoplasm.
As an inanimate object, you lose all mobility; however, you retain your ability to manifest powers normally.
If you take damage as an object, you also take damage (but the object's natural hardness, if any, protects you).

NATURAL ARMOR

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 4
Duration: 1 hour/level (D)
Power Points: 7
As lesser natural armor, but you gain a +4 natural armor bonus to AC.
Also, the duration is considerably longer.

OAK BODY

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 7
Display: Au
Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 minute/level (D)
Power Points: 13
As iron body, but this power transforms your body into living oak.
You gain damage reduction 20/+1.
You are immune to blindness, damage to ability scores, deafness, disease, drowning, poison, stunning, and all powers, spells, or attacks that affect your physiology or respiration, because you have no physiology or respiration while this power is in effect.
You only suffer three-quarters damage from acid and cold of all kinds.
However, you also become vulnerable to all special attacks that affect wood.
You gain a +3 enhancement bonus to Strength, but you suffer a -3 enhancement penalty to Dexterity as well (to a minimum score of 1), and your speed is reduced to half normal.
You cannot drink (and thus can't use potions), nor play wind instruments.
Your unarmed attacks deal 1d6 points of normal damage, and you are considered "armed" when making unarmed attacks (a Small manifester instead deals 1d4 points of damage).
Your weight increases by a factor of five, but you float in water.

PAINFUL TOUCH

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2
Display: Vi, Ma
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 round/level (D)
Power Points: 3
Your unarmed attacks cause additional pain.
When you make a successful unarmed attack that deals damage (or in conjunction with any bite or claw powers), you deal an additional 1d6 points of subdual damage to the target.

POLYMORPH SELF

Psychometabolism (Str)
Level: Psion 4/Psychic Warrior 4
Display: Ma, Ol
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 hour/level (D)
Power Points: 7
You change your form to that of another creature.
The new form can range in size from Diminutive to one size larger than your normal form, and can have no more hit dice than you have, and in any case the assumed form cannot have more than 15 hit dice.
You cannot change into constructs, elementals, outsiders, or undead unless you are already are one of these types.
Upon changing, you regain lost hit points as if having rested for a day (though this healing does not restore temporary ability damage and provide other benefits of resting for a day; and changing back does not heal you further).

If slain, you revert to your original form, though you remain dead.

You acquire the physical and natural abilities of the creature you have polymorphed into while retaining your own mind.

Physical abilities include natural size and Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution scores.

Natural abilities include armor, natural weapons (such as claws, bite, swoop and rake, and constriction; but not petrification, breath weapons, energy drain, energy effect, etc.), and similar gross physical qualities (presence or absence of wings, number of extremities, etc.).

A body with extra limbs does not allow a character to make more attacks (or more advantageous two-weapon attacks) than normal.

Natural abilities also include mundane movement capabilities, such as walking, swimming, and flight with wings, but not psionic or magical flight and other psionic or magical forms of travel, such as blink, dimension door, phase door, plane shift, teleport, and teleport without error.

Extremely high speeds for certain creatures are the result of extraordinary magical, or psionic ability, so they are not granted by this power.

(In general, non-flying speeds greater than 60 and flying speeds greater than 120).

Other mundane abilities (such as an owl's low-light vision) are considered natural abilities and are retained.

Any part of the body or piece of equipment that is separated from the whole reverts to its original form.

Your new scores and faculties are average ones for the race or species into which you have been transformed.

You cannot, for example, turn into a mighty weight lifter to give yourself great Strength.

Likewise, you cannot change into a bigger or powerful version of a creature (or a smaller weaker version).

Nor can you turn into a variant form of a creature.

For example you can turn the subject into an ogre, but not a half-dragon ogre.

You retain your Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores, level and class, hit points (despite any change to your Constitution score), alignment, base attack bonus, and base saves.

(New Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution scores may affect final attack and save bonuses, as well as the DCs for affected powers).

You retain your own type (for example, "humanoid"), extraordinary abilities, psionics, spells, and spell-like abilities, but not your supernatural abilities.

You do not gain the supernatural abilities (such as breath weapons and gaze attacks) or the extraordinary abilities of the new creature.

When the polymorph occurs, your equipment, if any, transforms to match the new form.

If the new form is a creature who does not use equipment (aberration, animal, beast, magical beast, construct, dragon, elemental, ooze, some outsiders, plant, some undead creatures, some shapechangers, or vermin), the equipment melds into the new form and becomes nonfunctional.

If the new form uses equipment (fey, giant, humanoid, some outsiders, many shapechangers, many undead creatures), your equipment changes to match the new form and retains its properties.

You can freely designate the new form's minor physical qualities (such as hair color, hair texture, and skin color) within the normal ranges for a creature of that type.

The new form's significant physical qualities (such as height, weight, and gender) are also under your control, but must fall within the norms for the new form's species.

You can be changed into a member of your species or even into yourself.

You are effectively disguised as an average member of the new form's race.

If you use this power to create a disguise, you get a +10 bonus on your Disguise check.

Incorporeal or gaseous forms cannot be assumed, and incorporeal or gaseous creatures are immune to being polymorphed.

A natural shapeshifter (a lycanthrope, doppelganger, experienced druid, etc.)

can take its natural form as a standard action.

PSYCHOFEEDBACK

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 4/Psychic Warrior 4

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute (D)

Power Points: 7

You can use power points to boost your Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution modifiers as a free action.

While the duration lasts, you can use power points on a round-by-round basis to boost any or all of your ability score modifiers (not the actual ability score) by a number equal to half the power points you expend for that round as a free action.

For example, you can boost your Strength modifier by as much as 8 points (if you spend 16 power points).

Unless you again spend 16 power points the following round, though, your Strength modifier returns to its former lower level.

You could simultaneously boost two scores, or all three, as long as you pay the total power point cost.

You don't have to boost an ability modifier every round to keep the power in effect—as long as the duration lasts, you have the potential to boost your ability modifiers on any round you choose.

REJUVENATION

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 hours

Power Points: 5

Rejuvenation cures 1 point of temporary ability damage per hour, up to a maximum of 10 points.

It does not restore permanent ability drain (such as from a wraith's touch).

SEE SOUND

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Power Points: 1

As feel sound, except you experience sound translated through visual sensation (by sight).

You must be able to see normally or also have feel light active.

Your eyes convert sound to light: You can see sound even in darkness, as long as some noise is present to give objects shape.

You are “blinded” in complete silence.

Your range of sight does not change.

If your ears are working normally, the expanded reception gives you a +1 enhancement bonus on all Listen checks.

If used in conjunction with feel light, the bonus is +2.

SHADOW BODY

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 15

Your body and all your equipment are subsumed by your shadow, which grants you several powerful resistances and abilities.

As a living shadow, you blend perfectly into any other shadow and vanish in darkness.

You appear as an unattached shadow in areas of full light.

You can move at your normal speed, but you can move on any surface, including walls and ceilings, as well as across the surfaces of liquids—even up the face of a waterfall.

While in shadow form, you can be detected by powers that detect thoughts, life, or presences (including true seeing), or by suspicious movements in lighted areas.

You cannot harm anyone physically or manipulate any object, but you can use your psionic powers normally.

Using psionic powers may attract notice, but if you remain in a shadowed area, you add +15 to your Hide checks.

You are nearly undetectable in darkness (although certain power displays could briefly pinpoint your exact location).

You gain damage reduction 50/+5.

You are immune to all things noted in iron body, as well as to things that would harm an iron golem.

SHAPECHANGE

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Power Points: 17

As polymorph self, except this power enables you to assume the form of any single creature of less than deity status (including unique dragon types, or the like) or any single object.

The assumed form can be no smaller than a flea and no larger than 200 feet in its largest dimension.

Unlike polymorph self, this power allows incorporeal forms to be assumed.

Your new form works like a polymorph self form.

You still do not gain the supernatural, magical, psionic, or spell-like abilities of your new form, though you do gain its extraordinary abilities while keeping your own.

You also gain the type of the new form (for example, “dragon” or “magical beast”) in place of your own.

Parts of your body or pieces of equipment that are separated from you do not revert to their original forms.

Thus, a new form’s poisonous bite is effective.

You can become just about anything you are familiar with.

You can change form once each round as a free action.

The change takes place either immediately before your regular action or immediately after it, but not during the action.

For example, you are in combat and assume the form of a will o’ wisp.

When this form is no longer useful, you change into a stone golem and walk away.

When pursued, you change into a flea, which hides on a horse until it can hop off.

From there, you can become a dragon, an ant, or just about anything you are familiar with.

If you use this power to create a disguise, you get a +10 circumstance bonus on your Disguise check.

SUSPEND LIFE

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 6/Psychic Warrior 6

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 11

You can place yourself into a trance so deep that all your life functions are essentially halted.

Even powers that detect life or thought are incapable of determining that you yet live.

While you are suspended, you feel the passage of one day for every year that actually passes.

Though on a slower schedule, you grow hungry after a “day” without food (though a year may pass in actuality) and begin to suffer the effects of thirst and starvation as appropriate.

You are also aware of your surroundings, though events that take less time than 10 minutes occur too quickly for you to note them.

If you take damage, you come out of your trance in 4 rounds.

If you choose to come out of the trance voluntarily, it takes 10 rounds.

Once you leave the trance, you must manifest this power once more to return to a state of suspension.

SUSTENANCE

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

You can go without food and water for one day. Each time you manifest this power, your body manufactures sufficient nutrition and liquids to fully satisfy your needs for that time.

TALONS

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute

Power Points: 1

The fingernails on both your hands grow to wicked, 1-inch-long points.

Your unarmed attacks deal +1 damage (normal instead of subdual damage).

Equally important, you are considered armed and thus do not draw an attack of opportunity for an unarmed attack.

The +1 damage bonus stacks with the base damage granted by the various claw powers.

TRUE METABOLISM

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 full round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute

Power Points: 17

You regenerate 10 hit points every round for 1 minute.

VALOR

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: See text

Range: Personal

Target: You

Power Points: 1

You can immediately apply a +1 morale bonus on a saving throw.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to gain the +1 morale bonus on a saving throw in the same round.

Manifesting the power is a free action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

VERVE

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Ma, Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute (D)

Power Points: 1

You gain 1 temporary hit point.

See Chapter 8 of the Player's Handbook for more on temporary hit points.

VIGOR

Psychometabolism (Str)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Ma, Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 1

You suffuse yourself with power, gaining 3 temporary hit points per manifest level (maximum 18 hit points).

These hit points do not stack with temporary hit points from other sources or with additional uses of vigor.

See Chapter 8 of the Player's Handbook for more on temporary hit points.

PSYCHOPORTATION

ASTRAL PROJECTION

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 9

Display: None

Manifestation Time: 30 minutes

Range: Touch

Targets: You plus one additional creature touched per two levels

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

Freeing your spirit from your physical body, this power allows you to project an astral body into another plane altogether.

You can bring the astral forms of other creatures with you, provided the creatures are linked in a circle with you at the time of the manifestation.

These fellow travelers are dependent upon you and must accompany you at all times.

If something happens to you during the journey, the companions are stranded wherever you left them.

You project your astral self into the Astral Plane, leaving your physical body behind on the Material Plane in a State of suspended animation.

The power projects an astral copy of you and all you wear or carry onto the Astral Plane.

Since the Astral plane touches upon every other plane, you can travel astrally to other planes as you will.

You then leave the Astral Plane, forming a new physical body (and equipment) on the plane of existence you have chosen to enter.

On the Astral plane or any outer plane, the astral body is connected at all times to the material body by a silvery cord. If the cord is broken, the affected person is killed, astrally and materially.

Luckily, very few things can destroy a silver cord.

When a second body is formed on a different plane, the incorporeal silvery cord remains invisibly attached to the new body.

If the second body or astral form is slain, the cord simply returns to the person's body where it rests on the Material Plane, reviving it from its state of suspended animation.

Although astral projections are able to function on the Astral Plane, their actions affect only creatures existing on the Astral Plane; a physical body must be materialized on other planes.

You and your companions may travel through the Astral Plane indefinitely.

Your bodies simply wait behind in a state of suspended animation until you choose to return your spirits to their physical bodies.

The power lasts until you desire to end it, or until it is terminated by some outside means, such as negate psionics manifested upon either the physical body or the astral form, or the destruction of your body back on the Material Plane (which kills you).

ASTRAL STEED

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: One quasi-real, horselike creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You call a quasi-real, horselike creature from the Astral Plane.

The steed can be ridden only by you or by the one person for whom you specifically call the mount.

An astral steed looks partially amorphous, and its translucent body appears to constantly ripple.

Its body forms the rudiments of a saddle, bit, and bridle.

It does not fight, but all normal animals shun it and refuse to attack it.

(Dire animals and nonintelligent creatures, such as vermin, can attack it).

The mount is otherwise identical with a phantom steed as described in Chapter 11 of the Player's Handbook, including the improved abilities of a mount called at higher manifester levels.

BALEFUL TELEPORT

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Any object or creature whose weight does not total more than 300 lb./level

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

You psychoportively disperse minuscule portions of the subject, dealing 9d6 points of damage.

Targets are protected from the effects of a baleful teleport by dimensional anchor.

BANISHMENT

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 6

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: One or more extraplanar creatures, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

Banishment is a more powerful version of the dismissal power.

It enables you to force extraplanar creatures out of your home plane.

Up to 2 HD of creatures per manifester level can be banished.

To target a creature, you must present at least one object or substance that it hates, fears, or otherwise opposes.

For each such object or substance, you gain +1 on your manifester level check to overcome the target's PR (if any) and +2 on the saving throw DC.

For example, if this power were manifested on a demon that hated light and was vulnerable to holy water and iron weapons, you might present iron, holy water, and a torch while manifesting the power.

The three items would add +3 to your check to overcome the demon's spell resistance (or power resistance, if psionic) and add +6 to the power's DC.

At the DM's option, certain rare items might work twice as well (+2 to penetrate resistance and +4 to the power's DC).

BURST

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: See text

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

The subject receives a burst of speed.

The subject has a speed equal to her original speed +10 on her next round of actions.

You can manifest this power instantly on yourself, quickly enough to gain the benefit of the speed increase in the same round.

Manifesting the power is a free action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

If manifested on another creature, the manifestation time is 1 action.

CALL COHORT

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psychic Warrior 6

Display: Ma, Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Your cohort, if any

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

Call cohort teleports your cohort to you from any distance within a plane (but not between planes).

A cohort is gained with the Leadership feat (described in Chapter 2 of the DUNGEON MASTER's Guide).

You determine the arrival point of your cohort at any point within close range.

If your cohort is not separated from you when you manifest this power, it instead allows you to teleport your cohort from one point to another within close range.

CALL WEAPONRY

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Effect: 1 unattended weapon (see text)

Duration: 1 hour/level (see text) (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1 (see text)

You call a weapon “from thin air” into your waiting hand (actually, it is a real weapon hailing from some other random location in the multiverse).

You don't have to see or know of a weapon to call it—in fact, you can't ever call a specific weapon.

You just specify the type.

If the specified weapon type is one you can call at your level, it appears.

If you call a projectile weapon, it comes complete with 3d6 bolts, arrows, or sling bullets, as appropriate (the ammunition does not have an enhancement bonus, even at 10th level and above).

If you relinquish your grip on the weapon you called for 2 or more rounds, it automatically returns to wherever it originally came from.

As your level increases, you can summon better and better weapons, although the power point cost is also greater.

Level	Weapons	Example	Power Points
1-3	Simple	Club, crossbow	1
4-6	Martial	Longsword, longbow	3
7-9	Exotic	Bastard sword	7
10-12	+1 enhancement	+1 shortbow	11
13-15	+2 enhancement	+2 shortspear	13
16-17	+3 enhancement	+3 scimitar	15
18-20	+4 enhancement	+4 warhammer	17

Weapons with enhancement bonuses are assumed to be psionic, unless you specify otherwise.

Weapons gained by call weaponry are distinctive due to the low hum they emit.

CATFALL

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: See text

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 1

You recover instantly from a fall and can absorb some damage from falling.

You land on your feet no matter how far you fall, and the first 3 points of falling damage are treated as subdual damage.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to save yourself if you unexpectedly fall.

Manifesting the power is a free action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

DIMENSION DOOR

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: psion 4/Psychic Warrior 4

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Target: You and touched objects or other touched willing creatures (see text)

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 7

You instantly transfer yourself from your current location to any other spot within range.

You always arrive at exactly the spot desired—whether by simply visualizing the area or by staring direction, such as “900 feet straight downward”, or “upward to the northwest, 45-degree angle, 1,200 feet”.

You can bring along up to 500 pounds of nonliving matter or 250 pounds of living matter.

After using this power, you can't take any other actions until your next turn.

If you arrive in a place that is already occupied by a solid body, you become trapped in the Astral Plane.

Each round that you are trapped in the Astral Plane in this way, you may make a Will save (DC 25) to return to the Material plan at a random open space on a suitable surface within 100 feet of the intended location.

If there is no free space within 100 feet, make a Will save each minute to appear in a free space within 1,000 feet.

If there is no free space within 1,000 feet, you are stuck on the Astral Plane until rescued.

DIMENSION SLIDE

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: You (see text)

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 5

You instantly transfer yourself from your current location to any other spot within range that you can see directly.

You arrive at exactly the spot desired, if you can see it.

You cannot dimension slide through solid objects; even a curtain blocks you.

You cannot bring along more than your medium load carrying capacity, nor can you bring along any living matter that weighs more than 20 pounds.

After using this power, you can't take any other actions until your next turn.

If you somehow attempt to transfer yourself to a location occupied by a solid body (perhaps your perceptions are being controlled by a telepath), the power simply fails to function.

DIMENSIONAL ANCHOR

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10ft./level)

Effect: Ray

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

A slick, translucent ray springs from your outstretched hand.

You must make a ranged touch attack to hit the target. Any creature or object struck is covered with a shimmering ectoplasmic film that completely blocks bodily extradimensional travel.

Forms of movement barred by the dimensional anchor include those granted by spells such as astral projection, blink, dimension door, dimension slide, ethereal jaunt, etherealness, gate, maze, phase door, plane shift, shadow walk, dream walk, teleport, and similar spell-like, magical, or psionic abilities.

The dimensional anchor does not interfere with the movement of creatures already in ethereal or astral form when the power is manifested, nor does it block extradimensional perception or attack forms such as a basilisk's gaze.

Dimensional anchor does not prevent astral constructs from disappearing at the end of an astral construct power.

Dimensional anchor protects a subject from the effects of baleful teleport.

DISMISSAL

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One extraplanar creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

This power forces an extraplanar creature back to its proper plane.

Add the creature's HD to its saving throw and subtract your level as well.

If the power succeeds, the creature is instantly whisked away, but there is a 20% chance of actually sending the subject to a plane other than its own.

DISSIPATING TOUCH

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au, Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature or object touched

Duration: Until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 1

Your mere touch can disperse the surface material of a foe or object, sending a tiny portion of it far away.

This is disruptive; thus, your successful melee touch attack deals 1d8 points of damage.

Your touch attack, charged with a psionic power, is treated as an armed attack.

DIVERT TELEPORT

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]; and Psychokinesis (Con) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 7

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: A circle, centered on you, with a radius of 100 ft. + 10 ft./level

Effect: Diverts the teleportation of any object or creature whose weight does not total more than 300 lb./level

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (foils diversion)

Power Resistance: Yes (foils diversion)

Power Points: 13

As sense psychoportation, except you can divert the final destination of any teleportation made by others within the area.

This is a free action, like manifesting a quickened power, and counts toward the limit of one quickened power per round.

You can divert the destination of both incoming and outgoing teleportations, both psionic and magical.

You must overcome the power resistance of creatures that possess it for a successful diversion, and the teleporting creature can make a Will save to foil the diversion as well.

For purposes of this power, "divert" means you choose the actual destination of any teleportation you can affect.

The destination you choose must be a location to which you yourself have previously teleported.

DREAM TRAVEL

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 8

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Targets: Up to one touched creature/level

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15

You and any creature you touch are drawn along a crystal arc of reverie to the edge of conscious thought, and into the region of dreams.

You can take more than one creature along with you (subject to your level limit), but all must be touching each other.

You physically enter the land of dreams, leaving nothing behind.

In the region of dreams, you move through a menagerie of thoughts, desires, and phantoms created by the minds of dreamers everywhere.

For every minute you move through dream, you can “wake” to find yourself five miles displaced in the waking world. Thus, a character can use this power to travel rapidly by physically entering where only dreams normally prowl, moving the desired distance, and then stepping back into the waking world.

You know where you will come out in the waking world. Dream travel can also be used to travel to other planes that contain creatures who dream, but this requires crossing into the dreams of outsiders, where you are subject to the vagaries of many dream realities.

This is a potentially perilous proposition, at your DM's option.

Transferring to another plane of existence requires 1d4 hours on an uninterrupted journey.

Any creatures touched by you when dream travel is manifested also make the transition to the borders of unconscious thought.

They may opt to follow you, wander off into the dreams of others, or stumble back into the waking world (50% chance for either of the latter results if they are lost or abandoned by you).

Creatures unwilling to accompany you into the region of dreams receive a will save, negating the effect if successful.

ETHEREAL JAUNT

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 6/Psychic Warrior 6

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 11

You become ethereal, along with your equipment.

You are in a place called the Ethereal plane that overlaps the normal physical, Material Plane.

When the power expires, you return to material existence.

Note: An ethereal creature is invisible, incorporeal, and capable of moving in any direction, even up or down (albeit at half normal speed).

As an incorporeal creature, you can move through solid objects, including living creatures.

An ethereal creature can see and hear the Material Plane, but everything looks gray and insubstantial.

Sight and hearing onto the Material Plane are limited to 60 feet.

Force effects and magical abjurations affect you normally. Their effects extend onto the Ethereal Plane from the Material Plane, but not vice versa.

An ethereal creature can't attack material creatures, and powers you manifest while ethereal affect only other ethereal things.

Certain material creatures or objects have attacks or effects that work on the Ethereal Plane (such as the basilisk and its gaze attack).

By contrast, treat other ethereal creatures and ethereal objects as if they had become material.

If you end the power and become material while inside a material object (such as a solid wall), you are shunted off to the nearest open space and suffer 1d6 points of damage per 5 feet that you so travel.

ETHEREALNESS

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 7

Range: Touch (see text)

Targets: You and one other touched creature/3 levels

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

As ethereal jaunt, except you and other creatures joined by linked hands (along with their equipment) become ethereal.

Besides yourself, you can bring one creature per three manifester levels to the Ethereal Plane.

Once ethereal, the creatures need not stay together.

When the power expires, all affected creatures in the Ethereal Plane return to material existence.

FEATHER FALL

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: See text

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: Any free-falling objects or creatures in a 10-ft. radius whose weight does not total more than 300 lb./level

Duration: Until landing or 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 1

The creatures or objects affected fall slowly.

The rate of fall is instantly changed to a mere 60 feet per round (equivalent to the end of a fall from a few feet), with no damage incurred upon landing while the power is in effect.

However, when the duration expires, a normal rate of fall occurs.

You can manifest this power instantly, quickly enough to save yourself if you unexpectedly fall.

Manifesting the power is a free action, like manifesting a quickened power, and it counts toward the normal limit of one quickened power per round.

This power has no special effect on ranged weapons unless they are falling quite a distance.

If manifested on a falling item, such as a boulder dropped from the top of a castle wall, the item does half normal damage based on weight (1d6 per 400 pounds) with no bonus for the height of the drop. The power works only upon free-falling objects. It does not affect a sword blow or a charging or flying creature.

FLOAT

Psychoportation (Dex)
Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0
Display: Au
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Targets: Any object or creature whose weight does not total more than 300 lb./level
Duration: Concentration
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: No
Power Points: 1
You can mentally support one creature or object in water or similar liquid at will from a distance. You cannot move the floating object, but if the subject of the power is animate, it can move through the water without fear of submerging (or drowning, if an unskilled swimmer). The power ends if the distance between you and the subject ever exceeds the power's range.

FLY

Psychoportation (Dex)
Level: Psion 3
Display: Vi
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Touch
Target: Creature touched
Duration: 10 minutes/level
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)
Power Points: 5
The power's subject can fly at a speed of 90 feet (60 feet if the creature wears medium or heavy armor). The subject can fly up at half speed and descend at double speed. The flying subject's maneuverability is good. Using the fly power requires as much concentration as walking, so the subject can attack or manifest powers normally. The subject of fly can charge but not run, and it cannot carry aloft more weight than its maximum load (see Chapter 9 of the Player's Handbook), plus any armor it wears. Should the duration expire while the subject is still aloft, the psionic effect fails slowly. The subject drops 60 feet per round for 1d6 rounds. If it reaches the ground in this time, it is safe. If not, it falls the rest of the distance (falling damage is 1d6 per 10 feet of fall). Since negating a power effectively ends it, the subject falls immediately if fly is negated.

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

Psychoportation (Dex)
Level: Psion 4
Display: Au
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Personal or touch
Target: You or creature touched
Duration: 10 minutes/level
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: No or Yes (harmless)
Power Points: 7
This power enables you or the creature you touch to move and attack normally for the duration of the power, even under the influence of psionics that usually impedes movement, such as ectoplasmic cocoon. The power also allows a character to move and attack normally while underwater, even with cutting weapons such as axes and swords and with smashing weapons such as flails, hammers, and maces, provided that the weapon is wielded in the hand rather than hurled. The power does not, however, allow water breathing without further appropriate psionic adaptation.

GLIDE

Psychoportation (Dex)
Level: Psion 2
Display: Vi
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Touch
Target: Creature touched
Duration: 1 minute/level
Saving Throw: None
Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)
Power Points: 3
The power's subject can glide through the air with a speed of 20 feet (10 feet if the creature wears medium or heavy armor). The subject can only fly upward at a speed of 5 feet but may descend at a speed of 50 feet. The gliding subject's maneuverability is poor. Using the glide power requires as much concentration as running, so the subject cannot attack or manifest powers normally. The subject of glide cannot carry aloft more weight than its medium load carrying capacity (see Chapter 9 of the Player's Handbook), plus any armor it wears. Should the duration expire while the subject is still aloft, the psionic effect fails slowly. The subject drops 50 feet per round for 1d6 rounds. If it reaches the ground in that time, it is safe. If not, it falls the rest of the distance (falling damage is 1d6 per 10 feet of fall). Since negating a power effectively ends it, the subject falls immediately if glide is negated.

IMPROVED ETHEREALNESS

Psychoportation (Dex)
Level: Psion 8
Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 15

As ethereality, except the duration is an order of magnitude greater.

IMPROVED FLY

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 6

Power Points: 11

As fly, except the subject can fly at a speed of 180 feet (150 feet if the creature wears medium or heavy armor).

KNOCK

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One door, box, or chest with an area of up to 10 sq. ft./level

Duration: Instantaneous (see text)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

The knock power opens stuck, barred, locked, or psionically locked doors (and magically held and arcane locked doors, unless the Psionics Are Different option is in use).

It opens secret doors, as well as locked or trick-opening boxes or chests.

It also loosens welds, shackles, or chains (provided they serve to hold closures shut).

If used to open a psionically locked door, the power does not remove the psionic lock but simply suspends its functioning for 10 minutes.

In all other cases, the door does not relock itself or becomes stuck again on its own.

Knock does not raise barred gates or similar impediments (such as a portcullis), nor does it affect ropes, vines, and the like.

Note that the effect is limited by the area.

A 4th-level manifester can manifest knock on a door of 40 square feet or less.

Each power can undo up to two means of preventing egress through a portal.

Thus if a door is locked, barred, and held, or quadruple locked, opening it requires two knock powers.

LEVITATE

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 2/Psychic Warrior 2

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal or close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: You or one willing creature or one object (total weight up to 100 lb./level)

Duration: 10 minutes/level (o)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Levitate allows you to move yourself, another creature, or an object up and down as you wish.

A creature must be willing to be levitated, and an object must be unattended or possessed by a willing creature.

You can mentally direct the recipient to move up or down up to 20 feet each round; doing so is a move-equivalent action.

You cannot move the recipient horizontally, but the recipient could clamber along the face of a cliff, for example, or push against a ceiling to move laterally (generally at half its base speed).

A levitating creature who attacks with a melee or ranged weapon finds himself increasingly unstable; the first attack has an attack roll penalty of -1, the second -2, and so on, up to a maximum penalty of -5.

A full round spent stabilizing allows the creature to begin again at -1.

PHASE DOOR

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Effect: Ethereal 5-ft. × 8-ft. opening, 1 ft./level deep

Duration: One usage/2 levels

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 13

You create an ethereal passage through wooden, plaster, or stone walls, but not other materials.

The phase door is invisible and inaccessible to all creatures except you, and only you can use the passage.

You disappear when you enter the phase door and appear when you exit.

If you desire, you can take one other creature (Medium-size or smaller) through the door.

This counts as two uses of the door.

The door does not allow light, sound, psionic effects, or spell effects through it, nor can you see through it without using it.

Thus, the power can provide an escape route, though certain creatures, such as phase spiders, can follow with ease.

True seeing psionics or magical effects reveal a phase door but do not allow its use.

A phase door is subject to negate psionics.

If anyone is within the passage when it is negated, she is harmlessly ejected just as if she were inside a magical passwall effect.

A phase door can be made permanent with a incarnate power.

You can allow other creatures to use the phase door by setting some triggering condition for the door.

Such conditions can be as simple or elaborate as you desire.

They can be based on a creature's name, identity, or alignment, but otherwise must be based on observable actions or qualities.

Intangibles such as level, class, HD, and hit points don't qualify.

PLANE SHIFT

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 7

Display: Au, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched, or up to eight willing creatures joining hands

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

You move yourself or some other creature to another plane of existence or alternate dimension.

If several willing persons link hands in a circle, up to eight can be affected by the plane shift at the same time.

Pinpoint accuracy as to a particular arrival location on the intended plane is nigh impossible.

From the Material Plane, you can reach any other plane, though you appear 5 to 500 miles (5d%) from your intended destination.

Note: Plane shift transports the creatures instantaneously and then ends.

The creatures need to find other means if they are to travel back.

PROBABILITY TRAVEL

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 9

Display: None

Manifestation Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Targets: You plus one additional creature touched per two levels

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

As astral projection, except you and your companions, if any, traverse the Astral Plane as you will physically instead of with an astral surrogate.

With probability travel, you possess no silver cord and thus are not vulnerable to those who might sever it.

However, if you perish while out journeying amid the planes, you are just as dead as if you had perished in your home plane.

PSIONIC LOCK

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: The door, chest, or portal touched, up to 30 square ft./level in size

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

A psionic lock power manifested upon a door, chest, or portal psionically locks it.

You can freely pass your own lock without affecting it; otherwise, a door or object secured with psionic lock can be opened only by breaking in or by a successful negate psionics or knock power.

Add +10 to the normal DC to bash open a door or portal affected by this power.

Note that knock does not remove psionic lock; it only suppresses it for 10 minutes.

RETRIEVE

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 6

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One object you could hold in one hand, weighing up to 10 lb./level

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 11

You can teleport an item you can see within range directly to your hand.

If the object is in the possession of or held by an opponent, you make a psionically ranged disarm attempt as if with a weapon of equal size to your opponent's, which does not draw an attack of opportunity (see Disarm in the Player's Handbook).

You gain a +12 competence bonus to your attempt.

If you win, you successfully retrieve the contended object.

SENDING

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: See text

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round (see text)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

You contact a particular creature with whom you are familiar and send a short message of twenty-five words or less to the subject.

The subject recognizes you if it knows you.

It can answer in like manner immediately.

Creatures with Intelligence scores as low as 1 can understand the sending, though the subject's ability to react is limited normally by its Intelligence.

Even if the sending is received, the subject creature is not obligated to act upon it in any manner.

If the creature in question is not on the same plane of existence as you are, there is a 5% chance that the sending does not arrive.

(Local conditions on other planes may worsen this chance considerably, at the DM's option).

SENSE PSYCHOPORTATION

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 2

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: A circle, centered on you, with a radius of 100 ft. + 10 ft./level

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: No

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You sense the use of various Psychoportation powers and similar spells within the area.

You sense the use of these powers whether or not you can directly see them.

When you sense the use of a specified effect, you know exactly when the creature is using the power.

Specified powers include dimension door, dimension slide, ethereal jaunt, ethereality, fly, spider climb, teleport, and possibly others your DM determines.

SKATE

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 1/Psychic Warrior 1

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: You or one willing creature or one object (total weight up to 100 lb./level)

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You, another willing creature, or an unattended object can slide along solid ground as if on smooth ice.

If skate is manifested on yourself or another creature, the subject of the power retains equilibrium by mental desire alone, allowing her to gracefully skate along the ground, turn, or stop suddenly as desired.

The subject's base speed is equal to her normal speed + 15 while the duration lasts.

The subject can skate up or down any incline or decline she could normally walk upon without mishap, though skating up an incline reduces the subject's speed to the normal rate, while skating down a decline adds +30 to the skater's normal speed.

This benefit counts as an enhancement bonus.

If manifested on an object, treat the object as weighting only one-tenth of its normal weight for purposes of dragging it along the ground.

SPIDER CLIMB

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

The subject can climb and travel on vertical surfaces or even traverse ceilings as well as a spider does.

The affected creature must have bare hands and feet to climb in this manner.

The subject climbs at half its speed.

A creature with a Strength score of at least 20 +1 per manifester level can pull the subject off a wall.

TELEPORT TRIGGER

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 5

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 9

You specify a situation whereby you automatically manifest a teleport power to a predetermined location (you must know the teleport power and have sufficient power points to pay its cost).

The teleport occurs on the initiative count immediately after the specified situation, even if you are flat-footed or if you have already taken a normal action.

Specified situations can be general ("if I'm attacked") or specific ("if my hit points reach 8 or less").

Otherwise, rules for teleportation work normally.

TELEPORT WITHOUT ERROR

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 7

Power Points: 13

As teleport, except with no chance that you arrive off target. You must have at least a reliable description of the place to which you are teleporting.

If you attempt to teleport with insufficient information (or with misleading information), you disappear and simply reappear in your original location.

TELEPORT

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal and touch

Target: You and touched objects or other touched willing creatures weighing up to 50 lb./level

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None and Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: No and Yes (object)

Power Points: 9

This power instantly transports you to a designated destination.

Distance is not a factor, but interplanar travel is not possible.

You can bring along objects and willing creatures totaling up to 50 pounds per manifester level.

As with all powers where the range is personal and the target is you, you need not make a saving throw, nor is power resistance applicable to you.

Only objects held or in use (attended) by another person receive saving throws and power resistance.

You must have some clear idea of the location and layout of the destination.

You can't simply teleport to the warlord's tent if you don't know where that tent is, what it looks like, or what's in it.

The clearer your mental image, the more likely the teleportation works.

Areas of strong physical, psionic, or magical energies may make teleportation more hazardous or even impossible. Note: Teleportation is instantaneous travel through the Astral Plane. Anything that blocks astral travel also blocks teleportation. To see how well the teleportation works, roll d% and consult the table below.

Familiarity	On Target	Off Target	Similar Area	Mishap
Very familiar	01-97	98-99	100	—
Studied carefully	01-94	95-97	98-99	100
Seen casually	01-88	89-94	95-98	99-100
Viewed once	01-76	77-88	89-96	97-100
Description	01-52	53-76	77-92	93-100
False destination (1d20+80)	—	—	81-92	93-100

Familiarity: “Very familiar” is a place where you have been very often and where you feel at home. “Studied carefully” is a place you know well, either because you’ve been there often or you have used other means (such as remote viewing) to study the place. “Seen casually” is a place that you have seen more than once but with which you are not very familiar. “Viewed once” is a place that you have seen once, possibly using psionics. “Description” is a place whose location and appearance you know through someone else’s description, perhaps even from a precise map. “False destination” is a place that doesn’t exist, such as if you have mistranslated an ancient tome and tried to teleport into a nonexistent treasure vault that you believe you read about, or if a traitorous guide has carefully described an enemy’s sanctum to you when that sanctum is completely different from what the traitor described. When traveling to a false destination, roll 1d20+80 to obtain results on the table, rather than rolling d%, since there is no real destination for you to arrive at or even be off target from. On Target: You appear where you want to be. Off Target: You appear safely a random distance away from the destination in a random direction. Distance off target is 1d10×1d10% of the distance that was to be traveled. For example, if you tried to travel 120 miles, landed off target, and rolled 6 and 3 on the two d10s, then you would be 18% off target. That’s 21 miles, in this case. The DM would determine the direction off target randomly, such as by rolling 1d8 and designating 1 as north, 2 as northeast, and so on. If you were teleporting to a coastal city and wound up 21 miles out at sea, you could be in trouble. Similar Area: You wind up in an area that’s visually or thematically similar to the target area. A wizard heading for her home laboratory might wind up in another wizard’s laboratory or in an alchemy supply shop that has many of the same tools and implements as in her laboratory. Generally, you appear in the closest similar place, but since the power has no range limit, you could conceivably wind up somewhere else across the globe. Mishap: You and anyone else teleporting with you have gotten “scrambled”.

You each suffer 1d10 points of damage, and you reroll on the chart to see where you wind up. For these rerolls, roll 1d20+80. Each time “Mishap” comes up, the characters suffer more damage and must reroll.

TELEPORTATION CIRCLE

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 8

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Effect: A circle up to 5 ft. in radius that teleports those who activate it

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15

You create a circle on the floor or other horizontal surface that teleports, as teleport without error, any creature who stands on it to a designated spot.

Once you designate the destination for the circle, you can’t change it.

The power fails if you attempt to set the circle to teleport creatures into a solid object, to a place with which you are not familiar and have no clear description, or to another plane.

The circle itself is subtle and nearly impossible to notice.

If you intend to keep creatures from activating it accidentally, you need to mark the circle in some way, such as ash, placing it on a raised platform.

The DC for a rogue (only) to use the Search skill to find the circle and thwart it with Disable Device is 34.

TEMPORAL ACCELERATION

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 8

Duration: 2 rounds (apparent time)

Power Points: 15

As temporal velocity, except you are free to act for 2 rounds of apparent time and are disoriented for 1 round afterward.

TEMPORAL VELOCITY

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 9

Display: None

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 3d4 rounds (apparent time)

Power Points: 17

You enter another time frame, speeding up so greatly that all other creatures seem frozen, though they are actually still moving at their normal speeds.

You are free to act for 3d4 rounds of apparent time.

Normal and magical fire, cold, acid, and the like can still harm you.

While temporal velocity is in effect, other creatures are invulnerable to your attacks and power; however, you can manifest powers and leave their effects to appear when the temporal velocity power ends.

(The powers' durations do not begin until the temporal velocity duration is over).

You cannot move or harm items held, carried, or worn by a creature stuck in the standard time frame, but you can affect any item that is not in another creature's possession. You are undetectable while temporal velocity lasts.

You cannot enter an area protected by a null psionics field or by powers or spells that neutralize high-level powers or spells.

When temporal velocity lapses, you are disoriented on your return to the standard time frame.

You suffer a -2 penalty on all attack rolls, saving throws, and skill checks for half the number of rounds (round down) you were accelerated.

TIME HOP

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi, Au (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: Any object or creature whose weight is 600 lb. or less

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

The subject of the power hops forward in time 3d6 rounds (always into the future, never into the past).

In effect, the subject seems to disappear in a shimmer of silver electricity, then reappear after 3d6 rounds.

The subject reappears in exactly the same orientation and condition as before.

For the subject, no time has passed at all.

If the space from which the subject departed is occupied upon his return to the time stream, he appears in the closest unoccupied space, still in his original orientation. Determine the closest space randomly if necessary.

TIME REGRESSION

Psychoportation (Dex)

Level: Psion 9

Display: None

Manifestation Time: 1d4+1 rounds

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 17, XP cost

You can regress apparent time 1d4+1 rounds into the past.

In effect, you "replay" the previous few rounds of activity.

The power regresses time to the point along the timestream when you first began manifesting the power.

(You replay the same 1d4+1 rounds noted in the manifestation time).

Once you've regressed, only you retain knowledge of the next 1d4+1 rounds; however, you can communicate that knowledge verbally to your companions, if desired.

During the rounds that you live through a second time, you can act on knowledge you gained by living through the immediate future.

In all likelihood, you'll probably not choose to manifest time regression during your second pass through the time stream, instead taking completely new actions, but you pay the XP cost all the same.

XP Cost: Each manifestation costs 500 XP.

TRACE TELEPORT

Psychoportation (Dex) [Teleportation]

Level: Psion 6

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Circle, centered on you, with a radius of 100 ft. + 10 ft./level

Effect: Traces the teleportation of any object or creature whose weight does not total more than 300 lb./level

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (foils trace)

Power Resistance: Yes (foils trace)

Power Points: 11

As sense psychoportation, except you can trace the origination or destination of any teleportation made by others within the area.

You can trace both psionic and magical teleportations.

You must pierce the power resistance of creatures that possess it for a successful trace, but the creature conducting the teleportation can make a Will save to foil the trace.

For purposes of this power, "trace" means you could teleport to the location yourself if you so desired (and know the teleport power), as if you had "seen casually" the trace location.

This power does not grant you any information on the conditions at the other end of the trace beyond mental coordinates.

TELEPATHY

APOPSI

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Vi, Ma, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living psionic creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

Using apopsi [ab-po-sigh], you delete 1d4 powers permanently from the subject's mind.

You specify the level of each power, and the DM randomly determines which of the subject's powers is actually deleted.

Psychic surgery may be used to restore the lost power, but it must be performed within 1 week of losing the power.

ATTRACTION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You plant a compelling attraction in the mind of the subject.

The attraction can be toward a particular person, an object, an action, or an event.

The power's subject will take reasonable steps to meet, get close to, attend, find, or perform the, object of its implanted attraction.

For the purposes of this power, "reasonable" means that while fascinated, the subject doesn't suffer from blind obsession.

He won't leap into a fire or over a cliff, or climb into the arms of a dragon.

He can still recognize danger, but he will not flee unless the threat is immediate.

If you make the subject feel an attraction to yourself, you can't command him indiscriminately although he will be willing to listen to you (even if he disagrees).

This power grants you a +4 bonus to your Charisma modifier when dealing with the subject.

AURA ALTERATION

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 6

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous or 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

You can disguise the subject's aura (alignment), level, or remove compulsions such as crisis of breath, fatal attraction, curses, geases, and quests.

Aura alteration can also sever all charm and compulsion powers of 6th level or lower that might affect a target.

If disguising the subject's alignment or level, the power has a duration of 10 minutes/level.

You may change the subject's alignment by only one degree.

For instance, you could not make a chaotic evil creature appear lawful good, but you could make it appear chaotic neutral or neutral evil.

You may adjust the subject's apparent level by a number equal to half your own level (round down).

If attempting to cleanse the subject's aura, the duration is instantaneous.

When aura alteration is manifested, the subject gains another saving throw against the affliction at the original DC, but with a +2 bonus on her roll.

You can remove the afflictions noted above, and you may be able to remove others at the DM's discretion.

AVERSION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You plant a powerful aversion in the mind of the subject.

The aversion can be toward a particular person, an object, an action, or an event.

The power's subject will take reasonable steps to avoid the object of its implanted aversion.

If a physical object, she will not approach within 30 feet of it.

If a word, she will not utter or think it, if an action she will not perform it, and if an event she will not attend it.

For example, you can't make the subject have an aversion to fighting (which is a combination of many actions), but you could give her an aversion to her sword, causing her to drop it and back away.

If not taking a taboo action directly threatens the subject, she may perform the action at a -2 morale penalty on any attack rolls, ability checks, or skill checks involved.

BRAIN LOCK

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 2

Display: Vi, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One humanoid of Medium-size or smaller

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

The subject's higher mind is locked away.

He stands mentally paralyzed, unable to take any actions.

The brain locked subject is not stunned (so attackers get no special advantage).

He can defend himself against physical attacks (Dexterity bonus to AC still applies), but otherwise can't move, and can't use psionic powers.

A brain locked flyer cannot flap its wings and falls.

A swimmer can't swim and may drown.

CATAPSI

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 5/Psychic Warrior 5

Display: Vi, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium 100 feet

Area: 100-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

With catapsi [kat-ah-sigh], you generate psychic static, making it more difficult for other psionic characters to manifest their powers (you are not affected by your own catapsi manifestation).

All psionic activity within the area requires twice as many power points to manifest, unless opponents make a successful Will save each time they manifest a power. Freely manifesting 0-level powers takes 1 full round, instead of 1 action, in a catapsi field. If two or more fields of catapsi overlap, one field cancels out the other (determine randomly).

CHARM MONSTER

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 3

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 day/level

Power Points: 5

As charm person, except that the power is not restricted by creature type or size, and you need not speak the creature's language.

CHARM PERSON

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting, Language-Dependent]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One person

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

This power makes a humanoid of Medium-size or smaller regard you as his trusted friend and ally.

If the creature is currently being threatened or attacked by you or your allies, however, he receives a +5 bonus on his saving throw.

The power does not enable you to control the charmed person as if he were an automaton, but he perceives your words and actions in the most favorable way.

You can try to give the subject orders, but you must win an opposed charisma check to convince him to do anything he would not ordinarily do.

(Retries are not allowed).

A charmed person never obeys suicidal or obviously harmful orders, but he might believe you if you assured him that the only chance to save your life is for him to hold back an onrushing red dragon for "just a few seconds".

Any act by you or your apparent allies that threatens the charmed person breaks the power.

Note also that you must speak the person's language to communicate your commands, or else be good at pantomiming.

CONCEAL THOUGHTS

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Yes (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 1

You protect your thoughts from analysis.

While the duration lasts, the feat Psychic Inquisitor fails to operate against you, and you gain a +20 circumstance bonus on Bluff checks against those attempting to discern your true intentions with Sense Motive.

You also gain a +4 bonus on your saving throw against any power used to read your mind (such as detect thoughts or mind probe).

CONFIDANTE

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 9

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 17, XP cost

As lesser mindlink, except the telepathic bond is permanent between you and one other creature.

XP Cost: 2,000 XP.

CRISIS OF BREATH

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 3

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature of Huge size or smaller

Duration: 2 rounds/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You compel the subject to purge its entire store of air in one explosive exhalation, and thereby disrupt the subject's autonomic breathing cycle.

The subject's lungs do not automatically breathe in again while the power's duration lasts.

Those who choose to consciously control their breathing each round (in an attempt to regain some air) are limited only to partial actions during that round as they gasp for breath.

Affected creatures can choose to take action normally, but each round they do so they risk blacking out from lack of oxygen.

They must succeed at a Constitution check (DC 10) every round that passes without a breath to remain conscious.

Every round that goes by without a breath, the DC increases by 1, but the DC drops back to 10 if a normal breath is taken.

If a subject fails a Constitution check, it is staggered (0 hp). The following round it drops to -1 hit points and is dying, unless the duration lapses first.

Failing a lapse in the power's duration, the subject dies on the third round.

DAZE

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 0/psychic Warrior 0

Display: Me, Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One person

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

This power clouds the mind of a humanoid of Medium-size or smaller so that he takes no actions.

Humanoids of 5 or more HD are not affected.

The dazed subject is not stunned (so attackers get no special advantage against him), but he can't move, use psionic powers, cast spells, and so on.

DEMORALIZE

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Ol, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Several living creatures, no two of which are more than 15 ft. apart

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You fill your enemies with self-doubt, conferring on them a -1 morale penalty on all saving throws, attack rolls, and skill checks.

Allies are unaffected.

DETECT THOUGHTS

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 2

Display: Vi, Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Quarter circle emanating from you to the extreme of the range

Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You detect surface thoughts.

The amount of information revealed depends on how long you study a particular area or subject:

1st Round: Presence or absence of thoughts (from conscious creatures with Intelligence scores of 1 or higher).

2nd Round: Number of thinking minds and the mental strength of each.

3rd Round: Surface thoughts of any mind in the area.

A target's Will save prevents you from reading its thoughts, and you must manifest detect thoughts again to have another chance.

Creatures of animal intelligence have simple, instinctual thoughts that you can pick up.

Intelligence	Mental Strength
1-2	Animal
3-5	Very low
6-9	Low
10-11	Average
12-15	High
16-17	Very high
18-21	Genius
22-25	Supra-genius
26+	Godlike

Note: Each round, you can turn to detect thoughts in a new area.

The power can penetrate barriers, but 1 foot of stone, 1 inch of common metal, a thin sheet of lead, or 3 feet of wood or dirt blocks it.

DISABLE

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Several living creatures within a 15-ft.-radius burst

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You broadcast a mental compulsion that convinces one or more creatures that they are disabled (at 0 hit points).

Roll 2d4 to determine how many total HD of creatures can be affected.

Creatures with the fewest HD are affected first.

Among creatures with equal HD, those who are closest to the power's point of origin are affected first.

No creature with 5 or more HD is affected, and HD that are not sufficient to affect a creature are wasted.

Creatures affected by the power believe that they have somehow been reduced to 0 hit points, and must act accordingly.

While its possible that some may attempt one last "heroic" action (expecting to then lose consciousness from the exertion), most will cower or retreat.

Creatures do attempt to take actions immediately pierce the compulsion, and may act normally.

Creatures that attempt to heal themselves or who receive healing are likewise freed of the compulsion, and if they are not otherwise wounded, the healing is wasted.

Creatures who are attacked and take damage are also instantly freed of the compulsion.

When the duration ends, the creatures' hit points "return" to their previous level (as they perceive the true state of their health).

Note: Extra hit points are irrelevant for determining how many HD a creature has.

An ogre with 4d8+8 hit points still only has 4 HD and can be affected by the power.

DISTRACT

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 0/Psychic Warrior 0

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One living creature
Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level (D)
Saving Throw: Will negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 1

You cause your subject's mind to wander, distracting her. Subjects of distract make all Listen, Spot, Search, and Sense Motive checks at a -1 penalty.

DOMINATION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]
Level: Psion 4
Display: Me
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)
Target: One humanoid of Medium-size or smaller
Duration: 1 day/level
Saving Throw: Will negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 7

You can control the actions of any humanoid of Medium-size or smaller.

You establish a telepathic link with the subject's mind. If you and your subject share a common language, you can generally force the subject to perform as you desire, within the limits of his abilities. If no common language is shared, you can only communicate basic commands, such as "Come here", "Go there", "Fight", "Stand still", and so on. You know what the subject is experiencing but do not receive direct sensory input from him.

Subjects resist this control, and those forced to take actions against their natures receive a new saving throw with a bonus of +1 to +4, depending on the type of action required. Obviously self-destructive orders are not carried out.

Once control is established, the range at which it can be exercised is unlimited, as long as you and subject are on the same plane.

You need not see the subject to control it.

Protection from evil or a similar spell or power can prevent you from exercising control or using the telepathic link while the subject is so warded, but it does not prevent the establishment of domination or negate it.

EMPATHY

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]
Level: Psion 1
Display: Me
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One living creature
Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level (D)
Saving Throw: Will negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 1

You detect the surface emotions of any creature you can see that is in range.

You can sense basic needs, drives, and emotions.

Thirst, hunger, fear, fatigue, pain, rage, hatred, uncertainty, curiosity, friendliness, and so on, can all be sensed.

FALSE SENSORY INPUT

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]
Level: Psion 3
Display: Me
Manifestation Time: 1 full round
Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)
Target: One living creature.
Duration: Concentration, up to 1 minute/level (D)
Saving Throw: Will negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 5

You have a limited ability to falsify one of the subject's senses.

The subject thinks she sees, hears, smells, tastes or feels something other than what her senses actually report. You can't fabricate a sensation where none exists, nor make the subject completely oblivious to a sensation, but you can falsify the specifics of one sensation for different specifics. For instance, you could make a human look like a dwarf (or one human look like another specific human), a closed door look like it is open, a vat of acid smell like rose water, a parrot look like a bookend, stale rations taste like fresh fruit, a light pat feel like a dagger thrust, a scream sound like the howling wind, and so on.

You can switch between senses you falsify round by round.

You can't alter a sensation's "intensity" by more than 50%.

Thus, you couldn't make a castle look like a hovel, but you could make it look like a different castle, or a rough hillock of approximately the same size.

While you might be able to make acidic fumes smell nice, you can't get acid to taste like candy.

If this power is used to distract an enemy psion who is attempting to manifest a power, the enemy must make a Concentration check as if against a nondamaging power (the DC equals the distracting power's save DC + 3 in this case).

FATAL ATTRACTION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]
Level: Psion 4
Display: Me (detectable only by victim)
Manifestation Time: 1 action
Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)
Target: One living creature
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates
Power Resistance: Yes
Power Points: 7

You plant a hidden death-urge impulse in the subject's unconscious.

The impulse slowly takes root and reinforces itself in the dark cellars of the subject's mind over a period of 1d4 days. The subject's conscious mind remains completely unaware of the death urge secretly swelling within like an abscess. The subject's companions, if any, may each make, one Wisdom check on the final day of the time period to notice that he seems unaccountably dour and fatalistic.

When the urge has grown to an overpowering psychosis (after 1d4 days), the subject looks for the quickest, most likely method to end his life and attempts to do so.

For instance, if standing next to a cliff, he would step off.

If nothing better offered itself, the subject would attempt to perform a coup de grace on himself.
If he had no weapon, he would attempt to batter himself to death on a wall or other surface.
If the subject goes through with a method but fails to die, he can make another Fortitude save against the original DC to break the compulsion.
Otherwise, the urge secretly grows again over 1d4 days, and the cycle repeats.

FATE LINK

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Any two living creatures that are initially no more than 30 ft. apart.

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You temporarily link the fates of any two creatures, if both fail their saving throws.

If either linked creature experiences pain, both feel it. When one loses hit points, the other loses the same amount.

If either dies, the other must immediately succeed at a Fortitude save or gain a number of negative levels equal to the character level of the creature that died (minimum one).

All other effects are not transferred by the fate link.

You could attempt to create a chain of fate linked creatures, if desired.

FORCED MINDLINK

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 4

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

As lesser mindlink, except you can attempt to create a telepathic bond with a creature who is not willing.

Even if you create a bond with an unwilling creature, it can still decide not to "speak" with you through the telepathic bond.

GREATER DOMINATION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 5

Power Points: 9

As domination, except you can control a subject with whom you do not share a common language.

INFLECT PAIN

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You telepathically stab the mind of your foe, causing horrible agony.

The telepathic strike deals 3d6 points of damage.

INSANITY

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 7

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

Creatures affected by this power are permanently insane and constantly behave randomly, as indicated on the following table:

d10 roll	Action
1	Wander away for 1 minute (unless prevented)
2-6	Do nothing for 1 round
7-9	Attack nearest creature for 1 round
10	Act normally for 1 round

Except on a result of 1, roll again each round to see what the subject does that round.

Wandering creatures leave the scene as if uninterested. Attackers are not at any special advantage when attacking them.

Actions are checked at the beginning of each creature's turn.

Any insane creature that is attacked automatically attacks its attackers on its next turn.

Only psychic surgery and other extreme measures can restore the subject's sanity.

INTRUSIVE SENSE LINK

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 2

Power Points: 3

As sense link, except the subject creature senses what you sense (one sense only).

For example, if you link taste and then eat something particularly foul (DM's discretion), the subject creature must make another Will save against the original DC or be stunned for 1 round.

If you eat something that causes you damage, the subject creature takes no damage but must make a saving throw against the original DC or be stunned for 1d2 rounds. Likewise, if you link sight and are subject to a gaze attack, so is the subject.

LESSER DOMINATION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting, Language-Dependent]

Level: Psion 3

Power Points: 7

As domination, except that if no common language is shared between you and the subject, the power does not function at all.

LESSER MINDLINK

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 1

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: You and one other creature who is initially no more than 30 ft. away

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

You forge a telepathic bond with another creature, which must have an Intelligence score of 6 or higher.

The bond can be established only with a willing subject, who therefore receives no saving throw and gains no benefit from power resistance.

You can communicate telepathically through the bond even if you do not share a common language.

No special power or influence is established as a result of the bond.

Once the bond is formed, it works over any distance (although not from one plane to another).

MASS DOMINATION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 7

Targets: One creature/level, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 13

As domination, except you can affect more creatures and can control a subject with whom you do not share a common language.

You can give different directions to different creatures.

MASS SUGGESTION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting, Language-Dependent]

Level: Psion 6

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Targets: One creature/level, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 11

As suggestion, except that it can affect more creatures.

The same suggestion applies to all these creatures.

METACONCERT

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 minute

Range: 10 feet

Target: You and up to fifteen other psions who also know metaconcert

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

You link your psychic might with other psions, creating an entity more powerful than the sum of its parts.

All participants (up to sixteen total, including you) must be willing; thus, saving throws and power resistance do not reply.

Once linked, all your power points flow into a collective pool, the total of which is 20% more than the sum of the participants' pools.

Thus, if ten psions each contribute 10 power points, the initial total of the pooled power points is 120.

