THE RIVERWALK SOCIETY

DILETTANTE

The Riverwalk Society has been established only recently by Master Bard Sovonich of Rhynehurst. The Society is dedicated to furthering arts and culture within Verbobonc, as well as preserving the lore of this fair land. Its symbol is a white silhouette of a lark flying above a field of blue

Benefits:

A Song for Dinner: Riverwalk Society members maintain their lifestyle by performing. A Dilettante receives standard lifestyle for free when playing any adventure set in the region of Verbobonc.

The Silver Tongue: Riverwalk members learn that successful artists must be social and willing to perform anywhere. Dilettantes gain a +1 circumstance bonus on Diplomacy, Gather Information, and Perform skill checks.

Access to the Societies Private Collection : Riverwalk members gain access to the Riverwalk Society's private library. While primarily a place of research, the members use it socialize as well. Dilettantes that make Bardic Knowledge checks while here receive a +2 circumstance bonus.

Tools of the Trade: Dilettantes receive a common musical instrument, entertainer's outfit and courtier's outfit upon joining.

Penalties:

The Life of an Artist: The church of Saint Cuthbert views the Riverwalk Society as a distraction to the commonfolk. It believes that the societies members lack the desire to do real work. Because of this the starting attitude for NPCs of the church is one category worse when attempting a Diplomacy check.