When the power is manifested, one individual is chosen as the lead mind by mutual consent of the other participants.

Until the power ends, this "conductor" directs the efforts of the group.

Visually, misty strands of glowing power link the brows of all the participants in a complex and shifting pattern.

All the powers of each participant are known to the mental entity constructed by metaconcert.

This entity can't take any more actions than a normal individual, but it manifests all its powers more effectively.

Each individual psion making up the entity provides a cumulative +1 bonus to DCs set when manifesting a power (including using a psionic attack mode) and a cumulative +1 bonus when making saving throws against powers (including will saves against psionic attack modes).

If the psionic entity takes temporary ability damage from a psionic attack, the total is divided up among all the members as they see fit (so if a ten-psion group took 3 points of ability damage, they could select three different participants to each take only 1 point).

Once linked, the participants must remain within a 20-foot-diameter area, and as a group may only move at a speed of 10 feet.

Participants can willingly drop out before the overall metaconcert ends, but they come away with 0 power points. Participants who accidentally move beyond the range of the power or who are forcibly removed also end up with 0 power points.

When metaconcert ends normally or is dismissed, remaining power points in the pool are evenly divided among all the participants (round down).

You do not leave a metaconcert with more power points than you joined with—extra power points are lost in bright arcs of light.

MICROCOSM

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 9

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target or Area: One living creature or one or more creatures within a 15-foot-radius sphere

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17

When microcosm is manifested, you can target either a single creature or a group.

Targeted: If microcosm targets a single creature, that creature's senses are pinched off from the real world if it has 100 or fewer hit points.

The subject's senses are all completely fabricated from within its own mind, though it may not realize this. In reality, the subject sprawls limply, drooling and mewling, and will eventually die of thirst and starvation without aid.

However, the subject lives within its own made-up world until the time of its actual death.

Area Effect: If microcosm is manifested as an area effect, it sends creatures in a 15-foot-radius sphere into their own (unlinked) catatonias.

It affects only creatures that have 30 or fewer hit points, and only up to a total of 300 hit points of such creatures. The power affects creatures with the lowest hit point totals first until the next creature would put the total over the 300 hit point limit.

(Creatures with negative hit points count as having 0 hit points).

Manifesting microcosm a second time on a subject can turn its sensory pathways outward once more.

Otherwise, only very powerful psionic powers or similar effects (such as psychic surgery or the spell greater restoration) can undo the mental crosswiring that creates a private world.

MIND BLANK

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 8

Display: Ol

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 day

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Power Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 15

The subject is totally protected from all devices and power that detect, influence, or read emotions or thoughts.

This protects against all mind-affecting powers and effects, as well as information gathering by Clairsentience powers or effects (except metafaculty).

Mind blank even foils extraordinary powers and spells (such as limited wish, miracle, and wish) when they are used in such a way as to affect the subject's mind or to gain information about him.

In the case of remote viewing or scrying that scans an area that the creature is in, the power works but the creature simply isn't detected.

Remote viewing and scrying attempts that are targeted specifically at the subject do not work at all.

Mind blank is not effective against psionic attack modes.

MIND PROBE

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi, Ma, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 minute

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

All the subject's memories and knowledge are accessible to you, from memories deep below the surface to those still easily called to mind.

You can learn the answer to one question per round, to the best of the subject's knowledge.

You can also probe a sleeping subject, though the subject may make a Will save against the DC of the mind probe to wake after each question.

Subjects who do not wish to be probed can attempt to move beyond the power's range, unless somehow hindered.

You pose the questions telepathically, and the answers to those questions are imparted directly to your mind.

You and the subject do not need to speak the same language, though less intelligent creatures may yield up only appropriate visual images in answer to your questions. Creatures protected by mind blank are immune to mind probe.

MIND SEED

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion.

Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 8

Display: Ma

Manifestation Time: 3 rounds

Range: 5 feet

Target: One humanoid of Medium-size or smaller

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15, XP cost

You impress the totality of your psyche into a subject's subconscious.

If successfully implanted, the seed of your mind "germinates" over a period of one week.

During this time, the subject begins to unconsciously take on your mannerisms.

For instance, if you habitually mutter, "Sure, sure, sure", this same litany will soon be heard from the subject's lips, though never consciously.

Any time before the seven-day deadline, the mind seed can be purged from the subject's mind with psychic surgery or the spell greater restoration (manifesting mind seed again also cleanses the mind).

When integration is complete (after seven days), the subject becomes you in mind as you were when you manifested the power but eight levels lower in experience.

He does not possess any of your physical statistics or equipment, but does possess your ability scores in Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma as they were eight levels earlier.

The subject also knows the powers you knew at the appropriate level.

As soon as the subject becomes your mental duplicate, the two personalities begin to diverge.

Although the subject starts off with your experiences, he possesses his original "soul" and physical body and is free to develop his own personality based on its own experiences. Thus, the subject is not your slave or servant, but instead an NPC in his own right who shares your earlier memories.

Protection from evil or a similar spell or power can prevent you from implanting mind seed.
XP Cost: 3,000 XP.

MIND SWITCH

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 6

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: You and one other living Medium-size or smaller creature

Duration: Until you return to your body

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 11

You can attempt to take control of a nearby living creature, forcing its mind (and soul) into your body.

You may move your mind back into your own body whenever your desire (which returns the subject's mind to its own body).

The power ends when you send your mind back to your own body.

Attempting to switch minds is a full-round action.

It is blocked by protection from evil or a similar magical or psionic ward.

You possess the body and force the creature's mind into your body unless it succeeds at a Will save.

If successful, your life force occupies the host body, and the host's life force takes over yours.

You can call on rudimentary or instinctive knowledge of the subject creature, but not upon its real or acquired knowledge (as can it in your body).

For example, you do not automatically know the language or powers of the creature.

You each retain your own alignment, Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores, class, level, skills, base attack bonus, base saving throw bonuses, hit points (regardless of new Constitution score), power points (if any), and power resistance (if any).

You each gain the new body's Strength, Constitution, and Dexterity scores (including modifiers based on these abilities), as well as natural (but not magical) armor.

Neither of you gains the other's special abilities.

As a standard action, you can return to your own body, if within range (which ends the power).

If your new body is slain, you return to your own body, if within range, and the life force of the original body departs.

If your new body is slain beyond the range of the power, you die, but the switched creature lives on in your body permanently.

If your body is slain while inhabited by the power's subject, it dies, and you continue to inhabit the new body permanently.

Any life force with nowhere to go is treated as slain.

A successful targeted negate psionics manifested on either switched body causes both minds to return to their original bodies, if within range.

If they are out of range, negate psionics has no effect.

MINDLINK

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 3

Targets: One creature/level, no two of which are initially more than 30 ft. apart

Power Points: 5

As lesser mindlink, except you can link more than just yourself and one other creature.

MINDWIPE

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 4

Display: Vi, Ma, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude Negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You partially wipe your victim's mind of past experiences, bestowing one negative level per two manifester levels (maximum five negative levels).

If the subject has at least as many negative levels as HD, he dies.

Each negative level gives a creature the following penalties:

-1 penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, skill checks, ability checks, and effective level (for determining the power, duration, DC, and other details of power, spells, or special abilities).

The creature also loses 5 hit points.

Additionally, a psionic character or creature loses one power from her highest available level (a spellcaster loses one spell or spell slot from her highest available level). Negative levels stack.

Assuming the subject survives, he regains lost levels after a number of hours equal to your manifester level.

Usually, negative levels have a chance of permanently draining the subject's levels, but the negative levels from mindwipe don't last long enough to do so.

MISSIVE

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 0

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Effect: Mental message delivered to subject

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You send a telepathic message of up to ten words to any living creature within range.

Missive is strictly a one-way exchange from you to the subject.

If you do not share a common language, the subject "hears" meaningless mental syllables.

MONSTER DOMINATION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 9

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 day/level

Power Points: 17

As domination, except any kind of creature can be dominated, regardless of size or type (though it must be alive).

PSYCHIC CHIRURGERY

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 9

Display: Vi, Au, Me

Manifestation Time: 10 minutes

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 17, XP cost (see text)

You can repair psychic damage.

You can also grant another creature knowledge of powers you know.

Repair Damage: You can remove any compulsions and charms (such as crisis of breath and fatal attraction), even those higher than 6th level (such as true domination and thrall).

In fact, you can remove any ongoing or permanent effect caused by a psychic power with psychic chirurgery, save for hit points.

You can also restore all drained levels (or disperse all negative levels) afflicting the subject, regardless of how he lost those levels, restoring him to the highest level he had previously achieved.

The drained levels are restored only if the time since the subject lost the level is no more than 1 hour per manifester level.

Unlike aura alteration, these effects end or are reversed as soon as the manifestation time is completed without need for another saving throw.

You can also remove all psionic effects penalizing the subject's abilities, heal all temporary damage to all ability scores and restore all points permanently drained from all ability scores.

Psychic chirurgery also removes all forms of insanity, confusion, and so on, but it does not restore levels or Constitution points lost due to death.

Transfer Knowledge: If desired, you can directly transfer knowledge of a power you know to another psionic character.

You can't give a character knowledge of a psionic power of a level higher than she could normally manifest, but you could give her knowledge of a power that is not normally on the character's power list.

Knowledge of powers granted through psychic chirurgery does not count toward the maximum number of powers a character can know per level.

XP Cost: Each time you use psychic chirurgery to implant knowledge of a power in another creature, you pay an XP cost equal to 3,000 × the level of the power implanted.

SCHISM

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 3

Display: Vi, Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Power Points: 5

Your mind splits into two independent parts.

Each part functions in complete autonomy, like two characters in one body.

The newly partitioned mind does not control the body physically but is free to take one partial action each round that is completely mental (such as manifesting a power). Both minds communicate with each other telepathically.

Both can use psionic powers, even at the same time, although both draw from the same power point pool.

All powers manifested by the newly partitioned personality cost a number of power points equal to their standard cost + 2.

This effect allows you to take an extra partial action each round, either before or after your regular action, as long as that action is the manifestation of a power or some other nonphysical activity.

Manifesting powers in threatened areas still provokes attacks of opportunity.

If you are subjected to a compulsion or charm effect while you are of two minds, make a second saving throw if you fail the first.

If you fail both, then schism ends and you are affected normally by the power.

If you fail one, the other part of your mind is still free to act normally.

Note: The spell haste does not function on a "split-minded" creature due to its fragmented consciousness. Other spells and powers designated by the DM are likewise unlikely to function, or at the very best, to affect only one of the personalities.

SENSE LINK

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 1

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You sense what the subject creature senses.

Only one sense is linked, and you may not switch between senses with the same manifestation.

For example, you could see what the subject sees, or hear what it hears, or taste what it tastes, and so on.

Once sense link is manifested, the link persists even if the subject creature moves out of the original manifestation range (but the link does not work across planes).

You do not control the creature, nor can you communicate with it via this power.

You must concentrate to access the sense link.

If you do not concentrate, that sense returns to your own immediate surroundings.

The powers of the subject creature's senses could be enhanced by other powers or items, if desired, allowing you the same enhanced sense.

You are subject to any gaze attack met by the subject creature.

A successful negate psionics manifested on you or the linked creature ends the power.

With respect to your own blindness, deafness, and so on, the linked creature is an independent sensory organ. (For example, it is not made blind if you are blinded yourself, so you could still see via the sense link while its duration lasts).

When linked to a subject, you make your own perception checks, such as Spot and Listen, regardless of the subject's Spot and Listen results, if any.

SENSE PSIONICS

Telepathy (Cha)

Level: Psion 5

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 1 mile/level

Area: 1 mile/level radius emanation centered on you

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: Yes (see text)

Power Points: 9

You detect all psionic activity anywhere within range. You know direction and distance from you to within 60 feet and the discipline of the power being used, but no other information is revealed.

Sense psionics is crude but strong: All powers of 8th level or less are ineffectual in preventing sense psionics from detecting psionic activity.

SUGGESTION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting, Language-Dependent]

Level: Psion 2

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 hour/level or until completed

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 3

You influence the actions of the subject creature by suggesting a course of action (limited to a sentence or two). The suggestion must be worded in such a manner as to make the action sound reasonable.

Asking the creature to stab itself, throw itself onto a spear, immolate itself, or do some other obviously harmful act automatically negates the effect of the power.

However, a suggestion that a pool of acid is actually pure water and that a quick dip would be refreshing is another matter.

Urging a red dragon to stop attacking your party so that the dragon and party could jointly loot a rich treasure elsewhere is likewise a reasonable use of the power.

The suggested course of action can continue for the entire duration, such as in the case of the red dragon mentioned above.

If the suggested action can be completed in a shorter time, the power ends when the subject finishes what he was asked to do.

You can instead specify conditions that will trigger a special action during the duration.

For example, you might suggest that a noble knight give her warhorse to the first beggar she meets.

If the condition is not met before the power expires, the action is not performed.

A very reasonable suggestion causes the saving throw to be made with a penalty (such as -1, -2, and so on) at the discretion of the DM.

TAILOR MEMORY

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 4

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One humanoid of Medium-size or smaller

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 7

You insert a memory of your own choosing in your subject's mind.

You can insert a memory of up to 1 round duration per four manifester levels.

Thus, at 8th level you could insert a false memory up to 12 seconds in length.

You choose when the fake event occurred any time within the last week.

You can't read the subject's memory with this power, so unless you have specific knowledge of his activities in the last week, it is best to keep the inserted memory general. Tailoring a memory is tricky, because if it is not done right, the subject's mind recognizes the "memory" as false.

Dissonance occurs if you insert a memory that is out of context with the subject's past experience.

For instance, you create a memory of the subject seeing you emerge from a specific bar in a specific city three days ago, but in reality, the subject was not in that city at that time.

He gains a bonus of +1 to +4 to his saving throw, depending on the magnitude of dissonance you create by specifying an out-of-context memory, as determined by the DM.

In the above example, the subject would gain a +1 bonus on his Will save if he had been to the city sometime last week (just not three days ago) but would get a +4 bonus if he had never been to that city.

Likewise, inserting a memory of the subject taking an action against his nature grants a +1 to +4 bonus, depending on the type of memory inserted.

Inserting a memory that couldn't possibly be true causes the power to fail automatically.

For example, a subject's memory of committing suicide is obviously false.

TELEPATHIC PROJECTION

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 0

Display: Vi

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: One living creature

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 1

You can alter the subject's mood.

An affected creature feels the new emotion, but telepathic projection cannot radically change its emotional state.

Instead, you adjust its emotions by one step.

For instance, an unfriendly creature might be made indifferent, or a hostile creature simply unfriendly.

(See Chapter 5 of the DUNGEON MASTER's Guide for a summary of NPC attitudes).

You can grant up to a +1 bonus on your own (or others') attempts at Bluff, Diplomacy, Intimidate, and Perform actions with affected creatures, assuming you adjust the subject's emotions in the proper direction (you could also inflict a -1 penalty on similar interactions, if you so choose).

THRALL

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 9

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 17, XP cost

As true domination, except the subject is permanently dominated if it fails the initial Will save.

A subject forced to take actions against its nature receives a saving throw with a penalty of -10 to resist taking that particular action, but even if it succeeds, it still remains your thrall despite its minor mutiny.

Once a subject of thrall makes a successful saving throw to resist a specific order, it makes all future saving throws to resist taking that specific action without a penalty.

The only way to dissolve thrallhood is through the successful manifestation of another thrall power, manifested with the intention of freeing the thrall, or the successful use of the spell Mordenkainen's disjunction.

XP Cost: 5,000 XP.

TRUE DOMINATION

Telepathy (Cha) [Compulsion, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 8

Power Points: 15

As domination, except a subject forced to take actions against its nature receives a new saving throw with a penalty of -10.

On a failed save, the subject must take the action, but on a success, the power is broken.

Obviously self-destructive orders may be carried out, unless the subject can succeed at the above-noted saving throw, thereby breaking the power.

ULTRABLAST

Telepathy (Cha) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion 7

Display: Au (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 round

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Several living creatures within a 15-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will half

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 13

You "grumble" psychically for 1 round (which both psionic and nonpsionic creatures can detect), then release a horrid shriek from your subconscious that penetrates and disrupts the soft tissues of the subjects' brains.

This attack deals 13d4 points of damage.

RACES OF DESTINY (3.5)

CLAIRSENTIENCE

REALIZED POTENTIAL

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Power Points: 5

The target receives a vision of her own future, gaining deeper insight into her abilities, but only temporarily.

For the duration of this power, the character gains a +1 competence bonus on attack rolls and saving throws, and a +2 competence bonus on skill checks made using skills in which the character has purchased ranks.

SYNCHRONICITY

Clairsentience

Level: Psion/wilder 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round

Power Points: 1

You gain a brief glimpse into the future that allows you to arrange a coincidence of events.

When you manifest this power, you can ready a standard action (without spending an action to do so) and use it whenever you choose during the next round.

Unlike the normal use of readied actions, you need not specify the condition under which you will take your readied action.

If you do not perform your readied action before your next turn, you lose that action.

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, you do not need to specify the standard action you are readying.

In effect, you can take your normal move action and then take any standard action at some later point in the round, depending on how events unfold.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

URBAN STRIDER

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level

Power Points: 1

You enhance your ability to move rapidly through city streets and across rooftops.

You gain a +5 competence bonus on all Balance and Jump checks.

You automatically succeed on all Jump checks to clear a horizontal distance of 5 feet or less.

You do not need to make Balance checks for running or charging across a sloped surface.

You can move at your full normal speed through crowds.

Augment: If you spend 8 additional power points, you can walk normally on any city surface as if it were level ground.

This includes perfectly vertical walls, glass windows, and even clothes-drying lines.

Your speed remains unchanged, even when walking straight up a wall.

PSYCHOPORTATION

ANTICIPATORY STRIKE

Psychoportation

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

You take your normal action for the round at the time that you manifest this power, rather than waiting for your turn to come up in the initiative sequence.

In subsequent rounds, your place in the initiative order does not change—you anticipate your action for this round only.

You can take a standard action and a move action, or a full-round action, just as you could if you were taking your action at your normal place in initiative order.

You can't activate this power if you're flat-footed, and you can't use the power a second time until after your next turn has passed.

For example, if you normally act on initiative count 15, you could use this power to take your turn again on initiative count 12, but this means that you wouldn't be able to act on the next round's initiative count 15 (since you've already used that turn's actions), and you wouldn't be able to use the power again until after your next turn (that is, after the next round's initiative count 15).

Augment: If you spend 2 additional power points, your place in the initiative order changes, much as if you had delayed (but you may move earlier in the initiative order rather than later).

RACES OF STONE (3.5)

CLAIRSENTIENCE

PERFECT ARCHERY

Clairsentience

Level: Psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

Power Points: 5

While this power is manifested, you do not provoke attacks of opportunity for firing ranged weapons.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, this power's duration increases by 1 round.

PERFECT RIPOSTE

Clairsentience

Level: Psychic warrior 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Melee weapon touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None (object, harmless)

Power Resistance: No (object, harmless)

Power Points: 11

You form a perfect bond with your melee weapon.

Once per round, as long as you hold the weapon with which you are bonded, you can make an attack of opportunity against any creature that attacks you with a melee weapon or natural attack and misses, provided that the attacking creature is within your threatened area.

You must be holding a melee weapon in your hand when you manifest this power.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

PSYCHOKINESIS

POWER CLAWS

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Display: Vi

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level or until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

You encase one of your natural weapons in telekinetic force.

The next successful attack with that natural weapon deals force damage instead of normal damage. This change provides a number of benefits. The natural weapon does not have a miss chance against incorporeal creatures, and the damage from the natural weapon overcomes damage reduction as if it were a spell and not a weapon attack.

Only the base natural weapon damage, magical enhancement bonuses, bonus damage from Strength, and other bonuses on the natural weapon itself are changed to force damage.

Other additional damage-dealing effects from any other source, such as the sneak attack class feature or the flaming special ability of a weapon, remain normal damage instead of force damage.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can invest the weapon with an additional charge. Each additional charge allows the weapon to be used one more time before the power claws effect is discharged.

POWER WEAPON

Psychokinesis [Force]

Level: Psychic warrior 2

Range: Touch

Target: Melee or thrown weapon touched

Power Points: 3

This power functions like power claws, except where noted here.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

BLACKSTONE HAMMER

Psychometabolism

Level: Psychic warrior 6

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Melee weapon touched

Duration: 1 round/level or until discharged

Saving Throw: None (object, harmless) and Fortitude negates; see text

Power Resistance: No (object, harmless) and Yes; see text

Power Points: 11

You alter the nature of one weapon and create a psychic conduit between it and the power of the terrible blackstone giant.

Although the base damage of the weapon is unaltered, the weapon deals bludgeoning damage for the duration of the power.

In addition, the weapon now has the power to petrify those it strikes.

If a creature struck by a weapon affected by blackstone hammer fails its saving throw, it (along with all its carried gear) is turned into a mindless, inert statue.

Striking a creature with the weapon discharges the power.

If a statue resulting from this power is broken or damaged, the subject (if ever returned to flesh) has similar damage or deformities.

The creature is not dead, but neither does it seem to be alive when viewed with spells such as deathwatch.

Only creatures made of flesh are affected by this power.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you can invest the weapon with an additional charge.

Each additional charge allows the weapon to be used one more time before the blackstone hammer effect is discharged.

EARTH WALK

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2, psychic warrior 2

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level

Power Points: 3

You create a perfect mental bond with stone, allowing you to move over it with uncanny ease.

While this power is in effect, you can climb stone and earthen surfaces at your current land speed.

You can move across ceilings, overhangs, and other slanted or vertical surfaces without making Climb checks.

While climbing in this manner, you do not have to make a Climb check to avoid losing your grip when you take damage.

In addition, you can cling to a stone surface easily with just one limb, allowing you to attack without restriction, manifest powers normally, and retain your Dexterity bonus to Armor Class while climbing.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

HEAVY EARTH

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst, centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

You create an area of strange, otherworldly gravity, causing the earth itself to seemingly pull creatures to it.

Creatures in the affected area that fail their saving throws fall prone.

In addition, these creatures are slowed (as the slow spell) as long as they remain prone, and for 1 round after they stand up.

Creatures that succeed on their saves are not knocked down, but they are still slowed for 1 round.

Creatures that are already prone and fail their saves are slowed for as long as they remain prone and for 1 round after they stand up.

Creatures with multiple legs or exceptional stability (such as a dwarf's stability racial trait) get bonuses to this save as if they were attempting a Strength check to resist a normal trip attempt.

STONE MIND

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 1, psychic warrior 1
Display: Visual
Manifestation Time: 1 standard action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Duration: 1 min./level
Power Points: 1

When you manifest this power, your mind becomes as the earth, and the earth becomes your mind. You gain a +4 bonus on Search checks while standing on a stone (including a worked stone floor) or an earthen surface.

In addition, you gain a further +2 bonus on Search checks to notice unusual stonework.

This bonus stacks with the regular +4 bonus on all Search checks that this power grants and with the +2 bonus to notice unusual stonework gained from the stonecunning racial ability.

Augment: If you spend 6 additional power points, you can manifest this power as a swift action.

RACES OF THE DRAGON (3.5)

METACREATIVITY

BREATH BARRIER

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 5

A sparkling golden sphere forms around you, moving as you move.

You create a quasi-real barrier in the shape of a sphere that shimmers with golden sparkles and moves with you.

Creatures and objects can enter or leave the area unimpeded.

A breath barrier blocks fog, foglike effects, and gases created by spells such as fog cloud or cloudkill or by breath weapons that are poison gas.

When used as a barrier against breath weapons that deal hit point damage directly, the sphere absorbs up to 60 points of damage from one or more breath weapons before collapsing (at which time the power ends).

A breath barrier takes damage as though it were a creature that failed its saving throw against the breath weapon being used.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the barrier can absorb an additional 12 points of breath weapon damage before collapsing.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

DRAGON HEARTED

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Power Points: 5

Your skin takes on a reddish hue, and you feel a chill sweep through your body.

You can choose to emulate the heart of a red dragon or a white dragon.

If you choose white, you gain immunity to cold and vulnerability to fire.

If you choose red, you gain immunity to fire and vulnerability to cold.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you can manifest this power as an immediate action.

EVASIVE BREATH

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 4, psychic warrior 2

Display: Material

Manifesting Time: 1 immediate action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: Psion/wilder 7, psychic warrior 3

A sheen of false flesh falls away from you—a false echo designed to protect you from dragon breath.

You throw off a faux ectoplasmic shell, allowing you to slide out of range of a breath weapon.

When you manifest this power in conjunction with making a successful Reflex save against a breath attack that normally deals half damage on a successful save (such as a red dragon's fiery breath), you instead take no damage.

Augment: If you spend 4 additional power points, you take only half damage on a failed Reflex save.

SENSE OF THE DRAGON, PSIONIC

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 5, psychic warrior 5

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 9

Your iris color expands to fill your eyes, and your pupils lengthen into oblong, vertical slits.

As sense of the dragon (see page 117), except as noted here.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, the blindsense granted by this power increases in range by 5 feet.

RACES OF THE WILD (3.5)

METACREATIVITY

LIVING ARROW

Metacreativity

Level: Psychic warrior 5

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Projectile weapon touched

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 9

When you manifest living arrow, you give a semblance of life to the projectiles you shoot at your foes (often arrows fired from a bow, but crossbow bolts, sling stones, and other projectile weapons are also subject to this power). The power affects the first projectile you fire each round, granting it semisentience and the ability to alter its course in mid-flight.

You can launch a living arrow at a target known to you and within the maximum range of the weapon.

The living arrow travels to the target, even around corners. Only an unavoidable obstacle or the limit of the arrow's range prevents the arrow from reaching its target.

A closed door thwarts a living arrow, as does an otherwise sealed chamber.

This effect negates cover and concealment modifiers, but the attack is otherwise rolled normally.

The arrow retains any magical properties it would otherwise have, such as an enhancement bonus from the bow or the arrow itself.

Augment: You can augment this power in one or both of the following ways.

1. For every additional 3 power points you spend, you can launch an additional living arrow each round (assuming you have multiple attacks per round with that ranged weapon).

2. If you spend 2 additional power points, you gain a brief vision of your target from the arrow's point of view (as if you had manifested the clairvoyant sense power; see page 83 of the Expanded Psionics Handbook).

You see the target for only a fraction of a second, and the vision ends when the arrow either strikes its target or fails to reach it.

PSYCHOKINESIS

TELEKINETIC BOOMERANG

Psychokinesis

Level: Kineticist 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 swift action

Range: Touch

Target: One object

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (object)

Power Resistance: Yes (object)

Power Points: 5

You can imbue an object with an unusually fast-acting version of the returning weapon special ability, so that it returns to you an instant after its attack resolves.

Halfings with psionic powers often use telekinetic boomerang on daggers or throwing axes.

Unlike a weapon with the returning special ability (see page 225 of the Dungeon Master's Guide), an object imbued with telekinetic boomerang returns to the thrower's hand immediately after the attack is resolved, allowing the weapon to be used again on the same turn.

Augment: For every additional 2 power points you spend, you can imbue an additional object with the benefit of telekinetic boomerang.

TELEPATHY

CONTRARIAN URGE

Telepathy

Level: Psion/wilder 3

Display: Auditory and visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 5

Contrarian urge forces its target to do the opposite of its general intent for a few seconds.

A brief but uncontrollable urge dominates the thoughts of the subject, who will act on that urge to the best of its ability during its next turn.

When manifested during combat, contrarian urge almost always convinces its subject to attack an ally rather than a foe.

In a social situation, it usually means the subject says something inappropriate or insulting (imposing a -10 penalty on any Diplomacy or Bluff check being made). The subject comes to its senses at the end of its turn and can act normally thereafter.

Augment: For every 3 additional power points you spend, this power's save DC increases by 1, and the power can affect an additional target.

Any additional target cannot be more than 15 feet from another target of the power.

SANDSTORM (3.5)

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

PSYCHIC SCIMITAR

Psychometabolism

Level: Psion/wilder 2

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: One psychic blade

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

A wraithlike, glowing scimitar shaped from your psychic might materializes and moves as you desire, allowing you to attack enemies or deliver low-level touch powers at a distance.

Upon manifesting the power, you lose 2 Intelligence points that return when the power ends (even if it is negated), but not if the scimitar is destroyed.

In this latter case, treat the lost Intelligence points as ability damage.

You can use a psychic scimitar to attack enemies at a distance.

Attacks with a psychic scimitar are melee touch attacks that deal 1d6 points of damage.

Since the blade is immaterial, your Strength modifier does not apply to the damage even if you wield the blade in your hand.

If you wield the scimitar in your hand, you are treated as proficient even if you ordinarily lack proficiency with the scimitar.

Other creatures cannot wield a psychic scimitar.

The power gives you a +2 bonus on your melee touch attack roll, and attacking with a psychic scimitar counts normally as an attack.

A psychic scimitar always strikes from your direction.

The blade cannot flank targets as a creature can.

The blade is incorporeal and thus cannot be harmed by normal weapons.

It has improved evasion (half damage on a failed Reflex save and no damage on a successful save), your save bonuses, and a base AC of 22.

Your Intelligence modifier applies to the blade's AC as if it were the scimitar's Dexterity modifier.

A psychic scimitar has 4 hit points.

Alternatively, any power of 4th level or lower with a range of touch that you manifest can be delivered if you make a successful attack with a psychic scimitar.

After it delivers a power, or if the blade goes beyond the power range or goes out of your sight, the blade returns to you and hovers there until given further direction.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, your psychic scimitar deals an extra 1 point of damage.

PSYCHOPORTATION

INCONSTANT LOCATION

Psychoportation (Teleportation)

Level: Psion/wilder 6, psychic warrior 6,

Display: Visual; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute

Power Points: 11

You transport yourself around the battlefield, making it hard for your enemies to pin you down.

At the beginning of your turn, as a swift action, you can teleport yourself to any other space to which you have line of sight, so long as that space is no farther than you could move in normal move action.

(A swift action is a type of free action that you can take only once per round, on your turn).

You can bring along objects as long as their weight doesn't exceed your maximum load.

This transport is instantaneous and does not provoke attacks of opportunity.

Once you teleport, you can take your actions for the round normally.

You do not have to adjust your location each round, but the duration counts down just the same.

Augment: For every additional power point you spend, the duration of this power is extended for 1 round.

STORMWRACK (3.5)

CLAIRSENTIENCE

HELMSMAN

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 2

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 3

When you manifest this power, you become more in tune with the ship around you.

There is a sudden muting of all the normal shipboard noises in your vicinity when it is activated, as though the ship were suddenly holding its breath.

You are in communion with the ship, understanding the nuances of its condition.

Under your direction, the ship's speed increases by 10 feet/round.

In addition, you gain a bonus equal to one-half your manifester level (round down) when making Profession (sailor) checks while aboard the ship on which you manifested the power.

This can be used even if you do not actually have ranks in the skill.

Augment: You can augment this power in one of three ways:

1. For every 2 additional power points spent, you gain a bonus equal to one-half your manifester level for one other skill of your choice: Balance, Climb, Craft (woodworking), or Use Rope.

This bonus only applies while you are on the ship in which you manifested the power.

2. For every 4 additional power points spent, the ship speed increases by another 10 feet/round.

3. You can spend 4 additional power points to gain tremorsense while on board the ship, allowing you to detect the presence of all creatures within 30 feet of you that are in contact with the ship.

HELMSMAN, TRUE

Clairsentience

Level: Seer 6

Display: Auditory

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 11

As helmsman, save that your understanding and communion with the ship has reached truly unearthly levels.

At this level of understanding, your mind merges with the nascent sentience of the ship's spirit, allowing you to form a powerful gestalt understanding with it.

At any point, you can redirect your senses to any part of the ship as though you were manifesting the clairvoyant sense power, though the point of viewing can move up to 30 feet per round and you gain the benefit of the specialized shipboard tremorsense (see helmsman) through that manifestation.

Moreover, you gain the ability to speak with the ship itself. The ship's personality contains elements of all the people who have captained it in its existence, so that a ship with an esteemed military past will seem to be very orderly and precise in its thoughts, while a ship that has seen generations of pirate captains is likely to be more rapacious and violence seeking.

The ship can relate its entire history, though its understanding of things outside of itself will tend to be somewhat incomplete—it can relate what the hazards of sailing into a given harbor were like, but it can't necessarily tell you what the shore-folk called that harbor.

Augment: As helmsman.

PSYCHOMETABOLISM

WATER-BORN

Psychometabolism

Level: Egoist 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual, olfactory, auditory; see text

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Power Points: 5

With the smell of the sea and the sound of rushing waves, your body adapts itself perfectly to the aquatic environment, becoming slightly clammy to the touch. You gain the aquatic subtype and a swim speed equal to your base land speed.

In this form you are perfectly amphibious, capable of breathing air or water equally.

Augment: By spending an additional 2 power points, you can adapt your body to survive even in the terrible lightless depths of the ocean trenches, becoming immune to the pressure damage.

This does not, however, grant you the ability to see in those depths.

TELEPATHY

BLACKWATER MIND

Telepathy [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Psion/wilder 4

Display: Visual

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 min./level (D)

Power Points: 7

With blackwater mind, you surround your mind in mental patterns inspired by the blackwaters of the ocean depths, confusing and distressing those who try to telepathically contact your mind.

Anyone who attempts to manifest a telepathic power that targets you must make a Will save (DC equal to this power's DC).

Those who fail the Will save suddenly find themselves trapped in what seems to be a smothering, lightless place of unimaginable pressure and bitter cold.

Such targets are dazed, shaken, and blinded for 2d6 rounds.

This power does not actually protect from telepathic intrusion; rather, it is an attack triggered in response to a telepathic intrusion by another.

You might still be affected by the attacker's power, even if the attacker is in turn affected by yours.

The only clue that you have activated this power is the momentary darkening of your eyes, which turn a deep black hue, like the seas' abyssal depths.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, you gain a +1 bonus on saving throws to resist any powers that trigger the blackwater mind.

WEAPONS OF LEGACY (3.5)

PSYCHOPORTATION

REVITALIZE LEGACY, PSIONIC

Metacreativity

Level: Psion/wilder 3, psychic warrior 3

Display: Visual, material

Manifesting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Your legacy item; see text

Duration: 1 hour/level or until expended

Saving Throw: None

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

As the least revitalize legacy spell (see above), except as noted here.

To manifest this power, you must be holding, wearing, or wielding your legacy item.

Augment: You can augment this power in one of the following ways.

1. If you spend 4 additional power points (9 total), you regain one daily use of a chosen lesser ability.
2. If you spend 12 additional power points (17 total), you regain one daily use of a chosen greater ability.

TELEPATHY

SEVER LEGACY, PSIONIC

Telepathy

Level: Psion/wilder 8

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 15

As the sever legacy spell (see above), except as noted here.

Other than by again performing the legacy rituals to regain lost feats, this effect can be negated by miracle, psychic surgery, reality revision, or wish.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's range increases by 5 feet and its save DC increases by 1.

SUPPRESS LEGACY, PSIONIC

Telepathy

Level: Psion/wilder 5

Display: Mental

Manifesting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Power Resistance: Yes

Power Points: 9

As the suppress legacy spell (see above), except as noted here.

Augment: For every 2 additional power points you spend, this power's range increases by 5 feet and its save DC increases by 1.

PSIONIC ATTACK AND DEFENCE MODES

PSIONICS HANDBOOK (3.0)

ATTACK MODES

EGO WHIP

Attack Mode (Dex)

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Your rapid mental lash assaults the victim's ego. The defender makes a Will save (DC 1d20 + your Dexterity modifier + DC modifier).

Psionic creatures are allowed to raise a psionic defense mode, which modifies the defender's Will save DC. Those who fail their saving throw take 1d4 points of temporary Dexterity damage.

Nonpsionic creatures always enjoy a nonpsionic buffer against a psionic attack mode (see Table 4-1).

On a failed saving throw, nonpsionic creatures are stunned for 1d4 rounds.

ID INSINUATION

Attack Mode (Str)

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 3

Tendrils of thought disrupt the victim's subconscious mind, slicing through the toughest mental defenses. The defender makes a will save (DC 1d20 + your Strength modifier + DC modifier).

Psionic creatures are allowed to raise a psionic defense mode, which modifies the defender's will save DC.

Those

who fail their saving throw take 1d2 points of temporary Strength damage, regardless of mental hardness.

Nonpsionic creatures always enjoy a nonpsionic buffer against a psionic attack mode (see Table 4-1). On a failed saving throw, nonpsionic creatures are stunned for 1d2 rounds.

MIND BLAST

Attack Mode (Cha)

Display: Vi (see text)

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 9

The air ripples with the force of your mental attack, which within the area make a will save (DC 1d20 + your Charisma modifier + DC modifier).

Psionic creatures are allowed to raise a psionic defense mode, which modifies the defender's Will save DC. Those who fail their saving throw take 1d4 points of temporary Charisma damage.

A nonpsionic creature's buffer is less helpful against mind blast than other psionic attack modes.

The will save DC increases by +4, and on a failed saving throw, a nonpsionic creature is stunned for 3d4 rounds (rather than 1d4).

MIND THRUST

Attack Mode (Int)

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 1

Desire alone delivers a massive assault on the pathways of your victim's mind.

The defender makes a Will save (DC 1d20 + your Intelligence modifier + DC modifier).

Psionic creatures are allowed to raise a psionic defense mode, which modifies the defender's will save DC. Those who fail their saving throw take 1d2 points of temporary Intelligence damage.

Nonpsionic creatures always enjoy a nonpsionic buffer against a psionic attack mode (see Table 4-1).

On a failed saving throw, nonpsionic creatures are stunned for 1d2 rounds.

PSYCHIC CRUSH

Attack Mode (Wis)

Display: Me

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (See text)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

Your will surrounds that of your foe and begins to squeeze mercilessly.

The defender makes a will save (DC 1d20 + your Wisdom modifier + DC modifier).

Psionic creatures are allowed to raise a psionic defense mode, which modifies the defender's Will save DC.

Those who fail their saving throw take 2d4 points of temporary Wisdom damage.

Nonpsionic creatures always enjoy a nonpsionic buffer against a psionic attack mode (see Table 4-1).

On a failed saving throw, a nonpsionic creature is stunned for 2d4 rounds.

DEFENCE MODES

EMPTY MIND

Defense Mode

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 1

You can raise empty mind as a reaction in response to a psionic attack mode, even if you've already taken your full allotment of actions for the round (unless you are flat-footed or out of power points).

Empty mind hides your mind in an expanse of vacuous conception.

Cross-reference this defense with the attack mode on Table 4-1: Psionic Combat DC Modifiers to get the appropriate modifier to your will save DC.

INTELLECT FORTRESS

Defense Mode

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 5

You can raise intellect fortress as a reaction in response to a psionic attack mode, even if you've already taken your full allotment of actions for the round (unless you are flat-footed or out of power points).

Intellect fortress encases the mind in a shimmering fortress of mental determination.

Cross-reference this defense with the attack mode on Table 4-1: Psionic Combat DC Modifiers to get the appropriate modifier to your will save DC.

You also gain mental hardness 3, which is applied against any temporary ability damage dealt by the attack mode if you fail your will save (except against id insinuation).

MENTAL BARRIER

Defense Mode

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 3

You can raise mental barrier as a reaction in response to a psionic attack mode, even if you've already taken your full allotment of actions for the round (unless you are flat-footed or out of power points).

Mental barrier is a construct of dissembling thoughts that shields the mind.

Cross-reference this defense with the attack mode on Table 4-1: Psionic Combat DC Modifiers to get the appropriate modifier to your will save DC.

You also gain mental hardness 2, which is applied against any temporary ability damage dealt by the attack mode if you fail your Will save (except against id insinuation).

THOUGHT SHIELD

Defense Mode

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous

Power Points: 1

You can raise thought shield as a reaction in response to a psionic attack mode, even if you've already taken your full allotment of actions for the round (unless you are flat-footed or out of power points).

Thought shield erects a shield of hope for sanctuary.

Cross-reference this defense with the attack mode on Table 4-1: Psionic Combat DC Modifiers to get the appropriate modifier to your will save DC.

You also gain mental hardness 1, which is applied against any temporary ability damage dealt by the attack mode if you fail your Will save (except against id insinuation).

TOWER OF IRON WILL

Defense Mode

Display: Au

Manifestation Time: 1 action

Range: 5 feet

Area: 10-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you (see text)

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Yes (harmless)

Power Resistance: No

Power Points: 5

You can raise tower of iron will as a reaction in response to a psionic attack mode, even if you've already taken your full allotment of actions for the round (unless you are flat-footed or out of power points).

Tower of iron will generates a bastion of thought so strong that it offers protection to both you and those nearby.

Cross-reference this defense with the attack mode on Table 4-1: Psionic Combat DC Modifiers to get the appropriate modifier to your Will save DC.

You and those within the area also gain mental hardness 2, which is applied against any temporary ability damage dealt by the attack mode if you fail your Will save (except against id insinuation).

Because tower of iron will has an area, it specifically grants mental hardness (but not a DC modifier) to other living, willing creatures against a psionic attack.

These bonuses stack.

For example, if three adjacent psionic characters were targeted by a mind blast, they could each individually raise a tower of iron will and in sum enjoy mental hardness 6 against that specific attack (if all are in a 10-foot-diameter area). Each would make an individual Will save, however—there is no stacking of save DC modifiers from multiple towers. Nonpsionic creatures within the area also gain this mental hardness, which shields them from potential rounds of being stunned instead of temporary ability damage, on a point-for-point basis.

SEEDS

EPIC LEVEL HANDBOOK (3.0)

ABJURATION

BANISH

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 27

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 75 ft.

Target: One or more extraplanar creatures, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You force extraplanar creatures out of your home plane.

You can banish up to 14 HD of extraplanar creatures.

For each additional 2 HD of extraplanar creatures you banish, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

To specify a type or subtype of creature other than outsider to be banished, increase the Spellcraft DC by +20.

For example, giants, humanoids (reptilians), and undead could all be banished in this way.

DISPEL

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 19

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One creature, object, or spell

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You can end ongoing spells that have been cast on a creature or object, temporarily suppress the magical abilities of a magic item, or end ongoing spells (or at least their effects) within an area.

A dispelled spell ends as if its duration had expired.

The dispel seed can defeat all spells, even those not normally subject to dispel magic.

The dispel seed can dispel (but not counter) the ongoing effects of supernatural abilities as well as spells, and it affects spell-like effects just as it affects spells.

One creature, object, or spell is the target of the dispel seed.

You make a dispel check against the spell or against each ongoing spell currently in effect on the object or creature.

A dispel check is 1d20 + 10 against a DC of 11 + the target spell's caster level.

For each additional +1 on your dispel check, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

If you target an object or creature that is the effect of an ongoing spell (such as a creature summoned by a summon monster spell), make a dispel check to end the spell that conjured the object or creature.

If the object you target is a magic item, you make a dispel check against the item's caster level.

If you succeed, all the item's magical properties are suppressed for 1d4 rounds, after which the item recovers on its own.

A suppressed item becomes nonmagical for the duration of the effect.

An interdimensional interface (such as a bag of holding) is temporarily closed.

A magic item's physical properties are unchanged.

Any creature, object, or spell is potentially subject to the dispel seed, even the spells of gods and the abilities of artifacts.

You automatically succeed at your dispel check against any spell that you cast yourself.

REFLECT

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 27

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Until expended or 12 hours

Attacks targeted against you rebound on the original attacker.

Each use of the reflect seed in an epic spell is effective against one type of attack only: spells (and spell-like effects), ranged attacks, or melee attacks.

To reflect an area spell, where you are not the target but are caught in the vicinity, increase the Spellcraft DC by +20.

A single successful use of reflect expends its protection.

Spells developed with the reflect seed against spells and spell-like effects return all spell effects of up to 1st level.

For each additional level of spells to be reflected, increase the Spellcraft DC by +20.

Epic spells are treated as 10th-level spells for this purpose.

The desired effect is automatically reflected if the spell in question is 9th level or lower.

An opposed caster level check is required when the reflect seed is used against another epic spell.

If the enemy spellcaster gets his spell through by winning the caster level check, the epic spell using the reflect seed is not expended, just momentarily suppressed.

If the reflect seed is used against a melee attack or ranged attack, five such attacks are automatically reflected back on the original attacker.

For each additional attack reflected, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

The reflected attack rebounds on the attacker using the same attack roll.

Once the allotted attacks are reflected, the spell using the reflect seed is expended.

WARD

Abjuration

Spellcraft DC: 14

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target or Effect: Touched creature or object of 2,000 lb. or less; or 10-ft.-radius spherical emanation, centered on you

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You can grant a creature protection from damage of a specified type.

You can protect a creature from standard damage or from energy damage.

You can protect a creature or area from magic.

Alternatively, you can hedge out a type of creature from a specified area.

A ward against standard damage protects a creature from whichever two you select of the three damage types: bludgeoning, piercing, and slashing.

For a ward against all three types, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

Each round, the spell created with the ward seed absorbs the first 5 points of damage the creature would otherwise take, regardless of whether the source of the damage is natural or magical.

For each additional point of protection, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

A ward against energy grants a creature protection from whichever one you select of the five energy types: acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

Each round, the spell absorbs the first 5 points of damage the creature would otherwise take from the specified energy type, regardless of whether the source of damage is natural or magical.

The spell protects the recipients equipment as well. For each additional point of protection, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

WARD: ANOTHER USE

Instead of creating an epic spell that uses the ward seed to nullify all spells of a given level and lower, you can create a ward that nullifies a specific spell (or specific set of spells). For each specific spell so nullified, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2

CONJURATION

ARMOR

Conjuration (Creation) [Force]

Spellcraft DC: 14

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 24 hours (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You grant a creature additional armor, providing a +4 bonus to Armor Class.

The bonus is either an armor bonus or a natural armor bonus, whichever you select.

A ward against a specific type of creature prevents bodily contact from whichever one of several monster types you select from the Monster Manual (giants, humanoids, or outsiders, for example).

This causes the natural weapon attacks of such creatures to fail and the creatures to recoil if such attacks require touching the warded creature.

The protection ends if the warded creature makes an attack against or intentionally moves within 5 feet of the blocked creature.

Spell resistance can allow a creature to overcome this protection and touch the warded creature.

A ward against magic creates an immobile, faintly shimmering magical sphere (with radius 10 feet) that surrounds you and excludes all spell effects of up to 1st level.

Alternatively, you can ward just the target and not create the radius effect.

For each additional level of spells to be excluded, increase the Spellcraft DC by +20 (but see below).

The area or effect of any such spells does not include the area of the ward, and such spells fail to affect any target within the ward.

This includes spell-like abilities and spells or spell-like effects from magic items.

However, any type of spell can be cast through or out of the ward.

You can leave and return to the protected area without penalty (unless the spell specifically targets a creature and does not provide a radius effect).

The ward could be brought down by a targeted dispel magic spell.

Epic spells using the dispel seed may bring down a ward if the enemy spellcaster succeeds at a caster level check.

The ward may also be brought down with a targeted epic spell using the destroy seed if the enemy spellcaster succeeds at a caster level check.

per spell level above 1st. For example, if you want to create an epic spell that protects you specifically against charm person and dominate person, the Spellcraft DC would increase by +0 and +8, respectively.

Unlike mundane armor, the armor seed provides an intangible protection that entails no armor check penalty, arcane spell failure chance, or speed reduction.

Incorporeal creatures can't bypass the armor seed the way they can ignore normal armor.

For each additional point of Armor Class bonus, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

You can also grant a creature a +1 bonus to Armor Class using a different bonus type, such as deflection, divine, or insight.

For each additional point of bonus to Armor Class of one of these types, increase the Spellcraft DC by +10.

CONJURE

Conjuration (Creation)

Spellcraft DC: 21

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: Unattended, nonmagical object of nonliving matter up to 20 cu. ft.

Duration: 8 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You create a nonmagical, unattended object of nonliving matter of up to 20 cubic feet in volume.

You must succeed at an appropriate skill check to make a complex item, such as a Craft (bowmaking) check to make straight arrow shafts.

CONJURE: ORIGIN OF SPECIES

You can use the conjure seed in conjunction with the life and fortify seeds for an epic spell that creates an entirely new creature, if made permanent.

To give a creature spell-like abilities, apply other epic seeds to the epic spell that replicate the desired ability. To give the creature a supernatural or extraordinary ability rather than a spell-like ability, double the cost of the relevant seed. Remember that two doublings equals a tripling, and so forth.

To give a creature Hit Dice, use the fortify seed. Each 5 hit points granted to the creature gives it an additional 1 HD.

Once successfully created, the new creature will breed true

HEAL

Conjuration (Healing)

Spellcraft DC: 25

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Yes (harmless; see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Spells developed with the heal seed channel positive energy into a creature to wipe away disease and injury.

Such a spell completely cures all diseases, blindness, deafness, hit point damage, and temporary ability damage.

To restore permanently drained ability score points, increase the Spellcraft DC by +6.

The heal seed neutralizes poisons in the subject's system so that no additional damage or effects are suffered.

It offsets feeble-mindedness and cures mental disorders caused by spells or injury to the brain.

It dispels all magical effects penalizing the character's abilities, including effects caused by spells, even epic spells developed with the afflict seed.

Only a single application of the spell is needed to simultaneously achieve all these effects.

This seed does not restore levels or Constitution points lost due to death.

To dispel all negative levels afflicting the target, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

This reverses level drains by a force or creature.

The drained levels are restored only if the creature lost the levels within the last 20 weeks.

For each additional week since the levels were drained, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

Against undead, the influx of positive energy causes the loss of all but 1d4 hit points if the undead fails a Fortitude saving throw.

You can create matter ranging in hardness and rarity from vegetable matter all the way up to mithral and even adamantine.

Simple objects, such as linen clothes, a hemp rope, a wooden ladder, or raw vegetables, have a natural duration of 24 hours.

For each additional cubic foot of matter created, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

Attempting to use any created object as a material component or a resource during epic spell development causes the spell to fail and the object to disappear.

(assuming you create a mate or an alternative means of reproduction for the newly created creature).

CONTACT: ANOTHER USE

At the base Spellcraft DC of 20, you can also use the contact seed to imbue an object (or creature) with a message you prepare that appears as written text for the spell's duration or is spoken aloud in a language you know. The spoken message can be of any length, but the length of written text is limited to what can be contained (as text of a readable size) on the surface of the target. The message is delivered when specific conditions are fulfilled according to your desire when the spell is cast.

An epic caster with 24 ranks in Knowledge (arcana), Knowledge (nature), or Knowledge (religion) can cast a spell developed with a special version of the heal seed flushes negative energy into the subject, healing undead completely but causing the loss of all but 1d4 hit points in living creatures if they fail a Fortitude saving throw.

Alternatively, a living target that fails its Fortitude saving throw could gain four negative levels for the next 8 hours. For each additional negative level bestowed, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4, and for each extra hour the negative levels persist, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

If the subject has at least as many negative levels as Hit Dice, it dies.

If the subject survives and the negative levels persist for 24 hours or longer, the subject must make another Fortitude saving throw, or the negative levels are converted to actual level loss.

LIFE

Conjuration (Healing)

Spellcraft DC: 27

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Dead creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

A spell developed with the life seed will restore life and complete vigor to any deceased creature.

The condition of the remains is not a factor.

So long as some small portion of the creature's body still exists, it can be returned to life, but the portion receiving the spell must have been part of the creature's body at the time of death.

(The remains of a creature hit by a disintegrate spell count as small portion of its body).

The creature can have been dead for no longer than two hundred years.
For each additional ten years, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

The creature is immediately restored to full hit points, vigor, and health, with no loss of prepared spells.

However, the subject loses one level (or 1 point of Constitution if the subject was 1st level).

You cannot revive someone who has died of old age.

An epic caster with 24 ranks in Knowledge (arcana), Knowledge (nature), or Knowledge (religion) can cast a spell developed with a special version of the life seed that gives actual life to normally inanimate objects.

You can give inanimate plants and animals a soul, personality, and humanlike sentience.

To succeed, you must make a Will save (DC 10 + the target's Hit Dice, or the Hit Dice a plant will have once it comes to life).

The newly living object, intelligent animal, or sentient plant is friendly toward you.

An object or plant has characteristics as if it were an animated object (see the Monster Manual), except that its Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores are all 3d6.

Animated objects and plants gain the ability to move their limbs, projections, roots, carved legs and arms, or other appendages, and have senses similar to a human's.

A newly intelligent animal gets 3d6 Intelligence, +1d3 Charisma, and +2 HD.

Objects, animals, and plants speak one language that you know, plus one additional language that you know per point of Intelligence bonus (if any).

SUMMON

Conjuration (Summoning)

Spellcraft DC: 14

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 75 ft.

Effect: One summoned creature

Duration: 20 rounds (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (see text)

You can summon an outsider.

It appears where you designate and acts immediately, on your turn, if its spell resistance is overcome and it fails a Will saving throw.

It attacks your opponents to the best of its ability.

If you can communicate with the outsider, you can direct it not to attack, to attack particular enemies, or to perform other actions.

The spell conjures an outsider you select from the Monster Manual (or an alternative source allowed by your DM) of CR 2 or less.

For each +1 CR of the summoned outsider, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

For each additional outsider of the same Challenge Rating summoned, multiply the Spellcraft DC by ×2.

When you develop a spell with the summon seed that summons an air, chaotic, earth, evil, fire, good, lawful, or water creature, the completed spell is also of that type.

If you increase the Spellcraft DC by +10, you can summon a creature of CR 2 or less from another monster type or subtype, such as giant, humanoid (goblinoid), or undead.

The summoned creature is assumed to have been plucked from some other plane (or somewhere on the same plane). The summoned creature attacks your opponents to the best of its ability; or, if you can communicate with it, it will perform other actions.

However, the summoning ends if the creature is asked to perform a task inimical to its nature, such as commanding a good creature to attack an innocent, or commanding any creature to commit suicide.

For each +1 CR of the summoned creature, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

Finally, if you increase the Spellcraft DC by +60, you can summon a unique individual you specify from anywhere in the multiverse.

You must know the target's name and some facts about its life, defeat any magic protection against discovery or other protection possessed by the target, and overcome the target's spell resistance, and it must fail a Will saving throw. Again, the target is under no special compulsion to serve you.

CONTACT

Divination

Spellcraft DC: 23

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: See text

Target: One creature

Duration: 200 minutes

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You forge a telepathic bond with a particular creature with which you are familiar (or one that you can currently see directly or through magical means) and can converse back and forth.

The subject recognizes you if it knows you.

It can answer in like manner immediately, though it does not have to.

You can forge a communal bond among more than two creatures.

For each additional creature contacted, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

The bond can be established only among willing subjects, which therefore receive no saving throw or spell resistance.

For telepathic communication through the bond regardless of language, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

No special influence is established as a result of the bond, only the power to communicate at a distance.

FORESEE

Divination

Spellcraft DC: 17

Components: V S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: Instantaneous or concentration (see text)

You can foretell the immediate future, or gain information about specific questions.

You are 90% likely to receive a meaningful reading of the future of the next 30 minutes.
 If successful, you know if a particular action will bring good results, bad results, or no result.
 For each additional 30 minutes into the future, multiply the Spellcraft DC by $\times 2$.
 For better results, you can pose up to ten specific questions (one per round while you concentrate) to unknown powers of other planes, but the base Spellcraft DC for such an attempt is 23.
 Your questions reverberate through planar interstices, seeking an answer from some willing entity.
 The answers return in a language you understand, but use only one-word replies: “yes”, “no”, “maybe”, “never”, “irrelevant”, or some other one-word answer.
 Unlike 0- to 9th-level spells of similar type, all questions answered are 90% likely to be answered truthfully.
 However, a specific spell using the foresee seed can only be cast once every five weeks.
 The foresee seed is also useful for epic spells requiring specific information before functioning, such as spells using the reveal and transport seeds.
 You can also use the foresee seed to gain one basic piece of information about a living target: level, class, alignment, or some special ability (or one of an object’s magical abilities, if any).
 For each additional piece of information revealed, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

REVEAL

Divination

Spellcraft DC: 19 (see text)

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: See text

Effect: Magical sensor

Duration: 20 minutes (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You can see some distant location or hear the sounds at some distant location almost as if you were there.
 To both hear and see, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.
 Distance is not a factor, but the locale must be known—a place familiar to you or an obvious one (such as behind a door, around a corner, or in a grove of trees).
 The spell creates an invisible sensor, similar to that created by a scrying spell, that can be dispelled.
 Lead sheeting or magical protection (such as antimagic field, mind blank, or nondetection) blocks the spell, and you sense that the spell is so blocked.
 If you prefer to create a mobile sensor (speed 30 feet) that you control, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.
 To use the reveal seed to reach one specific different plane of existence, increase the Spellcraft DC by +8.
 To allow magically enhanced senses to work through a spell built with the reveal seed, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.
 To cast any spell from the sensor whose range is touch or greater, increase the Spellcraft DC by +6; however, you must maintain line of effect to the sensor at all times.
 If your line of effect is obstructed, the spell ends.
 To free yourself of the line of effect restriction for casting spells through the sensor, multiply the Spellcraft DC by $\times 10$.

The reveal seed has a base Spellcraft DC of 25 if you use it to pierce illusions and see things as they really are.
 You can see through normal and magical darkness, notice secret doors hidden by magic, see the exact locations of creatures or objects under blur or displacement effects, see invisible creatures or objects normally, see through illusions, see onto the Ethereal Plane (but not into extradimensional spaces), and see the true form of polymorphed, changed, or transmuted things.
 The range of such sight is 120 feet.

REVEAL: ANOTHER USE

You can also use the reveal seed to develop spells that will do any one of the following: duplicate the read magic spell, comprehend the written and verbal language of another, or speak in the written or verbal language of another. To both comprehend and speak a language, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

ENCHANTMENT

AFFLICT

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Fear, Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 14

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: 20 minutes

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You afflict the target with a -2 morale penalty on attack rolls, checks, and saving throws.

For each additional -1 penalty assessed on either the target’s attack rolls, checks or saving throws, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

You may also develop a spell with this seed that afflict the target with a -1 penalty on caster level checks, a -1 penalty to an ability score, a -1 penalty to spell resistance or a -1 penalty to some other aspect of the target that you and your DM agree on.

For each additional -1 penalty assessed in one of the above categories, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

You can afflict a character’s ability scores to the point where they reach 0, except for Constitution where 1 is the minimum.

If you apply a factor to increase the duration of this seed, ability score penalties instead become temporary ability damage.

If you apply a factor to make the duration permanent, any ability score penalties become permanent ability drain.

Finally, if you increase the Spellcraft DC by +2, you can afflict whichever one of the target’s senses you select: sight, smell, hearing, taste, touch, or a special sense the target possesses.

If the target fails its saving throw, the sense you select doesn’t function for the spell’s duration, with all attendant penalties that apply for losing the specified sense.

COMPEL

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Spellcraft DC: 19

Components: V, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 75 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: 20 hours or until completed

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You compel a target to follow a course of activity.

At the basic level of effect, a spell using the compel seed must be worded in such a manner as to make the activity sound reasonable.

Asking the creature to stab itself, throw itself onto a spear, immolate itself, or do some other obviously harmful act automatically negates the effect (unless you increase the Spellcraft DC to avoid this limitation; see below).

Urging a red dragon to stop attacking your party so that the dragon and the party could jointly loot a rich treasure elsewhere would be a reasonable use of the spell's power.

If you wish to compel a creature to follow an outright unreasonable course of action (such as stab itself, throw itself onto a spear, immolate itself, or do some other obviously harmful act), increase the Spellcraft DC by +10. The compelled course of activity can continue for the entire duration, such as in the case of the red dragon mentioned above.

If the compelled activity can be completed in a shorter time, the spell ends when the subject finishes what he was asked to do.

You can instead specify conditions that will trigger a special activity during the duration.

For example, you might compel a noble knight to give her warhorse to the first beggar she meets.

If the condition is not met before the spell using this seed expires, the activity is not performed.

EVOCATION

ENERGY

Evocation [Acid, Fire, Electricity, Cold, or Sonic]

Spellcraft DC: 19

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

ENERGY: ANOTHER USE

You can also use the energy seed to create a spell that carefully releases and balances the emanation of cold, electricity, and fire, creating specific weather effects for a period of 20 hours. Using the energy seed this way has a base Spellcraft DC of 25. The area extends to a two-mile-radius centered on you.

Once the spell is cast, the weather takes 10 minutes to manifest. Ordinarily, you can't directly target a creature or object, though indirect effects are possible. You can create cold snaps, heatwaves, thunderstorms, fogs, blizzards—even a tornado that moves randomly in the affected area. Creating targeted damaging effects requires an additional use of the energy seed.

Range: 300 ft. or touched creature or object of 2,000 lb. or less

Area: A bolt 5 ft. wide to 300 ft. long; or a 10-ft.-radius emanation; or a wall whose area is up to one 200-ft. square; or a sphere or hemisphere with a radius of up to 20 ft.

Duration: Instantaneous or 20 hours (see text)

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

You can work with whichever one of five energy types you choose: acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic.

You can cast the energy forth as a bolt, imbue an object with the energy, or create a freestanding manifestation of the energy.

If your spell developed using the energy seed releases a bolt, that bolt instantaneously deals 10d6 points of damage of the appropriate energy type, and all in the bolt's area must make a Reflex save for half damage.

For each additional 1d6 points of damage dealt, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

The bolt begins at your fingertips.

If you wish to imbue another creature with the ability to use an energy bolt as a spell-like ability at its option or when a particular condition is met, increase the Spellcraft DC by +25.

You can also cause a creature or object to emanate the specific energy type out to a radius of 10 feet for 20 hours. The emanated energy deals 2d6 points of energy damage per round against unprotected creatures (the target creature is susceptible if not separately warded or otherwise resistant to the energy).

For each additional 1d6 points of damage emanated, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

You may also create a wall, half-circle, circle, dome, or sphere of the desired energy that emanates the energy for up to 20 hours.

One side of the wall, selected by you, sends forth waves of energy, dealing 2d4 points of energy damage to creatures within 10 feet and 1d4 points of energy damage to those past 10 feet but within 20 feet.

The wall deals this damage when it appears and in each round that a creature enters or remains in the area.

In addition, the wall deals 2d6+20 points of energy damage to any creature passing through it.

The wall deals double damage to undead creatures.

For each additional 1d4 points of damage, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

For the effects of specific weather conditions, see the Weather Hazards section of Chapter 3 in the DUNGEON MASTER'S Guide.

FORTIFY: ANOTHER USE

A special use of the fortify seed grants the target a permanent +1 year to its current age category. For each additional +1 year added to the creature's current age category, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2. Incremental adjustments to a creature's maximum age do not stack; they overlap. When a spell increases a creature's current age category, all higher age categories are also adjusted accordingly.

ILLUSION

CONCEAL

Illusion (Glamer)

Spellcraft DC: 17

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Personal or touch

Target: You or a creature or object of up to 2,000 lb.

Duration: 200 minutes or until expended (D)

Saving Throw: None or Will negates (harmless, object)

Spell Resistance: No or Yes (harmless, object)

You can conceal a creature or object touched from sight, even from darkvision.

If the subject is a creature carrying gear, the gear vanishes too, rendering the creature invisible.

A spell using the conceal seed ends if the subject attacks any creature.

Actions directed at unattended objects do not break the spell, and causing harm indirectly is not an attack.

To create invisibility that lasts regardless of the actions of the subject, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

Alternatively, you can conceal the exact location of the subject so that it appears to be about 2 feet away from its true location; this increases the Spellcraft DC by +2.

The subject benefits from a 50% miss chance as if it had total concealment.

However, unlike actual total concealment, this displacement effect does not prevent enemies from targeting him normally.

The conceal seed can also be used to block divination spells, spell-like effects, and epic spells developed using the reveal seed; this increases the Spellcraft DC by +6.

In all cases where divination magic of any level, including epic level, is employed against the subject of a spell using the conceal seed for this purpose, an opposed caster level check determines which spell works.

DELUDE

Illusion (Figment)

Spellcraft DC: 14

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 12,000 ft.

Effect: Visual figment that can extend for up to twenty 30-ft. cubes (S)

Duration: Concentration plus 20 hours

Saving Throw: Will disbelief (if interacted with)

Spell Resistance: No

A spell developed with the delude seed creates the visual illusion of an object, creature, or force, as visualized by you. You can move the image within the limits of the size of the effect by concentrating (the image is otherwise stationary). The image disappears when struck by an opponent unless you cause the illusion to react appropriately.

For an illusion that includes audible, olfactory, tactile, taste, and thermal aspects, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2 per extra aspect.

Even realistic tactile and thermal illusions can't deal damage, however.

For each additional image to be created, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

For an illusion that follows a script determined by you, increase the Spellcraft DC by +9.

The figment follows the script without your having to concentrate on it.

The illusion can include intelligible speech if you wish.

For an illusion that makes any area appear to be something other than it is (such as making a swamp appear as a grassland or a village), increase the Spellcraft DC by +4. Additional components, such as sounds, can be added as noted above.

Concealing creatures requires additional spell development using this or other seeds.

NECROMANCY

ANIMATE DEAD

Necromancy [Evil]

Spellcraft DC: 23

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: One or more corpses touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You can turn the bones or bodies of dead creatures into undead that follow your spoken commands.

The undead can follow you, or they can remain in an area and attack any creature (or a specific type of creature) entering the place.

The undead remain animated until they are destroyed.

(A destroyed undead can't be animated again).

Intelligent undead can follow more sophisticated commands.

The animate dead seed allows you to create 20 HD of undead.

Statistics for undead of all types are found in the Monster Manual.

For each additional 1 HD of undead created, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

The undead you create remain under your control indefinitely.

You can naturally control 1 HD per caster level of undead creatures you've personally created, regardless of the method you used.

If you exceed this number, newly created creatures fall under your control, and excess undead from previous castings become uncontrolled (you choose which creatures are released).

If you are a cleric, any undead you command through your ability to command or rebuke undead do not count toward the limit.

For each additional 2 HD of undead to be controlled, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

Only undead in excess of 20 HD created with this seed can be controlled using this DC adjustment.

If you want to both create and control more than 20 HD of undead, increase the Spellcraft DC by +3 per additional 2 HD of undead.

Type of Undead: All types of undead can be created with the animate dead seed, although creating more powerful undead increases the Spellcraft DC of the epic spell, according to the table below.

The DM must set the Spellcraft DC for undead not included on the table, using similar undead as a basis for comparison.

Undead	Spellcraft DC Modifier	Undead	Spellcraft DC Modifier
Skeleton	-12	Wraith	-2
Zombie	-12	Mummy	+0
Ghoul	-10	Spectre	+2
Shadow	-8	Morhg	+4
Ghast	-6	Vampire	+6
Wight	-4	Ghost	+8

SLAY

Necromancy [Death]

Spellcraft DC: 25

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial or half (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

A spell developed using the slay seed snuffs out the life force of a living creature, killing it instantly.

The slay seed kills a creature of up to 80 HD.

The subject is entitled to a Fortitude saving throw to survive the attack.

If the save is successful, it instead takes 3d6+20 points of damage.

For each additional 80 HD affected (or each additional creature affected), increase the Spellcraft DC by +8.

Alternatively, you can use the day seed in an epic spell to suppress the life force of the target by bestowing 2d4 negative levels on the target (or half as many negative levels on a successful Fortitude save).

For each additional 1d4 negative levels bestowed, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

If the subject has at least as many negative levels as Hit Dice, it dies.

If the subject survives and the negative levels persist for 24 hours or longer, the subject must make another Fortitude saving throw, or the negative levels are converted to actual level loss.

TRANSMUTATION

ANIMATE

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 25

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Target: Object or 20 cu. ft. of matter

Duration: 20 rounds

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You can imbue inanimate objects with mobility and a semblance of life (not actual life).

The animated object attacks whomever or whatever you initially designate.

The animated object can be of any nonmagical material wood, metal, stone, fabric, leather, ceramic, glass, and so forth.

You can also animate part of a larger mass of raw matter, such as a volume of water in the ocean, part of a stony wall, or the earth itself, as long as the volume of material does not exceed 20 cubic feet.

For each additional 10 cubic feet of matter animated, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1, up to 1,000 cubic feet.

For each additional 100 cubic feet of matter animated after the first 1,000 cubic feet, increase the spellcraft DC by +1. Statistics for animated objects are found in the Monster Manual.

For each additional Hit Die granted to an animated object of a given size, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

To animate attended objects (objects carried or worn by another creature), increase the Spellcraft DC by +10.

DESTROY

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 29

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 12,000 ft.

Target: One creature, or up to a 10-foot cube of nonliving matter

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

You deal 20d6 points of damage to the target.

The damage is of no particular type or energy—it is a purely destructive impulse.

For each additional 1d6 points of damage dealt, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

If the target is reduced to -10 hit points or less (or a construct, object, or undead is reduced to 0 hit points), it is utterly destroyed as if disintegrated, leaving behind only a trace of fine dust.

Up to a 10-foot cube of nonliving matter is affected, so a spell using the destroy seed destroys only part of any very large object or structure targeted.

The destroy seed affects even magical matter, energy fields, and force effects that are normally only affected by the disintegrate spell, such as Bigby's forceful hand, wall of force, globe of invulnerability, and antimagic field.

Such effects are automatically destroyed.

Epic spells using the ward seed may also be destroyed, though you must succeed at an opposed caster level check against the other spellcaster to bring down a ward spell.

FORTIFY

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 17 (see text)

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 20 hours; permanent for age adjustment (see sidebar)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Spells using the fortify seed grant a +1 enhancement bonus to whichever one of the following you choose:

- Any one ability score.
- Any one kind of saving throw.
- Spell resistance.
- Natural armor.

The fortify seed can also grant energy resistance 1 for one energy type or 1 temporary hit point.

For each additional +1 bonus, point of energy resistance, or hit point, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

The fortify seed has a base Spellcraft DC of 23 if it grants a +1 bonus of a type other than enhancement (such as luck or insight).

For each additional +1 bonus of a type other than enhancement, increase the Spellcraft DC by +6.

If you apply a factor to make the duration permanent, the bonus must be an inherent bonus, and the maximum inherent bonus allowed is +5.

The fortify seed has a base Spellcraft DC of 23 if it grants a creature a +1 bonus of a type other than enchantment.

For each additional +1 bonus, increase the Spellcraft DC by +6.

If you apply a factor to make the duration permanent, the bonus must be an inherent bonus, and the maximum inherent bonus allowed is +5.

If a spell with the fortify seed grants an inanimate object an ability score it would not normally possess (such as Intelligence), the spell must also incorporate the life seed. Granting spell resistance to a creature that doesn't already have it is a special case; the base Spellcraft DC of 27 grants spell resistance 25, and each additional point of spell resistance increases the Spellcraft DC by +4 (each -1 to spell resistance reduces the Spellcraft DC by -2).

The fortify seed can also grant damage reduction 1/+1.

For each additional point of damage reduction, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

For each additional point of required weapon enhancement above +1, increase the Spellcraft DC by +3.

For example, damage reduction of 5/+3 would increase the Spellcraft DC by a total of +10.

TRANSFORM

Transmutation

Spellcraft DC: 21

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 300 ft.

Target: One creature or inanimate, nonmagical object

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

Spells using the transform seed change the subject into another form of creature or object.

The new form can range in size from Diminutive to one size larger than the subject normal form.

For each additional increment of size change, increase the Spellcraft DC by +6.

If you want to transform a nonmagical, inanimate object into a creature of your type or transform a creature into a nonmagical, inanimate object, increase the Spellcraft DC by +10.

If you want to change a creature of one type into another type (for example, undead to outsider), increase the Spellcraft DC by +5.

Transformations involving nonmagical, inanimate substances with hardness are more difficult; for each 2 points of hardness, increase the Spellcraft DC by +1.

To transform a creature into an incorporeal or gaseous form, increase the Spellcraft DC by +10.

Conversely, if you want to overcome the natural immunity of a gaseous or incorporeal creature to transformation, increase the Spellcraft DC by +10.

The transform seed can also change its target into someone specific.

To transform an object or creature into the specific likeness of another individual (including memories and mental abilities), increase the Spellcraft DC by +25.

If the transformed creature doesn't have the levels or Hit Dice of its new likeness, it can only use the abilities of the creature at its own level or Hit Dice.

If slain or destroyed, the transformed creature or object reverts to its original form.

The subject's equipment, if any, remains untransformed or melds into the new form's body, at your option.

The transformed creature or object acquires the physical and natural abilities of the creature or object it has been changed into while retaining its own memories and mental ability scores.

Mental abilities include personality, Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores, level and class, hit points (despite any change in its Constitution score), alignment, base attack bonus, base saves, extraordinary abilities, spells, and spell-like abilities, but not its supernatural abilities.

Physical abilities include natural size and Strength, Dexterity, and Constitution scores.

Natural abilities include armor, natural weapons, and similar gross physical qualities (presence or absence of wings, number of extremities, and so forth), and possibly hardness.

Creatures transformed into inanimate objects do not gain the benefit of their untransformed physical abilities, and may well be blind, deaf, dumb, and unfeeling.

Objects transformed into creatures gain that creature's average physical ability scores, but are considered to have mental ability scores of 0 (the fortify seed can add points to each mental ability, if desired).

For each normal extraordinary ability or supernatural ability granted to the transformed creature (allowing a human transformed into a basilisk to use the basilisk's petrifying gaze, for example), increase the Spellcraft DC by +10.

The transformed subject can have no more Hit Dice than you have or than the subject has (whichever is greater).

In any case, for each Hit Die the assumed form has above 15, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

TRANSPORT

Transmutation [Teleportation]

Spellcraft DC: 27

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: You and touched objects or other touched willing creatures weighing up to 1,000 lb.

Duration: Instantaneous, or 5 rounds for temporal transport

Saving Throw: None or Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: No or Yes (see text)

Spells using the transport seed instantly take you to a designated destination, regardless of distance.

For interplanar travel, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

For each additional 50 pounds in objects and willing creatures beyond the base 1,000 pounds, increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

The base use of the transport seed provides instantaneous travel through the Astral Plane.

To shift the transportation medium to another medium (such as the Plane of Shadow), increase the Spellcraft DC by +2.

You need not make a saving throw, nor is spell resistance applicable to you.

Only objects worn or carried (attended) by another person receive saving throws and spell resistance.

For a spell intended to transport unwilling creatures, increase the Spellcraft DC by +4.

You must have at least a reliable description of the place to which you are transporting.

If you attempt to use the transport seed with insufficient or misleading information, you disappear and simply reappear in your original location.

As a special use of the transport seed, you can develop a spell that temporarily transports you into a different time stream (leaving you in the same physical location); this increases the Spellcraft DC by +8.

If you move yourself or the subject into a slower time stream for 5 rounds, time ceases to flow for the subject, and its condition becomes fixed—no force or effect can harm it until the duration expires.

If you move yourself into a faster time stream, you speed up so greatly that all other creatures seem frozen, though they are actually still moving at their normal speeds.

You are free to act for 5 rounds of apparent time.

Normal and magical fire, cold, poison gas, and similar effects can still harm you.

While you are in the fast time stream, other creatures are invulnerable to your attacks and spells; however, you can create spell effects and leave them to take effect when you reenter normal time.

Because of the branching nature of time, epic spells used to transport a subject into a faster time stream cannot be made permanent, nor can the duration of 5 rounds be extended.

More simply, you can haste or slow a subject for 20 rounds by transporting it to the appropriate time stream.

This decreases the Spellcraft DC by -4.

LOST EMPIRES OF FAERÛN (3.5)

EVOCATION

MYTHAL

Evocation

Spellcraft DC: 25

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: 30 ft.

Area: 100-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You create a persistent magical field centered on the point you choose.

You (or other casters cooperating with you) can then cast a number of other spells into this field, thereby either granting or denying access to them to creatures within the field.

Effects you can include in your mythal fall into four categories: prevalent spells (always active), aointed spells (always denied to those within the field), vanguard spells (available on demand to those within the field), and prevalent powers (persistent effects that do not map to any particular spell).

Your mythal can include up to one effect per caster level, but each component spell you cast into it affects the Spellcraft DC of your raise mythal spell (see Mythals, below).

Once raised, a mythal cannot be dispelled, disjoined, or suppressed by any nonepic spell.

A character attempting to dispel your mythal with an epic spell (such as superb dispelling) must succeed on a caster level check (DC 21 + your caster level) to succeed.

An antimagic field suppresses the portion of the mythal that it overlaps but otherwise does it no harm.

Mythals

Many of Faerûn's ancient places are protected by mighty artifices of epic magic known as mythals.

Characters within the area of a mythal may gain the benefits of wondrous magical effects, such as the ability to fly at will, walk up sheer walls, invoke healing spells at will, or even banish demons with a single word.

Conversely, a mythal might deny those within its confines access to entire schools or types of spells, or prevent teleportation, scrying, death magic, or healing.

The construction of a mythal should not be undertaken lightly—even a minor one requires an epic spell of some difficulty.

But some of those who seek to understand and master the lore of fallen kingdoms know the secrets of mythal-raising and seek to use that long-forgotten knowledge.

While high-level spells capable of creating mythals may once have existed, most surviving mythals, near-mythals, and similar magical artifices were actually constructed with unique spells derived from the mythal spell seed.

For example, the legendary mage Mythanthor used an epic spell he had researched to raise the mythal of Myth Drannor.

Mythals of similar origin often bear some resemblance to each other and may share common conventions or features. What Is a Mythal?

Any permanent magical ward or field raised via epic magic can be considered a mythal.

Some scholars draw distinctions between true mythals, wizard mythals, and near-mythals, but the differences among these effects are largely based on semantics and tradition.

Mythals developed in accordance with the teachings of elven high magic may look different from wards or barriers based on other traditions, but they are functionally equivalent.

The only real distinction is that the great elven mythals of old (true mythals) were the first ones raised in Faerûn. They were ambitious and enduring, and they often covered sizable areas.

Mythals still exist in a number of places.

Those raised by elven high mages include Myth Drannor, Myth Glaurach, the Elven Court, Myth Adofhaer, Myth Dyaalis, Myth Nantar, Myth Ondath, Myth Rhynn, and Myth Unnohyr, as well as others now lost to history. Mythals such as those at Shoonach's Imperial Mount, Myth Iiscar, and Myth Lharast have also been crafted by non-elves using epic spells.

Raising a Mythal

A unique epic spell to raise a new mythal can be developed in much the same way as other epic spells (see the Epic Level Handbook).

All mythals are permanent effects based on the mythal spell seed, and all provide magical benefits to some (or all) creatures within their bounds.

Such spells are usually developed as rites requiring multiple casters, primarily because the Spellcraft DCs would otherwise be too high even for the most experienced spellcasters to reach.

To create a mythal, use the following procedure.

1. Begin with the mythal seed.
2. Choose the powers you want your mythal to have.
3. Calculate the component cost of each power.
4. Total the component costs and divide by 1,000. Add this value to the base Spellcraft DC of the mythal seed.
5. Add any the value of any epic spell factors (such as increased area) from Table 2–2 in the Epic Level Handbook that apply.
6. Determine which mitigating factors (from Table 2–3 in the Epic Level Handbook) your raise mythal spell will employ.
7. Obtain the approval of your DM.
8. Research your raise mythal spell.

MYTHAL COMPONENTS

Each mythal is defined by the particular suite of powers it offers through its components and the effects it denies to those within its area, as follows.

Prevalent Spells: Prevalent spells are always in effect on creatures within the mythal.

You must make all the decisions necessary for a prevalent spell upon creating your mythal, just as if you were creating a use-activated magic item.

A spell with a duration of instantaneous cannot be used as a prevalent spell.

The cost of a prevalent spell varies with its normal duration. Since it is always in effect, a spell with a short duration costs more to make prevalent than one with a long duration.

Renewable Spells: A prevalent spell that would normally end after its capacity has been reached (such as stoneskin, protection from energy, or spell turning) can be designated as a renewable prevalent spell.

Such a spell confers its benefits on any given user only once per 24 hours.

When its effect is exhausted through whatever means are normal for the specific spell, it does not renew itself upon that subject until 24 hours after the first time its benefits are used (the first time that damage was negated by a stoneskin or protection from energy, for example).

If the spell's benefits have not yet been exhausted by that time, the effect continues until it is exhausted and is then immediately renewed.

Aointed Spells: Aointed spells automatically fail when cast inside the mythal or targeted at creatures or objects within it.

You can aoint a single spell or all spells that share a common factor, such as a descriptor, energy type, subschool, or school.

Vanguard Spells: A vanguard spell is activated with a command word as a standard action, just as if it were a magic item in the user's possession.

Any creature within the mythal can activate a vanguard spell as often as desired.

You can reduce the cost of a vanguard spell component by making it available a limited number of times to each creature in any 24-hour period.

Prevalent Powers: Components not easily described by spells fall into three categories: minor (comparable to spells of 1st to 3rd level or minor magic items), medium (comparable to spells of 4th to 6th level or medium magic items), or major (comparable to spells of 7th to 9th level or major magic items).

A prevalent power is a good way to represent a spell that could not normally be made prevalent.

For example, if you want your mythal to automatically use dismissal on every evil outsider that enters, you can describe the effect as a medium prevalent power.

A meteor swarm produced whenever any evil dragon enters would count as a major prevalent power.

Prevalent powers that continue to function round after round should be considerably more expensive than those powers that function only once upon entry.

Keyed Powers: Any component of a mythal can be keyed to specific creatures.

For example, a prevalent fly spell can be made specific to elves, humanoids, or creatures carrying certain tokens. In the same manner, spells with certain descriptors (such as the death descriptor) can be aointed for particular categories (such as good-aligned dwarves), and vanguard spells can be made available only to creatures that undergo a process of attunement to the mythal.

You can key a mythal component by designating specific observable characteristics that bar or permit access to various effects, or by designating certain individuals present at the casting to be affected, or by designating a process by which a creature may at some future date gain access to mythal powers.

For example, a creature might have to undergo a special rite, perform specific actions within the mythal, or the like. Keyed components are twice as expensive as unkeyed components.

Spell Trigger: You can reduce the component cost of any spell by making it accessible only to creatures capable of producing the effect with a spell trigger item.

Limited Area: If the effect is available only within a certain section of the mythal (25% or less of the total area), the cost is halved.

TABLE 2-9: MYTHAL COMPONENT COSTS

Component	Component Cost
Prevalent spell base cost	Spell level × caster level × 100
Duration in rounds	Base cost × 4
Duration in minutes	Base cost × 2
Duration in 10 minutes	Base cost × 1.5
Renewable	Base cost × 1/2
Aointed spell	Spell level × minimum caster level × 50
Aointed energy type	10,000
Aointed descriptor or subschool	15,000
Aointed school	20,000
Vanguard spell, at will	Spell level × caster level × 100
Vanguard spell, 3/day	Spell level × caster level × 50
Vanguard spell, 1/day	Spell level × caster level × 25
Prevalent power, minor	5,000
Prevalent power, medium	20,000
Prevalent power, major	50,000
Modifiers to Component Cost
Keyed power	Component cost × 2
Spell trigger only	1/2 component cost
Limited area	1/2 component cost

CREATING THE RAISE MYTHAL SPELL

To create a specific raise mythal spell from the mythal seed and the components you have chosen, total the component costs of the effects you want the mythal to produce, as given on Table 2-9.

The total Spellcraft DC modifier for your suite of mythal powers equals 25 + (total component cost divided by 1,000). Mythals need not pay the ×5 modifier for a permanent duration, since the mythal seed already produces a permanent effect.

Mitigating Factors: Mythals with numerous components typically have very high Spellcraft DCs—often 300 or higher.

However, raise mythal spells are almost always built with significant mitigating factors.

Mythals often require a sizable expenditure of XP and the cooperation of numerous additional spellcasters, and many deal significant backlash damage.

In addition, mythals often feature special mitigating factors not found in other epic spells, as given in Table 2-10.

These mitigating factors are explained in detail below.

TABLE 2-10:

SPECIAL MITIGATING FACTORS FOR MYTHALS

Mitigating Factor	Cost Adjustment
Caster dies (no resurrection possible)	-50
Capstone	-20
Corruptible (weakens over time)	× 3/4
Anchored	× 3/4

Caster Dies: The death of the caster may seem like an insuperable deterrent to the creation of a mythal, but many even high mages are more than ready to go to Arvandor by the time they become capable of such magic.

In elf society, sacrificing one's life to create a mighty work of the Art ranks among the most highly honored ways to leave the world.

Capstone: A mythal with a capstone possesses a critical physical component—a standing stone, a massive throne, a great tree, a beautiful fountain, or the like—that focuses and tethers the magic.

Destroying the capstone destroys the mythal, so mythal-makers who use capstones always conceal them carefully and defend them with powerful magic.

Corruptible: The base duration of a corruptible mythal is one hundred years instead of permanent.

The mythal does not fail automatically after a hundred years have passed, but it must begin to make integrity checks once per year at that point.

An integrity check is a Spellcraft check using the original caster's Spellcraft modifier at the time the mythal was raised (even if the original caster is no longer present or alive).

The DC for the check varies with time and circumstances, but initially, it equals the mythal's final Spellcraft DC (after mitigating factors have been applied) minus 20.

For example, if a mythal's Spellcraft DC was 46 after applying the mitigating factors, its initial integrity DC is 26. Thereafter, the DC of the integrity check increases by 1 per ten full years past one hundred, by 1 per previous failed integrity check, and by 2 per anchor-damaging event (if the mythal is both corruptible and anchored).

When a mythal fails an integrity check, roll d% and consult Table 2-11 to determine the effect.

The base duration of a corruptible mythal can be increased in increments of 100% (to two hundred years, three hundred years, or more) by applying the normal epic spell factor for increased duration, at a cost of +2 to the DC per iteration.

This factor is applied after the 3/4 reduction to the DC for making the mythal corruptible in the first place.

Corruptible mythals are often maintained periodically through the use of epic mythal rejuvenation spells created specifically for that purpose.

The base DC for the rejuvenation spell equals one-half that of the raise mythal spell that created the particular mythal before mitigating factors were applied, though it may also feature mitigating factors of its own.

If you want a mythal to last forever, don't make it corruptible; if you want a "quick and dirty" mythal that's easier to raise, or if you want to "stretch" to make your mythal as capable as possible, make it corruptible and plan on maintaining it once every century or two.

Anchored: An anchored mythal is reinforced by the shape and flow of the Weave in its immediate vicinity.

Major changes to its physical, magical, or spiritual environment—for example, the destruction of a city, the burning of a forest, or the presence of a powerful and hostile outsider (one whose Hit Dice exceed the mythal's caster level and whose alignment opposes that of the caster in any respect) for at least 24 hours—can damage the mythal.

A mythal integrity check (see Corruptible, above) is made whenever such an anchor-damaging event takes place. See Table 2-11 for the effects of failure.

TABLE 2-11: MYTHAL INTEGRITY FAILURE

d%	Effect
01-30	No effect, but the integrity check counts as a failure.
31-65	Delete one component (randomly determined).
66-85	Replace one component of the mythal with another effect of the same school that is similar in theme or effect but at least one spell level lower.
86-95	Choose one of the mythal 's components at random. If the component is keyed, its key is replaced by one similar in theme or effect but more restrictive. (That is, a keyed component that previously worked for any elf might now work only for any elf wizard.) An unkeyed component acquires a key.
96-99	Replace the key for a randomly determined keyed component with a less restrictive key similar in theme or effect. (That is, a keyed component that previously worked for any elf might now work for any humanoid, or even any living creature.)
100	Replace one component with an unrelated one that is antithetical to the intent or purpose of the original.

The Wards of Silverymoon

The wards of Silverymoon (see Silver Marches) is a fairly typical wizard mythal created in 843 DR by Elué Dualen (Alustriel Silverhand) and several other wizards acting together.

The details of the wards are given on the table below.

Unless otherwise stated, all spells are cast at the minimum caster level necessary.

TABLE 2-12: MYTHAL COMPONENTS FOR THE WARDS OF SILVERMOON

Component	Cost
Aointed Spells
Spells with the death descriptor	15,000
Spells with the evil descriptor	15,000
Spells with the teleportation descriptor*	30,000
Conjuration (summoning) spells*	30,000
Evocation (fire) spells*	20,000
*Keyed component; a character in possession of a ward token can ignore this aointed effect and cast normally.
Prevalent Spells
Antipathy (against lawful evil, neutral evil, and chaotic evil creatures, keyed to demons, devils, drow, duergar, giants, goblinoids, mind flayers, orcs, and trolls)	72,000 (base 3 × 12,000, doubled for key)
Detect scrying	2,800
Invisibility purge	3,000 (base 1,500, doubled for duration factor)
Death ward	5,600 (base 2,800, doubled for duration factor)
Protection from evil	200 (base 100, doubled for duration factor)
Zone of truth (within Inner Ward only)	600 (base 600, doubled for duration factor and halved for limited area)

Vanguard Spells

All the vanguard spells in this mythal are available only to designated ward initiates who have undergone the special rite of attunement.

The costs given below have all been doubled because each component is keyed.

Costs were then halved for spells that affect a limited area (the Inner Ward only).

Air walk	5,600
Bless weapon (CL 4th)	800
Bull's strength	1,200
Cat's grace	1,200
Control water	5,600
Control winds	9,000
Cure moderate wounds (within Inner Ward only)	600
Discern lies	5,600
Dispel chaos	9,000
Dispel evil	9,000
Feather fall	200
Forcecage (within Inner Ward only)	9,100
Lesser ironguard	9,000
Magic missile (CL 9th)	1,800
Neutralize poison (within Inner Ward only)	2,800
Prismatic sphere (within Inner Ward only)	15,300
Quench	5,600
Remove curse (CL 10th)	8,000
Remove paralysis	1,200
Repulsion	13,200
Shield	200
Shocking grasp (CL 5th)	1,000
Silence	1,200
Tongues	3,000
Prevalent Power
Control of the Moonbridge	40,000 (20,000 base for medium power, doubled for keyed effect)

The total cost for the components is 353,400.

Dividing this value by 1,000 yields a Spellcraft DC modifier of +353.

Adding this modifier to the base Spellcraft DC of 25 brings the DC to 378.

The wards extend for 1,000 yards in all directions, increasing the area of the emanation from 100 feet to 3,000 feet and adding +116 to the DC.

Thus, the total Spellcraft DC is 494.

Like most latter-day mythals, Silverymoon's wards are both anchored and corruptible, so the DC drops to 278 ($3/4 \times 494$).

However, the increased duration factor was applied ten times, so that Silverymoon's wards would not begin to erode for one thousand years from the time they were raised.

Adding $+2 \times 10$ raises the DC to 298.

This value means that creating this particular raise mythal spell requires the expenditure of 2,682,000 gp and 107,280 XP, plus 49 days of research.

The mitigating factors for Silverymoon's mythal include an expenditure of 10,000 XP (-100), plus the cooperation of three additional wizards casting 9th-level spells (-51), six additional wizards casting 6th-level spells (-66), and nine additional wizards casting 3rd-level spells (-45), plus 5d6 points of backlash damage (-5).

Applying these factors gives a final Spellcraft DC of 31—an easily assured success for an epic-level wizard with the proper feats and magic items.

ILLUSION

SHADOW

Illusion (Shadow)

Spellcraft DC: 23

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: 0 feet

Target: One duplicated creature, object, or spell

Duration: 1 hour

Saving Throw: Will disbelief

Spell Resistance: Yes

You fashion a double of one creature, item, or spell entirely from shadows.

You can use this seed to duplicate any creature of CR 5 or lower.

For each +1 you add to the creature's CR, the Spellcraft DC increases by 2.

You specify the creature's type, subtype, gender, age, and appearance.

The creature appears to be an average specimen of its kind and at all times remains under your absolute command.

No telepathic link exists, so you must be able to exercise command over it in some other way to control it.

The shadow creature cannot become more powerful by increasing its level, improving its abilities, or augmenting any other intrinsic features.

If slain, it disappears, seeming to melt away into shadows.

A spell created with the shadow seed can also duplicate a specifically named, unique creature, but this usage increases the Spellcraft DC by 20.

Such a duplicate is alive for the spell's duration and possesses the full hit points, knowledge (including class levels, skills, and speech), and personality of the original creature.

The shadow seed can also be used in spells to duplicate any nonmagical, unliving, unattended object up to 10 cubic feet in volume.

You must succeed on an appropriate skill check to create a complex item (a Craft [armorsmithing] check to make plate mail, for example).

You can create matter ranging in hardness and rarity from cloth all the way to gold or steel.

A simple object (such as a knife, a saddle, a wooden box, or a rock) has a natural duration of 12 hours.

For each additional cubic foot of matter created, the Spellcraft DC increases by 1.

Attempting to use any shadow object as a material component or as a resource during epic spell development causes the spell to fail and the object to dissolve immediately.

An epic spell created with the shadow seed can duplicate spells of up to 1st level from a single school of magic.

Each additional spell level beyond 1st increases the Spellcraft DC by 5, and each additional school of magic to be included adds 2 to the Spellcraft DC.

Allowing the duplication of both arcane and divine spells adds 10 to the DC.

If the spell to be duplicated has an XP cost, then the caster must pay that in addition to any XP required by the epic spell's casting.

Anyone physically interacting with a creature, object, or effect created via the shadow seed gains a Will save to disbelieve.

A successful save allows recognition of the duplicate as an amalgam of shadows.

SOULMELDS

DRAGON MAGIC (3.5)

CLAWS OF THE WYRM

Descriptors: Draconic

Classes: Soulborn, totemist

Chakra: Arms, hands (totem)

Saving Throw: None

A pair of dragonlike arms, wreathed in blue fire, hover above your own arms and mimic your actions.

The arms have long, sharp talons of cerulean light.

This soulmeld draws on the most basic of draconic attack forms, granting you claws that deal damage of 1d6 points if you are Medium, 1d4 if you are Small, or 1d8 if you are Large, plus your Strength modifier.

You can attack with one claw as a standard action or with both claws as a full-round action (using your full base attack bonus).

If you already have claw attacks, use either your normal claw damage or the damage given for this soulmeld, whichever is higher.

Essentia: For every point of essentia invested in your claws of the wurm, you gain a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls made with the claws.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

The dragon arms settle onto your forearms, though the claws remain loose from your hands.

The fire of the arms is reduced, but they glow with a dull inner light.

The threat range of your claws of the wurm doubles (to 19–20).

This benefit does not stack with any other effect that improves the threat range of your claw attacks.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

The dragon claws bind to your hands, lengthening and growing serrated spines.

The damage dealt by your claws of the wurm improves by one step (from 1d6 to 1d8, if you are Medium).

If you already have claw attacks, use either your normal claw damage or the damage given for this bind, whichever is higher.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The dragon arms become more fleshlike and animated, growing up toward your back and linking with your shoulder blades.

Hard, bright scales spread over your shoulders, upper chest, and upper arms.

You gain a climb speed equal to 1/2 your base land speed (rounded up to the nearest 5-foot increment).

DRAGON MANTLE

Descriptors: Draconic

Classes: Soulborn, totemist

Chakra: Heart, shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms heavy plates of armor that resemble blue dragonhide.

The plates hover above your back and shoulders, having an almost winglike appearance.

You draw on the incarnum of the mightiest dragons to increase your resilience.

You gain a +2 enhancement bonus on Fortitude saves.

Essentia: You gain resistance to acid, electricity, fire, and cold equal to 3 × the number of points of essentia invested in this soulmeld.

If you already have resistance to any of these energy types from another source, it stacks with the resistance granted by this chakra bind.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

The blue dragonhide plate armor fuses with your torso, invigorating your entire body with draconic energy.

You gain fast healing equal to the number of points of essentia invested in this soulmeld.

This fast healing functions only when you are at or below half your full normal hit points.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

The blue dragonhide plate armor fits tightly to your shoulders and runs down your back and across your upper arms.

You gain damage reduction X/magic, where X equals the number of points of essentia you have invested in your dragon mantle.

As long as at least 1 point of essentia is invested in this soulmeld, your natural attacks overcome damage reduction as if they were magic weapons.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Long, draconic wings sprout from the shoulders of your blue dragonhide plate armor.

You can extend wings from this soulmeld to gain the ability to fly a short distance (poor maneuverability) as a move action.

You can fly up to 10 feet for each point of essentia you have invested in your dragon mantle, though you must begin and end each such move on a solid surface or you fall.

DRAGON TAIL

Descriptors: Draconic

Classes: Incarnate, totemist

Chakra: Feet, waist (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms a row of dragon vertebrae floating inches from your own spine.

Ribs grow from the vertebrae, creating a cloak that conceals your back.

The cloak continues to grow behind you, extending into a long dragon tail.

You form a draconic tail that can strike foes, dealing 1d8 points of bludgeoning damage + your Strength modifier.

You can make one attack per round with the tail as a standard action.

The tail does not threaten a space, cannot be used to make attacks of opportunity, and cannot be used if you are grappled.

Essentia: For every point of essentia invested in your dragon tail, the tail's attack gains a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

The tail of this soulmeld grows broad and thick.

The dragon fail provides you with a measure of stability.

You gain a +2 competence bonus on Balance and Swim checks.

For each point of essentia invested in your dragon tail, the bonus improves by 2.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

The vertebrae fuse to your back, the ribs blending into your own. The tail becomes lively and animate, constantly twitching from side to side.

The dragon tail has reach as if it were a reach weapon sized for you, though it still can't be used to make attacks of opportunity.

Its damage dealt increases to 2d6 points + 1-1/2 × your Strength bonus.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The tail takes on the appearance of flesh and bone and becomes more agile and animated.

As a standard action, you can make a tail sweep.

All creatures adjacent to you automatically take damage as if they had been struck by your dragon tail (Reflex half).

DRAGONFIRE MASK

Descriptors: Draconic, Fire

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Brow, throat (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms a dragon head of dull blue fire that wreaths your head and floats above your shoulders.

It stares straight ahead, its expression unchanging.

The eyes and mouth of the dragon head are full of brighter, flickering fire that shoots out light.

Dragons are renowned for their amazing visual acuity and unsettling presence, but even more so for their devastating breath weapons.

This soulmeld combines all three aspects into a single potent mask.

Totemists revel in the normal benefits they receive from this soulmeld and the effect its appearance can have on the meek and fearful.

You gain low-light vision while this soulmeld is shaped. If you already have low-light vision, you gain no additional benefit.

Essentia: For every point of essentia invested in your dragonfire mask, you gain a +2 competence bonus on Spot checks.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your own eyes flicker with the same flames that burn within your dragon head.

You gain darkvision out to 60 feet (or your existing darkvision extends another 30 feet).

Chakra Bind (Throat)

A seething ring of fire encircles your neck, and wisps of smoke occasionally burst from the dragon head.

You gain the ability to emit a fiery breath weapon as a standard action.

The breath weapon is a 30-foot cone that deals 2d6 points of fire damage + an extra 1d6 points of fire damage for every point of essentia invested in your dragonfire mask.

Targets are allowed a Reflex save for half damage.

After using your breath weapon, you must wait 1d4 rounds before you can use it again.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The dragon head becomes a solid blue mask, forming a hollow shape that completely encloses your head at a distance.

Fire still trails from its eyes and open mouth.

You can emanate an aura of frightful presence once per round as a swift action.

All creatures within 10 feet with fewer Hit Dice than you become shaken for 1 round.

A successful Will save negates the effect and renders the creature immune to the frightful presence of this soulmeld for 24 hours.

For every point of essentia you have invested in your dragonfire mask, the radius of the frightful presence increases by 10 feet, and its duration increases by 1 round.

ELDER SPIRIT

Descriptors: Draconic

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Crown, soul

Saving Throw: None

A serpentine dragon of blue fire coils in the air above your head, twisting and undulating in response to your own movements.

Any dragonblooded creature has a link, however tenuous, to the spirit of a full-blooded dragon ancestor.

This soulmeld calls on that ancient link to bring forth a wisp of the dragon's soul.

You gain a +4 insight bonus on Knowledge (arcana), Knowledge (history), and Use Magic Device checks, and you can make these checks untrained.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you have invested in your elder spirit increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

The dragon coils around your forehead, its facial expression matching your own.

You are immune to frightful presence, sleep, and paralysis effects as if you were a dragon.

You gain a +4 insight bonus on Intimidate checks; each point of essentia invested in your elder spirit increases this bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Soul)

The dragon becomes a symbol on a heraldic device of blue fire that settles onto your chest.

You gain blindsense out to 5 feet per point of essentia invested in your elder spirit.

ACROBAT BOOTS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Feet

Saving Throw: None

You form incarnum into a pair of light, supple boots that fit over your feet and any other boots you might wear.

Small ruffs of blue-white fur crown each boot.

While you wear them, you feel light on your feet.

It is difficult to resist the temptation to bounce on the balls of your feet when you're standing still.

Channeling energy from the most agile and nimble of souls, you claim some measure of that agility for yourself.

While wearing acrobat boots, you gain a +2 insight bonus on Balance, Escape Artist, Jump, and Tumble checks.

(This soulmeld does not let you attempt Tumble checks untrained).

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in the acrobat boots increases the bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

Your acrobat boots join fast to your feet and help to slow you whenever you fall.

You can reduce falling damage by 1d6 points per point of essentia invested in the acrobat boots.

For example, if you fall 30 feet while 2 points of essentia are invested, you would take only 1d6 points of damage (rather than 3d6 points).

ADAMANT PAULDRONS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Shoulders

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into blue crystalline plates of shoulder armor. They float slightly above your shoulders, leaving room for clothing and other armor.

In battle, these pauldrons seem to draw attacks toward them, steering blows away from your most vital areas.

The use of adamant pauldrons carries a stigma in some incarnate circles because of the example of Murthien the Soul-Render.

The infamous incarnate is said to have worn adamant pauldrons on which the tormented visages of imprisoned souls were clearly visible, wracked with pain from the necrocarum energies Murthien wielded.

Wise incarnates refuse to allow the corrupted practice of one notable individual to prevent them from employing a highly useful soulmeld, however.

Your adamant pauldrons grant you protection from physical attacks.

Whenever a critical hit or sneak attack is scored on you, there is a 25% chance that the critical hit or sneak attack is negated and damage is instead rolled normally.

Essentia: You gain damage reduction equal to the number of points of essentia invested in this soulmeld. This damage reduction is bypassed only by attacks of an alignment opposed to that of your incarnate cause (good, evil, chaos, or law).

Thus, if you invest 3 points of essentia in your adamant pauldrons and you are a good incarnate, you gain damage reduction 3/evil.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Your incarnate pauldrons settle over your shoulders, and they seem to be joined by a crystalline lattice of blue energy across your back.

Their power to deflect blows away from vital areas is increased.

The chance that your adamant pauldrons negate a critical hit or sneak attack against you increases to 50%.

AIRSTEP SANDALS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Feet

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a pair of sky-blue sandals.

They surround your feet without quite touching them, fitting over any boots or shoes you wear.

When you use the flight ability of the sandals, you leave a faint trail of blue vapor behind you, which disperses after a few seconds.

Many creatures have the gift of flight, and with this soulmeld, you channel soul energy derived from such creatures to borrow that gift.

The rilkan incarnate Davi the Trickster was rarely seen without this soulmeld shaped, and she claimed that she could communicate with the djinn whose soul energy she borrowed to form it.

While worn, the airstep sandals allow you to fly up to 10 feet (good maneuverability) as a move action once per round.

You must end the flight solidly supported or you fall.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your airstep sandals increases the distance you can fly by 10 feet.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

Your airstep sandals merge into your feet, turning your legs sky blue from your knees down to your toes.

You become capable of aerial acrobatics, turning on a dime in midair with a soft burst of pale blue mist.

You fly with perfect maneuverability.

In practical terms, this means that you can reverse direction without paying a movement cost, you can turn freely without spending any extra movement, and you can ascend at full speed.

ANKHEG BREASTPLATE

Descriptors: Acid

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Throat (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

A thick, chitinous breastplate forms around your torso.

The green plates of the armor glisten like the thorax of a living insect.

Soft tissue and living muscle bind the plates together, rather than the chain and leather of conventional armor.

Ankhegs are burrowing predators protected by thick plates of chitin.

The totemist tradition reveres them as protectors, but it also seeks to claim the destructive power of their mandibles and their acidic spittle.

Your ankheg breastplate grants you a +2 armor bonus to your Armor Class.

As always, this bonus does not stack with an armor bonus from a different source (such as actual armor you might be wearing).

If you have another armor bonus, the higher bonus applies. This soulmeld has no maximum Dexterity bonus, armor check penalty, or arcane spell failure.

It is treated as light armor for the purpose of determining your speed and adjudicating class features dependent on armor.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your ankheg breastplate, the armor bonus granted by the soulmeld improves by 1.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

Green chitin spreads from your breastplate up your neck, blending into your skin there.

This thickened skin seems to pulse slowly, in a rhythm unrelated to the beat of your heart or the movement of your breath.

You gain the ability to spit a line of acid as a standard action.

Once per minute, you can emit a line of acid that is 5 feet long plus 5 feet per point of invested essentia.

Targets in the line take 2d6 points of acid damage plus 1d6 points for every point of invested essentia.

They can reduce this damage by half with a successful Reflex save.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Green-brown chitin spreads from your breastplate up your neck to your face, and you sprout serrated mandibles like those of a giant insect.

Outside of combat, they slowly open and close without any conscious direction.

In battle, you can use these terrible clenching jaws to tear the flesh of your foes.

When you shift essentia to this soulmeld, the mandibles sizzle with acid.

You gain a bite attack that deals 1d8 points of damage.

You can use this bite either as a primary attack (in which case it uses your full base attack bonus and adds your Strength bonus on damage rolls) or as a secondary attack (with a -5 penalty on the attack roll and applying only half your Strength bonus on your damage roll).

Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld adds 1d4 points of acid damage to your bite damage.

APPARITION RIBBON

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Throat

Saving Throw: None

A diaphanous scarf wraps around your neck, its ends trailing off into wispy tendrils that seem to follow or mimic the movement of your arms.

You form incarnum into a bridge of energy between yourself and the incorporeal world of spirits and other ghostly creatures.

In melee, every time you miss an incorporeal foe because of its incorporeality, you can reroll your miss chance percentile roll one time to see if you actually hit.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in apparition ribbon grants you a +2 insight bonus on damage rolls against incorporeal creatures.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

The wispy tendrils of the scarf lengthen and surround you as you appear to become incorporeal.

When you bind apparition ribbon to your throat chakra, you gain the ability to become incorporeal for brief periods of time.

You gain all the benefits of the incorporeal subtype (see page 310 of the Monster Manual), including a deflection bonus equal to your Charisma bonus (minimum +1).

Activating this ability is a standard action, and your incorporeality lasts for 1 round plus 1 round per point of essentia invested in the soulmeld at the time it was activated.

After you activate this ability, you can't voluntarily change the soulmeld's essentia investment until the duration of incorporeality ends.

If the essentia investment is decreased involuntarily to the point where the number of consecutive rounds spent incorporeal equals or exceeds the essentia invested, you immediately become corporeal.

If you are within a solid object when the duration of incorporeality ends, you are shunted off to the nearest open space and take 1d6 points of damage per 5 feet that you so travel.

Each day, you can spend a total number of rounds incorporeal equal to your meldshaper level.

ARCANE FOCUS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Throat

Saving Throw: See text

A necklace of blue crystals fits around your neck.

The crystals shed a faint glow that increases in brightness when you cast a damaging spell.

Drawing upon the soul energy of spellcasters and warmages, meldshapers who also cast arcane spells can use the incarnum energy to intensify spells that cause harm to others.

You shape incarnum into a periapt or other trinket, known as an arcane focus, which you then wear about your neck. When you cast an arcane spell that deals damage, your spell's damage is increased by 1 point.

Spells that divide their damage among multiple targets, such as magic missile, deal the extra damage once to each affected target.

This soulmeld does not affect spells that do not deal damage.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your arcane focus increases the extra damage by 1 point.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

Barely visible wisps of incarnum writhe from your arcane focus, tendrils of soul energy that twist into arcane symbols as you cast arcane spells.

When you cast a damaging spell, the spell is accompanied by a blue-white burst of raw incarnum energy.

The energy and power behind your offensive spells can temporarily overcome your opponents.

Whenever you cast a spell that deals damage to a single living creature, that creature must succeed on a Fortitude save (using the soulmeld's save DC, not the spell's) or be dazed for 1 round.

If the spell deals damage to more than one creature, or if the target creature takes no damage from the spell (whether because of a successful saving throw, spell resistance, or resistance to the damage dealt by the spell), this has no effect.

ARMGUARDS OF DISRUPTION

Descriptors: Good

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Arms

Saving Throw: None

Blue-sheened silver bracers form around your forearms.

Blue-white sparks leap from your hand to undead creatures you touch.

The energy of incarnum and the soulless bodies of undead creatures are on opposite ends of a spectrum.

When properly shaped, incarnum can become an anathema to undead creatures, crumbling corporeal forms and disrupting undead spirits.

Your touch is harmful to undead.

While wearing armguards of disruption, you deal 1d6 points of damage to an undead creature with a successful melee touch attack.

You can use armguards of disruption only once per round, and you must announce that you are using them before making the attack; if you miss, the charge for that round is wasted.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested increases the damage dealt by your armguards of disruption by 1d6 points. Chakra Bind (Arms)

Incarnum flows from the bracers to envelop you and then fades into invisibility.

A corona of blue-white energy erupts when an undead creature attacks you, blocking its blows and suppressing its powers.

You gain an insight bonus to your AC and on your saving throws equal to the number of points of essentia invested in your armguards of disruption.

These bonuses apply only against attacks made by undead creatures.

BASILISK MASK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Brow (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

A hideous mask with red-brown scales forms around and over your face, actually floating about an inch in front of your nose. The visage is reptilian, with a protruding lower jaw and teeth jutting upward.

Bony spines stick up from the top of the mask, completing the portrait of a basilisk.

While the basilisk is feared primarily for its petrifying gaze, totemists also revere it as a patron of vision.

Your basilisk mask grants you low-light vision.

Essentia: The basilisk mask grants you darkvision with a range of 30 feet per point of essentia invested in the soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your basilisk mask merges into your forehead, and your eyes are now clearly visible in the face of the basilisk.

The visual effect is a little unsettling, but the improvement to your perception is dramatic.

You gain the benefit of the Blind-Fight feat.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Behind the mask, your eyes glow with a pale green radiance that is clearly visible through the eyes of the basilisk.

There is a sense of weight in your forehead, but it is not entirely unpleasant—more like a power anxious to be exercised.

By directing your gaze on a creature within 30 feet who can see you, you can temporarily turn that creature to stone (as the flesh to stone spell, except that the duration is only 1 round).

A successful Fortitude save negates this effect.

Using this ability is a full-round action.

BEAST TAMER CIRCLET

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Crown (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You channel undifferentiated soul energy into a gleaming silver band that encircles your forehead at a distance of about an inch. If you concentrate, you can hear a very quiet murmur of growls, shrieks, and other animal noises—the cacophony of the beast world.

Rather than channeling the specific soul energy of a particular kind of magical beast to emulate that beast, totemists sometimes prefer to use incarnum in a more general way to improve their interactions with all beasts. You gain a +2 insight bonus on Handle Animal and wild empathy checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your beast tamer circlet increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

Your silver circlet fuses to your head, sending silver-blue tendrils like tiny veins under your skin.

The endless clamor of beast noises becomes intelligible to you—you understand the range of needs and emotions that drives these utterances—but you are still able to ignore it with a modicum of concentration.

You gain the ability to speak with animals, as the spell.

You can also use this ability to communicate with magical beasts that have an Intelligence score of 1 or 2.

You can use this ability in any round during which you invest essentia in your beast tamer circlet.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

*Instead of a gleaming silver band around your head, your beast tamer circlet manifests as a ring of silver hair, while all the hair on your head becomes long and coarse like a beast's mane.*

You gain the ability to use animal trance, as the spell.

You can use this ability once per minute, and it lasts as long as you maintain concentration and have any amount of essentia invested in your beast tamer circlet, to a maximum of 1 minute per meldshaper level.

BEHIR GORGET

Descriptors: Electricity

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Throat (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms a large, deep blue collar around your neck, like part of a suit of plate armor.

The color is darker on the back and fades to pale blue in the front, and bands of gray-brown line the top and bottom.

The gorget tapers to a sharp point above your breastbone.

Powerful beasts that resemble dragons, behirs are revered for their dangerous electrical breath weapon. Their dozen legs grant them stability, a quality totemists seek to appropriate through this soulmeld.

Their hatred of dragons makes this a popular soulmeld for totemists planning to slay a dragon—particularly a blue or bronze dragon.

Your behir gorget gives you a +4 bonus to resist being bull rushed or tripped.

Essentia: If you invest essentia in your behir gorget, it protects you from electricity damage.

You gain resistance to electricity equal to 5 times the number of points of essentia you invest in this soulmeld.
Chakra Bind (Throat)

Your armored collar merges into your throat, and your neck lengthens very slightly.

You can feel a constant tingling in the sides of your neck, and tiny sparks occasionally spit from your mouth when you speak—particularly when you get excited or angry.

You gain the ability to project a line of lightning similar to a behir's breath weapon.

Once per minute, you can emit a line of lightning that is 5 feet long plus 5 feet per point of invested essentia.

Targets in the line take 2d6 points of electricity damage plus 1d6 per point of invested essentia, and they can reduce this damage by half with a successful Reflex save.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

As you bind your behir gorget to your totem chakra, its hard blue plating spreads up your neck to incorporate your entire head.

Your face lengthens, and your jaw grows monstrous.

Sharp teeth fill your mouth, allowing you to bite your foes savagely in combat.

Sparks crackle in your mouth whenever you open it to bite—or even to speak.

You gain a bite attack that deals 1d8 points of damage.

You can use this bite either as a primary attack (in which case it uses your full base attack bonus and adds your Strength bonus on damage rolls) or as a secondary attack (with a –5 penalty on the attack roll and applying only half your Strength bonus on your damage roll).

Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld adds 1d4 points of electricity damage to your bite damage.

BLINK SHIRT

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Heart (totem)

Saving Throw: None

This rough-looking garment fits over armor and other clothing and looks like it has been made of coarse brown fur, but it displays obviously magical features.

The shirt seems to shift and move on its own, and it fades into a barely corporeal mist near your waist.

Most disconcerting of all, patches of the garment seem transparent, as if they have temporarily shifted to some strange elsewhere.

Because different parts of the garment appear phased out at different times, these patches of incorporeality seem to roam over the surface of the shirt.

Blink dogs have two closely related abilities that define their hunting tactics.

Totemists emulate both their short-range teleportation and the blinking that gives them their name.

Good-aligned totemists and those planning to fight displacer beasts shape this meld, invoking the blink dog's natural good alignment and their hatred for those creatures.

By shaping incarnum into a shirt resembling blink dog fur, you gain the ability to teleport (as dimension door) up to 10 feet at will.

Using this ability is a standard action.

After using this ability, you can't take any other actions until your next turn.

You cannot bring along other creatures; you affect only yourself.

Essentia: Investing essentia in this soulmeld increases the distance you can teleport.

For every point of essentia invested, you can teleport an additional 10 feet.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

The appearance of your blink shirt changes little, except that now wherever it seems transparent, you do as well.

Strange patches of incorporeality float over your entire body.

You can use blink as the spell (with a caster level equal to your meldshaper level).

Activating or dismissing the effect is a standard action.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your posture becomes slightly hunched, giving you the merest hint of a canine appearance.

Your ears also take on sharp points.

You can use the dimension door ability of this soulmeld as a move action.

BLOODTALONS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Hands (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms a pair of eagle talons around your hands.

They are ghostly and insubstantial, almost like a violet mist surrounding your hands, but the three-toed shape is as clear as the sharp claws in their outline.

Blood hawks (described in the Fiend Folio) are fierce birds of prey noted for their blood lust.

They are similar to sharks in their frenzy while feeding—in fact, they fight beyond the threshold of death.

Totemists who shape bloodtalons hope to emulate the ferocious tenacity, keen eyesight, and sheer savagery of these creatures.

You can continue to fight without penalty if you are disabled or dying.

When reduced to 0 hit points, you can act as if you weren't disabled (that is, you ignore the normal restriction to only a single move or standard action per turn).

You do not lose 1 hit point for performing a standard or otherwise strenuous action while at 0 hit points.

When reduced to –1 to –9 hit points, you do not fall unconscious.

You do not automatically lose 1 hit point each round when at –1 to –9 hit points.

When your current hit points drop to –10 or lower, you immediately die.

Essentia: You gain a +2 bonus on Spot checks per point of essentia you invest in your bloodtalons.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Rather than being surrounded by violet mist, your hands themselves turn a deep shade of violet, like the blue of incarnum mixed with rich blood red.

Somehow, your hands feel eager to grasp and tear, to speed past your opponents' defenses and tear at their eyes.

You gain the benefit of the Weapon Finesse feat when attacking with natural weapons.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The skin of your hands becomes red-orange and scaly like the talons of a blood hawk, your fingers grow knobby and strong, and your nails lengthen into fierce talons with sharp points and edges. You can use your bloodtalons as natural weapons.

You can make two claw attacks that each deal 1d4 points of damage plus your Strength modifier.

On the round after you hit with a claw attack, the wounds bleed for an additional 1 point of damage per point of essentia you had invested in your bloodtalons when you made the attack.

Nonliving creatures are immune to this blood loss effect. Every point of essentia invested in the bloodtalons grants a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls made with the claw attacks.

While the claws are shaped, you can still use your hands as normal (to hold items, cast spells, and so on), although you cannot hold an item in your hand and attack with the claws at the same time.

BLOODWAR GAUNTLETS

Descriptors: Evil, mind-affecting

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Arms or hands

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms into black gauntlets that encase your hands and extend in heavy iron bands up your forearms to your elbows, where they end in vicious-looking spikes.

They seem large for your hands and actually cover any gloves or gauntlets you might already be wearing, but they move in perfect unison with your fingers and hands.

When it is very quiet, you can sometimes hear the sounds of battle coming from the night-black metal of the gauntlets.

The Lower Planes are consumed in an unending battle between demons and devils, though this so-called Blood War rarely has much impact on the Material Plane.

When you shape this soulmeld, you channel some of the raw, savage ferocity of that eternal conflict, using it to increase your own power in combat.

While you wear your bloodwar gauntlets, you gain a +1 morale bonus on melee attack rolls.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your bloodwar gauntlets, you gain a +1 morale bonus on melee damage rolls.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

Your bloodwar gauntlets bind themselves to your wrists and forearms.

Instead of separate rings of metal extending up your arms, they now form a solid sheath of completely unreflective metal in which fiendish visages manifest and subside, always contorted with rage and pain.

You can use a standard action to release the soulmeld's violent energy in a tumultuous blast, unshaping the soulmeld in the process.

The blast deals 3d6 points of damage for every point of essentia invested to all creatures within a 20-foot-radius burst, excluding you.

A successful Fortitude save halves this damage.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Your bloodwar gauntlets bind themselves to your hands, shrinking to better fit them.

The metal fingertips of the gauntlets are long and sharply pointed.

They sometimes seem to drip blood, though the liquid that falls from them vanishes almost as soon as it touches the ground.

You gain a +4 bonus on rolls made to confirm critical threats.

BLUESTEEL BRACERS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Arms

Saving Throw: None

You harness the soul energy of mighty warriors past, present, and future, shaping that incarnum into bands of bright blue steel that surround your wrists and lower arms.

You feel a soft tingling in your wrists that grows stronger when danger is near.

Because war has always been a part of mortal history, warrior souls are plentiful.

Meldshapers can readily tap into this font of martial knowledge to improve their own prowess on the field of battle, in particular honing the sense of approaching danger that allows skilled warriors to get the drop on their foes.

Your bluesteel bracers enhance your reactions and keep your mind in a state of constant battle readiness, granting you a +2 insight bonus on initiative checks.

Essentia: Investing essentia in your bluesteel bracers enhances your ability to deal damage in combat.

The bracers provide an insight bonus on weapon damage rolls equal to the number of points of essentia that you invest in the soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

Your bluesteel bracers affix themselves to your arms, extending swirling patterns of bright metallic blue up your biceps.

When danger is near, your nearby allies share your sense of it and find themselves more ready for battle.

All allies within 30 feet of you when initiative is rolled gain the +2 bonus on initiative granted by this soulmeld.

BRASS MANE

Descriptors: Sonic

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Throat (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

This feral mask has leonine qualities, including a coarse mane of thick, brass-colored hair.

Onlookers familiar with the mighty dragonnes recognize the similarities between those fearsome desert predators and the features of the mask.

Dragonnes are vicious and deadly hunters.

Because of their terrible roar, totemists associate them with fear and don brass manes to strike terror into enemy hearts.

While you wear your brass mane, you gain a +4 competence bonus on Intimidate checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld increases the competence bonus it grants on Intimidate checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

The hair of your brass mane extends down your neck, forming brassy scales that cover your throat and reach down to your breastbone.

Your voice gets louder unless you make a conscious effort to keep it quiet.

Once per minute, you can loose a devastating roar.

All creatures except dragonnes within 10 feet must succeed on a Will save or become fatigued.

The range of this effect is extended by 10 feet for every point of essentia invested in the soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your face blends into the mask, your jaws growing long and sprouting huge fangs.

You can make powerful bite attacks to tear the flesh of your foes.

You gain a bite attack that deals 1d8 points of damage.

You can use this bite either as a primary attack (in which case it uses your full base attack bonus and adds your Strength bonus on damage rolls) or as a secondary attack (with a -5 penalty on the attack roll and applying only half your Strength bonus on your damage roll).

Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld grants a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls made with the bite attack.

CERULEAN SANDALS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Feet

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms into a pair of sandals that surround your feet and any other footwear you might have on.

The sandals resemble blue crystal ice, but just beneath the surface, they seem to flow like water.

To shape cerulean sandals, you draw on soul energy with ties to the Astral Plane, channeling qualities of weightlessness to enhance your movement abilities.

Your cerulean sandals allow you to walk on water (as if under the effect of a water walk spell).

Essentia: You can invest essentia to increase your base speed with cerulean sandals.

Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld grants an enhancement bonus of +5 feet to your base land speed.

This bonus applies only to land speed and does not improve any other forms of movement, such as climb or fly speeds.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

Your feet and lower legs are encased in a sheath of blue-gray energy.

This substance resembles ice, but motes of light like tiny stars drift through it as well.

You can use dimension door as the spell, up to a total distance of 10 feet per meldshaper level.

You can use this ability (in increments of 10 feet) any number of times, until the total distance has been traversed, at which point the soulmeld unshapes.

This requires a standard action to activate.

CRYSTAL HELM

Descriptors: Force

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Crown

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a light helm that surrounds your head and anything you might be wearing on it, including another helm.

The substance of this helm is transparent crystal with a faceted appearance.

As it rests over your head, you can almost feel a barrier erected behind your eyes, barring the way to those who would intrude into your mind.

Crystal in its many forms is frequently associated with mental powers, hence its widespread use by characters with psionic powers.

With this soulmeld, you shape incarnum into a crystalline form to draw on its protective qualities.

The soulmeld provides protection against mental effects, granting you a +2 resistance bonus on Will saving throws against charm and compulsion.

Essentia: You can increase the protective properties granted by a crystal helm by investing essentia in the soulmeld.

You gain a deflection bonus to your Armor Class equal to the number of points of essentia that you invest in the crystal helm.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

Your crystal helm settles snugly around your head, and tendrils of cold power work their way through your body.

If you close your eyes, you can almost see your own hands glowing like a mystic crystal suffused with unearthly radiance.

Like the invisible power of magical force, your attacks slice through the boundaries between worlds.

Your melee attacks gain the force descriptor, making them useful against incorporeal foes.

DIADEM OF PURELIGHT

Descriptors: Light

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Crown

Saving Throw: None

A shimmering ring of incarnum energy wreathes your head, shedding a pure blue-white light.

The light clearly outlines the shapes of creatures and objects it illuminates, enhancing your visual acuity.

The light of souls is pure, highlighting the nuances of physical forms.

This soulmeld draws upon that power to shed light on the meldshaper's surroundings.

You shape incarnum into a circlet that illuminates the area around you.

Your diadem of purelight sheds light as a torch, illuminating a 20-foot radius with bright illumination (and out to a 40-foot radius of shadowy illumination).

Creatures gain a +2 insight bonus on Spot checks when attempting to see anything within the radius of illumination (including within the shadowy illumination). For the purpose of interacting with darkness spells, the diadem of purelight is treated as a light spell of a level equal to its invested essentia.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your diadem of purelight increases the radius of illumination by 10 feet.

The radius of shadowy illumination is always double the radius of bright illumination.

For example, a diadem of purelight with 2 points of invested essentia sheds bright light to a radius of 40 feet, and shadowy illumination to a radius of 80 feet.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

The light from the headband becomes steady and constant, amplifying the contrast between different creatures and objects.

The diadem of purelight negates any concealment less than total concealment within the radius of its bright light.

This has no effect on invisibility or other forms of total concealment, but creatures protected by fog, blur spells, and the like gain no concealment from such effects.

DISENCHANTER MASK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Brow (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarcum into a silvery mask with a long snout, clubbed protrusions at the crown, and a long, forked tongue.

The silver scales of the mask glint and gleam in the light, and the tongue seems to sway of its own accord.

Disenchanters (described in the Fiend Folio) are huge, surly beasts that feed on magical energy.

By shaping this soulmeld, totemists hope to gain the power to combat magic—particularly against foes armed with large numbers of magic items.

You can use a detect magic effect as the spell, with a range of 10 feet.

You can use this ability as often as desired, but no more than once per round (as a standard action).

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your disenchanter mask, the range of its detect magic effect increases by 10 feet.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your disenchanter mask binds to your forehead, and your eyes replace the glassy black eyes in the mask's sockets.

Colors seem somehow more alive to your sight—particularly the colors of spell effects and items that you know to be magical.

When using this soulmeld's detect magic ability, you can instantly determine the number, strength, and location of each magical aura present as if you had been concentrating for 3 rounds.

You must still make Spellcraft checks as normal to determine the school of magic involved in each aura.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your face lengthens and shapes into the mask you wear, and the dangling tongue of the mask becomes your own tongue.

As you extend it, you can practically taste magic in the air, and when you use the tongue to drain magic, it tastes strong and sweet, almost like a liqueur.

You can use the long tongue of your disenchanter mask to make a melee touch attack as a standard action.

(You cannot use the tongue as a natural secondary weapon, nor can you make any other attacks in the same round as you make a tongue attack).

The tongue has a reach 5 feet longer than your natural reach, but you cannot use it to make attacks of opportunity. It uses your normal base attack bonus.

If you hit with the tongue attack, you deal no damage but have a chance to temporarily suppress a magic item that the target might have.

Unless you choose a specific item held or worn by the target (such as “the sword he holds” or “his bracers”), you affect magic items in the following order: shield, armor, helmet, item in hand, cloak, stowed or sheathed weapon, bracers, clothing, jewelry (including rings), and anything remaining.

To suppress the item, you must succeed on a meldshaper level check (1d20 + your meldshaper level) against a DC of 11 + the magic item's caster level.

Success means that the item's magical properties are suppressed for 10 minutes.

You can also use this ability to temporarily suppress the magic of a specific soulmeld, but you must specify the soulmeld to be affected; otherwise you affect a magic item instead.

Use the soulmeld's meldshaper level as its caster level.

DISPLACER MANTLE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: None

This cloak of blue-black fur wraps around your shoulders and hangs down your back to the waist.

The fur bends and catches light strangely, actually creating a slight blurring effect around your entire body.

Displacer beasts are vicious predators, but to the totemist they symbolize stealth and deception.

With this soulmeld, you hope to claim the displacer beast's light-bending deception to conceal and protect yourself.

The displacer mantle slightly blurs your outline, providing a +4 competence bonus on Hide checks.

Essentia: The competence bonus on Hide checks increases by 2 for every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

As you bind the mantle to your shoulders, its midnight hue spreads into the skin of your shoulders and upper arms.

A light-bending glamor surrounds you, shifting and wavering your outline.

Your displacer mantle surrounds you with a glamor similar to a blur spell, granting you concealment (20% miss chance).

A true seeing effect allows the user to see your position, but see invisibility has no effect.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

A pair of tentacles extends from your shoulder blades.

They end in pads ridged with sharp horns, allowing you to lash out even at distant foes to batter and tear them.

As a full-round action, you can make two tentacle attacks using your full base attack bonus.

Each tentacle deals 1d4 points of damage plus your Strength modifier.

The tentacles have reach equal to your normal natural reach plus 5 feet; however, you do not have sufficient control over the tentacles to make attacks of opportunity with them.

Every point of essentia invested in the displacer mantle grants you a +1 enhancement bonus on damage rolls made with the tentacle attacks.

DISSOLVING SPITTLE

Descriptors: Acid

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Throat

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms a metallic blue-green torc around your neck.

The ends of the torc resemble black or copper dragons facing each other in front of your throat.

A constant bitter taste floods your mouth, but it seems to make the flavor of certain foods more enjoyable—particularly well-cooked meat.

The infamous incarnate Murthien the Soul-Render, for all his forays into the abomination that is necrocarnum, also used dissolving spittle almost as a calling card.

While this meld is favored by chaotic and evil incarnates because of acid's association with both suffering and dissolution, incarnates of all alignments find acidic spittle a useful weapon against a variety of opponents.

As a standard action, you can spit a glob of acid at a target within 30 feet.

This requires a ranged touch attack to hit and deals 1d6 points of acid damage.

Using dissolving spittle provokes attacks of opportunity.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your dissolving spittle increases the damage dealt by 1d6 points.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

Instead of a torc around your neck, the writhing shape of a two-headed dragon arcs around your throat in blue-green scales.

Tendrils of midnight blue extend up your neck and down into your shoulders like diseased veins.

When you use your ability to spit acid at an opponent, the target takes normal damage in the round you spit acid.

You also roll again for damage 1 round later.

DREAD CARAPACE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Arms, feet, or heart (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms into a heavy, caramel-brown carapace covering your back.

Short spines protrude from this shell, and light gleams from its surface.

Though it has no actual protective value (unless you bind it to your heart chakra), the carapace fills you with the destructive power of the tarrasque.

Possibly the most dreaded of all magical beasts, the tarrasque is also the only magical beast whose power is channeled and embodied in two different soulmelds—dread carapace and totem avatar.

Totemists who shape dread carapace can emulate a variety of the tarrasque's many aspects—primary among them its sheer power in melee combat.

While your dread carapace is shaped, you gain a +2 bonus on damage rolls when you are using a bite attack, or a +1 bonus when you are using a claw or other natural attack.

In exchange, you take a -1 penalty on attack rolls with natural weapons.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your dread carapace increases your attack penalty by 1 and your damage bonus by 2 (for bite attacks) or 1 (for other natural weapons).

Thus, if you invest 5 points of essentia in this soulmeld, you take a -6 penalty on attack rolls and gain a +12 bonus on damage rolls with a bite, or +6 with a different natural weapon.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

While the appearance of your dread carapace is unchanged, your upper arms manifest scaly plates, while spikes emerge from your elbows.

At the same time, any natural weapons you possess become more deadly—sharper, longer, better able to slice through skin and armor to tear at vulnerable flesh.

The threat range of any natural attacks you possess (either naturally or as a result of another soulmeld) is doubled.

This doesn't stack with any other effect that increases the threat range of your natural weapon.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

While the appearance of your dread carapace is unchanged, your legs become increasingly muscular, and their shape alters slightly so that you more naturally move on just your toes and the balls of your feet.

Once per minute, you can add an enhancement bonus of +60 feet to your speed for 1 round.

This enhancement bonus is increased by 10 feet for every point of essentia invested in your dread carapace.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

Your dread carapace takes on a highly reflective sheen, suggesting the tarrasque's ability to reflect spells back on their casters.

Spells have a hard time reaching through your carapace to affect you.

You gain spell resistance equal to 5 + 4 per point of essentia you invest in your dread carapace.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Two mighty horns jut from your head.

Though they are useless in combat, they alter your appearance, making your countenance quite fearsome.

When you charge, your visage suggests something utterly inhuman, striking fear into the hearts of your foes.

When you charge, all enemies within 60 feet who can see you become shaken for 1 round (Will negates).

ENIGMA HELM

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Crown

Saving Throw: None

You form incarnum into a shadowy helm floating above and around your head.

Shadows swirl like rising smoke beneath its surface.

The helm wraps itself like a cloak around your mind, protecting your secrets and shielding your will.

Meldshapers favor this soulmeld to ward their minds from divination and mind-affecting spells.

They speak of the incarnum involved as the essence of secrets or the soul of mystery.

Your enigma helm protects you from divinations.

While wearing this soulmeld, you become difficult to detect by divination spells (as the nondetection spell).

If a divination is attempted against you, the caster of the divination must succeed on a caster level check against a DC of 11 + your meldshaper level.

Essentia: You gain an enhancement bonus on Will saves equal to the number of points of essentia invested.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

Your enigma helm rests solidly on your head.

In the center of your forehead, a dusky gem holds swirling shadowstuff—and it's not clear whether the gem is part of the helm or part of your own head.

Any attempt to charm you is redirected to the gem in your forehead.

As a result, you gain complete immunity to enchantment (charm) effects.

FEARSOME MASK

Descriptors: Mind-affecting

Classes: Soulborn

Chakra: Brow

Saving Throw: See text

You shape incarnum into a ferocious-looking mask that covers your face.

It resembles a powerful outsider of your alignment, either majestic in splendor or terrible in its evil.

Somewhere deep in your mind is a quivering knot of fear, but you find that you can channel that fear and use it to intimidate others. Fear, some would argue, is among the most powerful forces in the multiverse.

The lives of many are dominated by it—some avoid all danger and conflict because of their fear, while others ride to power by inspiring fear in others.

In shaping this soulmeld, you draw on the primordial power of fear, acknowledging the fear that lives in your own heart even as you direct it outward to inspire fear in those around you.

While wearing the fearsome mask, you gain a +2 insight bonus on Intimidate checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your fearsome mask increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your eyes, clearly visible through your fearsome mask, blaze with fiery wrath that strikes terror into the hearts of those that meet your gaze.

Your gaze causes enemy creatures (but not allies) to become shaken for 1 minute (Will negates).

This otherwise functions as normal for a gaze attack.

This is a mind-affecting effect.

FELLMIST ROBE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Soul

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum coalesces around your body into a sheath of gray mist. It hangs about you like a thick fog that moves with you, creating the illusion that you are drifting over the ground rather than walking.

This robe of mist masks your true location, protecting you from ranged attacks.

Some incarnates imagine they are channeling soul energy from swamp-dwelling creatures, while others imagine their fellmist robes are shaped from the ghostly spirits of the dead.

Your fellmist robe provides you with minor concealment (10% miss chance) against any attacker more than 5 feet from you.

You do not suffer the same drawback—your attacks against nonadjacent targets are unaffected.

A strong wind (21 mph or greater) disperses the fellmist robe, though it reforms 1 round after the wind stops.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in your fellmist robe improves the concealment slightly, increasing the miss chance by 5% (up to a maximum of 50%).

Chakra Bind (Soul)

Your fellmist robe draws closer to your body, at the same time growing denser and shrouding your form more effectively—even against adjacent foes.

Your fellmist robe provides its concealment against even adjacent attackers.

It resists winds up to 50 mph, though stronger winds still temporarily disperse the robe.

FLAME CINCTURE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Waist

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms into a cord of blue fire, which you wear tied around your waist.

Its flames are cool to the touch.

The loose ends dance around your legs like tongues of flame with wills of their own.

When you are exposed to fire, the flames of your belt flare brightly, as if feeding on the fire around you.

The soulborn Cecylla the Puresoul was renowned as a model of monastic piety who favored a clerical appearance. She always wore vestments over her armor, and a flame cincture gathered her alb around her waist.

When she slew the mighty dragon Garragauth the Red, it is certain that her flame cincture saved her life.

When you shape flame cincture, you gain resistance to fire 10.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in your flame cincture increases your resistance to fire by 5.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

Energy attacks are not simply absorbed and dispersed, but instead the energy is bound within the belt, eagerly awaiting release.

You can release a blast of fire from your flame cincture.

Whenever your flame cincture prevents damage, the energy remains latent within the cord for 1 round.

On your next turn, you can release the stored energy as a swift action to blast any target within 60 feet.

The energy blast deals fire damage equal to the amount of damage prevented by the flame cincture in the previous round.

A successful Reflex save reduces the damage by half.

FROST HELM

Descriptors: Cold, sonic

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Crown (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms into a blue-white helm resembling the bizarre head of a frost worm.

It floats above the top of your head, its strange lumpy shape rising to a tall nodule at the front and top.

Frost worms are terrible arctic predators known for the weird stunning trill they produce from the nodules atop their heads.

Totemists in cold lands favor this soulmeld, claiming the frost worm's power to protect themselves from the cold environment.

They also use frost helm to mimic the frost worm's trill and its frigid breath weapon.

Because of the frost worm's legendary hatred for the remorhaz, totemists don this meld when leading remorhaz hunting parties.

While wearing a frost helm, you can exist comfortably in conditions between -50 and 90° Fahrenheit without having to make Fortitude saves.

Your equipment is likewise protected.

Essentia: If you invest essentia in your frost helm, it also protects you from cold damage.

You gain resistance to cold equal to 5 times the number of points of essentia you invest in this soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

Your frost helm fuses to the top of your head, actually opening a breathing channel in the strange nodule at the helm's crown.

As a standard action, you can project a ray of cold energy from your forehead, reminiscent of a frost worm's breath weapon.

You must make a ranged touch attack to hit a creature with this ray.

If you hit, the ray deals 1d6 points of cold damage plus an additional 1d6 points for every point of essentia you invest in your frost helm.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your frost helm fuses to your head and seems to spread downward, changing the appearance of your upper face to resemble the head of a frost worm.

Your eyes meld into the helm's strange nodule, your cheeks twist into lumpy protrusions, and the skin of your face grows thick and blue-white.

As a standard action, you can produce a trilling sound that stuns opponents within 20 feet.

You can target one creature plus one additional creature per point of essentia you invest in your frost helm.

Targets must succeed on a Will save or be stunned for 1d4 rounds.

If attacked or violently shaken (a full-round action), a victim is allowed another saving throw.

Once a creature has resisted or broken the effect, it cannot be affected by your frost helm's trill for 24 hours.

Frost worms are immune to this effect.

GIRALLON ARMS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Arms (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum coalesces around your arms and upper torso, forming blue-white fur that seems to enhance your arm and chest muscles. It also extends from your fingers to form ghostly claws that, despite their insubstantial appearance, help you gain purchase while climbing or grappling.

Totemists hope to claim the savage ferocity of the girallon as their own by shaping this meld.

Known for its great strength and fierce claws, the girallon is a totem of power and aggression.

Your girallon arms grant you a +2 competence bonus on Climb checks and grapple checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in your girallon arms increases the bonus on Climb checks and grapple checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

The blue-white fur of your girallon arms grows longer at your forearms, forming tufts of hair near your elbows.

If you hit a single target with at least two claw attacks, whether these attacks come from your girallon arms, a different soulmeld, your own innate abilities, or some other source, you can latch onto the opponent's body and tear the flesh.

This attack automatically deals double claw damage, including double your Strength bonus.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Incarnum forms two additional, powerful arms that spring out from your ribs.

These spirit arms mirror the movements of your real arms.

All four of your arms are tipped with long claws that no longer seem ghostly, but quite real—and quite sharp.

You gain four claws that you can use as natural weapons, dealing 1d4 points of damage with each claw.

You can make a single claw attack as a primary attack, using your full attack bonus and adding your Strength bonus on your damage roll.

You can make up to three additional claw attacks as secondary attacks, following either a primary claw attack or an attack with a weapon.

These secondary attacks have a -5 penalty on the attack rolls and apply half your Strength bonus on damage.

If you have a shield in your off hand, you cannot make any secondary claw attacks.

Every point of essentia you invest in your girallon arms grants you a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls with your claw attacks.

GLOVES OF THE POISONED SOUL

Descriptors: Evil

Classes: Soulborn

Chakra: Hands

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Slick green gloves slide over your hands.

They appear moist but are dry to the touch.

By focusing the energy of souls damned for eternity, you form green gloves of incarnum that writhe with evil power. When you touch a foe, the condemned souls poison the target, forcing their hopeless will against it.

Once per round, you can attempt to inflict a terrible, mind-wracking poison on a foe with a melee touch attack.

The poison deals 1 point of Wisdom damage immediately and another 1 point of Wisdom damage 1 minute later.

Each instance of damage can be negated by a Fortitude save.

No creature can be affected by the gloves more than once in a 24-hour period.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your gloves increases the Wisdom damage dealt (both primary and secondary damage) by 1 point.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

The gloves merge with your hands, giving your hands a green cast.

Your fingertips drip with viscous slime.
When gloves of the poisoned soul are bound to your hands chakra, the poison also deals Strength damage equal to the amount of Wisdom damage dealt (one save resists both effects).

GORGON MASK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Throat (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms a mask resembling the head of a steel-plated bull, complete with long, arcing silver horns.

The mask's eyes are empty black pits.

Totemists revere the gorgon as an icon of passive strength and endurance.

Its steel-plated hide and great fortitude, as well as its association with petrification, signify the unyielding strength of a cliff wall standing against the sea.

At the same time, its aggressive nature leads totemists to emulate the gorgon's ability to crush its foes beneath its hooves.

While wearing a gorgon mask, you gain a +1 resistance bonus on Fortitude saves and a +2 resistance bonus on any check or saving throw to resist being bull rushed, tripped, overrun, or trampled.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your gorgon mask increases your resistance bonuses by 1.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

The dusky, metallic scales of your gorgon mask extend down your neck, forming a sharp ridge along your upper spine.

Wisps of green smoke escape from your mouth.

You gain the ability to breathe a cloud of petrifying gas on an adjacent foe.

If the target fails a Fortitude save, it turns to stone, as the flesh to stone spell.

You can use this ability once per day.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The metallic scales of your gorgon mask extend down over your shoulders, lending bulk and solidity to your frame.

You feel strength coursing through your legs in particular, giving you the ability to run down your foes and crush them beneath your feet.

You gain the ability to make a trample attack.

As a full-round action, you can move up to twice your speed and literally run over any creature equal to your own size or smaller.

You merely have to move over the opponents in your path; any creature whose space is completely covered by your space is subject to the trample attack.

If a target's space is larger than 5 feet, it is considered trampled only if you move over all the squares it occupies.

Your trample attack deals 1d8 points of bludgeoning damage (or 1d6 points if you are Small) plus 1-1/2 times your Strength modifier.

If you are larger than Medium or smaller than Small, the damage scales up or down accordingly (see page 114 of the Player's Handbook).

Trampled opponents can attempt attacks of opportunity, but these take a -4 penalty.

(Opponents whose space is larger than 5 feet and whom you do not trample can also make attacks of opportunity at the same penalty).

An opponent can give up its attack of opportunity and instead attempt a Reflex save to take half damage from your trample.

You can deal trampling damage to each target only once per round, no matter how many times your movement takes you over a target creature.

GREAT RAPTOR MASK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Brow (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a large mask that surrounds your whole head, resembling the head of a giant eagle or a giant owl.

The feathered plumage is brown and white with the faintest tinge of purple-blue, and the mask's large, glassy eyes gleam sky blue.

Giant eagles and giant owls are revered for their exceptional eyesight.

Totemists lay claim to the power of these intelligent birds to see distant objects more clearly and, more broadly, to escape from danger through quick reflexes and quicker thinking.

You gain a +2 competence bonus on Spot checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your great raptor mask increases the competence bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your great raptor mask has large eyes that gather every scrap of light and reflect it as a pale, blue-green glow.

The mask is fused to your forehead, and your eyes are melded into the eyes of the mask—which no longer look glassy, but very much alive.

You gain the superior low-light vision of a giant owl, allowing you to see five times as far as a human can in dim light.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your head transforms to take on the appearance of a giant eagle, becoming one with your great raptor mask.

While still enhancing your vision, this soulmeld also heightens your reflexive reaction to danger, allowing you to dodge entirely out of the way of dangerous effects.

You gain evasion.

With a successful Reflex save against an attack that allows a Reflex save for half damage, you take no damage.

HEART OF FIRE

Descriptors: Fire

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Waist (totem)

Saving Throw: None

A rough stone of blazing red hangs at the center of a loose belt around your waist.

You feel warmth spreading from the stone into your body, though it is not enough to ward off extreme cold.

At the sight of a frost giant or some other creature of cold, however, that warmth surges through your body like consuming fire, eager to sear your opponents' flesh.

The remorhaz is one of the most fearsome predators of arctic regions.

Unlike many creatures native to those realms, it is not immune to cold damage; it endures the extremes of winter temperatures by generating huge amounts of heat.

Totemists shape this soulmeld when fighting frost giants (since the remorhaz considers frost giants to be prey) and when they hunt large game in cold climes. You gain a +1 insight bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls against creatures with the cold subtype.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your heart of fire increases your insight bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls against cold creatures by 1.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

A red glow suffuses your body, concentrated in your abdomen. Rather than a blazing red stone at your waist, your heart of fire is subsumed into your flesh, filling your body with its fiery fury.

Any creature striking you with a natural weapon or unarmed strike takes 1d6 points of fire damage per point of essentia you invest in your heart of fire.

Weapons striking you take the same damage, but most objects take only half damage from fire (divide the damage dealt by 2 before applying the weapon's hardness).

Creatures grappling you take this damage every round at the end of your turn, regardless of whether you succeed or fail on a grapple check to deal damage to them.

This damage does not stack with the fire damage provided by the heart of fire's totem chakra bind.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The heat of the blazing stone at your waist spreads through your body, lashing out through your attacks at any opponent you face. When you enter combat, your skin glows red with the fiery power coursing through your veins.

Your natural weapons or unarmed strikes deal an additional 1d4 points of fire damage per point of essentia you invest in your heart of fire.

Creatures grappling you take this damage every round at the end of your turn, regardless of whether you succeed or fail on a grapple check to deal damage to them.

HUNTER'S CIRCLET

Descriptors: None

Classes: Soulborn, totemist

Chakra: Crown (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a sky-blue headband that resembles a wreath of twining ivy.

Hunting is one of the primordial activities of the humanoid races, a sport of survival.

By calling upon the soul energy of mighty hunters past, present, and future, meldshapers hope to gain insight into their talents.

Your hunter's circlet grants you a +2 insight bonus on Heal and Survival checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your hunter's circlet increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

The sky-blue ivy of your hunter's circlet weaves into your hair, winding down to your shoulders.

You gain the benefit of the Track feat.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

There is no change to your own appearance or that of the circlet, but from your perspective, the world around you changes enormously.

It is suddenly alive with smells—from obvious, overpowering odors you noticed before but not in such richness of detail, to subtle scents unlike anything in your experience.

You channel beast energy to gain a limited version of the scent special quality.

You can detect opponents by sense of smell, noting their presence if they are within 15 feet (assuming you cannot discern their presence by other means).

You can note the direction of a creature's scent by taking a full-round action to sniff the air.

You also gain a +4 competence bonus on Survival checks to track a creature when you can bring your sense of smell to bear on the task.

ILLUSION VEIL

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Brow

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a wispy veil, which fades into invisibility when you wear it.

When you cast an illusion spell, tendrils of incarnum surround and merge with the illusory effect, making it more vibrant and believable.

A meldshaper can pull soul energy into his illusion spells, reinforcing the illusion with the memories of that which was once real.

Primarily used to increase the effectiveness of silent image and similar spells, some meldshaper/spellcasters use illusion veil to weave incarnum into shadow magic, such as shadow evocation.

While wearing the illusion veil, you can focus the energy of incarnum into visible and nearly tangible shapes.

These wisps of energy enhance your illusion spells, making them seem more real.

You gain a +1 insight bonus to the save DCs of your illusion spells and spell-like abilities.

Essentia: Whenever you cast an illusion spell or use an illusion-based spell-like ability, you add 1 round to the duration for every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld at the time of casting.

This has no effect on a spell with an instantaneous duration, such as a shadow evocation used to duplicate fireball.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

A dim blue glow emanates from your eyes.

A brief flash, visible only to you, scans across your field of vision periodically, outlining creatures and objects while heightening your awareness.

When your illusion veil is bound to your brow chakra, you can more easily perceive false reality.

You can see invisibility, as the spell.

You also gain an insight bonus on Spot checks and on saves against illusion spells equal to the number of points of essentia invested in your illusion veil.

IMPULSE BOOTS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Feet

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into boots that surround your feet (as well as any other footwear you might have) and reach up almost to your knees.

Midnight blue in color, the impulse boots seem to be made of smooth, supple leather.

You channel the spirits of rogues and scoundrels, barbarians, and all who think quickly on their feet, forming that elemental quality into boots that help you do the same. Your impulse boots grant you the ability to avoid dangerous effects.

While wearing this soulmeld, you gain the uncanny dodge ability (see page 50 of the Player's Handbook).

Essentia: You gain an enhancement bonus on Reflex saves equal to the number of points of essentia invested.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

Your impulse boots merge with your feet, and extend their midnight-blue color in tendrils reaching up your legs to your waist, like snaking veins just under your skin.

You gain the evasion ability (see page 50 of the Player's Handbook).

INCARNATE AVATAR

Descriptors: Chaotic, evil, good, or lawful

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Soul

Saving Throw: None

You gather incarnum around you to form a second body encasing your own, a physical form superimposed over your body, clothing, and armor.

In form, it resembles one of the most powerful champions of your alignment: a slaad, inevitable, angel, or yugoloth.

Its movements—even its facial expressions—are in perfect synchronization with your own, so that in every way you appear to be the imposing avatar of your alignment's ideals.

Incarnates channel soul energy that conforms to the ideals of their alignment, so in some ways this soulmeld exemplifies the nature of the incarnate class.

The incarnum used to shape an incarnate avatar comes from the outer-planar embodiments of the incarnate's alignment and takes their form.

In shaping this meld, incarnates hope to transcend their own mortal frames and attain the perfect embodiment of their alignment ideals represented by the avatar.

The appearance of your incarnate avatar depends on your alignment.

Chaos: Your incarnate avatar resembles a blue slaad.

The slaad form is hulking and brutish, with enormous claws and a toothy maw.

Evil: Your incarnate avatar has the form of a nycaloth: a four-armed, gargoylelike humanoid with green skin and (nonfunctional) batlike wings.

Good: Your incarnate avatar takes the form of an astral deva, with pearl-white skin and (nonfunctional) white-feathered wings.

Law: Your incarnate avatar resembles a marut, a powerful humanoid form with golden armor over an onyx body.

Unlike other soulmelds, the incarnate avatar provides no benefit without the investment of essentia.

Incarnate avatar is treated as a chaotic, evil, good, or lawful effect, based on your alignment.

Essentia: Investing essentia in your incarnate avatar gives you a specific benefit depending on your alignment.

Chaos: You gain a +1 insight bonus on ranged attack rolls for every point of essentia that you invest in this soulmeld.

Evil: You gain a +2 insight bonus on melee damage rolls for every point of essentia that you invest in this soulmeld.

Good: You gain a +1 insight bonus to your Armor Class for every point of essentia that you invest in this soulmeld.

Law: You gain a +1 insight bonus on melee attack rolls for every point of essentia that you invest in this soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Soul)

Your body transforms into the appearance of your incarnate avatar.

There is no longer any distinction between its hands and yours, its feet and yours, its heart and yours.

You are imbued with the purest essence of your alignment—it fills your soul and spurs you to action.

At the same time, it grants you greater power to help you live out your convictions.

You gain an ability based on your alignment.

Chaos: You gain an enhancement bonus of +30 feet to your base land speed.

Evil: You can fly at a speed of 30 feet (good maneuverability).

Good: You can fly at a speed of 30 feet (good maneuverability).

Law: You gain immunity to daze, paralysis, petrification, and stun, as well as to any magical effect that would slow you.

INCARNATE WEAPON

Descriptors: Chaotic, evil, good, or lawful

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Arms

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms into a one-handed melee weapon that embodies your alignment.

The weapon seems large for your hand, but it is balanced perfectly for you to wield it.

Clutching it in your hand, you feel it resonate with your deepest convictions and firmest beliefs, and it hums with power.

In the hands of an incarnate, alignment is literally a weapon.

The incarnate Phanallashtam the Lawbringer is remembered almost as much for the Sword of Law he used to smite the Chaos Dragon as for the legal code he introduced to the world at the birth of civilization.

Phanallashtam claimed that the two were one and the same: The Sword of Law was all law in metallic form, slicing through disorder with a sharp, clean cut.

You shape incarnum into a melee weapon (sized normally for you despite its overlarge appearance) that is particularly harmful to creatures of the opposing alignment.

Damage you deal with the weapon gains the alignment descriptor matching your devoted cause and penetrates damage reduction accordingly.

Chaotic incarnates create a battleaxe, evil incarnates create a flail, good incarnates create a warhammer, and lawful incarnates create a longsword.

Nonproficiency penalties never apply to the use of an incarnate weapon, though any feats with effects that apply to a particular kind of weapon (such as Weapon Focus) function normally.

Your incarnate weapon cannot be sundered or otherwise destroyed (except by effects that unshape soulmelds).

If your incarnate weapon leaves your hand for any reason, it returns to your grasp at the beginning of your next turn.

If that is impossible, it falls at your feet (but attempts to return again on your next turn).

Any other creature attempting to wield your incarnate weapon gains none of its special benefits (but can wield it as a normal weapon of that kind).

Incarnate weapon is treated as a chaotic, evil, good, or lawful effect, based on your alignment.

Essentia: The incarnate weapon gains an enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in it.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

Bands of steel form around your forearms.

When you hold your incarnate weapon, a chain of nearly invisible blue incarnum connects it to the steel bracer on your weapon hand, channeling the force of your conviction directly to your weapon.

As a move action, you can charge the incarnate weapon with the stunning power of pure conviction.

If the next melee attack that you make is successful, the target (as long as at least one component of its alignment is opposed to your devoted alignment) must succeed on a Fortitude saving throw or be stunned until the beginning of your next turn.

If the attack is unsuccessful, the charge is lost with no effect.

As long as you have the incarnate weapon soulmeld shaped, you can continue to charge the weapon with this stunning force, but the weapon can only ever hold one charge of this power at a time.

KEENEYE LENSES

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Brow or soul

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms a pair of transparent blue lenses that hover in front of your eyes.

As you peer through them, the world does not take on their blue color, but you find yourself more easily able to notice small details, even at long distances.

By shaping this soulmeld, you channel the soul energy of sharp-witted scouts and spies to improve your eyesight.

The contemporary incarnate N'doka the North Star is never seen without incarnate lenses shaped due to the number of attempts made on her life by doppelgangers and other shapechangers.

While you have keeneye lenses shaped, you gain a +4 insight bonus on Spot checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your keeneye lenses increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Instead of blue lenses hovering before you, the actual lenses of your eyes gain the blue tinge of incarnum.

To an outside observer, your eyes look like solid blue orbs, although some distinction between the blue “white”, the iris, and the pupil of your eyes is still noticeable.

To you, the world simply seems sharp and clear—even things that are invisible to unaided sight.

You gain the ability to see invisible creatures and objects normally (as if under the effect of a see invisibility spell).

Chakra Bind (Soul)

Neither your appearance nor that of your keeneye lenses changes at all, but the way you see the world changes dramatically.

It is as though you are seeing into a different layer of reality, piercing some veil of obscurity to see beyond mere appearances.

You see all things as they truly are, as if you were constantly under the effect of a true seeing spell.

KRAKEN MANTLE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Arms (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms into a mantle around your shoulders and torso, resembling the triangular mantle around a kraken's body.

It is smooth and sleek to the touch, and it lets you glide through water as if you were born to it.

An evil ruler of the aquatic depths, the kraken is, above all, a fast and competent swimmer.

Totemists revere the creature and claim its abilities to swim and breathe water, as well as the power of its many arms for grabbing and grappling.

A kraken mantle greatly enhances your ability to swim, giving you a +8 competence bonus on Swim checks.

With a successful Swim check, you can move at up to your speed (as a full-round action) or at one-half your speed (as a move action).

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your kraken mantle increases your effective speed for the purposes of swimming by 5 feet.

For example, if you have a base land speed of 30 feet and invest 4 points of essentia in your kraken mantle, you can swim 50 feet (30 + [4 × 5 feet]) as a full-round action or 25 feet as a move action.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

The smooth, sleek substance of your mantle spreads down to your upper arms, becoming one with your flesh.

Your arms themselves grow slightly more flexible, helping you gain purchase on a grappled foe.

They also gain a measure of constricting strength, helping you squeeze the life from your enemies just as the kraken does.

You gain a bonus on grapple checks equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in your kraken mantle.

In addition, with a successful grapple check, you deal 1d8 points of bludgeoning damage plus your Strength modifier (or 1d6 points if you are Small) to your opponent.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your eyes grow large, with enormous pupils ringed with red, resembling the staring eyes of a kraken.

You can breathe water or air equally well, as if you were constantly under the effect of a water breathing spell.

KRENSHAR MASK

Descriptors: Fear, mind-affecting, sonic

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Brow (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

You form incarnum into a snarling, bestial mask of exposed bone and muscle.

Its basic form is somewhere between that of a large cat and a wolf, but it lacks skin, showing sharp teeth, white bone, and pink-red muscles.

The krenshar is an embodiment of nightmare.

Totemists revere it as an agile hunter capable of making great leaps, stalking with stealth, and inspiring fear.

While wearing your krenshar mask, you gain a +4 competence bonus on Jump and Move Silently checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your krenshar mask increases your competence bonus on Jump and Move Silently checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your eyes stare forth from your krenshar mask, taking on a green-blue color.

The jaws of the mask move as you speak, its muscles flexing weirdly in full view—an intimidating effect, to say the least.

As a result of the mask's frightful appearance, you gain a competence bonus on Intimidate checks equal to the bonus the mask gives on Jump and Move Silently checks.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your face becomes one with your krenshar mask, so all its muscles move to match your expressions.

A ridge of skin around the edge of the mask quivers when you grow angry or enter combat, and a growling edge creeps into your voice.

You gain the ability to produce a loud screech (as a standard action) similar to that of a krenshar.

In combination with the frightening aspect of the mask, this shriek causes one creature within 30 feet of you to become frightened for 1 round if it fails a Will save.

(The creature must also be able to see you).

This is a sonic, mind-affecting fear effect.

KRUTHIK CLAWS

Descriptors: Acid

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Hands or shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms chitinous plates that hover over your shoulders and down your arms to your hands.

At the backs of your hands, these plates take on long, triangular shapes like the scythe-claws of a kruthik, though these blades extend only barely beyond your fingertips.

Kruthiks (described in the Miniatures Handbook) are vicious predators distinguished by their incredible agility.

Totemists shape this soulmeld to claim a portion of that agility, as well as the acidic secretions and acid resistance possessed by fully mature kruthiks.

With kruthik claws shaped, you gain a +4 competence bonus on Hide and Move Silently checks.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your kruthik claws, your competence bonus on Hide and Move Silently checks increases by 2.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

The chitinous blades merge into the backs of your hands and sprout numerous sharp spines near your wrists.

A sense of quickness dances in your fingers.

You gain the benefit of the Weapon Finesse feat when attacking with natural weapons.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Chitin plates fuse to your shoulders and grow thick and hard. Additional plates spread across your back, rising in a crest over your shoulders.

You gain resistance to acid 10.

Every point of essentia invested in your kruthik claws increases this resistance by 5 points.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Enormous, serrated, scythelike claws extend from your wrists to cover your hands.

Vicious spikes emerge from the base of these blades, and a bright blue acidic secretion lines the cutting edge.

You can use your two claws as natural weapons that deal 1d6 points of damage plus your Strength modifier.

For every point of essentia you invest in your kruthik claws, you deal an additional 1d4 points of acid damage with each claw attack.

While the claws are shaped, you can still use your hands as normal (to hold items, cast spells, and so on), although you cannot hold an item in your hand and attack with the claws at the same time.

LAMIA BELT

Descriptors: Evil

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Waist (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You form incarnum into a belt of golden-brown fur at your waist. If you touch it with your bare skin, you sometimes catch mental echoes of cruelty and anger.

When you enter combat, some part of your mind is less interested in defeating your opponents than in causing them pain.

Lamias are among the most humanlike of magical beasts, more similar to monstrous humanoids such as centaurs than to ankhegs or yrthaks.

They are also evil and cruel, and it is hard to shape a lamia belt without being tainted by that evil.

Totemists willing to take the risk hope to gain a lamia's gift for deception, as well as mimicking its four-legged form or its speed and agility in combat.

While you wear your lamia belt, you gain a +4 competence bonus on Bluff and Hide checks.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your lamia belt, your competence bonus on Bluff and Hide checks increases by 2.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

Instead of a physical belt of fur, your lamia belt manifests as fur sprouting from your skin, from your waist down to your knees.

Your legs also become slightly more muscular.

You gain an enhancement bonus of +10 feet to your land speed, and you gain the benefit of the Spring Attack feat.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The lower part of your body below your lamia belt takes on the shape of a lion, with four legs ending in sharp claws, a long, tufted tail, and coarse golden-brown fur.

The upper portion of your body is unchanged, though perhaps a spark of evil grows stronger in your heart.

Your leonine lower half is equipped with claws you can use as natural weapons.

You can make two claw attacks as natural secondary attacks after attacking with a weapon or another natural attack (such as a bite).

These attacks take a –5 penalty from your full base attack bonus and deal 1d4 points of damage.

LAMMASU MANTLE

Descriptors: Good

Classes: Incarnate, totemist

Chakra: Arms or shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

You form incarnum into a mantle of fur and feathers, shining golden brown around your shoulders and back.

The cloak hangs down to your knees in back and wraps comfortably around your body to close in the front, if you wish. It is quite warm in cold weather, but not too hot in warmer temperatures.

Wearing it makes you feel noble and righteous.

Lammasus are noble creatures, sometimes called the archons of the natural world.

Totemists of lawful good alignment hold them up as the ideal of perfection for magical beasts, to be emulated in every way possible.

By shaping this soulmeld, totemists hope to claim their righteous protection from the touch of evil creatures.

Your lammasu mantle protects you against the attacks of evil creatures.

You gain a +2 deflection bonus to your Armor Class against attacks made or effects created by evil creatures.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your lammasu mantle, you gain a +1 resistance bonus on saving throws against the spells and effects used by evil creatures.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

The golden-brown fur of your mantle spreads down to your upper arms.

At the same time, a palpable aura of goodness and power extends around you, cloaking your allies in the same protection the mantle gives you.

The deflection and resistance bonuses granted by the lammasu mantle apply to all allies within 10 feet of you.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Your lammasu mantle becomes one with your shoulders, and its feathers separate from its fur to form small, nonfunctional wings that spread behind you as if to ward off attackers.

No summoned creatures except those of good alignment can approach within 10 feet of you (as the magic circle against evil spell).

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The golden-brown fur around your shoulders extends upward into an impressive mane around your head.

There is a sensation in your mouth as if you were savoring a warm, sweet drink.

You can breathe a 15-foot cone of fire as a standard action.

Creatures within the area take 1d4 points of fire damage, plus 1d4 points of fire damage per point of invested essentia (Reflex half).

LANDSHARK BOOTS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Feet (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a pair of boots that resemble the heavy clawed feet of a bulette.

Leathery skin encases your legs up to your knees, and enormous claws extend from the front of your feet.

The bulette, also called the landshark, is closely associated with the earth in totemist traditions.

Totemists channel the spirit energy of the bulette to attain connection with the earth—borrowing a measure of its tremorsense or its ability to burrow through the earth—as well as to mimic its fearsome qualities as a voracious predator.

While wearing the landshark boots, you gain a +4 competence bonus on Jump checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in the landshark boots increases the competence bonus on Jump checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

The leathery skin of your landshark boots extends up to the middle of your thighs, and your legs thicken and grow stronger.

The boots transmit vibrations from the earth into your feet, allowing you to sense the movement of nearby creatures.

As long as you are touching the ground, you can take a move action to sense the number of creatures within 10 feet that are also touching the ground and the direction to each one.

You cannot pinpoint the location of any creature with this ability.

Every point of essentia you invest in your landshark boots extends the range of your limited tremorsense by 5 feet.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your hands as well as your feet gain the heavy claws of a bulette, including one prominent central claw and two smaller claws on the sides.

These massive claws emerge from the backs of your hands so you can bring them to bear while making a fist.

You can use the claws on your hands as natural weapons that deal 1d6 points of damage.

You cannot use a shield while these claws are in place.

For every point of essentia you invest in your landshark boots, you gain a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls with these claws.

If, as part of a move, you achieve a Jump check result good enough to make a 5-foot high jump while within reach of an opponent, you can attack that opponent with all four claws as a standard action.

You use the same attack bonus for all four attacks.

You cannot make any other attacks in the same round, whether from natural weapons or manufactured weapons.

The claws do not prevent you from using your hands normally or even binding another soulmeld to your hands chakra.

However, you cannot hold an item in your hand and attack with your claws at the same time.

LIFEBOND VESTMENTS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Arms or heart

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a fine, long-sleeved robe.

It is a solid color—silver if you are good, gray if you are evil, red if you are lawful, or green if you are chaotic—but raw incarnum dances like elegant embroidery at the ends of the sleeves and the hem by your feet.

If the soul is the animating force of a living creature, then incarnum might be seen as the essence of life itself.

Incarnates who shape lifebond vestments embrace that concept of incarnum and wield it as a healing power, similar to positive energy.

While wearing the lifebond vestments, you can channel your own life force to heal others.

By laying your hands upon a living creature (a standard action), you heal a chosen amount of damage in the touched creature up to a maximum of 1 hit point per meldshaper level.

At the same time, you take damage equal to one-half the amount healed (round fractions up).

You may not use this ability on any creature more than once per hour.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your lifebond vestments adds 5 hit points to the limit of healing you can bestow when using the vestments.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

The sleeves of your lifebond vestments clasp tightly around your wrists, bound there by glowing rings of blue incarnum. Every wave of your hands sends shimmering blue sparks into the air.

You can bestow healing upon a creature up to 30 feet away, instead of by touch.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

Additional embroidered designs, formed not of thread but of incarnum, appear down the front of your lifebond vestments, glowing brightly when you use the powers of the vestments but otherwise appearing simply decorative.

You can bestow healing at will on any given creature.

LIGHTNING GAUNTLETS

Descriptors: Electricity

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Hands

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms into a pair of metallic gloves that hover around your hands and any other gloves or gauntlets you wear.

Blue arcs of electricity crackle between the fingers and spark between the gloves when you bring your hands close to each other.

N!doka the North Star, a good incarnate of recent times, is said to have earned her sobriquet through the use of this soulmeld, creating such a bright flare of electrical power in a battle with a beholder that her allies were able to locate her by following the glow on the horizon.

While wearing lightning gauntlets, you can deal 1d6 points of electricity damage with a successful melee touch attack (a standard action).

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your lightning gauntlets increases the damage dealt by 1d6 points.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Your lightning gauntlets settle firmly around your hands.

When you grip a weapon, electricity courses up its length and crackles at its tip.

A lingering scent of ozone clings to you.

You can add the electricity damage dealt by lightning gauntlets to one attack per round made with a handheld weapon, unarmed strike, or any natural attack using your hands (such as a slam or claw), but this requires a normal melee attack rather than a touch attack.

You must announce that you are using the lightning gauntlets before making the attack; if you miss, you can't use them again until your next turn.

LUCKY DICE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Hands

Saving Throw: None

With a flick of your wrist, you send two cubes spinning out of your open palm.

With a flash, the dice disappear a moment after they stop rolling, and you sense that your luck is changing.

The dice are a metaphor, a physical representation of the forces of luck—good luck, in this case.

They draw upon favorable spirit energy to grant you a small boon.

You can use your lucky dice as a swift action, choosing an aspect of yourself to which to apply extra luck.

You gain a +1 luck bonus on one of the following, at your option: attack rolls and damage rolls, saving throws, or skill and ability checks.

This bonus lasts until the start of your next turn.

When using this meld, roll 2d6.

If the result is any combination of numbers that add up to 7, the luck bonus applies to all of the listed types of rolls.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in the lucky dice at the time you activate its special ability increases the duration of the luck bonus by 1 round.

Because lucky dice can be rolled every round, it's possible for the soulmeld to provide bonuses to more than one type of check during a given round.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Your comrades fight better when luck is on their side.

Your lucky dice provide their bonus to all allies who are within 30 feet of you when you gain the bonus.

MAGE'S SPECTACLES

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Brow

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into pair of blue-lensed spectacles.

While perched on your nose, these spectacles give you a peculiar visual acuity, heightening your sensitivity to arcane details while granting you insight into the meaning and significance behind those details.

With this soulmeld, you summon forth soul energy from generations of wizards to grant you powers of acuity and magical aptitude.

While you wear the mage's spectacles, you gain a +4 insight bonus on Decipher Script, Spellcraft, and Use Magic Device checks.

The mage's spectacles also allow you to make these checks untrained.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your mage's spectacles increases the insight bonus granted to the listed skill checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Instead of spectacles perched on your nose, your mage's spectacles manifest as a third eye embedded in your forehead, its iris a rich azure.

Through this eye, magical inscriptions open their secrets.

You can decipher magical inscriptions as if you were constantly under the effect of a read magic spell.

MANTICORE BELT

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Waist (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms a belt of spotted fur around your waist.

At your back, short spines emerge from the belt.

You note a marked increase in your appetite while you wear the belt.

Manticores are fierce hunters that possess a unique ranged attack.

Even totemists who do not share the manticore's evil bent shape this meld to gain a reliable way of attacking foes from a distance, not to mention the power of flight.

While wearing your manticore belt, you gain a +2 enhancement bonus on Jump and Spot checks.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your manticore belt, your enhancement bonus on Jump and Spot checks increases by 2.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

Your manticore belt sprouts a pair of large, draconic wings.

Though they are perched at your waist and flap awkwardly, these wings give you a reasonable ability of flight.

You can fly with clumsy maneuverability at a speed of 10 feet per point of essentia invested in your manticore belt.

You gain the Flyby Attack feat (see page 303 of the Monster Manual).

Chakra Bind (Totem)

A long, thick tail emerges from the back of your manticore belt, writhing and lashing at your command.

At its tip is a cluster of spikes.

Like a manticore, you can propel those spikes at your foes.

As a standard action, you can snap your tail to loose a volley of spikes equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in your manticore belt.

This attack has a range increment of 30 feet and a maximum range of 150 feet.

All targets must be within 30 feet of each other.

Make a ranged attack roll for each spike using your full base attack bonus.

A successful hit deals 1d6 points of damage plus one-half your Strength modifier.

MANTLE OF FLAME

Descriptors: Fire

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Shoulders

Saving Throw: See text

You shape incarnum into a cloak of wispy blue flame.

The cloak covers your arms and almost closes in front of you, where a band of fire crosses over your heart to connect the cloak's two edges.

The fire does not harm you, though it keeps you as warm and dry as any heavy cloak in cold or rainy weather.

A thirst for vengeance burns like fire in many souls, and a mantle of flame gives that metaphor literal truth: vengeance turned to flame.

While you wear your mantle of flame, any creature that strikes you with its body or a handheld weapon deals normal damage, but at the same time, the attacker takes 1d6 points of fire damage.

Creatures wielding weapons with exceptional reach, such as long spears, are not subject to this damage if they attack you.

The mantle of flame grants shadowy illumination in your space, but provides no further lighting.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your mantle of flame increases the damage dealt by 1d6 points.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Your mantle of flame burns particularly brightly around your shoulders, forming a high collar behind your head and neck.

As a standard action, you can briefly expand the mantle of flame to encompass all adjacent squares.

Any creatures in those squares take damage as if they had attacked you with a handheld weapon (Reflex half).

The mantle of flame then returns to its normal effect.

MAULING GAUNTLETS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Soulborn

Chakra: Arms or hands

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms gauntlets that surround your hands (including any gloves or gauntlets you already wear) and extend up your arms to your elbows.

The metal gleams a burnished blue.

Spikes and blades jut out in various places from these gauntlets, each one whispering an ancient battle cry in your mind.

Mauling gauntlets are said to channel the fierce power of warriors throughout history.

While wearing mauling gauntlets, you gain a +2 morale bonus on Strength checks (but not on Strength-based skill checks), such as those to break down doors or to bull rush an opponent.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your mauling gauntlets increases the morale bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

Your mauling gauntlets extend winding bands of blue steel up past your elbows, almost to your shoulders.

In places, these bands of metal seem fused with your skin.

Your mauling gauntlets double the critical threat range of any melee weapon you wield.

This does not stack with any other effect that increases a weapon's threat range, such as the Improved Critical feat or the keen weapon special quality.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Rather than actual gauntlets, this soulmeld transforms your hands into hard blue metal.

Whenever you bend your fingers, echoes of the battlefield flit through your mind, until they form a constant undertone of war chants and battle cries inspiring you to greater accomplishments in battle.

You gain a morale bonus on unarmed strike damage equal to the morale bonus on Strength checks granted by the mauling gauntlets.

You also gain the benefit of the Improved Unarmed Strike feat.

NECROCARNUM CIRCLET

Descriptors: Evil, necrocarnum

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Crown

Saving Throw: None

Necrocarnum bends itself into a matte black crown that seems to consume light.

The fractured remnants of souls broken by the power of necrocarnum float within this soulmeld.

These forms barely surface in this dark and foreboding crown, yet even the faintest glimpse is unsettling.
You form necrocarum into a dark cirlet that rests on your head like a crown.

The cirlet allows you to detect nearby undead, bolster their turn resistance, and even animate a necrocarum zombie.

While this soulmeld is shaped, you unerringly detect the presence and position of undead creatures within 30 feet. This ability functions like the blindsight ability, except that it detects only undead creatures.

Essentia: Undead within a 30-foot radius gain turn resistance equal to the number of points of essentia that you invest in the soulmeld.

If you animated the undead, the turn resistance is equal to double the number of points of invested essentia.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

A matching coil of necrocarum forms around the head of a corpse. Filled with the dark power of necrocarum, the corpse shambles to its feet, its flesh and mind overtaken by the curse of undeath.

A necrocarum zombie resembles a shambling corpse with black motes of light slowly swimming under its rotting skin.

When you shape this soulmeld and bind it to your crown chakra, you can cause it to animate a corpse within 30 feet as a necrocarum zombie (see page 186).

The affected creature's Hit Dice cannot exceed your meldshaper level.

This requires a full-round action and provokes attacks of opportunity; in addition, you take damage equal to the necrocarum zombie's Hit Dice, which may not be healed as long as the zombie remains animated.

As long as you have essentia invested in the soulmeld, the necrocarum zombie's essentia pool is increased by the same quantity.

The animated zombie can act immediately on your turn. You have complete control over the zombie as long as you maintain line of effect.

Should this line of effect be broken, the zombie acts on its own accord to carry out your last instructions.

You reestablish control as soon as you reestablish line of effect.

You can have only one necrocarum zombie animated at any given time.

Animating a second turns the original into an inert corpse. If this soulmeld is unshaped, any necrocarum zombie created by it returns to an inert corpse.

No creature can be affected by the necrocarum cirlet more than once.

NECROCARNUM MANTLE

Descriptors: Evil, necrocarum

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Throat

Saving Throw: None

A long cloak of shifting shadow drapes from your shoulders and down your back.

Faint forms seem to swim in the depths of this shadow, tortured and twisted shapes that once might have been human.

These apparitions writhe and buckle, wracked by incomprehensible agony.

Their tortured, elongated faces hold their gaping mouths open in soundless eternal screams.

You form a cloak of necrocarum that surrounds you with necromantic energy.

Meldshapers who take the time to explain their use of such evil energies declare that the cloak's protective qualities suggest that necrocarum is not a source of evil as others suggest, ignoring the fact that these protective qualities resemble and exemplify the traits of unlife.

While you have a necrocarum mantle shaped, you gain immunity to disease.

Shaping the mantle does not affect any disease that you might already have.

Essentia: As you invest essentia in the necrocarum mantle, necrocarum floods through your mind, granting you the ability to shake off mental effects.

For every point of essentia you invest in your necrocarum mantle, you gain a +1 profane bonus on saving throws against mind-affecting effects.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

The shadowy mantle clings tightly to your throat, drawing your features further into darkness.

At the same time, the shadows of the cloak seem longer, spreading over a wider area and shifting at the touch of some foul, unseen breeze.

As long as the necrocarum mantle is bound to your throat chakra, you gain immunity to poison.

NECROCARNUM SHROUD

Descriptors: Evil, necrocarum

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Soul or waist

Saving Throw: See text

A deadening field of necrocarum radiates from you, filling the air around you with faint, shadowy tendrils.

You force necrocarum to shape a life-draining field around you.

While you have the necrocarum shroud shaped, you gain a +1 profane bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls any time a living creature takes damage while adjacent to you.

This bonus lasts for 1 round.

If a living creature dies while adjacent to you, the bonus instead lasts for a number of rounds equal to the creature's Hit Dice.

Essentia: If you invest essentia in the necrocarum shroud, the area encompassed by the life-draining field expands.

Any living creature who takes damage (or dies) within 5 feet plus 5 feet per point of essentia invested triggers the bonus.

(For example, if you've invested 2 points of essentia, you would gain the bonus for any living creature taking damage or dying within 15 feet of you).

Chakra Bind (Soul)

Necrocarum laces through your very being, turning your skin a light-eating matte black.

Even more unsettling than your skin color, your eyes turn a deep and lusterless black as well, devoid of iris, pupil, or white.

While you have necrocarum shroud bound to your soul chakra, you can take a standard action to strike a living foe with the raw evil of necrocarum.

When you use this ability, you must make a successful melee touch attack against the intended victim.

If successful, your touch bestows 1d4 negative levels on the target (Fortitude half).

For each negative level bestowed, you gain 1 temporary point of essentia and 5 temporary hit points. The temporary essentia lasts until the end of your next turn.

The temporary hit points fade after 1 hour.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

The shadowy tendrils of necrocarnum that surround you seem to reach out toward nearby creatures.

These faint touches of necrocarnum instill terror into many creatures, affecting their ability to fight.

At the beginning of your turn, any creature within the area of your life-draining field becomes shaken for 1 round (Will negates).

NECROCARNUM TOUCH

Descriptors: Evil, necrocarnum

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Arms

Saving Throw: See text

Jet black shadows wreath your hands and forearms, coiling and twisting with a life of their own.

These insubstantial coils of energy hint at evil and agony, seeming to draw light and hope out of the surrounding area.

You call upon dark powers to twist and torture the soul energy that is incarnum.

The result, a cloying, sickly energy of great evil, twines itself around your hands and arms, allowing you to disguise some of your movements, draw the life force directly from living creatures, or even fill the air with bolts of pure necrocarnum.

The coiling energy makes the movements of your hands and arms hard to follow.

While you have necrocarnum touch shaped, you gain a +4 profane bonus on Sleight of Hand checks (as well as the ability to use the skill untrained) and on Bluff checks made to feint in combat.

Essentia: Whenever you invest essentia in necrocarnum touch, you can use the dark energy to inflict damage on living creatures.

You can make a melee touch attack as a standard action.

This attack deals 1d8 points of damage for every point of essentia that you invest in the soulmeld, but only on living creatures (Fortitude half).

Chakra Bind (Arms)

The shadowy strands of evil that twine about your hands and arms elongate, trailing tendrils of shadow into the area immediately around you.

When you clench your fists, this shadow gathers, and you can release this energy in dark bolts of necrocarnum.

While necrocarnum touch is bound to your arms chakra, you can fire a ray of pure necrocarnum as a standard action.

This ray requires a ranged touch attack to hit and has a range of 30 feet.

If it strikes a living creature, it deals 1d8 points of damage for every point of essentia that you invest in the soulmeld (Fortitude half).

NECROCARNUM VESTMENTS

Descriptors: Evil, necrocarnum

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Heart or waist

Saving Throw: See text

Necrocarnum twists and writhes into the shape of long, flowing vestments.

These vestments cling tightly to your shoulders, but drape loosely over the rest of your body, obscuring other garments behind an ever-shifting screen of terror.

As with all necrocarnum melds, faint forms seem to swim in the depths of this shadowy vestment.

These tortured apparitions seem wracked by incomprehensible agony, their elongated faces wrenched open in eternal screams.

Necrocarnum vestments bind necrocarnum into a shadowy robe.

This strange soulmeld deadens both flesh and spirit, granting you a resistance to cold as well as an unholy ability to withstand physical blows.

When bound closer to your spirit, the vestments can shed a radius of killing frost or even shield you from deadly necromantic effects.

When you have necrocarnum vestments shaped, you gain resistance to cold 5 as the energies of necrocarnum deaden your flesh to the effects of cold.

Essentia: For every point of essentia invested in the necrocarnum vestments, you gain 3 bonus hit points.

These are not temporary hit points and are not depleted first as are temporary hit points.

You can render yourself staggered, unconscious, or even dead by changing the quantity of essentia invested in this soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

Black necrocarnum energy coalesces around your heart.

This effect is usually covered by clothing or armor, but anyone viewing the skin of your chest sees coils of dark energy swirling beneath the surface, as if your skin were a portal to a forgotten maelstrom of evil.

When you have necrocarnum vestments bound to your heart chakra, you are immune to stunning and death effects.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

Necrocarnum binds to your flesh, sheathing you in a sinister web of energy.

The necrocarnum pulses with the chill touch of pure evil, spreading a deadening cold to nearby creatures.

When you have necrocarnum vestments bound to your waist chakra, any living creature adjacent to you at the end of your turn takes 1d6 points of cold damage (Fortitude negates).

NECROCARNUM WEAPON

Descriptors: Evil, necrocarnum

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Hands

Saving Throw: None

Shadowy threads of necrocarnum bind to your melee weapon.

This dark energy seems to ripple beneath the surface of the weapon, pulsing irregularly from your hands to the tip of the weapon and back again.

You bind the taint of necrocarnum to a melee weapon.

The energies enable you to penetrate the damage of some good-aligned creatures, deal extra damage with the weapon, and even strike directly at the soul energy of those you hit.

When you shape this soulmeld, choose a melee weapon that you hold.

As long as the soulmeld is shaped, the weapon bypasses damage reduction as if it were evil-aligned.

The soulmeld remains shaped if you put the weapon down or if another creature wields it, but other creatures do not benefit from any of the soulmeld's effects, including the benefits of essentia investment or binding it to a chakra. The weapon suffers no ill effects from shaping or unshaping the soulmeld.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your necrocarnum weapon, you gain a +1 profane bonus on damage rolls and on attack rolls made to confirm a critical threat.

Both of these bonuses apply only when the weapon is used against a living creature.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

When you strike a living creature in a particularly vulnerable area, necrocarnum floods from your weapon into the victim.

At the same time, pure blue soul energy, incarnum unsullied by the taint of necrocarnum, flows into you, granting you a temporary increase in power.

When you have a necrocarnum weapon soulmeld bound to your hands chakra and you successfully make a critical hit with the weapon on a living creature, you gain temporary essentia equal to the number of points of essentia invested in this soulmeld.

You can use this essentia normally, but it fades after 10 rounds.

(Multiple uses of this ability don't stack).

This ability works normally for critical hits delivered when making a coup de grace attack.

PAULDRONS OF HEALTH

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Shoulders

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum shapes heavy plates of armor that hover above your shoulders.

They seem formed of pearly white alabaster except for a thin band of runic carvings etched in midnight blue.

The essential nature of incarnum is to provide life and health to mortal bodies, since it is made of the energy of souls.

Pauldrons of health distill that quality to ward you against effects targeting your vitality or health.

While wearing pauldrons of health, you are immune to disease, as well as being sickened or nauseated (as the conditions in the Dungeon Master's Guide).

Essentia: You gain an enhancement bonus on Fortitude saves equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in your pauldrons of health.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Settled directly on your shoulders, your incarnate pauldrons glow with a faint but vibrant silver-blue energy.

In the immediate presence of the undead, they glow a little brighter, and if you are subjected to an energy drain attack, they momentarily flare to brilliant intensity as the attack dissipates.

You gain immunity to energy drain.

PEGASUS CLOAK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape an elegant cloak, seemingly made of feathers and pure radiance.

A thing of great beauty and delicacy, it evokes thoughts of a pair of beautiful white wings.

Majestic horses of the skies, pegasi are naturally associated with the air and with flight.

Totemists shape this soulmeld to claim their mastery of the air, and eventually to gain true flight.

While wearing the pegasus cloak, you gain the effect of a feather fall spell at all times.

You also gain a +2 enhancement bonus on Jump checks, since the winglike cloak provides a slight boost to your leaps.

Essentia: Your enhancement bonus on Jump checks increases by 2 for every point of essentia you invest in your pegasus cloak.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Even as your shoulders take on the cloudy white color of a pegasus' coat, your pegasus cloak forms into two distinct wings that you can use to achieve true flight.

You can extend the feathers of the cloak to form a great pair of birdlike wings.

This allows you to fly (average maneuverability) at a speed of 10 feet per point of essentia you invest in your pegasus cloak.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Even as the feathers of your pegasus cloak extend up the back of your neck and head to suggest a white, feathery mane, the cloak itself forms into two distinct wings that you can use to achieve limited flight.

You can extend the feathers of the cloak to form a great pair of birdlike wings, allowing limited flight capability.

This grants you the ability to fly (average maneuverability) a short distance as a move action.

You can fly up to 10 feet per point of essentia you invest in your pegasus cloak, though you must begin and end each such move on a solid surface or you'll fall.

PHASE CLOAK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

You form incarnum into a gray and white cloak with mottled blue markings that seems to shift and flow over your back like liquid.

Phase spiders are magical beasts that resemble spiders, and they represent all of spiderkind in totemist thinking.

They are associated with mobility of all sorts, from their ability to climb walls to their ethereal phasing power.

You gain a +4 competence bonus on Climb checks.

In addition, you can always choose to take 10 on a Climb check, even if rushed or threatened, and you retain your Dexterity bonus to Armor Class while climbing.

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your phase cloak, your competence bonus on Climb checks increases by 2.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Your phase cloak becomes even more like a silvery gray liquid, seeming to flow like a gentle stream even when completely motionless.

Its mottled blue markings also extend to the skin of your shoulders and upper torso.

When you use a move action to move at least 5 feet, you can become ethereal during the movement.

Among other effects, this means that you can cross difficult terrain without penalty and even pass through walls.

While moving, you are not subject to attacks of opportunity except from creatures that can see into the Ethereal Plane and affect ethereal creatures.

However, you become material after each move.

Thus, if you perform a double move, you must end your first move in a space where you can return to the Material Plane before becoming ethereal again for the second part of your move.

If you are within a solid object when your etherealness ends, you are immediately shunted to the nearest open space, taking 1d6 points of damage per 5 feet that you so travel.

While using this ability, you are subject to possible attack by creatures on the Ethereal Plane.

As a general guideline, the DM should roll once on the Ethereal Plane Encounters table (page 152 of the Dungeon Master's Guide) for each encounter during which you use this ability, with a result of 01–80 indicating that no danger lurks on the Ethereal Plane in that location.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

A terrible spidery head extends like a hood from your phase cloak, covering your face.

Eight silver-white eyes set in dark blue chitin cover your own eyes, and a huge pair of fangs dripping poison covers your mouth.

You gain a bite attack that deals 1d4 points of damage and injects a mild poison (Fortitude negates, initial damage 1d3 Con, secondary damage none).

You can use this bite either as a primary attack (in which case it uses your full base attack bonus and adds your Strength bonus on damage rolls) or as a secondary attack (with a –5 penalty on the attack roll and applying only half your Strength bonus on your damage roll).

Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld grants a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls made with the bite attack.

PHOENIX BELT

Descriptors: Fire

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Waist (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

You shape a belt made of feathers the color of flame—various reds, oranges, and yellows.

The feathers seem to shift in color, pulsing softly, like the embers of a dying fire.

Totemists revere phoenixes as divine creatures or at least the messengers of the gods, and in channeling their power for soulmelds they hope to lay claim to power that is nearly divine.

Phoenixes are primarily associated with fire, but their effective immortality gives them associations with protection and rebirth as well.

This soulmeld is most popular among totemists native to hot desert and jungle lands.

Your phoenix belt protects you from harm in hot environments.

You can exist comfortably in conditions between 40 and 140° Fahrenheit without having to make Fortitude saves. Your equipment is likewise protected.

The phoenix is a magical beast detailed in Monster Manual II.

Essentia: If you invest essentia in your phoenix belt, it also protects you from fire damage.

You gain resistance to fire equal to 5 times the number of points of essentia you invest in this soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

You have a very palpable sense of fire burning within you, but in a pleasant, comforting way, much like a heated stone warming a cold bed at night.

When subjected to fire damage, the feathers of your phoenix belt flare up briefly, as coals fanned by a breeze.

You can turn fire damage into fast healing.

Whenever your resistance to fire (whether from this soulmeld or another source) reduces the damage dealt to you by a fire-based attack, you gain fast healing 1 for a number of rounds equal to the amount of damage negated by your resistance.

For example, if you were hit with a fireball for 22 points of damage and had resistance to fire 10, you would gain fast healing 1 for 10 rounds (since your resistance negated 10 points of damage).

If instead you were hit with burning hands for 6 points of damage, you would gain fast healing 1 for only 6 rounds (since your resistance negated only 6 points of damage).

The fast healing granted by this chakra bind doesn't stack with itself (or with any other kind of fast healing).

If this chakra bind would grant you fast healing from a second source of fire damage, use only the longer remaining duration.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Now it is no longer just the feathers in your phoenix belt that seem to glow like hot coals, but your eyes and, to an extent, your skin as well.

Your eyes burn red, and your skin gives off a soft heat like a warm hearth.

With a moment's concentrated effort, however, that fire can be made real around you, and quite painful to those who threaten you.

As a standard action, you can create a momentary ring of fire that surrounds you.

Creatures adjacent to you take 1d6 points of fire damage per point of essentia you invest in your phoenix belt.

A successful Reflex save reduces this damage by half.

PLANAR CHASUBLE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Brow or soul

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms an ornate vestment draped over your shoulders, covering any other clothing, armor, or vestments you are wearing. The chasuble is little more than a large circle with a hole in the center for your head, but raw incarnum is woven like blue thread into intricate patterns down its front.

The planar chasuble binds the raw material of another plane to the garment and infuses it with power.

When you wear the chasuble, you are considered a native on any plane with an alignment trait matching your chosen alignment (and gain the extraplanar subtype while on the Material Plane).

While on such a plane, you ignore the effect of any alignment traits of the plane (see page 149 of the Dungeon Master's Guide).

For example, a lawful incarnate who shapes this soulmeld would be considered native to any plane with the lawful trait, including the Seven Mounting Heavens of Celestia and the Nine Hells of Baator.

You also gain resistance 10 to a specific energy type, based on your alignment.

Chaotic incarnates gain resistance to electricity 10, evil incarnates gain resistance to acid 10, good incarnates gain resistance to cold 10, and lawful incarnates gain resistance to fire 10.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in your planar chasuble increases the resistance to the specified energy type by 5 points.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

When you activate your incarnum radiance, the glow surrounding you also courses through the incarnum threads in your planar chasuble.

The bonus granted by your incarnum radiance class feature increases by 1.

Chakra Bind (Soul)

The embroidered patterns formed by raw incarnum in the front of your planar chasuble constantly shift and seem to depict living scenes from planes beyond the material world.

Once per week you can open a gate, as the spell, to any plane with an alignment trait matching your chosen alignment.

Each gate you open costs 1,000 XP if you use the “calling creatures” function.

PLANAR WARD

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Throat

Saving Throw: See text

You shape incarnum into an amulet bound tight to your throat by a slender blue chain.

*The amulet itself resembles a large blue sapphire carved into the shape of a scarab beetle holding a solar disk between its front legs. The planar ward soulmeld duplicates some of the effects of spells such as protection from evil and dismissal, but incarnates through the ages have argued that the soulmeld is actually the earlier form of this warding magic.*

In fact, some have argued that planar ward was the first soulmeld ever shaped, long before the principles of incarnum were fully understood, as the ancestors of the humanoid races sought protection from forces greater than themselves.

Your planar ward protects you from mental control.

It blocks any attempt to possess you (by a magic jar attack, for example) or exercise mental control over you, including enchantment (charm) effects and enchantment (compulsion) effects that grant the caster ongoing control over you.

The protection does not prevent such effects from targeting you, but it suppresses the effect for the duration of the planar ward's effect.

If you were to unshape your planar ward while the effect granting mental control continued, the would-be controller would then be able to mentally command you.

Likewise, the planar ward keeps out a possessing life force but does not expel one if it is in place before the soulmeld is shaped.

Essentia: The planar ward provides a morale bonus on saves made to resist the supernatural or spell-like abilities of extraplanar creatures.

The bonus is equal to the number of points of essentia invested in the soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

Your planar ward takes the form of a glowing blue orb embedded in the base of your throat.

When an extraplanar creature strikes you, the orb flares with blue light, enveloping the attacker for an instant.

You can drive an extraplanar creature back to its home plane.

Whenever you are struck by an extraplanar creature, the attacking creature must succeed on a Will save or be driven back to its home plane.

The creature adds its Hit Dice as a bonus on its saving throw, and you add your meldshaper level to the planar ward's save DC.

A successful save renders the creature immune to this effect for 24 hours.

RAGECLAWS

Descriptors: Mind-affecting

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Hands (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You form incarnum into a pair of furred gloves tipped with short claws.

These gloves fit over your hands as well as any other gloves or gauntlets you might wear.

When you clench your hands into fists, you can feel a surge of anger and determination well up inside you.

The rageclaws soulmeld makes no attempt to channel soul energy from any particular kind of magical beast.

Rather, it taps into the primal rage and survival instinct shared by all creatures of that type, a powerful will to survive and prevail.

Totemists typically shape this meld when they expect to face overwhelming odds, but some totemists shape it simply to gain courage and fury in battle.

While you wear your rageclaws, you can continue to fight without penalty if you are disabled or dying.

When reduced to 0 hit points, you can act as if you weren't disabled (that is, you ignore the normal restriction to only a single move or standard action per turn).

You do not lose 1 hit point for performing a standard or otherwise strenuous action while at 0 hit points.

When reduced to -1 to -9 hit points, you do not fall unconscious.

You do not automatically lose 1 hit point each round when at -1 to -9 hit points.

When your current hit points drop to -10 or lower, you immediately die.

Essentia: Investing essentia in rageclaws increases the range of negative hit points at which you can continue functioning.

Every point of essentia invested effectively reduces the point at which you die by 3 (such as from -10 to -13).

You can continue to fight without penalty until you reach that hit point total.

If your essentia investment in this soulmeld is reduced (whether voluntarily or involuntarily) and your current hit point total is at or below the point at which you would die, you immediately die.

For example, if you are currently at -16 hit points and reduce your essentia investment from 3 points to 2 points, you would die (since your new point of death would be -16).

Chakra Bind (Hands)

The fur of your rageclaws merges into your hands, and your fingers become tipped with small, dark claws instead of nails.

Each blow that lands on your body causes a blood rage to swell up in you, building until you are near death and then erupting in desperate fury.

While your hit point total is below 0, you gain a +2 morale bonus on melee attack rolls, melee weapon damage rolls, and Fortitude saves.

Though similar in some ways to a barbarian's rage, this state applies no restriction on what actions you can take.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The fur of your rageclaws merges into your hands, and your fingers become tipped with long, sharp claws you can use to tear the flesh of your foes.

You can use your rageclaws as a pair of natural weapons that deal 1d6 points of damage plus your Strength modifier.

When you grapple an opponent, you can attack with both claws; these attacks are not subject to the usual -4 penalty for attacking with a natural weapon in a grapple.

While the rageclaws are shaped, you can still use your hands as normal (to hold items, cast spells, and so on), although you cannot hold an item in your hand and attack with the claws at the same time.

You gain a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls with your claws for every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld.

RIDING BRACERS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn, totemist

Chakra: Arms (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You form incarnum into a pair of hard leather bracers that encircle your wrists.

They smell noticeably of horse and hay.

Humanoids have ridden horses into battle for ages, and by channeling the soul energy of these mounted warriors—and their steeds—you increase your own skill at mounted combat.

Wearing the riding bracers grants you a +4 insight bonus on Handle Animal and Ride checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in the riding bracers increases the insight bonus on Handle Animal and Ride checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

Your riding bracers clench tight around your wrists.

When you mount a steed, your bracers almost seem to guide your hands on the reins.

When you draw a weapon while mounted, you, your mount, and your weapon all seem to move in a coordinated, deadly dance.

When mounted, you gain a +2 insight bonus on melee damage rolls and a +2 dodge bonus to Armor Class.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

There is no change in the appearance of your riding bracers, but when you mount a steed, you feel a close connection with the animal.

It almost seems to respond to your mental commands as much as to your hands on the reins.

If you are riding an animal, or a magical beast with an Intelligence score of 1 or 2, you can handle the creature as a free action or push it as a move action, even if you don't have any ranks in the Handle Animal skill.

In addition, your mount gains evasion, as the rogue class feature described on page 50 of the Player's Handbook.

SAILOR'S BRACERS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Arms

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms a pair of leather bands surrounding your wrists (and any other bracers or bracelets you might wear).

When you are still and your eyes are closed, you feel a gentle rocking as if you were aboard a ship on a calm sea.

You call upon the talents of generations of seafaring men and women to increase your proficiency at the work of sailing.

Shaping sailor's bracers makes the sea your home.

While you wear your sailor's bracers, you gain a +4 insight bonus on Swim, Profession (sailor), and Use Rope checks.

This soulmeld also lets you make Profession (sailor) checks untrained.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your sailor's bracers increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

Instead of plain leather, your sailor's bracers seem formed of fish scales—and indeed, large fins sprout from their sides to help you swim.

You can swim at up to your speed (as a full-round action) or up to half your speed (as a move action).

You take no penalty on attack rolls made underwater (as if you had freedom of movement).

SHADOW MANTLE

Descriptors: Darkness

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms a rough cloak of stony gray around your shoulders and back.

As you move, the cloak writhes behind you, suggesting the movement of tentacles.

It seems to collect shadow, always appearing darker than the surrounding area.

The darkmantle is hardly the most fearsome of magical beasts, but its association with darkness and perception makes the soulmeld that channels its energy a powerful one.

Totemists in subterranean cultures are particularly partial to the shadow mantle soulmeld.

Channeling the merest suggestion of a darkmantle's powerful blindsight, you gain a +4 competence bonus on Listen checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your shadow mantle increases the competence bonus on Listen checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

The shadows of your mantle deepen, and its coloration grows darker.

Blackness seems to cling in every fold and sometimes trail off in wisps from the mantle's substance.

You start to hear sounds too high for most humans to detect, and occasionally sounds too low, as well.

As a swift action, you can surround yourself with a globe of magical darkness to a radius of 5 feet per point of invested essentia.

You also gain blindsight with the same radius.

Thus, you are completely aware of all creatures within the radius of darkness, but you are invisible to them unless they have some way of piercing magical darkness.

On the other hand, creatures beyond the radius of your darkness are invisible to you, but they can guess your location within the darkness.

If you enter a zone of magical silence, your blindsight no longer functions.

You can end the darkness effect as a swift action; ending the darkness effect also ends your blindsight.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your shadow mantle literally draws shadows to itself, and it changes color to match your surroundings.

You find it much easier to hide from view by drawing the cloak around your body and ducking your head into its membranous collar.

You gain a competence bonus on Hide checks equal to the bonus the soulmeld grants on Listen checks (+4 plus an additional +2 per point of invested essentia).

SHEDU CROWN

Descriptors: Good, mind-affecting

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Crown or heart (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Glowing argent incarnum forms a shining crown that hovers slightly above your head.

Its presence lends a regal air to your bearing, and you feel yourself become more calm, more dignified, and more stable—emotionally and even physically grounded.

A shedu (described in the Fiend Folio) is a noble beast related to the lammasu, distinguished by the crown it wears.

With a human head atop the body of a five-legged bull, a shedu possesses a physical stability that reflects its moral purity and mental stamina as well.

You are immune to being pushed back as the result of a bull rush, including the effects of spells such as Bigby's forceful hand and telekinesis (when used to perform a bull rush).

Essentia: You gain a competence bonus on saving throws against mind-affecting spells and effects equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in your sheddu crown.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

Your sheddu crown settles firmly on your head, but its appearance is otherwise unchanged.

You can communicate telepathically with any creature within 100 feet that has a language.

It is possible to address multiple creatures at once telepathically, although maintaining a telepathic conversation with more than one creature at a time is just as difficult as simultaneously speaking and listening to multiple people at the same time.

This is a mind-affecting effect.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

The appearance of your sheddu crown is unchanged, but when you use the power of this chakra bind, it briefly flares with brilliant silver light.

You can shift from the Material Plane to the Ethereal Plane as a standard action and return to the Material Plane as a free action.

Each day, you can spend a total number of rounds on the Ethereal Plane equal to your meldshaper level (each use counts as a minimum of 1 round).

This ability otherwise functions as the ethereal jaunt spell.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your hair grows into a bushy mane beneath your crown.

If you are male, your beard likewise grows.

Your body looks and feels more solid and strong.

You gain the ability to make a trample attack.

As a full-round action, you can move up to twice your speed and literally run over any creature equal to your own size or smaller.

You merely have to move over the opponents in your path; any creature whose space is completely covered by your space is subject to the trample attack.

If a target's space is larger than 5 feet, it is considered trampled only if you move over all the squares it occupies. Your trample attack deals 1d8 points of bludgeoning damage (or 1d6 points if you are Small) plus 1-1/2 times your Strength modifier.

If you are larger than Medium or smaller than Small, the damage scales up or down accordingly (see page 114 of the Player's Handbook).

Trampled opponents can attempt attacks of opportunity, but these take a -4 penalty.

(Opponents whose space is larger than 5 feet and whom you do not trample can also take attacks of opportunity at the same penalty).

An opponent can also give up its attack of opportunity and instead attempt a Reflex save to take half damage from your trample.

You can deal trampling damage to each target only once per round, no matter how many times your movement takes you over a target creature.

SIGHTING GLOVES

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Hands

Saving Throw: None

Turquoise incarnum energy briefly forms a sheath around your hands before merging with your flesh.

The energy steadies your hands so that when you launch an arrow or throw a weapon, it flies true, leaving blue-green sparks in its wake.

You form incarnum into gloves of energy, which are absorbed into your skin after you fit them around your hands.

The soulmeld draws upon the soul energy of legendary archers, improving your aim while giving you insightful hints regarding the best time to release an arrow, fire a bolt, or throw an axe.

You gain a +1 insight bonus on damage rolls made with ranged weapons.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in sighting gloves increases the insight bonus by 1.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Your grip on your ranged weapon is as light as can be, requiring only the slightest motion to release your arrow, pull the trigger of your crossbow, or deliver your throw.

When you bind sighting gloves to your hands chakra, you can shoot or throw at an opponent engaged in melee without taking the standard -4 penalty on your attack roll, as if you had the Precise Shot feat.

SILVERTONGUE MASK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Brow or throat

Saving Throw: See text

A plain silver mask conceals your lower face while exposing your eyes.

The mask is initially featureless, with a simple horizontal slot at your mouth, but subtle images shift across its surface as you interact with others.

Silvertongue masks were used by some of the first incarnates to gain the favor of neighboring tribes and nations by providing familiar and comforting images to accompany diplomatic pleas.

The soulmeld draws on the souls of quick-witted and slick-tongued heroes, helping to guide the meldshaper in beguilement or negotiation.

You shape incarnum into a silver-blue mask that you wear over your face.

Your silvertongue mask grants you a +2 insight bonus on Bluff and Diplomacy checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your silvertongue mask increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Blue crystalline lenses grow out from the mask, covering your eyes. These lenses enhance your sensitivity to body language and mannerisms.

You gain an insight bonus on Sense Motive checks equal to the bonus granted on Bluff and Diplomacy checks by the mask.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

The silver mask melds into your face and neck, from your cheekbones down to your collar, as if your skin were turned to silver.

When you attempt to compel a creature, that creature sees a face that is recognizable, but not quite familiar.

When bound to the throat chakra, the silvertongue mask allows you to make a suggestion (as the spell) to any creature as a standard action.

A successful Will save negates this effect.

A creature targeted by this ability, regardless of whether or not it succeeds on its save, can't be targeted again by the same ability for 24 hours.

This is a mind-affecting, language-dependent effect.

SOULSPARK FAMILIAR

Descriptors: Alignment

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Brow, crown, or throat

Saving Throw: None

A spark of light hovers over your shoulder.

While featureless, it seems to emote using its own brilliance, ranging from an angry burn to a contented glow.

Soulspark familiars are nearly constant companions of some meldshapers, filling the role of a loyal defender, a confidant, a guard, or sometimes simply a light to show the way.

You shape a small mote of soul energy called a least soulspark, which accompanies you and can attack your foes at your direction.

The presence of the soulspark grants you the Alertness feat. The soulspark follows you, typically hovering near your shoulder.

If the soulspark is more than 10 feet from you at the end of its turn, it unshapes.

You can communicate empathically with the soulspark, and directing it to attack a creature is a free action.

A soulspark familiar whose creator is incapable of issuing new directions follows its last command as long as it is able, after which it returns to hover over its creator.

If the soulspark is reduced to 0 or fewer hit points, the meld unshapes.

The least soulspark is a new creature detailed on page 197.

A soulspark formed by this soulmeld does not have the incarnum shroud ability normally possessed by such creatures, nor does it have an essentia pool.

Essentia: When you allocate essentia to your soulspark familiar, you can select one of the following effects.

All essentia invested must be put toward the same effect.

Align Attack: The first point of essentia invested makes the soulspark's attack good, evil, lawful, or chaotic, as you choose, allowing it to bypass the damage reduction of certain creatures, usually outsiders of the opposite alignment.

Every point beyond the first grants the soulspark a +1 bonus on damage against any creature of the opposing alignment.

Attack Bonus: Every point of essentia grants the soulspark a +1 bonus on its attack rolls and damage rolls.

Deflection Bonus: Every point of essentia grants the soulspark a +1 deflection bonus to Armor Class.

Healing: Every point of essentia invested grants the soulspark a certain amount of fast healing.

A least soulspark gains fast healing equal to 1 × the points of essentia invested, a lesser soulspark gains fast healing equal to 2 × the points of essentia invested, a standard soulspark gains fast healing equal to 3 × the points of essentia invested, and a greater soulspark gains fast healing equal to 4 × the points of essentia invested.

Saving Throw Bonus: Every point of essentia grants the soulspark a +1 resistance bonus on all saving throws.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your soulspark shimmers like the desert sky.

If you bind soulspark familiar to your brow chakra, you create a standard soulspark.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

Your soulspark glows sapphire blue, like a brilliant gemstone.

If you bind soulspark familiar to your crown chakra, you create a lesser soulspark.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

Your soulspark burns with a fierce blue-white light.

If you bind soulspark familiar to your throat chakra, you create a greater soulspark.

SOULSPEAKER CIRCLET

Descriptors: None

Classes: Soulborn

Chakra: Crown or throat

Saving Throw: None

A light blue circlet sits atop your head, with serrated points above each of your ears.

A faint voice whispers in your mind, translating the words that you hear.

This soulmeld draws on the linguistic talents of creatures living and dead to translate an unfamiliar language.

Choose a language when you shape your soulspeaker circlet.

While the soulmeld is shaped, you can understand the spoken forms of that language.

This does not provide you the ability to speak, read, or write that language.

Essentia: For every point of essentia invested in soulspeaker circlet, you can select an additional language that you understand.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

The circlet merges with your flesh, remaining visible as a band of blue across your forehead, similar to a tattoo.

The whispers in your mind now translate your own thoughts, telling you the words you must speak to be understood.

The soulspeaker circlet grants you the ability to speak those languages for which it grants understanding.

You still cannot read or write these languages.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

The circlet extends tendrils that reach down your head to wrap around your neck.

Your words can now be translated directly into thought.

As you communicate telepathically with others, those creatures perceive a slight pulsing radiance emanating from the soulmeld.

You can communicate telepathically with any creature within a range of 20 feet per point of invested essentia, as long as that creature has a language.

It is possible to address multiple creatures at once telepathically, although maintaining a telepathic conversation with more than one creature at a time is just as difficult as simultaneously speaking and listening to multiple people at the same time.

This is a mind-affecting effect.

SPELLWARD SHIRT

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Heart

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms into a cerulean tunic that covers your torso, fitting comfortably over any other clothing or armor you wear.

Except for its unusual color, it seems like a relatively mundane garment—until you are subjected to any spell effect.

When that happens, the color of the shirt comes alive, forming intricate patterns of swirls, bursts, and spirals as the shirt attempts to deflect the magical energy.

Meldshapers have long sought ways to use their own unique magic to protect them from the arcane and divine effects that are so common in the world, and the spellward shirt is one of the simplest such means.

While worn, the spellward shirt grants you spell resistance 5.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your spellward shirt increases the spell resistance granted by the soulmeld by 4.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

The soul energy of your spellward shirt is bound into your flesh, its cerulean color tinting your skin all over your body.

When you shape this soulmeld, choose four spells of 6th level or less.

You gain complete immunity to the effects of these spells, as if you were under the effect of a spell immunity spell.

SPHINX CLAWS

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Hands (totem)

Saving Throw: None

A powerful set of retractable, catlike claws forms over your hands. These magical claws seem almost alive, and they perfectly follow every move of your own hands and fingers.

Sphinxes are among the most powerful and majestic of all magical beasts.

In the view of some totemists, they embody what it is to be a magical beast.

Totemists hold up different varieties of sphinx as the pinnacle of sphinxkind: the gruff and noble androsphinx, the clever and enigmatic gyno sphinx, the avaricious and powerful crio sphinx, or the detestable hieracosphinx.

Whichever variety a totemist seeks to emulate, the effects of sphinx claws are the same—they make the totemist a clawing, pouncing terror to behold.

While wearing sphinx claws, you gain a +1 competence bonus on Strength checks and Strength-based skill checks, such as Climb and Jump checks and checks made to break down doors or to bull rush an opponent.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your sphinx claws increases the competence bonus by 1.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Your hands become one with the claws that surround them, overlarge for your size.

The most profound change, however, is in your proficiency in combat—a powerful urge grows within you to leap at your foes, tearing with claws and teeth until your prey lies motionless in your savage grip.

When you use the charge action, at the end of your charge you can make a full attack using any natural weapons you possess.

You can use natural weapons that you have by virtue of your race or kind, or natural weapons derived from soulmelds you have shaped.

If you elect to use this ability, you cannot make any attacks with manufactured weapons at the end of the same charge.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your hands become one with the claws that surround them, overlarge for your size.

You find you can use them to tear at your foes, and with that ability comes a powerful desire to put these tools to use.

Will you temper that bloodlust with the wisdom of the gynosphinx or the nobility of the androsphinx? Or will you give in to it completely, rampaging like a hieracosphinx? You can use your sphinx claws as natural weapons that deal 1d8 points of damage plus your Strength modifier.

For every point of essentia you invest in your sphinx claws, you gain a +1 enhancement bonus on your attack rolls and damage rolls with the claws.

While the claws are shaped, you can retain the normal use of your hands at any time, although you cannot hold an item in your hand and attack with the claws at the same time.

STRONGHEART VEST

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Heart or waist

Saving Throw: None

A heavy web belt of cyan energy wraps around your torso.

When you wear it, you feel energized and revitalized.

When you are struck by an attack that would damage your ability scores, a wave of incarnum energy passes through you, blunting the effectiveness of the attack.

The strongheart vest protects you from attacks that would reduce your ability scores.

Any time you would take ability damage, such as Constitution damage or Strength damage, the amount of the damage is reduced by 1 point, to a minimum of 0.

For example, if you fail a saving throw against the poison of a monstrous centipede and would normally take 2 points of Dexterity damage from its poison, you take 1 point instead. Ten rounds later, if you fail a second saving throw against the poison and would normally take 1 point of Dexterity damage, you take no Dexterity damage instead.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your strongheart vest further reduces ability damage by an additional point.

For example, if you have 3 points of essentia invested in this soulmeld, you will subtract 4 points from any ability damage dealt to you.

Chakra Bind (Heart)

Tendrils of blue-black webbing snake out from the vest, merging with your flesh.

When you are struck by an attack that would drain your life force, you feel the energy of the strongheart vest surge through you, and you suffer no ill effect from the attack.

You gain immunity to energy drain attacks and death effects.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

The energy of the vest extends down into your legs, becoming more solid as it spreads.

Your strongheart vest also reduces ability drain, such as that from a lamia or wraith.

It reduces ability drain at the same rate that it reduces ability damage—1 point plus 1 additional point for every point of essentia invested—each time you would take ability drain.

THEFT GLOVES

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Hands

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a pair of supple black leather gloves that fit over your hands as well as any other gloves or gauntlets you might wear.

Despite the material covering your fingertips, the gloves grant you exacting precision in certain tasks—those that typically relate to thievery.

You borrow the talents of burglars throughout history to grant yourself a semblance of their ability.

While you have theft gloves shaped, you gain a +2 insight bonus on Disable Device, Open Lock, and Sleight of Hand checks.

This soulmeld also lets you make Disable Device, Open Lock, and Sleight of Hand checks untrained.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your theft gloves increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

Instead of physical gloves, your theft gloves manifest as a dusky blue color over the skin of your hands.

In addition to great precision, you also find your fingertips tremendously sensitive, and they seem to tingle when you run them over something that carries a trap.

You gain the trapfinding ability (see page 50 of the Player's Handbook).

THERAPEUTIC MANTLE

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Shoulders

Saving Throw: None

A sheath of incarnum energy surrounds your body and is slowly absorbed into your skin.

As healing magic is applied to you, the affected area sparkles with tiny blue motes.

The spirit energy of incarnum resonates with life energy. This soulmeld amplifies spells and effects that repair the physical form.

You shape incarnum into a sheath of energy that sinks into your skin and helps to focus healing magic that targets you. Whenever you are the target of a spell or effect that heals hit point damage, the spell heals additional damage equal to its spell level.

For example, if you are targeted by a cure serious wounds spell cast by a 7th-level cleric, you would be healed of 3d8+10 points of damage (7 points for the cleric's caster level and 3 points for the spell's level).

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested increases the additional healing by 2 more hit points.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Focused outward, incarnum from the mantle bonds with the healing magic you conjure.

Healing spells you cast are accompanied by blue-white motes of incarnum energy.

When bound to your shoulders chakra, therapeutic mantle increases the potency of healing spells that you cast.

You gain an insight bonus (equal to the number of points of essentia invested in the soulmeld) to your caster level when casting spells of the healing subschool.

THREEFOLD MASK OF THE CHIMERA

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Crown or soul (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You form incarnum into a three-sided mask that hovers in front of your face.

As you turn your head, the mask does not turn with you, so you can look out three different sets of eyes—and somehow each face of the mask seems to color your view of the world through it.

The mask depicts the three heads of a chimera—a savage dragon, a fierce lion, and a demonic goat.

Totemists look to chimeras as a representation of multiplicity united.

In a certain sense, they are the patrons of meldshaping itself—uniting disparate elements of beast souls and humanoid bodies to create powerful effects.

At the simplest level, the threefold mask of the chimera grants you the ability to focus your attention in multiple directions simultaneously.

You can't be flanked while this soulmeld is shaped.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested in your threefold mask grants you a +1 competence bonus on Search and Spot checks.

Chakra Bind (Crown)

Your threefold mask attaches to your forehead and now moves with your head as you turn.

By focusing your concentration, you can tap into the mask's multiple perspectives to act more quickly, though at a cost.

At the end of your turn, you can take one extra move action at no cost.

If you choose to take this extra move action, you take a –5 penalty on attack rolls and to Armor Class until the end of your next turn.

Furthermore, on your next turn, you can take only a single standard action or a move action (but not both, and not a full-round action).

Every point of essentia you invest in your threefold mask reduces by 1 the penalty applied on attack rolls and to Armor Class during the round following your extra move action.

Thus, if you invest 1 point of essentia in your threefold mask and take an extra move action, your attack rolls and AC for the next round take only a –4 penalty (instead of –5).

If you invest 5 or more points of essentia, you take no penalty on attack rolls and to AC made in the round following your extra move action (but are still restricted to taking only a single standard action or move action during that turn).

Chakra Bind (Soul)

You experience a profound quickness of mind, almost as if three minds were thinking your thoughts and directing your actions, though this multiplicity of views can be confusing as well.

This chakra bind functions as the crown chakra bind, except that instead of an extra move action, you can take an extra standard action at the end of your turn.

However, on your next turn, you can take no actions. The same penalties as described above also apply in the following round, and they can be reduced by essentia investment as listed above.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your threefold mask is no longer just a mask—your head branches into the three monstrous heads of a chimera.

Three pairs of eyes look out on the world at once, three heads direct your actions, and three sets of savage jaws slaver for prey.

You can use the heads of your threefold mask to make natural attacks.

The dragon head bites for 1d8 points of damage, the lion head bites for 1d6 points of damage, and the goat head gores for 1d6 points of damage.

As a standard action, you can attack with any one of these heads, applying your full Strength modifier as a bonus on your damage roll.

As a full attack action, you can attack with all three heads, applying your full Strength modifier on all three damage rolls.

Alternatively, as part of a full attack, you can make a secondary attack with one head at a –5 penalty, applying only one-half your Strength modifier as a bonus on your damage roll.

THUNDERSTEP BOOTS

Descriptors: Sonic

Classes: Soulborn

Chakra: Feet

Saving Throw: See text

You shape incarnum into a pair of heavy boots that fit over your feet and any other boots you might wear.

Cobalt steel forms rings around your calves and reinforces the toes of the boots.

The legendary soulborn Odravan the Red was known for charging into battle wearing thunderstep boots at the head of a well-trained mercenary unit.

Foes who survived Odravan's charge were usually stunned and quickly fell to his allies' swords.

When you charge, your thunderstep boots channel sonic energy into your attack.

If you hit with a melee attack at the end of a charge, the target takes an additional 1d4 points of sonic damage.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your thunderstep boots increases the damage dealt by 1d4 points.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

Your thunderstep boots bind themselves to your feet.

Any creature taking damage from your thunderstep boots is also stunned for 1 round.

A successful Fortitude save negates this effect.

TOTEM AVATAR

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Arms, feet, heart, or shoulders (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into an imposing avatar of bestial power.

This corporeal shape fits over your clothing and armor, but it makes you seem like a hulking gray render in outline and features. Your actual body is only barely visible within the gray, hairless form.

The render's broad shoulders and sinewy arms encompass yours and extend beyond them to translucent clawed hands scraping the ground.

To some totemists, the greatest of the magical beasts are those that walk upright like humanoids but embody raw physical power—gray renders, owlbears, rampagers (described in Monster Manual II), blood apes (described in Monster Manual II), and the dreaded tarrasque.

All of these creatures are totems of body strength, with the various abilities that come with physical might.

By default, the avatar resembles a gray render in its outline and features, but it changes to resemble different magical beasts if you bind it to a chakra.

The totem avatar grants you bonus hit points equal to your meldshaper level.

These hit points don't go away first the way temporary hit points do; if this soulmeld is unshaped or suppressed, you lose the hit points granted by it.

Essentia: You gain an enhancement bonus to your natural armor bonus equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in your totem avatar.

Chakra Bind (Arms)

Your totem avatar resembles an owlbear—no less hulking and stooped than the gray render form, but covered in a shaggy coat of feathers and fur.

You gain the benefit of the Improved Grapple feat.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

Your totem avatar resembles a rampager, with four elephantine legs, two muscular arms with hooked claws, a headless body with a gaping maw planted on the forward part of the torso, and a thick tail dragging behind.

You gain stability as if you were a four-legged creature, giving you a +4 bonus on checks to resist a bull rush, overrun, or trip attack.

You are also treated as if you were one size category larger than normal when making a check to resist a bull rush, grapple, overrun, or trip attack (effectively granting you an additional +4 on such checks).

Chakra Bind (Heart)

Your totem avatar resembles the legendary tarrasque, though on a much smaller scale.

Its hulking form leans forward of your own, its back covered with a thick, spiny carapace.

Two mighty horns sprout from its head, and its jaw opens wide to reveal dozens of knifelike teeth.

You gain damage reduction 5/magic.

The amount of this damage reduction increases by 1 for every point of essentia you invest in the soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

Your totem avatar resembles a blood ape, taking on the appearance of a red-furred gorilla.

Your natural weapons (whether from soulmelds or other sources) deal damage as if you were one size category larger.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

When you bind your totem avatar to your totem chakra, you become a little more like the gray render it represents.

In particular, your body alters to better fill the musculature of the mighty beast avatar, lending you strength to smite your foes.

Your totem avatar grants you a morale bonus on damage rolls made with natural weapons (whether from soulmelds or other natural sources) equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in it.

TRUTHSEEKER GOGGLES

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Brow

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms blue-lensed goggles that hover in front of your eyes.

The world does not seem blue to you; rather, small details become apparent, whether they are in something you search or in someone's facial expression and posture.

Calling upon the soul energy of investigators living and dead, you grant yourself keen powers of detection.

While you wear your truthseeker goggles, you gain a +2 insight bonus on Gather Information, Search, and Sense Motive checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia you invest in your truthseeker goggles increases the insight bonus by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your truthseeker goggles rest firmly before your eyes, granting you sight even in darkness.

You gain darkvision out to 60 feet.

UNICORN HORN

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Brow (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape the pure soul energy of a unicorn into an ivory-colored horn that seems to sprout from your forehead.

Its color is an unblemished white, and it seems to glow with a soft blue-white radiance.

Its purity flows into you, and it is difficult to conceive of an evil thought with the horn so close to your mind.

Unicorns are like lammasus in their devotion to goodness and even surpass them in purity.

Good totemists revere them as embodiments of all that is good in nature, and shape unicorn horns when they prepare to do battle with evil—particularly undead.

You gain a +2 competence bonus on wild empathy and Move Silently checks.

Essentia: Your bonus on wild empathy and Move Silently checks increases by 2 for every point of invested essentia.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

A streak of white appears in your hair near the unicorn horn, and your eyes change color—becoming deep sea-blue, violet, or fiery gold.

You gain the ability to detect evil once per round as a standard action.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

A tuft of white hair hangs down from your forehead around your unicorn horn, while your forehead itself thickens somewhat to support the horn it bears.

All of your hair transforms into a cascading white mane, and if you are male a white beard sprouts from your chin.

You can feel purity and energy flowing into your body through your horn.

You can gore with the unicorn horn as a natural weapon that deals 1d6 points of damage.

You gain an enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls with your horn equal to the number of points of essentia you invest in it.

If you hit an undead creature with your horn attack, you deal an extra 1d6 points of damage.

URSKAN GREAVES

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Feet (totem)

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms steel plates backed with white fur that fit over your shins, covering any clothing, boots, or armor you might wear. When you walk through ice and snow, your feet find solid purchase.

Urskans (magical beasts described in Frostburn: Mastering the Perils of Ice and Snow) are arctic-dwelling creatures much like intelligent polar bears.

The other races of the north know and fear them for the heavy plate armor they wear, for their strength and ferocity, and for the fierce power of their charging attacks.

It is precisely these qualities that totemists seek to emulate by shaping urskan greaves.

You can move across ice and through snow at your normal speed, and you gain a +5 bonus on Balance checks made on ice.

Essentia: If you invest essentia in your urskan greaves, they protect you from cold damage.

You gain resistance to cold equal to 5 times the number of points of essentia you invest in this soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

White fur covers your lower legs and your urskan greaves merge into your flesh.

Strength seems to radiate up from your greaves through your whole frame, lending power to your attacks when you can build up a good running start.

You gain the ability to make a powerful charge.

When you charge, if your melee attack hits, you deal an additional +1d4 points of damage per point of essentia you invest in your urskan greaves.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

White fur covers your legs and strength pours through you.

No foe can stand in your way when you put all your strength into your charge.

When you attempt to overrun an opponent, the target cannot choose to avoid you.

You also gain a +2 bonus on your Strength check to knock down your opponent, with an additional +1 for every point of essentia you invest in your urskan greaves.

VITALITY BELT

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate

Chakra: Waist

Saving Throw: None

Incarnum forms a stout metallic belt that girds your waist.

The metal gleams silver-blue; links of azure chain bind the plates together.

Life and health well up from this belt into your body.

Like other soulmelds that draw on incarnum as a source of vitality (including pauldrons of health, lifebond vestments, and therapeutic mantle), the vitality belt translates the soul energy of incarnum directly into physical energy to empower your body.

While wearing your vitality belt, you gain a +4 morale bonus on Constitution checks and Constitution-based skill checks (but not on Fortitude saves).

Essentia: For every point of essentia you invest in your vitality belt, you gain bonus hit points equal to your meldshaper level.

These are not temporary hit points and are not depleted first as are temporary hit points.

You can render yourself staggered, unconscious, or even dead by changing the quantity of essentia invested in this soulmeld.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

A large star sapphire adorns the center of your vitality belt, gleaming vibrantly in any light.

Any time you are subjected to an attack that would drain your vitality, the star at the heart of the sapphire dims momentarily, but your health does not suffer.

You are immune to Constitution damage and Constitution drain.

WIND CLOAK

Descriptors: None

Classes: Incarnate, soulborn

Chakra: Shoulders

Saving Throw: See text

A gauzy cloak of incarnum settles over you, swirling about you as a gentle breeze blows through your hair.

A stirring of air at your feet disturbs nearby dust.

The wind cloak coaxes the spirit energy of incarnum to swirl around your body, creating a wind that might deflect small objects or even larger airborne projectiles.

The swirling soul energy around you protects you from ranged attacks, absorbing some of the momentum of projectiles and other ranged weapons.

You gain damage reduction 2/magic against ranged weapons.

(This soulmeld doesn't grant you the ability to damage creatures with similar damage reduction).

The damage reduction granted by wind cloak applies against all ranged weapons regardless of their size.

Tiny and smaller flying creatures that attempt to enter your space must succeed on a Fortitude save to do so.

Failure means their movement stops adjacent to your space, and any remaining movement left in their action is lost.

Essentia: Every point of essentia invested increases the damage reduction by 2.

For example, a wind cloak with 2 points of invested essentia would provide damage reduction 6/magic against ranged weapons.

Chakra Bind (Shoulders)

As arrows fly in, the wind of your soulmeld swirls around, deflecting them away, perhaps even back at your attackers.

Bound to the shoulders chakra, wind cloak deflects ranged attacks as if you had the Deflect Arrows feat.

You don't need a free hand to use the feat—the wind cloak itself deflects the incoming arrows (or bolts, spears, and so on).

This effect functions even if you are caught flat-footed.

Every point of essentia you invest in your wind cloak increases by one the number of arrows you can deflect in a round.

WINTER MASK

Descriptors: Cold

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Throat (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

You shape incarnum into a snow-white mask resembling the head of a wolf.

A snarling muzzle filled with sharp teeth protrudes from the front of the mask, and eyes like blue ice crystals stare out in defiance. Evil tribes of arctic dwellers particularly revere the winter wolf.

It is the embodiment of winter itself—deadly, fierce, cunning, and unrelenting in its assault on life and warmth. Totemists shape winter masks to claim the destructive power of winter as their own.

Your touch takes on the bitter cold of winter; you can choose to inflict a chilling fatigue on an opponent you touch in combat.

You must make a successful melee touch attack.

The target is fatigued unless it succeeds on a Fortitude save. Creatures resistant or immune to cold are immune to this effect.

Essentia: Your touch attack also deals 1d4 points of nonlethal cold damage for every point of essentia you invest in your winter mask.

Chakra Bind (Throat)

White fur spreads down from your winter mask to cover your throat.

Your mouth is filled with a pleasant cold, like sucking a piece of ice on a hot day.

You gain the ability to breathe a cone of cold.

Once every 1d4 rounds, you can emit a 15-foot-long cone of cold.

Targets in the cone take 2d6 points of cold damage plus 2d6 additional points of damage for every point of invested essentia (Reflex half).

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your face blends into that of your winter mask, merging with its lupine features.

Your eyes appear in the mask's eye sockets, and they become the pale ice-blue of a winter wolf's eyes.

Your jaws become the powerful maw of a winter wolf as well, and frost clings to the white fur around your muzzle as you breathe.

You gain a bite attack that deals 1d6 points of damage.

You can use this bite either as a primary attack (in which case it uses your full base attack bonus and adds your Strength bonus on damage rolls) or as a secondary attack (with a -5 penalty on the attack roll and applying only half your Strength bonus on your damage roll).

Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld adds 1d4 points of cold damage to your bite damage.

WORG PELT

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Feet or hands (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You gather worg spirits around you to form a cloaklike garment. It strongly resembles the pelt of a worg, from the top of the beast's head perched atop your own to forelegs extending down your arms and rear legs hanging behind you.

The fur is dark and thick, and glassy red eyes smolder in its face.

Worgs are quintessential hunters—stalking predators, quick runners, and fierce combatants.

Totemists who shape worg pelt soulmelds hope to emulate some or all of these qualities, and sometimes the worg's malicious evil as well.

Your worg pelt grants you a +2 competence bonus on Hide and Move Silently checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia that you invest in your worg pelt increases the competence bonus on Hide and Move Silently checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Feet)

The hind legs of your worg pelt fuse into your own legs, lengthening your feet and shins while shortening your thighs, enabling you to run on your toes like a predatory animal.

Your legs are totally covered in the dark gray fur of a worg.

Your base land speed increases by 5 feet, plus an additional 5 feet for every point of essentia you invest in your worg pelt.

Chakra Bind (Hands)

The forelegs of your worg pelt fuse into your own arms, adding weight and bulk to your hands.

Your arms and hands are completely covered in the dark gray fur of a worg.

When you hit with a bite attack—whether it is a bite attack you naturally possess, one granted by binding this soulmeld to your totem chakra, or one granted by another soulmeld, spell, or special effect—you can attempt to trip the opponent as a free action without making a touch attack or provoking an attack of opportunity.

If the attempt fails, the opponent cannot react to trip you.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

The head of your worg pelt becomes one with your own head.

Your eyes begin to glow red and replace the glassy eyes of the pelt, while your lower jaw extends to join the upper muzzle of the pelt, granting you a fierce bite attack.

You gain a bite attack that deals 1d6 points of damage.

You can use this bite either as a primary attack (in which case it uses your full base attack bonus and adds your Strength bonus on damage rolls) or as a secondary attack (with a -5 penalty on the attack roll and applying only half your Strength bonus on your damage roll).

Every point of essentia invested in this soulmeld grants you a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls and damage rolls with your bite attack.

WORMTAIL BELT

Descriptors: None

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Waist (totem)

Saving Throw: See text

Incarnum forms a wide belt of thick purple scales around your waist.

Though the belt does not serve as armor (and easily fits around any armor you might wear), it thickens your skin and tints it a faint purple color.

The purple worm is one of the most feared magical beasts, particularly by those who live or adventure far beneath the surface of the earth.

Many have despaired of ever penetrating its thick hide before dying in its gullet or being poisoned by the stinger at the tip of its tail.

This soulmeld, particularly common among totemists in underground communities, is an attempt to emulate the awesome protection and the dangerous power of the purple worm.

You gain a +2 enhancement bonus to your existing natural armor bonus.

(If you do not have natural armor, you have an effective natural armor bonus of +0).

Essentia: The enhancement bonus to your natural armor bonus increases by 1 for every point of essentia you invest in your wormtail belt.

Chakra Bind (Waist)

Rather than forming a belt of purple scales at your waist, the soulmeld shapes plating on the skin of your torso and legs. Dark purple on the back and lighter in front, these scales seem to add to your bulk, and definitely increase your power in melee combat.

You gain the Awesome Blow feat (see page 303 of the Monster Manual) and are treated as one size category larger than usual when using it (up to a maximum of Colossal). The save DC to resist your awesome blow is calculated as normal for your soulmelds, rather than being based on the damage you deal.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

A thick, purple-scaled tail emerges from the back of your wormtail belt.

It is long enough that you can reach it around you to attack your foes with the stinger at its end, which drips with poison.

You can use your wormtail belt's stinger to make natural attacks.

You cannot use the stinger as a natural secondary weapon—using the stinger is the only attack you can make in a given round.

You use your full base attack bonus for the attack roll, and the stinger deals 1d6 points of damage.

In addition, the stinger delivers a weakening poison that deals initial damage of 1d4 Strength (no secondary damage).

A successful Fortitude save negates the poison damage.

Every point of essentia you invest in your wormtail belt gives you a +1 enhancement bonus on your attack rolls with the stinger, as well as increasing the poison's save DC as normal.

YRTHAK MASK

Descriptors: Sonic

Classes: Totemist

Chakra: Brow (totem)

Saving Throw: None

You shape incarnum into a bizarre mask, basically crocodilian in form.

It lacks eyes entirely, and a weird hornlike protrusion juts from the top and front—resembling the strange yrthak in its overall appearance.

Yrthaks inhabit desolate mountainous regions and are not widely revered by totemists.

Even so, their association with sound, sonic energy, and hearing makes the yrthak mask a powerful soulmeld.

You gain a +4 competence bonus on Listen checks.

Essentia: Every point of essentia that you invest in your yrthak mask increases the competence bonus on Listen checks by 2.

Chakra Bind (Brow)

Your yrthak mask fuses to your forehead, though your mouth still speaks inside the mouth of the mask.

Your vision dims somewhat, but you find yourself alive to the world of sounds around you—including some you had never heard before.

You find that you can discern a creature's location with great accuracy simply by listening to the sounds it makes.

You gain a limited form of blindsense.

You can take a move action to pinpoint the location of every creature within 10 feet of you to which you have line of effect.

The range of this ability increases by 10 feet for every point of essentia you invest in your yrthak mask.

Any creature you cannot see still has total concealment against you, and you still have the normal miss chance when attacking foes with concealment.

Visibility still affects your movement.

You are still denied your Dexterity bonus to Armor Class against attacks from creatures you cannot see.

Even as your other senses are heightened, your visual acuity diminishes.

You take a -4 penalty on Spot checks.

To your benefit, you gain a +4 bonus on saving throws against gaze attacks, visual effects, illusions, and other attack forms that rely on sight.

Chakra Bind (Totem)

Your yrthak mask becomes your actual face, and your jaws lengthen into the crocodilian maw of a yrthak.

The mask is too awkward to allow you to make bite attacks, but you can focus sonic energy through the hornlike protrusion on the front of the mask, using it to stab your foes with rays of pure sound.

Once every 2 rounds, you can focus sonic energy into a ray up to 60 feet long.

This is a ranged touch attack that deals 1d6 points of sonic damage to a single target for every point of invested essentia.

SPELLS

BOOK OF EXALTED DEEDS (3.5)

ABJURATION

BASTION OF GOOD

Abjuration [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 7, cleric 7

Components: V, S, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius spherical emanation centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

A nimbus of light surrounds you, protecting you and those around you from spell effects and the attacks of evil creatures.

The aura excludes all spell effects of up to 3rd level, exactly as a minor globe of invulnerability does.

In addition, the nimbus protects creatures within it as a magic circle against evil at double strength.

Warded creatures gain a +4 deflection bonus to AC and a +4 resistance bonus on saves against attacks from evil creatures, and they are protected from possession, mental control, and bodily contact by summoned or conjured creatures.

Abstinence Component: You must fast for 24 hours before casting this spell.

CELESTIAL BLOOD

Abjuration [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 6, cleric 6, Pleasure 6

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Touch

Target: Nonevil creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You channel holy power to grant the subject some of the protection enjoyed by celestial creatures.

The subject gains resistance 10 to acid, cold, and electricity, a +4 bonus on saving throws against poison, and damage reduction 10/evil.

Material Component: A vial of holy water, with which you anoint the subject's head.

EMPYREAL ECSTASY

Abjuration

Level: Bard 6, Pleasure 7

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 30 ft.

Target: One creature/level

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Like the ease pain spell, empyrean ecstasy immediately removes any lingering effects of pain, including penalties imposed by symbol of pain, angry ache, and similar spells. It neither prevents damage nor blocks other effects not directly related to pain (such as the recall agony or recall pain psionic power).

The spell also induces a pleasurable fuguelike state that yields a number of additional effects:

First, empyrean ecstasy renders its targets immune to mind-affecting spells and effects for the spell's duration, but does not negate mind-influencing effects already in place.

Second, targets of the spell take only half damage from all melee and ranged attacks for the duration of the spell.

Third, the fuguelike state induced by the spell makes it difficult for targets to concentrate on certain tasks.

Creatures in ecstasy take a -4 penalty on all skill checks, and casting a spell while under the influence of empyrean ecstasy requires a DC 15 Concentration check.

EXALTED RAIMENT

Abjuration

Level: Sanctified 6

Components: V, DF, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Robe, garment, or outfit touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

You imbue a robe, priestly garment, or outfit of regular clothing with divine power.

The spell bestows the following effects for its duration:

- +1 sacred bonus to AC per five caster levels (maximum +4 at 20th level)
 - Damage reduction 10/evil
 - Spell resistance 5 + 1 per caster level (maximum SR 25 at 20th level)
 - Reduces ability damage due to spellcasting by 1, to a minimum of 1 point (but does not reduce the sacrifice cost for casting this spell) Only a good-aligned creature gains the benefits of this spell; creatures of nongood alignment can wear the exalted raiment but gain no spell benefits from doing so.
- Sacrifice:* 1d4 points of Strength damage.

GLORIOUS RAIMENT

Abjuration [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 2, Glory 2

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Robe, garment, or outfit touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless, object)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless, object)

You imbue a robe, priestly garment, or outfit of regular clothing with divine power.

The spell bestows the following effects for its duration:

- +1 sacred bonus to AC per five caster levels (maximum +4 at 20th level)
- Damage reduction 5/evil Only a good-aligned creature gains the benefits of this spell.

Creatures of nongood alignment can wear the glorious raiment, but gain no spell benefits from doing so.

GLORY OF THE MARTYR

Abjuration [Good]

Level: Champion of Gwynharwyf 4, paladin 4

Components: V, S, F, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: One creature/level

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Like shield other, this spell wards the subjects, creating a mystic connection between them and you so that some of their wounds are transferred to you.

The subjects each gain a +1 deflection bonus to AC and a +1 resistance bonus on saves.

All the subjects take only half damage from all wounds and attacks that deal them hit point damage.

The amount of damage not taken by all the warded creatures is taken by you.

Forms of harm that do not involve hit points, such as charm effects, temporary ability damage, level draining, and disintegration, are not affected.

If a subject suffers a reduction of hit points from a lowered Constitution score, the reduction is not split with you because it is not hit point damage.

When the spell ends, subsequent damage is no longer divided between you and the subjects, but damage already split is not reassigned to the subjects.

If you die while this spell is in effect, the spell ends in a burst of positive energy that restores 1d8 hit points to each subject.

If a subject moves out of range of the spell, that subject's connection to you is severed but the spell continues as long as there is at least one subject remaining and you remain alive.

Focus: A platinum ring (worth at least 50 gp) worn by you and each subject of the spell.

This spell first appeared in Magic of Faerûn.

LUMINOUS ARMOR

Abjuration

Level: Sanctified 2

Components: Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One good creature touched

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

This spell, favored among eladrins visiting the Material Plane, envelops the target in a protective, shimmering aura of light.

The luminous armor resembles a suit of dazzling full plate, but it is weightless and does not restrict the target's movement or mobility in any way.

In addition to imparting the benefits of a breastplate (+5 armor bonus to AC), the luminous armor has no maximum Dexterity restriction, no armor check penalty, and no chance for arcane spell failure.

Luminous armor sheds light equivalent to a daylight spell and counters darkness spells of 2nd level or lower with which it comes into contact.

In addition, the armor's brightness causes opponents to take a -4 to penalty on melee attacks made against the target.

This penalty stacks with the attack penalty suffered by creatures sensitive to bright light (such as dark elves).

Sacrifice: 1d2 points of Strength damage.

LUMINOUS ARMOR, GREATER

Abjuration

Level: Sanctified 4

This spell functions like luminous armor, except that it imparts the benefits of full plate (+8 armor bonus to AC).

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength damage.

MOMENT OF CLARITY

Abjuration

Level: Paladin 2

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

When you cast this spell and touch a creature that is under the influence of a mind-affecting spell or effect, that creature immediately receives another saving throw against the effect's original DC to break free of the effect.

If the spell or effect did not originally permit a saving throw, this spell has no effect.

PHIERAN'S RESOLVE

Abjuration [Good]

Level: Sanctified 3

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Targets: One good creature/level in a 20-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Phieran's resolve (named after the exalted god of suffering, endurance, and perseverance) was devised to comb a t wielders of vile magic.

This spell grants targets a +4 sacred bonus on saving throws against spells with the evil descriptor.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength damage.

SACRED HAVEN

Abjuration

Level: Paladin 4
Components: V, S, DF
Casting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Touch
Target: Creature touched
Duration: 1 minute/level
Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)
Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)
You shield one creature in a nimbus of holy light. The creature gains a +2 sacred bonus to Armor Class. In addition, while protected by this spell, the creature does not lose its Dexterity bonus to AC when flat-footed. For the duration of the spell, you gain awareness of the target's health as with the status spell, and you need not be able to touch the target to heal it with your lay on hands ability. Use of the lay on hands ability still requires a standard action, but it can be done at any range provided the target is on the same plane of existence as you.

SHIELD OF THE ARCHONS

Abjuration [Good]
Level: Apostle of peace 7, cleric 7
Components: V, Archon
Casting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Personal
Target: You
Effect: Mobile shield
Duration: 1 round/level
A mystic shield of beneficent energies interposes itself between you and an incoming magical attack. The shield blocks harmful spells, spell-like abilities, and supernatural abilities. It can only block one such attack each round, intercepting the first but not any later attacks until your next turn. Any targeted magical attack that strikes the shield is dissipated, but it has a 5% chance per spell level to shatter the shield as well. Attacks with no spell level have a 5% chance per 2 caster levels to shatter the shield. An attack that shatters the shield is dissipated without harming you. If you are within the area or effect of a harmful spell or effect that is not directly targeted on you, the shield of the archons grants you a +4 bonus on your saving throw against the effect.

STARMANTLE

Abjuration
Level: Joy 7, sorcerer/wizard 6
Components: V, S, M
Casting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Touch
Target: One living creature touched
Duration: 1 minute/level (D)
Saving Throw: None
Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)
This spell manifests as a draping cloak of tiny, cascading stars that seem to flicker out before touching the ground.

The cloak forms over the target's existing apparel and sheds light as a torch, although this is not the mantle's primary function.

The starmantle renders the wearer impervious to nonmagical weapon attacks and transforms any nonmagical weapon or missile that strikes it into harmless light, destroying it forever.

Contact with the starmantle does not destroy magic weapons or missiles, but the starmantle's wearer is entitled to a Reflex saving throw (DC 15) each time he is struck by such a weapon; success indicates that the wearer takes only half damage from the weapon (rounded down).

Material Component: A pinch of dust from a pixie's wing (20 gp).

SUBLIME REVELRY

Abjuration
Level: Cleric 9, Pleasure 9
Components: V, S, DF
Casting Time: 1 round
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Targets: One creature/level, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart
Duration: 1 minute/level (D)
Saving Throw: None
Spell Resistance: No
Sublime revelry immediately removes any lingering effects of pain, including penalties imposed by symbol of pain, angry ache, and similar spells. It does not prevent damage or block other effects not directly related to pain. The spell also induces a pleasurable fuguelike state that yields the following additional effects: First, sublime revelry renders its targets immune to mind-affecting spells and effects for the spell's duration, as well as suppresses (but not dispels) ones currently in effect. Second, targets of the spell take only half damage from all melee and ranged attacks for the duration of the spell.

SUNMANTLE

Abjuration
Level: Sanctified 4
Components: S, Sacrifice
Casting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Touch
Target: One creature touched
Duration: 1 round/level
Saving Throw: None
Spell Resistance: Yes
This spell cloaks the target in a wavering cloak of light that illuminates an area around the target (and dispels darkness) as a daylight spell. However, its ability to generate bright light is not the spell's primary function. The sunmantle grants the target damage reduction 5/-. Furthermore, if the target is struck by a melee attack that deals hit point damage, a tendrill of light lashes out at the attacker, striking unerringly and dealing 5 points of damage. Because of the brilliance of the sunmantle, creatures sensitive to bright light (such as dark elves) take the usual attack penalties when in the light radius of the sunmantle.

Sacrifice: 1d4 points of Strength damage.

TELEPATHY BLOCK

Abjuration

Level: Bard 5, cleric 5, sorcerer/wizard 5

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 80-ft.-radius emanation centered on a creature, object, or point in space

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell blocks all telepathic communication within the affected area, making telepathic conversation impossible. The spell can be cast on a point in space, but the effect is stationary.

The spell can be centered on a creature or mobile object, in which case the effect emanates from the creature or object and moves as it moves.

TWILIGHT LUCK

Abjuration [Good]

Level: Sanctified 1

Components: V, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One nonevil creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

By means of this spell, the caster can impart the luck of the fey to one nonevil being.

The target gains a +1 luck bonus on all saving throws for the duration of the spell.

Abstinence: The caster must refrain from imbibing alcohol for 3 days prior to casting this spell.

VANISHING WEAPON

Abjuration

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 5

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Weapon touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None; see text

Spell Resistance: No

This spell encapsulates a weapon in a faint blue glow.

In addition to dealing normal damage, the weapon dispels on contact any summoned creature or quasireal creature brought into being by a Conjunction (summoning) or Illusion (shadow) spell.

This requires a successful dispel check (1d20 + caster's level) against DC 11 + the level of the caster who summoned or created the creature.

If the vanishing weapon is a ranged weapon, the spell's effect is imparted to the weapon's ammunition.

A summoned or quasi-real creature goaded into touching the vanishing weapon is also dispelled.

This spell has no effect on called creatures.

VENGEANCE HALO

Abjuration [Good]

Level: Cleric 6, Wrath 6

Components: V, S, DF, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One good-aligned creature; see text

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None or Reflex half; see text

Spell Resistance: No

A luminous ring of holy power appears above the head of a good creature and remains in place until the spell expires or the creature is slain (reduced to -10 hp).

If the latter event occurs, the halo discharges an arc of divine energy that deals 1d6 points of damage per caster level (maximum 20d6) to the target's slayer.

The creature subject to the attack can make a Reflex save to reduce the damage by half.

Once the vengeance halo unleashes its energy, it disappears and the spell ends.

Abstinence Component: You must abstain from alcohol for 1 week prior to casting this spell.

CONJURATION

ARMAGEDDON

Conjunction (Summoning) [Good]

Level: Sanctified 9

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: 2 or more summoned creatures, no two of which can be more than 30 ft. apart

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster opens a portal to one of the good-aligned outer planes and calls forth celestials to aid in battle against the most fearsome forces of evil.

The spell takes place over a period of time.

The first round, 2d4 avorals arrive.

Two rounds later, a ghaele eladrin arrives to join the fight.

Two rounds later, an astral deva arrives.

Once these creatures appear, they serve the caster for the duration of the spell.

The spell's duration begins the instant the first celestials appear.

At the end of the spell's duration, all summoned celestials disappear at once.

The celestials only heed the summons if the caster is of good alignment and there are evil foes to fight.

After their arrival, the celestials obey the caster explicitly and never attack her, even if someone else manages to gain control over them.

The caster does not need to concentrate to maintain control over the celestials.

She can dismiss them singly or in groups at any time.

Sacrifice: 1 character level.

BLINDING GLORY

Conjuration (Creation) [Good]

Level: Glory 9, sorcerer/wizard 9

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 100-ft./level radius spread, centered on you

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

A brilliant radiance spreads from you, brightly illuminating the area.

The light is similar to that created by the daylight spell, but no magical darkness counters or dispels it.

Furthermore, evil-aligned creatures are blinded within this light.

Blinding glory brought into an area of magical darkness (or vice versa), including an utterdark spell, is temporarily negated, so that the otherwise prevailing light conditions exist in the overlapping areas of effect.

Arcane Material Component: A polished rod of pure silver.

CALL FAITHFUL SERVANTS

Conjuration (Calling) [Good]

Level: Celestial 6, cleric 6, sorcerer/wizard 5

Components: V, S, Abstinence, Celestial

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 1d4 lantern archons, coure eladrins, or musteval guardinals

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You call 1d4 lawful good lantern archons from Celestia, 1d4 chaotic good coure eladrins from Arborea, or 1d4 neutral good musteval guardinals from Elysium to your location. They serve you for up to one year as guards, soldiers, spies, or whatever other holy purpose you have.

No matter how many times you cast this spell, you can control no more than 2 HD worth of celestials per caster level.

If you exceed this number, all the newly called creatures fall under your control, and any excess servants from previous castings return to their home plane.

Abstinence Component: The character must abstain from casting Conjuration spells for 3 days prior to casting this spell.

CALL MOUNT

Conjuration (Calling) [Good]

Level: Paladin 2

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 10 ft.

Effect: Your special mount

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You summon your special mount from the celestial planes where it resides.

This works exactly as your normal, spell-like class ability to summon the creature, except that the duration is shorter and you are not limited in how many times you can call the mount in a day (except by how many times you can cast call mount).

You can cast this spell even if you have already called your mount using your class ability on the same day.

CRY OF YSGARD

Conjuration (Calling) [Good]

Level: Sanctified 7

Components: V, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Calls 2d4 bariaur defenders of Ysgard

Duration: Instantaneous; see text

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You call 2d4 bariaur defenders of Ysgard (see Chapter 8: Monsters) from the plains of Ysgard to your location.

They serve you for up to a year, and you may dismiss them at any time.

They are intelligent, so you can assign them different tasks.

They can refuse to complete a quest or otherwise take on complex burdens without your supervision.

No matter how many times you cast this spell, you can control no more than four bariaur rangers; others are released from service and return to Ysgard immediately.

You choose which creatures to release.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength drain.

DRAGON CLOUD

Conjuration (Calling) [Air]

Level: Sanctified 8

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Special (see text)

Effect: One conjured dragon cloud (see text)

Duration: 1 min. + 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You must cast this spell outdoors, in a place where clouds are visible.

It calls forth a spirit of elemental air, binds it to a nearby cloud (either a normal cloud or storm cloud), and gives it a dragonlike form.

Upon forming, the dragon-shaped cloud swoops toward you, arriving in 1 minute regardless of the actual distance from you.

(The time it takes to reach you counts toward the spell's duration).

Once it arrives, you can command the dragon cloud like a summoned creature (see the summon nature's ally I spell in the Player's Handbook for details).

The dragon cloud speaks Auran.

At the end of the spell's duration, the dragon cloud evaporates into nothingness as the bound elemental spirit returns to its home plane.

The dragon cloud cannot pass through liquids or solid objects.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Constitution damage.

The dragon cloud has the following statistics:

☚ Dragon Cloud: Huge elemental (air, extraplanar, good); HD 21d8+84; hp 178; Init +10; Spd fly 150 ft. (average); AC 26, touch 14, flat-footed 20; Base Atk +15; Grp +30; Atk +20 melee (2d6+10/19–20, bite); Full Atk +20 melee (2d6+7/19–20, bite), +15 melee (2d4 +32, claws); Space/Reach 15 ft. across/15 ft.; SA breath weapon; SQ darkvision 60 ft., damage reduction 10/magic, elemental traits; AL N; SV Fort +11, Ref +18, Will +7; Str 25, Dex 23, Con 18, Int 6, Wis 11, Cha 11.

Skills and Feats: Listen +19, Spot +19; Dodge, Flyby Attack, Improved Critical (bite), Improved Initiative, Mobility, Spring Attack.

Breath Weapon (Ex): 100-ft.-long line-shaped burst of lightning every 1d4 rounds; 10d6 points of electricity damage; DC 24 Reflex save for half damage.

EASE PAIN

Conjuration (Healing)

Level: Apostle of peace 2, beloved of Valarian 2, cleric 2

Components: S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Ease pain immediately removes any lingering effects of pain, including penalties imposed by symbol of pain, angry ache, and similar spells.

It does not heal any damage or other effects not directly related to pain.

If the target creature is under some effect that causes continuing damage, the pain is eased only for a moment. Ease pain cannot bypass the need for a Concentration check to cast a spell under such circumstances, nor can it allow a creature subject to death by thorns to act normally (since the spell's damage is ongoing).

ENERGETIC HEALING

Conjuration (Healing)

Level: Apostle of peace 5, cleric 5, druid 5

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature touched

Duration: 10 minutes/level or until discharged

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

This spell converts magical energy damage into healing power.

First, it renders the target immune to one energy type (acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic) specified when the spell is cast.

Second, whenever the target is subjected to a magical attack of the selected energy type, he instead heals damage equal to 10% of the damage dealt (rounded down).

For example, a creature protected by energetic healing (cold) that would normally take 35 points of cold damage from a cone of cold heals 3 points of damage instead.

Once the spell heals a number of hit points equal to 2 per caster level (maximum 30), it is discharged.

This spell does not convert nonmagical energy attacks (such as damage from alchemist's fire) into healing.

ESTANNA'S STEW

Conjuration (Healing)

Level: Cleric 2, druid 2, paladin 2

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 0 ft.

Effect: Fills pot with healing stew (1 serving/2 levels)

Duration: Instantaneous (see text)

Saving Throw: Will half (harmless); see text

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

This spell calls upon Estanna, goddess of hearth and home (described in Chapter 2: Variant Rules), to fill a specially crafted stewpot with a potent healing stew.

The caster must be hold the pot in hand when Estanna's stew is cast; otherwise, the spell fails and is wasted.

The spell creates one serving per two caster levels (maximum 5).

A single serving heals 1d6+1 points of damage and requires a standard action to consume.

Any portion of the stew that is not consumed disappears after 1 hour.

The stew can be splashed onto a single undead creature within 10 feet.

If a ranged touch attack succeeds, the undead creature takes 1d6+1 points of damage per serving splashed on it.

The undead creature can apply spell resistance and can attempt a Will save to take half damage.

Focus: An engraved stewpot worth at least 50 gp.

RADIANT FOG

Conjuration (Creation, Good)

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 4

Components: V, S, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Fog that spreads in a 20-ft. radius, 20 ft. high

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (see text)

As solid fog, but the cloud of fog shimmers with brilliant celestial radiance.

Creatures within the cloud must make successful Fortitude saves or be dazzled, taking a –1 penalty on attack rolls for as long as they remain in the cloud and for 1 minute afterward.

Creatures with light sensitivity or otherwise susceptible to bright light are blinded if they fail their saves.

Sightless creatures are not affected by the radiance.

Spell resistance applies to the reduced movement, melee attack and damage penalties, and dazzling or blinding effects, but not to the concealment provided or the prevention of ranged weapon attacks.

Abstinence Component: You must not have cast a darkness or Necromancy spell within the past 24 hours before casting this spell.

REFRESHMENT

Conjuration (Healing) [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 3, bard 3, cleric 3, Endurance 3, vassal of Bahamut 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 20 ft.

Target: 20-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Refreshment channels celestial energy to remove all nonlethal damage the targets have taken, including damage from environmental conditions, starvation and thirst, and related effects as well as damage dealt by nonlethal attacks.

REMOVE ADDICTION

Conjuration (Healing)

Level: Beloved of Valarian 2, cleric 2, druid 2

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Remove addiction cures all addictions that the target suffers from (see Drugs in the Book of Vile Darkness for more information about addictions).

Since the spell's duration is instantaneous, it does not prevent new addiction to the same drug at a later date.

REMOVE NAUSEA

Conjuration (Healing)

Level: Apostle of peace 3, cleric 3

Components: V, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Remove nausea restores to health a creature who is nauseated or sickened.

Remove nausea cures only the nausea or sickening effect, not disease, poison, or any other effects.

SMITE HERETIC

Conjuration

Level: Paladin 3

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 10 minutes/level

For the duration of the spell, when using your smite evil class ability against an evil creature with the ability to cast divine spells, you gain a +2 sacred bonus on the attack roll. Furthermore, the attack deals 2 extra points of damage (instead of 1) per paladin level.

VALIANT STEED

Conjuration (Calling) [Good]

Level: Sanctified 6

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Calls 1 pegasus or unicorn

Duration: Instantaneous; see text

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster calls a special servant of the exalted god Valarian—either a pegasus or unicorn—to her location. The creature serves the caster for up to a year, during which time the caster may dismiss it at any time.

It is intelligent, so the caster can assign it complex tasks. Although useful as a mount, it will not undertake a quest or otherwise take on complex burdens beyond the supervision of the caster.

If the caster attempts to conjure another creature using this spell, the one called previously returns to its home.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength drain.

WARDING GEMS

Conjuration (Healing)

Level: Cleric 5

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 1 gem/3 caster levels

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You cast this spell upon one or more gems, imbuing them with healing energy.

The gems leap from your hand, fly to the target, and begin orbiting the target's head like ioun stones.

Each warding gem is a receptacle that holds 10 hp.

The target can, as a free action, access the healing energy inside a warding gem; the energy is released as a purple-white arc of divine power that unerringly strikes the target, healing 10 points of damage.

The target cannot choose to absorb only a portion of a warding gem's healing power.

A warding gem depleted of its healing energy instantly turns to dust.

At the end of the spell's duration, any unspent warding gems lose their healing power and fall to the ground; these can be reused for a later spell.

A single creature can have no more than five warding gems encircling it at one time.

A warding gem has AC 24, hardness 10, and 10 hp; if it's destroyed, any healing power contained within is lost.

Material Components: One 500-gp gem for each warding gem created.

DIVINATION

BLESSED SIGHT

Divination

Level: Apostle of peace 3, champion of Gwynharwyf 3, cleric 3, paladin 3, Celestial 3, slayer of Domiel 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

This spell makes your eyes glow with white light and allows you to see evil auras within 120 feet of you.

The effect is similar to a detect evil spell, but does not require concentration and discerns aura location and strength more quickly.

You know the location and strength of all evil auras within your sight.

An aura's strength depends on the type and Hit Dice of any evil creature, as noted in the description of the detect evil spell in the Player's Handbook.

DIVINE INSPIRATION

Divination

Level: Sanctified 1

Components: Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature touched

Duration: 1d4 rounds

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

This spell helps to tip the momentum of combat in the favor of good, granting limited precognitive ability that enables the spell's recipient to circumvent the defenses of evil opponents.

The target of the spell gains a +3 sacred bonus on all attack rolls made against evil creatures.

This bonus does not apply to attacks made against nonevil creatures.

Sacrifice: 1d2 points of Strength damage.

GREATER STATUS

Divination

Level: Apostle of peace 4, cleric 4, Community 4

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Targets: One creature touched/3 levels

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

As status (described in the Player's Handbook), but you can also cast a limited selection of spells through the link, as if you were touching the target.

You can cast any spell that meets the following conditions:

- Level: 0, 1st, or 2nd
- Range: Touch
- Target: Creature touched
- Saving Throw: Harmless For example, if you become aware (through the greater status spell) that one of your linked companions is dying, you can cast cure moderate wounds to try to revive her.

MIND BOND

Divination

Level: Paladin 3

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Special mount

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You temporarily strengthen the mental bond with your special mount, allowing you and your special mount to predict each other's movements and gain a significant edge in combat.

You and your mount gain a +4 flanking bonus on attack rolls (instead of +2) when the two of you are flanking the same opponent.

Furthermore, your mount gains a +1 competence bonus on attack rolls for every three paladin levels you possess (maximum +5) for the duration of the spell as long as it remains within the spell's range.

PATH OF THE EXALTED

Divination

Level: Sanctified 3

Components: V, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Duration: 1 decision; see text

Path of the exalted allows the caster to consult her deity (or an agent of her deity) to help make a difficult decision.

This decision is usually more complex than a simple morality question.

It may involve strategizing, choosing a particular lead to follow in an investigation, deciding who to help, or other difficult choices.

The deity or agent simply helps the character examine a known situation from a number of different angles and makes a recommendation about the correct path to take. This spell does not reveal unknown factors, but merely helps the caster analyze known elements.

The spell ends when the deity or agent has provided sufficient guidance for the caster to arrive at a decision.

If the caster is out of favor with her deity, this spell may not work until the caster atones.

Abstinence Component: The caster must abstain from casting Divination spells for 24 hours prior to the casting of this spell.

SACRED GUARDIAN

Divination

Level: Apostle of peace 5, cleric 5

Components: V, S, Celestial

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Object or willing creature touched

Duration: 1 day/level

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Celestials use sacred guardian to monitor the location and condition of a creature or object that has been placed in their care.

Similar to status, this spell makes the caster constantly aware of the target creature or object's precise location and status: whether a creature is unharmed, wounded, disabled, staggered, unconscious, dying, dead, and so on, or whether an object is unharmed, damaged, or destroyed.

Once the spell is cast, the distance between the caster and the subject does not affect the spell, and the spell continues to function even if the subject and caster are on different planes of existence.

If the caster wishes to teleport to the subject's presence, he can do so even if he is not familiar with the location (assuming he has access to teleportation magic).

If the caster casts scrying or greater scrying on the subject, the subject does not receive a saving throw; unless the subject is warded by a spell or in a location that blocks scrying magic, the spell automatically succeeds.

This spell has no effect on unwilling creatures.

If the target is an attended object, the attending creature must be willing for the object to receive the spell.

TELEPATHY TAP

Divination

Level: Sanctified 3

Components: Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Area: 10-ft./level-radius emanation

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You can overhear the telepathic conversations of other creatures within the spell's area.

Telepathy tap does not allow you to detect the uncommunicated thoughts of creatures or understand conversations spoken in languages you do not comprehend.

In an area where numerous telepathic conversations are occurring at the same time, you must specify the creatures you wish to overhear during a given round.

You can separate and decipher the telepathic messages of a number of creatures equal to 1 + your Intelligence bonus.

Telepathy tap does not allow you to overhear the telepathic conversations of creatures protected by a mind blank spell, nor does it grant the ability to telepathically communicate with other creatures.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength damage.

ENCHANTMENT

CHAAV'S LAUGH

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Good, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Cleric 5, Joy 5

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Area: 40-ft.-radius spread centered on you

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

You release a joyous, boisterous laugh that strengthens the resolve of good creatures and weakens the resolve of evil creatures.

Good creatures within the spell's area gain the following benefits for the duration of the spell: a +2 morale bonus on attack rolls and saves against fear effects, plus temporary hit points equal to 1d8 + caster level (to a maximum of 1d8+20 at caster level 20th).

Evil creatures within the spell's area that fail a Will save take a -2 morale penalty on attack rolls and saves against fear effects for the duration of the spell.

Creatures must be able to hear the laugh to be affected by the spell.

Creatures that are neither good nor evil are unaffected by Chavav's laugh.

DOLOROUS MOTES

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Bard 4, sorcerer/wizard 3

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Effect: 1 10-ft. cube/level

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell creates flickering motes of light that cause intense mental anguish.

Creatures inside or passing through a cloud of dolorous motes must succeed on a Will save or be dazed for 1 round.

A new save may be made each round.

Leaving and then re-entering a cloud of motes forces a new save.

The caster can create one large cloud of flickering motes or several smaller clouds.

For example, a 5th-level caster could create five separate clouds, each filling a 10-foot cube anywhere within the spell's range.

Conversely, the caster can group one or more 10-foot-cubes together to form larger clouds or barriers.

The affected cubes need not be adjacent to one another, but each cloud is stationary once placed.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Wisdom damage.

ELATION

Enchantment [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Bard 2, cleric 2, emissary of Barachiel 2, Joy 2, sorcerer/wizard 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 80 ft.

Targets: Allies in an 80-ft.-radius spread of you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Your allies become elated, full of energy and joy.

Affected creatures gain a +2 morale bonus to effective Strength and Dexterity, and their speed increases by +5 feet.

Elation does not remove the condition of fatigue, but it does offset most of the penalties for being fatigued.

END TO STRIFE

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Apostle of peace 9, cleric 9

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 80 ft.

Area: 80-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell creates an invisible aura of divine power around the caster.

All intelligent creatures within the spell's area suddenly become aware that any hostile actions they take will be met with dire consequences.

Any creature in the spell's area that makes an attack takes 20d6 points of damage.

The caster decides whether the spell deals lethal or nonlethal damage but cannot change her mind once the spell is cast.

Creatures with multiple attacks take the damage after every attack they make.

Targets outside the area of the spell may freely attack creatures in the area without taking damage from this spell.

FAERINAAL'S HYMN

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Good, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Bard 2

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: Up to one evil creature/level

Duration: Concentration

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This gentle hymn clouds the minds of evil creatures, causing targets of the spell to forgo attacks of opportunity for the spell's duration.

A target must be able to hear the hymn to be affected by the spell.

HEART'S EASE

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Beloved of Valarian 3, cleric 3, Pleasure 3

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: One creature/level

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Heart's ease cures emotional wounds in the same way that heal wipes away physical ones.

The subjects are cured of any fear effect, despair effect (such as the crushing despair spell), or similar mindaffecting condition, excluding charms and compulsions (such as charm person, dominate person, and similar spells).

It removes any lingering psychological effects of torture (including the increased effectiveness of torture devices, as described in the Book of Vile Darkness).

It cures confusion and insanity, restores 2d4 points of Wisdom damage (but not permanent Wisdom drain), and leaves the targets feeling refreshed and at peace.

INQUISITION

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Sanctified 5

Components: Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature with an Intelligence of 6 or more

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

With this spell, the caster compels the target creature to divulge information it may be hiding.

If the target fails its save, it is forced to reply to the caster's questions (one question per three caster levels), speak truthfully, and not respond in such a way that the answers provided may be misleading.

The questions posed may be answered with a simple yes or no, or they may require a more detailed response.

This spell cannot be used to force the target to divulge information it doesn't know, and the target creature is unable to fabricate lies of any kind while under the spell's hold.

Sacrifice: 1d4 points of Constitution damage.

INSPIRED AIM

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Language-Dependent, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Bard 4, cleric 3, Fey 3, ranger 3

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Targets: Allies with 40-ft.-radius emanation centered on you

Duration: Concentration

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You inspire allies within the spell's area to focus their minds on hitting their intended targets.

All affected allies gain a +2 insight bonus on all ranged attacks.

LASTAI'S CARESS

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Good, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Cleric 2, Pleasure 2

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One known evil creature touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

Your gentle touch fills the target with tremendous feelings of love and compassion, and has the power to unnerve and debilitate evil creatures.

You must succeed on a melee touch attack to affect an unwilling target.

It has no effect on a creature that you do not know is evil.

An evil creature touched by the spell must wrestle with the pleasant feelings invoked by the spell. Roll on the table below at the beginning of the creature's turn each round to see what condition applies to the subject in that round.

d4	Condition
1	Cowering
2	Frightened
3	Nauseated
4	Shaken

Instead of rolling on the table above, the caster may elect to leave the creature shaken for the duration of the spell.

Material Component: A peach seed.

RAY OF HOPE

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Good, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Apostle of peace 1, bard 1, cleric 1, emissary of Barachiel 1

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

Powerful hope wells up in the subject, who gains a +2 morale bonus on saving throws, attack rolls, ability checks, and skill checks.

Ray of hope counters and dispels sorrow (detailed in the Book of Vile Darkness).

SPREAD OF CONTENTMENT

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Cleric 8, Pleasure 8

Consequences of Sword of Conscience

Creature/Object	—Wisdom and Charisma Damage—
	1d6	1d8	2d6	2d8
Evil creature ¹ (HD)	10 or lower	11–25	26–50	51+
Evil elemental or undead (HD)	2 or lower	3–8	9–20	21+
Evil outsider (HD)	1 or lower	2–4	5–10	11+
Cleric of an evil deity ² (class levels)	1	2–4	5–10	11+

1 Except for evil elementals, undead, and outsiders, which have their own entries on the table.

2 Some characters who are not clerics may radiate an aura of equivalent power. The class description will indicate whether this applies.

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Effect: 10 ft./level-radius spread

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell has a calming effect on creatures within the spell's area.

Hostile and unfriendly creatures become indifferent, indifferent creatures turn friendly, and friendly creatures become helpful for the spell's duration.

This spell directly counters the effects of the spread of savagery spell (described in the Book of Vile Darkness).

This spell also calms creatures that have been otherwise magically enraged and forced to attack.

This spell does not calm or otherwise alter the dispositions of summoned creatures.

Material Component: Lammasu's feather.

SWORD OF CONSCIENCE

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Good, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Champion of Gwynharwyf 4, cleric 4, exalted arcanist 4, paladin 4, slayer of Domiel 4

Components: V, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One evil creature

Duration: Instantaneous; see text

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The target creature, which must be evil, is struck by pangs of conscience and remorse.

The creature instantaneously takes Wisdom and Charisma damage according to the magnitude of its evil.

The creature regains lost abilities normally; they do not automatically return when the spell's duration expires.

This effect is not language-dependent.

Level: Apostle of peace 1, cleric 1, Celestial 1, exalted arcanist 1, Joy 1, slayer of Domiel 1

Components: V

VISION OF HEAVEN

Enchantment [Mind-Affecting]

Casting Time: 1 standard action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Target: One evil creature

Duration: 1 round
Saving Throw: Will negates
Spell Resistance: Yes

Your words allow the target creature the merest glimpse of the blessed joy of the Seven Heavens, spurring the target to a moment of regret for its evil deeds.

For 1 round, the target is dazed.

In addition, the creature is more susceptible to future redemption.

For the next 24 hours, the creature takes a -1 penalty on all Will saves related to redemption (see Chapter 2).

WAGES OF SIN

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Good, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 6

Components: V, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One evil creature/level

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The affected creatures' own evil thoughts and impulses blossom in their minds into intense suspicion and distrust.

Each subject becomes convinced that its own allies are plotting to kill it at any moment, and attacks the nearest evil creature using whatever attack form (melee or ranged attack, spell, supernatural or spell-like ability) is most effective against that foe, to the best of its knowledge.

Affected creatures do not completely ignore other threats, but attack evil creatures in preference to any other foes.

Abstinence Component: You must refrain from intoxicants and stimulants for one week before casting this spell.

WARCRY

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Bard 3, champion of Gwynharwyf 2, sorcerer/wizard 3

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 30 ft.

Effect: Cone-shaped burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You unleash a tremendous battle cry that causes creatures within a 30-foot cone to cower in fear for 1d4 rounds.

Any creature that fails its Fortitude save loses its Dexterity bonus to AC and can take no actions.

Foes gain a +2 bonus to hit cowering creatures.

YOKE OF MERCY

Enchantment (Compulsion) [Good, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Apostle of peace 2, sorcerer/wizard 2

Components: V, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: No

This spell compels a creature up to 4 HD more than the caster's level to fight in a merciful manner.

Specifically, the creature deals nonlethal damage with its attacks, avoids using damaging spells or spell-like abilities, and does not deliver a coup de grace to a helpless foe.

Abstinence Component: You must not have dealt damage, by spell or any other means, to another living creature within the last 8 hours before casting this spell.

EVOCATION

AMBER SARCOPHAGUS

Evocation

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 7

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 day/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You infuse an amber sphere with magical power and hurl it toward the target.

If you succeed on a ranged touch attack, the amber strikes the target and envelops it in coruscating energy that hardens immediately, trapping the target within a translucent, immobile amber shell.

The target is perfectly preserved and held in stasis, unharmed yet unable to take any actions.

Within the amber sarcophagus, the target is protected against all attacks, including purely mental ones.

The amber sarcophagus has hardness 5 and 10 hp per caster level (maximum 200 hp).

If it is reduced to 0 hp, it shatters and crumbles to worthless amber dust, at which point the target is released from stasis (although it is flat-footed until its next turn).

Left alone, the amber sarcophagus traps the target for the duration of the spell, then disappears before releasing the target from captive stasis.

Material Component: An amber sphere worth at least 500 gp.

AYAILLA'S RADIANT BURST

Evocation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 2

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (blindness) and Reflex half (shards)

Spell Resistance: Yes

Shards of heavenly light spray from your fingertips, blinding evil creatures in their path for 1 round.

A successful Fortitude save negates the blindness.

The luminous shards also sear the flesh of evil creatures, dealing 1d6 points of damage per two caster levels (maximum 5d6).

A successful Reflex save halves the damage, which is of divine origin.

Sacrifice: 1d2 points of Strength damage.

BOLT OF GLORY

Evocation [Good]

Level: Exalted arcanist 6, Glory 6

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./level)

Effect: Ray

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

By casting this spell, you project a bolt of energy from the Positive Energy Plane against one creature.

You must succeed on a ranged touch attack to strike your target.

A creature struck takes varying damage, depending on its nature and home plane of existence:

Creature's Origin	Damage
Material Plane	5d8
Elemental, neutral outsider	5d6
Positive Energy Plane, good outsider	none
Evil outsider, undead creature	10d8
Negative Energy Plane	15d8

BRILLIANT EMANATION

Evocation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 3

Components: Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 100 ft. + 10 ft./level

Area: 100-ft.-radius emanation + 10-ft. radius per level

Duration: 1d4 rounds

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell causes a divine glow to radiate from any reflective objects worn or carried by the caster, including metal armor.

Evil creatures within the spell's area are blinded unless they succeed on a Fortitude saving throw.

Nonevil characters perceive the brilliant light emanating from the caster, but are not blinded by it and do not suffer any negative effects from it.

Evil characters that make their saving throw are not blinded, but are distracted, taking a -1 penalty on any attacks made within the spell's area for the duration of the spell.

Creatures must be able to see visible light to be affected by this spell.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength damage.

CELESTIAL BRILLIANCE

Evocation [Good, Light]

Level: Cleric 4, Glory 4, sorcerer/wizard 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Object touched

Duration: 1 day/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The object touched sheds light brighter than bright sunlight, channeled directly from the celestial realms.

The light extends to a 120-foot radius: bright light to 60 feet and dim light in another 60 feet.

Creatures with light sensitivity take twice the usual penalty when they are within 60 feet of the object.

Undead creatures take 1d6 points of damage each round they are within the bright light.

Evil outsiders, as well as undead creatures that are specifically harmed by sunlight, take 2d6 points of damage each round in the bright light.

Celestial brilliance brought into an area of magical darkness (or vice versa) is temporarily negated, so that the otherwise prevailing light conditions exist in the overlapping areas of effect.

Celestial brilliance counters or dispels any darkness spell of equal or lower level, such as deeper darkness.

CONSTRICTING CHAINS

Evocation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 7

Components: V, S, F, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You call upon the heavenly powers to bind a creature in writhing chains of scintillating light.

The creature is entangled, taking a -2 penalty on attack rolls and a -4 penalty to effective Dexterity.

Moreover, the chains are anchored to the nearest immobile object (usually the floor), preventing the bound creature from moving.

An entangled creature attempting to cast a spell must succeed on a Concentration check (DC 15 + spell level) or lose the spell.

The chains automatically constrict the bound creature for 3d6 points of nonlethal damage per round unless the caster (as a free action) commands the chains not to deal damage during any given round.

The constricting chains have AC 20, 5 hp per caster level (maximum 100 hp), and damage reduction 10/magic.

They are immune to energy-based attacks, nonlethal damage, and all spells except dispel magic and similar effects. They are not subject to critical hits.

Half of all damage dealt to the chains (rounded down) is transferred to the target.

A successful DC 32 Strength check breaks the chains and ends the spell.

An entangled creature can also attempt to escape (requiring 1 minute) with a DC 40 Escape Artist check.

Focus: A small silver chain (10 gp).

Sacrifice: 1d2 points of Strength drain.

CROWN OF BRILLIANCE

Evocation [Good, Light]

Level: Cleric 6

Components: V, S, M, Archon

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 20 ft.

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

A blazing crown of golden light surrounds your head.

Creatures you engage in melee combat must make successful Fortitude saving throws or be blinded for 1d4 rounds.

Creatures that successfully save, and creatures that have recovered from blindness, are still dazzled for as long as they remain in melee with you.

Creatures with light sensitivity and creatures that are harmed by sunlight (such as vampires) must make a Will save if they are within the area of the spell.

Creatures that fail their saving throws must move outside the area.

Undead within the area take 1d6 points of damage each round they remain in the area.

Material Component: An opal worth at least 100 gp, carried on your person through the duration of the spell.

The opal shatters upon completion of the spell, and the spell ends prematurely if the opal is shattered by other means.

CROWN OF FLAME

Evocation [Good]

Level: Cleric 5, exalted arcanist 5, Glory 5

Components: V, Archon

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 10 ft.

Area: 10-ft.-radius emanation, centered on you

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You become a blazingly hot beacon of the powers of good, searing all evil outsiders, evil undead, and evil fey within 10 feet of you.

Affected creatures take 2d6 points of damage per round.

CROWN OF GLORY

Evocation [Good]

Level: Glory 8, Herald 8

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: 10 ft./level

Area: 10-ft.-radius/level emanation centered on you

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell temporarily bestows the aura of celestial authority on you, inspiring awe in all lesser creatures who behold your terrible perfection and righteousness.

Creatures with fewer than 8 levels or Hit Dice cease whatever they are doing and turn to face you.

When you speak, your words are treated as a suggestion spell, and the listeners telepathically understand you, even if they do not understand your language.

Creatures who make successful saving throws are not awed by you and can continue their actions normally.

Creatures with more than 8 HD are immune to the effect of the spell.

Material Component: An opal worth at least 200 gp, carried on your person.

The opal shatters upon the completion of the spell.

(If it is shattered prematurely, the spell ends).

This spell first appeared in Defenders of the Faith.

CURTAIN OF LIGHT

Evocation [Light]

Level: Sanctified 5

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Curtain of light whose area is up to one 5-ft. square/level

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: See text

Spell Resistance: No

An immobile, vertical curtain of brilliant light energy springs into existence.

This barrier cannot pass through spaces occupied by creatures and objects, but it can bend around them.

One side of the curtain, selected by you, sends forth flashes of light, dealing 2d4 points of damage to evil creatures within 10 feet and 1d4 points of damage to evil creatures past 10 feet but within 20 feet.

The curtain deals this damage when it appears and at the start of the caster's turn each round.

In addition, the curtain deals 2d6 points of damage +1 point of damage per caster level (maximum +20) to any evil creature passing through it.

Contact with the curtain deals double damage to undead creatures.

A curtain of light can be made permanent with a permanency spell.

A permanent curtain of light that is destroyed becomes inactive for 10 minutes, and then reforms.

Curtain of light counters any magical darkness spell of 5th level or lower with which it comes into contact.

Any magical darkness spell of 5th level or higher counters curtain of light.

The curtain of light is impervious to all physical attacks and spells except antimagic field, dispel magic, greater dispel magic, and Mordenkainen's disjunction.

Sacrifice: 1d4 points of Strength damage.

DANCING WEB

Evocation [Good]

Level: Cleric 5, druid 5, sorcerer/wizard 4

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell creates a burst of magical energy that deals 1d6 points per level of nonlethal damage (maximum 10d6). Further, evil creatures that fail their saving throw become entangled by lingering threads of magical energy for 1d6 rounds.

An entangled creature takes a -2 penalty on attack rolls and a -4 penalty to effective Dexterity; the entangled target can move at half speed but can't run or charge.

An entangled creature that attempts to cast a spell must succeed on a DC 15 Concentration check or lose the spell. This spell affects only creatures—objects are unharmed.

Arcane Material Component: A bit of spider's web.

DIAMOND SPRAY

Evocation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 4

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 60 ft.

Area: Cone-shaped burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

A blast of diamondlike shards springs from your hand and extends outward in a glittering cone.

The cone dazzles evil creatures in the area for 2d6 rounds. The spell also deals 1d6 points of damage per caster level (maximum 10d6).

The damage affects only evil creatures.

A successful Reflex save reduces the damage by half but does not negate the dazzling effect.

Material Component: Diamond dust worth at least 100 gp.

EMERALD BURST

Evocation [Good]

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 5

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 20-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You infuse an emerald with magical power and it flies toward your enemies.

The gemstone explodes on impact, releasing a coruscating pulse of green light.

Neutral creatures within the burst are dazed for 1 round.

Evil creatures within the burst are stunned for 1d4 rounds.

Good creatures within the burst are unaffected.

Material Component: Emerald worth at least 1,000 gp.

EXALTED FURY

Evocation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 9

Components: V, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Area: 40-ft. radius burst, centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

Uttering a single, awesomely powerful syllable of the Words of Creation, your body erupts in the same holy power that shaped the universe at its birth.

All evil creatures within the area take damage equal to your current hit points + 50.

Sacrifice: You die.

You can be raised or resurrected normally.

HAMMER OF RIGHTEOUSNESS

Evocation [Force, Good]

Level: Sanctified 3

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: Magic warhammer of force

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half

Spell Resistance: Yes

A great warhammer of positive energy springs into existence, launches toward a target that you can see within the range of the spell, and strikes unerringly.

The hammer of righteousness deals 1d6 points of damage per caster level to the target, or 1d8 points of damage per caster level if the target is evil.

The caster can decide to deal nonlethal damage instead of lethal damage with the hammer, or can split the damage evenly between the two types.

How the damage is split must be decided before damage is rolled.

The hammer is considered a force effect and has no miss chance when striking an incorporeal target.

A successful Fortitude save halves the damage.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength damage.

HEAVEN'S TRUMPET

Evocation [Good, Sonic]

Level: Bard 6, cleric 7, emissary of Barachiel 4

Components: S, F, Archon

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 120 ft.

Targets: Foes in a 120-ft.-radius burst centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

You produce a blast of music of utter clarity, piercing beauty, and paralyzing awe.

All foes within 120 feet of you must succeed on a Fortitude save or be paralyzed for 1d4 rounds.

Focus: A masterwork trumpet, which you must blow.

HEAVENLY LIGHTNING STORM

Evocation [Good]

Level: Celestial 7, exalted arcanist 7

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 10-ft. wide to close range (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: Up to one creature per caster level

As heavenly lightning, except it has a greater range, can strike more targets, and deals 5d6 points of special celestial electricity damage.

HEAVENLY LIGHTNING

Evocation [Good]

Level: Celestial 5, exalted arcanist 5

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: Up to one creature per 2 caster levels

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You create a leaping bolt of radiant lightning that arcs from one target to the next, avoiding other creatures in its path.

Each target struck by an arc takes 3d6 points of special celestial electricity damage.

Creatures normally immune to electricity take full damage from this spell, and the celestial lightning is not subject to being reduced by protection from energy (electricity) or similar magic.

LANTERN LIGHT

Evocation [Good, Light]

Level: Cleric 1, paladin 1, sorcerer/wizard 1, vassal of Bahamut 1

Components: S, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Ray

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

Rays of holy light flash from your eyes.

You can fire 1 ray per 2 caster levels, but no more than 1 ray per round.

You must succeed on a ranged touch attack to hit a target.

The target takes 1d6 points of damage from each ray.

Abstinence Component: You must abstain from sexual intercourse for 24 hours before casting this spell.

LEONAL'S ROAR

Evocation [Good, Sonic]

Level: Druid 8

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 40 ft.

Targets: Nongood creatures in a 40-ft.-radius spread centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell has the effect of a holy word, and it additionally deals 2d6 points of sonic damage to nongood creatures in the area.

A successful Fortitude saving throw negates the sonic damage, but not the other effects of the spell.

RADIANT SHIELD

Evocation [Electricity, Good]

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 4, Wrath 4

Components: V, S, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

A scintillating aura of white radiance wreathes you and causes damage to each creature that attacks you in melee. The radiance also protects you from electricity attacks.

Any creature striking you with a natural or handheld weapons deals normal damage but also takes 1d6 points of electricity damage + 1 point per caster level (the creature's spell resistance applies).

You take only half damage from electricity-based attacks.

If an electricity-based attack allows a Reflex save for half damage, you take no damage on a successful save.

The radiance is as bright as a light spell, casting bright light in a 10-foot radius and shadowy illumination to 20 feet.

Abstinence Component: You must not have cast a darkness or Necromancy spell within the last 24 hours before casting this spell.

RAIN OF BLACK TULIPS

Evocation [Good]

Level: Druid 9

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: Cylinder (80-ft. radius, 80 ft. high)

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None (damage) and Fortitude negates (nausea)

Spell Resistance: Yes

Tulips as black as midnight fall from the sky.

The tulips explode with divine energy upon striking evil creatures, each of which takes 5d6 points of damage.

In addition, evil creatures that fail a Fortitude save are nauseated (unable to attack, cast spells, concentrate on spells, perform any task requiring concentration, or take anything other than a single move action per turn) until they leave the spell's area.

A successful Fortitude save renders a creature immune to the nauseating effect of the tulips, but not the damage.

Material Component: A black tulip.

RAIN OF EMBERS

Evocation [Fire, Good]

Level: Sanctified 7

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: Cylinder (40-ft. radius, 120 ft. high)

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Reflex half; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell causes orange, starlike embers to rain steadily from above.

Each round, the falling embers deal 10d6 points of damage to evil creatures within the spell's area.

Half of the damage is fire damage, but the other half results directly from divine power and is therefore not subject to being reduced by resistance to fire-based attacks, such as that granted by protection from energy (fire), fire shield (chill shield), and similar magic.

Creatures may leave the area to avoid taking additional damage, but a new saving throw is required each round a creature is caught in the fiery downpour.

A shield provides a cover bonus on the Reflex save, depending on its size: small +2, large +4, tower +7.

A shield spell oriented upward provides a +4 cover bonus on the Reflex save.

A creature using its shield (or shield spell) to block the rain of embers cannot use it for defense in combat.

Sacrifice: 1d2 points of Strength drain.

RAIN OF ROSES

Evocation [Good]

Level: Druid 7

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: Cylinder (80-ft. radius, 80 ft. high)

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: None (ability damage) and Fortitude negates (sickening)

Spell Resistance: Yes

Red roses fall from the sky.

Their sharp thorns graze the flesh of evil creatures, dealing 1d4 points of temporary Wisdom damage per round.

A creature reduced to 0 Wisdom falls unconscious as its mind succumbs to horrible nightmares.

In addition, the beautiful rose petals sicken evil creatures touched by them; those that fail a Fortitude save are sickened (–2 penalty on attack rolls, weapon damage rolls, saving throws, ability checks, and skill checks) until they leave the spell's area.

A successful Fortitude save renders a creature immune to the sickening effect of the roses, but not the ability damage caused by their thorns.

Material Component: A red rose.

RIGHTEOUS SMITE

Evocation [Good]

Level: Cleric 7, exalted arcanist 7, Wrath 7

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft. radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will partial; see text

Spell Resistance: Yes

You draw down holy power to smite your enemies.

Only evil and neutral creatures are harmed by the spell; good creatures are unaffected.

The spell deals 1d6 points of damage per caster level (maximum 20d6) to evil creatures (or 1d8 points of damage per caster level, maximum 20d8, to evil outsiders) and blinds them for 1d4 rounds.

A successful Will saving throw reduces damage to half and negates the blinding effect.

The spell deals only half damage against creatures that are neither good nor evil, and they are not blinded. They can reduce that damage by half (down to one-quarter of the roll) with a successful Will save.

STARS OF ARVANDOR

Evocation [Force, Good]

Level: Cleric 4, druid 4, ranger 4, sorcerer/wizard 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: Up to one creature or object per round

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You create one tiny, twinkling star per level (maximum 10 stars).

These minute starbursts orbit your head like ioun stones.

As a free action, you can launch one star per round at a target your designate within range.

Alternatively, as a standard action, you may launch up to three stars per round at one or more targets within range.

Each star requires its own ranged touch attack roll.

A nonevil target takes 1d8 points of damage, half of which is nonlethal (round down).

Evil targets take 1d8 points of lethal damage instead.

The stars are magical force, so they ignore incorporeality.

STORM OF SHARDS

Evocation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 6

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 0 ft.

Area: 80-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (blinding) and Reflex half (shards)

Spell Resistance: Yes

Shards of heavenly light rain down from above.

Evil creatures within the spell's area that fail a Fortitude save are blinded permanently.

The light shards also slice the flesh of evil creatures, dealing 1d6 points of damage per caster level (maximum 20d6).

A successful Reflex save halves the damage, which is of divine origin.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength drain.

NECROMANCY

AFFLICTION

Necromancy [Good]

Level: Cleric 3, druid 3, sorcerer/wizard 4, Wrath 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Evil creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject contracts an affliction selected from the list below, which strikes immediately (no incubation period). Afflictions deal damage only to evil creatures. Any evil creature takes damage equal to that listed plus its Charisma bonus. An evil elemental or evil undead takes an extra 1 point of damage, and an evil outsider or an evil cleric of an evil deity takes an extra 2 points. The DC listed is for the subsequent saves (use affliction's normal save DC for the initial saving throw).

Affliction	DC	Damage*
Depraved decadence	18	1d4 Str
Eternal torpor	14	1d6 Dex
Raging desire	15	1d3 Con
Consuming passion	17	1d4 Int
Haunting conscience	16	1d4 Wis
Pride in vain	20	1d6 Cha

* See Chapter 3: Exalted Equipment for more information about afflictions.

BLOOD OF THE MARTYR

Necromancy (Healing) [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 4, champion of Gwynharwyf 4, cleric 4, paladin 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: Willing creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You may transfer your own hit points directly to a target creature within range.

You must transfer at least 20 points.

Transferred hit points are damage to you.

The creature takes your transferred hit points as if receiving a cure wounds spell and cannot gain more hit points than its maximum allows; any excess points are lost.

This spell transfers only actual hit points, not temporary hit points.

An unconscious target is considered a "willing creature" for purposes of this spell.

DIVINE SACRIFICE

Necromancy

Level: Champion of Gwynharwyf 1, paladin 1

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level or until discharged

You can sacrifice life force to increase the damage you deal. When you cast the spell, you can sacrifice up to 10 of your hit points.

For every 2 hp you sacrifice, on your next successful attack you deal +1d6 damage, to a maximum of +5d6 on that attack.

Your ability to deal this extra damage ends when you successfully attack or when the spell duration ends.

Sacrificed hit points count as normal lethal damage, even if you have the regeneration ability.

HEALING TOUCH

Necromancy [Good]

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You transfer some of your life essence to another creature, healing it.

You may heal up to 1d6 hit points per two caster levels (maximum 10d6), and must decide how many dice to roll when you cast the spell.

You take damage equal to the amount the target is healed. This spell cannot restore more hit points to a target than your current hit points +10, which is enough to kill you.

LAST JUDGMENT

Necromancy [Death, Good]

Level: Cleric 8, sorcerer/wizard 8, Wrath 8

Components: V, Celestial

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One evil humanoid, monstrous humanoid, or giant/2 levels

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

Reciting a list of the targets' evil deeds, you call down the judgment of the heavens upon their heads.

Creatures that fail their saving throw are struck dead and bodily transported to the appropriate Lower Plane to suffer their eternal punishment.

Creatures that succeed nevertheless take 3d6 points of temporary Wisdom damage as guilt for their misdeeds overwhelms their minds.

This spell affects only humanoids, monstrous humanoids, and giants of evil alignment.

A true resurrection or miracle spell can restore life to a creature slain by this spell normally.

A resurrection spell works only if the creature's body can be recovered from the Lower Planes before the resurrection is cast.

PHOENIX FIRE

Necromancy [Fire, Good]

Level: Sanctified 7

Components: V, S, F, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: 15 ft.

Area: 15-ft.-radius spread, centered on you

Duration: Instantaneous (see text)

Saving Throw: Reflex half (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes (see text)

You immolate yourself, consuming your flesh in a cloud of flame 20 feet high and 30 feet in diameter.

You die (no saving throw, and spell resistance does not apply).

Every evil creature within the cloud takes 2d6 points of damage per caster level (maximum 40d6).

Neutral characters take half damage (and a successful Reflex save reduces that further in half), while good characters take no damage at all.

Half of the damage dealt by the spell against any creature is fire; the rest results directly from divine power and is therefore not subject to being reduced by resistance to fire-based attacks, such as that granted by protection from energy (fire), fire shield (chill shield), and similar magic.

After 10 minutes, you rise from the ashes as if restored to life by a resurrection spell.

Focus: A tail feather from a phoenix, worth 40 gp.

Sacrifice: Your death and the level you lose when you return to life are the sacrifice cost for this spell.

RIGHTEOUS GLARE

Necromancy [Death, Good]

Level: Cleric 7, sorcerer/wizard 7

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

You gain a supernatural gaze attack like that of a ghaele eladrin.

Evil creatures with 5 HD or fewer within 60 feet of you must make a successful Will save or die.

Even if the save succeeds, the creature is affected as though by a fear spell for 2d10 rounds.

Neutral (neither good nor evil) creatures, and evil creatures with more than 5 HD, must succeed on a Will save or suffer the fear effect.

SANCTIFY THE WICKED

Necromancy [Good]

Level: Sanctified 9

Components: V, S, F, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One evil creature

Duration: See text

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell tears the foul, corrupted soul from the body of an evil creature and traps it in a diamond receptacle (the spell's focus).

The creature's soulless body instantly withers or molds into dust.

Trapped in the gem, the evil soul undergoes a gradual transformation.

The soul reflects on past evils and slowly finds within itself a spark of goodness.

Over time, this spark grows into a burning fire.

After one year, the trapped creature's soul adopts the alignment of the spell's caster (lawful good, chaotic good, or neutral good).

Once the soul's penitence is complete, shattering the diamond reforms the creature's original body, returns the creature's soul to it, and transforms the whole into a sanctified creature (see Chapter 8: Monsters).

If the diamond is shattered before the soul has found penitence, the evil creature's body and soul are fully restored; the creature's state is just as it was before the spell was cast.

The creature retains the memory of having been trapped in the gem, and it regards the spell's caster as a hated enemy who must be destroyed at all costs.

The diamond receptacle has a hardness of 20 and 1 hit point.

Focus: A flawless diamond worth no less than 10,000 gp.

Sacrifice: 1 character level.

SECURE CORPSE

Necromancy

Level: Cleric 6

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: Stores one creature's corpse in your holy symbol

Duration: 1 day/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell turns your holy symbol into a magical receptacle capable of holding one creature's corpse.

The corpse must be within range of the spell, in which case it is transformed into divine energy.

The energy is then drawn into the holy symbol, and the corpse is placed in stasis (as the gentle repose spell) for the duration of the spell.

The caster can release the corpse from the holy symbol by dismissing the spell.

If the spell ends or is dismissed, or if the holy symbol is destroyed, the contained corpse materializes in a square adjacent to the holy symbol's present or last location.

SICKEN EVIL

Necromancy [Good]

Level: Sanctified 5

Components: V, S, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Area: 20-ft.-radius emanation

Duration: 1 minute/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

You emanate a powerful aura that sickens evil creatures within the specified area.

Sacrifice: 1d4 points of Strength damage.

TRANSMUTATION

ASPECT OF THE DEITY

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 6, exalted arcanist 6, Herald 7
As lesser aspect of the deity, but you take on all the qualities of a celestial creature (see the Monster Manual for complete details):

- You take on a shining, metallic appearance.
 - You gain the ability to smite evil once a day.
- Add your Charisma bonus to your attack roll and your character level to your damage roll against an evil foe.
- You gain darkvision out to 60 ft.
 - You gain resistance 20 to acid, cold, and electricity.
 - You gain damage reduction 10/magic.
 - You gain spell resistance 25.

Your creature type does not change (you do not become an outsider).

ASPECT OF THE DEITY, GREATER

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 9, exalted arcanist 9, Herald 9
As lesser aspect of the deity, except that you take on the qualities of a half-celestial (see the Monster Manual for complete details).

You do not gain the spell-like abilities of these creatures. Your creature type changes to outsider for the duration of the spell.

Unlike other outsiders, you can be brought back from the dead if you are killed in this form.

You undergo the following transformations:

- You grow feathered wings that allow you to fly at twice your normal speed (good maneuverability).
- You gain +1 natural armor, or your existing natural armor bonus increases by +1.
- You gain low-light vision.
- You gain immunity to acid, cold, disease, and electricity.
- You gain a +4 racial bonus on your saving throws against poison.
- You gain the following enhancement bonuses to your ability scores: +4 Str, +2 Dex, +4 Con, +2 Int, +4 Wis, +4 Cha.

ASPECT OF THE DEITY, LESSER

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Apostle of peace 4, exalted arcanist 4, paladin 4

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

When you cast this spell, your body changes into a form that is more like your deity (in a very limited fashion, of course).

You gain a +4 enhancement bonus to your Charisma score.

You also gain acid, cold, and electricity resistance 10.

AXIOMATIC CREATURE

Transmutation

Level: Cleric 8, sorcerer/wizard 8

Components: V, S, M, XP, Archon

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Touch

Target: One corporeal creature of lawful or neutral alignment that is native to the Material Plane

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

This spell transforms the target into an axiomatic creature—a perfect version of itself.

The spell rids the creature of noticeable flaws, makes its fur or scales appear shinier, and so forth.

Animals touched by this spell become magical beasts, but otherwise the creature's type is unchanged.

If the target has an Intelligence of 2 or less, the spell imbues the target with an Intelligence of 3.

As an axiomatic creature, the target gains the following special attack:

Smite Chaos (Su): Once per day, the target can make a normal attack to deal extra damage equal to its HD total (maximum +20) against a chaotic opponent.

The target gains the following special quality:

Linked Minds (Ex): The target can communicate telepathically with other axiomatic creatures of its type within 300 feet.

If one in the group is not flat-footed, none of them are, and no axiomatic creature in the group is considered flanked unless they all are.

The target also gains darkvision with a range of 60 feet, spell resistance equal to double its HD (maximum 25), and resistance to cold, electricity, fire, and sonic attacks based on its HD, as shown below:

Target's HD	Cold, Electricity, Fire, and Sonic Resistance
1–3	5
4–7	10
8–11	15
12+	20

Material Component: A diamond wand worth at least 10,000 gp.

XP Cost: 1,000 XP.

BLINDING BEAUTY

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Beloved of Valarian 4, bard 4, druid 4, Fey 4, ranger 4

Components: V, S, Abstinence

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

You gain the physical beauty of a nymph, with some of the supernatural accompaniment.

All humanoids within 60 feet of you who look directly at you must succeed on a Fortitude save or be blinded permanently as though by the blindness spell.

During the duration of the spell, you can suppress or resume this effect as a free action, while remaining stunningly attractive.

Abstinence Component: You must abstain from sexual intercourse for one week before casting this spell.

CELESTIAL ASPECT

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 3

Components: V, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless); see text

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

The target can assume one of several celestial traits, chosen from selection below.

As a free action, the target can choose a different celestial trait, but the target cannot change traits more than once during a given round.

Arms of the Sword Archon: One of the target's arms reshapes into a blade that functions as a +1 flaming longsword or +1 holy longsword (caster's choice).

The caster may also choose to create a short sword version instead of the normal longsword-sized blade.

The target cannot be holding anything in the affected arm, and the armband cannot be disarmed or sundered.

Eyes of the Firre: Red flames fill the target's eyes.

Once per round, as a standard action, the target can deal 2d6 points of fire damage to any single creature or object within 60 feet, simply by gazing at it (no attack roll required).

Horns of the Cervidal: Ramlike horns sprout from the target's head.

The target can charge an opponent with its deadly horns. In addition to the normal benefits and hazards of a charge, this tactic allows the creature to make a single gore attack that deals 1d8 points of damage plus 1-1/2 times the target's Strength modifier.

Any summoned or called creature struck by the horns is dismissed instantly.

Wings of the Astral Deva: Angelic wings sprout from the target's back, allowing the target to fly at a speed of 100 feet (good).

Although these attributes change the target's appearance, other celestials do not recognize the target as a celestial being (unless the target happens to be one).

If the creature tries to disguise itself as a celestial, consult the Player's Handbook for the appropriate Disguise check DC.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength damage.

CHANNEL CELESTIAL

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 7

Components: V, DF, Abstinence, Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: You and 1 willing celestial

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You invite a celestial creature to occupy your body, as described in the section on Celestial Channeling in Chapter 2.

The celestial must be present when you cast the spell, it must be willing, and it cannot have more than 12 HD.

It need not have the innate spell-like ability to channel its power through mortals; this spell bestows that ability upon the celestial.

If you channel a celestial that was summoned to the Material Plane by means of a summon monster or similar spell, the channeling ends when the duration of the summoning spell ends, regardless of any remaining duration on the channel celestial spell.

Abstinence Component: You must abstain from intoxicants and stimulants for 24 hours before casting this spell.

You must not be the subject of any other spell at the time you cast this spell.

You must not be suffering from any ability damage, ability drain, or energy drain at the time you cast this spell, including the effects of any previously cast sanctified spell.

Sacrifice: 1d3 points of Strength and Dexterity damage.

CHANNEL GREATER CELESTIAL

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Sanctified 9

As channel celestial, but the celestial you channel may have up to 24 HD.

Abstinence Component: You must abstain from intoxicants and stimulants for one week before casting this spell.

You must not be the subject of any other spell at the time you cast this spell.

You must not be suffering from any ability damage, ability drain, or energy drain at the time you cast this spell, including the effects of any previously cast sanctified spell.

Sacrifice: 1d6 points of Strength and Dexterity damage.

CONVERT WAND

Transmutation

Level: Cleric 5

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Wand touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell temporarily transforms a magic wand of any type into a healing wand with the same number of charges remaining.

At the end of the spell's duration, the wand's original effect is restored, and any charges that were depleted remain so.

The spell level of the wand determines how powerful a healing instrument the wand becomes:

Spell Level	New Wand Type
1st	Wand of cure light wounds
2nd	Wand of cure moderate wounds
3rd	Wand of cure serious wounds
4th	Wand of cure critical wounds

For example, a 10th-level cleric can transform a wand of lightning bolt (3rd-level spell) into a wand of cure serious wounds for 10 minutes.

DISTILLED JOY

Transmutation

Level: Joy 3, sorcerer/wizard 3

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 1 day

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

You draw forth the material essence of joy from a creature experiencing great bliss.

This physical manifestation of joy, called ambrosia, can be used in the creation of good magic items, as a special spell component, or as a druglike substance (with no addictive qualities).

The Celestial Hebdomad, the rulers of the Seven Heavens, subsist entirely on ambrosia.

The caster draws ambrosia from the target and contains it within a tiny receptacle, such as a vial.

Ambrosia can only be drawn from a blissful creature; how the creature achieves this state of bliss can vary from one individual to the next.

For example, distilled joy can be cast on a deliriously lovestruck character, a dryad dreaming near her tree, an artist crafting his life's masterpiece, or a character experiencing a moment of rapture or undiluted sexual pleasure.

Good spellcasters can use ambrosia in magic item creation. Each dose provides the equivalent of 2 experience points needed to create the item.

A dose of ambrosia can also be used as an optional spell component (see Chapter 3).

A living creature that drinks a dose of ambrosia experiences a soothing sensation that wipes away minor aches and pains, takes the edge off grief and sadness, and cures 1 point of damage.

These positive sensations and emotions persist for 1d4+1 hours.

Focus: A vial or similar container in which to contain the ambrosia.

ELADRIN FORM

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 7

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

You assume the form of an incorporeal globe of eldritch colors, 5 feet in diameter.

In this form, you can fly at a speed of 150 feet with perfect maneuverability and can pass through walls and other solid objects.

You can use any spell-like or psionic abilities you possess, but you cannot cast spells or make physical attacks.

The globe form is incorporeal, and you have no Strength score while in that form.

While incorporeal, you can be harmed only by other incorporeal creatures, +1 or better magic weapons, psionics, spells, spell-like abilities, or supernatural abilities.

You are immune to all nonmagical attack forms.

Even when hit by spells or magic weapons, you have a 50% chance to ignore any damage from a corporeal source (except for positive energy, negative energy, force effects, or attacks made with ghost touch weapons).

ENERGIZE POTION

Transmutation

Level: Cleric 3, druid 3, sorcerer/wizard 2, Wrath 2

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 10-ft.-radius burst

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell transforms a magic potion into a volatile substance that can be hurled out to the specified range.

The spell destroys the potion and releases a 10-foot-radius burst of energy at the point of impact.

The caster must specify the energy type (acid, cold, electricity, fire, or sonic) when the spell is cast.

The potion deals 1d6 points of damage (of the appropriate energy type) per spell level of the potion (maximum 3d6).

For example, a potion of displacement transformed by this spell deals 3d6 points of damage.

An energized potion set to deal fire damage ignites combustibles within the spell's burst radius.

Material Component: A magic potion.

EYES OF THE AVORAL

Transmutation

Level: Apostle of peace 1, beloved of Valarian 1, cleric 1, druid 1, ranger 1, sorcerer/wizard 1

Components: S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

The subject gains an avoral's sharp eyesight, receiving a +8 racial bonus on Spot checks for the duration of the spell.

PERFECT SUMMONS

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Sorcerer/wizard 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 40-ft.-radius spread

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

You create an area in which only good creatures can be magically summoned.

No matter what a later caster attempts to summon, he actually summons a good version (a celestial beast rather than a fiendish one, for example) or a good equivalent (an archon rather than a formian).

If the summoner was attempting to summon a neutral or evil creature, the good creature that appears is not bound to obey the commands of the summoner or attack his enemies.

Instead, it deals with the summoner as it sees fit—possibly attacking an evil caster.

The summoning spell cannot be dismissed, though it can be dispelled.

A perfect summons spell can also be dispelled normally.

Perfect summons counters and dispels distort summons (which appears in Book of Vile Darkness), and vice versa.

QUICKSHIFT

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Cleric 6, sorcerer/wizard 6

Components: V, S, Celestial

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Personal

Target: You

Duration: 1 round/level

For the duration of this spell, the caster's teleport or greater teleport spell-like ability is quickened (as if enhanced with the Quicken Spell feat).

This spell has no effect on other spells or spell-like abilities.

REMOVE FATIGUE

Transmutation

Level: Apostle of peace 4, cleric 4, Pleasure 4

Components: S

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Target: Up to one living creature touched per two levels

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

The creatures you touch gain the benefits of 8 hours of restful sleep.

If a subject was fatigued, the fatigue and its penalties are removed.

If a subject was exhausted, the exhaustion becomes fatigue, but the subject only needs to rest for 1 more hour to eliminate the fatigue.

If a subject was already well rested, it does not need to rest or sleep during the next 24 hours.

Arcane spellcasters must still rest their minds for 8 hours in order to prepare or ready their spells.

RESTORE SOUL'S TREASURE

Transmutation

Level: Sanctified 8

Components: Sacrifice

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: Disintegrated remains of one item

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

If the target of this spell has lost a valuable item as the result of the spell soul's treasure lost (described in the Book of Vile Darkness), this spell restores that item.

This spell must be cast within 4 hours of the destruction of the item.

Upon completion of the casting, the disintegrated item returns to the possession of the original owner in the condition it was in before being disintegrated.

Sacrifice: 1d4 points of Constitution drain.

SECOND WIND

Transmutation

Level: Paladin 1

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

For the duration of the spell, the target can perform long-term strenuous activity as though it had the Endurance feat.

SILVERED CLAWS

Transmutation

Level: Druid 1, ranger 1

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

This spell allows the target to treat all of its natural attacks as silvered weapons.

The spell affects slam attacks, fist or claw attacks, bite attacks, and any other natural weapons the target creature possesses.

The spell does not change an unarmed strike's damage from nonlethal damage to lethal damage, however.

Silvered claws can be made permanent with a permanency spell.

SILVERED WEAPON

Transmutation

Level: Paladin 1, ranger 2

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One weapon or projectile touched

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (object, harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (object, harmless)

This spell transforms a single weapon or projectile you are holding into a silvered weapon.

The weapon may be magical, masterwork, or nonmagical, but it must be in hand when the spell is cast.

You can't cast this spell on a natural weapon, such as an unarmed strike (instead, see silvered claws).

The spell cannot be cast on more than one weapon or on multiple projectiles.
If the weapon targeted by the spell is made of another special material (cold iron or adamantine, for example), it loses the benefits of its original special material for the spell's duration.
Silvered weapon can be made permanent with a permanency spell.

SPEAR OF VALARIAN

Transmutation

Level: Beloved of Valarian 4, druid 5, ranger 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: One nonmagical weapon touched

Duration: 1 round/level (D)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (object, harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (object, harmless)

The spear of Valarian spell transforms one nonmagical weapon into a shimmering silver spear.

You must be carrying the weapon and have it drawn for the spell to work.

The shimmering spear functions as a +1 silvered spear.

Against magical beasts, the weapon becomes a +3 silvered spear that deals +2d6 points of bonus damage (as the bane special property).

If the spear of Valarian is sundered, the original weapon breaks as the spell suddenly ends.

If the wielder relinquishes the spear, willingly or not, it immediately reverts to its previous state and the spell ends.

SUSTAIN

Transmutation

Level: Apostle of peace 4, cleric 4, Endurance 4

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Touch

Target: Up to one living creature touched/two levels

Duration: 6 hours/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

This spell instantly relieves the negative effects of hunger and thirst and allows the targets to go without food or water for the duration of the spell, suffering no ill effects from the deprivation.

An affected creature can eat or drink normally without difficulty.

When the spell ends, the creatures must resume normal eating and drinking habits, but do not feel any adverse effects from the missed meals.

The size of the creature is not a factor; a Tiny lizard and a Colossal dragon are both fully nourished by the spell.

Material Component: A flask of warm wine and a loaf of bread.

TOMB OF LIGHT

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Cleric 7, sorcerer/wizard 7

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 round

Range: Touch

Target: Evil extraplanar creature touched

Duration: Concentration

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

When you cast this spell, you attempt to draw out the impure substance of an evil extraplanar creature and replace it with your own pure substance.

The spell is draining for you to cast, but it is deadly to evil outsiders and other extraplanar creatures with the taint of evil.

When you touch the target creature, it must make a Fortitude saving throw.

If it succeeds, it is unaffected by the spell.

If it fails, its skin becomes translucent and faintly radiant and the creature is immobilized, standing helpless.

The subject is aware and breathes normally, but cannot take any physical actions, even speech.

It can, however, execute purely mental actions (such as using a spell-like ability).

The effect is similar to hold person.

Each round you maintain the spell, the creature must attempt another Fortitude save.

If it fails the save, it takes 1d6 points of permanent Constitution drain.

Each round you maintain the spell, however, you take 1d6 points of nonlethal damage.

If you fall unconscious, or if the creature succeeds at its Fortitude save, the spell ends.

Material Component: A pure crystal or clear gemstone worth at least 50 gp.

TOUCH OF ADAMANTINE

Transmutation

Level: Cleric 6, druid 6, sorcerer/wizard 5

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Weapon touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Will negates (object, harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (object, harmless)

This spell grants one weapon the properties of an adamantine weapon.

The weapon gains a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls (as though it was a masterwork weapon) and bypasses hardness when striking objects or sundering weapons, ignoring hardness less than 20.

The affected weapon also has one-third more hit points than normal for the duration of the spell.

You can't cast this spell on a natural weapon, such as an unarmed strike.

A monk's unarmed strike is considered a weapon, and thus it can be enhanced by this spell.

If the weapon is made of another special material (cold iron or silver, for example), it loses the benefits of its original special material for the spell's duration.

Touch of adamantine cannot be made permanent with a permanency spell.

UNEARTHLY BEAUTY

Transmutation [Good]

Level: Druid 8, Fey 8

As blinding beauty, but at any time during the duration of the spell, you can evoke an additional effect as a free action. When you choose, any creature within 30 feet of you that is looking directly at you must succeed on a Will save or die.

Abstinence Component: You must abstain from sexual intercourse for one month before casting this spell.

WINGED MOUNT

Transmutation

Level: Paladin 4

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Touch

Target: Special mount touched

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell causes your mount to sprout giant, feathery white wings.

The wings grant the mount a fly speed of 60 feet, with good maneuverability.

The mount is slowed as normal for weight carried, barding worn, and environmental factors.

BOOK OF VILE DARKNESS (3.0)

ABJURATION

FLESH ARMOR

Abjuration [Evil]

Level: Asn 4

Components: V, S, M, F

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 10 minutes/level or until discharged

Prior to casting flesh armor, the caster flays the skin from a creature of his size and lays it upon his own flesh, wearing it like clothing or armor.

Once the caster casts flesh armor, his skin develops resistance to blows, cuts, stabs, and slashes.

The caster gains damage reduction 10/+1.

Once the spell has prevented a total of 5 points of damage per caster level (maximum 50 points), it is discharged, and the skin slowly rots, shedding in patches like the skin of a molting snake.

Material Component: A bit of flesh torn from the caster's body during the casting (dealing 1 point of damage).

Focus: The entire freshly harvested skin of another creature of the caster's size.

IMPOTENT POSSESSOR

Abjuration

Level: Demonologist 4, Sor/Wiz 6

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One possessing creature

Duration: Permanent (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster renders one creature that can possess or inhabit other creatures, or a creature that can move its mind out of its body, powerless within the host it currently inhabits.

Potential targets include possessing demons, malevolent ghosts, and a caster currently using a magic jar spell.

The only action the subject can take is to leave the body it currently inhabits.

This spell, in conjunction with imprison possessor, is one of the best ways to deal with a possessing fiend.

IMPRISON POSSESSOR

Abjuration

Level: Demonologist 4, Sor/Wiz 5

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One possessing creature and its host

Duration: Permanent (D)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster traps one creature that can possess or inhabit other creatures, or one that can move its mind out of its body, within the creature it currently inhabits.

Potential targets include possessing demons, malevolent ghosts, and a caster currently using a magic jar spell.

The possessing creature cannot leave the body it is currently in, whether or not it is its own, by any means.

PSYCHIC POISON

Abjuration [Evil]

Level: Clr 4, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 50-ft.-radius spread, or one single object or creature that can fit in that area

Duration: 1 hour/level

The caster taints an area, creature, or object so that anyone casting a mindaffecting or divination spell at the creature or object or within the area is subject to a psychic poison (see Table 3-6).

The caster may choose any psychic poison for which he meets the minimum level requirement.

Arcane Material Component: A bit of humanoid brain tissue.

SNARE ASTRAL TRAVELER

Abjuration

Level: Clr 6, Sor/Wiz 6

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One astral creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell allows the caster to attract and capture an astral creature, as someone using the astral projection spell. If such a creature is within range at the time of casting and fails its saving throw, it is brought instantly before the caster and held motionless and visible for the spell's duration. Spellcasters generally follow snare astral traveler with a more lasting restraint, such as trap the soul. If more than one astral creature is within range, the closest creature is affected. If that creature makes its saving throw, the next closest creature must make a save. This continues until one creature fails its save or all have succeeded.

SUSPEND DISEASE

Abjuration
Level: Clr 1, Drd 1, Sor/Wiz 1
Components: V, S, M
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Touch
Target: One creature
Duration: 24 hours
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)
Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)
This spell keeps a disease already infecting the subject from harming him for that day. The disease is in no way cured, and the subject cannot make a save to throw off the disease. Casters who intend to cast spells with a disease component find this spell particularly useful.
Material Component: A drop of bile.

UNHEAVENED

Abjuration [Evil]
Level: Sor/Wiz 2
Components: V, S, Drug
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Touch
Target: One creature
Duration: 10 minutes/level
Saving Throw: Will negates (harmless)
Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)
The caster grants one creature a +4 profane bonus on saving throws made against any spell or spell-like effect from a good outsider. This protection manifests as a black and red nimbus of energy visible around the subject. All celestial beings can identify an unheavened nimbus on sight.
Drug Component: Vodare.

CONJURATION

ABYSSAL MIGHT

Conjuration (Summoning) [Evil]
Level: Blk 3, Clr 4, Demonologist 3, Sor/Wiz 4
Components: V, S, M, Demon
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Personal

Target: Caster
Duration: 10 minutes/level
The caster summons evil energy from the Abyss and imbues himself with its might. The caster gains a +2 enhancement bonus to Strength, Constitution, and Dexterity. The caster's existing spell resistance improves by +2.
Material Component: The heart of a dwarf child.

ALERT BEBILITH

Conjuration (Calling) [Evil]
Level: Sor/Wiz 6
Components: V, S, M
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Effect: One bebilith
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: None
Spell Resistance: No

Check Result	Outcome
9 or lower	Bebilith and demon both attack caster.
10–12	Bebilith ignores demon and attempts to grab another random creature (possibly caster) within 100 feet of where it appeared. It tries to grab the creature, then retreat to the Abyss to feed, never returning.*
13–18	Bebilith flees without taking action.
19–21	Demon flees, and bebilith attempts to grab another random creature (possibly caster) within 100 feet of where it appeared. It tries to grab the creature, then retreat to the Abyss to feed, never returning.*
22–30	Demon flees, and 1 round later the bebilith starts hunting for it.
31 or higher	Bebilith grabs demon, and the two disappear.* The demon is never seen again.

*Bebilith attempts to start a grapple with its target. On a successful grapple check, bebilith and its victim are both affected by the bebilith's plane shift ability (this ability allows the bebilith to take a creature with it, which it can't otherwise do).

When in the presence of a demon, the caster conjures a bebilith—a demon that hunts other demons—to kill or chase off the original demon.

This spell is a risky proposition, however.

To determine the effect of the spell, subtract the Hit Dice of the demon from 12 (the HD of the bebilith), add the result to a caster level check, and consult the above table. If this spell is cast while not in the presence of a demon, the bebilith acts as if the caster level check result was a 10.

Material Component: A bit of demon's flesh and a lump of iron.

APOCALYPSE FROM THE SKY

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 9

Components: V, S, M, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 day

Range: Personal

Area: 10-mile radius/level, centered on caster

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster calls upon the darkest forces in all existence to rain destruction down upon the land.

All creatures and objects in the spell's area take 10d6 points of fire, acid, or sonic damage (caster's choice).

This damage typically levels forests, sends mountains tumbling, and wipes out entire populations of living creatures.

The caster is subject to the damage as well as the corruption cost.

Material Component: An artifact, usually one of good perverted to this corrupt use.

Corruption Cost: 3d6 points of Constitution damage and 4d6 points of Wisdom drain.

Just preparing this spell deals 1d3 points of Wisdom damage, with another 1d3 points of Wisdom damage for each day it remains among the caster's prepared spells.

BLACK BAG

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Asn 1, Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Effect: A black leather bag

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell creates a bag full of knives, scalpels, and other small torture implements.

If the implements are removed from the bag by anyone other than the caster, or if they leave the caster's possession after he removes them, they disintegrate after 1 round.

The bag and its magically created contents weigh only 1 pound.

Evil magic items, including items that deal unholy damage, and items with an evil spell as a prerequisite for their creation can be placed in the bag as if it had 10 cubic feet of space.

These additional items add no weight to the bag.

Nonevil items added to the black bag fall through as if the bag had no bottom, so they cannot be stored in the bag.

Material Component: A strip of black leather soaked in the blood of a willing masochist.

CALL DRETCH HORDE

Conjuration (Calling) [Evil]

Level: Demonologist 3, Mortal Hunter 4, Sor/Wiz 5

Components: V, S, Soul

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 2d4 dretches

Duration: One year

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster calls 2d4 dretches from the Abyss to where she is, offering them the soul that she has prepared.

In exchange, they will serve the caster for one year as guards, slaves, or whatever else she needs them for.

They are profoundly stupid, so the caster cannot give them more complicated tasks than can be described in about ten words.

No matter how many times the caster casts this spell, she can control no more than 2 HD worth of fiends per caster level.

If she exceeds this number, all the newly called creatures fall under the caster's control, and any excess from previous castings become uncontrolled.

The caster chooses which creatures to release.

CALL LEMURE HORDE

Conjuration (Calling) [Evil]

Level: Mortal Hunter 4, Sor/Wiz 5

Components: V, S, Soul

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: 3d4 lemures

Duration: One year

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster calls 3d4 lemures from the Nine Hells to where he is, offering them the soul that he has prepared.

In exchange, they will serve the caster for one year as guards, slaves, or whatever else he needs them for.

They are nonintelligent, so the caster cannot give them more complicated tasks than can be described in about five words.

No matter how many times the caster casts this spell, he can control no more than 2 HD worth of fiends per caster level.

If he exceeds this number, all the newly called creatures fall under the caster's control, and any excess from previous castings become uncontrolled.

The caster chooses which creatures to release.

CALL NIGHTMARE

Conjuration (Calling) [Evil]

Level: Demonologist 4, Sor/Wiz 5

Components: V, S, Soul

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: One nightmare

Duration: One week

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster calls a nightmare from the Lower Planes to where she is, offering it the soul that she has prepared.

In exchange, the nightmare serves the caster for one week as a mount or guard, although if the nightmare moves more than 150 feet away from her, it immediately returns whence it came.

Multiple castings of this spell replace the previous nightmare with a new one.

CLOUD OF THE ACHAIERAI

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Clr 6, Demonologist 4

Components: V, S, Disease

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Area: 10-ft.-radius spread

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster conjures a choking, toxic cloud of inky blackness.

Those other than the caster within the cloud take 2d6 points of damage.

They must also succeed at a Fortitude save or be subject to a confusion effect for the duration of the spell.

Disease Component: Soul rot.

DEATH BY THORNS

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil, Death]

Level: Corrupt 7

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Targets: Up to three creatures, no two of which can be more than 15 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster causes thorns to sprout from the insides of the subject creatures, which writhe in agony for 1d4 rounds, incapacitated, before dying.

A wish or miracle spell cast on a subject during this time can eliminate the thorns and save that creature.

Creatures that succeed at their Fortitude saving throws are still incapacitated for 1d4 rounds in horrible agony, taking 1d6 points of damage per round.

At the end of the agony, however, the thorns disappear.

Corruption Cost: 1d3 points of Wisdom drain.

DROWN

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One humanoid

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject's lungs fill with water if the subject fails a Fortitude saving throw.

To avoid drowning, the subject can hold his breath (see The Drowning Rule in Chapter 3 of the DUNGEON MASTER'S Guide).

The subject gains a new save (to expel the water) every 2 rounds after the first.

While holding his breath with water-filled lungs, a character cannot talk or cast spells with verbal components, and he takes a -2 circumstance penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, ability checks, and skill checks.

EVIL WEATHER

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 8

Components: V, S, M, XP, Corrupt (see below)

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: Personal

Area: 1-mile/level radius, centered on caster

Duration: 3d6 minutes

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster conjures a type of evil weather.

It functions as described in Chapter 2 of this book, except that area and duration are as given for this spell.

To conjure violet rain, the caster must sacrifice 10,000 gp worth of amethysts and spend 200 XP.

Other forms of evil weather have no material component or experience point cost.

Corruption Cost: 3d6 points of Constitution damage.

EXTRACT DRUG

Conjuration (Creation)

Level: Brd 1, Clr 1, Drd 1, Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Effect: One dose of a drug

Duration: Permanent

The caster infuses a substance with energy and creates a magical version of a drug.

The magical version manifests as greenish fumes that rise from the chosen focus.

The fumes must then be inhaled as a standard action within 1 round to get the drug's effects.

The type of drug extracted depends on the substance used.

	Drug	Effect
Material	Extracted	on Focus
Metal	Baccaran	Metal's hardness drops by 1.
Stone	Vodare	Stone's hardness drops by 1.
Water	Sannish	Water becomes brackish and foul.
Air	Mordayn vapor	Foul odor fills the area (up to 50-ft. radius) for 1 hour.
Wood	Mushroom powder	Wood takes on a permanent foul odor

There may be other drugs that can be extracted with rarer substances, at the DM's discretion.

Focus: 15 lb. or 1 cubic foot of the material in question.

HELL'S POWER

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Blk 3, Clr 4, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S, M, Devil

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 10 minutes/level

The caster summons evil energy from the Nine Hells and bathes himself in its power.

The caster gains a +2 deflection bonus to Armor Class, as well as an upgrade of his existing damage reduction by +1 (DR 10/+1 becomes DR 10/+2, for example).

Material Component: The heart of an elf child.

NETHER TRAIL

Conjuration (Creation)

Level: Sor/Wiz 1

Components: S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Effect: A trail 20 ft. long/level

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: No

The caster creates a handful of invisible, nigh-intangible powder that attracts creatures from the Lower Planes.

The caster can sprinkle this powder in a trail on the ground.

Evil outsiders who come within 10 feet of any portion of this trail and fail their saving throws follow the trail as if affected by a compulsion effect.

Compelled fiends will follow a nether trail even into danger. For example, the trail could lead to a trap, a holy spell effect, or even a prison cell.

If the danger is obvious, such as a blade barrier, the compelled creatures get another saving throw to resist.

A compelled creature only follows the trail to its end. So, if the trail leads to the edge of a cliff, the fiend goes to the edge of the cliff and no farther.

If a creature encounters the trail in the middle, it instinctively senses which direction is forward and which is backward.

When the evil outsider reaches the end of the trail, the compulsion effect ends, and the creature cannot be affected by this particular nether trail again.

The trail can be obscured and destroyed by anyone who can see invisible objects.

It takes a standard action to destroy 10 feet of trail, but an evil outsider must make its saving throw first.

Material Component: A urine-soaked holy symbol, which crumbles into the powder that creates the nether trail.

PHANTASMAL THIEF

Conjuration (Creation)

Level: Greed 8, Wiz/Sor 8

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Effect: One object

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

An invisible force, not unlike an unseen servant, comes into being where the caster wishes.

On the caster's turn, this force steals objects from others as she inaudibly directs it to (a free action).

A phantasmal thief can only steal from creatures.

It cannot break into locked chests or steal unattended objects.

A phantasmal thief has a Hide bonus of +20 (useful against those who can see invisible creatures) and a Move Silently bonus of +20.

If a phantasmal thief goes undetected, it can steal any object a creature possesses but is not carrying or wearing.

Even objects in a bag of holding can be stolen.

It can only steal objects, bring objects to the caster, or put them back where they came from.

It can take no other actions.

A phantasmal thief takes 1 round to steal an object and another round to bring it to the caster.

A phantasmal thief can only hold one object at a time; the object becomes invisible in the grasp of the phantasmal thief.

The phantasmal thief cannot take an item if the thief is detected by the creature it's trying to steal from (usually by a Listen or Spot check).

However, the thief, however, can repeat the attempt next round.

It cannot be harmed in any way, although it can be dispelled.

A phantasmal thief can also steal an object from a creature's hand.

It does this as if it had the Improved Disarm feat and a +20 Strength bonus.

If a phantasmal thief is used in this way, it disappears after it brings the stolen object to the caster.

Material Component: A spool of green thread.

SPORES OF THE VROCK

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Clr 2, Demonologist 1

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 full round

Area: 5-ft.-radius, centered on caster

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster summons a mass of spores that fill the area around him.

The spores deal 1d8 points of damage to all creatures within 5 feet other than the caster.

Then they penetrate the skin and grow, dealing an additional 1d2 points of damage each round for 10 rounds.

At the end of this time, a tangle of viny growths covers each subject.

A delay poison spell stops the spores' growth for its duration. Bless, neutralize poison, or remove disease kills the spores, as does sprinkling the victim with a vial of holy water.

Arcane Material Component: The feathers of an avian creature with an Intelligence score of at least 3 (a harpy, a achaierai, or similar creature).

THOUSAND NEEDLES

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Pain 5.

Clr 6

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

A thousand needles surround the subject and pierce his flesh, worming through armor or any type of protection, although creatures with damage reduction are immune to this spell.

The subject takes 2d6 points of damage immediately and takes a -4 circumstance penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, skill checks, and ability checks for the rest of the spell's duration.

A successful Fortitude save reduces damage to half and negates the circumstance penalty.

Material Component: A handful of needles, all of which have drawn blood.

UTTERDARK

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Darkness 8, Demonic 8, Sor/Wiz 9

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 100-ft./level radius spread, centered on caster

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

Utterdark spreads from the caster, creating an area of cold, cloying magical darkness.

This darkness is similar to that created by the deeper darkness spell, but no magical light counters or dispels it.

Furthermore, evil-aligned creatures can see in this darkness as if it were simply a dimly lighted area.

Arcane Material Component: A black stick, 6 inches long, with humanoid blood smeared upon it.

WALL OF CHAINS

Conjuration (Creation)

Level: Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: A wall whose area is up to one 5-ft. square/level (S) (see text)

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster causes a flat, vertical wall of woven, spiked chains to spring into being.

This wall can be used to seal off a passage or close a breach, for the wall inserts itself into any surrounding nonliving material if its area is sufficient to do so.

The wall cannot be conjured so that it occupies the same space as a creature or another object.

It must always be a flat plane, though the caster can shape its edges to fit the available space.

A wall of chains is 1 inch thick per four caster levels. The caster can double the wall's area by halving its thickness.

Each 5-foot square of the wall has 20 hit points per inch of thickness and hardness 10.

A section of wall brought to 0 hit points is breached.

If a creature tries to break through the wall, the DC for the Strength check is 20 +2 per inch of thickness.

Creatures who use a Strength check to breach the wall take 1d6 points of damage from the spikes and barbs covering the chains.

Material Component: A single link from an iron chain.

WALL OF DEADLY CHAINS

Conjuration (Creation)

Level: Sor/Wiz 4

Saving Throw: Reflex half As wall of chains, except as noted above, and the wall sports loose lengths of spiked chain that strike anyone within 5 feet of the wall.

Those within that area take 3d6 points of damage each round.

WALL OF EYES

Conjuration (Creation) [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 7

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: A wall whose area is up to one 5-ft. square/level (S) (see text)

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

The caster causes a flat, vertical wall of living, glistening eyes of all different sizes and types to spring into being. This wall can be used to seal off a passage or close a breach, for the wall inserts itself into any surrounding nonliving material if its area is sufficient to do so.

The wall cannot be conjured so that it occupies the same space as a creature or another object.

It must always be a flat plane, though the caster can shape its edges to fit the available space.

A wall of eyes is 1 inch thick per four caster levels.

The caster can double the wall's area by halving its thickness.

Each 5-foot square of the wall has 10 hit points per inch of thickness and hardness 5.

A section of wall brought to 0 hit points is breached.

If a creature tries to break through the wall, the DC for the Strength check is 15 +2 per inch of thickness.

Any creature touching the wall must succeed at a Will saving throw or be held motionless as if affected by a hold monster spell.

The wall magically consumes held creatures after 10 rounds, disintegrating them and adding more eyes to its mass.

At any time, from any distance (even across planes), the caster can take a standard action to look through the wall of eyes, seeing in all directions from the wall as if she were actually standing there.

Material Component: A single humanoid eye.

WALL OF OOZE

Conjuration (Creation)

Level: Clr 5, Sor/Wiz 5

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Effect: A wall whose area is up to one 5-ft. square/level (S) (see text)

Duration: Concentration + 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

The caster causes a flat, vertical wall of festering, stinking organic ooze to bubble into being.

This wall can be used to seal off a passage or close a breach, for the wall inserts itself into any surrounding nonliving material if its area is sufficient to do so.

The wall cannot be conjured so that it occupies the same space as a creature or another object.

It must always be a flat plane, though the caster can shape its edges to fit the available space.

A wall of ooze is 1 inch thick per four caster levels.

The caster can double the wall's area by halving its thickness.

Each 5-foot square of the wall has 50 hit points per inch of thickness and hardness 0.

A section of wall brought to 0 hit points is breached.

If a creature tries to break through the wall, the DC for the Strength check is 15 +2 per inch of thickness.

Any creature touching the wall takes 2d6 points of acid damage per round from the corrosive, burning nature of the ooze.

Only the surrounding material that the wall initially is conjured to touch—such as the floor or an adjoining wall—is immune to this damage.

Furthermore, a creature that touches the wall must succeed at a Fortitude saving throw or be paralyzed by the ooze.

The wall then consumes the creature in 1d6 rounds, digesting it and adding the creature's full normal hit point total to its own.

Arcane Material Component: A bit of an ochre jelly or gray ooze.

DIVINATION

ABSORB MIND

Divination [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 3

Components: V, S, F, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level

The caster eats at least a portion of the brain of another creature's corpse.

By doing so, she gains the creature's memories and knowledge to some degree, so that she has a 25% chance of recalling any important fact known to the creature—family history, recent events, the general layout of the creature's stomping grounds, details about the creature's death, important plans, passwords, magic item command words, and similar tidbits.

Skills, feats, spells, and other such knowledge cannot be obtained in this fashion.

Once the caster rolls to determine whether she recalls a fact, she cannot attempt to recall that fact again.

After the duration expires, the caster no longer has the ability to recall new facts.

Focus: A fresh or preserved (still bloody) 1-ounce portion of another creature's brain.

Corruption Cost: 2d6 points of Wisdom damage.

DEMONCALL

Divination [Evil]

Level: Blk 2, Demonic 2, Demonologist 2

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: Instantaneous

The caster taps into the forbidden knowledge of demons, giving her a +10 profane bonus on any one check (made immediately) involving Knowledge (arcana), Knowledge (the planes), or Knowledge (religion).

DEVIL'S EYE

Divination [Evil]

Level: Blk 2, Clr 3, Diabolic 2, Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level

The caster gains the visual acuity of a devil.

He can see not only in darkness, but also in magical darkness, with a range of 30 feet.

EYES OF THE ZOMBIE

Divination [Evil]

Level: Clr 2, Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 30 minutes

Range: Personal

Effect: Caster and one zombie

Duration: 1 hour/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster replaces his eyes with the eyes of a zombie, allowing him to see through the zombie's eye sockets and control its actions directly.

The zombie must be one that the caster animated.

The magic of this spell allows the caster to remove his eyes (dealing 1d6 points of damage to him from the pain, but no permanent damage to his eyes) and take a zombie's eyes that he has removed and soaked in a special bath of brackish water.

The caster's eyes are preserved by the spell while he controls the zombie and perceives the world through it. The caster's body remains motionless and is subject to harm normally.

When the spell ends, the caster's eyes automatically return to him.

Focus: Zombie eyes and a pint of brackish water.

FIENDISH CLARITY

Divination [Evil]

Level: Clr 7, Demonic 7, Sor/Wiz 7

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 10 minutes/level

The caster develops the senses of a powerful fiend.

He has darkvision to a range of 60 feet.

The caster can see in magical darkness as if it were normal darkness.

He can see invisible creatures and objects as if he had a see invisibility spell cast on him.

The caster can detect good at will.

GLIMPSE OF TRUTH

Divination [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S, Drug

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 hour

The caster sees through the veil of reality to pose a single question to nameless malevolent entities that exist beyond normal consciousness.

The question must be posed such that the answer is a simple yes or no.

The answer given is correct 75% of the time.

Answers the DM deems too obscure are never revealed.

The spell, at best, provides information to aid character decisions.

In cases where a one-word answer would be misleading, the DM can give a short answer instead (five words or less).

Drug Component: Mordayn vapor.

IDENTIFY TRANSGRESSOR

Divination [Evil]

Level: Clr 4

Components: V, S, Drug, Location

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: Instantaneous

The caster is able to divine the answer to a single question, as long as the answer is a single person's name.

Thus, the question must be a "who?" type question.

For example, "Who broke into the temple last night and stole the wand of inflict moderate wounds?" Questions that cannot be answered with a single name are not answered at all.

The base chance for a correct answer is 70% + 1% per caster level.

The DM adjusts the chance if unusual circumstances require it (precautions against divination spells have been taken, for example).

The caster knows if he didn't get a correct answer, unless specific magic yielding false information is at work.

As with augury or divination, multiple identify transgressor spells about the same question by the same caster use the same die roll result as the first spell and yield the same answer each time.

Drug Component: Vodare.

Location Component: An area under the effect of a desecrate or unhallow spell.

ENCHANTMENT

ADDICTION

Enchantment

Level: Asn 1, Brd 2, Clr 2, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S, Drug

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster gives the subject an addiction to a drug (see the Drugs section of Chapter 3 for descriptions of drugs and information on addiction).

A caster of less than 5th level can force the subject to become addicted to any drug with a low addiction rating. A 6th- to 10th-level caster can force addiction to any drug with a medium addiction rating, and an 11th- to 15th-level caster can force addiction to a drug with a high addiction rating.

Casters of 16th level or higher can give the subject an addiction to a drug with an extreme addiction rating.

Drug Component: The chosen drug for the addiction.

DRUG RESISTANCE

Enchantment

Level: Clr 1, Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes (harmless)

The creature touched is immune to the possibility of addiction to drugs.

He still experiences the negative and positive effects of drugs during the spell's duration.

This spell does not free the target from the effects of an addiction already incurred.

If the spell ends before the effects of a drug wear off, the normal chance for addiction applies.

Material Component: Three drops of pure water.

ENTICE GIFT

Enchantment [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Greed 2, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster enchants a creature so that it feels suddenly compelled to give her what it is holding when she casts the spell.

On the creature's next action, it moves as close to the caster as it can get in a single round and offers her the object as a standard action.

This spell allows the caster to act out of turn and accept the "gift" if the creature reaches her to hand the caster the object (assuming she has a free hand and can carry the object).

The subject defends itself normally and acts however it wishes on subsequent rounds, including attempting to get the object back if desired.

If the subject is prevented from doing as the spell compels, the spell is wasted.

For example, if the subject is paralyzed and cannot move or drop the item, nothing happens.

EVIL EYE

Enchantment [Evil]

Level: Mortal Hunter 2, Sor/Wiz 3

Components: S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous (see text)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster focuses malevolent wishes through her gaze and curses someone with bad luck.

The subject takes a -4 luck penalty on all attack rolls, saves, and checks.

The spell ends at the next sunrise, when dismissed, when a remove curse is cast on the subject, or when the caster takes at least 1 point of damage from the subject.

FORBIDDEN SPEECH

Enchantment [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Corrupt 5

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: 1 living creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster makes it impossible for a single creature to speak about a single topic.

The topic should be as narrow as possible for the spell to work properly.

An appropriate topic might be events that occurred while the creature was in captivity, the whereabouts and names of tormentors, the secret location of a hidden treasure, the password into a guarded compound, the command word of a magic item, or the explanation behind some major occurrence.

Invalid topics include verbal components of spells, a creature's whole life history, or anything too broad for a reasonable definition of a single topic.

Whether a topic is too broad is up the DM, who can double the corruption cost and have the spell automatically fail if the caster persists in attempting an invalid topic. Thus, this can be a dangerous spell to attempt. The affected creature cannot communicate regarding the topic in any way.

Speech becomes gibberish, writing is reduced to an indecipherable scrawl, gestures are impossible, and even telepathy (including detect thoughts) is scrambled. The creature has not forgotten the information, however, and it can be a maddening occurrence for the creature to be unable to communicate information that might be of life-and-death importance to friends and allies.
Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Strength damage.

HEARTACHE

Enchantment [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Clr 1, Mortal Hunter 1

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster fills the subject with heart-wrenching sorrow that renders it incapacitated for 1 round.

The subject cannot move or take actions and is helpless for that round.

MASOCHISM

Enchantment [Evil]

Level: Asn 3, Blk 3, Clr 3, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 round/level

For every 10 points of damage the caster takes in a given round, he gains a +1 luck bonus on attack rolls, saving throws, and skill checks made in the following round. The more damage the caster takes, the greater the luck bonus.

It's possible to get a luck bonus in multiple rounds if the caster takes damage in more than one round during the spell's duration.

Material Component: A leather strap that has been soaked in the caster's blood.

MINDRAPE

Enchantment [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Sor/Wiz 9

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster enters the mind of a creature, learning everything that creature knows.

The caster can erase or add memories as she sees fit and alter emotions, opinions, and even alignment. When the caster is done, she can leave the creature insane (as described in the insanity spell) or seemingly unaffected, without any memory of the intrusion.

Severe changes to personality and changes to alignment can be corrected by a break enchantment spell (although an atonement spell might be needed as well, depending on circumstances).

Alterations to memories and subtler thoughts can be restored only through use of a miracle or wish.

MORALITY UNDONE

Enchantment [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Brd 5, Clr 5, Corruption 4, Mortal Hunter 4

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One nonevil creature

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster turns one creature evil.

The chaotic/neutral/lawful component of the subject's alignment is unchanged.

The subject retains whatever outlook, allegiances, and outlooks it had before, so long as they do not conflict with the new alignment.

Otherwise, it acts with its new selfish, bloodthirsty, cruel outlook on all things.

For example, a wizard might not immediately turn on her fighter companion for no apparent reason, particularly in the middle of a combat when they're fighting on the same side.

But she might try to steal the fighter's bag of gems, even using applicable spells (charm person, suggestion, and invisibility, for instance) against her friend.

She might even eventually decide to betray or attack her friend if there is some potential gain involved.

Using this spell in conjunction with a spell such as dominate person or suggestion is particularly useful, because it changes what acts are against a subject's nature.

Arcane Material Component: A powdered holy symbol.

PLAGUE OF NIGHTMARES

Enchantment [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Corrupt 8

Components: V, S, F, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster can give the subject demon-haunted dreams so vivid and frightening that sleep provides no rest and the subject eventually turns to suicide.

The caster must have a chunk of flesh from the target and succeed at a touch attack when she casts plague of nightmares.

If the target fails the Fortitude save, the spell begins to take effect.

Thereafter, the caster must chant for 12 hours per week and pay the corruption cost each week to maintain the spell. The subject begins to feel the effect of this spell the next time he sleeps, as nightmares of evil gods and demons plague him.

These nightmares continue each night, and each night the subject takes 1d4 points of Charisma damage and gains no natural healing for that day.

When the subject reaches 0 Charisma, he enters a trance in which he mentally offers his soul to a demon to be devoured.

That night the subject dies and is beyond even a true resurrection spell.

The subject gets a new saving throw each day to resist the spell, and one success is enough to end the nightmares.

If the spell ultimately succeeds, the focus disappears, alerting the caster that the subject is dead.

Focus: A fresh or preserved (still bloody) 1-ounce portion of another creature's flesh.

Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Strength damage, taken all at once at the end of each week.

SACRIFICIAL SKILL

Enchantment [Evil]

Level: Asn 2, Clr 1, Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level

The caster gains a +5 bonus on all Knowledge (religion) checks that have to do with sacrifices made to evil gods.

See Sacrifices in Chapter 2 for the Knowledge (religion) check DCs required to gain boons from evil gods.

Material Component: A lock of hair taken from an unwilling humanoid.

SADISM

Enchantment [Evil]

Level: Asn 3, Blk 3, Clr 3, Pain 2, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 round/level

For every 10 points of damage the caster deals in a given round while under the effect of this spell, she gains a +1 luck bonus on attack rolls, saving throws, and skill checks in the next round.

The more damage the caster deals, the greater the luck bonus.

It's possible to get a luck bonus for multiple rounds if she deals damage in more than one round during the spell's duration.

Material Component: A leather strap that has been soaked in human blood.

SAP STRENGTH

Enchantment [Evil]

Level: Clr 2, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster drains the personal wellbeing from the subject, who becomes exhausted.

After 1 hour of complete rest, characters become fatigued rather than exhausted.

A fatigued character becomes exhausted again if she does something else that would normally cause fatigue.

After 8 hours of complete rest, fatigued characters are no longer fatigued.

Material Component: A long needle and a tiny glass bottle.

SORROW

Enchantment [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Brd 1, Clr 1

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Grief and sadness overcome the subject.

She takes a -3 morale penalty on all attack rolls, saving throws, ability checks, and skill checks.

Material Component: A tear.

SPREAD OF SAVAGERY

Enchantment [Evil]

Level: Bestial 8, Clr 9

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 hour

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 10-ft./level radius spread

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

All living creatures within the area become hostile to anyone not affected by the spell, whether in or out of the area, and regardless of alignment or former association.

They are likely to attack such creatures, although they retain their intellect and thus retreat or avoid opponents obviously too powerful for them to overcome.

Affected creatures are likely to continue with their normal activities until presented with someone not affected by the spell.

Subjects of spread of savagery can identify unaffected creatures by sight through an instinctive, supernatural sense granted by the spell.

Arcane Material Component: Three drops of brain fluid from a beast.

STUPOR

Enchantment [Mind-Affecting]

Level: Asn 1, Clr 1, Sor/Wiz 1

Components: S, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Area: One helpless creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster places one creature already helpless in a clouded, confused state that does not allow the subject to think clearly or take actions.

The effect is similar to being drugged.

The subject can be moved and even forced to walk on her own if dragged along, but she is unaware of what is going on around her.

Material Component: A puffball mushroom.

WAVE OF GRIEF

Enchantment [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Brd 2, Clr 2

Components: S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Cone

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

All within the cone when the spell is cast are overcome with sorrow and grief.

They take a -3 morale penalty on all attack rolls, saving throws, ability checks, and skill checks.

Material Component: Three tears.

EVOCATION

CIRCLE OF NAUSEA

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Clr 3, Drd 2

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Area: An emanation extending in a 20-ft.-radius around a 2-ft.-radius circle on the ground with the caster in the center

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Evil energy bursts in all directions from the spell's origin, filling the area with pain.

Everyone in the spell's area must succeed at a Fortitude saving throw or take a -2 penalty on all attack rolls, saving throws, and skill checks.

Those who succeed at the saving throw must make a new saving throw each round if they remain in the area.

The pain lasts as long as the spell does.

The caster stands in the circle, which must be prepared ahead of time by inscribing a circle on the ground and putting a stone on the circle at each of the four cardinal directions.

Creating this circle takes 1 hour, but once created it may be reused any number of times.

If anyone attempts to cross the circle during the spell's duration, she must succeed at a Fortitude saving throw or be nauseated until the spell ends, unable to take actions other than a single move or move-equivalent action.

Nauseated characters cannot cross the circle.

If someone breaches the circle without becoming nauseated, the spell ends.

CRUSHING FIST OF SPITE

Evocation [Evil, Force]

Level: Sor/Wiz 9

Components: V, S, M, Disease

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 5-ft.-radius cylinder, 30 ft. high

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Reflex half or Reflex negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

A fist of darkness appears 30 feet above the ground and begins smashing down with incredible power.

All creatures and objects within the area take 1d6 points of damage per caster level (maximum 20d6).

A successful Reflex saving throw reduces damage by half.

Each round, as a free action, the caster can direct the fist to another area within range, where it smashes downward again.

It continues to attack the same area unless otherwise directed.

The fist does not need to strike the ground.

It can attack airborne targets as well.

Airborne targets that succeed at a Reflex save take no damage and are forcibly ejected from the spell's area.

Material Component: A severed hand from a good-aligned humanoid cleric.

Disease Component: Festering anger.

DAMNING DARKNESS

Evocation [Darkness, Evil]

Level: Clr 4, Darkness 4, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Object touched

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell is similar to darkness, except that those within the area of darkness also take unholy damage.

Creatures of good alignment take 2d6 points of damage per round in the darkness, and creatures neither good nor evil take 1d6 points of damage.

As with the darkness spell, the area of darkness is a 20-foot radius, and the object that serves as the spell's target can be shrouded to block the darkness (and thus the damaging effect).

Damning darkness counters or dispels any light spell of equal or lower level.

Arcane Material Component: A dollop of pitch with a tiny needle hidden inside it.

DARKBOLT

Evocation [Darkness, Evil]

Level: Clr 2, Darkness 2, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster makes a ranged touch attack against a foe, launching a bolt of cold darkness from his left hand.

The bolt deals 1d8 points of damage per two caster levels (maximum 5d8).

Half the damage is cold, and the other has no specific type. When struck, the foe must also succeed at a Fortitude save or be stunned for 1 round, overwhelmed by the evil charge of the darkbolt.

DARKLIGHT

Evocation [Darkness]

Level: Asn 2, Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature or object touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster makes one creature or object radiate special darkness called darklight in a 5-foot-radius sphere.

This spell is most useful in a large, naturally dark area.

Within the darklight sphere, creatures that can normally see in the light can see, even though there is no light.

Only creatures and objects in the sphere can be seen, and only creatures in the sphere can see within the sphere, unless other observers can naturally see in the dark.

Thus, while two creatures in the sphere can see each other, a creature standing outside the sphere can neither see the creatures in the sphere (assuming it doesn't have darkvision), nor can it be seen by them.

A creature with darkvision standing outside the sphere could see those within the sphere, but those inside could not discern the creature.

The darklight spell's sphere is invisible in normal light and does not function in magical darkness.

DREAD WORD

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Demonologist 3, Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature of good alignment

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster speaks a single unique word of pure malevolence—a powerful utterance from the Dark Speech (see Chapter 2).

The word is so foul that it harms the very soul of one that hears it.

The utterance of a dread word causes one subject within range to take 1d3 points of Charisma drain.

The power of this spell protects the caster from the damaging effects of both hearing and knowing the word. To attempt to speak this unique word without using this spell means instant death (and no effect, because the caster dies before she gets the entire word out).

FLESH RIPPER

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Clr 3, Mortal Hunter 3

Components: V, S, Undead, Fiend

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster evokes pure evil power in the form of a black claw that flies at the target.

If a ranged touch attack roll succeeds, the claw deals 1d8 points of damage per caster level (maximum 10d8).

On a critical hit, in addition to dealing double damage, the wound bleeds for 1 point of damage per round until it is magically healed.

HELLFIRE STORM

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Diabolic 7

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius spread

As hellfire, except in area and range and that the spell deals 5d6 points of special diabolic fire damage.

HELLFIRE

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Diabolic 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: 5-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster creates a small explosion of brimstone and fire that deals 3d6 points of special diabolic fire damage.

The diabolic flames are not subject to being reduced by protection from elements (fire), fire shield (chill shield), or similar magic.

LOVE'S PAIN

Evocation [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Corrupt 3

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster blasts a lancelike projectile of greenish-black energy from his hand, striking a single foe as a ranged touch attack.

The energy does not harm the subject.

Instead, the subject's closest friend or dearest loved one is wracked with pain and takes 1d6 points of damage for every two caster levels (maximum 10d6).

There is no limit to the distance between the caster and the loved one, and the loved one gets no saving throw or spell resistance.

If the loved one is within an antimagic field, the spell has no effect.

It may take DMs and players a moment to determine who the subject's dearest loved one is.

The DM determines this for nonplayer characters (NPCs).

It is rare (but possible) that no individual qualifies.

In that case, the subject takes the damage.

Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Intelligence damage.

MIRROR SENDING

Evocation

Level: Mortal Hunter 3, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: See text

Range: See text

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster sends her image through a mirror into another mirror or mirrored surface that the chosen target looks into.

The caster casts the spell, then stares into her mirror until the target sees his reflection in another mirror, or until the caster tires and gives up.

The caster can see the subject and his surroundings in her mirror whenever the subject looks at his mirror.

From the subject's perspective, the caster appears to be staring out of the mirror, replacing the subject's own reflection or appearing right behind him (caster's choice).

The caster can have her image say up to one word per caster level before it disappears, if she chooses.

The image remains for only 1 round.

Subjects not expecting a mirror sending can be greatly unnerved by this spell.

Focus: A mirror of finely wrought and highly polished silver costing not less than 1,000 gp.

The mirror must be at least 2 feet by 4 feet.

SONG OF FESTERING DEATH

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Brd 2

Components: V

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Concentration

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster sings a wailing ululation, requiring a successful Perform (singing) check (DC 20).

If the Perform check succeeds and the target fails a Fortitude saving throw, the subject's flesh bubbles and festers into pestilent blobs, dealing the subject 2d6 points of damage each round.

If the subject dies, she bursts with a sickening pop as steamy gore spills onto the ground.

STUNNING SCREECH

Evocation [Evil, Sonic]

Level: Brd 3, Demonologist 2

Components: V, S, M, Drug

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: 30 ft.

Targets: All creatures within range

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster emits a piercing screech like that of a vrock demon.

Every creature within the area is stunned for 1 round.

Material Component: Feather of a large bird or a vrock.

Drug Component: Mushroom powder.

VILE LANCE

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Blk 4, Clr 3, Mortal Hunter 3, Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Effect: One shortspear

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Vile lance creates a weapon of blackness that the caster (and only the caster) can wield with proficiency.

The caster can throw it, but if he does, the spell ends after the ranged attack is resolved.

The vile lance is treated in all ways like a +2 shortspear, except that the damage dealt is vile damage.

Arcane Material Component: A bone fragment of a good-aligned creature.

WERE-DOOM

Evocation [Evil, Chaos]

Level: Bestial 9, Clr 9, Drd 9

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Long (400 ft. + 40 ft./level)

Area: 50-ft./level radius

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell must be cast at night.

Lycanthropy infects 1d4 humanoid creatures in the area, designated randomly.

These creatures immediately change into their animal or hybrid forms (their choice) and begin savagely attacking all around them.

To determine the type of lycanthropy that afflicts a subject, roll on the following table.

d%	Lycanthrope Type
01–25	Wererat
26–60	Werewolf
61–80	Wereboar
81–00	Weretiger

See the Lycanthrope template in the Monster Manual for more information on lycanthropy, including how to cure it. Material Component: A bit of a lycanthrope's fur or skin.

WHIRLWIND OF TEETH

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Bestial 7, Sor/Wiz 7

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 5-ft./level radius cylinder 10 ft./level high

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster creates an opaque area of swirling energy in the form of roaring, screeching mouths full of teeth.

Anyone within the area takes 1d8 points of damage for every two caster levels (maximum 10d8) from the magically created biting mouths and tearing teeth.

The whirlwind moves as the caster mentally directs (as a free action), with a speed of 40 feet.

Arcane Material Component: A handful of bloody teeth.

WRETCHED BLIGHT

Evocation [Evil]

Level: Clr 7

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 20-ft.-radius spread

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster calls up unholy power to smite his enemies.

The power takes the form of a soul-chilling mass of clawing darkness.

Only good and neutral (not evil) creatures are harmed by the spell.

The spell deals 1d8 pts. of damage per caster level (maximum 15d8) to good creatures and renders them stunned for 1d4 rounds.

A successful Fortitude save reduces damage to half and negates the stunning effect.

The spell deals only half damage to creatures that are neither evil nor good, and they are not stunned.

Such creatures can reduce the damage in half again (down to one-quarter of the roll) with a successful Reflex save.

ILLUSION

CRUEL DISAPPOINTMENT

Illusion (Phantasm) [Fear, Mind-Affecting, Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will disbelief (if interacted with) and Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

The next time the subject of this spell attempts an action that requires a die roll to determine success, the action fails. However, the spell creates the phantasmal image in the subject's mind that the action succeeded.

The subject behaves accordingly for 1 round.

During the next round, the phantasm fades and the subject now realizes that he was fooled.

If the subject fails a second Will save, he then takes a –4 morale penalty on attack rolls, saves, and checks for 1d6+1 rounds afterward.

CURSE OF THE PUTRID HUSK

Illusion (Phantasm) [Fear, Mind-Affecting, Evil]

Level: Brd 3, Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round + 1d10 minutes

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This illusion forces the subject to believe his flesh is rotting and falling off his body, and that his internal organs are spilling out.

If the target fails his saving throw, he is dazed (and horrified) for 1 round.

On the following round, he falls unconscious for 1d10 minutes, during which time he cannot be roused normally.

FALSE SENDING

Illusion (Glamer)

Level: Clr 5, Sor/Wiz 6

Components: V, S, M/DF

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: See text

Target: One creature

Duration: 1 round (see text)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster contacts a particular creature with whom she is familiar and sends a short message of twenty-five words or less to the subject.

The subject is convinced that the sender of the message is someone other than the caster, as specified by the caster.

The caster must be also familiar with the false sender.

The subject can answer in like manner immediately.

Creatures with Intelligence scores as low as 1 can understand the sending, though a subject's ability to react is limited normally by its Intelligence.

Even if the sending is received, the subject creature is not obligated to act upon it in any manner.

If the creature in question is not on the same plane of existence as the caster, there is a 5% chance that the sending does not arrive.

(Local conditions on other planes may worsen this chance considerably, at the option of the DM).

Arcane Material Component: A short piece of corroded copper wire.

REALITY BLIND

Illusion (Phantasm) [Evil, Mind-Affecting]

Level: Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Concentration (see below)

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell overwhelms the target with hallucinations, causing him to be blinded and stunned if he fails the save. The subject can attempt a new saving throw each round to end the spell.

Even after the subject succeeds at the save or the caster stops concentrating, the subject is plagued with nightmares every night.

The nightmares prevent the subject from benefiting from natural healing.

These nightmares continue until the caster dies or the subject succeeds at a Will saving throw, attempted once per night.

This nightmare effect is treated as a curse and thus cannot be dispelled.

It is subject to remove curse, however.

Material Component: A 2-inch-diameter multicolored disk of paper or ribbon.

UNNERVING GAZE

Illusion (Phantasm)

Level: Demonologist 1, Mortal Hunter 1, Sor/Wiz 0

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One humanoid creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster makes his face resemble one of the opponent's departed loved ones or bitter enemies.

The subject takes a -1 morale penalty on attack rolls for the duration of the spell.

NECROMANCY

ABSORB STRENGTH

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 4

Components: V, S, F, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 10 minutes/level

The caster eats at least a portion of the flesh of another creature's corpse, thereby gaining one-quarter of the creature's Strength score as an enhancement bonus to the caster's Strength score, and one-quarter of the creature's Constitution score as an enhancement bonus to the caster's Constitution.

Focus: A fresh or preserved (still bloody) 1-ounce portion of another creature's flesh.

Corruption Cost: 2d6 points of Wisdom damage.

ANGRY ACHE

Necromancy

Level: Asn 1, Clr 1, Pain 1

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster temporarily strains the subject's muscles in a very specific way.

The subject feels a sharp pain whenever she makes an attack.

All her attack rolls have a -2 circumstance penalty for every four caster levels (maximum penalty -10).

BONEBLADE

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Blk 2, Clr 3

Components: V, S, F, Undead

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Effect: One bone that becomes a blade

Duration: 10 minutes/level

The caster changes a bone at least 6 inches long into a longsword, short sword, or greatsword (caster's choice).

This weapon has a +1 enhancement bonus on attacks and damage for every five caster levels (at least +1, maximum +4).

Furthermore, this blade deals an extra +1d6 points of damage to living targets and an additional +1d6 points of damage to good-aligned targets.

This spell confers no proficiency with the blade, but the caster doesn't need to be the one wielding the blade for it to be effective.

Focus: A 6-inch-long bone.

BONEBLAST

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Blk 1, Clr 2

Components: V, S, M, Undead

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature that has a skeleton

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude half or Fortitude negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster causes some bone within a touched creature to break or crack.
The caster cannot specify which bone.
Because the damage is general rather than specific, the target takes 1d3 points of Constitution damage.
A Fortitude save reduces the Constitution damage by half, or negates it if the full damage would have been 1 point of Constitution damage.
Material Component: The bone of a small child that still lives.

CHARNEL FIRE

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 5

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Effect: One corpse

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None (Will negates for undead)

Spell Resistance: No (Yes for undead)

With sinister flame and brimstone, the caster completely consumes one dead body so that absolutely nothing remains.

A creature whose body is destroyed by a charnel fire spell can only be brought back to life through a true resurrection spell.

If this spell is cast upon a corporeal undead, the creature gets a Will saving throw, and the caster must overcome its spell resistance (if any).

If the undead creature fails its save, it is destroyed forever.

CLUTCH OF ORCUS

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 3

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One humanoid

Duration: Concentration (see text)

Saving Throw: Will negates (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

The caster creates a magical force that grips the subject's heart (or similar vital organ) and begins crushing it.

The victim is paralyzed (as if having a heart attack) and takes 1d3 points of damage per round.

Each round, the caster must concentrate to maintain the spell.

In addition, a conscious victim gains a new saving throw each round to stop the spell.

If the victim dies as a result of this spell, his chest ruptures and bursts, and his smoking heart appears in the caster's hand.

CONSUME LIKENESS

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 6

Components: V, S, F, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: Permanent

The caster can take on the appearance and form—including clothing and equipment—of a corporeal humanoid that is freshly dead.

The caster assumes the form of the creature as it looked when it lived.

The caster must eat the flesh of the corpse whose form is to be assumed as he casts the spell.

Once the spell is complete, the caster can assume the new likeness at will.

By changing to this new form, the caster's body can undergo a limited physical transmutation, including adding or subtracting one or two limbs, and his weight can be changed up to one-half.

If the form selected has wings, the caster can fly at a speed of 30 feet with poor maneuverability.

If the form has gills, he can breathe underwater.

The caster cannot assume the likeness of something that is a different size than he is.

The caster's attack bonuses, natural armor bonus, and saves do not change.

The spell does not confer special abilities, attack forms, defenses, ability scores, or mannerisms of the chosen form.

If the caster takes damage or dies, he automatically reverts to his normal form.

The caster can also take a standard action to voluntarily assume his normal form.

If the caster uses this spell to create a disguise, he gets a +10 bonus on his Disguise check.

Focus: A fresh or preserved (still bloody) 1-ounce portion of another creature's flesh.

Corruption Cost: 2d6 points of Wisdom drain.

DANCE OF RUIN

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Brd 2, Clr 2, Demonologist 2, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Spread centered on caster

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

To cast this spell, the caster dances wildly and chants.

After she finishes her dance, a wave of crackling energy flashes outward up to the extent of the range.

All nondemon creatures within the area take 2d20 points of damage.

DEATH GRIMACE

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Asn 1, Blk 1, Sor/Wiz 1

Components: S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One corpse

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The caster marks a corpse with a particular magical "signature", thus identifying himself (truthfully or falsely) as the murderer.

Some assassins use this signature as a sort of calling card, while others use it as a way to prove that they earned their pay.

The signature can take many forms: a specific expression on the face of the corpse (hence the name of the spell), an actual rune, a word written on the corpse's flesh, a discoloration of one eye, and so on.

ECTOPLASMIC ENHANCEMENT

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 6

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One incorporeal undead/level

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

The undead affected by this spell gain a +1 deflection bonus to Armor Class, +1d8 temporary hit points, a +1 enhancement bonus on attack rolls, and a +2 bonus to turn resistance.

Each of these enhancements increases by +1 for every three caster levels.

So a 12th-level caster grants a +5 deflection bonus to AC, an extra 1d8+4 temporary hit points, a +5 enhancement bonus on attack rolls, and a +6 bonus to turn resistance.

ETERNITY OF TORTURE

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Pain 9

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject's body is twisted and warped, wracked forever with excruciating pain.

The subject is rendered helpless, but—as long as the spell continues—it is sustained and has no need for food, drink, or air.

The subject does not age—all the better to ensure a true eternity of unimaginable torture.

The subject takes 1 point of drain to each ability score each day until all scores are reduced to 0 (except Constitution, which stays at 1).

The subject cannot heal or regenerate.

Lastly, the subject is completely unaware of its surroundings, insensate to anything but the excruciating pain.

A single Fortitude saving throw is all that stands between a target and this horrible spell.

However, even if the saving throw is successful, the target still feels terrible (but temporary) pain.

The target takes 5d6 points of damage immediately and takes a -4 circumstance penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, skill checks, and ability checks for 1 round per level of the caster.

GRIM REVENGE

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S, Undead

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living humanoid

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The hand of the subject tears itself away from one of his arms, leaving a bloody stump.

This trauma deals 6d6 points of damage.

Then the hand, animated and floating in the air, begins to attack the subject.

The hand attacks as if it were a wight (see the Monster Manual) in terms of its statistics, special attacks, and special qualities, except that it is considered Tiny and gains a +4 bonus to AC and a +4 bonus on attack rolls.

The hand can be turned or rebuked as a wight.

If the hand is defeated, only a regenerate spell can restore the victim to normal.

GUTWRENCH

Necromancy [Evil, Death]

Level: Sor/Wiz 8

Components: V, S, Undead

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

The innards of the target creature roil.

If the target fails its saving throw, its intestines burst forth, killing it.

The intestines fly toward the caster and are absorbed into her form, granting her 4d6 temporary hit points and a +4 enhancement bonus to Strength.

If the target's save is successful, it takes 10d6 points of damage instead.

A creature with no discernible anatomy is unaffected by this spell.

IMPRISON SOUL

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 7

Components: V, S, M, F

Casting Time: 1 action (see text)

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: No

By casting imprison soul, the caster places the subject's soul in a receptacle, such as a gem, ring, or some other minuscule object, leaving the subject's body lifeless.

While trapped, the subject takes 1d4 points of Constitution damage per day until dead or freed.

The rituals to prepare the receptacle require three days.

Destroying or opening the receptacle ends the spell, releasing the soul.

To cast the spell, the receptacle must be within spell range and the caster must know where it is.

The caster must also know the name of the target.

Material Component: A portion of the target's body (a fingernail, a strand of hair, or some other small part).

Focus: A Tiny or smaller object to be the receptacle for the subject's soul.

LIQUID PAIN

Necromancy

Level: Pain 4, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 1 day

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Over the course of one day, the caster takes a subject already in great pain—wracked with disease, the victim of torture, or dying of a wound, for example—and captures its pain in liquid form.

This physical manifestation of agony can be used to create magic items or enhance spells (see Pain as Power in Chapter 2).

It can also be used as a potent drug.

Focus: A jar, vial, or other container for the liquid pain.

PESTILENCE

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 8, Drd 7

Components: V, S, Disease

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Living creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject contracts a particularly terrible and contagious disease, which strikes immediately with no incubation period.

The caster infects the subject with a sickness that deals 1d4 points of Constitution drain each day until the subject dies. The subject may attempt a new saving throw each day, but she must succeed at two saves in a row to rid herself of the disease (as with most diseases).

However, the disease, once unleashed, continues to spread. For the first day of the sickness, anyone touching the subject must succeed at a Fortitude saving throw or fall victim to the same malady.

That victim in turn becomes contagious on the first day of her own affliction.

Disease Component: Any disease.

POWER LEECH

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 5

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Target: One living creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster creates a conduit of evil energy between himself and another creature.

Through the conduit, the caster can leech off ability score points at the rate of 1 point per round.

The other creature takes 1 point of drain from an ability score of the caster's choosing, and the caster gains a +1 enhancement bonus to the same ability score per point drained during the casting of this spell.

In other words, all points drained during this spell stack with each other to determine the enhancement bonus, but they don't stack with other castings of power leech or with other enhancement bonuses.

The enhancement bonus lasts for 10 minutes per caster level.

Corruption Cost: 1 point of Wisdom drain.

POX

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Corruption 6, Drd 6, Pain 6

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Targets: Up to one living creature/level, no two of which can be more than 10 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Subjects take 1d4 points of Constitution drain.

Their skin breaks out in lesions and takes on a pale yellow pallor.

PRESERVE ORGAN

Necromancy

Level: Clr 0, Drd 0, Sor/Wiz 0

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Effect: One organ

Duration: 24 hours

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (harmless)

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster preserves a single severed organ from a living creature so that it does not decay or rot.

Evil casters use preserved organs as material spell components.

There are ritual uses for body parts as well.

The organ is kept in the exact state it was in when the spell was cast.

If a heart is still beating and bloody, for example, then it remains that way.

RED FESTER

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 3

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject's skin turns red and blisters.

The blisters quickly turn into oozing wounds.

Furthermore, the subject's sense of self becomes strangely clouded, diminishing her self-esteem.

The subject takes 1d6 points of Strength damage and 1d4 points of Charisma damage.

Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Strength damage.

SHRIVELING

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 3, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S, Disease

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Reflex half

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster channels dark energy that blasts and blackens the subject's flesh.

The subject takes 1d4 points of damage per caster level (maximum 10d4).

Disease Component: Soul rot.

SLOW CONSUMPTION

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 1, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S, Location

Casting Time: 10 minutes

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: Permanent (see below)

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster absorbs the life force and physical form from a living subject and uses it for himself.

The victim must be rendered helpless to cast this spell upon her.

For that day, the caster heals at twice the normal natural rate and does not need to eat.

The subject, on the other hand, does not heal naturally that day and takes 1 point of Constitution damage.

As long as the caster touches the subject once per day, he gains the benefits and the subject takes the Constitution damage.

If the caster does not touch the subject within 24 hours of the last time he touched her, the spell ends.

Villains often use this spell on prisoners, who are sometimes sustained by lesser restoration spells so they can serve for years as evil sustenance.

Location Component: An area under the effect of a desecrate or unhallow spell.

SOUL SHACKLES

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Brd 5, Sor/Wiz 5

Components: V, S, F, Location

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster draws out the soul of a dead creature and imprisons it within a specially made talisman.

The subject must have had the talisman in his possession when he died, or the spell cannot function.

Henceforth, if the talisman is in the caster's possession, she can call forth the soul of the subject and question it about what it knew in life for up to 1 round/level each day, asking one question per round.

The soul looks as it did in life, including the clothing and equipment it had with it on the day it died.

Answers are clear, complete, and precise.

If the subject is hostile, or if the answer to the question was an important secret to it in life, the subject gains a Will saving throw.

A successful saving throw indicates that the spell ends and the soul departs to the afterlife.

Focus: The talisman that will be the receptacle for the soul.

Location Component: An area under the effect of a desecrate or unhallow spell.

STEAL LIFE

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 8

Components: V, S, Location

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living humanoid

Duration: Concentration

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster taps into the life force of a subject and drains it away, adding it to her own.

Each round the caster concentrates, she deals 1 point of ability score drain to the subject.

Although the caster can choose which ability score to drain, she must choose a different ability score to drain in each round and cannot choose a score already drained until she has drained all the others equally, at which point the process starts over.

Thus, if the caster drains 1 point of Strength, she must choose another ability in the next round and cannot choose Strength again until she has drained 1 point each of Constitution, Dexterity, Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma.

Then, the caster can drain a second point of Strength (or any other ability), but not a third until she has drained a second point from all the other ability scores.

If the caster casts this spell on the night of a full moon, she becomes effectively one week younger for every point she drains.

(Her age is reduced, but memories and abilities acquired during that week are not lost).

Otherwise, the subject takes the ability score drain, but the caster gains nothing.

The subject withers and shrivels as the caster drains its ability scores.

When the subject's Constitution score reaches 0, the subject becomes a horrid, dry husk and cannot be further drained.

If the caster dies while concentrating on this spell, all the subject's lost ability score points are immediately regained.

Location Component: An area under the effect of a desecrate or unhallow spell.

STOP HEART

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Asn 4, Clr 4, Sor/Wiz 5

Components: S, Drug

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Area: One living humanoid or animal

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

Channeling hatred and spite, the caster calls upon dark power to give the subject a massive heart attack.

The subject suddenly drops to -8 hit points, then -9 hit points at the end of this round.

If someone immediately makes a successful Heal check (DC 15) or somehow gives the subject more hit points, she stabilizes.

Otherwise, at the end of the next round, the subject reaches -10 hit points and dies.

Drug Component: Baccaran.

UNLIVING WEAPON

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 3

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: Touch

Targets: One undead creature

Duration: 1 hour/level

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

This spell causes an undead creature to explode in a burst of powerful energy when struck for at least 1 point of damage, or at a set time no longer than the duration of the spell, whichever comes first.

The explosion is a 10-foot-radius burst that deals 1d6 points of damage for every two caster levels (maximum 10d6).

While this spell can be an effective form of attack against an undead creature, necromancers often use unliving weapon to create undead capable of suicide attacks (if such a term can be applied to something that is already dead).

Skeletons or zombies with this spell cast upon them can be very dangerous to foes that would normally disregard them.

Material Component: A drop of bile and a bit of sulfur.

WAVE OF PAIN

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Brd 6, Pain 7

Components: S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Cone

Duration: 1 round/2 levels

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

All living creatures within the cone are overcome with pain and suffering.

They are stunned for the duration of the spell.

A creature with no discernible anatomy is unaffected by this spell.

Material Component: A needle.

WITHER LIMB

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 2, Mortal Hunter 2, Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One humanoid creature with limbs

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster chooses to wither either the arms or the legs of the subject.

Withered legs force a character to fall prone and make it impossible for her to move more than 5 feet per round.

Withered arms make it impossible for a character to use objects or cast spells with somatic components, and the subject must drop anything she was holding.

At the end of the spell's duration, the limbs return to normal.

WRACK

Necromancy [Evil]

Level: Clr 3, Mortal Hunter 3, Pain 3, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: One humanoid creature

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject is wracked with such pain that he doubles over and collapses.

His face and hands blister and drip fluid, and his eyes cloud with blood, rendering him blind.

For the duration of the spell the subject is considered helpless and cannot take actions.

The subject's sight returns when the spell's duration expires.

Even after the spell ends, the subject is still visibly shaken and takes a -2 penalty on attack rolls, saves, and checks for 3d10 minutes.

TRANSMUTATION

ABERRATE

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, S, Fiend

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One living creature

Duration: 10 minutes/level

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster transforms one creature into an aberration. The subject's form twists and mutates into a hideous mockery of itself.

The subject's type changes to aberration, and it gains a +1 natural armor bonus to AC (due to the toughening and twisting of the flesh) for every four levels the caster has, up to a maximum of +5.

BEFOUL

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Clr 8, Corruption 8

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Area: Water in a volume of 100 ft./level by 100 ft./level by 10 ft./level (S)

Duration: Permanent (see text)

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

The caster makes water (or other liquid) foul and mildly poisonous.

All creatures with 1 HD or less that are in the water at the time of casting die immediately.

Anyone drinking this water must succeed at a Fortitude saving throw or take 1d4 points of Constitution damage.

Any creature immersed in this water must make a saving throw as if drinking it.

If the caster affects only part of a larger body of water, the befouled water mixes with the pure water.

If the entire body of water is no more than four times the size of the affected area, all the water in the body of water is befouled 24 hours later, but the damage from drinking or swimming in the water is only 1d2 points of Constitution damage.

If the body of water is more than four times the affected area but less than twenty times the affected area, after 24 hours all of the water tastes foul.

If the entire body is larger than twenty times the affected area, the fouled water mixes with the clean water and loses all effect after 24 hours.

Material Component: A dead fish and a drop of poison.

BESTOW GREATER CURSE

Transmutation

Level: Brd 6, Clr 7, Demonologist 3, Sor/Wiz 8

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Permanent

Saving Throw: Will negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster places a curse on the creature touched, choosing one of the following three effects:

- One ability score is reduced to 1, or two ability scores take -6 penalties (to a minimum score of 1).
- -8 penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, ability checks, and skill checks.

• Each turn, the subject has a 25% chance to act normally; otherwise, he takes no action.

A player may invent a new curse, but it should be no more powerful than those listed above, and the Dungeon Master (DM) has final say on the curse's effect.

A greater curse cannot be dispelled, nor can it be removed with a break enchantment, limited wish, or remove curse spell.

A miracle or wish spell removes the greater curse, and any particular greater curse can be removed if the subject performs some deed that the caster designates. The deed must be something that the subject can accomplish within one year (assuming he undertakes it immediately).

For example, the deed might be "Slay the dragon under Castle Bluecraft", or "Climb the tallest mountain in the world".

The cursed victim can have help accomplishing the task, and in some cases another character can lift the curse (see the Curses section of Chapter 2 for guidelines).

BESTOW WOUND

Transmutation

Level: Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Living creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

If the caster is wounded, she can cast this spell and touch a living creature.

The creature takes the caster's wounds as damage, either 1 point of damage per caster level or the amount needed to bring the caster up to her maximum hit points, whichever is less.

The caster heals that much damage, as if a cure spell had been cast on her.

Material Component: A small eye agate worth at least 10 gp.

BODAK BIRTH

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Clr 8

Components: V, S, F, Drug

Casting Time: 1 minute

Range: Touch

Target: Caster or one creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None (see text)

Spell Resistance: No

The caster transforms one willing subject (which can be the caster) into a bodak.

Ignore all of the subject's old characteristics, using the bodak description in the Monster Manual instead.

Before casting the spell, the caster must make a miniature figurine that represents the subject, then bathe it in the blood of at least three Small or larger animals.

Once the spell is cast, anyone that holds the figurine can attempt to mentally communicate and control the bodak, but the creature resists such control with a successful Will saving throw.

If the bodak fails, it must obey the holder of the figurine, but it gains a new saving throw every day to break the control.

If the figurine is destroyed, the bodak disintegrates.

Focus: Figurine of subject, bathed in animal blood.

Drug Component: Agony.

CHEAT

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Brd 1, Wiz/Sor 1

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level or until used

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

At one point during the duration of this spell, the caster can alter the probability of a game of chance.

This spell can only affect nonmagical games, such as those using cards or dice.

It cannot affect a game involving magic, nor a magic item involved in a game of chance (such as a deck of many things). Whenever a roll is made to determine the outcome of the game, the caster may force a reroll of the outcome and take the better of the two rolls.

For example, Darkon is playing a game called dragonscales, which he has a 1 in 4 chance of winning.

The DM secretly rolls 1d4 and tells the player that Darkon lost.

Darkon, under the effect of a cheat spell, can have the DM reroll.

The spell alters probability, so there is no subterfuge that another character could notice (except for the casting of the spell itself).

To even an astute observer, it appears that the caster is just lucky.

Focus: A pair of dice made from human bones.

CLAWS OF THE BEBILITH

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 5

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 10 minutes/level

The caster gains claws that deal damage based on her size (see below) and can catch and tear an opponent's armor and shield.

If the opponent has both armor and a shield, roll 1d6: A result of 1–4 indicates the armor is affected, and a result of 5–6 affects the shield.

The caster makes a grapple check whenever she hits with a claw attack, adding to the opponent's roll any enhancement bonus from magic possessed by the opponent's armor or shield.

If the caster wins, the armor or shield is torn away and ruined.

Caster Size	Claw Damage
Fine	—
Diminutive	1
Tiny	1d2
Small	1d3
Medium-size	1d4
Large	1d6
Huge	1d8
Gargantuan	2d2
Colossal	2d8

Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Dexterity damage.

CLAWS OF THE SAVAGE

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Bestial 4, Blk 4, Clr 4, Drd 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: One creature

Duration: 10 minutes/level

The caster grants one creature two long claws that replace its hands, tentacle tips, or whatever else is appropriate.

The claws deal damage based on the creature's size.

Creature Size	Claw Damage
Fine	1
Diminutive	1d2
Tiny	1d3
Small	1d4
Medium-size	1d6
Large	1d8
Huge	2d6
Gargantuan	2d8
Colossal	4d6

The creature can make attacks with both claws as if it were proficient with them.

Just as with a creature that has natural weapons, the subject takes no penalty for making two claw attacks.

The subject is treated as armed.

Furthermore, these claws gain a +2 enhancement bonus on attack and damage rolls.

If the creature already has claws, those claws gain a +2 enhancement bonus on attack and damage rolls, and the claws' damage increases as if the creature were two size categories larger.

DANCING CHAINS

Transmutation

Level: Demonologist 3, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Targets: One chain per level within range
Duration: 1 minute/level
Saving Throw: None
Spell Resistance: No

The caster can control one chain per level as a standard action, making the chains dance or move as she wishes. In addition, the caster can increase the chains' length by up to 15 feet and cause them to sprout razor-edged barbs. These chains attack as spiked chains that use the caster's normal ranged attack bonus on attack rolls or grapple checks (treat each chain as Medium-size when grappling). The caster can climb a chain she controls at normal speed without making a Climb check.

DEMON WINGS

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Blk 3, Demonic 3, Demonologist 3
Components: V, S
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: Caster

Duration: 10 minutes/level
Massive, batlike wings grow from the caster's back. With these wings, the caster can fly at his normal land speed, with average maneuverability. The caster can carry his normal carrying capacity, and greater burdens affect his fly speed as they would affect his land speed.

DEMONFLESH

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Blk 1, Demonic 1, Demonologist 1
Components: V, S
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level
The caster grows the thick, leathery flesh of a demon, gaining a +1 natural armor bonus to Armor Class for every five caster levels (at least +1, maximum +4). This spell has no effect if the caster is an evil outsider.

DESPOIL

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Clr 9
Components: V, S, M
Casting Time: 1 minute
Range: Touch
Area: 100-ft./level radius
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude partial (plants) or Fortitude negates (other living creatures)
Spell Resistance: Yes
The caster blights and corrupts a vast area of land. Plants with 1 HD or less shrivel and die, and the ground cannot support such plant life ever again. Plants with more than 1 HD must succeed at a Fortitude saving throw or die. Even those successful on their saves take 5d6 points of damage.

All living creatures in the area other than plants (and the caster) must succeed at a Fortitude saving throw or take 1d4 points of Strength damage.

Unattended objects, including structural features such as walls and doors, grow brittle and lose 1 point of hardness (to a minimum of 0), then take 1d6 points of damage. Only the effects of multiple wish or miracle spells can undo the lasting effects of this spell.

Material Component: Corpse of a freshly dead or preserved (still bloody) living creature.

DEVIL'S EGO

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Diabolic 3
Components: V, S
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level
The caster gains an enhancement bonus to Charisma of 1d4+1 points. Furthermore, the caster is treated as an outsider with regard to what spells and magical effects can affect her (rendering a humanoid caster immune to charm person and hold person, for example).

DEVIL'S TAIL

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Diabolic 1
Components: V, S
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level
The caster grows a 3-foot-long tail. The tail is thin, black or red, and it ends in a spike. The caster can use this tail to make melee attacks using his attack bonus, dealing a base 1d4 points of damage, plus one-half his Strength bonus. If the caster takes a full attack action, he can use both the tail and his normal melee attacks, but all attacks have a -2 penalty.

DEVIL'S TONGUE

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Corrupt 2
Components: S, Corrupt
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level
The caster's tongue lengthens and strengthens, allowing her to make grapple or disarm attacks with a reach of 15 feet. Attempts to grapple or disarm with her tongue do not provoke attacks of opportunity. Otherwise, they are handled normally.
Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Wisdom damage.

DISTORT SUMMONS

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Demonologist 3, Sor/Wiz 4

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Area: 50-ft.-radius spread

Duration: 1 hour/level

The caster creates an area in which only evil creatures can be magically summoned.

No matter what a later caster attempts to summon, he actually summons an evil version (a fiendish beast rather than a celestial one, for example) or an evil equivalent (a devil rather than a formian).

If the summoner was attempting to summon a good or neutral creature, the evil creature that appears does not obey the commands of the summoner or attack his enemies.

Instead, it attacks the summoner, and the spell that summoned the evil creature cannot be dismissed.

A distort summons spell can be dispelled normally, however.

DISTORT WEAPON

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Blk 1

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Weapon touched

Duration: 1 minute/level

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell makes a weapon strike true against good foes.

Any threat of a critical hit against a good foe is automatically confirmed, without a roll.

The weapon can also harm good creatures that have damage reduction, as if the weapon had a +1 enhancement bonus.

Individual arrows or bolts can be altered, but altered projectile weapons (such as bows) don't confer the benefit to the projectiles they shoot.

This spell has no effect on any magic weapon that already has a special ability related to critical hits, such as a keen or vorpal weapon.

EYE OF THE BEHOLDER

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 7

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 round/level

One of the caster's eyes grows out of her head on an eyestalk, becoming like that of a beholder.

Due to the mobility of the eye, the caster gains a +2 circumstance bonus on Spot checks.

More important, the eye has one of the beholder's eye powers, determined randomly.

The caster can use this power as a standard action during the spell's duration.

Each type of eye produces an effect identical to that of a spell cast by a 13th-level caster, but it follows the rules for a ray (see Aiming a Spell in Chapter 10 of the Player's Handbook).

All of these effects have a range of 150 feet and a save DC of 18.

Roll 1d10 to see which eye the caster gains.

1d10 Eye Effect

- 1 Charm Person: Target must make a Will save or be affected as though by the spell.
- 2 Charm Monster: Target must make a Will save or be affected as though by the spell.
- 3 Sleep: As the spell, except that it affects one creature with any number of Hit Dice. Target must make a Will save to resist.
- 4 Flesh to Stone: Target must make a Fortitude save or be affected as though by the spell.
- 5 Disintegrate: Target must make a Fortitude save or be affected as though by the spell.
- 6 Fear: As the spell, except that it targets one creature. Target must make a Will save or be affected as though by the spell.
- 7 Slow: As the spell, except that it affects one creature. Target must make a Will save to resist.
- 8 Inflict Moderate Wounds: As the spell, dealing 2d8+10 points of damage (Will half).
- 9 Finger of Death: Target must make a Fortitude save or be slain as though by the spell. The target takes 3d6+13 points of damage if his save succeeds.
- 10 Telekinesis: The eye can move objects or creatures that weigh up to 325 pounds, as though with a telekinesis spell. Creatures can resist the effect with a successful Will save.

FANGS OF THE VAMPIRE KING

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 2

Components: S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level

The caster grows vampirelike fangs that allow him to make bite attacks with an attack bonus of +10 plus the caster's Strength modifier.

The caster's bite attack deals 1d6 points of damage and 1 point of Constitution damage.

Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Strength damage.

FIENDISH QUICKENING

Transmutation

Level: Clr 6, Sor/Wiz 6

Components: V, S, Fiend

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 round/level

For the duration of this spell, the caster's teleport or teleport without error spell-like ability is quickened.

This means that the caster can teleport as a free action and still have time during the round to attack and/or move.

The caster can use his quickened teleport or teleport without error once per round.

This spell does not affect teleport spells in any way, only the spell-like ability of fiends to teleport themselves.

GRAZ'ZT'S LONG GRASP

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 2

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 10 minutes/level

The caster causes one of her hands to detach from her arm. She can control the hand by thought alone as a free action.

It can fly at a speed of 20 feet (perfect maneuverability).

On casting the spell, the caster takes 2d4 points of damage, but she is healed by the same amount when the hand returns to her arm (unless it is destroyed or otherwise prevented from reaching her arm before the end of the spell).

The damage heals normally.

As long as the spell lasts, the floating hand can deliver any spell with a range of touch that the caster can cast.

The spell gives the caster a +2 bonus on her melee touch attack with the disembodied hand, which functions as if it were attached to her.

The hand can flank targets as a creature can.

The hand can punch opponents (as a normal unarmed attack with a +2 attack bonus), or it can grasp things and move them (with the caster's normal Strength).

The hand can make grapple attacks, but it is considered Tiny.

If the hand goes beyond the spell's range, if the caster can no longer see it, or if she is not directing it, the hand attempts to return to her on its own, reattaching to the end of the wrist.

The hand has improved evasion (half damage on a failed Reflex save and no damage on a successful save), the caster's save bonuses, and AC 22.

The caster's Intelligence modifier applies to the hand's AC as if it were the hand's Dexterity.

The hand has 2d4 hit points, the same number that the caster lost in creating it.

HEARTCLUTCH

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Clr 5

Components: V, S, Disease

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: The heart of one creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude partial

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster holds forth his empty hand, and the still-beating heart of the subject appears within it.

The subject dies in 1d3 rounds, and only a heal, regenerate, miracle, or wish spell will save it during this time.

The target is entitled to a Fortitude saving throw to survive the attack.

If the target succeeds at the save, it instead takes 3d6 points of damage +1 point per caster level from general damage to the chest and internal organs.

(The target might die from damage even if it succeeds at the saving throw).

A creature with no discernible anatomy is unaffected by this spell.

Disease Component: Soul rot.

LAHM'S FINGER DARTS

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 2

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Medium (100 ft. + 10 ft./level)

Targets: Up to five creatures, no two of which can be more than 15 ft. apart

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: Yes

The caster's finger becomes a dangerous projectile that flies from her hand and unerringly strikes its target.

The dart deals 1d4 points of Dexterity damage.

Creatures without fingers cannot cast this spell.

The dart strikes unerringly, even if the target is in melee or has partial cover or concealment.

Inanimate objects (locks, doors, and so forth) cannot be damaged by the spell.

For every three caster levels beyond 1st, the caster gains an additional dart by losing an additional finger: two at 4th level, three at 7th level, four at 10th level, and the maximum of five darts at 13th level or higher.

If the caster shoots multiple darts, she can have them strike a single creature or several creatures.

A single dart can strike only one creature. The caster must designate targets before checking for spell resistance or damage. Fingers lost to this spell grow back when the corruption cost is healed, at the rate of one finger per point of Strength damage healed. Corruption Cost: 1 point of Strength damage per dart, plus the loss of one finger per dart. A hand with one or no fingers is useless.

NO LIGHT

Transmutation
Level: Brd 1, Clr 0, Sor/Wiz 0
Components: V, S
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)
Area: 20-ft.-radius spread
Duration: 1 minute/level
Saving Throw: None
Spell Resistance: No

The caster creates an area of darkness. Normal light sources cannot illuminate the area, but darkvision allows a creature to see within the area. Light counters no light (and vice versa), leaving whatever light conditions normally prevail in the overlapping areas of the spells. Higher-level light spells counter and dispel no light.

RAPTURE OF RUPTURE

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Corrupt 7
Components: V, S, Corrupt
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Touch
Target: One living creature touched per level
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude half
Spell Resistance: Yes

With this spell, the caster's touch deals grievous wounds to multiple targets.

After rapture of rupture is cast, the caster can touch one target per round until she has touched a number of targets equal to her caster level.

The same creature cannot be affected twice by the same rapture of rupture.

A creature with no discernible anatomy is unaffected by this spell.

When the caster touches a subject, his flesh bursts open suddenly in multiple places.

Each subject takes 6d6 points of damage and is stunned for 1 round; a successful Fortitude save reduces damage by half and negates the stun effect.

Subjects who fail their Fortitude save continue to take 1d6 points of damage per round until they receive magical healing, succeed at a Heal check (DC 20), or die.

If a subject takes 6 points of damage from rapture of rupture in a single round, he is stunned in the following round.

Corruption Cost: 1 point of Strength damage per target touched.

RESONATING RESISTANCE

Transmutation
Level: Clr 5, Mortal Hunter 4, Sor/Wiz 5
Components: V, Fiend
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Personal
Target: Caster
Duration: 1 minute/level
The caster improves his spell resistance. Each time a foe attempts to bypass the caster's spell resistance, it must make a spell resistance check twice. If either check fails, the foe fails to bypass the spell resistance. The caster must have spell resistance as an extraordinary ability for resonating resistance to function. Spell resistance granted by a magic item or the spell resistance spell does not improve.

ROTTING CURSE OF URFESTRA

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Corrupt 3
Components: V, S, Corrupt
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Touch
Target: Living creature touched
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates
Spell Resistance: Yes
The subject's flesh and bones begin to rot. The subject takes 1d6 points of Constitution damage immediately, and a further 1d6 points of Constitution damage every hour until the subject dies or the curse is removed with a wish, miracle, or remove curse spell. Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Strength damage.

SEETHING EYEBANE

Transmutation [Evil, Acid]
Level: Corrupt 1
Components: V, S, Corrupt
Casting Time: 1 action
Range: Touch
Target: Creature touched
Duration: Instantaneous
Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (see text)
Spell Resistance: Yes
The subject's eyes burst, spraying acid upon everyone within 5 feet. The subject is blinded and takes 1d6 points of acid damage. Those sprayed take 1d6 points of acid damage (Reflex save for half). Creatures without eyes can't be blinded, but they might take acid damage if someone nearby is the subject of seething eyebane. Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Constitution damage.

SERPENTS OF THEGGERON

Transmutation [Evil]
Level: Corrupt 3
Components: S, Corrupt
Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level

The caster's arms turn into serpents that can be used as natural weapons.

The serpents provide the caster with 10-foot reach.

They have an attack bonus of +10 (plus caster's Strength modifier) and they deal 1d8 points of damage (plus her Strength modifier).

If the caster hits with a serpent, she has poisoned her foe.

The poison deals 1d6 points of Strength damage immediately and another 1d6 points of Strength damage 1 minute later.

Each instance of damage can be negated by a successful Fortitude save (DC 16).

As a full attack action, the caster can strike with both serpents at her full attack bonus.

Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Intelligence damage.

SLASH TONGUE

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Clr 0, Sor/Wiz 0

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One living creature with a tongue

Duration: 1 round

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject's tongue gets a thin cut.

The subject takes 1 point of damage and takes a -1 penalty on attack rolls, saving throws, skill checks, and ability checks on the following round due to the annoying pain.

SOUL'S TREASURE LOST

Transmutation

Level: Sor/Wiz 8

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Target: One creature

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates (object)

Spell Resistance: Yes

With a harsh word of power and a shake of her fist, the caster targets a single creature.

The spell ascertains the most valuable object currently in the subject's possession and disintegrates it.

This spell will not affect an artifact, but destroys the next most valuable object instead.

Material Component: A crushed ruby worth at least 500 gp.

SPIDER HAND

Transmutation

Level: Clr 1, Drd 1

Components: V, S

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster's hand

Duration: Concentration (up to 1 minute/level)

The caster detaches his hand, which transforms into a Small monstrous spider (see the Monster Manual) that he controls.

The caster can see through its eyes, and it can travel up to 20 feet per level away from him.

If the spider is killed or prevented from returning to the caster, his hand is restored when the spell ends, but he takes 1d6 points of damage.

If the caster directs the spider to return to his arm (a move-equivalent action), then lets the spell end, he takes no damage.

SPIDER LEGS

Transmutation

Level: Clr 2

Components: V, S, F

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 minute/level

The caster grows four long spider legs from the sides of her torso.

She can use these legs to move at a speed of 30 feet, no matter what the caster's normal speed is, as long as she carries less than her maximum load.

The caster can also use the extra legs to climb on vertical surfaces or even traverse ceilings as well as a spider does, with her hands completely free.

The caster has a climb speed of 15 feet.

A creature with a Strength score of at least 20 +1 per caster level can pull the caster off a wall or ceiling.

TONGUE OF BAALZEBUL

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Clr 1

Components: V, S, M, Drug

Casting Time: 1 full round

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 hour/level

The caster gains the ability to lie, seduce, and beguile with a devil's skill.

He gains a +2 competence bonus on Bluff, Diplomacy, and Gather Information checks.

Material Component: A tongue from any creature capable of speech.

Drug Component: Mushroom powder.

TONGUE SERPENTS

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 3

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 hour/level or until discharged

The caster's tongue becomes a little but powerful serpent that he may spit up to 30 feet away.

This serpent then makes a bite attack using the caster's melee attack bonus and dealing damage as a Tiny viper (see the Monster Manual).

The caster may create one such serpent for every four caster levels, spitting each one as a standard action. At the end of the spell's duration, the serpents become bloody bits of organic matter.
Material Component: A serpent's tongue.

TONGUE TENDRILS

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Sor/Wiz 1

Components: V, S, M

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Personal

Target: Caster

Duration: 1 hour/level or until discharged

The caster's tongue becomes a powerful tendril that she may spit up to 30 feet away.

This tendril wraps around a target, lashing it to something if possible.

The tendril makes a grapple attack using the caster's melee attack bonus, dealing no damage but starting a grapple as a Small creature with a Strength score of 20.

If the tendril wins the grapple check, it wraps around a limb or whatever is appropriate for the foe, lashing it to any nearby object.

Each tendril has AC 14, 10 hit points, and a break DC of 24. The caster may create up to one such tendril for every four caster levels, spitting each one as a standard action.

At the end of the spell's duration, the tendrils become bloody bits of organic matter.

Material Component: A serpent's tongue.

TOUCH OF JUIBLEX

Transmutation [Evil]

Level: Corrupt 3

Components: V, S, Corrupt

Casting Time: 1 action

Range: Touch

Target: Creature touched

Duration: Instantaneous

Saving Throw: Fortitude negates

Spell Resistance: Yes

The subject turns into green slime over the course of 4 rounds.

If a remove curse, polymorph other, heal, greater restoration, limited wish, miracle, or wish spell is cast during the 4 rounds of transformation, the subject is restored to normal but still takes 3d6 points of damage.

Corruption Cost: 1d6 points of Strength damage.

CHAMPIONS OF RUIN (3.5)

ABJURATION

BATTLE LINE

Abjuration

Level: Initiate of Gruumsh 2

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Close (25 ft. + 5 ft./2 levels)

Area: Up to two contiguous 5-ft. squares/level, maximum 10 squares (S)

Duration: 1 round/level

Saving Throw: See text

Spell Resistance: See text

By means of this spell you draw a visible, unholy "line in the sand" that causes a feeling of dread and hesitation in all creatures that cross it.

Any creature entering the affected area must make a Will save or become shaken.

A creature that successfully saves cannot be affected again by the same spellcaster's battle line spells for 24 hours.

MANTLE OF THE SLIME LORD

Abjuration

Level: Initiate of Ghaunadaur 7

Components: V, S, DF

Casting Time: 1 standard action

Range: Personal

Effect: Nimbus of divine energy

Duration: 10 minutes/level (D)

Saving Throw: None

Spell Resistance: No

This spell causes a glossy nimbus of energy to surround you.

This barrier looks like a gelatinous layer of thick, dirty water to observers, but it does not hinder you in the least. While the mantle is active, nonintelligent oozes will not attack you unless you attack them.

In addition, you gain immunity to poison, sleep effects, paralysis, polymorph, and stunning effects.

Lastly, when a critical hit or sneak attack is scored on you, there is a 75% chance that the critical hit or sneak attack is negated and damage is instead rolled normally.
